

Important Postal Notes Concerning Christmas

1. The Post Office will remain open all day on Saturday, Dec. 14 and Saturday, Dec. 21 in order to facilitate the handling of the Christmas mails.

2. Pack and wrap your Christmas parcels to stand the roughest handling. Place the address and your return address neatly ON ONE SIDE ONLY.

Do not place Christmas seals of Tuberculosis stamps on the address side of either letters or parcels.

Remember if your parcels are sealed you must have a parcel post sticker attached, otherwise the seals will have to be broken.

3. For all those receiving mail on city delivery please notify your correspondents of your correct address. CITY DELIVERY MAIL MUST BE ADDRESSED TO STREET AND NUMBER.

4. Rural carriers will start on their routes at 11:00 A. M. until further notice. Patrons on the rural routes are urged to have their letters stamped before placing in boxes.

5. No Christmas card enclosed in an envelope can be mailed for 1c. (Remember, any written matter enclosed in an envelope requires 3c postage—regardless of being sealed or unsealed.) Christmas cards mailed in envelopes unsealed take 1 1-2c postage.

Christmas cards mailed in envelopes unsealed with 1 1-2c postage thereon cannot be forwarded to another address neither can they be returned to the sender. They are third class matter and not entitled to preferred handling. Add a little distinction to your Christmas greetings this year and mail them by FIRST CLASS MAIL.

6. There will be much confusion during this Christmas season due to the re-arranging of the city routes. The Christmas mailings are expected to be very heavy. Your patience and cooperation is desired when we deliver your mail to the wrong box or the wrong address. Don't fuss at the clerk when you have to stand in a long line to mail your parcels. The chances are that he is just as tired as you are—if not more so. Every effort will be made to serve you efficiently and with every courtesy because we want to deliver you a Merry Christmas. SPECIAL NOTICE—The embargo is now on for all parcel post packages weighing over 5 pounds.

County-City Officials Attending Meets

Judge H. R. Winston and the County Commissioners at San Antonio this week attending state conference of Judges and Commissioners, mostly pertaining to road building.

Mayor Jordan, Fire Chief Eunice Jones, and Secretary Tommy Zorns, are at Harlingen attending a state convention of municipal officials.

DISTRICT COURT HOLDS SHORT SESSION HERE

District Judge Louis B. Reed and his court reporter were here Monday, disposing of a number of divorce cases. His next session is scheduled for first week in January.

PLAINS BOY GOES TO CHICAGO

R. B. Jones of Plains, was awarded a free trip by the Santa Fe Railroad, to the 4-H Congress, to be held in Chicago this week, for his club work achievement. He left last Friday.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones, prominent residents of Plains. His father was for several years assistant cashier of the Brownfield State Bank in its early history.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Winston Reeves, of Lubbock, were guests of Mrs. C. F. Hamilton for Thanksgiving.

Deputy Tax Collector Herbert Chesshir announced this week that over sixty per cent of the state and county taxes for the county have been paid up to date, and are still coming in rapidly. This is considered good for this time of year.

Masonic Body Honors Local Citizen

The Grand Chapter of Texas Masons adjourned the annual convention at Waco, Tuesday of this week. Masons, unlike other fraternal bodies, do not meet at different places over the State, but always at Waco, where the grand lodge has a temple and permanent headquarters.

Burton G. Hackney, local attorney, was signally honored by being elected grand orator. Our little city takes this honor personally, and we are happy to have a comparatively young citizen able to climb the ladder so fast in this great fraternity.

In addition, Jesse D. Cox, a former citizen and Mayor from 1942 to 1944, but who now lives at Melvin, was elected Grand High Priest of the Royal Arch Chapter.

Then there was our old time friend, Ben Hurst, manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber Co. at Wellington and formerly in the same capacity here, was in attendance and his mug was smeared over Wednesday's Star-Telegram.

Ben was a real old timer here, and was playing nurse maid to Tom and Ib Ivey's cows on their ranch when we arrived here 37 years ago last January.

These three, as well as many other Brownfield and Terry county citizens stand high in the Masonic fraternity.

Rat Proofing Housing Pamphlet Off Press

AUSTIN—In a preventive program directed against typhus fever in Texas, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has prepared for distribution through the State and Local Health Departments, a pamphlet explaining the importance of incorporation rat-proofing in the construction of new buildings.

"I am anxious to have this pamphlet in the hands of every builder and prospective builder in Texas," Dr. Cox said. "Detailed drawings show how simply and cheaply fundamental rat proofing can be incorporated in designing a building."

The booklet further explains how much less expensive it is to include rat-proofing in the construction, than it is to make a building rat-proof after it is already built.

"When we build new homes in Texas, they should be for our families only. Rats should be excluded," Dr. Cox declared. "When a new home is not rat-proofed, the rats usually move in about the same time your family does. As long as this continues, typhus fever menaces your family and community."

The booklet may be procured from your local health department, or by writing the State Health Department, Austin, Texas, and every prospective home builder in Texas is urged to procure a copy before completing the plans for a home.

Combines Being Stolen By Thieves

That thieves keep pace with the progress of the times, was shown last week, when two Terry county young men, were arrested and jailed, charged with stealing two grain combines.

They were taken from an adjoining county and brought here to their owners.

MRS. CHAMBLISS QUILTS CONCESSION STAND

The cold drink and confectionery stand in the court house, operated by Mrs. Chambliss, is being removed. This stand was set up by the Lions Club to aid this blind woman, but she has been in failing health lately and is retiring. It is not thought it will be re-opened for some time.

Bernard Lay was in from the farm this week, and dropped into the Herald office holding his jaw. The dentist had just fished out one of his molars.

J. E. Burnett and wife from El Centro, Calif., came in last week to be at his dad and mother's table for the Thanksgiving turkey. J. E. says it sure has been raining out there in southern California all of late.

Eleven Brownfield Residents Complete Red Cross First Aid Course

Certificates arrived from the American Red Cross office in St. Louis recently for eleven Brownfield citizens who completed two First Aid courses. Seven men who completed a standard course in First Aid, instructed by Lewis Simmonds, are, Amos A. Eggan, O. H. Murray, George B. Summerhill, Maurice G. Cole, B. W. Powell, M. L. Williams and M. F. Penicks.

Miss Kathleen Hardin was the instructor for a group of women who received certificates. They are Mrs. Mon Telford, Sr., Mrs. Mon Telford, Jr., Mary Frances Hall, and Mrs. Joe Bryant.

Any group or organization wishing to take First Aid training will get in touch with the First Aid and Accident Prevention Chairman of Terry County, Lewis Simmonds, at the Brownfield Funeral Home. Many of the larger companies and several of the departments of the State of Texas require employees to have First Aid training as it helps to make the workman safety-minded and cuts down the hours lost due to injuries. First Aid training also gives a person the knowledge necessary to render aid to a victim of any accident he comes upon until the services of a physician can be secured.

The same question was asked a half dozen ladies running the presses, repairing and clerical department, even including his wife. We received a negative answer.

Of course that was nearly a week before check writing day, and all of them probably will convince Doug that they were just joking.

Judge Linclon Member National American Legion Committee

Austin, November—Judge Linclon of Brownfield is among 43 new appointments from Texas to national American Legion Committees, Bert E. Giesecke, Austin, department commander, announced today. Judge Linclon has been made a member of the national distinguished guests committee.

URGES LARGE TURNOUT ON COMMITTEE ELECTIONS

Mr. Pearce Warren, Chairman of the Terry County Agricultural Conservation Committee, today issued a final appeal to farmers to attend their local farm-program committee elections, now in progress throughout the county.

Polling Places are as follows: Meadow, school building; Challis, school building; Pleasant Valley, AAA office; Union, AAA office; Scudday, AAA office; Wellman, school building; Lahey, AAA office; Tokio, Post Office; Johnson, school building; and Pool, school building.

Three regular committee members and two alternates will be chosen in each community. A delegate also will be elected to the county convention, which later will choose the county committee of three members.

"Farmers have a big voice in national farm programs through the farmer-elected committeemen system," Mr. Warren said. "A good turn-out will show that they believe in this way of running the programs."

"The coming year is sure to bring new reconversion problems, and the committeemen will have heavy responsibilities. By casting their ballots, farmers can make sure that the men administering the programs are the men most familiar with local needs. We hope that every eligible farmer will take time to vote."

S. W. White, erstwhile citizen of the Meadow section of old Terry, was in this week for a short chat, and to have his paper sent to Lometa, Texas. He has sold his ranch in Mason county, and has purchased a farm in the Lometa area. But his invitation to us to come down and fish still stands, he said.

Veterans Administration estimated the veteran population at nearly 17,900,000 on Oct. 31, an increase of more than 150,000 over Sept. 30.

Doug Jones Couldn't Prove He Worked

"Tother day we had business over at the motor freight depot, and as we left, a guy hurried by like a pioneer running from a lot of Indians. It was the honorable Douglas Jones, and he was slipping in the back way to his cleaning plant. Of course we asked his apparent hurry.

"Got to get to work," says he, in substance, using some better English than we employed. Yet a thought came to us. We frequently go into Dug's cleanery via the front door, but we did not remember ever having seen Doug in there. True we had seen his better half and perhaps a half dozen other men and women, but no Doug.

So, we just enter with him, and as there were three men in the back running the machines that "get the dirt by leave the cloth," we propounded the question: "Did you ever see Douglas Jones at work?" There was a solemn but unanimous "NO!"

Funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist church of Brownfield, which he helped to organize and of which he was an official and an ardent member, at 2:30 P. M., Sunday, by the Pastor, Rev. R. N. Huckabee, assisted by Rev. Ed Tharp, former Pastor, who paid an emotional eulogy to his friend, the deceased, and by Rev. J. N. Hester.

Jerrell Price Makes All-State Team

The Fort Worth Star Telegram announced Sunday the first, second, third and fourth All-State High School Football Teams for the season just ended, and names Jerrell Price, star right tackle, on its first team. The article, in addition, further complimented Price, also mentioning his cousin, Donald Price and gives honorable mention to Tommy Adams.

The selection is made by votes of coaches and reporters from teams in nine districts of all parts of Texas, and Price led the ticket as he did his team.

One noticeable feature of this poll is that most of the winners are from teams that did not enter district finals.

Jerrell is the son of Sheriff and Mrs. Joe B. Price.

County's Birth Rate Growing Fast

While a large crop of grain is being harvested, and is surprising considering the drought, the same is not surprising for an increase in birth rate.

Justice W. H. Dallas announced this week that he had registered 51 births for the month of November, as compared with a monthly average of 35 for the past year.

TEEN AGE CANTEN CARRYING ON

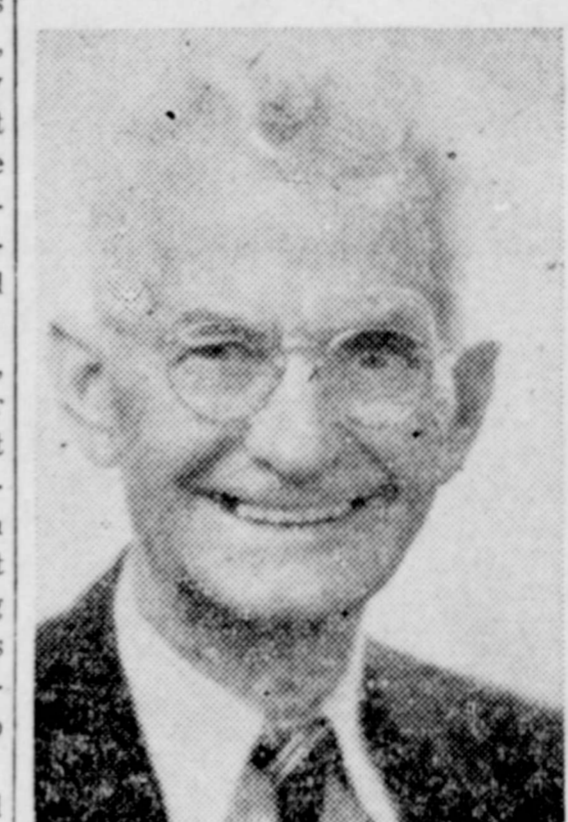

The Teen Age Canteen, sponsored by the mothers of this city, entertained at the Legion Hall Monday night. This club, which meets there from 7:30 to 9:30 each Monday and Friday evening, treats the youngsters to wholesome entertainment, such as ping pong and other games, and dancing. These meetings are being well attended with a high purpose of clean entertainment for our youngsters.

As result of past week's fair weather, a surprising amount of threshed grain sorghums continues pouring into our local elevators.

Less than one-half of one per cent of all veteran's loans approved for guaranty by Veterans Administration were in default by the end of September.

JOHN S. POWELL, BROWNFIELD PIONEER, DIES

Johns S. Powell, better known among his many friends as "Pappy John," one of the pioneer builders of this city, passed away last Saturday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rufus Rush, at Lubbock.

JOHN S. POWELL

Funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist church of Brownfield, which he helped to organize and of which he was an official and an ardent member, at 2:30 P. M., Sunday, by the Pastor, Rev. R. N. Huckabee, assisted by Rev. Ed Tharp, former Pastor, who paid an emotional eulogy to his friend, the deceased, and by Rev. J. N. Hester.

Following services here, the body was carried to Lubbock by the Brownfield Funeral Home for shipment to Marshall, Texas, to be interred in the old family plot by the side of his wife who predeceased him 12 years ago. He observed his eightieth birthday only a week before; had been in failing health the past two months.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Rush, and by nine grandchildren. His eldest daughter, Mrs. Jesse Hamilton, died many years ago. His youngest daughter, Kathryn Anderson, died a Fort Worth three years ago.

Pappy John, with his family, came to Brownfield in 1906, helped to organize and remained an official in the Brownfield State Bank. He was active in civic improvements and religious society, organized and was instructor in several bands here. He maintained the family residence here on Powell Street—named for him—until his death.

Active pallbearers were: Leo Holmes, J. O. Gillham, Darrell Moorhead, Milton Bell, Sawyer Graham and Homan Moorhead. The Board of Stewards of the First Methodist church served as honorary pallbearers.

Singing Announced At Four Square Church

The pastor of the Four Square church, Rev. Westbrook, has extended a cordial invitation for a Sing-Song, beginning at 2:30 this coming Sunday afternoon.

The Sing-Song has been set up one week due to Christmas coming so close to the third Sunday. All cordially invited.

IN NEW LOCATION

Bill McKinney is now located in his new office which was formerly the Sandra Sue Beauty Shop. The building has been made quite attractive with new improvements.

All farmers who have not made request for prior approval for carrying out soil building practices such as leaving grain sorghum stubbles and deep breaking must do so at once or they will not be eligible for payment under the 1946 program.

Domestic wheat supplies in 1946-47 are now estimated at over 1,269 million bushels, consisting of a carry-over of 101 million bushels and a prospective crop of 1,160 million bushels.

Wright & Eaves Are Going Places

There is not an institution in this city that would rather see the deserving grow than this paper. The Herald has been on the job so long in Brownfield that firms that are now well established and have spread all over creation, were once in our memory just modest little firms seeking a place in the sun.

Among the newer firms in our fine little city that are really climbing the ladder of success, is Wright & Eaves, on the west side of the public square. Mr. Wright first opened a radio repair shop in a modest way just a few years ago, to be later joined by Mr. Eaves.

During the war years, new stuff was out of the question, and even repairs were hard to get, but somehow they managed to get enough material to keep going, and the radios of the town kept giving off some noise. The feat was remarkable. Sometimes they would be a week, or even two weeks getting out a job, but they stayed with it.

At first the shop was just a few feet of the front end of the store. Casual visitors noticed that the partitions had been moved back since their last visit. Now it is away back, and the building is full of repair parts, etc.

In addition, they are stocking as fast as possible the Crosley Shelvevadors and Crosley Radios, and hope to be able to fill all orders for these popular lines, promptly in the future. Yes, Wright & Eaves are going places.

Army Air Film To Be Shown Here

The VFW post here announced this week that on next Tuesday, December 10, at 7:30 P. M., a film will be shown here by the army air force recruiting station at Lubbock. The show will be in addition to the regular VFW meeting.

The show will last for one and a half hours, and all members are urged to attend. The film will be exhibited at the American Legion hall.

Local Man Dies Of Heart Attack

James C. Hutcheson, aged 39, who had only been here three weeks, in the employ of Cobb Dept. store, died suddenly of a heart attack, last Saturday afternoon. The body was carried by Brownfield Funeral Home Sunday morning to Breckenridge, for funeral services and interment there.

He is survived by his wife and three daughters, of Lubbock, and his mother, Mrs. Maude Hutcheson, of Weatherford, and a brother at Bridgeport.

TWO DRAW JAIL SENTENCES FOR DRUNK DRIVING

Two young men, on pleas of guilty in County Court last week, were assessed a fine of $100 and thirty days in jail for one, and the other, $50 fine and 15 days in jail, on charges of driving a car while drunk. Officers stated one of them narrowly escaped a collision that would likely have been fatal to others.

Our old friend, L. F. Hudgins of Stephenville, dropped in on us one day last week for a sizable chat. For many years Mr. Hudgins was in business here, and his daughter, Mrs. Kyle and family, still reside here. The family has had its share of misfortune of late. Claude got badly hurt in Louisiana, and he reported that his wife was on the north Plains with her daughter, who was expecting a new arrival.

Mrs. Harold Bradberry and Glen Powell, of Abilene, attended the funeral of Pappy John Powell, Sunday.

Many Crippled Children Being Aided Here

Part of the work of the State Department of Public Welfare is extending aid to crippled children. The State has long since maintained schools and asylums for the deaf and dumb, the blind and orphans, but only in recent years set up a fund and personnel to extend aid and schooling for crippled children, most of whom are those afflicted with bodily deficiency from birth. These unfortunates often have parents unable to give them special treatment.

Mrs. Griffith, County Health Nurse, stated this week that her department had extended such aid to 35 children during this year. Some have been cured of their affliction; others are still under the treatment; some are in schools. Two of the several polio cases have been discharged, while three are being treated at the Plainview polio hospital.

Mrs. Griffin encountered varied experience in this work, noting some parents would not co-operate and even decline this proffered aid through some complex fear, even through they, themselves were unable to care for the afflicted child, and when through the facilities of the State hospitals these children may be returned to normal, or prepared for independent life. This department is a benevolent effort on the part of a great state to aid its unfortunates.

Cubs Win Their Final Game

It was last but not least for the Brownfield Cubs, when in last Thursday's Thanksgiving game, with and at Borger, they upset the dope bucket by scoring over the touted Borger Bulldogs, 7-6. Though they lost all the other games, it was freely remarked by fans that the team played excellent games, never gave up, and their losses were only by narrow margins.

Basketball Season Opening Up Here

With the closing last week of the scholastic football season, all but district and state finals, the basketball season was quick to take over. Brownfield High school has organized a team each with the Juniors, Seniors, Freshmen and Sophomores, and have begun their intermural games this week. Games are to be refereed by Clyde Bond, Jr.

Monday night, the girls all-star team defeated the Wellman girls 16 to 9 at the local gym. Tonight the Brownfield Cubs play the Levelland team at Levelland, and next Tuesday night, Levelland returns the game here.

The GI's, who now are in school, are organizing a team, and have four signed up. Babe Lincoln, Pat McMillan, Ben Kennedy, and Arnold Dalton. They expect to finish the team this week.

It is not thought now the girls will have a team here this season.

Also, last Monday night, the Juniors scored over the Sophs, 18 to 4, and the Senior boys over the Agriculturalists, 31 to 12.

Schedule of games in the district have not been arranged as yet, but expect to fill the season.

It is being arranged for the Army and Navy teams, with same boys who played a scoreless tie on Armistice Day, to play it over on Christmas Eve.

Phillip Rogers, cousin of the Old He, came in last Saturday from Middleton, Tenn., and was after, to his notion, the sweetest girl in all the world. When we brought Phillip home with us last May, we little expected to introduce him to his future wife.

As we understand it, our Texas teachers, in the recent convention at Houston, refused to unionize. Texas teachers know that people who pay the taxes, and they run from the lord and his lady to the chambermaid, are getting fed up on strikes and strikers, and they have a quicker and surer way of getting a raise than that. Texas school teachers are not asking for aid or sympathy; they ask for justice, and they know if they will get their case before the people in its true light, the people will get their case before the legislature, the only powers that be outside the local school boards, who can appropriate money for raise in salary. High officials of the state, both outgoing and incoming, have expressed sympathy for a good hefty hike in salaries for them, and many local school boards have submitted tax raises and those we have heard of have carried. But there is a limit, and many districts have their limit, so their relief lays in the legislative move. But many people are opposed to making a constitutional limit either way, as of course the bubble will burst one of these days, and for that reason it seems that most people in most states refuse to write any stated salary into the constitution. With it in the constitution, when other salaried workers' pay might be greatly cut or their jobs stopped entirely, and farm products might drop to a new low and all other business suffer in proportion, the balance of the people would be at a great disadvantage and an almost unbearable burden placed on their shoulders. But any fair minded person must agree that right at this time, Texas teachers, as well as other all over America are badly underpaid. Let's give our faithful school teachers a break with the rest of the workers.

Of late, Terry county farmers have been working almost day and night to get their feed combined before the stalks drop over, and they lose this precious grain. Of late, we have noted that not a few run on Sunday, and we might easily say "the ox is in the ditch." Lord knows the farmers have had an uphill fight to make anything the past two years, and after the harvest is ready, to fool around and let the grain ruin would be not unlike the Bible character who built more barns, but lost both the crop and his soul.

If we have read one reason for the overturn of the Congress from Democratic to GOP, we have read scores, but the most plausible yet offered, it seems to us, is that the big majority of silent Americans are now ready for more honest toil for the money, and less gravy train riding. In the language of a school superintendent we knew when we first landed in Texas 46 years ago, "what we need is "more work and less pretention." The big bubble is going to burst one of these days for those who are "rattling" on the job, and getting just as much money for the least possible work. The bubble will blow up in their faces and they will join a long line of similar brethren at some charity soup kitchen. It will be hard for the real workers to get a job, and the known shirkers will get the layoff.

We may say or think what we will about President Truman; we may question many of his motives and indecisions, but we cannot deny the fact that he wants to get along with the opposition party, and evidence of that started long before the election. He has appointed many leading Republicans to positions of trust, especially in roles of foreign affairs. Truman was slow in kicking out Comrade Wallace and beginning a fight with Dictator Lewis, and a lot of us can't condone the hitch-up he had with the Pendergast machine in Missouri. We can sort of understand the delayed action on Wallace and Lewis, but can't figure why he is so familiar with a rotten political machine when he doesn't really need the machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hafner, Jr., spent the holiday in Lovington with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe White were called to Sulphur Springs Friday due to the serious illness of Mr. White's father.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

By Reynolds Knight

New York, Dec. 2—Recent statistics of automobile production draw a clear picture of one of the fundamental weaknesses of the present economic situation—inefficient production. It has contributed perhaps more to smaller company profits and to higher prices for the things we buy than have higher wages. In a comparison of wages, employment and production for January, 1941, and July, 1946, the Automobile Manufacturers Association reports weekly wages for the 1946 month as 76 per cent higher and the number of workers 25 per cent greater than five years ago. However, the incentive of higher wages and the advantage of a substantially larger working force were accompanied by a decrease of more than 40 per cent in production. That is a condition which can not continue to exist without affecting the whole national economy, which includes the jobs, the income and the standard of living to all of us. Work creates wealth and conversely the less work we do the less wealth we have. Carried to its ultimate, we would all quit work entirely and eventually we would all have nothing.

THINGS TO COME—Sun-visors, automobile windshields, goggles and packaging materials made of a new plastic which will transmit visible light, but will absorb ultra-violet rays and infra-red rays . . . A new "image intensifier," which will make visible in the dark outlines too dim to be seen by ordinary eyesight . . . A helicopter with insecticide blowers for use in dusting and spraying crops. Experiments have been declared successful not only in orchards and vineyards, but also for such crops as potatoes, peas, beans, squash and onions . . . A new aircraft muffler which is said to eliminate 90 per cent of the noise from an engine exhaust . . . A non-glare, electric self-defrosting windshield which operates independently of the automobile's heating system. The heat is created by an electric-conducting coating applied between the two pieces of safety glass . . . A device to lift and lower awnings from the interior of the house. It is constructed of aluminum parts . . . A dog leash which may be lengthened by pressing a button on the handle. It has a stainless steel cable fitted with a chrome-plated alloy steel hook . . . The new electronic blanket of Simmons gets a nod from Thea Tewi, recently voted top lingerie designer, who is pleased that it will enable women to wear sheer nightgowns even on winter nights.

CORONET SPOTLIGHTS TEXAS' HOME-GROWN CIRCUS

"The Gainesville circus—a truly home-grown show—has become the envy of professionals throughout the entertainment world," said Billy Rose, as quoted in the December Coronet article, "Biggest Home-Town Show on Earth."

Describing the beginning and growth of Gainesville's unique community enterprise, the article tells of the first showing in May, 1930, when the circus cost $300 to produce and grossed $420. Today the show is such a rousing success that it gives performances in other Texas towns and in Oklahoma.

The circus has no professional entertainers, no elephants, no tigers or side show, yet it is rated the fourth largest circus in the United States. Among the clowns are a county judge and a doctor. The equestrian director and ring master is the manager of the local ice company. A housewife is a star bareback rider. There is no shortage of talent in Gainesville.

The high school gymnasium sports the best of circus equipment to produce an aerialist or acrobat. When they are ready for the circus, they may join one of the featured acts, such as the ballet of girls on flying ladders, single and double trapezes, or the quintuple trapeze on which five girls perform simultaneously. True to the tradition of Texas daring, the highly trained performers scorn nets. They have never had a fatal accident.

This year, promises Coronet, the circus is "better than ever," because many of the boys and girls have come back from the services. Everyone still wants to get into the act—and will—when Gainesville, Texas, stages the new edition of its fabulous community circus.

TEXAS FARMERS PASS BILLION MARK IN '46

AUSTIN, Nov. 27.—Farming in Texas has become a billion-dollar business in the first 10 months of this year.

The University of Texas Bureau of Business research reported today that Texas farmers took in $1,018,980,000 in the 10 months, January through October, as compared to $915,047,000 for the corresponding 10 months of 1945.

The difference represented a gain of 11 percent or 8,661,000 per month thus far this year.

Preliminary estimate of October farm cash income was $221,471,000, or a 64 per cent increase over September. About half of the October increase was due to seasonal factors and the remaining gain to marketings of cotton prior to the price break, coupled with peak prices for other farm crops and livestock, the report said.

October farm income was 47 percent higher this year than for October a year ago.

Only the lower Rio Grande valley failed to show a larger cash take for farmers in October this year than a year ago. Elsewhere gains ranged from 11 per cent in the southern Texas plains to 112 per cent in the Trans-Pecos area. Valley income was held down at the opening of the season by a weak price situation and lowered marketings.

STOVER NOW SHELLBACK

Eugene M. Stover, electrician's mate, second class, husband of Mrs. Mary Stover of 216 East Broadway, Brownfield, Texas, has been initiated into the Royal order of the Deep aboard the destroyer USS John P. Kennedy, while crossing the equator in company with the aircraft carrier USS Leyte and the battleship USS Wisconsin on a tour of South American ports.

King Neptune and his party came aboard the ship near Valparaiso, Chile, and passed sentence on all "polywogs." "Shellbacks," men who have previously crossed the imaginary line, initiated the newcomers. On completion of the rites the men were officially declared "Shellbacks" and King Neptune returned to his watery domain.

FALL FALLOWED PIG SUPPLY SHORT

College Station—Supply of fall-farrowed pigs in Texas will be very short this year, according to a survey made by E. M. Regenbrecht, swine husbandman of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

The survey was conducted among county agricultural agents and swine breeders in the state to determine the number of pure-bred pigs that are available for distribution as pure breeding stock.

Reports indicate, says Regenbrecht, that very large numbers of fall farrowed pure-bred pigs at weaning time were sold to farmers for feeding purposes at very attractive prices. Apparently, the recent removal of ceiling prices on fat hogs, with the sudden resulting price increase, has caused farmers who have a feed supply on hand to think in terms of feeding it to hogs, Regenbrecht explains. Prices for fat hogs have climbed to as high as 25 cents per pound. This sudden change in prices for market hogs has developed a strong demand for feeder pigs.

Demand for good pure-bred breeding stock is very strong at present and the supply is scarce, the swine husbandman points out. Breeders who have a supply of breeding stock on hand are inclined to want to keep the animals for breeding purposes on their own farms, thereby expanding operations. Quality of fall farrowed pig crop is one of the best Texas has ever produced, Regenbrecht says.

COAL STRIKE MAY CHILL CONGRESS

Washington, Nov. 21.—The new Congress, which is expected to rewrite the nation's labor laws, may have a pretty cold time of it.

The Capitol, with other government buildings here, has a coal pile of about 40,000 tons. If it's used sparingly, it will last five to six weeks.

That would exhaust the stock by Jan. 1—and the new Congress meets Jan. 3. Unless the Congressional coal pile gets more fuel the new Congress could be just as cold as anyone else.

The Capitol power plant is one of the coal industry's best customers. It provides heat, light and power for the Capitol, its office buildings and several other government buildings. The Capitol burns over 80,000 tons of coal a year.

Montgomery Family Returns To Texas

The Purnell Montgomery family, Leroy Green, LaVerne and son, Leon, are now enjoying home in Brownfield after being away several months, Leroy in the service of U. S., the Montgomerys vacationing, sightseeing and working in the state of California, a few days ago turned their backs to the Great State, leaving all the hustle, bustle, noisy activities behind.

Have mentioned before the route we traveled going out in a brief way, through New Mexico by Santa Fe, to Durango, Colo., Montrose, across Utah, by Gunnison, to Ely, Nevada, Tonopah, to Bishop, Calif., through Yosemite National Park, and to the East San Francisco Bay area and Suisun Bay.

Here we spent our time as mentioned before. When not at work, we traveled about seeing the country. Went up to Sacramento, the state capital. We saw a lot of fruits and vegetables, also many beautiful flowers and shrubs. California has so many different kinds of pretty trees.

We saw the Leslie Salt Factory while there. There was the Holly Sugar Factory and many large canneries, including Libby, McNeil and Libby and Heinz.

Our trip home was enjoyable. We came the southern route to miss the snow. Came by Bakersfield, Barstow, by Phoenix, Ariz., Casa Grande, Tucson, By Las Cruces, N. M., Alamogordo, Roswell and home.

We camped out at night along the road, as we took a trailer with plenty of camp supplies and provisions. Camping out has lots of enjoyment. Sure is good to be back in good old T-e-x-a-s. I believe it is best after all. At least it is quieter.—Contributed.

Santa Fe Report On Texas Crops

Heavy rainfall during the past 30 days, with both Dallas and Beaumont reporting approximately 12 inches in one week, delayed crop harvesting in general but the moisture was beneficial to pastures. Very little cold weather has been experienced so far, only a few light frosts in low places, and vegetable crops in the Gulf area continue to make satisfactory progress.

Rice harvest was delayed by heavy rains and considerable damage resulted where rice remained in the hull. Binders were used to help save the crop in the wet area and, with combining resumed the past week, 75 per cent of the crop has been harvested. Rice mills are running full blast and heavy sales are reported. Production is estimated at 17,200,000 bushels, compared with 18,000,000 bushels last year.

The cotton picture remains dark; with 5 per cent of crop still in the field considered lost due to bad weather. Much of this acreage will be plowed under to eradicate weevils and other insects. Another 50,000 bales was lopped off in October and production is now estimated at 1,700,000 bales. Harvest is nearing completion in the northwest where only irrigated cotton made satisfactory yields.

Texas produced a good corn crop of 67,456,000 bushels, most of which was harvested early and will be fed locally to livestock. Peanuts have been damaged by heavy rains, although some moisture was helpful to the late crop in some areas. After showing some improvement following the summer drouth, grain sorghums were checked by frost and production was again curtailed. Forage supplies, however, are more than ample, with harvest almost completed.

Nearly all of the winter wheat in northwest Texas has been sowed and estimates of acreage increase over last year range from five to ten percent. There is an abundance of moisture, the subsoil being well soaked, and the outlook is exceptionally bright. Wheat pasture is attracting great herds of cattle and sheep at this time.

Fall and winter grains elsewhere generally are in good condition, although some insect damage is reported in the central part of the state.

Union News

Thanksgiving was spent quietly in this community. The school was dismissed but most of the children helped their parents gather crops. Most farmers took advantage of the pretty weather and combined feed during the day.

A queen has been chosen from each grade to be nominee in the election which is now in progress. The outcome from the election will be announced Friday night, Dec. 13th. The queen nominee from each grade follows: 1st Jamie Andress; 2nd, Peggy Herring; 3rd, Joyce Simmons; 4th Yvonne Snow; 5th-6th, Jeanne Sargent; 7th, Sadie Merle Shults; 8th, Emma Faye Baker; Freshman, Mary Jo Hadaway; Sophomore, Marcia Garner; Junior, Wanda Wood; Senior, Patsy Garner.

There will be an old fashioned box supper at the gymnasium on Friday night, Dec. 13th. Everyone is invited. As a climax to the box supper there will be a ceremony and the Queens elected will be crowned. There will be two Queens—one from the Grade School and one from High School.

Union boys and girls teams played basketball with Pettit two nights last week. The local teams were victorious in all the games.

The boys' and girls' coaches have matched games with Meadow this week. The games will be played on the Meadow court.

The Girls Grade School 4-H and High School 4-H Clubs met Dec. 3. Mrs. H. H. Hill, the girls' sponsor, met with them and gave an interesting demonstration on how to make inexpensive Christmas decorations. All members were present. The Union girls plan to have a "tacky party" some time this month.

Joe Don and Charlie Auburg spent the weekend in Turkey, Texas, visiting with their brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Auburg.

UNION 4-H CLUB NEWS

The Union Grade 4-H Club met Dec. 3, 1946 at 10:15. The program for the meeting was Christmas Decorations. Mrs. Hill, our sponsor, showed us how to make cheap Christmas decorations. To make cute tree decorations take lids of any kind, ruffle crepe paper to go around them and paint them. For a wreath, bend a coat hanger into an oval, take trimmings from Christmas tree limbs and tie them around the hanger. Spools can be made into cute Santa's. To make artificial snow stick to the tree, spray water on the branches of your tree, while still damp, sprinkle the snow over the tree.

There are always needs for cards. To make cute cards, trace a design or use spatter work on colored paper.

The girls of the Union Club plan a "tacky party" this month. Twenty-three members were present. Reporter.

Salmon are able to travel a hundred miles a week.

FAYE BELLE OLIVER AND PHILLIPS ROGERS EXCHANGE VOWS SUNDAY

Miss Faye Belle Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Oliver, of the Pleasant Valley community, and Mr. Phillips Rogers, of Middleton, Tenn., were united in marriage, Sunday, December 1st, at 2:30 P. M., in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, Sr., Brother Joe Chisholm, of the Church of Christ, read the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of winter white with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony for a wedding trip to Arlington and Paris, Texas and to Middleton, Tenn. For travelling, the bride chose a beige wool suit with brown accessories.

Only close friends and relatives were guests at the wedding.

GI Question And Answer Department

Schools and colleges that must provide additional facilities to train disabled veterans may ask the Veterans Administration to pay more than their usual tuition charges for these veterans, VA announced this week.

The adjusted rate, VA said, must not total more than the school's teaching and supply costs.

New regulations providing for adjustments in tuition payments for disabled veterans enrolled under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act apply only to non-profit, tax supported institutions, VA said.

VA has provided for the adjustments because it recognizes that many schools do not have a flexible income from taxes, endowments and other sources to cover additional expenses incurred during the present rush of thousands of veterans to college.

VA has made similar provisions for adjustment in tuition of students enrolled under the GI Bill.

Application for adjustment in the rate must be made to the VA regional office having jurisdiction before the beginning of the semester for which the adjustment is asked.

VA is allowing all schools until December 3, however, to submit their requests for adjustments for the present semester if the term began on or after September 1.

Farmers in the U. S. spent about 4.3 billion dollars for the operation and maintenance of power and machinery in 1945.

Veterans Administration cleared over 84,000 requests for physical examinations during September for pensions or compensations, the highest total to date.

Q—If a disabled veteran completed his on-the-job training and is unemployed can he draw unemployment compensation?

A—Yes. Under Public Law 346 (G. I. Bill), he may be entitled to readjustment allowance up to 52 weeks provided he is able to, and available for, work at the time. Any prior periods used for such purpose would be deducted from his maximum eligibility.

Q—May the wife or child of a veteran be granted hospital or domiciliary care by Veterans Administration because of the relationship to the veteran?

A—No. Admission to a Veterans Administration hospital or home is based on the service of a person in the armed forces and may be granted only to the persons who served.

Q—Is Veterans Administration issuing prosthetic service cards to amputee veterans?

A—Yes. Veterans wearing artificial limbs and who are entitled to repairs at Government expense may obtain a prosthetic service card. The card enables the veteran to obtain immediate repair service up to a limit of $35 without prior approval from Veterans Administration.

Q—Is it possible for a disabled veteran taking vocational training under Public Law 16 to make a small loan from the Government?

A—Yes, but loans cannot exceed $100 and they are made only to veterans approved for vocational rehabilitation when the need is shown.

Q—Am I entitled to an increase in compensation if my service-connected disability has increased since compensation was allowed?

A—Probably. The rate of increase of compensation depends upon the increase in disability as shown by proper examination by a VA physician and evaluation under the rating schedule.

Harmony H. D. Club Meets With Mrs. Kissinger

A luncheon and all day meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Kissinger, Thursday, Nov. 21, with fifteen members, three visitors and Miss Dunlap, present.

The house was called to order by our president, Mrs. Bell, and a report was given from the Council.

Mrs. Oden Miller gave a report from the recreation school which was very interesting, telling how to bake biscuits on a broom stick over a fire, and also how to cook eggs the same way.

Miss Dunlap made a good talk about Achievement Day.

The ladies of the club gave Mrs. Paul Gracey a sunshine shower. The bed was covered with beautiful gifts. A quilt was quilted for two quilts. This makes twenty-two quilts the ladies have quilted this year.

A number brought hot dish holders for the birthdays.

Our visitors were Mrs. W. Haggard from Fort Worth, Mrs. Willie May Norton of Union, and Mrs. J. T. Harris, of Brownfield.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Gill, Dec. 5th. Please come and help plan our Christmas party.—Reporter.

NEWSPRINT SHORTAGE HITS SMALLER PAPERS

Washington, Nov. 27 — Complaints from publishers indicate the biggest threat to the existence of small newspapers is the scarcity of newsprint at any price, a source close to the Senate Small Business committee said today.

Prompted by these and other complaints, the committee has sent questionnaires to 10,000 dailies and weeklies asking them to list what factors "imperil their existence as a profitable business in a competitive field."

Replies will be used as a basis for the committee hearing next month into the problems of small publishers.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hogue and son of Snyder, were here over the weekend visiting relatives.

Jo Pete May, Bill Redford, Ethelda Edwards and Jonelda were in Abilene for the Hardin-Simmons and Tech game, Saturday.

Mr. Dyar Oakley spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Ethelda Edwards and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Zorns were in Amarillo on business over the weekend.

easier job, Mrs. Claytor says.

But the payoff is the cheaper price, made possible by the tub's light weight. When the newly-designed tub hits the market, consumers will find it less costly than conventional types, since its lighter weight incurs less shipping costs.

"BATHTUB OF TOMORROW" LIGHTER AND CHEAPER

College Station — Now they're redesigning bathtubs, making them more convenient, lighter and less costly.

The "bathtub of tomorrow", which is already produced today, is radically designed, reports Mrs. Bernice Claytor, home management specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. The reservoir is set diagonally in the tub, an arrangement that leaves room on each end for an inside and outside bathtub seat.

Of standard length, the new tub is somewhat narrower than the regular type, which makes cleaning the wall back of the tub an

Bargains To Be Found In Eggs

College Station—Although egg prices are usually higher during the fall months than at any other season, USDA's Production and Marketing Administration Authorities say that the "bargains" are still there if the consumer will look for them.

Brown eggs, the PMA officials say, are a bargain at any season if the price is lower than that of white eggs of the same size and grade, because the food value of eggs is the same whether they are brown or white. Brown eggs have recently been selling in some large markets for as much as eight cents below prices for white eggs.

Small or pullet eggs, which are in plentiful supply this fall, are another good bargain, PMA says.

Generally, prices of pullet eggs have been lower in proportion to the food quantity represented than have prices for large eggs. A dozen pullet eggs, for example, average one-quarter less in weight or actual food quantity than large eggs, so the small eggs represents a bargain for the housewife whenever the price per dozen is less than three-quarters of the price of large eggs.

Small egg prices have been ranging considerably below their value in relation to large eggs. When big eggs sell at 70 cents per dozen and pullet eggs are marked at 46 to 50 cents—the small one are the bargain.

Production of 100-octane aviation gasoline gave the Allies a marked advantage in fuel quality and quantity over Germany and Japan.
