

Over Nine Million Deposits In Banks

While the two banks are nearly a million dollars under the deposits as reported as of December 31, 1945, this year, it is a wonder, considering what the county has gone through in the way of drouth the past two years, that they show as good as they do. And while we are about it, despite the two years when the sun was brazen every day almost with not a cloud in sight, things look promising.

But portions of the county did get enough rain to make from a fair to good grain in some sections, and thus saved the day. Bad as it is, it could be worse, but so far as the banks are concerned they are in excellent shape, and fully able and willing to take care of all the legitimate needs of their customers.

The customers of the two banks here are by no means confined to Terry county, but many of them are citizens of Yoakum county Texas and Lea county, N. M. Below we give the combined loans, cash and exchange, deposits and resources of the two banks here, the Brownfield State and First National as of December 31, 1946.

Loans and discounts $1,739,350.77
Cash-Exchange 3,604,886.63
Deposits 9,175,295.85
Resources 9,505,173.56

The deposits one year ago, as of December 31, 1945, was $10,109,262.61.

Twelve New Readers This Week

The Herald local reader list is growing continually. Out of our trade territory list has been "swunking" fast ever since VJ day, which we do not regret too much—in fact none. We want the boys who were in the service, as well as families who left to work in war plants, home.

Officers Investigating The Culver Murder

Our new sheriff, Ocie Murry, was treated to an unusual initiation when four hours after being sworn in on Jan. 1 he was notified of the finding the body of W. H. Culver, former resident here, brutally beaten to death 7 miles northeast of Seagraves between the highway and railroad, evidently purposely hidden behind a ridge of sand, out of sight of highway traffic.

It is reported that Mrs. Culver and daughter, who had on Tuesday gone down that way hunting him, as he had not arrived here Monday night as expected, passed him, as did many other motorists. The train crew accidentally discovered the body as it was passing Wednesday afternoon about 1:30. They stopped, flagged some motorists, who notified officers. Sheriff Murray and Deputy Powell, with County Attorney Virgil Crawford, immediately responded, and with aid of Highway Patrolmen and State Rangers, are relentlessly pursuing investigation. They have evidence that two men in a car did the job; that it happened about 6 o'clock p. m., Monday, before finding the body Wednesday.

Thursday morning, Culver's car was found on Main Street of Amarillo and brought back here. Bloodstains were found in the car. It was thought to have been left there some time Wednesday night.

Local officers stated their investigation had led to definite leads and believe they will ferret out the culprits soon.

Mrs. Culver is residing with her daughter, Patsy, at Levelland since the funeral last Friday.

Piggly Wiggly Installs New Super Freezer

Over at the Piggly Wiggly grocery, they have just installed a quick freezer that's cold enough and stays that way to keep all kinds of birdseye and other frozen foods just like the day they were gathered.

When you are around, go back to the meat section and inspect this newest of food preservers. Pat and the bunch are real proud of it.

By the way a visiting Italian was recently asked what in America attracted him most. Without hesitation he said that the American way of handling and selling food was far and away from anywhere else in the world.

His mother was reared here, his father taught school here, in the early teens of the century. The family moved from Slaton, where they had resided several years to Alaska in 1935. He is well pleased with Alaska. The Bridges visited there a few years back.

January Is Last Month For Tax Payments

All State and County, School and City Taxes for the year 1946 not paid by February 1st next, automatically becomes delinquent by law with a penalty added. County Collectors office states about 90 per cent of theirs has been paid, the City reports 80 per cent payment, but school taxes are lagging, though payments are increasing daily.

It was noted by some of the collectors, that many people thought the school taxes, were collected in with the County or City. The school being an Independent District has its own Assessor, Collector whose office is over the IOOF building north side of the square.

Local Boy Gets Job In State Senate

Senator Sterling Parish, being allowed five page boys during a legislative term, has designated Jack Wayne Gibson, 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson who operates a grain elevator here, as one of his quota in the Senate session to convene Jan 14.

Jack Wayne is finishing the tenth grade, but is to leave early next week for Austin. This is a fine opportunity for a live wire boy to learn of government in the making, being in constant contact with legislators, and notables over the State, that may bring results in after years. Education is not limited to school books.

This is the first time Terry county was ever favored, in any similar manner. We congratulate Jack Wayne, as well as Senator Parish.

We have heard not a little complaint from working people, especially they were not being fered enough for their used cars and in many cases the dealer making as much as 200 per cent on them, then charging full price for the new car. While this is the general talk over the country, we hope it does not apply to local automobile dealers. We believe that most of them realize that there would be a flareback on them in the years to come should they take undue advantage now. Personally we have always found all local dealers trying to do the right things at all times, and we just hope this condition continues.

Most all of us regret to hurt the feelings of friends and acquaintances in what we have to say or do. This is even more so in print, as one cannot always tell by the cold printed page whether the article is in jest, sarcastic, or just our real feelings in the matter. An article may appear as innocent to us as a last year's bird nest, but cut like a knife to some readers we are little aware of when we write the article. Too often the supposedly injured person, even though a close friend, pouts instead of contacting and talking the matter over as friends should. But there is another side to the matter. If he press or your speech is censored, as they are in many countries, then we cease to be free people. Let's try to remember that, but in so doing let's not forget that we are not licensed to slander anyone in press or speech.

The three way fight for governor of Georgia following the death of Gov.-Elect Eugene V. Talmadge, has resulted in a victory for the Lieutenant-Governor Elect, M. E. Thompson. The next high man for governor in the primary was trying for the seat, as was Talmadge's son, who was onlv his dad's campaign manager. The attorney general of that state held that the elected lieutenant governor was the man to hold the office. That was the position held by retiring governor, Ellis Arnall.

State Health Officer, Geo. W. Cox urges all people who eat pork to be sure that the meat is well cooked; otherwise they run the chance of developing trichinosis, a disease that develops in the legs of pigs. This is a dangerous and painful disease, not unlike typhoid fever, and at present there is no known remedy for it, says Dr. Cox.

Editor E. I. Hill in his Lynn County News, Tahoka, urges the US Senate to unseat Bilbo. Editor Hill cites just such an instance in Texas, with the unseating of Senator Joseph W. Bailey, whom many Texans almost worshipped, as do the people of Mississippi, The Man Bilbo. But when Bailey became mixed up with the Waters Pease Oil Co., of subsidiary of the Standard, which had been run out of Texas, most Texans, with regrets, agreed to shelve Mr. Bailey. But while all the slick mags and newspapers of the north are pouring it on Bilbo, let's not forget a certain congressman from the east side district of New York, one Marcantonio, who is to our notion more of a rabble rouser than Bilbo. And to be perfectly plain, we believe Marc, as he is generally called, is more loyal to Russia than to the United States. No one can accuse Bilbo of being anything than a true loyal American, no matter what else his faults.

Editor and Postmaster Estlack of Clarendon Leader advises bald-pated men to listen to the blood and thunder radio stories, which he guarantees to raise hair. It is reported that a San Antonio man of Mexican extraction has won the National Liar's Club 1946 prize for the best story. The Alamo City man states that he fought a big fish for 45 minutes before landing him, but when finally conquering, the fish was sweating.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

At the starting of a new year is a good time to sit down with our chin in hand and try to decide what it was that happened to us last year—and why we are still unhappy. And if we ponder deep, it will maybe dawn on us that we neglected our AESop and have been a sucker for the other guy—the one who has been nibbling fillet mignon while we have been occupied at the income tax place.

This has been the era of makin' simple problems complicated. And as one example, take labor. Labor was not complicated 20 years ago when a carpenter made 6 bucks a day and took home an 8 pound roast for Sunday dinner. Today at 16 bucks, the roast is smaller. Mr. Carpenter is a simple of a worker to take his chin in his hand and ponder. And if he doesn't get off the dime and do so soon, his "little woman" should build a fire under him. And when she has finished with the "head of the house" person, she can pick up a pencil and dash off a pertinent line to her new bright and shiny congressman. Tell him to make simple labor problems simple—and that she is tired of slickers sufferin', bleedin' and dyin' for her—as roasts get smaller and smaller—and to make it snappy.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

Local Teacher Is Recovering Rapidly

Miss Creighton, a local teacher, visited Miss Delia Wall an other teacher, while she was in a hospital at Baird and Ft. Worth. Miss Wall was seriously injured in a car-bus collision near Baird Dec. 27. She is recovering and will return to her duties here in about a month, it is reported.

Miss Wall suffered a broken arm and other injuries when the car in which she and two other sisters were riding, was struck from the rear by a passing bus near Baird, killing one sister almost instantly and the other died two days later. They had spent Christmas at their family home in De Leon.

Mrs. Green is filling Miss Wall's place as music teacher in West Ward school, pending her recovery.

T-5 Charles W. Bandy, who has been stationed in northern Italy for the past twelve months, arrived home Sunday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bandy. He will receive his discharge papers sometime in February and he and his wife plan on making their home here.

Representation

All Americans had reason to be jubilant on August 2. Not because an unruly monarch had abdicated. On that day the 79th Congress adjourned, and its members would soon sweep through the pre-election countryside—reporting to the "constituency." Our Congressmen packed up to return home on that day, and it has been ours to vote for them or against them.

Our founding fathers who decried the making of laws "without representation," could have complimented our wartime Congress. Serving through a most trying period at the very beginning of our reconstruction, after courageously displaying a people's will through the most debilitating war in our history, the 79th Congress faced all manner of complicated problems.

Probably the 79th Congress did not please everybody. But at the same time, when one surveys the record, it is apparent that this Congress has made some unusual history. Congress accepted the United Nations charter, thus committing America to a much more effective part in world leadership. This Congress demonstrated that it is not willing to allow our foreign policy to ride the winds of fortune, that it will be active though deliberate in helping build a peace.

Deliberate. That's a word our Congress properly exemplifies. We want our legislators to be studious and careful in preparation of laws, in this government of the people. Only in this way may we have the best representation. Remember that when you hear the alarm: "Why doesn't Congress do something?"

No Rubber Stamp
Remember too that political expediency makes deliberation necessary, as Congress attempts to work out a pattern of harmony with other departments. If some things were bungled by the 79th Congress, in many instances the bungling may be chalked up to other branches of government. But this Congress did demonstrate that it was no "rubber stamp" Congress, and it made parliamentary history in this respect.

It was a people's Congress. It took definite steps in the direction of a balanced budget, for many legislators put themselves on record in an attempt to preserve the integrity of the nation's finances. No budget legislation was passed, but much was done to prepare groundwork for future budget-balancing legislation.

Decadent Bureaucracy.
A few of the spreading tentacles of a bureaucracy were lopped off by the 79th Congress, and it refused to pass other measures that would nurture the beast. Congress refused to put the National Housing Agency on a permanent basis, and it turned the control and operation of employment services back to the states. Major proposals for federal aid to education died in committees.

In removing many of the government regulations which have served their purposes, the Congress gave notice that it intends to keep the traditional freedoms making America the most desirable place in the world in which to live. Congress refused to sanction the drafting of labor in time of peace. Long live our Congress! May it ever be the people's representation.

History Out On "Fighting 36th"

"The Fighting 36th," a pictorial history of the Texas division in combat, dedicated to those fighting men of the 36th who gave their lives for their country, takes its place as one of Texas' greatest history books. Yet this first full account of the activities of Texas' own 36th division far surpasses the usual history book. In addition to a spirited narration presented in poignant style, it is replete with some of the best action news pictures to come out of World War II. It chronicles in picture and in story the trail of glory the Texas division blazed across the continent of Europe. The remarkable story was compiled from combat records, verified by a personal check of the combat leaders and published by the 36th Division Association. An additional feature is the roster of the members of the division.

Fighting qualities of the 36th which are so vividly portrayed in this book can best be summed up by a statement made by Field Marshall Albert Kesselring, the ace German defensive specialist. Seymour Korman, Chicago Tribune war correspondent, asked Kesselring, "Tell me, Field Marshall, what do you consider the finest American division to have opposed you?" Without looking up and without a moment's hesitation, Kesselring sputtered, "Your 3rd and 36th Infantry Divisions. I've been constantly amazed by their audacity, at their long flanking tactics and the way

JOINS 'BIG FOUR' . . . M. de Saint Hardouin, French ambassador to the U. S., who recently arrived in Washington.

Experiment

Nationalization of industry is the big issue in England. The Labor government, elected last year on a nationalization platform, is proceeding to carry out the program as rapidly as possible. Some sectors of American thought are advocating the same measures for our country. For this reason it is my belief that many readers of this column will find interest in the progress of this socialistic program in England.

First step was the nationalization of the Bank of England, upon which the government long has relied for more or less of its own financing, particularly has it obtained large short-term loans for years. The bank's stock belonged to private individuals and had been paying about 3% interest. The government did not evaluate the bank, but simply took over all the stock, giving to all former owners bonds equal to the market value of the stock and bearing 3 per cent. The invaluable hidden assets which invariably accrue to such an institution went to the government without remuneration to the former stockholders.

Danger Present
The Bank of England also was given power to require other banks of the country to accept such banking policies as it might decide to issue. Some experienced bankers fear that the day may come when the government, because of extensive deficit financing, will advocate unsound banking policies which would react badly upon the financial status of the United Kingdom. Policies already adopted by the bank have led to the discontinuing interest formerly paid on deposits and savings accounts.

Industries slated for nationalization by the Labor government are: (1) Transportation, including railroads, transport buses, street-cars, canal barges, and coastal shipping, (2) Utilities, including production and distribution of electric power and the operation of water systems throughout the Kingdom, (3) The iron and steel industry, and (4) Civil aviation.

Complications in Steel
Perhaps the most complex problems for nationalization are presented by the iron and steel industry. This is a highly skilled craft, requiring skills and know-how to be found only in the present management of the industry. Many important but closely related industries in manufacturing, from needles to locomotives, would be affected.

One government economist told me that the government would take over production of steel and iron up to the point where the metal was allowed to cool, regardless of the form in which that might be. However, another economist stated that this policy would draw the line of demarcation for nationalized industry right through the center of some plants which were accustomed to using a continuous process until metals were actually shaped into materials for sale.

Some observers in England think difficulties will be so great that the government finally will give up the scheme of nationalizing the iron and steel industries. In fact, the government has recently indicated the scheme would be postponed for at least four years. One steel operator ventured that production per man-hour would certainly go down when and if the government took over. One of his reasons was that the workers would be at points entirely too far removed from the source of authority. He also affirmed that in his opinion workers did not like the idea of nationalization.

They Got The Man Who Robbed The Bank

Yeah, Bo. that was some exciting times they had in old Middleton, Tenn., about two weeks ago, when a guy held up the local bank about closing time and got several thousand dollars. But his freedom didn't last long. Those old hill boys with their longtom shotguns came alive, and he was soon treed in the attic of the school building. A blast in his knees from a shotgun, and the robber surrendered.

The stock of the bank of Middleton is principally held by Slater Simpson family, and we are glad the robber didn't get off with the loot as they sometimes run the risk of cashing our checks back there. Most of the money was recovered and the would be robber with a pint whiskey bottle posed as a gun under his coat as the weapon used. He entered the bank about closing time purportedly to cash a cashier's check. He was employed by a contractor paving a road to the county seat, Bolivar, from Middleton.

The above just to say that when the Old He was a boy, there was just one bank in the county, perhaps with some $50,000 on deposit. Now there are two in Bolivar, and several others over the county, and the Middleton bank has several hundred thousand on deposit. In the good old days of our childhood, men carried their long green and silver around in their jeans. What a change!

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

I am not too much of a hand at braggin', but you know, I have always been more or less alert on figures—figures, I mean, like in arithmetic. Been that way ever since Felix Coggeshall used to pick me out to go up to the annual county exams there at Champaign to represent Hickory Grove. So today I still sum up most of my deductin' via my slip sticks. Have 2 of them—that keeps a cool one handy. But enough preliminary gas—and down to real figures.

My conclusion on union memberships is that they would drop from around 12 or 14 million to less than half, if it was not a legal requirement to join up and pay dues—and if thuggery was rubbed out. And to prove if I am wrong or right, Congress can fix it so that every American can be free to join or not join—and Uncle Harry will not veto it this time. And then we will know if it is 12 or 14 million or only one half. With smallpox you get a little relief by rubbing on some salve, but to cure the scourge the doctors get down to fundamentals—vaccination.

And getting along to more figures and one case where my slide-rule kinda fails me, it is what the Supreme Court will do with the dinero put up as bail by the miners. At a horse-race we would know what would happen. You put two bucks on some bob-tail nag and he comes in in last place, you get no money back.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

Sugar Beets Show High Yield

LUBBOCK, Dec. 26 — Sugar beets recently harvested on the Texas Technological College farms yielded better than 4372 pounds of sugar per acre. Planted last April, the 3 1-2 acre plot averaged 15.15 tons of beets per acre, the highest yield since sugar beet experiments were begun at Tech in 1938. Beet sugar content was only 14.43 per cent, a slight drop from previous years.

The sugar content, usually almost 18 per cent, was probably lower this year because the crop was harvested before fully mature, according to Dr. A. W. Young, head of the Tech department of plant industry.

A Northern soldier was amazed to find that New Orleans was a scene of exquisite beauty. "I take back anything I have said about the South. I admit now that I've been all wrong. Why it's simply beautiful down here," he told the girl in his arms.

She smiled as only southern girls can, and replied: "Why sure it is, silly. Y'all didn't think God was a Yankee now, did you?"

ADVISES A NEW YEAR HEALTH CHECKUP

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, stated today that he believed it would be a worthwhile idea for every Texan to take a health inventory at the beginning of the New Year.

"At the beginning of a New Year, we should give somewhat thought to the mistakes we have made during the past year, and a great deal of thought to planning some way of improving our health conditions during 1947," Dr. Cox said.

"The American people are very fortunate. We have scientific knowledge of communicable diseases; we have already made important conquests in the warfare against infectious diseases. We have material wealth to make knowledge work; we have capable leaders in the sciences of life processes who see great opportunities for public good health measures that unite effectively the resources of medicine, education, finance, and government," Dr. Cox asserted.

"Every Texan should make a New Year's resolution to practice better personal, home and community sanitation, with a view to elevating the health level in every community, and in so doing create better health conditions throughout the State."

The State Health Department, according to Dr. Cox is confident that with national health being stressed as one of our nations most important problems, 1947 will see great strides made in the upbuilding of public health on a national scale.

Santa Fe Reports On Texas Crops

Heavy rains have delayed crop harvest and land preparations for spring planting in Texas. Harvest largely is completed, however, and the moisture has been of great benefit to small grains and pasture.

The cotton crop, which finally fell below that of 1945, has been gathered with the exception of a few scattered fields. The state had a good corn crop, all completely harvested. Little rice remains in the field.

The peanut crop compared favorably with that of 1945, but harvest was hampered by heavy rains and much of the hay crop was lost. Late rains added nearly 17,000,000 bushels to the grain sorghum crop after November 1. Wheat in the northwestern part of the state has gone into the winter in excellent condition, and subsoil moisture is exceptionally good for this time of year. Wheat pasture is abundant, supporting great numbers of cattle and sheep.

Onion planting has started in North Texas, and despite delays due to excessive moisture, indications are that a large acreage will be devoted to this crop, especially in the Wylie-Farmersville area. Land is well prepared and heavy operations are scheduled for early in January.

Harvesting of the most productive sugar beet crop on record has just been completed in Northwest Texas. Black-eye peas was another very successful crop in that area, and a much greater acreage is expected this year.

Livestock throughout the state is doing well as moisture has provided good natural pasture for grazing, and temporary pasture is excellent.

Among birds the mating season may cause changes in eye color.

It is estimated that the physical output of the cotton goods industry doubled from 1900 to 1937.

G I Questions And Answers

Q—Do I lose the subsistence allowance that has not been paid me because of my failure to report my earnings promptly?

A—No. You do not lose any of the allowance due to you. If your report shows that you are entitled to subsistence allowance, you will receive everything due you since the date of suspension.

Q—I am a foreign-born citizen, and would like to know if I will continue to receive my disability compensation if I visit the land of my birth?

A—Yes; but you may have to report in due course for a physical examination to determine whether it should be continued.

Q—Will Veterans Administration provide me with quinine or atabrine tablets because of my service in malaria infested countries, even though I have never made application for compensation?

A—Yes. For the time being, if you will present your discharge at a Veterans Administration office and it indicates that you saw service in a malaria infested country, VA will provide you with quinine or atabrine tablets. However, it would be well to establish your rights as of record.

Q—While I was in a Veterans Administration hospital, my clothing was damaged so that I could use it no longer. Is there any way that I can collect for the damage done?

A—You should make application to the manager of the hospital who will appoint a qualified disinterested employee to inquire into the matter informally and make recommendations. The manager is authorized to dispose of the matter locally or to make formal investigation when the size or circumstances of the loss warrant such action.

Do you have your planting seed for 1947? If not, arrangements should be made for them at your earliest convenience. They are scarce and will probably advance in price later in the year.

If you are carrying over seed it will be to your advantage to have a germination test made on them and if you are buying, require test. Know what you plant.

If you have seed you want tested bring a pound sample to R. N. McClain, Brownfield State Bank and he will have the test run for you free of charge.

Babson Points Out Best Permanent Jobs

BABSON PARK, Fla. Jan 3—Many letters have come to me from young men and women all over the country asking where the best job opportunities will be found in the next few years.

Nothing More Permanent Than Change

Several hundred years B. C. the Greek Philosopher, Heraclitus, said, "There is nothing more permanent than change." His philosophy still holds good—especially in the world of work. Planning a wise vocational choice is, in some ways, like duck hunting. If you shoot where the bird is at any given moment, you may waste your ammunition. Job opportunities are always in more or less of a flux due to such factors as (1) wars, (2) boom periods, (3) depressions, (4) new inventions, (5) changes in peoples wants and desires. Probably the best way to predict the job opportunities of tomorrow is by looking at the trends of yesterday. For example, according to the U. S. Bureau of Census, 33 out of every 100 gainfully employed in 1910 were in agricultural pursuits. Today only 18 out of 100 are so employed. This casualty, for the most part, has been due to technological development. Thirty years from now small farms will be used only for inflation hedges of sustenance purposes. Food is destined to be grown on great farms as surely as shoes are made in great factories.

Professions or Manufacturing?

Another illustration: professional workers such as lawyers, engineers, teachers and dentists increased from 4 per 100 in 1910 to 8 per hundred today. While opportunities for professional workers will continue to expand, it is the belief of experts that there will not be enough jobs for all of the young people who wish to enter these fields. My advice is, therefore, that, unless you have a vital interest in and an unusual aptitude for one of the professions, you had better consider other vocations where there will be greater opportunities.

Since 1920 manufacturing and mechanical industries have employed more workers than any other vocational groups. A figure of over 30 out of every 100 has been reached. I visualize that during the next thirty years America, and even Eastern Europe and Asia, are headed for a trial of a nearly completely mechanized civilization. Since then, the essentials of life will be taken care of by machine, the greatest vocational opportunities may be machine builders, machine repairers, machine tenders and technologists. Good Opportunities in Transportation, Distribution Trade Vocations.

These must complement the manufacturing and mechanical industries. People need manufactured goods. They have gone long without them. Someone must transport these goods from the factory, and someone must distribute them to the consumer. The number of workers involved in such pursuits has more than doubled since 1870 and will no doubt, continue to increase in the years ahead.

For young women the clerical field will probably continue to offer the best opportunities. The number of clerical workers more than doubled from 1910-1945. These jobs will continue strong in order to keep up with the needs of business and industrial, transportation and distributive activities. But as wages increase, young women must do more and better work. "Any girl" cannot get jobs much longer.

Babson's Advice to Job Hunters

It is impossible to have a great war without "paying the piper." Sooner or later we are bound to witness a business depression. Therefore, whether you be laborer, operator, craftsman, salesman, administrator, or what, look for work with (a) a company whose earnings fluctuate a minimum between good times and bad times. A toilet tissue manufacturer would qualify, while a steel company would not. Or (b) work for a company which furnishes a necessity and whose business holds up during a depression. A fire insurance company would qualify, while a hotel would not. Or (c) work for a growing industry such as chemical companies. Or (d) work for a concern that can quickly mark up prices in case of inflation. Chain stores would qualify; railroads would not.

Asia Minor for thousands of years has been famous for its Oriental rugs. The Greek play, "Frogs," written by Aristophanes in 400 B. C., tells about a character lolling with a dancing girl on luxurious rugs made in the ancient city of Miletus.

Tucker Recording "Set World On Fire"

Tommy Tucker who brings his famous orchestra to Brownfield on January 15, for some top notch entertainment, is known to fans the country over as the man who "Set The World On Fire," succeeded in doing exactly that—despite his musical pleas to the contrary.

Tucker's recording of the hit tune "I Don't Want To Set The World On Fire" succeeded in selling more than 600,000 copies in the period of a few months and many more are being sold.

Tucker was not the first, nor the only one to record this popular song—but it was he who popularized it so thoroughly, and it will always be identified with him.

It all came about in this fashion. During an engagement at the Barkley-Carteret Hotel in Asbury Park in N. J., Tommy drove into Philadelphia and visited a night club called Lew's Tavern—a musical haunt. There he heard Bon Bon (a negro entertainer formerly featured with Jan Savitt's band) sing a number with a particularly haunting melody. Inquiry revealed that it had been published some time before and that the Harlan Leonard band had recorded it a year previously.

Tommy obtained an orchestra, began playing it, and put it on wax at his very next Columbia recording session. It proved a musical bombshell, and it increased the already extensive popularity of the Tommy Tucker orchestra one hundred fold.

Chickenpox season is here, numerous cases have been reported to the South Plains Health Unit the last two weeks. Chickenpox is one of the most readily communicable diseases.

Moisture 4 Inches Short In 1946

With a normal or average rain- fall of some 18.50 inches per annum given over a ten year pe- riod to Terry county, we lacked some four inches getting the nor- mal last year. But it was way ahead of the some eight inches that came in 1945.

But here is the catch: We start- ed a 1945 crop with fair winter season, but pretty poor support from the weatherman with mois- ture during the year, but it came at such time that most of the county got enough for a nice grain crop, and some cotton in places. But with a dry winter 1945-46, and little moisture the first of the year, little cotton was made anywhere, and in some areas, notably Harmony and Pool, there was not sufficient mois- ture to get crops up.

As it was we only had 4.14 the first six months of 1946, but 10.46 the last half. Had that been re- versed, we might have made a normal crop of both cotton and feed. February holds first place as a low, being .03

A BETTER WAY TO DO IT

We have been unable to regard with complacency the USDA credit lines which have been prom- inent in reports of markets in which farmers are interested in this area during the past six months or so.

USDA, a federal agency with $6,700 men as thick as flies, has been trying to horn in on a lot of things and is at through yet. It may get the job done.

A good many farmer people, on whom we depend for a living, are working on some kind of a plan that will keep the food and feed commodity producing prob- lem in the view of lawmakers and we do not fall out with this idea. The morning will come, not so far away, when the things we raise will come into competition on world markets with cheap labor from India and China and unless there is some consideration to this fact, in managing the Amer- ican plan, the result will be to break about half of the farming population. And the saying that the farmers had about as soon have a Washington man tell them what to do as to have the bankers do it, has now become trite. Which plays into the hands of the USDA bureau for the perpe- tuation of tax-paid jobs.

However, we think that there must be a better way than to turn the markets and marketing over to a federal bureau. We just know there must be. Which is why we are not so happy over the fact that USDA is trying to "control" market reports. Speed the day when USDA will be the ser- vant of the farmer, not his mas- ter.—Floydada Hesperian.

Looks Like Old Times Says Stanford

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stanford, ranchers of southwestern Yoakum, were here Sunday on business, which was to be transacted Mon- day. E. P. and family are old timers of this section, and have gone through with a lot of the good and bad as the freak of the Weatherman so dictates.

He asked us how we liked the kind of weather in vogue the past week or so. Not so good, we an- nounced as it is hard for us to navigate the streets even with our Mexican walking stick. Looks like old times, E. P. announced.

But he added, I've got to where I'd rather see just plain old rain instead of this ice and snows.

Ropes Community Man Recalls

E. L. Harris of Rt. 1, Ropes but whose land lays in Terry county, was in last Saturday to get on our growing list of readers. We remarked that when a boy, nothing tickled us more than a good sized snow, so that we could get out and track rabbits. And often with the more mature members of the family, we would sometimes track up raccoon to their denning tree, following a night of prowling about the wooded hills of West Tennessee.

Then Mr. Harris said that he watched his boys running, rolling and tumbling in the snow, which brought back to mind some of the things he got into about the beginning of this century up around Bovina. Perhaps the little town of Bovina will not be recalled by many readers, but even when we arrived in Terry 38 ago, most cattle from the ranches of Terry, Gaines and Yoakum were trailed to Bovina for shipment. The reason, there were plenty of ranches to pass through and watering places, and good shipping pens at the little town direct to Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago.

Like most old timers, Mr. Harris doesn't believe we have as many blue northers and blizzards as formerly. About 1900 he went to Bovina to work for a man he had known for years. This man did not breed cattle, but ran steers, which he bought off such ranches as XIT and Spade, and ran them on grass until ready for market.

One time Mr. Harris was sent to the railroad with a four mule team after cake, and before he got home, there was five inches of snow on the ground, and still falling, and the temperature dropping like no body's business. To cap the climax, the lead team pulled the hitch out of the tongue, and a pocket knife was all the tool he had. Result, he had to unload cake until one team could pull the load.

In the meantime the steers had drifted as far from the regular feeding place as they could get

Swine Influenza May Strike Spring Pigs

A new wave of swine influenza and pneumonia this month may pose a threat to next spring's pig crop goals, authorities of the American Foundation for Animal Health reported in Austin recently.

"Farmers should keep hogs away from old straw stacks, manure piles, and contaminated lots where they may pick up virus of influenza," the Foundation suggested. "If brood sows contract this disease, it frequently results in their pigs being born dead, or results in weak litters which have poor chance to survive."

Other precautions suggested against influenza include clean, draft-free quarters, ample bedding, plenty of water, and balanced rations.

and he had to hunt till he found them. He reached his dugout around 11 p. m. and his pants and coat would stand alone. Hadn't had time to get warm till the boss called to help round up and feed another drifting herd. That was how the old cowboy fared around 40 and 50 years ago.

He also described what he thought was the worst electrical storm with a herd in northwest Lamb county. That night lightning split the atmosphere constantly while thunder rolled and rain flooded everything, and all hands stood guard against a possible stampede.

Mr. Harris moved back to the Childress country for awhile, but came back to the Plains and settled near Ropes about 14 years ago.

F.B.I. Asks a Count

In Europe the past summer I was made to understand an important fact. Consistently I was informed by labor leaders, government officials, and industrialists in all of the eight countries I visited that the most disturbing element in each nation was the Communist element. In every country the confusion wrought by the Communists was quite disconcerting.

In England, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Belgium, Holland, and Switzerland the Communist element was not large in number. But it was well organized. Apparently the movement was receiving funds from abroad in each country, for a campaign all out of proportion to actual size of the organization was in progress. In France, although the Communist party is not the largest, it has the best organization and is recognized as the strongest single party in France.

How About America?

Confusion, today, is not confined to Europe. In America we have been having a lot of confusion. We are facing the most serious industrial problems in our history. Though the war has been over for 15 months, our industry is still dragging badly. Production, in nearly every field, is disappointing. But an abundant by-product is confusion, and more confusion.

Industry wants to produce, for that is the only way it can make money. Some of our largest manufacturing establishments have actually lost money instead of making money in the past twelve months. Industry is not pleased with this situation, and I cannot believe they are purposely trying to keep it that way. Labor finds it difficult to live on current income. Labor's need is wages, and I cannot believe that labor as a whole wants confusion, work stoppages, and light production.

Does the government want to hinder production? Surely it wants the people to have food, clothing, transportation, and housing. Yet, when we have every reason to believe that labor, industry, and government want production, we are not getting production. Despite the desire of the three groups to avoid confusion, yet we have confusion confounded.

A Growing Menace

J. Edgar Hoover, many years head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a trusted citizen and public servant, is in a position to understand perhaps better than any other person what is happening in America. In a speech on the West Coast, September 30, he decried the growing menace of Communism, declaring that "in the past five years American Communists have made their deepest inroads upon our national rights."

Their false preachments on civil liberty mean that Communists want the right to do as they please. Those who seek to provoke prejudice and stir up the public mind to angry resentment against our form of government are a menace to the very powers of law and order which guarantee and safeguard popular rights. Said Mr. Hoover: "Communism has spread Fascism and Fascism spawns Communism. Both are the antithesis of American belief in liberty and freedom. If people of other countries want Communism, let them have it, but it has no place in America." It is time to stand up and be counted, indeed.

Representative Harley Sadler of Sweetwater has prepared a representative redistricting bill which he proposes to introduce early in the session. We have not seen the text of the bill and do not know just how it groups the counties into new districts in his or other sections of the state, but brief published explanations of the bill indicate that it is drawn on just and equitable principles. This or some similar bill should receive the support of West Texas representatives as well as of representatives from our larger cities and from the lower Rio Grande valley, for any fair bill would be advantageous to all these areas and sections of our state. It is to be hoped that some equitable re-districting bill shall be passed at an early date. —The Lynn County News.

An electric roaster is an ideal appliance for homemakers living in temporary quarters who do not want to invest in a full size cooking range. Roasters may be had with broiler and frying pan units for those who are dependent upon a roaster for all cooking.

Knives should never be allowed to soak in water. Water will rust the blade, rot the wood and loosen the handle. Leaving the knife on a hot stove results in the temper of the blade being destroyed.

Some authorities say that suicide is more prevalent among educated than illiterate groups.

PORTAL-TO-PORTAL PAY

A sign of the times is the recent decision of the Supreme court on the portal-to-portal pay of employees of big concerns, which will affect the business situation for the next several months. The decision has made possible suits by millions of employees against their present or former employers for tens of millions of dollars.

The corporation affected will not know for a year or several years where they stand. They may or may not be broke, they may or may not be able to re-negotiate their war contracts, they may or may not be able to continue in business.

This thought is presented, not with the idea of trying to pass on the question of the right or wrong of workingmen collecting more money that may or may not be due them under the law. The "sign of the times" is in the thought that many a business institution is upset again in its plans for its own future and the future of the employees which serve it. You can't plan acceptably without having a base from which to begin planning. You can't project a future adventure in business unless you know where you started from. It is another tendency to upset the apple cart for American business to start 1947 off with a headache. Everybody wants "things" to get normal again but all of us want it to be somebody else who does the normal thing while we collect on the windfalls. It doesn't seem to add up. —Floydada Hesperian.

Veterans News

Home town dental care for veterans with service-connected disabilities is now available in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, the Veterans Administration has announced.

Under the program, all veterans entitled to out-patient dental care at VA's expense have free choice of dentists participating in the project where VA dental clinic service is not available.

Veterans must obtain authorization for this local treatment from the VA regional office having jurisdiction. Regional offices in the Dallas Branch Area are located at Jackson, Miss; New Orleans and Shreveport, La; and Dallas, Waco, Houston, San Antonio and Lubbock Texas.

Approximately 131,000 veterans in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi were receiving monthly payments at the beginning of December as a result of disabilities incurred during World War II.

The average monthly payment for the disabled veterans is approximately $42, VA said. Of the 261,664 claims filed by World War II veterans in the Dallas Branch Area 115,572 had been disallowed and 10,515 were pending.

Veterans Administration hospital managers have been authorized to furlough patients, whose treatments can be completed out of hospitals, to make more beds available for other veterans awaiting hospitalization.

Those furloughed will be treated on an out patient basis. Service connected cases will be treated at VA clinics or on a fee basis by private doctors at government expense. Non-service connected cases will be treated only at VA clinics and must pay their own transportation or other expenses.

As of November 30, approximately 3,000 veterans were awaiting hospitalization in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi. Of these, only one was service connected.

Warnings About Common Colds

With the advent of cold weather, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued some timely advice concerning room temperature and its relation to health.

"It is very important that inside temperature be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime."

In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and physical harm may result when outside temperature is encountered. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in

Bishop Steele To Speak over Network On 'Informed Church'

Bishop W. W. Peele, of Richmond, Virginia, opened the 1947 series of network broadcasting of the Methodist Hour Sunday morning, January 5, when he spoke over the independent network of The Southern Religious Radio Conference on "An Informed Church."

This was the first of 13 regular Sunday morning half hour worship services broadcast over an independent network of 45 radio stations which will be under the sponsorship of the South Central Jurisdictional Council of the Methodist Church during the Months of January, February and March. These programs originate in Atlanta, Georgia and are heard at 7:30 Central Standard Time.

This series of Methodist Hour broadcasts is a part of the work of the Southern Religious Radio Conference, an organization composed of radio committees from the Southern Baptist Convention, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., the Protestant Episcopal Church and the Methodist Church. Each of these religious denominations broadcast over the same network for a period of three months.

The Presbyterian Hour has been on the air during the fall quarter. The Methodist Hour will be followed by the Baptist Hour.

sickness and even death. "An inside temperature of from 60 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more comfortable," Dr. Cox said. "When, added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometer reads. A room temperature within the range suggested, plus the careful maintenance of proper humidity, will help to prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

Texas Dairy Industry Making New Records

Texas' increasing importance as a dairy state is graphically depicted by the Milk Industry Foundation in a new survey.

Texas' 1,450,000 cows produce $93,944,000 cash farm income for dairy farmers. The utilization of this milk shows the tremendous economic asset that dairying is to the State with a yearly production of 2,050,000,000 quarts.

Principal users of this milk in addition to fresh milk were for making 25,396,000 pounds of creamery butter, 13,669,000 lbs. of cheddar cheese and 21,830,000 gallons of ice cream.

Pictorial charts or figures based on final totals for 1945, now complete, indicate the growing importance of the milk industry.

A chart of the milk distributor's dollar shows 61.15 cents going to dairy farmers for whole milk, including transportation to plants; 19.44 cents for wages and salaries; 5.29 cents to plant and delivery supplies; 3.22 cents bottles, cans, cases; 1.29 other expenses; 1.98 insurance and depreciation; 3.98 taxes and licenses; 7 advertising; .98 officers' salaries; leaving a net of 1.98 cents representing less than 1-3 of a cent per quart of milk.

Milk production per cow is above pre-war averages and demand for milk and dairy products is strong. As an economical food containing vital components of

PHLEW!

A flea and a fly in a flue Were imprisoned, so what could they do? Said the fly, "Let us flee!" "Let us fly!" said the flea. So they flew through a flaw in the flue.

"Where were you, he asked, "on Monday night?" The girl smiled sweetly. "Motoring," she replied. "And where were you," asked counsel, "on Tuesday night?" "Motoring," repeated the girl. Counsel leaned still closer. "And what," he murmured, "are you doing tomorrow night?" The prosecuting counsel leaped to his feet.

"Your lordship," he protested, "I object to that question." The judge shrugged his shoulders. "And why do you object?" he inquired mildly. Prosecuting counsel drew himself up in righteous indignation. "Because," he snapped, "I asked her first!"

PRIDE

The two tramps sat with their backs to an old oak tree. Before them was a rippling stream. The day was delightful yet one of them looked disconsolate.

"You know, Jim," he mused, this business of tramping your way through life is not what it's cracked up to be. Think it over; nights on park benches or in a cold barn. Traveling on good trains and always dodging the police. Being kicked from one town to another. Wondering where your next meal is coming from. Wandering unwanted everywhere, sneered at by your fellow men—" "Well," said the second tramp, "if that's the way you feel about it, why don't you go and find yourself a job?"

The first sat up with a jerk. "What?" he scowled. "And admit I'm a failure?"

SIDELIGHTS From Washington

By GEORGE MAHON

This is being written on the opening day of the New Congress. Joe Martin, Republican from Massachusetts, this afternoon took the oath of office as Speaker of the 80th Congress, carrying this position of power and responsibility to the Republican Party for the first time in 16 years and to New England for the first time in 21 years.

Joe Martin is 62 years of age, a newspaper publisher and a bachelor. He is not a brilliant man but he is agreeable, friendly sort of person who is well liked and respected by the House Membership.

While the Democrats realized they lacked the votes to re-elect a Democrat as Speaker, Sam Rayburn of Texas was nominated. The vote was 244 to 182 in favor of Mr. Martin. However, Mr. Rayburn was elected by the Democratic Caucus as the Democratic Leader in the House.

Mr. Rayburn had said that he would not accept the leadership and had promised his support to John McCormack of Boston, Massachusetts. Texas members felt that it would be a severe loss to Texas and the South if Mr. Rayburn should refuse the leadership, particularly if the job should go to someone who had no first-hand knowledge of Southern problems of agriculture and industry. Democratic Members from other states were unanimously for Mr. Rayburn but sharply divided as to anybody else. Mr. Rayburn finally consented to take the job and was elected without a dissenting vote.

It is generally agreed in Washington by both Republicans and Democrats that President Truman has taken on additional stature and prestige in recent weeks by reason of his refusal to accept dictation from John L. Lewis and by the issuance of directives designed to place the Country on a peace-time basis.

The 21 Members of the House from Texas have met and organized for the new session of Congress. I was elected to serve as Chairman for the next two years. A new member, Wingate Lucas

The B string of Plains and Union schools played a close game Monday night. The local boys won the game by a two point margin. The boys of both teams played exceptionally well but compliments should go to Roe and G. Herring for their accomplishments.

CREOMULSION for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

MEET Mr. A-C

WHO IS HE?

As a business succeeds and grows, it requires a more complex system of management and, often, more widespread ownership.

Allis-Chalmers has grown and progressed for 99 years. Just who is Mr. A-C? Because the answer to a question like that is complex, it is easy for people to pick up mistaken impressions. For the sake of the record, let's take Mr. A-C apart and see who he really is.

WHO IS CAPITAL?

Capital doesn't wear a silk hat at Allis-Chalmers. "Capital" consists of 23,100 stockholders who own an average of less than 110 shares each. Mr. Capital might be a grocer, a farmer, a widow, a school teacher, or YOU. He might be a company employee in the office or shop or an officer of the company.

No one individual or family owns more than 1/2 of 1 percent of the total stock of Allis-Chalmers.

This is an example of democratic ownership distinctive in the history of large corporations.

WHO IS MANAGEMENT?

Management is the guiding hand (or head) hired by the owners to make an organization tick — and click!

Who is Mr. Management at Allis-Chalmers? Not just the officers and division heads of the company. Management is the block manager in the territory, the foreman in the shop.

Management is every employee from errand boy to president who contributes by word and deed to the progress of the company.

Mr. Management doesn't wear a high wing collar at Allis-Chalmers. Neither does he have any monopoly on his job.

WHO IS LABOR?

The man who works in the shop is spoken of in the newspaper as "labor."

Actually he may be a part of Management by reason of some suggestion he has made to improve a process or a product.

Actually he may be a part of Capital through ownership of company stock.

The fact that he works with his hands makes him no less a part of Allis-Chalmers than the man or woman who works at a desk. The terms "Capital," "Management," and "Labor" are indefinite and overlapping. Many a man who works in the shop is actually a part of all three groups.

Introducing Mr. A-C

Who then is Mr. A-C? He is a combination of 23,100 stockholders, 25,000 employees, and more than 10,000 suppliers.

He symbolizes a company in which no individual or family owns more than 1/2 of 1 percent of total stock.

His is a company which contributes something to better living in nearly every home in America — in supplying machines to grow and process food, generate electricity, pump water, build roads, produce building materials.

Quite somebody, Mr. A-C! It takes the right hand, left hand, head, heart and pocketbook to achieve such results. No one part of him can do the job alone.

HOW MUCH IS YOUR BABY WORTH TO YOU?

He's priceless you say. Nothing is too good for him. Naturally you watch his diet carefully. You see that he will have good sound bones and teeth. When he's ill you consult the best physician. And of course when you have your physician's prescription filled, you want them filled by a reliable pharmacist. You can always rely on us for fresh drugs and accurately filled prescriptions.
