Study Plan For Sheriff Posse Here

Four local men met at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the sheriff's office to discuss plans for organizing a sheriff's posse in Brownfield.

Headed by Tess Fulfer, a Jaycee committee composed of George Wade and Clarence Lackey met with Deputy Sheriff Buel Powell and set a fee of $25 to join, with monthly dues of $3. Application forms were also drawn up.

All men who own a horse and saddle and who would like to join the Jaycee-sponsored posse are asked to get application blanks from Fulfer, Lackey or Ray Christopher.

No date has been set for the first meeting, but an announcement will probably be made next week, Fulfer said.

You Bet Your Sox It Rains In Terry

The newcomers with a residence here of six months to a year or so, got the evidence the past week that if and when Mr. J. Pluvius takes a notion he can send the rain down here on the South Plains just as well as down in the Mississippi valley. Trouble is that sometimes it takes the weather-men so long to make up his mind, that the rain is too late.

Anyway, the last part of last week, from Wednesday to Saturday night, there was a total of over five inches of rain. The rainfall as measured by the USWB gauge at The Herald office, is as follows:

Thursday a.m., 1.43; Friday a.m., 2.15; Saturday a.m., .20; and Sunday a.m., 1.25. Total, 5.03 inches. We got even with a bunch headed by Terry Noble, who threatened to banish us as they thought we were the Jonah that had held up a general rain.

We offered to leave the county on a trip and stay until the general rain came, if the guys would make up our expense money. They were so stingy. They got the rain, we were still at home.

ONE FIVE INCHES OVER ANNUAL RAINFALL.

Last week, we gave the precipitation of the Brownfield area for this year, up to September 1, as 16.85 inches. Since September 1, we have had an additional 6.53 inches, making a total of 23.40 for the year 1949.

September has been by far the wettest month so far. However, January may have had the largest departure from normal, as we usually have little rain during that month.

Our annual rainfall is around 18½ inches, so we are now some five inches ahead of schedule, with three and a half months to go.

NEW ESQUIRE HOURS

Tess Fulfer, owner of the Brownfield Coffee shop and the Esquire cafe, has announced that they are observing new hours at the Esquire.

From now on, the Esquire will be open at 7 a.m. until 11 p.m.

WILL HAVE SALE

The ladies of the First Christian church will hold a bake sale Saturday beginning at 9 a.m. in the Brownfield State Bank and Trust company.

NOTICE

Superintendent S. P. Cowan asks the cooperation of parents in preventing their children from using the football field for a playground.

Last year, a large expenditure of athletic funds was used in replacing light bulbs and reflectors which were either shot or knocked out. Much time and money has been spent in improving the field and school officials hope to keep it in good condition.

Mrs. N. T. Dalton of Littlefield and Mrs. Houston Ruff of Albany visited their sister, Mrs. E. D. Ballard, and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Howze and Oscar Leo Jones returned Saturday after a week's vacation in the Howze cabin at Phantom lake.

feet two inches tall, weighs 120 pounds, has hazel eyes, auburn hair and a winning personality. Her favorite sport is football, and her hobbies are music and collecting shells.

CAA Official to Discuss Brownfield Airport

Jack Robeson, CAA official of Big Spring, will address the Lions and Rotary clubs next week concerning aviation in general and municipal airports in particular, according to David Nicholson.

A Jaycee committee headed by Nicholson and made up of John Kendrick and Conrad Vernon, is working toward improving airport facilities in Brownfield. The only airport in operation here at the present time is a private one owned by Roy Harris.

The city is eligible for federal aid on an airport program, but intentions must be filed within a few weeks in order to be included in the 1950 program.

Since Brownfield lies directly in the path of major commercial and military airlines, a municipal airport would mean much to the city.

All persons interested in this project are asked to contact one of the committee members.

C. D. Wise Opens Army Surplus Store

C. D. Wise, a resident of Terry county for the past five years, opened an army surplus store, located at 115 North Fifth street, Saturday, August 10.

Most of his stock is army surplus, but he also carries general merchandise and shoes.

Wise, who is married and has two children, was engaged in farming until recently.

Nelson Pharmacy To Be Open Soon

Nelson's Prescription pharmacy, located at 211 So. Sixth street, will soon be open for business, according to Homer Nelson, owner.

The building has been completely remodeled and an asphalt tile floor has been laid. Jack Hart has been in charge of the labor.

A complete stock of first aid and hospital supplies, as well as general patent medicines, magazines and sundries, will be carried in the new pharmacy. Your prescriptions will be accurately and promptly filled.

Nelson, who has been in the drug business for the past 26 years, has one of the most modern pharmacies in West Texas.

Watch for his opening ad in The Herald.

Local Jaycees To Give Away Car Christmas

Tickets on a 1949 Chevrolet, to be given away Christmas eve, were distributed at the regular meeting of the Jaycees Monday at the Esquire cafe by Claude Gore, chairman of the ticket committee.

The tickets may be purchased from any Jaycee member.

Members voted to use the material in the bleachers at the baseball park to build horse stalls at the Jaycee show barn. Main purpose for building the stalls is to have a place for members of the sheriff's posse to keep their horses and saddles and for use during the annual Jaycee rodeo. Alfred Gore, chairman of the committee, has announced that there will be a charge of $5 per month for use of the stalls, and owners of the horses must furnish their own feed.

The Jaycees will sponsor the Stephens Brothers circus, which will be here September 27, it was reported.

ANOTHER BUFFET!

Country club will serve a buffet supper to members and their families Sunday, September 18, between the hours of 6 and 8 p.m.

Will Hold Formal Open House Tuesday

Formal open house of the Seleta Jane Brownfield clubhouse, located at the corner of East Broadway and South Club, will be held Tuesday, September 20, from 8 to 10 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Built through the efforts of the Alpha Omega Study club and the Maids and Matrons Study club, the colonial-type house will serve the needs of all clubs in Brownfield.

The clubhouse receives its name from Mrs. Brownfield in honor of the Maids and Matrons club holding their organizational meeting in her home in 1905 and her faithful work in building up the club.

Country Club Golfers Begin Tourney Here

Qualifying scores are already being turned in for the Brownfield Country club golf tournament, which will be in full swing by next week, according to George O'Neil, tournament chairman.

There will be a championship flight, plus four or five other flights. Each flight will have three winners: flight, runner-up, and consolation. All men golfers of the country club are urged to turn in their qualifying scores as soon as possible so that they may be classified in their proper flights.

Winner of the championship flight will receive a set of matched woods. The following prizes have been donated for the other winners: one dozen golf balls from Harold Crites service station, the Brownfield State Bank and Trust company, the First National bank, and Farmer's Implement; a pair of golf shoes from Latham's; $5 merchandise certificates from E. G. Akers insurance agency, Cobb's department store and Collin's; a Parker fountain pen from Jack Shirley; a ten-pound ham from Piggly Wiggly; a golf bag from Baldwin One-Stop service; one dozen golf socks from Turley insurance agency; Regens Fairway golf lighter with winner's name engraved from Nelson jewelry; three gabardine sport shirts from Brownfield Bargain Center; fishing reel from Copeland hardware; one set of bone dominoes from Primm drug store, and a gun case from J. B. Knight hardware.

Deadline for the qualifying date is Sunday, September 18. For further details concerning the tournament contact Jerry Kirschner, president of the club, Prentice Walker, chairman of the greens committee, or O'Neil.

Plans are being made to hold a Calcutta pool soon after the qualifying deadline.

Fiddlers Slated As Big Drawing Card

James H. Dallas, program chairman, announced this week that $300 in prizes will be offered in the fiddlers' contest at the harvest festival Wednesday, October 19.

This year, the fiddlers' contest will be broken down into two divisions—the young fiddlers and the old fiddlers. First, second and third prizes in the young fiddlers' division, which will be open to persons up to 45 years of age, will be $75, $50 and $25. The same prizes will be offered to winners of the old fiddlers' division, which is open to anyone over 45 years of age.

Another contest which is expected to draw wide enthusiasm is a square dance contest, with prizes of $75, $50 and $25 being offered to the three best square dance sets. There will be two exhibitions of square dancing during the afternoon, along with the contest, and the finals will be held at Veterans hall on the night of October 19.

Congressman George Mahon has accepted an invitation from the local Rotary club to be their guest the entire day of the festival. Other features on the day's program will be the Brownfield Country club quartet, composed of Jack Shirley, Crawford Taylor, W. A. Roberson and Pat Ramseur, and the Community Male chorus.

There will also be a demonstration by four jet-propelled planes, according to Dallas.

The Texas Technological college band will be here, as will the Brownfield high school band. A number of other bands from surrounding towns have been issued invitations to attend the festival.

A parade is being planned to start off the festival, with many of the businesses and civic clubs participating.

Services Tuesday For Lary Infant

Funeral services were held at p.m. Tuesday in the Crescent Hill Church of Christ for Alvin V. Lary, Jr. three-and-a-half-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin V. Lary, who was found dead in his bed early Monday morning. Jimmy Wood officiated.

When put to bed Sunday night, the baby was apparently in good health. The parents discovered his death upon arising Monday morning. Cause of death is undetermined.

Interment was in Terry County Memorial cemetery under the direction of Brownfield funeral home.

The child is survived by his parents and one sister.

School Board Thanks All Stadium Workers

The members of the Brownfield school board would like to thank all members of the Quarterback club, the Lions club, the Rotary club, the Jaycees, and everyone who participated in building and repairing the football stadium, according to C. C. Griffith, president of the board.

More than 2,000 man hours were donated in the sodding of the field, painting the stands, and putting up fences, Griffith said.

"It was a great job, and we think the people of Brownfield have a football stadium that they can be proud of," he added.

Archie Dungan left Thursday for Pomona, Calif., to attend junior college. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Dungan.

Girl Scouts To Sell Corsages For Games

Twenty-four persons attended the Girl Scout training school held for Girl Scout leaders Wednesday, August 31. Mrs. Johnny Criswell, who received her training at Santa Fe, N.M., conducted the school.

Mrs. Dennis Lilley is leader chairman to serve with the following leaders of troops: senior troop 3, Mrs. Sue Stark; troop 5, Mrs. Dorman Dumas; troop 4, Mrs. Clyde Truly and Mrs. Alfred Gore; troop 7, Mrs. Criswell; troop 8, Miss Margie Moorhead; troop 8, Mrs. Claude Buchanan; troop 9, Mrs. Bill Glick, and troop 1, Mrs. Carr Austin.

The group plans to make corsages to be sold for $1 at all football games this fall, with the exception of the homecoming game. Orders for the corsages may be turned in to S. A. Dalton before noon on the days of the football games.

TERRY COUNTY HD COUNCIL HELD REGULAR MEETING SEPTEMBER 10

The Terry County Home Demonstration council held a regular meeting Saturday, September 10, Mrs. M. E. Hinson, vice chairman, presided.

The song, "Beautiful Texas," was sung, with Mrs. E. V. Riley in charge of recreation.

Mrs. O. D. Wise was appointed to report the meeting. Mrs. Frank Sargent gave a report on the year books, and asked that all club year book chairmen meet in the courthouse September 27 at 2 p.m. to discuss two year book subjects, gardening and bedrooms.

The members decided that each club will choose some phase of work that they have studied this year for the county exhibit.

The THDA chairman reported that the clubs of the county would receive 20 reading certificates. Four members will receive certificates of awards for having read 25 books or more. The four women are Mrs. Roy Barrier, Mrs. Thurman Solsbery, and Mrs. J.D. Howard all of the Pool club, and Mrs. Roy E. Moore of the Wellman club.

YOU CAN RUN UP ON NEW BUILDINGS

This week we noticed for the first time a building on So. Fifth street, with the tile walls almost complete, that we had never seen before. One reason is that it is beside another building and not so noticeable when going north on that street. But we drive north on Fifth to the postoffice almost every day.

We understand that the owners do not wish the building mentioned, that is, the purpose of it. Possibly they do not at this time know for certain themselves who will use the building.

Hugh Hicks and Ethel Stockton visited their mother, Mrs. Ready Hicks, in Hale Center Sunday.

Mrs. Hicks fell from the porch of her home Friday, breaking her left leg. She was taken to a hospital, where her leg was put in a cast, and was then returned home. She is reported to be improving.

McWilliams Purchases Worsham Furniture Co.

McWilliams Furniture store bought the J. B. Worsham Furniture company Thursday, September 8, and Lee Short has taken over the management of the store. It will be known as McWilliams New and Used Furniture store.

Clarence McWilliams, owner of the two stores, has been in business in Brownfield since 1939.

BENTONS LOSE CLOTHES IN SATURDAY ROBBERY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Benton was burglarized between 9 and 10 p.m. Saturday while the Bentons were attending a picture show. All clothing belonging to Mrs. Benton and her daughter, Billie, was stolen.

No clues were found, as the rain had washed away any tracks that may have been left.

BILLY MAXWELL PLAYS EXHIBITION GOLF MATCH HERE WITH LOCAL MEN

Billy Maxwell, a stocky sandy-haired 20-year-old from Odessa who has burned up better golf courses than Brownfield's for a number of years, played an exhibition match with three local men Monday for the benefit of a sparse crowd of Brownfield Country club women golfers.

Maxwell holds many crowns, including the Lubbock amateur championship for the past four consecutive years, Odessa, Ruidoso, and numerous others. He is the former Texas junior NICA champion and has had invitations to play in several national tournaments.

A sophomore at North Texas State Teachers college in Denton, Maxwell is naturally a member of the college golf team, but is majoring in business and minoring in physical education.

Monday's foursome was made up of Maxwell, Prentice Walker, Fred Baldwin and Harold Crites

Jones Theatres Give Cubs Board

Open for business for the first time in May, 1922, the Jones theatres operated their first picture show in the Legion hall (at present occupied by the Texas highway patrol). At that time, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones and W. A. Bynum were partners in the enterprise.

In the fall of 1922, they built the Pass Time theatre, where the Ritz theatre is now located. That theatre operated until the fall of 1924, when the partners built and opened the present Rialto theatre. At that time, the Rialto was the only theatre in operation.

The Ritz theatre was reopened at its present location in 1928, and in 1932, Bynum sold his interest in the theatres to Jones. The present Ritz theatre was built in 1937.

Jones died in April, 1939, and Mrs. Jones operated the three theatres. In 1945, all three theatres were leased to Hiram Parks, who is operating them at the present time.

Parks' lease will expire January 1, 1950, at which time, Mrs. W. T. Howze will take over the theatres, with her son, Sammy, managing them.

An August graduate of Texas Technological college, holding a B.A. degree in business, Sammy Jones will be general manager of the Rialto, Ritz and Rio theatres.

BOARD APPROVES PLANS

In a special meeting held Wednesday night, members of the Brownfield school board approved plans and specifications, submitted by the architects, for the new high school to be built at the corner of South D street and East Broadway.

Advertisement for bids will begin immediately, and it is hoped that construction on the building can be started within six weeks, spokesmen said Wednesday night.

Meanwhile, work is at a standstill on the cafeteria addition at Jessie G. Randal school due to inclement weather, but it is hoped that the structure will be ready for occupancy within the month.

According to information obtained at the internal tax collector's office at Dallas, Texas paid the government in social security, withholding and various and sundry other taxes, the huge sum of more than five billion dollars for the year ending June 30. Now if the most optimistic "gimme" boys believe for one moment that they get that much back in the way of handouts, they certainly believe in Santa Claus to a fare you well. Fact is, our money is being wasted all over the world, and not too many questions are being asked for what it is used.

Frankly, we can see nothing very wrong in the highway department using the old 1940 census figures on signs upon entering a town. That is the latest official figures they have. Others are mostly guess work. The only change we could have suggested the past few years is that the words (1940 census) should have accompanied the figures. But for people to get all up in the air because the 1940 figures were used is foolish. Not too many motorists or tourists pay any mind to these signs. They judge a town by the hustle and bustle, new building, etc., and if they really wish to get the low down on present population, they ask this question at some filling station or cafe. But it seems that some editors get all wrought up about this matter and have it out with the highway department. Fact is, it is less than a year until the official census of 1950 will be announced and the new figures can be put up. And perhaps they will be a bit disappointing to some of the towns that are raising so much, heck now.

A press release has been received from Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas on the subject, "Economy Begins at Home." Now this is a real good suggestion, and it might be added without apparent harm that this economy measure might be extended to those nations across the pond that we are pouring dollars into like water over Niagara. You have probably noted that money given children has no apparent value except to spend for something they think they need. Same with most European countries, with the possible exception of Finland. It is regarded by them as money given to never be repaid, and it goes down the drain. But Senator Johnson says that the new secretary of defense, Louis Johnson, is starting to do something about economy other than talk. In fact, he has already let out 137,000 needless employees of his department with a salary saving to the taxpayers of the nation of about a half-billion dollars. A lot of long, lonesome howls have gone up from people, even some congressmen, especially along the Pacific coast. In other words, "that must not happen to my district—I will lose many votes at the next election." But, adds Senator Johnson, "like castor oil, most all of us are ready to recommend it, but few wish to take the remedy."

either mental, financial or physical makeup. He is tall, handsome, a good sport and charitable to the nth degree. Yes, the writer knew Happy Smith when . . . In fact, his honest and honorable old dad was a blacksmith in Brownfield 40 years ago when the writer arrived in Brownfield. He moved with his family to Tahoka when the railroad came there, engaging in the same business in his own blacksmith and machine shop, where Happy grew to manhood. Perhaps that is where Happy got some of his notions to help the stranger within his gates. Perhaps he read that matchless poem about another "village blacksmith."

The Herald joins the many friends and acquaintances in honoring Postmaster Happy Smith—we really won't know his initials—over at Tahoka. Tuesday of this week Happy is to be honor guest of Breakfast in Hollywood, over a national hookup at radio station KFYO, Lubbock. Happy Smith gets that name not only because he is happy, but wishes to make others likewise. He sees to it that people from places distant from Tahoka are looked after, flowers and their mail delivered, when confined in Tahoka hospital. One glowing tribute from a California lady who was confined to Tahoka hospital following a car accident is surely worth reading. Happy could not be termed "Shorty" in Boy, it looks as if we are going to have a whole regiment of candidates for the office of lieutenant governor. As one editor describes the scene, "it appears that there will be a candidate for lieutenant governor behind every telephone post." One man in Dallas and one in Lubbock have already announced, and they will come like popping corn from now on. The reason of course is that Gov. Allen Shivers was elevated to the governorship upon the death of the late Gov. Jester. This leaves the office of lieutenant governor wide open, as doubtless Gov. Shivers will make the race to succeed himself. However, the governor will not have the race track for that office to himself by any means. One at least has already announced, and as the open season opens, it is likely there will be others.

The Herald has another Volume 1 No. 1 to add to its several in our vault. The baby of the bunch is Southern Fireside, a slick magazine printed and published in the deep south at Birmingham, Ala. Now this magazine says that it will not all be "fried chicken." That where the south needs praise it will get it, and in a gentlemanly manner will criticize the shortcomings of the south. The magazine has a real southern flavor that you'll like if you like those comical and witty southern stories of Birmingham's darktown, "Floridan Slappee," you've perhaps read in other magazines. There is also a good story by Jesse Stuart on the Kentucky Hills. The magazine features such strictly southern authors as Virginia Dabney, Hodding Carter, William W. Ball, John Temple Graves, Jonathan Daniels, Harry Ashmore, Octavus Roy Cohen, Art Stewart and many others. The first issue had a guaranteed circulation of 500,000. The Southern Fireside will likely be on sale at your favorite newsstand soon.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Today I will huddle with congress. There are some nice guys down there—don't like to see 'em being taken in as suckers. If I can help I want to do so. But also I don't choose to be taken for a sucker either—and by a congressman.

I got in mind how the big money bills are put in the hopper down there. The Chief Squeeze in some department will say he needs 300 million bucks—when all he actually wants is 200 million. And up will jump a congressman and say, "too much." So the Big Squeeze will hem and haw—and cut off the phony 100 million. That is more like it, says Mr. Congressman—and he tells the reporters how he saved the nation 100 million dollars.

Now there is where I come in—as a sucker. Even this 200 million—part of it my dinero—is to be poured into some quack venture that is unneeded in the first place. Like what, says Henry. Like dams and power lines as just one sample, I says, where the Govt. pays no taxes on its venture and where the outfit it will cut out of business did pay taxes.

If he can cut down a money budget—any old budget—by 10 per cent, a congressman is happy

U.S. CHILDREN ORNERIER, SAYS BRITISH TEACHER

READING, England -- (AP) — American children are friendly, quick to learn, but ornerier than British, a teacher who returned recently from America said today. Ronald Kent, an exchange teacher at Reading, Penn., last session, said American schools were better staffed and better supplied with materials than British.

The 27-year-old instructor at Alfred Sutton junior school here said there is also "closer co-operation between parents and teachers in the United States."

NAZI VETS GET DISCHARGES

BREMEN, Germany -- (AP) — German men are being discharged from the Nazi army that has been out of existence for four years. The United States-occupied city of Bremen is issuing new identity cards to its inhabitants. In order to obtain this card, men must show they were discharged from the Wehrmacht.

If they cannot satisfy the police that they were correctly separated from the German army, the police will give them new discharge certificates.

LOW BLOCKING ON WAY OUT

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., (AP) — The practice of hitting 'em low is on its way out as far as football blocking is concerned, believes Notre Dame Coach Frank Leahy. "The defensive linemen are coming in higher than they used to," he told students at a coaching clinic here. "Consequently, the blocker has to aim higher."

"Another advantage of blocking high in the T-formation is that the blocker's face is in the defensive man's face. If his vision is so blocked, the defensive man can't see what the quarterback is doing with the ball."

High Blood Pressure

Hardening of Arteries, Pains in Left Arm and Side—

Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes, on Feb. 20, 1948:

"Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mass. "I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 50 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerable. This garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble." Hundreds of other testimonials of similar nature. Attention Farmers

We have a large cotton crop to handle this year and it is going to take the cooperation of the farmer, the ginner and the banker working together to handle this crop so we want to make the following suggestions which we believe will expedite the prompt and orderly marketing of this crop:

1. Due to an unusual situation existing this year, ginners will be unable to furnish cotton pulling funds to the farmer. The banks will be glad to furnish funds for this purpose to their customers.
2. Please do your banking early in the week to avoid congestion and delay in our banks on weekends.
3. Pick up warehouse receipts from the gins as fast as they come in and deliver to the banks, or better still, instruct your ginner to deliver your warehouse receipts to your bank as fast as they come to him. This will enable the bank to give you better service on your cotton loans and make your money available to you much earlier than we have been able to do so in the past.
4. Our desire is to help the farmer in every way possible to enable him to get the money from his crop as soon as possible and with a minimum of expense and trouble to him.
5. Discuss these suggestions with your banker and ginner.

Use Care In Mexico Seeking Laborers

Farmers in Terry county should be thoroughly informed of the labor recruitment laws of Mexico before attempting to obtain workers in that country, C. Raymond Jones, local office manager of the state employment commission, has cautioned.

The Mexican government provides a heavy penalty for illegal recruitment of Mexican workers. Any such attempt is contrary to the policy of the United States government. Employers who write letters or who in any way convey information to Mexican workers to encourage them to leave Mexico, or employers who enter that country for the purpose of recruiting workers without proper clearance and permission, not only run the risk of imprisonment in Mexico, but also are acting in a manner contrary to United States law and policy, Jones declared.

Employers may obtain information concerning Mexican recruitment laws and United States laws pertaining to Mexican recruiting from the Texas employment service office.

At present indications are that there will be a shortage of cotton harvest hands in the Lamesa area, and all farmers who are interested in securing hands should contact the Texas employment commission office at 320 North Austin street in Lamesa as soon as possible. Approximately two weeks are re-

Overeating Shortens Life, Says Specialist

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — As we grow older, we begin to dream of living longer. But a long and happy life depends to some extent on what and how much you eat, according to Louise Mason, extension foods and nutrition specialist of Texas A&M college.

She says it isn't easy to cut down on certain foods that you have become accustomed to, but sometimes it's necessary in order to prevent some diseases and ailments that come on with old age. Overeating seems to be our greatest common dietary fault. That is, eating too many fat, rich, and sweet foods. Miss Mason recommends eating more green leafy vegetables, milk, citrus fruits, tomatoes and animal protein foods such as cheese, eggs, lean meat, beef, pork and poultry, to ward off such ailments as high blood pressure, diabetes, hardening of the arteries and even cancer.

Some folks are allergic to certain foods; some don't like them; some can't digest certain foods. Therefore, each person develops his individual food habits. You can develop these habits to extend your life expectancy. Eat the foods you like, says Miss Mason, but eat more of the good mineral and protein rich foods and less of the sweet and rich foods for longer healthier living.

SPECTACULAR GASOLINE FIRE—Flames and smoke leap hundreds of feet into the air at a spectacular fire at the Nail Oil Co., Perryton, Tex., Sept. 7. Three storage tanks containing 18,000 gallons of gasoline were burned and the intense heat of the fire threatened 70,000 bushels of wheat in the nearby Ellis Grain Co. elevator. Much of the wheat was damaged by the heat. Damage to the oil company was estimated at $25,000. (AP Photo)

Electricity Now Used On Three-Fourths Of All Farms In Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — It is estimated that almost three-fourths of Texas farm families now have electricity in their homes. That's a good indication of better living on Texas farms, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural buildings engineer of Texas A&M college.

To get the most benefit from all electrical equipment, Allen suggests that you plan the complete wiring system carefully and see that the wiring job itself is done right. Make accurate plans for the wiring system when you build that new house or remodel the old one.

Here are a couple of tips that Allen says will make your wiring system do the job you want it to do: First, make a list of all the ways you use electricity now, including any electrical equipment you plan for the next few years. Next, make a list of the lights and electrical equipment in each room. Take this list and a rough sketch of the floor plan of your house to some reliable wiring contractor. With this information, he can help you plan a wiring system that will take care of all your needs.

Additional information about farm wiring methods and plans can be obtained from county agricultural agents or from the Superintendent of Documents, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C.

It's The Taxpayer Who Foots The Bill

There seems to exist in the minds of some people the belief that every dollar that can be wheeled out of the government in grants, annuities or pensions costs no one anything. The fact that some do not seem to realize is that no town, city, county, state or federal government picks money off of trees. Every dollar that is paid out by the government has to first be earned by some one's labor. The more money a town, a county, a state or a nation gives away, the more has to be taken by that town, county, state or nation from its workers in the form of taxes. Every dollar taken from John Smith in taxes to be given to some one else means that Smith is going to have that much less with which to feed and clothe and educate his family, to improve his home or to expand his business. It is wholly conceivable therefore that taxes can easily be made so oppressive that they stifle initiative and discourage the worker and the producer. The ideal condition is one in which every individual pays his own way. In the degree that government unit departs from the most economical and efficient basis of operation. There is no such thing as taxing ourselves rich or even well-to-do. What the country needs is more workers and earners and less people looking for a handout. — Carnes County News.

HOW TO DISTINGUISH POISON IVY VINES

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — If your children have trouble in telling poison ivy from harmless wood vine, or maybe you have that trouble yourself, here's an easy rule to remember.

It's a rule that C. W. Simmons, extension forester of Texas A&M college, gave to 4-H club members when they spent a day in the woods learning about trees, shrubs and grasses as part of their work at the recent state 4-H conservation camp at Lake Trinidad. The leaves of poison ivy and wood vine are very similar, but poison ivy has three leaves, so it isn't good to shake hands with because it doesn't have enough fingers.

It's all right to shake hands with wood vine, because it has five leaves or five fingers.

Cottonseed Reports Available To Farmers

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — Cotton growers were urged today to write for the free cottonseed market news reports issued by the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture's southwest cotton office at Dallas.

According to John McCollum, area manager, many cotton growers are not making full use of this report and in certain cases they are not receiving maximum returns for their cottonseed. He pointed out that unlike many other agricultural products, there are no organized markets to provide basic cottonseed information. Therefore, farmers are entirely dependent upon local quotations with no basis for comparison unless they receive these reports.

Current cottonseed prices are gathered by PMA from ginner and cotton oil mills.

McCollum said cotton growers particularly need this cottonseed market information this year since the Commodity Credit Corporation has a cottonseed loan program in operation. These reports will help growers determine whether it would be more profitable for them to place their seed in loan or sell it, he explained.

The cottonseed report may be

Here we go again with a bunch of this tripe. Strange how many people like to read such dope. Leastwise, a lot tell us they do it.

On guy says he likes to do without certain necessities so he can afford some luxuries. Not being used to luxuries, we have never worried about them. We have plenty worries about necessities.

A postal card from the Prison Echo, official publication of Texas prison system, reminds us again to come to their prison rodeo. We sure hate to disappoint them (?)

Our sporting blood congealed a long time ago. We don't like athletic games too well, rodeos are out, card games no wanna, too lazy to hunt and fish. All we like is hillbilly music over the radio.

In the last number of Look magazine, a writer, himself a mulatto, had an article and pictures of how they are to turn negroes white so they can mix and mingle with the big shots among the white folks.

If we were a negro, this would be a distinct insult. In the first place, the good Lord aimed for them to be black, otherwise they would have been some other color or even striped. Think we'll let Look drop when our time expires.

The great trouble with a bore is that he never thinks he is boring you.

Transferring from the ridiculous to the weather, reminds us that we have been witnessing an almost exact repetition of the last few days of August, 1946, when we had over five inches of rain. Same this time.

Well, as the feed crop was light that year, and the farmers had no desire to count the ribs on their old cows all winter, they planted wheat—for pasture. Well, there were rains and snows that winter, and come April, 1947, the cows were taken off the wheat. Terry made its first real wheat crop that year—750,000 bushels of it, and it was high.

The only difference is that this year there is a whailing big feed crop in prospect, as well as a bumper one of the fleecy staple. What happened to the "pasture wheat" in 1947 may be repeated in 1950.

We are generally unusually good on quiz programs. Trouble is that we are not there to answer and get the prize. Some other guy beats us to it. We are also fine on "Horse Sense" and answers, except those that have a catch in them.

Some wanted a rain, some did not. But most farmers would have compromised with a lot less than five inches. Anyway, it is a good time to get that last year's wheat stubble and blown-out places sown to wheat.

In our rounds of late we have seen quite a lot of wheat already up and looking good. Of course, there has been a limit placed on acreage for next year. But some green wheat this winter will look better than the barren spots, and the cows will give more milk.

One columnist asks how the heck a small business that cannot afford a bookkeeper can keep up with all the forms the government wants filled out. They do it by working when most people are in bed asleep.

Now comes a highly placed water engineer of the United States geological survey who says that our underground water supplies are not being depleted at an alarming rate, in most sections at least. So, you can take another bath and water the grass, if you wish.

Resourceful woman! When the outsized matron goes into a store and is told they have nothing in her size, she buys lipsticks and perfume. These fit any model.

Troy Morris of the Ropes Plainsman had a rather nice reply to our editorial last week about capital punishment. But evidently we failed to make our point clear, or he misunderstood. In speaking of the laws that upheld capital punishment in Bible times, we spoke of the common laws of man such as the Mosaic, Medo-Persian, Egyptian, Roman and Greek, as an example, and not the Spiritual law, as annunciated by Christ.

By the way, the Law of Moses was said to have been written through inspiration of God. And there were several crimes mentioned in which the guilty could be carried without the camp and stoned to death.

SCOTTSDALE, Tasmania, (AP)—The usual tools were useless to clear a length of 9-inch pipe clogged with dirt by rains. But the job was done in 15 minutes when a spiny ant eater, usually mis-called the Echidna, was persuaded to enter the pipe. It is one of the world's two egg-laying mammals, the other being the Platypus. These are the world's two most primitive furred animals. With its steely claws the spiny ant eater can burrow with remarkable speed—even straight down, in hard earth.

brother, Abel. But whether he suffered greatly is surmising. Some contend that he went over in Nod and raised a big family and lived happily ever after. After all, cold-blooded murderers have been known to get out at the behest of some pardoning governor many times, and commit another crime just as revolting. We have never heard of one returning from the tomb to do murder again. Much is being said of late about a new drug, ACTH, in healing arthritis victims. Some victims who had been held rigid and in severe pain for months are said, after treatment with the new remedy, to be able to move the arms and legs, and even cross the legs. Not only that, but encouraged to try to live.

MEXICO CITY IRKED BY CACTUS IN STREET

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — The newspapers are getting pretty annoyed with the city planners. And even a lot of just ordinary Mexicans don't like the idea of planting cactus in the middle of a main street.

It all started early this year when the city fathers decided to fix up the Paseo de la Reforma, which connects the best residential districts with the business section. It had wide parkways on each side and lots of shade trees. The planners turned the parkways into additional traffic lanes in the downtown section. They sacrificed the benches, repaved the street and put a narrow parkway down the middle. The benches, life-sized bronze statues of minor national heroes and three-foot classical bronze urns which had lined the street, were re-erected farther out.

Cottonseed Reports Available To Farmers

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — Cotton growers were urged today to write for the free cottonseed market news reports issued by the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture's southwest cotton office at Dallas.

According to John McCollum, area manager, many cotton growers are not making full use of this report and in certain cases they are not receiving maximum returns for their cottonseed. He pointed out that unlike many other agricultural products, there are no organized markets to provide basic cottonseed information. Therefore, farmers are entirely dependent upon local quotations with no basis for comparison unless they receive these reports.

Current cottonseed prices are gathered by PMA from ginners and cotton oil mills.

McCollum said cotton growers particularly need this cottonseed market information this year since the Commodity Credit Corporation has a cottonseed loan program in operation. These reports will help growers determine whether it would be more profitable for them to place their seed in loan or sell it, he explained.

The cottonseed report may be

Economic Highlights

The celebration of Herbert Hoover's 75th birthday was a remarkable event on several counts. When he left the presidency, his public popularity was at a low ebb, and many thought that he was bound for obscurity. But history has a way of confounding prophets, and that was true in Mr. Hoover's case. In the intervening years he has mellowed, grown in stature and influence, and earned the wide respect and admiration of the country as a whole. It is a notable fact that, among the flood of congratulatory messages sent him on the anniversary, there were many from men high in Democratic as well as Republican councils. One of the warmest, indeed, came from President Truman.

In the birthday speech, Mr. Hoover dwelt on the great problem of government spending, on the confiscation of resources by heavy taxation, on the danger of socialization by indirection, and on the loss of individual freedom that, in his opinion, would follow the creation of a welfare state in this country. He used conditions in England, with her grim austerity, as an example.

Regardless of one's views as to government policy, no one can doubt that Mr. Hoover is a great authority on the administration and the fiscal affairs of the huge federal establishment. The voluminous Hoover commission reports, made under his direction and chairmanship, mark the first real effort to blueprint a detailed course for achieving greater economy and efficiency without sacrificing any essential governmental function.

When the reports — which go into every department and branch of the government — first began to appear, even the people who favored them most strongly were doubtful if they would be placed into practical effect on any extensive scale because opposition immediately arose from bureaus affected. Now, the outlook is much brighter. President Truman has ordered that a number of them—20 or 25 per cent of the whole—be adopted, and he is expected to order more. Congress is very seriously examining others. Outside of political circles, sentiment in favor of them seems overwhelming.

The drop in business and the heavy federal deficit we are expected to run this fiscal year have given great impetus to adopting the Hoover commission's comprehensive plans. If all of them are eventually accepted, the saving is

NEGRO SINGER CREATES RIOTS IN NORTH

Many of the newspapers we read, especially the dailies, have editorialized much on the riots the negro singer, Robeson, is creating in New York state. It will be remembered that he was the guy that told off how much better the government of Russia is than that of the USA.

Most of these papers deplore the fact that ex-service men, not perhaps as American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars or AM-VETS, but as individuals are engaging in riots. At the same time, these writers are freely admitting that the veterans have much in this negro to provoke them to wrath. Let's put ourselves in their places.

These veterans perhaps left good homes, loved ones and good jobs to offer themselves and their lives to the defense of their country and true democracy. Some of them were maimed, blinded and disrupted mentally. Some that had incendiary bombs dropped on or among them are almost speechless and eyes defective. This was all brought on them by the ambition of dictators.

Is it therefore any wonder that these men and their buddies are averse to anyone praising another dictator country while criticizing our own, and especially the country that made Robeson and his ilk what they are?

The Herald hopes that this negro singer, who is quite talented, they say, never comes to the south to perform. We hate to think what might happen.

UNITED STATES TRAVEL INCREASES 10 PER CENT

CINCINNATI, O. — (P) — The nation's vacation travel income this year will exceed $11,000,000,000, an increase of ten per cent over 1948, it is estimated by auto-builder Powell Crosley, Jr.

"Present indications are that between 65 and 70 million people over the nation are taking vacation trips in their family automobiles and another ten million are going by train, bus, airplane and boat," he said. "Vacationers will spend, all told, more than $11,000,000,000 at hotels, resorts, restaurants, camps, motor courts and gas stations."

forecast at $4,000,000,000 — and, moreover, the government would be far more efficient. They stand out as a crowning work in a long life largely given to the public service.

State Sets Record For Fertilizer Use

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — More than 300,000 tons of commercial fertilizers were used on Texas farms during the six-month period from January 1 to June 30, 1949, according to J. F. Fudge, state chemist of the Texas agricultural experiment station. This amount for the six-month period exceeded total sales for any complete year prior to the period July 1, 1945 to June 30, 1946.

The most important point to observe in this report, says Fudge, is not the increased amount and quality of fertilizer sold but the fact that many counties are using practically no commercial fertilizers. For example, there were 175 counties in which less than a thousand tons were used and only 79 counties using more than a thousand tons.

Four counties — Hidalgo, Rusk, Smith and Cherokee — each reported the use of 7,500 to 10,000 tons of fertilizers since January 1. Harris county alone reported more than 10,000 tons of fertilizers used for the same period.

About two-thirds of the total amount was mixed fertilizers and one-third was unmixed fertilizer materials. Fudge points out that more than 90 per cent of the mixed fertilizers was 5-10-5 and 4-12-4.

UNITED STATES HAS HIGH ACCIDENTAL DEATH RATE

CHICAGO — The United States may have the highest standard of living in the world, but it also has one of the world's highest accidental death rates.

The United States rate in 1948 was 67.1 deaths per 100,000 population, as compared to a worldwide postwar average rate of 48.9, according to the 1949 edition of "Accident Facts," statistical year book of the National Safety council.

Only three countries topped the accidental death rate of the United States — Iceland, Egypt and Austria. Those countries had rates of 71.5, 83.8 and 85.9, respectively, in 1946.

Mauritius, a British island near Madagascar, had the lowest reported postwar accidental death rate of 25.9 in 1947.

Dream Prediction Off Beam

MELBOURNE — (P) — A school bus driver, J. C. Doherty, had a troubled dream the other night. He dreamt a rear wheel of his bus fell off.

Next day he checked all four wheels of his bus. His journey to the school was uneventful.

But another of the school buses had an accident. A rear wheel came off. No one was injured.

Dreamer Doherty drove out and picked up the stranded pupils.

PROSIT IN BAVARIA

The United States Navy has a way of turning up in the least expected places. Here on leave at Garmisch in the Bavarian Alps, site of the 1936 winter Olympics and in pre-war days one of the most exclusive resorts in Europe, is an American sailor with two Bavarian friends performing an ancient ritual on a mountain top.

TB Cases Increasing; Deaths Dropping

Tuberculosis is on the increase although deaths from the disease have been cut by 20 per cent since 1940, according to an article in "Ohio Public Health" quoting Dr. Herbert R. Edwards, executive director of the New York Tuberculosis and Health association, and Godias J. Drolet, statistician and assistant director of the New York association.

In the eight-year period, 1940 to 1947, TB deaths decreased by 12,364 — from 60,428 to 48,064 — Dr. Edwards and Mr. Drolet have reported. During the same period, new cases of the disease increased by 33,065 — from 100,772 to 133,837. "Who is it that needs our attention now—the dead or the living?" they queried.

Recognizing the role of mass x-ray surveys in the discovery of many cases, Dr. Edwards nevertheless does not believe that they explain the increase. He points to New York City as an example. There, new cases do not show much difference in the stage of the disease at the time of discovery and patients entering TB hospitals are still mostly advanced cases.

Dr. Edwards suggests that modern treatment may be responsible for the widening gap between new cases and fewer deaths. "Onto the invaluable bed-rest regime there have now been added the benefits of collapse therapy and daring surgical procedures, further assisted by the new antibiotics," he declared.

WE STAND CORRECTED

Two rather glaring errors got by us on our two-color football double page spread last week. The first was that we gave the Community Drug and lunch room a West Main street address. It should have been 212 Lubbock road or if you like better, 212 South First, which is a highway street through town. Phone is 214-R.
 The other one is the Western Oil Company mill. The "mill" part should have been left off. The correct name is Western Cottonoil Co., which was changed from West Texas Cottonoil Co.

about a year ago. Neither of the above raised any roar, but the next ad will have the changes.

GET 'EM WHILE THEY'RE HOT—Shabby goods and shiny new propaganda featured the German trade fair in Leipzig, Germany, a twice-yearly event that has been held since the middle ages. Here, Leipzigers look and buy at a Soviet-licensed hot-dog stand. Although a pair of the frankfurters costs about a day's wages, everybody's buying, because, when the fair is closed, there'll be no more dogs.
