The Herald has grown with this section from strictly a ranch country. This area now consists of thriving towns and cities, supported by scientific farming and stock farming, augmented by huge oil fields, with the nation's largest known oil reserves.

'Rumors Are Flying'

Gertrude Jones
M. J. Craig stated that he thought maybe the Craig Motor Co., would be ready to move into their new building within the next week. Watch for his opening date as I think he is going to serve!

The Melody Music Mart has undergone a remodel job. The walls and floors have a new paint job and some fixtures have been added. Mrs. Short has received lots of pretty Christmas merchandise.

This is "Twirp" week, better known as "Sadie Hawkins." Several of the high school clubs are observing it. The teen-agers remarked they would hate for twirp week to last much longer as their funds are getting low.

Did you know that Stanolind Oil Company has a payroll of 99 employees.

We noticed "Uncle Mac" at Collins Dry Good for the past few weeks has been wearing a big smile. When approached, found he is the owner of a new car.

FLASH—Notice to the Ladies: Skirts are coming up! The average length now is to be 12 inches.

To the Fortune Teller hunters—prepare now to attend the school carnival Friday night at 7:00 o'clock at the Randal school. They will be able to read the future for you!

The Herald office has an inventor as well as a printer in Gene Walker. Several of his gadgets have turned out quite successfully.

We think an artist deserving honorable mention is Mrs. Mattie Perry at Lorene's Taste Shop. The decorations of colored icings she puts on cakes and cookies for special occasions are breathtakingly lovely.

My My how the stores are beginning to look Christmasy. Cave's I believe was the first to complete their decorations. Sure looks pretty.

Went down the street the other day and walked through the new office building of Dr. W. A. Roberson. It sure is a beautiful place. Doc reported that he hoped to be moved in by his next week. Watch for his opening date.

Today is Senior Day! They plan to spend the day in Lubbock.

This is National Flower Week—The Brownfield Floral presented Mrs. R. R. Hughes with a bouquet of gladiola and mums. Mrs. Hughes is the mother of Dr. H. H. Hughes and as far as they were able to learn is the oldest lady in town. She will soon be 88 years old.

Chesshir, Cornelius Buy Needmore Gin

Announcement was made last week that Herman Chesshir and Harry Cornelius had purchased the Needmore gin, 9 miles north of Brownfield on the Levelland highway. The two men have already taken over operation of the plant.

Herman has been with the cotton and gin business so long that it would scarcely be an exaggeration to say that he almost learned his grades and staples before he learned to read and write. Neither is Cornelius a newcomer to the ginning business and this is not the first time the two have been together. Harry told a Herald member last week that previously he had worked for Herman, with him and in competition with him.

St. Clair's Variety Being Enlarged

Announcement has been made on the enlargement of St. Clair's Variety store.
The store is to be enlarged by forty feet, of which 30 feet will be added to the sales department and the storage space will be doubled.
The store will also be remodelled throughout and new fixtures will replace the old ones.
The work on this building will start immediately.

Anent The Radio Station Going In Here, Maybe

In another place in this issue is an article by Associated Press that informs us that former State Senator Marshall Formby of Plainview and another gentleman have made application to Federal Communications Commission at Washington to put in a 250 watt daytime station in Brownfield. As we understand it, the FCC got sore at the big chains, and have allowed hundreds of new and weak sister stations to clutter up the air, especially in day time.

They have allowed up to three or four small stations in medium sized towns, and one each in many little better than villages. Owners and operators have been finding it increasingly hard to make a go of it in the smaller and some of the larger places. Some of the Lubbock stations have invaded Brownfield and other smaller cities in the area, in order to make up a deficiency in their income.

A checkup shows that very few people listen to the programs other than around noon for news broadcasts. A few housewives perhaps listen to some of them, but not many as some of them sound rather juvenile. As stated above, they so clutter the air that good programs on the big chains are hard to get until after dark, when the little fellows go to sleep.

Just recently, a station as far away as Midland sent solicitors to Brownfield and finally succeeded in rounding up sufficient sponsors for a short daily broadcast at a time when most people are at work. So far we have not seen a single person that has heard it.

Mrs. Jessie Machen Claimed Wednesday

Mrs. Jessie Ann Machen, 63, resident of Brownfield since 1938 died about 5:30 p. m. Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Worsham after an illness of more than a year.

The body was taken to Seymour where services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 in the Red Springs Baptist church.

Survivors, in addition to Mrs. Worsham, include three other daughters, Mrs. Edith Quinton and Mrs. Frances Hailey, both of Brownfield and June Machen, Seymour; seven sons, Ernest, Glenn and Carl of Seymour, Earl of Hico, Sid of Brownfield, Muriel of Plainview and John of Galt, Calif.; four brothers, Zeb Baird of Wheeler, Gee Baird of Mobeetie, John Baird of Kelton, and Hez Baird, Gilliland; and two sisters, Mrs. P. A. Clepper of Briscoe and Mrs. Gus Laquey, Gunnison, Colo.

Mrs. Marion Brown of Portales, N. M. visited in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Bynum last week while her husband and sons, Brownie and Joe were on a hunting trip.

Negro Picked Up For Stealing

A negro working for the La Mecca Cafe was picked up for stealing a stool and a few other small items. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine.

Two boys were picked up by highway patrolmen this week for stealing a fender skirt, wheel and tire on the night of Oct. 30th. Patrolmen reported they still had the merchandise in their possession when caught. One of the boys pleaded guilty and paid fine, the other one is still in jail.

Three boys were returned here Saturday by Deputy Buel Powell and Texas Ranger Raymond Waters for forgery, cold checking and defrauding a hotel. Two pleaded guilty and paid fines and the officers are holding the third for authorities in Hutechison county, where they have a warrant of indictment on swindle held against him.

Sheriff Ocie Murry picked up three minor boys and questioned for the theft of nine window panes and one door. The boys pleaded guilty and held over for Juvenile court Monday morning.

Highway Patrolmen who investigated the wreck Monday night, 6 miles south of Wellman, reported the driver of the truck hit a soft shoulder and turned the truck over. The driver, James Cransford, was treated at the local hospital and dismissed. He was driving a truck for the South Plains Associated Grocery.

Kathleen Joyce Price Death Victim

Miss Kathleen Joyce Price, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. (Jack) Price, was taken in death November the 11th, following an illness of only one week duration. Kathleen Joyce, a general favorite with her playmates and schoolmates, was a native of Brownfield, having attended school here in the lower grades, but finished high school at Ackerly.

Services were held Friday afternoon at the Crescent Hill Church of Christ, with Minister Alvis A. Bryan of the South Side church of Lubbock, officiating, assisted by Jimmy Wood of the local church. Burial followed in Terry County Memorial cemetery. Survivors are the parents, sisters, Mrs. Doyle Kelsey of Ackerly and Miss Wilma, at home and a brother, Wesley, A. grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Price of Houston.

Free Exam For Palsied Children

A clinic for the examination of children with cerebral palsy (sometimes called spastic paralysis or birth injury) will be held Monday, November 22 at the cerebral palsy Treatment Center, 1317 Tenth Street, Lubbock. Orthopedic Specialists from Fort Worth and Amarillo will be present to examine the patients.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kluting and son of El Paso is visiting in the home of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. McCain.

Time Change On Rural Deliveries

Postmaster James H. Dallas notified the Herald this week that due to change in railway schedules, the carriers on routes 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 out of Brownfield, will leave the postoffice at 12 o'clock noon until further notice.

Of course all here will understand that the railway schedule Mr. Dallas speaks of is on the main line of the Santa Fe from Sweetwater to Lubbock, as the branch line from Lubbock through here to Seagraves has quit carrying the mail.

This is one and one-half hours later than the mail has been leaving, which was 10:30 a. m. heretofore. As we understand it the T&P from Dallas and Fort Worth, was also later arriving into Sweetwater, making a change all around necessary.

Leaving the local post office at the old time, much of the time the carriers had to leave before the dailies for the rural readers arrived.

Can Now Subscribe For Star-Telegram

We have some good news for readers who have been wanting to take the Fort Worth Star-Telegram for years, but only renewals were taken. The publishers have notified The Herald that for a limited time they will take new as well as renewal subscriptions.

They reserve the right to cancel new subscriptions with a ten day notice. So you will have to hurry. Like everything else, the Star-Telegram is high. The bargain day rate on the Daily and Sunday is $13.95 and for daily without Sunday it is $12.60.

The Herald is authorized to take either renewals or new subscriptions, so, better hurry in with them.

Ray Brownfield Sells Out In N. M.

Mrs. A. R. Brownfield was in this week to renew for her Herald. All of which reminds us that she confided to our Mrs. recently that her husband had sold all his cattle and land holdings in N. M., and will take life pretty easy. Of course Ray has considerable holdings here in town and close about, yet.

But he sold his New Mexico stuff when prices were tops. We remember that Ray got a bit pinched after the other war. He did not tell us that, nor did Madam Rumor. We got it straight from his dad. That perhaps learned Ray there was a time to sell as well as buy.

The Cotton Crop Is Now Coming Out

The past week showed up black patches in the cotton fields seemingly faster than any time this fall. The weather has been dry and cool and it is being ripped out fast. The leaves have also been killed, and it will not be long until the mechanical harvesters will be getting in their work.

Was out Sunday in the Pleasant Valley section. The Stricklin families called first at the Oliver residence then at the Phillip Rogers home, where we mulled over the events of the day to some extent. Phillip is preparing to work 160 acres of land next year, his first crop in Texas or Terry county.

There were spots out that way where the cotton looked fairly well, and others that would not make a bale to ten acres. Feed has been mostly cut and shocked, or that which had headed had been combined, and a lot of the grain was piled in the fields.

Do not know whether the elevators are full, or that it was just the farmers had not had time to haul it in. And it could be that they were letting it dry out some more.

Cotton Balance Sheet Goes Up

The cotton crop this year is approximately 3,250,000 bales more last year's, Dr. A. B. Cox, University of Texas professor of cotton marketing, reported.

The unusually large cotton crop in the United States this year is the result primarily of increased yield per acre. Improved yields per acre account for about 90 per cent of the increase and expanded acreage for only about 10 per cent of the gain.

Exports of United States grown cotton with the help of the Economic Cooperation Administration will probably exceed 4 million bales, and domestic consumption is expected to exceed 9 million bales. This should leave a carryover of about 5 million bales on next August, Dr. Cox said.

World supplies of all cotton for 1948-49 will be about the same as for 1947-48 because of the reduced carryover last August. World production this year is now expected generally to balance world consumption at about 28 million bales.

Interest Sold In Wilgus Drug

Mr. E. W. Wilgus announced this week that he now has a new associate, Alvin Forbus in the Wilgus Corner Drug Store.

Mr. Forbus needs no introduction as he is not a newcomer here. He was the former owner of the Orr dairy and has farming interests around Brownfield.

Mr. Forbus will assume his duties in the store as soon as his crop is gathered, which will be within the next week or so.

Mr. Wilgus wants his customers to know that he will still be in the store and on duty at all times.

Meadow Pioneer Died Last Saturday

James Finley, 84, a resident of Meadow since 1923, passed away last Saturday afternoon at 5:30.

Mr. Finley had been ill for the past year. Funeral services were conducted by A. C. McElroy at the Meadow church of Christ last Sunday afternoon at 3 P. M.

Burial followed in Meadow cemetery, directed by Brownfield Funeral home. The Meadow Masonic lodge, of which he was a charter member, conducted graveside services. Grandsons served as pall bearers.

Survivors are five sons, B. F., J. C., and A. C. all of Meadow; T. E. of Levelland and R. M. of Floydada. Three daughters, Mrs. C. W. Avary, Mrs. W. E. Norman and Mrs. Homer Cousseaux, of Meadow.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tarrance and Sybil of Lubbock visited in the home of their daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hackney over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Milner of Lubbock visited in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Milner Sunday.

Odessa Banker To Head Westex C of C

A West Texas banker and a group of well known business men will direct the activities of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for another year in what has been declared the most outstanding work program in the history of the organization.

John D. Mitchell, president of the First National Bank of Odessa, is the new president of WTCC. He formerly was a Lubbock banker and has been active in West Texas financial affairs for a number of years.

J. M. Willson, Floydada, owner of a dozen lumberyards on the plains, and a trustee of SMU and McMurry College and active in Boy Scout work, is first vice president. B. P. Blutworth, oil fields advertising man of Brownwood is second vice president and Frank Kelley, Colorado City oil man is third vice president. Ed S. Stewart, Abilene candy manufacturer was elected treasurer.

D. A. Bandeen was reelected to the general management where he has been for 20 years, with a rising ovation to his long leadership in West Texas activities.

Principal activity of the organization for the ensuing year will be in its fight for protection of domestic water rights and attempt to increase water development in the area, according to the convention program.

Native Brownfield Boy Reburied at Big Spring

Lt. Bernie LaVoice Scudday, son of Mrs. Pearl (Cunningham) Scudday of Forson, and the late John C. Scudday, was reburied at Big Spring last Wednesday following services at a Baptist church in that city. Lt. Scudday was born in Brownfield in 1919, and the family moved from this city when he was a youth.

He completed high school at Forson, and attended John Tarleton college.

Burial followed with military rites by American Legion. Survivors other than his mother are, W. F. of Garden City, M. V. of Brownfield; W. O. and ElRay of Forson, and one sister, Mrs. M. M. Hines of Forson. Also an aunt, Mrs. R. M. Kendrick of this city and uncles Jim Cunningham of Yoakum county and Rev. Arthur Scudday of this city. Among the pall bearers were Richard and John Kendrick of this city and Kenneth Hill, formerly of Brownfield, now of Lubbock.

Lt. Scudday trained at four places, including Kelly Field at San Antonio before going over, after receiving his commission in June 1943. He was on his 24th mission over enemy lines when shot down near Paris, France, June 27, 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Stricklin of Cleburne came in Sunday night for a short visit with their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stricklin. Mrs. S. will visit with relatives in Brownfield while her husband covers the larger cities of the Panhandle with his furniture sales.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Falls are business visitors in Dallas and Greenville this week.

W. T. Howze, Bob Bowers and Tom May are at the Howze cabin in Abilene this week fishing.

Demos Celebrate With $10 Feed at Lubbock

Area Democrats or some 360 of them met at Lubbock Monday night to celebrate their victory. As far as we can gather, only three from Brownfield were able to muster that sum of $10, a banker and wife and the postmaster. They were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gillham and James H. Dallas. The report in the Lubbock daily was that a fine time was had in which opposition to Mr. Truman was ridiculed and caajoed by some. Others were more serious.

Congressman George Mahon seemed to have been the main speaker to the crowd representing several south Plains counties, as well as Lubbock. His position was that while the next congress would not be a "rubber stamp" affair, when possible it would go along with the president in order to put over needed legislation.

The Herald can hardly believe there is a citizen of this section that is so low that they would wish any thing but good in the coming four-year term of President Truman. No matter how hard they might have worked for Dewey or Thurmond, they sincerely desire that our country will be safely led in the paths of peace and prosperity.

Southern States To Collect Food

Atlanta—Six southern states are now actively engaged in campaigns to collect trainloads of farm commodities for overseas relief, was announced here today by Thomas F. Byrd, director of the Southern regional office of the Christian Rural Overseas program (CROP), sponsor of the trains.

The six states Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Texas are included in a total of more than 30 states which will support food trains by the end of the year.

It is expected that Southern states will assemble donate commodities between Thanksgiving and Christmas, for shipment from Southern ports. Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, and Texas have already organized down through many counties and parishes and volunteer canvassers are going from farm to farm accepting pledges for commodities to be delivered at a later date.

Commodities most needed include: seed cotton, corn, peanuts, rice, milk, and syrup. Whenever practical, unprocessed commodities will be shipped, thus providing employment as well as relief.

Seed cotton is especially needed. All Crop cotton is manufactured into finished articles overseas. None of the cotton is sold there to cover cost of processing. Crop is a 100 per cent relief program into which 100 per cent of the raw cotton goes.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Falls are business visitors in Dallas and Greenville this week.

W. T. Howze, Bob Bowers and Tom May are at the Howze cabin in Abilene this week fishing.

No Bond Sale Quota Gillham Announces

Seeking to encourage farmers and ranchers to build financial reserves for themselves, a special campaign for the sale of U. S. Saving Bonds was launched in Terry County today (Nov. 11).

This announcement was made by J. O. Gillham County Saving Bonds Chairman, who explained that the effort here will be a part of a nationwide drive having three objectives. These objectives are: To get farmers and ranchers to save as much money as they can; to increase the number of wage and salary earners who are buying Savings Bonds where they work; and to increase the number of participants in the banks' Bond a month plan.

"So far as this country is concerned, the farm and ranch objective is the most important because the welfare of our whole area is largely dependent upon the well-being of our farmers and ranchers," he said.

He said that the drive would continue through this year, and that an effort would be made to contact every farm and ranch family in the county.

"Most of livestock and farm organizations and government agricultural agencies are assisting in our effort to sell Saving Bonds to farmers," he said. "They are doing so because they all agree that financial reserves are as necessary to the successful operation of a farm and ranch as they are to business in the city, and that now, while farmers and ranchers are enjoying a measure of prosperity is the time for them to build these financial reserves as a protection against the future."

He received notification from Nathan Adams of Dallas, chairman of the Treasury Department's Advisory Committee for Texas, that no dollar quotas had been established for the campaign. However, the state goal is to add 50,000 to the number of men and women who are buying bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan, and 8,500 to the number of bank depositors who buy bonds automatically through the Bond-a-Month Plan. The national goals are 1,250,000 new participants in the wage deduction plan and 50,000 new participants in the Bond-a-Month Plan.

The American Legion has adopted the campaign on a nationwide basis as a part of its program for making America stronger.

Brownfield Army To Play Seagraves Navy

The Brownfield veterans will return the football game with Seagraves, Friday night Nov. 26. The game will be played at the football field in Seagraves, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

The Brownfield team will be known as Army and Seagraves, Navy.

The Brownfield Navy team was winner of a game played here last Friday night, 13-0.

All proceeds derived from the game will be divided between the two teams and they will donate the money to their local welfare and charity fund.

BURNED OVER FOREST—This aerial photo shows what was once a fine stand of pine timber south-west of Lufkin in Angelina county, not far from Corrigan. The blackened area was killed 100 per cent by an October forest fire. The Texas Forest Service said more than 700 fires during October which burned over more than 100,000 acres of valuable timber. NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS

On and after December 1, the advertising rates of the Herald will be advanced from 50c to 60c per inch. Those using 100 inches or more space per month will be graded downward. At this time we anticipate no advance in classified advertising or subscriptions.

Reason: There has been a constant advance in the price of everything entering into the production of a newspaper, including wages and raw materials, the latter almost 200 per cent in the past six years. We find that our taxes will be greatly hiked over last year. Necessary food and clothing are still very high.

We are sorry to have to make this announcement, but if we are to meet our own obligations we must have an income commensurate with rising costs.

Jimmy Rankin in his "Week At A Time" Column in the Ralls Banner makes the too often statement, concerning Dewey's twice defeat, which is a bit of error. Now Jimmy is a teacher, and perhaps is a close student of history, but when he intimates that presidential candidates are rarely nominated twice, he is right, but he goes a bit too far on the third round. We older people remember that William Jennings Bryan ran in 1896, 1900 and 1908—three times.

Several of our good contemporaries always like to refer back to 1933 as a sample when "Democratic prosperity" began to take hold. That is a thread-bare expression with both Republicans and Democrats. We can remember that when McKinley took over following the awful "Cleveland" depression—we called it a panic then—of 1893, the Republicans boasted of this for years, as they did in 1921 when Harding took over from Woodrow Wilson. The prosperity beginning about 1898 was brought on mainly by the short Spanish-American war. Woodrow Wilson rode the crest of the war prosperity of the teens, and Roosevelt-Truman the last war. But the prosperous time played out the last year of Wilson's administration, came back after Harding came in and the GOP claimed the earth, just as the Democrats are now. There is absolutely nothing whatever to such claims. Depressions come and go, and they don't wait for a certain party to get in or another to get out.

Well, didn't that new baby boy over in England cut a rusty and knock 'em over from Montreal to down under Sidney. Perhaps had "Ol' Hingland" treated the USA half right back in 1775, we'd be yowling about that new prince too. But as it is, to most sensible Americans, it is just another parasite for the already tax-burdened Britishers to support.

The Ralls Banner tells us that it has been about a year since a negro bootlegger killed the Crosby county sheriff. The negro was tried and was promptly given the death sentence by a jury of his peers. But since that time the case has been hanging fire in the court of criminal appeals in Austin. In the meantime the people and even the criminal had rather know what to expect. But perhaps Editor Joiner will remember that this is the same court that reversed two cases, one because the grand jury did not state that the victim "was stomped to death by the stompee with shoes on his feet." And in another because the grand jury did not make plain that a man who drowned his wife, "did so with water." Perhaps the learned lawyers composing the court in question are still trying to find an equally silly excuse to free the Crosby county negro bootlegger and murderer.

So old Grandma Roosevelt is going to kick all us Dixiecrats out of the Democratic party. Well, old gal, most of us have considered ourselves out of the so-called Democratic party since last July at Philadelphia, and especially so since the massed mob convention at Fort Worth this fall. And if that racial fraternizing woman is now the boss of what was once the party of the South, we'll still be out the next time you hear from us. We have liked many negroes we have met in our time; some of them have been good friends, but we despise some so-called white people.

Don't expect to get any reduction in your income or withholding tax. Quite the reverse is probable. In fact, if the administration gets its socialized medicine bill over, it is expected to cost the taxpayer an additional 15 billion dollars off the reel, and 100 billion by 1960. The proposed small extra withholding tax to care for doctors and medicine will not be a drop in the bucket.

The Truman Labor Party is already planning repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law. Something on the order of the old Wagner Act that protected the employee and muted the employer, will likely take its place. We look for strikes and more strikes in the future, as if there was not already several going all the time now.

You might as well kiss your green foliage, except evergreens, goodbye till next spring. These leaves are now all dead, and many are as naked as a new born. And this reminds us. All yards with bermuda grass are turning yellow; those with the new yard grasses are still nice and green. Makes us want to change over to the new wild rye and other type permanent green lawns.

Maybe a lot of our readers, if any, think we harp too much on the danger of fires, and too much about being cautious with them in the homes and on the premises. But we cannot think of the matter without statistics popping up in our head, that fires, serious and otherwise, will take a toll of one out of 100 homes in America in the next twelve months, and with them will go 2400 little fellows too small to take care of themselves, along with many thousands of adults, not to mention some $700,000,000 worth of valuable property. Included in this property will go up in smoke many heirlooms that cannot possibly be replaced, such as photographs and gifts from loved ones who have passed and gone.

We Texans can hardly see the trees for the woods. There is a big oil field in nearly every portion of the state. We are so used to seeing them, we can hardly recognize their importance, not alone to ourselves, but to the entire world. Recently up in Rhode Island, a state that has no petroleum, other than that imported, an instructor in a college stated: "One can hardly minimize the importance of oil to this nation, or to the world. We should strive to protect the interest of those who are spending time and money to bring oil to the surface, instead of making it harder for them to expand."

Some of the southern Senators and Representatives seem to think there is a possibility of compromising with President Truman on some of his anti-southern legislation. They think that by allowing poll tax payments as a prerequisite to voting to be killed, and some kind of anti-lynch bill to pass, the rest of the program, including FEPC could be shelved, and our present international relations, being what they are today, more important things taken up. But to our notion, HST is too much like the animals his state is famous for producing. We hope we are wrong. Mr. Truman is now the president in his own right for the next four years. All patriotic Christians should remember this, and pray that he rule wisely and justly, that our nation may continue to have peace and prosperity.

Journalism Students Organize Club

Recognizing the importance of weekly and small city newspapers in Texas, University of Texas School of Journalism students have organized a Grass Roots Press Club. Purpose of the club will be to visit small city newspapers when feasible, and to bring publishers to the campus to discuss their problems. Officers are W. Blake Miller, Austin, president; Charles Row, Jr., San Antonio, vice president; Joy Fields, Austin, secretary-treasurer, and Ben Hartley, Mart, reporter. Members at present are enrolled in the Small City Newspaper course taught by Professor Olin E. Hinkle. Texas has about 530 weekly newspapers and many fine small dailies—far too important a group to overlook in considering one's journalistic future, Miller said. Texas weeklies have a circulation in excess of 722,000 and are read by more than half of the state's residents. Eighty-five per cent of the Texas population is in towns under 10,000 population. Eighty-four per cent of Texas counties have no city of more than 10,000 population. It is estimated that readers of American weekly newspapers spent 43 billion dollars in 1947, or about 41 per cent of all money going into retail trade. This fact, plus the high readership of the small papers, makes the American weekly an unusually stable institution. It has a place which no other medium of communication can fill. Rev. and Mrs. Ted Brian and family have moved to Plains, he is pastor of the Baptist church. Mr. E. J. Cooper of Tahoka visited in the home of his daughters, Mrs. P. A. Nowlin and Mrs. Andrew Cooper, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Holmes are visiting their daughter, Betty, who is attending Stephens College in Columbia, Mo.

Texans Plan Relief To Hungry Nations

On Thanksgiving Day the American Silent Guest Plan for relief to distressed Europe will be inaugurated over the nation for a second consecutive year, Governor Beauford H. Jester has announced.

The Governor has proclaimed the month November 25 to December 25 as Silent Guest Plan month in Texas.

Last year's drive netted more than $1,400 for Texas' share of the aid to Europe's poverty-stricken people—war orphans, widows and old folks. The Governor expressed confidence that donations in 1948 will exceed those collected last year.

As projected through the nation, this plan calls for each American family to invite a "Silent Guest" to eat at his table for one month, sharing in a Thanksgiving and a Christmas dinner.

Mindful of the fact that it would cost a family approximately $30 to feed a guest for one month, the Governor has suggested that those families with limited incomes may "share" a Thanksgiving meal or that and a Christmas dinner.

After calculating the cost for feeding this extra person, the

Rheumatic Heart A Crippler, Killer

Rheumatic heart disease, acrippler and killer of children, is one of the leading causes of death and disability among children and young adults in the age group 10 to 25 years.

No vaccine such as those that prevent typhoid, diphtheria, smallpox and whooping cough has as yet been developed for its prevention and control, but we do know some of the danger signals and with a physician's early diagnosis, some of the damaging results of this disease may be prevented.

family may mail a check or money order, covering that sum, to the Governor's office in Austin. The collections will be forwarded then to Committee headquarters for purchase of food packages from the non-profit, government approved organization, CARE, for delivery to needy families in Europe, Governor Jester said.

CARE, the Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe, Inc., was chosen by the American Silent Guest Committee last year to handle the funds because it represents all of the major religious and nationality groups, and is the only organization of this kind so comprehensive in scope.

vented. Quoting Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, "in general, the early symptoms of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows or wrists. The pain is felt usually in one of these joints and spreads to the others. Often a child gets irritable and cross without any apparent cause; he may cry easily and develop habits indicating nervousness. These symptoms may mean the beginning of an attack of rheumatic fever, and a physician should be consulted immediately."

Predisposing causes to this disease, which include frequent chilling, damp or overcrowded living quarters, poor diet, colds, an attack of scarlet fever or other infections caused by certain streptococcus germs, should be carefully avoided.

Protection against these predisposing causes may mean protection against rheumatic heart disease, and these safeguards should be observed; Have children examined by a physician at least once a year; see that they have a well balanced and nourishing diet; make certain that they get sufficient rest, and see to it that they are dressed according to the temperature of the room or the playground. Consult a physician at once if symptoms indicate that

More Grain For Dairy Cows

This fall and winter it may pay Texas dairymen to feed their cows more grain. Of course it's a good idea for dairymen to always feed their cows well, says C. G. Gibson, extension dairy husbandman of Texas A. & M. College. Give them all the good roughage they will eat and feed them more grain, especially the higher producing cows.

This year there is a rather special situation. Texas has had a long drought, but in some places light sprinkles are trying to put an end to it. With labor still a problem, the high price for meat have caused a cut in the size of dairy herds. Gibson says that farmers now have about four percent fewer milk cows than a year ago. And if the total milk production is going to meet the big demand that customers are calling for, then dairymen will have to get more milk from the cows they have.

Gibson says that up to a certain point, each pound of grain added to the ration will boost the milk production a little higher. He points out that how much extra grain they get depends on how much they are getting now, and on the local price of grain compared to the price of milk.

In line with this idea of more grain for the cows, Gibson says the present butterfat feed ratio for 1948 of 25.7 pounds of feed

LOCAL STUDENT TAKES COURSE AT U OF T

Forty-four University of Texas students have been chosen for Radio Workshop. Radio Workshop is composed of students interested in doing practical radio work. Broadcasts are made by the group over Austin radio station.

New members include: Charles Edward Bay of Brownfield.

Mrs. Elsie Kendrick and son, Sammy K. spent the past week-end visiting relatives in Amarillo.

There are large supplies of feed grains, and prices are more favorable now to heavy feeding than during the early summer. Research shows that when cows are fed 10 per cent above standard level, the average cow produces just four-fifths of a pound of milk for each pound of grain fed. And when you get to feeding up to 30 per cent above the normal level, the average cow produces only half a pound of milk for each extra pound of grain, says Gibson.

That gives some guide in feeding for more milk. It's just the old law of diminishing returns working again.

Senator Elect Johnson Issues Statement

AUSTIN Nov. 17.—Texas new junior United States Senator, Lyndon Johnson of Johnson City, took time out this week to express his "humble gratitude for the faith and loyalty of the hundreds of thousands of Texans" who cast their votes for him in the general election.

The tall, hefty son of a pioneer Texas legislator said: "I just can't find it in my heart to bear any grudge against those who used their money and their voices in an effort to defeat me. I want to serve all the people of Texas who are for me and those who are against me as ably as I can as Senator."

Johnson's wife, Lady Bird, left Austin shortly after election returns made it clear he had won a sweeping two to one victory at the polls throughout the State. The young Senator and his wife vacationed in El Paso for their first "time off" since 1947, but limited it to only three days so they could continue answering the "hundreds of letters and telegrams of congratulations received after the election victory."

"Lady Bird and I are very grateful for all the letters our friends have taken time to write" Johnson said. "We want everybody to continue writing us in Washington passing along suggestions and criticisms that will help us serve the people better."

Johnson also urged all Texans to "pray that the men who will lead the nation during the next few years will act with wisdom and courage to keep this country at peace."

Diamond Gusher

An oil gusher made of diamonds represented Texas at the first nationwide diamond exhibition, called Diamonds U.S.A., held in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in New York. Shown here by SMU co-ed Jo Neal, the four-inch jeweled oil derrick was designed by Arthur A. Everts of Dallas, and contains 254 diamonds, representing all the counties of Texas. It is mounted on a map of the state, made of platinum and adorned with a diamond steer head symbolizing Texas' other great industry, cattle. The sprays of gushing oil are of various colored diamonds.

Four Feet Eight And One-Half Inches

Measure the distance between the rails on any railroad in this country. You will find that it measures out to precisely four feet eight and one-half inches. The only exceptions are a few special purpose narrow gauge lines.

Anyone can understand the vital importance of standardization of railroad tracks. Any car, no matter what its point of origin can go anywhere in the country. Any locomotive can be hitched to any train. Any yard can handle repairs and maintenance of rolling stock. And so the products of our farms and factories can be moved swiftly and economically from one end of the nation to the other.

But the standard gauge railroad track didn't just come full-fledged into being. In the early days there were a dozen or so different gauges. Some were as narrow as two feet and some as wide as six. The complication that caused are obvious. If goods had to move over different lines, a long series of expensive unloadings and reloadings was frequently necessary.

So the standard gauge was devised and adopted. And that was done by voluntary cooperation among the railroads of the country. They compete aggressively among themselves to get business—but they work together in a common cause in matters concerning the betterment of their service to the public. That has been a guiding principle during the industry's entire dramatic history.

U of T Has 2 Million Oil Well Samples

The 36-year-old well sample collection belonging to the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology will be indexed in a publication to be issued soon, Dr. J. T. Lonsdale, Bureau director reports.

In the collection are two million samples from 25,000 Texas wells.

Publication of the index should make the oil well sample library of greater benefit to oil industry geologists, Dr. Lonsdale said. The collection is now located in the new Off-Campus Research Center five miles north of Austin.

This street has right-of-way over traffic on all streets crossing it, including Hill, Main, Broadway and Tate.

From personal experience, the writers warns all motorists using this street, for the time being at least, to approach all intersections with extreme caution as many are not yet aware of the fact that the installations have been made, while they are aware of the fact, have not as yet grown used to the fact. We are all creatures of habit and it takes most of us some time to get used to change in the usual order of things.

Speaking of hard luck, the Yoakum County Review, Plains, says that Jeff Beal is going on crutches from the effect of a broken leg rendered by a calf he was helping to brand. This after years of brood busing.

Florida Man Wants No More Wings of Wind

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Flying through the air doesn't appeal to L. A. Vickers of South Pompano Beach—especially when a tornado is the cause. Vickers, lucky to get off with his life, found a funny twist to the disaster: It "picked" his pockets of a dollar in change and left instead some green stuff—seaweed.

It all happened when a tornado hit Pompano Beach during an October hurricane. Houses were blown down and the damage was considerable. But to Vickers' went a ride through the air. He says it was 350 feet.

Vickers and his wife were standing in their home during the height of the hurricane when suddenly the house began to rock. "There was a roaring sound like a squadron of airplanes," said Vickers. He clasped his wife, fearful the house was going to topple. "The next thing I knew, the east wall did collapse. And suddenly both of us were flying through the air. I lost my grasp on her. I was perfectly conscious of moving through space, as on the wings of some freakish force.

"I had a sensation of floating. There was NO sound and overhead I saw a distinct white light, as if it were the sun hidden by clouds. I was gasping for breath. I remember seeing white cranes and other birds whirling in the air near me."

Vickers said while in the air, there was a thundering blow against his jaw. "I was knocked out. When I regained consciousness, I found myself waist-deep in water near an adjoining house at least 350 feet from our place. I heard my wife cry out. But as I struggled to trace her call, I was hit on the head again, and once more knocked out."

Vickers was dazed but unhurt. Mrs. Vickers suffered a twisted spine and other injuries. The Vickers dog? He was found unharmed two days later, bedded down in straw in the rear of a truck.

No. It Didn't Happen In Duval County

The County Wide News of Littlefield carried a report of the District Court Grand Jury in its issue last week.

The report stated that the whereabouts of one Joe Lytle was unknown. And yet the grand jury did not bill any one for allowing him to go free, and a fine and costs hanging over him exceeding a thousand dollars.

The grand jury report stated the sheriff understood the county judge to tell him to turn Lytle out of jail; and the county judge said he did not say any such. But anyway, Lytle departed for parts unknown, and has not come back.

No you are mistaken, we did not say Duval or Jim Wells county—we said "Lamb County"—The Anton News.

G I QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. When a veteran secures a loan under the G-I Bill, does the Government make an outright payment on it without charging the veteran anything?

A. Yes, VA pays the lender, for credit to the veteran's loan, an amount equal to 4 per cent of the guaranteed portion of the loan. For example, if the guaranteed portion of the loan is $4,000, the lender will receive $180 from VA to credit to the debt of the veteran.

Q. I am a World War II veteran and wish to go in business. Must I have experience in the business in order to get a GI loan?

A. Experience is an important element in the success of the average business. You should be able to show a reasonable expectation of success in your venture in order to get your loan.

Q. Must a disabled veteran go to a vocational school or may he go to a liberal arts college, a high school, or similar institution under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act?

A. He may enroll in any VA-approved educational institution or training establishment offering the course of training which VA has found he needs to insure

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

With winter about to set in, I am starting to go literary. Now says Henry, I have heard everything you going bookish can't be. Yep, I says, I have books have half dozen of same. And anybody choosing to inquire, I will tell them none of my books are the ones some folks say they gotta read in order to un-lax or get away from something. These excuses are both an alibi for not reading something where you need to use the noggin.

Now, back to my 6 volumes. They are the Scot Handbook, the Dictionary, Aesop's Fables, the Bible, Joe Miller's Jokes and a volume of writings by the Old Masters Longfellow, Emerson, Washington Irving, Bryant. And before going further, any old pelican or young pelican or even our sweet mamas, they should take time out from the ball scores, and the soap suds radio dilemmas, and read Mr. Bryant's Thanatopsis. A pare and a half about 10 minutes. It will get the cobwebs out.

Don't say, well, Josephus may be has something there I will read it soon, or sometime. Read it now you will be a better citizen maybe. You reading poetry, I can't believe it, says Henry. Yep, I says and it wouldn't hurt you either or any other old spalpeen.

Editorial Writers In Conference

By Horace B. Ward LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 18—(AP)—Readers who bypass newspaper editorials in their haste to look at the sports page, society columns and the comics will be the chief concern of newspapermen from Maine to Texas who meet here Nov. 18-20.

The National Conference of Editorial Writers calls it a convention, but it might better be called a seminar or a clinic.

The men and women who pen the "think pieces" in American newspaper editorial pages must be well posted in almost every subject from atomic energy to local garbage collection. But planners of the convention say editorial writers also must be able to present their facts in a spritely, popular style so the page assigned to them won't be unexplored country to the average reader.

The breadth of knowledge expected of editorial writers is reflected in the varied topics of the conference program.

The opening discussion will be on "The National Problem of Natural Resources." Discussion leaders will include Tom Wallace, editor emeritus of the Louisville Times and a veteran in conservation work; Dr. William A. Albrecht, University of Missouri; Fairfield Osborn, author of "Our Plundered Planet," and George L. Petersen of the Minneapolis Star.

Other topics will include editorial comment on public questions, research typography, cartoons, Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, executive vice president of the How's our railroad doing, young man?

"Is it making any money?" "What are they paying for fuel these days?" "Are you hauling much freight?" "Do you like your job?"

The little old lady is not a busybody—she is merely looking after one of her investments. She has some money in the Santa Fe. Maybe it's ten, maybe it's twenty, maybe it's fifty shares of Santa Fe stock. She is entitled to attend a stockholders' meeting. She can get on her feet and ask our board of directors questions just like the above. She can compliment those gentlemen for their management, or she can bang her umbrella on the table and tell them off.

Santa Fe stockholders, just as those of any railroad, know that American railroads must be permitted to earn at least 6% (many other industries turn more) on their investment in order to maintain sound and progressive operations and to continue to provide shippers and passengers with the finest in rail transportation.

can't do a lot. Alone, she couldn't elect a president of the United States. But stockholders just like her—housewives, teachers, merchants, salesmen, laborers—can tell us how to run the Santa Fe, and they do. (Actually 29,178 Santa Fe stockholders are women, most of them holding only a small number of shares each.) And that's the beauty of America—the voice of the people is the voice that runs things, whether it's operating a transcontinental railroad or putting a man in the White House. Isn't it a wonderful country where so many can own so much? That's "Free Enterprise."

STRICKLINLY SPEAKING

Serious—Sincere—Silly
Not only will the small gentlemen have his electric train, if his old man can rake up the kale for it, but it is stated that the little ladies will be able to get a doll that will actually burp.

I is thought that the next Congress will investigate the Gallup, Roper and Crossley poll setups. What for? Such polls are just the opinion of men who have made a supposed scientific study of the matter. One is not forced to believe their report. You have a perfect right to your own opinion, right or wrong.

Christmas trees up to eight feet in length may come to the buyers this year rolled in air tight waxed paper to keep them fresh and fragrant.

According to The Echo, Texas prison publication, during their recent rodeo, small piggy banks were passed to the audience to receive free will donations to the prison welfare fund. There were 19 of them, but only 18 were returned. Now the prisoners, maybe the managers are wondering how the heck a thief got inside the walls.

Prices for cotton goods and soft lumber are expected to be lower next year—but your smokes dips and chews will not. Support prices will keep 'em up.

You can always tell when Bud Fisher of "Mutt and Jeff" has a morning after the night before. If we are not mistaken, we have seen the one where Jeff's purse was snatched in the subway at least three times—the one in which Jeff allows he felt a hand in his pocket, but thought it his hand.

Has the Armistice become a permanent fixture? Armistice is generally accepted to mean a "cease fire" order until peace is signed. But for the past 30 years there has been one war right after the other, one of which involved almost the entire world. Something to think about.

Even the gamblers who set the odds in the Dewey victory got a cleaning out, along with their clientele.

that really work, and win. Those who have "it in de bag" get the socks licked off 'em.

Union labor will rightly claim a big share in the Truman victory, and will expect a share of the spoils. But let's remember that Truman lost the three most highly organized states, New York, Pennsylvania and Michigan. At the same time several of the big Agricultural states, such as Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa joined Mr. Truman. To Wallace goes the credit for spoiling the Truman landslide in the industrial states.

Last, but not least, the President went after his dignified adversary with hook and tongs, hammer and sheleghlah, mud and more mud. We have an idea that some of the mud was from Sam Rayburn's blackland in north Texas. Anyway, Truman surely "laid on McDuff" from one side of the nation to the other. And the American people like a politician that pulls no punches.

And now, even the cigarette lighter has a gadget to tell you when it needs more fuel.

A new polish is said to be impervious to alcohol, boiling water or acids. What about Johnson's wax.

Admittedly our national anthem is pretty, but few can really sing it without straining and gapping like an old rooster trying to swallow a black walnut. This is especially true when the "rocket's red glare" part is reached. Bands can handle it pretty well.

Most of us over poundage people are always ready to offer an excuse as to why our paunch is so extensive. Our favorite alibi is that it hurts to walk on our crippled leg—soon, we don't get sufficient exercise. That's a Jim Dandy, isn't it?

Heard that one man here in Brownfield sat up all night to see where the sun went. It finally dawned on him.

We always thought the answer to that one what happens to a

Pre-planning a part of any meal is a wise precaution when you're busy. Banana Cream Torte is an interesting dessert and can be prepared the day before to save time at the regular meal-hour rush. Combine 2 1/2 graham crackers (2 cups) rolled fine with 1/2 cup softened butter or margarine and 2 tbs. sugar. Blend well. Press 1/2 of crumb mixture firmly against sides and bottom of well-buttered pan. For the filling prepare 2 pkgs. prepared vanilla pudding with 1/2 cups milk following directions on package. Cool and pour into cru ab-lined pan. Slice 2 bananas over top of pudding. Beat 3 egg whites stiff but not dry, adding 6 tbs. sugar gradually. Spread meringue over bananas. Sprinkle remaining 1/2 crumb mixture on top. Bake in gas oven (350°) for 20 mins. Chill overnight before removing from pan. Serves 6 to 8.

In most Japanese homes, a small stove under the tub heats water for bathing. In this country, an automatic gas water heater holds the hot water to the necessary 105° for a refreshing hot bath.

When broiling grapefruit halves top them with apricot jam, spiced sugar, or Brazil nuts and brown sugar. Add dots of butter before putting them about three inches under medium flame.

Winter weather doesn't bother the owners of gas laundry dryers. All they have to do is put the wet clothes into the dryer and sit back while the clothes dry to a soft fluffiness.

body when it is in water, was "it gets wet." The modern co-ed says the telephone rings.

Well, this about takes care of this excess baggage this week.

The Low Down From Hickory Groves

I just been reading about how the pipes for gas are getting bigger and bigger and how natural gas is to be pumped from the middle of the USA to Cincinnati and New York and thereabouts and also west as far as San Francisco. That, sisters and brothers, takes no mother's kind of pipe. And furthermore a big part of the gas being corralled and shipped around, is the kind of gas that used to be lost in former times as the oil folks got out the oil.

It has taken a right smart amount of heavy thinking to figure out these things—it has also taken plenty dinero And anybody probing for a good answer as to what is private enterprise, they got it right here with oil and gas Conservation, too—good for the country—good for everybody.

I don't too often get hot and bothered about anything—but now and then when I see guys getting up on a platform and saying big outfits are a menace, I waver. I figure the guy is a pee-wee, or a fellow that I would not choose to have had my gold watch if my back was turned.

PONTIAC

Above everything else... a good car!

Pontiac has one manufacturing principle which takes precedence over all others: Pontiac must always be a good car!

There is no other motor car quality which people value so much as goodness. That's why Pontiac engineers and production specialists spend so much time and energy and money to insure Pontiac quality. Pontiac cars must last long—and they must last well—and they must function through the years with a minimum of upkeep cost.

Owners have been quick to appreciate this. Some of the testimonials they send to the factory, and to Pontiac dealers, tell of performance feats that seem almost impossible of attainment.

Pontiac has many other outstanding virtues, of course. It is a wonderful performer. It is delightfully comfortable and easy to handle. It is a great beauty, and unusually distinctive in appearance.

But its greatest virtue is goodness. This year, or any year, you just can't beat it for faithful performance.

The Passing Of J. E. (Ed) Shelton

These columns carried quite a bit last week about J. E. Shelton, or Ed as he was better known by his many friends. While his death was expected it was nevertheless a shock. However many of his old friends here did not hear of his passing until Friday. We might add that Ed was for many years here almost a one man chamber of commerce. If ever a man earned his pay, Ed Shelton was that man.

Following his death at 2 P. M. Thursday, services were conducted at a Cisco Funeral Chapel at 2 P. M., Friday by Rev. Stewart McRohre. Burial in Oakwood cemetery, Cisco. Roy Wingerd of this city was one of the pall bearers.

Survivors are his wife, who is manager of a hotel, and two sons, Joe of Brownfield; Capt James A. Shelton with the US Army in Germany, and three daughters, Mrs. C. M. Corkran of Alpine; Mrs. W. Russell of La Belle, Fla., and Mrs. W. P. Stevens of Nogales, Ariz.

Meadow 4-H Club Meets In School

The Meadow 4-H Club met November 10, in the Grade School building. The meeting was called to order by Ethel Fuller. The recreation leader, Naomi Jones, led us in two songs.

The roll call was answered by nineteen members. Peggy Keesee read the minutes and they stood approved. Then the meeting was turned over to Miss Dunlap. Some of the members brought something they had made or cooked.

There were two dresses and two cakes. The cakes were cooked by Betty Mason, Mary Ann Swafford and Laruth Lynn. The dresses were made by Peggy Keesee and Runey Patton. Miss Dunlap showed us some Christmas cards that she had made and some new ways of wrapping packages, by putting pictures of fruits on packages. Then Miss Dunlap turned the meeting over to Mrs. Patton.

We discussed plans for our Thanksgiving Party. We are going to have our party at Mrs. R. L. Jones, in Meadow, Tuesday night November 23 at 7:30 to 9:30 P. M.

It is for the 4-H girls and their mothers. Miss Dunlap served 19 members and one visitor, Mrs. W. A. Redford. We had two new members, Josephine Grissom and Barbara Russell. Then the meeting was adjourned.

Brazil May Grow Own Wheat

TUCUMAN, Argentina—(AP)—Brazilian cattlemen are turning to wheat growing to fill their country's need for bread. A California scientist, Dr. R. Merton Love, of the University of California, is helping the program. He is on loan to the experiment station at Porto Alegre.

Dr. Love, here for the South American Botanical Congress, explained that meat is cheap all through the state of Rio Grande do Sul, where Porto Alegre is located. Wheat, on the other hand, is expensive because Brazil has to import part of her needs. The government has a guaranteed price for Brazilian-grown wheat which makes it a profitable crop. Dr. Love said at least five of the large cattle growers have planted a few hundred acres of wheat experimentally this year.

Wheat in this area is harvested in October, which is the equivalent of April in the northern hemisphere.

Dr. Love is giving technical advice in the development of both wheat and grasses for animal feed.

BIG BEAR DEFIES BULLETS
 GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP)—Frank Bernard came back from a deer hunting trip with a tall bear story—and the bear to prove it. The bruin he'd shot weighed about 650 pounds and was seven feet long.

Bernard said the big animal was only 30 feet away when he fired his first shot, the bullet striking the bear in the nose. The bear charged, paying no attention to a second bullet drilling into its side. Another hunter then shot the bear in the foot, turning it to one side, and Bernard's third shot broke its leg, ending its enraged rush.

CARD OF THANKS
 We take this means of thanking our good neighbors and friends for their many manifestations of love and esteem, in the recent death of our dear daughter and sister. For the words of sympathy, food and flowers. We shall always remember this and pray God that your misfortunes may be light.
 S. A. (Jack) Price and family.

When Old Timers Get Together

Just so happened that Arthur and Irene Sawyer called Saturday night without the formality of a previous announcement. And that too, was like old times. Indeed for some 25 or 30 years here, most of us did not understand what the word, formality meant. We went to see each other when we got ready and our friends in the little pioneer town were always glad we came, whether to "sit" till bedtime, or occasionally all night.

That was just the kind of call we had from Arthur and Irene. And we had a great time, too. We talked of old pioneers, some living and some of which have passed on to their reward. If we greatly "panned" anyone, it was some of the younger generation who have not exactly the righteous life their old dad and mothers taught them. Few people here or gone could have had an itching ear. In fact most all the people who came here and braved the pioneer life did not come to "clean up." They came to get some of the new, cheap land and make a living if possible.

We hope A and I enjoyed that three hour confab as well as the Old He and wife. By the way, a bit later they are going out to sunny California to spend the rest of the winter. Good traveling!

How to smile your way through a traffic snarl

Come in—find out how Packard takes the tension out of city driving!

Here's a car that meets all the demands of downtown traffic. And handling ease is only an ever-present part of the story.

What impresses you first, in this sleek, roomy Packard, is the way you can see—the wonderful feeling of always knowing exactly where the front, sides, and rear of your car "are at!" It puts an end to all the old "squeeze plays" . . . whether you're cruising or parking.

Next you'll marvel at the turbine-smooth trigger-quick responsiveness of Packard power. You simply point to a sudden opening in the traffic jam and—you're through it!

Above all, you'll prize the restful riding ease . . . the sure-footed roadability . . . the husky construction that brings relaxing comfort in any rush-hour snarl.

And when you head this eager, road-worthy Packard down an open highway—! But come in first for the city story. It's one of the big reasons why the new Packard Eights are the greatest ever built!

State Superintendent L. A. Woods said the payment, based on 1,432,894 students as of Sept. 15, amounted to $3,777,781.

The payment brought to $8 the amount that has been paid so far on the $55 allotment. Another payment is scheduled for next month, Woods said.
