

Primm Says He Might Sponsor Ball Team

C. C. Primm, local druggist, who sponsored a mighty good softball team last year that went into the finals, was asked recently about another this year. C. C. stated that a big IF stood in the way, but if proper arrangements could be made, he would be right in there pitching.

And what he really meant by proper arrangements was a place to play. For the last few years the games have been played at Cub Stadium, but we do not know whether or not that place is available this year.

What the town needs above most everything else is a ball park which could be used by both soft and regular baseball games. Material is scarce right now, but this is one thing to think about in the future.

As is, good reliable people tell us that at the opening game here of the Oil Belt League, not more than a third of the people paid their way. The sponsors dug down in their pocket to stage this amusement for the people of this area, and whether or not there is a fence, gate and seats, people should be good sports enough to pay or stay away.

This is our frank and candid opinion in the matter. The people of Brownfield and vicinity have always been noted for their fairness and good sportsmanship. Let's show it, whether or not the ball game is fenced.

Brownfield Team Wins Second Game

In its second game of the season, in the Oil Belt Baseball League, the Brownfield Bears scored a win of 14 to 11 over the Littlefield team, last Sunday. The game was played at Littlefield.

The Bears were trailing in the ninth inning when they staged a rally. Blue Graham and Dunk Warren knocked homers.

Brownfield 102 010 010 14 11 1 Littlefield 200 001 004 11 15 7

Other scores in the League were:

Levelland	15
Seagraves	13
Slaton	14
Southdown	2

In view of the fact that Denver City-Sundown failed to play April 18, at the beginning of the season, they will probably play a double header at their next meeting at Denver City June 6th.

Games next Sunday will be Post at Sundown; Slaton at Littlefield; Denver City at Levelland, and Brownfield at Seagraves.

Second Oldest Gin Changes Hands

Herman Chesshir and D. V. (Virgil) Travis this week announced the purchase of the Roy Phillips Gin in the north part of the city. Roy has not enjoyed vigorous health for the past year or two, and he is retiring for that reason, to recuperate. We were not informed whether or not he and family would continue to make this their home. We hope so.

As to the purchasers, will say that Herman grew up in Meadow, and did his first gin work in that city. He soon showed himself in the knowhow, and although still a very young man, he was sent to Lamesa to manage a gin there for his company. Upon the death of the late Oscar Jones, the West Texas Gin Co. sent him here to manage their plant, back in the early thirties. Three or four years ago, he purchased the gin from the West Texas company, and he and brother later purchased the Forrester gin. So you see he started in at the bottom, and knows the business from there on up.

As for D. V. (Virgil) Travis, he has been a citizen of Brownfield for the past 20 years, and with the West Texas and the Herman gin 18 years of that time. In that time he has learned all the intricacies of fine ginning, and for many years the trusted assistant of Herman himself. Mr. Travis will have charge of the Roy Phillips gin, which is also generally known as the Northside Gin, and occupy the residential property on the ground, belonging to the gin.

The Roy Phillips Gin was, we believe the second gin built in Brownfield, following the Herman Gin. Mr. English moved the original plant here from the Bryan section in the early twenties. But in the past few years, new and modern machinery has been added, until there is none of the original English machinery in the plant. Beside, much building enlargement and improvement has taken place.

4-Hers To Help Keep U.S. Bread Basket Filled

With domestic food consumption increasing yearly, together with continued demands for foreign aid, 4-H Club members are determined to help keep America's "bread basket" filled.

For this specific purpose, roundly 2000 thousand farm youth are taking part in the 1948 National 4-H Field Crop awards program. The program is designed to help 4-Hers acquire a better knowledge, and develop skills in approved farming practices that will serve to increase production of food, feed and fiber crops. The farming practices include careful selection of seed and most proficient use of land and available farm machinery.

Awards for superior 4-H crop production records provided again this year by International Harvester Company are county medals, a Chicago 4-H Club Congress trip for the state winner and $200.00 Fowler McCormick scholarships for national champions.

Last year's state winner in Texas was Alvin C. Davis of Post.

There were 77 county medal winners in Texas last year.

An Egg Packs Great Food Value

Eggs are graded according to quality and size, not food value. F. Z. Beamblossom, extension poultry specialist of Texas A and M College reminds housewives and others who are making the most of the plentiful supplies now on the market. Regardless of its grade or quality, an egg of one of nature's best packages of food value. Inside that shell is found high quality protein, iron, vitamin A, two of the B vitamins and some vitamin D.

An egg in one of the top quality grades—AA or A—has a large amount of firm white and a round, outstanding yolk. Eggs of these grades are preferred for poaching, frying and boiling in the shell. Grade B eggs have thinner whites and somewhat flatter yolks, but are just as good for scrambling, baking and other cooking purposes.

Many families find it pays to buy grade B eggs for general cooking because they offer the same food value, yet may cost 10 to 12 cents a dozen less than grade A quality eggs of the same weight.

Any rate, Mr. Beamblossom says, it pays to read the label on the carton of eggs and figure the cost in relation to the grade, which means the quality and size. The purpose for which eggs are to be used will have an influence on the grade to be bought.

School Board Makes Area Tour

The local school board and Supt. Cowan made a trip to the neighboring towns of Andrews, Seminole, Denver City, Plains, Whiteface and Lubbock Tuesday.

The purpose of the tour was to study school buildings in these towns in order that the local board might be well acquainted with the type building that can be built for a certain amount of money.

Supt. Cowan states that plans for the local school closing exercises will be announced next week.

Not Neutral—Not On The Fence—A Paper With An Opinion And A Purpose

VOLUME 43 BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1948 NUMBER 40

Don't Plow Up Your Windbreaks

Plowing up trees in the shelter-belt area of Texas isn't good ranching, but the present high prices of farm products have caused some farmers to plow up their windbreaks, and put the laid back into soil-eroding crops, reports James M. Carpenter, Knox county agent.

Manager H. B. Lewis said the meeting, sponsored by the Seminole Chamber of Commerce, has been set for 7 p. m. Saturday, May 1, in the Gaines County courthouse. Civic leaders from sites and towns along the transcontinental highway are being invited.

Delegates from several Texas towns served by Highway 51 have responded already to a letter sent by the Seminole chamber and are planning to attend the session, Lewis reported.

Through the highway association, road boosters hope to attract more tourists into the area after first obtaining paving for a 30-mile stretch near Amarillo. State Senator Grady Hazelwood, who is heading the association revival in the Panhandle area, recently told civic leaders the road is completely paved from Canada to Mexico except for that one section.

Odessa, Andrews, and Crane Seminole, Seagraves, Brownfield, Levelland and Littlefield are among the Permian Basin towns served by the highway.

Highway 51 Body To Meet In Seminole

SEMINOLE — Interest shown in a proposal to re-organize the U. S. Highway 51 Association has resulted in an invitation for town representatives to meet here to discuss reactivation.

Manager H. B. Lewis said the meeting, sponsored by the Seminole Chamber of Commerce, has been set for 7 p. m. Saturday, May 1, in the Gaines County courthouse. Civic leaders from sites and towns along the transcontinental highway are being invited.

ACC Student Wins First Scholarship

The first American to win a scholarship to the Royal Academy of Music Department of Pianoforte in London is Don M. Liles, junior student in Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas. Liles recorded two piano solos and mailed them, with music to a bolero of his own composition, to the Royal Academy as his entrance in the scholarship contest.

A top poet as well as musician, he was named recently as 1948 winner of the annual collegiate Southwestern Poetry contest.

Last Of The Roads Being Finished

Grading will be finished next week on the eight miles of farm to market road, from the Seagraves Highway one mile southwest of town to the Forrester gin. The road there connects with a paved road, leading on south to county line and to Cedar Lake, also one west to Wellman. The three mile stretch, south of Johnson school house is also being finished. Both to be topped off the next 45 days and be ready for fall use.

These are the last of the sixty miles of road projects constructed in the county in the last two years: Part of which is by the State and the balance by the county, under the recent bond issue. These paved roads reach most of the communities in the county.

Judge Winston and Commissioners are to meet soon, with the state highway officials in an effort to get the state to take over the farm-to-market roads built by the county. Since the parcels of paved roads have been in use, local officials are being urged to build more to the communities not now so favored.

Mrs. Chas. Randal Has Done Some Rambling

Mrs. Chas. Randal of Seymour, is here this week visiting her sister, Mrs. Jessie Randal. That's right, them gals is sister as well as sisters-in-law. Met the two ladies on the street, and Mrs. C. Randal asked us when we were going to take another rambling notion. She stated she liked to read about what we see and hear on these tours.

By the way, she stated that she'd been seeing quite a lot of country here of late, especially a lot of the old states, such as La., Miss., Ala., Ga., and Florida, but didn't get as far north as Tenn. She had a nice time and enjoyed her journey very much, but she came home sans the deep south pronunciations.

Well, if things work out just right, Mrs. Randal, it is our intention to strike a bee line come next week for the red hills of Tennessee, and a big dish of fried ham, streaked gravy, hot biscuits and more good vegetables than you can shake a stick at—um, um.

Wildcat Near City To Try For Production From Ellenberger

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware has staked location for a 12,000-foot wildcat in Northeast Terry County to explore into the Ellenberger. Cellar and pits are being dug and drilling operations will be started at once.

The venture will be Seaboard No. 1 E. M. Hinson. It is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 91, block 4-X, EL&RR survey, and about nine and one-half miles northeast of Brownfield.

Atty. Dudley Brummett, of Lubbock, candidate for Senator of this, the 30th Senatorial district, was here meeting the people, Tuesday.

MERCHANTS URGED TO CONTACT LOCAL NEWSPAPER BEFORE BUYING CARTOON ADVERTISING SERVICES

In view of the many complaints that have been received from state newspapers, the Texas Press Association has issued a warning to merchants to check with their local newspaper before purchasing cartoon advertising services.

Complaints from publishers vary, but primarily they deal with misstatements of facts by salesmen, one of which is that the cost of the service includes the cost of the advertising space in the local newspaper.

This newspaper wishes to advise that it does not endorse and is not a party to such contracts. Anytime we have a proposition to present to the merchants of this community it will be presented by a recognized employee of this publication. Furthermore, we subscribe to an advertising service for our merchants, and this service—for which we pay good money—is available in our office to any local merchant who desires to make use of it, gratis.

Mayer Tom May Proclaims Cleanup Week May 17-21

In another part of the Herald you will note a legal notice ordering a general cleanup in the city to run from May 17th to 21st. We hope each reader of the Herald living within the corporate limits will read and heed. Not only that, but each community in this area will join in the good work making our city and communities as healthful as possible.

The street cleaning department of the city is doing a great work in keeping our streets and alleys clean, but they are not supposed to enter your yards, garages and other parts of your premises to clean up. If every breeding place of flies and mosquitos are eliminated, we will have a clean town, as free as possible of sickness and possible death.

Polio has already made its appearance down in the lower valley and as hot weather comes on, it will naturally work its way northward. So far, there is no known cure of this disease, but doctors all say cleanliness is one of the best known preventatives.

There is another angle to a Cleanup Campaign. With the elimination of assorted odds and ends in catchall places about the home, you render your premises less liable to fire damage or destruction.

JOIN THE CLEANUP CAMPAIGN!

Thurmond Associate Irrigation Agent

On May 1, Robert V. Thurmond, assistant county agent in Lamb county, will be transferred to Lubbock where he will become associate county agent in irrigation for extension districts one and two—the Panhandle and South Plains area.

Thurmond will report to District Agent W. N. Williamson's office May 1, and will be in training for his new job until about July 1. He will then be in a position to work with county agricultural agents and farmers in the Panhandle area on their irrigation problems.

He will work under Williamson and Knox Pharr, district agent of the Panhandle area.

Thurmond is the son of M. F. Thurmond, who is now in charge of the USDA school lunch program in Austin. The Thurmond family formerly resided in Bryan, where Robert was graduate from Stephen F. Austin High School and then attended Texas A and M College and was graduated last year with a B. S. degree in agricultural engineering.

Entering the army in 1943 as a private, Thurmond went to OCS at Fort Benning, Ga., then on to Camp Hood, Texas, where he was an instructor at the Infantry Replacement Training Center. Before his discharge in 1946, Thurmond spent 14 months in the Philippines.

Thurmond and his wife have lived in Amberst, Texas, where he was assistant county agent until his recent appointment.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC REACHES PEAK

County Health authorities believe the measles epidemic, which struck this county last week, has reached its peak, and is under control. The schools did not close.

Some complaint has been made that a few have let their children return to school too soon after an attack. A certificate of discharge should be obtained from attending physician, before re-entering school.

MEADOW BOY CHIEF BOATSWAIN MATE

Odie Raymond, chief boatswain's mate, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Todd H. Boyd of Meadow, Texas, is serving with the Charleston Group, Atlantic Reserve Fleet at Charleston, S. C., and is engaged in the inactivating of surplus Navy ships.

The ships of this Fleet are undergoing a change known as 'Operation Zipper.' Each ship is kept entirely moistureproof by dehumidifying machines that circulate dry air through all compartments and weather-deck coverings.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bates of Abilene are here this week. Mr. Bates is to undergo an operation today at the local hospital. She informed a reporter for the Herald that she had more confidence in Drs. Lester and Alfred than anyone she knew, and if she must be cut on, it had to be here in Brownfield.

A regular term of the District Court is scheduled to be held here Monday May 3rd. The docket is confined to uncontested cases.

Unions Carry Things To The Extreme

Up in the state of New Jersey this week a Marine hero, that fell on Iwo Jima, was brought home for interment. It was intended that Marines act as pall bearers. But the Union of Funeral Chauffeurs and Helpers said no. You don't belong to the union. They did, however, permit the Marines to hold the Old Flag taut over the casket as it was lowered into the grave.

Well, this is just a step before the time when Dr. Stork will have to be accompanied by the Baby Deliverers Union. Unions are becoming so protrusive in some sections that they almost make a decent person want to vomit. This one occasion, however, then it would have done no good to "tell it to the Marines." They knew it.

Most everyone believes there ought to be unions. Especially do large concerns like automobile manufacturers want them for bargaining and other reasons. No large concern wants a half dozen different kinds of payrolls. But cases like the above make all unions appear obnoxious.

Yulless Sawyer May Be a Future 'John D.'

Rumors and more rumors are being put out here in Brownfield about the wildcat oil well brought in recently on the Yulless Sawyer ranch at Cross Roads, N. M. But most of the rumors say they have a real well that is really putting out the liquid gold. But not even his brothers and sisters here seem to know much about the well.

His oldest brother, Arthur and the Old He are talking of a trip out here soon to snoop around and try to negotiate a loan. We have heard figures offered him for leases on his home sections that went as high as 2 million dollars. If we had three guesses, the first would be that Yulless himself is putting out nothing. Second, you wouldn't find out too much even if you went out there. Third, that Yulless just don't give many darns either way, as that boy likes his cows, and oil will be a side line with him.

Another thing, even if he and wife, Dessie, do get a million, 2 or 10 million, it will not make one iota of difference to them. Their old friends, rich or poor, will still be the same to them and they to their friends. No amount of property would change them in the least. Both are pioneer Territes from pioneer families, the Sawyers and Lewises, and money will never go to their heads.

Yulless reminds us so much of his late dad, Monroe B. Sawyer. His dad accumulated quite a ranch in his time here in Terry, one of the largest when the writer came here 39 years ago. But you could not tell him from the ordinary renter by the way he talked and acted. He was just as plain as the proverbial old shoe.

Not a few people now living or dead, including the writer, who got into a tight jam, got prompt financial help and a sympathetic understanding from the late M. B. Sawyer. He made no boasts about what he had done or would do, but when the pinch came, if you were at all worthy, you could carry your misfortunes to "M. B." with confidence. Then, when you got ready to pay, or make a payment, you generally had to look him up and get him down to the bank to settle. He never pushed you. We need more such men.

Kendrick Attends State Committee Meet

R. M. Kendrick, member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, attended the meeting of that Committee in Fort Worth last week.

He stated the majority of the committee favors sending an un-instructed delegation to the National Convention, and were not favorable to Truman, but did not intend to bolt the National ticket in November.

IT WAS JOSEPH— NOT DANIEL

We made quite a mess of our editorial on the "Secretary of Agriculture," down in Egypt. We got our Bible badly mixed.

What we intended to say was Joseph and not Daniel. Any school boy will know which was which.

While the middle northern Republican in preferential primaries are supporting Harold Stassen for president, the south, and this includes Oklahoma, in convention, controlled by old liners and stand patters, are going for Taft and Dewey. Northern Republicans seem to be more bent on party benefits; southern Republicans are looking for the feed trough they have been kicked away from for the past 15 years.

Strikers are resorting to plays that may in the long run prove a boomerang. In some places they are putting girls in the picket lines, with long slicker coats, thoroughly greased. If a person goes through the picket lines, they come out with soiled garments. Is that the best argument strikers have for their cause? No wonder every candidate union labor has supported this year have been defeated. Of course the police in some places are getting tough with sit down and lay down strikers, or too many nasty picketers, and are branded as the hired minions of employers by strikers. Once in awhile they have to bust a few hard heads with their night sticks, but they get order.

By the way, wasn't it Hanree Wallace back in the early '30's that had the pigs killed and crops plowed under? Some 4000 years ago there was another "Secretary of Agriculture," mentioned in Genesis, by the name of Daniel, a son of Jacob. In time of plenty Daniel stored up surplus grain to be used in years of drought. Nearly all Sunday school and Bible students are familiar with that story. How long will Hank be remembered after death has silenced his big mouth?

The Dallas News is running a short feature with a one column picture and a bit of reading matter, entitled, "Remember?" Recently one appeared that was very reminiscent to those of us that were grown folks in the "home brew" days. A clerk behind the counter had a can set out for two men customers, branded "Pink Ribbon Malt." A passing female customer didn't seem to be pleased with the sale, and arched her eyebrows, and uttered the word hmpf! Them was the good old days—or were they?

It is related that an old timer passing the Tech campus during one of our most sensational sandstorms, recently, and picked up a bunch of the collegian hitch hikers on their way down town. One of the boys made a rather disparaging remark about sandstorms in general. Whereupon, the old timer let it be known that he was strictly for them. Says he, "a bunch of folks, including weaklings flock in each year, but as soon as a few sandstorms come, they move back east. If all stayed out here on the Plains that come, there wouldn't be room to cuss a cat." Maybe he has something, after all.

A negro Communist leader in Detroit, and an employee of the Ford Motor Co., plant, was picked up last week by police as a suspect in the attempted assassination of Walter Ruethe, auto union president. It is a well known fact that Walter got pretty tough with Reds and fellow travelers. The black said he did not do the shooting, but indicated that he knew who did. By the way, the black-and-tans as well as the reds and pinkies seem to be steadily drifting into Hank Wallace's party. And at their meeting here in Houston, Texas, it was a motley affair, with a sprinkling of such "intellectuals" as J. Frank Dobie, who for his pinkish outlook was let out of the U of T as, an instructor, a year or so ago.

It is said that the Communist party can lose election after election, and still continue to function. But if and when they do win one, that is the last free election for that particular country. The communists see to it that they and their cronies are the only people who cast votes after that time.

Dr. Wilson of the Standard Oil Co., after announcing a 20 per cent in fuel oil consumption in 1947 over 1946, went on to remark that there absolutely was not enough oil available to heat America. Since the coal miners periodical strikes, more and more people have turned to oil to heat their homes.

According to the latest Gallup Poll, Harold Stassen has taken the popular lead for president. The April Poll gave him 31 per cent; Dewey 29 per cent; MacArthur 16 per cent; Vandenberg 10 and Taft 9. The March Poll for the three high hopefuls gave Stassen 15; Dewey 34 and Taft 9. If Stassen can continue to hold these leads until the June convention, he has an excellent chance of being the party nominee. In the meantime, HST as the Democratic hopeful seems to be slipping more and more. A lot of people, who have voted the Democratic ticket all their lives, are beginning to believe that Stassen is a better Democrat than Truman. This belief is augmented when it is considered that old line Republicans are bitterly fighting Stassen. There is just a bit of fear among South Plains papers expressed on account of Stassen's military record as an officer. But let us remember that Stassen never made militarism a career—just a volunteer in time of war. Most of his life has been spent in civil pursuits.

We note that Eddie, the Editor of the Post Dispatch says old Garza and vicinity got some badly needed precipitation. Same here Eddie. But what we really need is a wailing big rain—a gulley washer and trash mover. Let California and other "climate areas" have the precipitation.

Here's another one that perhaps we are too dense to understand, and we'd like some info thereof. Sunday dailies and radio blandly announced that 60 of the 140 million people in the USA would have an "extra" hour of daylight by going to daylight "saving" time. We read in the Bible where one Joshua stopped old Sol some hours by raising his arms and holding them up. But the Bible intimates that it was a miracle permitted by Jehovah. Now, by purely human ukase in some sections of the USA by slowing up the sun, an "extra hour" of daylight is added or "saved." Boy, ain't the getting wise?

Some of the big northern mags, such as Collier and Newsweek, et al, are getting kinder fed up on so much criticism of the South, and are asking the powers that be, lay off. Of course, Collier in an editorial recently stated that conditions were not altogether satisfactory in the south, and that southern people themselves were not entirely satisfied, but the south had come a long ways, and that lynching, for instance, had almost reached the vanishing point. Collier further stated that the south had not reached the point where it would be best for intermixture of the races, but might do so in the future. No laws, say Colliers or a setup of gestapos will help matters, no more than riots in the north can be

Behind the Scenes in American Business

Merchants in the nation's "bread basket" areas are keeping a literal weather eye on early wheat crop reports, which are usually accurate barometers of retail sales volume, particularly in the southwest.

Total winter wheat crops may be cut by lack of rain, according to early estimates, from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Continued drought might reduce winter wheat yields by as much as 50 per cent in the region, according to some predictions.

Even the record production and bumper crop years that have boosted farm income to new peaks has not caused retailers to lose sight of a basic business axiom of the wheat belt—that retail cash registers are controlled remotely by the weather bureau.

THINGS TO COME—A whistling auto accessory to conserve gasoline is now on the market. Device fastens to your gas tank and emits a warning whistle when fuel reaches proper level. . . . Use of small amounts of a new powder chemical is said to control corrosion, prevent lime scale and discoloration of water in small farms, commercial and home water systems. . . . Motor-driven minnow bucket, which mixes oxygen with water, helps keep fishing minnows alive and frisky during a week-long trip. . . . Small steel shelves which hang beneath regular ice-box shelves help stretch refrigerator space. . . . New fire-fighting trailer for use with small cars or trucks is equipped with a unit that makes 2,500 gallons of flame smothering chemical foam. . . . controlled other than by reason and education. But, says that magazine, the south is doing a fine job of eliminating Judge Lynch.

All at once says Drew Pearson in his syndicated column, Secretary Forrestal stopped the dismantling of German war plants, some over the protest of General Clay of our army of occupation. Not only that, but war criminal charges were withdrawn against the I. G. Fabens officials. Then Drew finds this information that most of us knew nothing about. It seems that Forrestal, as well as his under secretary, Reed P. Draper, were previous to the war, members of the Wall Street firm of Dillon, Reed Co., which firm was known to have helped the Krupp and Fabens interests arm Hitler for European conquest. If this is not true, no one has taken the trouble to deny it, and we find we have a fine bunch of guys in the cabinet of the president to look after our own safety. Are they going to get these plants ready for Uncle Joe to take over? We need a real house cleaning at Washington, D. C.

Of late we have been seeing pictures of the riots in the New York stock exchange, in which a number of rioters were down on the floor with bleeding noses. Over them stood police who were called to quell the disturbance between strikers and strike-breakers. But this is just the kind of scene Daily Worker, red paper in New York wants, as well as the controlled press behind the curtain. It showed how the "pore workers" are mistreated in the USA. At least the red press will make it appear that way.

According to INR neither the TVA nor the communists have been able to control drought nor floods. The government-ownership zealots began whooping and hollering that government power plants could prevent shortages, when the big drought hit California, but the dry weather went on. Then when floods struck the TVA dam, it could not prevent damages to the farms as the water had to be released as the dam could not hold it all. Of course these are some things the government can do—it can tax the well-to-do people to feed the fellow who will not work, as was done under the new deal, but it cannot stop a drought nor control winds. What has become of that tree planting effort carried on in '38 '39 in the west?—Yokum County Review.

Polio Dangerous — But Don't Panic

The danger of crippling and death from poliomyelitis is very real and should not be minimized, but according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, a knowledge of the facts about this disease will fight the fear of it, and aid in preventing the panic that is usually associated with the appearance of polio.

The facts about polio are these: It attacks so few people that 20 cases per 100,000 population is considered an epidemic. Half of those who get the disease recover without crippling; another fourth, with god care, recover with only slight crippling. Deformities can be prevented and crippling lessened in many cases by prompt, complete and sometimes prolonged medical care.

Even though these encouraging facts have been established, still with polio as with any other disease prevention is better than cure. Summer is the chief danger period, and to avoid the risk of contracting this disease, it is well to observe the following health suggestions, especially with regard to children: practice absolute cleanliness in personal, home and community life; try not to mingle with crowds; don't get over tired since extreme fatigue lowers resistance; avoid chilling by swimming overlong in cold water; consult your doctor at once if a member of your family has fever, headache, nausea, a cold, upset stomach, muscle soreness or stiffness.

Following these suggestions will help to prevent the spread of polio but if you do have a case in your family, remember that the majority of patients with good care recover without crippling. Your fear or panic will only make it harder for you and your child.

LADY PLUMBER IS 'MRS. FIXIT' Union News

"Who's afraid of a little dirt?" So the lady was given the job. Back in 1944, when men were scarce and the ladies were proving they could do most any job right if just given the chance, Mrs. Matilda Schooley, answered a call for plumbers at the Canton, Ohio, plant of The Timken Roller Bearing Company. She not only was given the job but has held it despite the easing of the labor shortage. Housewife and mother of three children during off-duty hours, "Tillie", as she is affectionately known throughout the plant, can fix that leaky faucet, put on a new fitting, thread a pipe and cut a section with the best.

Pulling Big Ones From Phantom Lake

Two ladies were in early this week and showed us a picture of an erstwhile Terryite, Henry Bates, with two large cat fish, one weighing 40 and the other 30 pounds. The ladies stated that soon after the picture was made, another channel cat weighing 38 pounds was taken. The ladies stated that one of the Howze boys from here, presumably H. H., was with Henry.

The Bates' left here recently to make Abilene their home, and they thought Henry and Ann had a camp house on Lake Fort Phantom, as well as a home in Abilene, and are just taking things easy, after years of hard toil and big

Yoakumite Claims The Largest Apple Tree

E. P. (Pam) Stanford and son, Hershell, were in the office Monday from their stock farm in southwest Yoakum county. Pam was telling us about a huge apple tree he planted on his tank dam about 1912. This huge Smoke-house apple tree is now near 70 inches in circumference at the butt, and E. P. says there is seldom a year that it does not have a fair crop of apples and sometimes a bumper crop.

He has other trees, also, of the Delicious and Missouri Pippin varieties, that bear well but the trees are not so large as the Smoke-house variety. He also has a thriving peach orchard. The giant apple tree shades a huge plot of ground.

By the way, Mr. Stanford has the first irrigation well put down in Yoakum county. However this year he is substituting the aluminum sprinkler system, instead of the ditch system, as it saves a huge amount of water and gets a better effect, as it more nearly answers for a rain.

The Stanfords also picked up a journeyman printer on the road over, but as we were not fresh out of printers, we could not use him. He corrected Mr. Stanford, however, and instead of a printer, he allowed he was a compositor. Different name without a difference. And we have just about decided that a "journeyman" printer is one that stays on the job two or three days until they get enough money to get on a tear, then "journey" on to the next town.

SHORT STORY Uncle Joe Rules The Roost

By M. J. COLLINS

BY GOL, woman, why don't you put that book down and come to bed? Uncle Joe had just gone into the bedroom off the kitchen. Aunt Martha was comfortably seated in a rocking chair by the large old-fashioned stove, feet on the oven door, reading a love story.

He slid cautiously under the sheets. "Ouch! It's cold!" he exclaimed. "My feet are like ice." Aunt Martha ignored his moaning and groaning for a few seconds. "Don't tell me you want the old lady to warm up your feet!" she said tartly. "At this time of the year, spring, too."

"I don't care if it's the hundred and second day of spring. The way the weather is acting up now you'd think it was the middle of winter, the ground has not even seen about four shadows this year! Brrr! I'm freezing."

"Oh, all right," Aunt Martha said resignedly, putting her book on the kitchen table and getting up. "What's that!" she exclaimed suddenly, cocking her head to one side. "Someone's stealing our chickens!" Aunt Martha cried excitedly. "I read about a gang that's doing it all over the county. Do something, Joe!"

"Get the shotgun!" Uncle Joe belatedly sliding out of bed. "I'll show them!" AUNT MARTHA dashed upstairs to the bedroom they used in the summer and got his shotgun out of the closet. When she returned Uncle Joe was out in the kitchen, still in his night shirt. He had laced his boots on and had an old toque of Aunt Martha's pulled down over his ears.

"Where's that flashlight?" "I don't know, you had it last." "Get the lantern then." "You're not goin' out there without your pants," Aunt Martha cried, aghast at his get-up. "Stand aside, woman, this is a man's job," he ordered imperiously. "Ain't no time to fool around." He dashed straight for the chicken house, his night shirt flying. Aunt Martha, wrapped in an old coat, was close at his heels.

"There's nothin' in here," he told Aunt Martha a few seconds later. He peered around intently. "Not a thing," he muttered. "Good gravy! Sit you! Scat!" he yelled suddenly. There was a crash and the dim light of the lantern went out. Aunt Martha gasped at all the racket. "Joe! Joe! Are you all right?" There was no answer. Then Uncle Joe cried hoarsely, "Get the flashlight, Martha, there's three of them wandering around in here. Hurry!"

AUNT MARTHA opened the door cautiously. A very strong odor assailed her nostrils. She swung the beam of the light all over the place. Most of the hens were standing or sitting all over the straw-covered floor, the lantern and shotgun were there also. "Joe, where are you?" she called. "I'm up here."

Aunt Martha swung the beam upward. Uncle Joe was perched on the topmost roost, hanging on to a rafter, in the company of about 20 disgruntled hens. It was hard to say who looked the most alarmed, Uncle Joe or the hens. Aunt Martha laughed loudly. "All right, laugh," he said sourly as he climbed stiffly down from his precarious perch. "What else could I do? At least I frightened them away." "I don't doubt that," Aunt Martha said, dryly. "Say, I don't feel any too warm out here," Uncle Joe shivered. "You better get back to the house this minute, Joe Quinn, or you'll catch your death of cold." Aunt Martha took over the situation. Uncle Joe permitted himself to be hustled into bed. As he sat up sipping the hot lemonade Aunt Martha had made him, he said, "I'm cold all over."

G I Question And Answer Department

Q. I was injured after I was discharged from the Army. May I get out-patient treatment for the injury? A. No. Veterans with non-service connected disabilities may not receive out-patient treatment from Veterans Administration. Q. I have not filed a claim for a service-connected disability, although I did sustain minor wounds in combat. Am I eligible for a 10-cent Civil Service preference? A. Yes. A veteran who does not have a compensable disability may secure Civil Service preference if he submits proof that he was awarded the Purple Heart. Q. I have a G-1 home loan, which, according to the present contract, has to be paid in 20 years. Is it possible to have this loan extended to 25 years? A. Your lender is the only person who can extend the date on which the loan must be paid. Veterans Administration will guarantee one half, but not more than $4,000, of your home loan if it is to be amortized in 25 years or less. Q. If an insured veteran becomes mentally incompetent, can premiums on his National Service Life Insurance policy be paid by another person? A. Yes. Premiums on NSLI can be paid by any person on behalf of the insured veteran, but care should always be taken to identify the insured veteran and each payment properly. Use a washing powder to clean painted woodwork or walls before repainting. If she gets all the water she wants, a cow will give 15 percent more milk.

Four Little Rules In Fire Prevention This year, the state and Federal forest services are conducting a drive to prevent forest, woods and range fires, ninety per cent of which are caused by human carelessness. Four simple rules have been prepared—and every one of them should be memorized and remembered by people who go into the woods on business or pleasure. 1. Hold your match until it's cold—then pinch it to make sure it's out. 2. Crush out your cigarette, cigar or pipe ashes. Use the ash tray in your car, and never throw smoking materials from the window. 3. Drown your campfire in water—then stir and drown it again. 4. Make sure you know the law before burning grass, brush, fence rows or trash. There's nothing in those rules a child cannot understand. There's nothing that will cause anyone trouble or expense. Yet their observance would save for ourselves and our descendants a very large part of the millions of acres of fine timber and grazing land that fire destroys each year—and save it with human and animal life, and the breeding grounds of wild creatures. In a matter of hours, fire will devastate a forest that represents the work of nature for scores or hundreds of years. It will raze our most beautiful vacation and hunting regions. If you don't want to be the cause of such a fire, follow those four simple rules of conduct in the outdoors.

Wants Friends To Know How Retonga Aided Him

"Every Bite I Ate Seemed To Turn Against Me," States Mr. Lee McClung, Who Found Retonga to be Everything Claimed for It. Tells of his Case. "When I find something good like for my friends to know about it, and that's the way I fell about Retonga," says Mr. Lee McClung prominent Hill County farmer, who lives at 101 Smith St., Hillsboro, Texas. He gratefully states: "Every bite of food I ate seemed to turn against me and form terrific gas pressure in my stomach. I suffered torture from sharp cutting pains in the pit of my stomach and at times it would seem to swell up as tight as a drum. At night it seemed to be worse and at times I thought the pressure would cut off my breath. I was on edge most of the time and I couldn't seem to get a good night's sleep. In the mornings I had to drag myself out of bed. "I certainly found Retonga to be everything claimed for it and I'm thankful for the prompt relief it gave me. I can eat anything I want now and not have to worry about that gas forming on my stomach. Once more I know what a good night's sleep can mean to a fellow, and I don't feel on edge like I did. I'm more than glad to recommend Retonga to anyone offering like I did." Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, combined with Vitamin B-1. You can get Retonga at Primm Drug Store and all other good drug stores. adv.

One-half acre of garden space is recommended for the average family. Something should be planted in the garden every week in the year and something should be taken out of the garden to eat every day. A garden is profitable if good soil, good seed and good fertilizer are used, and insects controlled.

To prevent eye strain, keep light globes, bulbs and shades free from soot and dust. Dirt film absorbs light that should be available for reading, sewing and other activities carried on in the room. Dust shades with a soft cloth or brush.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

More and more I get dubious about where we are coming out—this USA. I mean—this land of the free and easy. This prodigal goes-on of our boss-men in Govt., it is past being something to shrug off. Every page in the paper tells about more cash being dished into this or into that—no end.

Today there are 2 items. One is for $43,431,000 for the Hungry Horse power house in Moptana, and the other is for a 64,000,000 bucks loan to the UN for a new building. And it is a 100 to one shot that neither of the will ever be paid off. A typical day, I call it. But some of these times we are going to get the feeling that the camel had on that final day when the last straw was piled on—and his legs buckled. The wait may not be too long.

But there is always a hope that maybe Mr. Massachusetts' Joe Martin or that old Virginian gent, Mr. Byrd, or some other such level headed person who figures that the USA is still worth saving and knows how to wrangle it, will be our next boss-man. There is no law against hoping—so folks, join in, let's hope—also vote.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

Meadow News

The Meadow conducting team is made up of the following boys: Weldon Mason, President; Donald Bingham, vice-president; Wendel Mason, second vice-president and greenhand; Eddie Bingham, third vice-president and official "Chigger-Scratcher;" Dan Roberts, Secretary, Dan Brown, Treasurer; Jesse Upton, reporter; James Williams, advisor, Herbert Hicks, sentinel; Jimmy Dale Rogers, historian and conductor and Dean Curtis, parliamentarian and green hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Bingham were chaperons for the trip. Truett Babb and Eddie Fulford also made the trip. Mr. Babb is FFA teacher.

Everyone had an enjoyable time on the trip.

Several of the boys will be back in FFA work next year. They plan to do even better next year.

The Senior Class pictures panel has been received, and put up in the hall of the Meadow high school.

The Meadow high school officials announce, that the final exams will begin on the 7th and 8th periods on Monday, May 10. The exams will last all day on both days of May the 11 and 12.

The senior grades must be in by May 7th. All seniors, that have an average grade of "C" will not have to take the final exams. All Seniors, that have a grade below "C", or in other words, any Senior, that has to take the final exams will not be in the Baccalaureate program.

No pupils will be present on May 13. The teachers will have this day to make up grades. Books will be checked in on Wednesday May 12, and report cards will go out on Friday May 14, which will officially close this school year.

The Meadow Coop gin held a barbecue supper at the gin on Monday afternoon. About 600 people were served a delicious supper of barbecued beef, pickles, beans, onions, coffee, soda pop and doughnuts. The meat was prepared at Lubbock. There was meat sufficient to serve 1200 people. They also served 1500 donuts and 1200 bottles of soda pop. The crowd really enjoyed the splendid supper which was unusually well prepared.

At the business meeting, following supper, W. F. Walker was reelected as a director. Homer Barron was elected as a director. A. L. McCoy is the retiring director.

They declared about $16,000 to be paid in dividends.

The checks are now ready for dividends on "back stock" in the amount of 5 per cent.

Tom Brown, mgr., wishes to thank everyone for the fine cooperation that made the supper a real success. He also wishes to express his appreciation for the fine patronage that the Meadow community has given this organization.

SIDELIGHTS From Washington

By George Mahon

Most West Texans will approve the action of the House of Representatives last week with respect to two important subjects, public roads and the U. S. Air Force.

The House approved a new three year public roads program to succeed the program which is now being completed. Under the new law a total of 1 1/2 billion dollars will be expended by the Federal government over a three year period. The money will be spent in cooperation with the states for various phases of public road construction, including farm-to-market roads.

The bill approved by the House for the Air Force provides funds for a total of 2900 modern military aircraft. An additional 1500 planes are provided for the Navy. The number of additional planes for the Air Force is far in excess of the number originally requested by the President. This increase was provided in view of the unsettled world conditions and refusal of Russia to cooperate in our efforts to promote peace.

The passage of this legislation for an expanded and improved Air Force is one of the most significant and important steps taken by Congress since V-J Day. Undoubtedly the American people favor such a program. We had some difficulty in the House in securing passage of an important amendment but on final passage of the bill the House was almost unanimous, passing the measure with only three dissenting votes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Duncan of Wellman had as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Duncan, Jr., of Miami, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Tince Christman and son of Pecos; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Smyth and daughter of Brownfield; Mrs. Bula Atkins of Tahoka; Miss Helen Duncan of Brownfield; Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Christman and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Mavis Christman of Wellman.

Yankee Apologizes To The South

Everything is sweet again from the Maumee, Pelee, Tombigbee and Zazoo sections of the south. The Lt. Gov. of Massachusetts has come out with a full and complete apology, and appeals to the chivalry of the south to forgive him.

Lt. Gov. Colidge stated that he was adjudated because so many mills from New England were moving to the south, leaving people without jobs. This naturally put him up in the air.

Well, why not the hands move too? We feel sure they would like the warm breezes of the south, the tune of the nightgale and mockingbird, more than the frigid winters in old Mass.

A. L. Stell took Lyle C. Van Norman to Mineral Wells, Sunday, where the Van Normans oldest child is ill. Mr. Van Norman is market man at Stell grocery, and they have three children, who with their mother will move to Brownfield soon.

Farmers are learning to arrange things so chores can be done without unnecessary work. It's sheer waste to take 150 minutes for a job that could be done in 60 or 70 minutes with better planning. JAMES P. HART

Hart Enters Race For Associate Justice

James P. Hart, of Travis county, this week announced his candidacy for associate justice of the Supreme Court of Texas. Judge Hart will be seeking his first elective term on the Court. He was appointed to the position seven months ago.

Judge Hart said he was basing his candidacy on nearly 20 years legal experience as a practicing attorney, a prosecutor, Assistant Attorney General of Texas, and a judge.

This is the first time he has asked the people of Texas to elect him to a State office.

A native of Texas, who married a hometown girl, Katherine Drake in 1929, Judge Hart is the father of five children, ranging in age from six to eighteen.

In his announcement, Judge Hart stressed he was entering the race without a formal platform. "A judge's only proper platform," he explained, "must be a promise to follow as closely as

Lest We Forget

Any farmer or other business man who "went through the wringer" in the business depression following 1929 does not need to be told about the distress caused by falling price level. But with each successive war, many persons, especially those in the younger generation, have said, "Yes, I know that prices dropped after the other war, but this time don't you think we have quite a different situation?" Many persons are saying the same thing today.

This time we MAY have a different situation from that which followed previous wars and we MAY never see another period of low farm incomes. And we probably need the optimism of youth to offset some of the extreme caution of those who got burned in the last depression. But it would seem that all persons engaged in farming—youth, middle aged, and old—will do well to balance those conflicting desires of wanting to "shoot the works" and wanting to save everything by keeping their farm businesses backed up with a reserve in United States Savings Bonds. Such a reserve will be in the safest possible form and readily available in case of need. Also it can always be quickly converted into cash with which to speculate in case one feels nature is not providing enough gambling in farming to satisfy him.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hindman and daughter, Patsy, visited in Floydada over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Berry.

Mrs. Dallas Coldiron and son of College Station have been visiting with Mrs. Roy Jenkins. Mrs. Coldiron is a niece of Mrs. Jenkins.
