VFW Post Launching City Wide Campaign

An open meeting of members of Hand Bros. Post 6794, Veterans of Foreign Wars, their auxiliary members and several non-members was held at Veterans Hall Tuesday night.

Dr. A. H. Daniell, commander, led an open discussion of a recently begun VFW project, the sale of the national flag to business firms and in the residential section of Brownfield.

The sale of the flags in the residential section was undertaken after such enthusiastic response in the sale of the flags to business firms before July 4, Daniell said. The city has been broken down into sections, with VFW members and volunteer workers covering the entire area in a house to house campaign. The group hopes to have a flag displayed before each business firm and each residence in Brownfield on Labor Day, which is the next occasion for the display of the national flag.

When any person buys one of the flags from a representative, the flag will be delivered, installed in a special socket, and a card, listing information concerning the flag and when it is to be displayed, will be given to the purchaser. Proceeds from the sales will be used in purchasing flags to be given to each of the 20 churches in Brownfield, according to Daniell.

VFW members, volunteer workers and the sections which they will cover are: A. H. Pierce, Harold Wilson, Cecil Hill and Mesdames A. H. Pierce, John L. Cruce, Harold Wilson, Lynn Nelson, John Cloud, R. J. Dunn and Robert Noble, Tahoka road; James H. Dal-

King, George O'Neal, D. P. Moorhead, J. E. Gillham and Bill Glick, East and West Rippetto and Chisholm addition.

Members of the VFW post and their auxiliary will cover the remaining area of the town, including all new residential districts and business areas within the city limits.

At Hobbs Burns hopes to get a job. He'll take employment at some ranch along the way if he can get it, he said. The family will go through Sterling City, Big Spring, Lamesa and Seminole. Hiking is nothing new to his family. Burns said. He said the family walked from Carlsbad, N. M., to Corpus Christi three years ago and walked from San Antonio to San Angelo a year ago. (AP photo)

Wellman Oil Well Is 2280 Barrel Potential

The No. 1, H. C. Bevers well, drilled by Anderson-Pritchard Oil Corp., had its official test this week, and was rated as a 2280 barrel per day producer, with a very high gravity oil, 42.5. It is a flowing well through a one inch tube.

The well is producing from three different levels, probably all in the same geological formation, known as the reef, as follows: 9712-26, 9734-92 and 4794-9805. Total depth 9811. The gas station is 470-1. The potential was based on a six hour flow of 572.5 barrels, very little sediment and no water formation.

While information on the well on the draw four miles southeast of town is kept very secretive, those who seem to be in the know, say the well is looking mighty good at this time. It too, is a deep test.

New M-G-M Release Starts Run July 16

In one of the first showings in West Texas, "Stars In My Crown," new M-G-M release, will begin its first run at the Rio Theatre Sunday, July 16, according to Sammy Jones, manager of the Jones Theatres.

"Stars In My Crown" was shown to a group of Brownfield citizens in a private screening recently, and was very well received.

The moving picture is built around a young minister who arrives in the small town of Walesburg to take over his duties. Joel McRea, as Parson Gray, turns out a top performance, as does his strong supporting cast. "Stars In My Crown" is a fast moving picture, dealing with human lives and the effect of Parson Gray on those lives. The whole family will enjoy this heart warming movie.

Charges of illegal possession of liquor were filed by local authorities against a white man and a colored man here last week end, according to Ocie Murry, sheriff.

Both men have been released on bond, the white man under a $250 and the Negro man under $300. This is the second charge within two months against the Negro.

Recent visitors in the W. D. May home at Gomez were his three sisters, Mrs. J. E. Langdon, San Antonio; Mrs. Myrtle James and daughter, LaNell of Pittsburg, Calif., and Mrs. Irene Rose and son, Billy of McAllen. All have returned to their homes.

New HS Building Damaged Tuesday

Approximately $400 damage to the new Brownfield high school, being constructed in the east section of town, resulted from a wind and rain storm here Tuesday.

Workmen, who had just completed the section of wall partition but who were still on the scaffolding, estimated that 83 feet of the wall collapsed.

The damage was covered by insurance, and the wall is now being rebuilt.

Four FFA Members To Receive Awards

Four members of the Brownfield high school chapter of Future Farmers of America will receive Lone Star Farmer awards at the annual state FFA convention, to be held in San Antonio, on July 20, according to Lester Buford, chapter advisor.

The four members who will receive the awards are Jerry King, chapter president; Allen Orr, Bobby Stokes and Graves Nelson. Orr will also receive a Dairy Farmer award and King will receive a Chapter Farmer award. The members passed their requirements June 13 at Galveston.

The Lone Star Farmer award is the highest given in Texas to FFA members, Buford said. Five members of the Brownfield chapter received the award in 1949, and eight received it in 1948.

Plans Being Made for Mass X-Ray Survey

August through September 2 has been designated as the time for the five county mass x-ray survey of persons over 15 years of age in a search for unsuspected cases of tuberculosis, according to Dr. Frank P. Miller, director of the South Plains health unit. A mobile unit, staffed by state health department employees, will conduct the project.

Counties participating in the program will be Terry, Gaines, Hockley, Yoakum and Dawson.

Phillip W. Gauss, Jr., spoke to representatives of the five counties in an organizational meeting held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the county court room. He is supervisor of operations of the tuberculosis division of the state health department at Austin. Tuberculosis, Gauss said, is the number one public hazard in the nation. The average death rate from tuberculosis is 44 years, he said.

The prime requisite for stamping out tuberculosis education of the public. "Too many unnecessary deaths occur from this disease—unnecessary because the cause and cure for tuberculosis is known and something definitely can be done about it," Gauss told the group at Tuesday's meeting.

X-ray surveys are conducted by state health departments throughout the nation in an effort to get a mass chest picture of the areas and stamp out tuberculosis in those areas.

Officials of the unit are setting up their committees, and the members of the committees will begin work immediately. Gauss outlined the duties of the following committees: Publicity, Clerical assistants, Hostess, Telephone, Location, Unloading and loading (of equipment), Ministerial alliance and House to House campaign.

Big Crowd Expected To Attend Lion Party

Final plans are being made for the Lions Club sponsored election party to be held on the court house square Thursday, July 20. W. T. (Bill) McKinney, chairman of the project, estimates a crowd of 10,000 will be present for the party.

Home demonstration clubs in the county, Pleasant Valley, Meadow, Needmore, Johnson, Tokio, Gomez, Harmony, Pool, Union, Wellman and Willow Wells, and the Delphin Study club of Brownfield are assisting the Lions in the party plans. The clubs are organizing their communities for attendance at the party, and McKinney said that their plans are almost complete.

Special musical entertainment is planned, and women who attend the party are asked to bring pies, cakes, or a box lunch. Persons may eat the food at the party or take it home with them.

Adding to the festivities at the party, McKinney said, will be the Rainey Amusements, which is sponsored each year by the Lions club. The carnival will open here on the east side of the square Monday, July 17, and will be here all of that week.

Proceeds from the party and carnival will be used to further work on the club-sponsored Youth Recreation center.

Members of McKinney's committee are Dr. W. A. Roberson, Conrad Vernon, Lynn Nelson, Roy Herod and Les Short.

The public is cordially invited to attend the party.

Lion Carnival Will Begin Here July 17

Beginning Monday, July 17, the Rainey Amusements carnival will be in Brownfield for one week. The carnival is sponsored each year by the Brownfield Lions Club.

Location of the carnival will be in its usual spot, across the street east of the court house square.

CITY PURCHASES NEW EQUIPMENT, APPROVES EXTENSION OF G ZONE

At a regular meeting of the city council Tuesday night, purchase of two new pieces of equipment for the city was agreed upon.

A South Bend Model E gutter-snip pick up street sweeper, with a two yard capacity drum and powered by a Continental model F 62 gasoline motor was purchased from the Morton Equipment Co., of Abilene. Net cost of the sweeper, allowing for a trade-in on the old sweeper is $385.

Also purchased at the meeting was a Packmaster garbage truck body with a 15 yard capacity. It was purchased from the Rhinehart Equip. Co., of Dallas at a cost of $3700. This will give the city two large garbage collector trucks for pick ups.

The extension of the G zone, on the Seagraves highway, beginning at the Esquire restaurant out to the Y, was also approved. The extension was not contested, according to J. H. Aschenbeck,

Local Minister To Attend Conference

Rev. D. D. Denison, minister of the First Methodist church, will leave July 24 for Broadalbin, N. Y., where he will attend the Sacandaga Conference. The conference is sponsored by Methodist ministers and leading laymen of three New York conferences, those being Troy, N. Y., New York City, and Newark, N. J.

The Rev. Denison will teach a young people's class each morning and will deliver the sermon each night during the conference, which begins July 29 and continues through August 5. His subjects will be lessons from the Sermon on the Mount.

Between 250 and 300 clergymen and their wives, leading laymen and young people will attend the conference, the Rev. Denison said.

Rev. Denison will be accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. George Self of Crowell. They will make the trip by automobile.

Guest preachers at the Brownfield church during Rev. Denison's absence will be Dr. E. H. Crandell, associate pastor of the First Methodist church at Lubbock, who will speak both night and morning on July 30; Rev. Cecil R. Matthews, a Texas Tech College Wesley Foundation director, who will speak at the morning service on August 6; and the Lubbock District missionary to Japan, who will deliver the sermon the night of August 6.

Rev. Denison will return to Brownfield August 11.

Jim Foy, county agent, announces that there will be an insect control meeting at the Wellman Co-op gin at 10 a.m. Tuesday, July 18. In charge of the meeting will be Gay, Carpenter of Lubbock, associate county agent and south Plains entomologist.

Carpenter and Foy have reported that fleahoppers in the county are definitely on the increase and are issuing warnings to farmers to be on the lookout for the hoppers in order that they can poison early. In a survey of the county which Foy and Carpenter made Wednesday, quite a few fleahoppers were discovered in fields in east and north Terry county.

Fleahoppers pierce the terminal buds and newly formed squares of cotton, causing them to drop off. This results quite often in tall, whiplike plants without fruits or fruiting branches or other abnormal growths. This usually occurs early in the season.

Reports of leafworms in adjoining counties have also been reported, Carpenter said. He discovered leafworms in a field in Lynn county Saturday, and has received reports of leafworms in Dawson. Since the worms are appearing so early this season, Carpenter said, it is very important that farmers watch for the worms and if any are found, reported immediately to Foy.

Suggestions have been given by Foy and Carpenter for poisoning the fleahoppers. To use in dusting, a 1 per cent or 20 per cent toxaphene and 40 per cent sulphur compound, to be used at 7-10 pounds per acre is suggested. A 4 per cent or 10 per cent DDT and 40 per cent sulfur is also recommended. Both of these compounds are effective in controlling the fleahoppers, but, Carpenter said, if any aphid, or plant lice, is present, care should be used in dusting with a DDT compound as it kills the beneficial insects on the plants, also.

An effective spray which can be used to poison fleahoppers is toxaphene or two parts of toxaphene and one part of DDT at the rate of three-quarters to one pound per acre.

Descriptive booklets such as "Cotton Insects" and "Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in Texas" may be obtained at Foy's office in the basement of the post office.

Girl Scout Day Camp To Begin Next Tuesday

Starting at the Girl Scout Little House at 8:30 Tuesday, July 18, 40 Brownfield Girl Scouts and their staff members and leaders will launch their four day camp at a site east of the city.

The Terry County Sheriff's posse will lead the group in a parade from the Little House through the business section and then conduct them to their campsite, located on unimproved property owned by the Brownfield Country Club.

Mrs. Carr Austin, director in charge of the camp, said this week that the staff members spent Monday and Tuesday of this week on the camp site, taking their pre-camp training. Staff members are Mesdames E. C. Getstenberger, Wayland Parker, George Steele, Alfred Gore, Moore, Austin and Wayne Smith.

During the pre-camp training period, staff members designated three units for the scouts: Prairie Dog, Coyote and Horned Toad. The dining area will be known as La Jita and the area used by the managers, directors and first aiders will be known as Loughorn.

Due to a lack of trained staff members, registration for the camp has been closed, with 40 local scouts signed up for the program, which will close July 21, Mrs. Austin said.

Campcraft, outdoor cooking, hikes, nature lore, singing and games are included on the camp program. The same type of camping activities are found in established Girl Scout camps everywhere.

Mrs. Smith will act as first aid-er, and will be on the camp site at all times. All Girl Scout standards of safety, health and sanitation will be strictly observed.

Several members of the Brownfield Girl Scout Association attended Girl Scout training under national sponsorship in preparation for this camp, in order to give the girls the most fun and education possible.

The day camp is being sponsored by the Brownfield Girl Scout Council.

McNeil was the quarterback of the football team, a star pitcher for the baseball team, and a guard on the Cubs basketball team. He stated that he thought that he might try out for one of the famous Marine teams. McNeil added that along with being able to complete further studies on his off duty hours, that the Marine sport program had initially interested him in the Marines as a career.

Private McNeil was accepted for service in Lubbock, at the Marine Recruiting Office, and was sent to Dallas for enlistment and transfer.

New Procedure GI Schooling by VA

The VA case load on demands for educational advisements and guidance—the result of Instructional 1-B—is building up at such a rapid rate that the VA has a new plan now in effect affecting veterans seeking to change courses—or take on additional course—in other than same general field of study. New procedures will:

(a) Deny all further voluntary requests by GI students for advisement and guidance.

(b) Limit advisement and guidance for veterans changing field of study to those cases where registration officer deems justification inadequate.

Advisement and guidance for trainees applying under Public Law 16 are not affected by change—nor is advisement and guidance already initiated or scheduled under GI Bill. The VA reports show that 157,000 change of course applications held to be in different field of these 144,000 vets chose to go through advisement and guidance and the VA has processed to completion 102,500 cases and has about 1000 in the mill with a backlog of 40,500.

"End of War" Defined for Enlistees Under Pub. Law 190

Veterans who enlisted or re-enlisted in the armed services under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act, which extended from October 5, 1945 to October 6, 1946, may consider the date of their discharge from that period of service if later than July 25, 1947, as the date of the "end of the war" for the purposes of the GI Bill. This fact is not always properly understood as Public Law 190, 79th Congress applies. While July 25, 1947 is the "end of the war" for all other veter-

Service and Combat Training Plan Will Get Underway Soon

A new stepped up "three year plan" of intensified service and combat training for Organized Reserve Corps units will get underway in Texas on September 1, Col. H. McE. Pendleton, acting chief of the Texas Military district announced this week.

Outlining the nation-wide program at his headquarters at Fort Monroe, Va., Gen. Mark W. Clark, chief of the Army Field Forces said it will give America "a hard core of highly trained Reservists, accustomed to working together, ready for instant mobilization and action in an emergency. This means the end of the 'paper soldier' in our active Reserves. We are going to prepare every man and woman for a job."

Women's Army Corps Reserves are now completely integrated in the training program. WACs may be assigned to any service type unit in which their military occupational specialties are needed. There are more than 200 such types in the reserve program.

M-Day plans now call for the Organized Reserve Corps to furnish a high percentage of service support and combat support units. Implementing the ORC re-organization announced by the Army on April 1, the new program closely parallels the National Guard training schedule. Detailed lesson plans covering every minute of the 48 annual two-hour home station drill periods and more general directives for the 15-day summer training camps will be distributed to all ORC units by September 1.

The plan covers every one of the 380 different types of Reserve units with lessons on subjects ranging from military justice to defense against atomic attack. Charts, films, film strips, bridge models, and many other visual aids for classroom work will be available, as will weapons, tanks, engines, tools and other equipment.

In announcing the program and its application to the Fourth Army, Lt. Gen. LeRoy Lutes, Fourth Army Commander, pointed out that "we are emphasizing the cadre plan, that is, the intensive training and qualification of specialists within a unit in key positions so that the unit may be expanded to full strength with untrained or partially trained personnel, and go into action with a minimum of lost time."

Gee Gee's Chit Chat

Long, long ago—in 1945, I believe it was—a bunch of bells clangd, sirens screamed, people laughed and cried, and all because the war was over. Those were happy times, and we all threw ourselves into the work of becoming just plain old civilians again. We all came home, and gradually our bitterness against war and all it stands for began to dull.

War can change the lives of people in the short time it takes to wink an eye. Because of war, wives become widows and children become orphans; because of war, parents see their whole life's work wiped out when they receive a telegram saying that their 18 year old son has been killed in action; because of war, people view their fellow men through entirely different eyes. Yes, war makes great changes within the space of a second. Because we fear it and because we can't understand why a bunch of people can't get along and live with each other, we build a great wall of bitterness and fear around ourselves. We don't think of anything but taking care of number one, and we are out to get instead of being got. And, although our country is not in a declared war, I predict, in the very near future a great uprising in profiteering and a mass movement of city "fellers" who moved to town to get away from it all, back to the farm. And I wish it didn't make me bitter to think that the same fellows who had the job of fighting for these profiteers and their kind the last time will have the same job this time, only with a fresh crop of kids who should be in school.

Next week promises to be a big one for Terry county and Brownfield. On Monday, July 17, Rainey Amusements moves into the city for the annual carnival, sponsored by the Brownfield Lions club. That will take care of the kids while the various candidates for offices of Terry county button-hole Mama and Papa and try to convince them that "I" should be the next Terry county dogcatcher. Then comes the big Lion election party on Thursday, July 20. Since federal postal regulations prevent giving the full story of this party, let me tell you that there will be more to it than meets the eye in newspaper. The party promises to be one of the biggest things that ever hit Brownfield, and I don't see how it can miss with practically all of the women in the county pushing it.

"Lectoneering" is now beginning to reach a white heat point. Some wag has suggested that it might be the thing for the candidates to do if they wore some sort of badge for identification, thus saving their time if, in their enthusiasm, they should accidentally try to solicit the vote of one of their opponents.

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars post here are now in the throes of an enthusiastic campaign to put our national flag in every home. Leading the force is post commander, Dr. A. H. Daniell, who has his own methods of salesmanship. Come to think of it, he convinced me that buying a flag is cheaper than paying for an operation. Seriously, however, this is one of the best ideas anyone has had in a long time, and I hope that you will listen carefully to whomever calls on you in your home concerning the purchase of one of these flags. The entire town will be covered, and anyone who is not contacted and who is interested in buying one of these flags may contact Dr. Daniell. The proceeds from the flag sales will go toward the purchase of flags for each of the 20 churches in Brownfield. The purpose of the sale of the flags is to make the community more flag conscious. And who isn't these days?

Just as we are all more conscious of polio these days. It is now a good season for polio, so all precautions should be redoubled. The city is keeping up their end of the deal by continued spraying of the city. When I got up early Tuesday morning, the whole neighborhood was foggy from the spray and I almost rushed out and started counting dead flies. And keep in mind the fact that just keeping your premises cleaned up isn't all the story. Take care of your health by pampering that summer cold, avoiding too much sun, and don't over-fatigue yourself.

I'll leave you now to your cogitations. And we all have plenty to think about these days.

Rains Fairly Well Distributed Over Area

We do not mean that any one rain covered a lot of territory, but altogether they ranged from near floods to good showers in perhaps every section of the county. For instance, the rain here Friday afternoon amounted to near an inch and a half, 1.49 to be exact, but the territory it covered was very limited. However, it was stated that down in the draw south of town there was a young flood.

Then there was the rain of Monday afternoon that totaled about 15 here in town, but west, northwest and southwest to describe it like a seismograph crew put it, "it like to have drowned us." While we have heard nothing as this is being written from the east side of the county, they had very little rain out there, as there was clear streaks all the time the cloud looked so heavy in the west.

B. M. Tuttle was in late Monday afternoon, and said we could tell the readers that Johnson community had really received a rain at last. One of the strange freaks was that there was so much sand high in the air, but apparently here in town at least, the wind never appeared to be very hard. Could have been just a wee twister that blew down a section of the wall of the high school building.

According to the local USWB gauge, there was 27 recorded last Thursday and 1.47 on Friday afternoon. Light showers fell both Saturday and Sunday. The Monday afternoon shower was .17. Total 1.91.

Installment Buying Easy for All But the Taxpayer

Uncle Sam goes in for installment buying in a big way. Only he calls it "contract authorization." It means nothing down and billions when the bill comes in.

Some figures on this comparatively recent development in Federal finance were brought out today in a special study ordered by State Chambers of Commerce.

For instance, the 1951 federal budget which Congress is now considering would grant various Federal agencies authority to contract for construction, and other jobs that will require expenditures in future years. These will not cost anything in cash outlay right now but they will involve spending at least $3,363,000,000 before they are paid.

Because these grants of contract authority do not show up right away as spending items in the budget, the groups constantly pressuring Congress for public spending pounce upon them as a painless way of putting over new spending projects. Congress itself has frequently replaced part or all of a requested cash appropriation with such grants in order to show a budget cut.

Another "foot-in-the-door" device for mortgaging Uncle Sam's tax fed income is the growing practice of launching new public works projects with small down payments. The 1951 budget recommends a variety of new public works which would require down payments totaling $156,100,000. In later years, however, these would result in additional expenditures of $919,800,000. The largest of these programs, the St. Lawrence Seaway Project calls for an initial deposit of only $4,000,000 in 1951 but at least $569,000,000 more to give Uncle Sam a clear title.

Federal grants in aid to the states are along the same line. The proposed Federal aid to education bill is an illustration. The first year's installment on that one would be $290,000,000. But its advocates admit they want to get it up as high as $2,000,000,000 a year eventually.

Already a part of the federal budget is going to meet expenditures authorized in earlier budgets. Of the $42,400,000,000 budget proposed for spending in 1951, about $12,100,000,000 or 29 per cent will go for obligations incurred in 1950 or earlier.

FLYING NEWS AND VIEWS

By EDWIN E. DUNCAN

Three planes from the local field flew to Abilene last week to attend the 4th of July air show being sponsored by the Civil Air Patrol at that place. The show, staged entirely by private pilots, consisted mainly of contests such as spot landing, balloon bursting, ribbon cutting and flour bombing. Several exhibitions were given such as dead stick landing in a Cub, banner towing and aerobatics in a 450 h.p. Stearman, and top dusting in a Stearman.

Those from Brownfield attending the all-day event were Willard Stell flying the Stinson with Don Jones and two other passengers, Robert Stone flying the PA-11, and this reporter and Bill Gorby in the Cessna 120. The usual afternoon thunderstorm broke up the show shortly after 4 o'clock and all the visiting pilots made a mad dash for home.

Bill Gorby received his private license on Wednesday of last week, and his first passenger was his wife, Billie.

R. L. McKenzie flew to Artesia, N. M., in the blue Stinson on Sunday of last week.

Murrell Brown and Roy D. Harris flew to Odessa Thursday of last week in the Stinson. Murrell, who lives in Levelland, is again flying his Cruiser which was badly damaged several months ago, and as a result has spent the time since then in the shop.

Bill Gorby, with this reporter and two large suitcases as passengers, flew to Odessa on Friday evening of last week in the PA-11. The returning passenger in the place of the suitcases was a tiny Cocker Spaniel, who, being undaunted by the roar of the motor and the fact that night had closed in, proved to be one of the nicest passengers I have ever had in the plane with me. Oh, for the carefree life of a dog!

Robert Stone flew to Lubbock last Monday in the PA-11.

L. C. Holt, from Levelland, was in at the field Sunday in his four-place Family Cruiser.

K. D. Moore and this reporter flew to Lubbock Saturday of last week in K. D.'s Clipper. Some might call it a business trip, but it was really just to kill a hot afternoon and to a little of the Lubbock brand of hangar flying. J. J. Handle and Roy D. Harris flew to Plainview and Amarillo last Friday in Mr. Handle's Pacer.

Roy D. Harris and Jack Hamilton flew to O'Donnell Tuesday morning in the blue Stinson.

The increased oil activities in this area have brought a number of oil company planes in to the local field during the past few weeks. The big Cessna 195, Ryan Navion and Beech Bonanza were just a few of the types landing here. H. S. Rge flying a Bonanza for the C. G. Glasscock Drilling Co., of Odessa; was in several times this week.

PUNCH FOR THE CROWD

HAVING a party? Outdoors or indoors, parties are occasions for a punch bowl. It's an easy way to serve a beverage for a number of guests, at any time. People never hesitate to help themselves when a punch bowl is featured on the refreshment table, and the hostess doesn't have to worry about refills. Besides, it's such a pretty, cool-looking thing—a sparkling bowl filled with a delicious, peppy punch and glistening ice, fresh fruit floating on the surface for decoration. To be sure of a fine, zesty flavor and a refreshing, bubbly appearance, use pale dry ginger ale as a mixer for your punch. Here is a simple and mighty good-tasting punch.

Fruit Sparkle Punch
 1 cup hulled strawberries
 1 cup shredded pineapple
 Juice, 2 lemons
 1 cup sugar
 1 large bottle pale dry ginger ale

Place berries and pineapple in bowl; add lemon juice and sugar and crush slightly. Let stand half an hour. Pour over ice in punch bowl and add pale dry ginger ale. Stir gently to mix well. Garnish with whole strawberries and lemon slices. Yield: 16 servings.

County Rat Control Program Successful

A report from the office of County Judge H. R. Winston shows that the rat control program in Terry county, headed by John Black, has saved citizens of the county at least $18,000 in the past seven months.

Mr. Black's services and the materials he uses in killing rats and fleas are furnished by the Commissioners Court as a public service, and has continued since the establishment of a typhus and plague control program in 1946.

Mr. Black has killed and recovered 3,000 rats on farms and private premises within the past seven months. Estimates by agricultural experts state that only one third of the rats killed in such campaigns can be recovered, which indicates that an estimated 9,000 rats were destroyed by Mr. Black since January. Those experts also estimate that each rat will do at least $2 worth of damage, or consume the equivalent amount of food, each year they are allowed to exist on the farm.

Three trips are made by Mr. Black to each farm; the first, in which he dusts the premises with DDT powder, the second, in which poison is left for the rats, and the third, which consists of picking up the poison and dead rats which are found. Mr. Black has used 1,400 pounds of DDT at an average rate of 3 pounds per farm visited. The powder is used to rid the premises of fleas, before the rats were poisoned, so that typhus and plague could not be spread.

"While these estimates indicate tremendous economic value, there is no way to determine either the actual dollar and cents value or public health value of this program to the citizens of Terry county," said Judge Winston.

This service may be obtained by leaving names and directions at the South Plains Health unit office in the courthouse.

Farmers Can Plant Quick Maturing Maize

These late rains that have fallen in some sections where moisture has been as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth, brings on the question of what to plant at this late date to get maturity before a freeze or frost hits the open fields this fall. Just such a question took place when B. M. Tuttle called Monday afternoon.

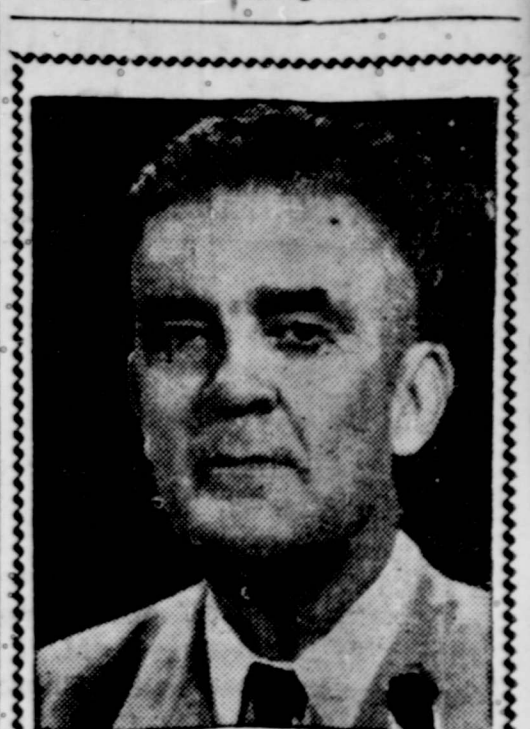

We talk glibly about the first frost or freeze in the early part of November—on an average. But, here's the rub as Mr. Tuttle stated it. Have you ever noted that as soon as the days begin to get short, with a short period of sunshine daily, and the nights fairly cool that you can't noticeably see very much change in grain or cotton maturity in a week or ten day's time? So, a maize must be planted that will mature in September if possible.

There is much talk of a 70 day maturing maize, and we hear some talk of a 60-day maize. If possible, one of the quickest maturing maize, seed obtainable should be secured. At best it could not be more than up to July 20th, and 60 days would set the date of maturity Sept. 20th, or 70 day maize about Sept. 30th.

Such attractive ensembles as radio actresses Betty Winkler and Teri Keane model here will take first place with the girl who works and the summer traveler for they are cool and packable. These particular frocks are McKettrick models, part of the "Daytime Drama" line, named after well-known daytime radio serials. Teri wears the

'Prices To Cheap To Print'

In Memory Of W. M. Green

By Emmett M. Green

William Monroe Green was born June 6, 1858 near Benton, Ark. He was married to Georgia Ann Riley September 21, 1880. To this union were born five sons and one daughter, the wife and three sons preceded the father in death.

He is survived by two sons and the daughter as follows: Elmer G. Green of Amarillo, Texas, Emmett M. Green of Tatum, N. M., and Mrs. G. C. Lewis of Route 3, Brownfield, Texas.

Bill or Billie Green, as he was called by his immediate family was one of nine brothers and only one, J. M. Green, of Little Rock, Ark., survives and he is the youngest of the nine brothers. My father, Bill Green, was next to the oldest. He also had two half sisters and two half brothers, who live in Arkansas. My father passed away at the local hospital in Brownfield, Texas. He had been falling pretty fast for the past few months and we feel sure that all was done that we could to keep him on and to make him just as comfortable as possible during those last few days of his life.

My mother passed away September 25, 1943 and since that time my father's life has been one of great grief, sorrow and loneliness, but he won't be lonesome any more and there will be no more grief and sorrows for him for we are sure there he and our dear mother are re-united, also other loved ones and there is no parting there.

G. I. QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q—I had several years of peace time service in the Army. A short time after I was honorably discharged, I became ill and disabled and I feel that my disability is due to the service. What action should I take to get VA hospital care?

A—You may file a claim for disability compensation and thus get a decision from VA. Generally, as a peacetime veteran, if your disability is not service incurred or service aggravated, you are not eligible to VA hospital benefits.

Q—I am entitled to four years of education and training under the GI Bill. Is it possible for me to take one year or high school and three years of college, if I start my high school course before July 25, 1951, the deadline date?

A—Yes, but you should apply to VA for a change of course before you graduate from high school.

Q—I was given an honorable discharge from the Army in 1945. I reenlisted in 1947 and was recently given a dishonorable discharge. Am I eligible for treatment in VA hospitals?

A—The fact that you were dishonorably discharged in 1947 does not deprive you of any rights to hospitalization you may have by virtue of your honorable service which terminated in 1945.

Q—Will VA furnish transportation when I am transferred from one hospital to another?

A—VA will furnish or pay for transportation when the transfer is approved and arranged by VA for medical reasons. Such transportation will not be furnished by VA when the transfer is for the convenience of the patient.

BIBLE COMMENT

Paul Can Be Portrayed as A Propagandist

ALTHOUGH propaganda is sometimes thought to be a form of deceit, it can be spiritually elevating if devoted to noble ends. Paul might well be used to illustrate this point.

In his pre-Christian days, Paul narrowly closed his heart to the fact that men who differed from him might be correct. However, when Paul became a Christian, his heart became filled with love. As a result, his preaching of the gospel rang with greater compassion and understanding. The revolutionizing experience of his conversion on the way to Damascus became an evolutionary experience as Paul linked his Christian faith with the prophetic truth and light of the Old Testament. His deep-seated conviction was now to lead others into the way that he had found.

Paul propounded persuasive arguments that faith can enrich and enlarge our lives. With energy and perseverance, he enlisted followers to support his belief in the rewards of spiritual goodness. In his revelations and ideas, generations have since discovered many new ways of living and cherishing beauty. Such appreciation is a definition of what it means to "grow in grace."

We do not know much about Paul as a preacher save that he was neither eloquent nor overpowering. However, it is certain that he nevertheless was effective. As a propagandist, Paul succeeded through indefatigable tenacity. He did not "peddle" his doctrine but presented it with dignity and bright-shining faith. In support, acceptance and an application of his beliefs, he presented succeeding generations with "propaganda" that will long be treasured.

Lions To Build Camp For Crippled Children

An estimated 40,000 Lions, representing 600 Texas clubs, are now preparing to launch a membership development program for the Texas Lions League for Crippled Children.

League President Jack Weich of Brownville made the announcement recently. He said membership development is another step towards his organization's ultimate plan for a $500,000 rehabilitation center for crippled children.

It will be known as the Melvin Jones Camp, in honor of the founder of the International Association of Lions clubs, and will be built on a 504 acre tract of land deep in the heart of the Texas Hill Country, three miles southeast of Kerrville.

Wich said the camp, tentatively scheduled for operation by the summer of 1951, will be the realization of a four year dream on the part of Lions club members.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

This one Telescopes your Timetable

Of course you recognize it.

Who doesn't know that those four Ventiports, that graceful sweep of fender-chrome, mark ROADMASTER—best of all the Buicks, unquestioned "big buy" of the fine-car field?

But have you tried it?

Have you matched this sweet-stepping bonny against the tall hills, and the call of the straightaway?

Ever tooled it across town — and seen how Dynaflo's quick surge and smooth take-off slip you through traffic with minimum of foot-motion and maximum of timesaving?

Ever known the good feel of a light and easy wheel, swinging almost at a finger's touch — the soul-satisfying lift in a big 152-hp Fireball engine just waiting for the release your toe-pressure gives it?

Ever sampled that famous Buick ride—steady, level, unperturbed, soft with the special gentleness of coil springs on all four wheels, sweetly restful in both front and rear seats?

There's no reason, really, to wait longer for such satisfying experience.

There's a Buick dealer near you. He delights in showing off ROADMASTER. He'll arrange — unless all his demonstration cars have been snatched away from him by eager buyers—to put you behind a ROADMASTER wheel.

Why not see him now — to find out what's finest in today's fine cars, and how little it takes to buy one?

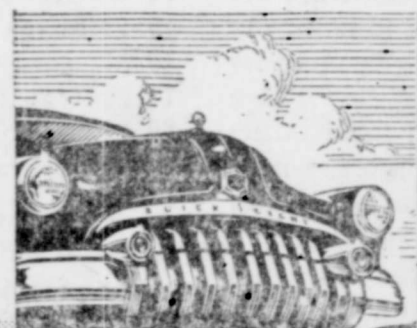

Only Buick has Dynaflo* and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS—with Body by Fisher.

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

Stricklin Speaking

By Old He

Well, they finally got that old well extinguished over in Borden county last week after burning and defying all efforts of man to stop the blaze for almost a month. In the old days the grass fires could sometimes be stopped on the ranches by backfiring and plowing fire guards. But the old time ranchmen had no experience with oil well fires.

In fact, if you'd asked an old ranchman 20 years ago if there was any oil in this section, he'd likely answered with, "heck no, except in the dratted pumps in town."

And while we are at the matter of old time, we can't remember that we had any hair in our nose, and around and in our ears when we were a younger guy. Now our barber spends more time in eliminating the hair from formerly non-hair productive areas than on our old head, where hair ought to grow, but now known as our denuded crown.

We have often wondered about these surplus hair in an unwanted location, as one grows older. Perhaps us guys nearing our three score and ten years, are not as quick to bat the flies and bugs off as when younger, and the surplus foliage grows in advanced years for protection. Maybe this accounts for the old saying that "age is creeping upon us."

Took a notion last week that we'd been confined in this here office and behind the old Remington as long as we could stand it at one helping. So, we, the wife and the Old He, cranked up the old "forty model Chevy" and hied out for the tall brush. We could almost smell post oak stove wood burning before we got off the caprock.

Went via Tahoka and Post and found them moving along in the even tenor of their ways, with good crops coming on thereabouts. Snyder is still booming, building and boosting, and has a very distinct crude oil odor. Was surprised to find that although they got an abundance of rain early in the Roby, Anson and Abilene sections, their crops are little ahead of those on the plains. And in some communities, their maize, especially, is showing the need of moisture.

Down in around Brownwood they are more advanced, and over in Johnson and Hill counties, they have cotton almost knee high and blooming profusely. And right here, we want to add that that section has the best prospects for a corn crop we ever saw. If they have another rain in a couple of weeks, much of their corn will make from 50 to 80 bushels per acre.

Found the offspring and her man doing fine at Brownwood. Was sorry to hear that Bluford Adams, brother of W. M. and Meslames McPherson and Hamilton of this city had a stroke last week, and was very ill. Mrs. H. returned home with us, and was to pick up her car and carry Mrs. McPherson back to Brownwood.

Went over to Johnson county Friday to visit the folks. Our brother Meeks is suffering from lumbago, but felt some better. He is up and around. All the kids and kin called Friday night for a good long chat, which went on till far into the night. Plenty eats as usual, and as there was a good shower in the afternoon, it took the usual heat out of the atmosphere, and it was a fine night for visiting the land of Nod.

Up betimes and at Cleburne when meal time came at a nephew's, Alton Stricklin. His wife and little daughter had just gotten in from Oklahoma, but Bettie was not too worn out to fix us a fine meal. After the noon repast, we decided to visit our good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Knox B. McWilliams at Hillsboro, and return via Whitney dam. In the meantime, our grand niece, Miss Nancy Stricklin decided to come home with us for a long visit. That little 13 year old girl is fine company and a very good kid.

We knew we could not get away from the McWilliams down at Hillsboro in less than an hour; it was much longer, and they began right straight to want to phone over at Brownwood that we'd not be in that night. Wanted to carry us over to the Whitney dam in their new Buick, and other places of interest. With a promise that we'd call later this year and spend a night, they let us off.

We really found that going through Whitney town we'd not see the dam as the McWilliams had told us. It is six miles down the Brazos. And there is some 10 miles of unpaved roads from Whitney until you strike pavement in Bosque county way this side of the Brazos. The pavement will cross the dam when it is completed. In fact pavement is up to dam on both sides now, but the contractors will not let the public use it, as they get in the way of laborers—and we guess ask too many fool questions.

Finally back to Brownwood, and another big talkfest, eas and sleeps. You can't sit out much down there after dark, the dog-gone mosquitos will eat your toenails off. And there are any amount of chiggers if you get in the grass. Had a swell time all around.

Only thing that marred the trip was two bad flats, one right even with the Abilene airport on busy highway 80, going, and the other just east of Meridian returning. These tubes were sold us about May 1, and both were ground to powder. The service station men who put in new tubes expected that the tires would be ruined, but neither was. So, we just got hold of at least two and maybe four very poor inner tubes.

ROGER CURRY GIVES UP LEASE ON PAPER

We noted last week in some of the dailies that William Roger Curry, better known to some of the older newspaper fraternity, as Red, has given up the lease on the Yoakum County Review at Plains. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hale, the owners took over where the Currys left off.

We feel sure it was not because of lack of ability in the Currys, for Roger knows the business from top to bottom. It was very likely, from what the Review had to say this week, that they could not arrange their affairs so as to carry on at Plains as they wished.

WEIMHOLD SEEKING VOTES HERE LAST WEEK

Forrest Weimhold, Levelland publisher, was in our city last Saturday but called when the Junior Editor was out, and the Old He out of town. He is a candidate for the office of State Representative of the 119th district, the office being vacated by Preston Smith.

Mr. Weimhold is a native of the South Plains, being mostly reared at Sudan, where he finished high school and entered Tech College. He spent 33 months in the armed forces during the last war, in India, Burma and China. A friend of Mr. Weimhold was also in our city in his interest Tuesday of this week.

RIPPS HERE IN INTEREST OF HIS RACE

Mr. A. M. Ripps of Big Spring, candidate for Congress of the 19th district, was a visitor in our city Saturday, and paid a call at the Herald office. However, at that time, no reporter was in.

We understand that Mr. Ripps is a retired railroad man, and has made the Howard county city a fine citizen. In another column will be found an ad he is running, asking the voters for their support.

Here In Interest Of Robert S. Calvert

A friend of Robert S. Calvert, State Comptroller, called this week in the interest of Calvert's candidacy. It will be remembered that the late Gov. Jester appointed Mr. Calvert in the place of the late George H. Shepperd, as Calvert had been chief clerk for 20 years, and thoroughly understood the duties of the office.

He is now asking for a term on his own. Calvert is a west Texan, hailing from Sweetwater, and knows every phase of the office of State Comptroller. The writer hopes that Terry county voters will give Calvert a nice vote.

Let us also remember that our own Gus Farrar, one of the members of the first graduating class of Brownfield high school, is a valued member of the Comptrollers' office. Farrar is a nephew of Mrs. J. L. Randal of this city.

Let's Quibble Awhile

By Julia W. Wolfe

IT'S puzzling how simple a question can be to cause hesitation or to bring forth a ridiculous answer. Suppose you ask:

"At any given moment which, the top or the bottom of a car wheel, is moving forward the faster?"

You'd think that the wheel, being part of the car, is going the same speed all over. But actually the bottom of the wheel is moving backwards and the top, therefore, is going forward faster.

That's called quibbling, boys and girls, and it has been a big sport of the human race for thousands of years. The old Greek and Roman philosophers dealt in quibbles. They are found today on radio quiz programs. You, no doubt, have quibbled with your friends or have been quibbled at. Let's try a few.

Here's one that makes you think: "If a goose weighs 10 pounds and half its own weight, what does it weigh?"

The first impulse is to answer 15 pounds, but 10 plus half of X, equals X. If you know your algebra, you can figure it out. If you don't know algebra, take our word for it, X equals 20. The goose weighs 20 pounds.

Now that we've had our algebra lesson, let's move on to geometry. "A wise man, who had a window one yard high and one yard wide, wanted more light. So he doubled the window's size, yet the window was still only one yard high and one yard wide. How did he do it?"

Of course any quiz kid with an I.Q. of 10,000 can figure it out. The window must have been diamond shaped to start with, and square when doubled in size.

THIS quibble is an oldie: "A man walks around a pole, on the top of which you, you little monkey, are sitting. As the man moves, you turn so that you're always facing him. When the man has gone around the pole, has he gone around you?"

After much quibbling with quibblers, an authority on quibbles finally decided that the man went around the monkey—beg pardon, we mean you. But change the situation just a little and see how it works out:

The same man went aloft in a balloon, anchored by cable to the earth. He stayed up 24 hours, while the earth turned on its axis. Did the man go around the earth? If he did, then he went around you while you sat on that pole.

Zeno was a Greek philosopher who quibbled more than 2000 years ago. His most famous quibble was:

"A body must be in the place where it is, or the place where it is not. A moving object is a moving body and therefore must be in the place where it is or where it is not. A body in the place where it is, must be stationary. A body can't be in the place where it is not. Therefore a body can't move." Don't let it worry you, in case you are going to a movie. You can get there all right. The other philosophers said that Zeno didn't play fair when he said that a body can't be in a place and be moving.

Austrian Winter Peas Fine For Plains

Austrian winter peas are making a favorable showing in Hansford county this year, reports county agent Zack Jagers. The plants were not harmed by green bugs, and they withstood the drought almost as well as wheat. Jagers says the fields that were planted early in August made excellent fall and early winter pastures, but we caught by a dry freeze in a luxuriant state of growth and the plants were killed by winter freezing. Peas that were planted in August and in September did not make sufficient growth to furnish much fall grazing, but did not winter kill. They made excellent spring growth, and by the middle of May had made a deep luxuriant cover on the fields. Although this cover was suitable for a green manure crop, Jagers says that most farmers who had prospects for a seed crop left their peas to be harvested for seed. Jagers predicts that, due to the satisfactory showing being made by Austrian winter peas in Hansford county, the acreage planted will be greatly increased this season.

Food Poisoning Can Be Thing of Past

Food poisoning and the spread of food-borne diseases can be "things of the past," State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox asserted here today. "People need only remember three things to bring about the end of the food poisoning disease classification," Dr. Cox declared. "Buy food from safe sources, prepare it in a sanitary fashion, and serve and store it correctly." He said state laws covered the sales of contaminated food to the housewife, but "only the homemaker can see that food is properly stored and clearly prepared for serving the family." There is a difference between food infection and food intoxication, he pointed out. Food infection comes from eating or drinking a product contaminated by a germ. Dysentery, typhoid fever, para-typhoid fever and tuberculosis are examples. Animal parasites can also gain entry to the body in this way. That, the doctor said, is how people get trichinosis and tapeworm. The growth and multiplication of certain toxin forming bacteria in unrefrigerated foods bring on food intoxication, according to the explanation. That is the source of staphylococcus infection and

HOME WAS BUILT IN A DAY—With the framework already up, only five minutes after starting construction, more than 40 workmen, carpenters, electricians and plumbers in Santa Rosa, Calif., swarmed over a new $8500 home, which was completed six and a half hours later, setting a new world record. It was estimated that 120 workers had a hand in the construction of the modern five-room house with attached garage by the time it was completed. The owners moved in the day.

Shivers Favors Lifting Ceiling On Old-Age Aid

Fortright answers to four questions put to him in a letter from a west Texan this week placed Gov. Allan Shivers clearly on record for a "fair and equitable" old age assistance system in Texas. Replying to a communication from Archie Yates, 1318 North 15th St., Abilene, Shivers set forth in one-two-three fashion his views on old age assistance. He wrote Yates as follows: "Your first question is, 'Do you favor the removal of the ceiling on old-age pensions and payments to needy children and dependent blind?' My answer is yes. 'Your second question is, 'Will you or will you not do all you can to have a constitutional amendment submitted to the people to be voted on at the earliest possible time?' My answer is, I will. 'Your third question is 'Will you or will you not, if ceiling is removed, support a law raising such payments?' My answer is: This is a matter entirely for the Legislature, but I will be happy to see the Legislature pass such laws as it feels fair and just in all the circumstances. 'Your fourth question is, 'Do you or do you not favor the State taking a lien on whatever property the old folks may have?' My answer is, I do not."

In his letter to Yates, Gov. Shivers pointed out that, as a member of the State Senate in 1935, he wrote and sponsored the first old-age pension law that Texas had. Shivers also was a co-author of the 1941 tax bill which to this day provides revenue for the old age assistance program. "As a public official," he said, "I have always endeavored to work for a fair and equitable old-age assistance program in Texas."

FIGHTING EDITOR

CHRISTOPHER, ILL.—The campaign of Victor C. Leiker, 33-year-old editor of the weekly Christopher Progress here, against irregularities in relief administration has brought gratifying results. Four townships were notified they will lose their state grants of more than $60,000 a month unless they show evidence that the irregularities have been cleared up. Leiker pressed his campaign against boss rule despite the loss of substantial advertising accounts.

More Contributions Received By Clubs

Several more contributions have been made to the Seleta Jane Brownfield Club house fund, according to Mrs. W. T. McKinney, second vice president of the Alpha Omega Study club. The club house was built through the efforts of the Alpha Omega club and the Maids and Matrons Study club. The club house was named after a former charter member and president of the Maids and Matrons club. Contributions received recently were: Mrs. C. F. Hamilton, $10; Mrs. R. B. Parrish, $25; Teague-Bailey Chevrolet Co., $100; and Mrs. John Portwood, a Duncan Phyfe sofa.

(Sonny) Wall and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Brown, Miss Lois McEee, Dale Newsom, Kirby and the honoree. Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Davis of Miami, Fla., arrived Monday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. N. A. Lindsey and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Les Newberry.

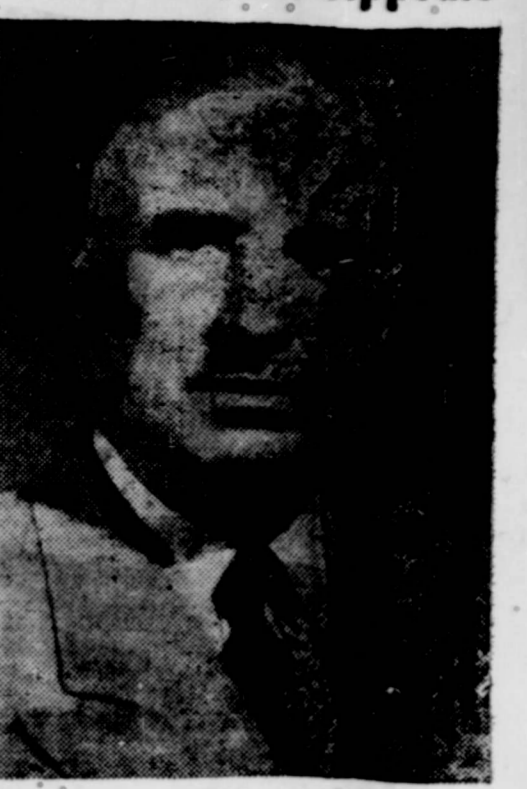

Slick Scheme Uncovered To Pass Unequal Redistricting

Have you noticed how the population of East Texas counties have uniformly declined? There is a story behind this story: You will recall that the people of Texas adopted a constitutional amendment by which provision is made that should the legislature fail to redistrict the state following each federal census that a commission shall do the job. The story comes to us that the boys from East Texas will pull a fast one in January. They have a bill written which will slightly redistrict the state, but will not give the growing counties any way nearly as much representation in the legislature as the declining East Texas counties. They figure that the next session of the legislature will have so many freshmen members that they can pull a fast one and put over this unequal redistricting bill. Should they succeed, then Texas could not be redistricted for another ten years. West Texas Senators and Representatives will have to be on their toes to block this unfair bill and trust to the state commission for relief. Maybe the politically minded commission would do a little better, but at any rate West Texas will have the votes, and that counts with the boys who look for results.—Canyon News.

Marine Recruiting Office Open Late

The U.S. Marine Corps recruiting office in Lubbock Federal building remained open Saturday and Sunday from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. The office received orders from headquarter in Dallas late Friday.

The office at Dallas had been notified by headquarters, Marine Corps, in Washington, D. C., that recruiting offices would remain open over the week end because of the international situation.

The Lubbock office is accepting volunteer enlistments in the regular and reserve Marine Corps and they ordinarily close at noon on Saturday. It has not been officially announced as yet, but they expect to be open the week end of the 15th and 16th of July, probably during the same hours.

There will be a Marine recruiter in Brownfield on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month at the post office from 2:30 to 3:30.

Antelope Shooting East of Pecos Out

The Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission recommended a straight 45 day waterfowl shooting season beginning November 10. An earlier request for a zoning season to benefit Panhandle counties has been placed before the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service as has also a proposed bag limit of eight ducks per day and eight in possession instead of the four ducks per day and four in possession allowed last fall.

The Commission authorized a nine day antelope season, west of the Pecos to be patterned after the 1948 special season in which 702 permits were issued to bag male antelope. The number of 1950 permits to be issued has not yet been determined.

Game and fish seasons for the newly created regulatory authority in the new 28 county Panhandle area were also approved. The call for a deer and turkey season from November 17 to November 26 for all Panhandle counties excepting Armstrong, Randall and Briscoe. The limit will be one buck deer and two turkey gobblers for each hunter.

The three counties were exempted because of recent restocking activities by the Game Commission.

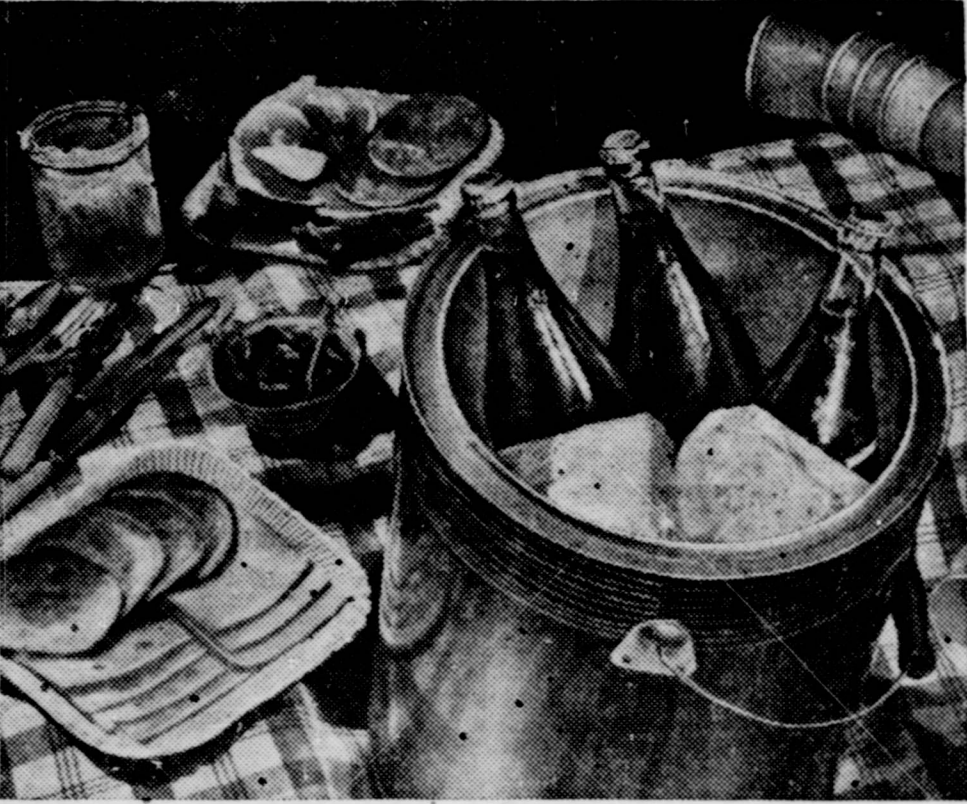

The Panhandle area was hunted a quail season, from December 1 to January 16, which are the same dates as the general state law, but the bag limits for the new regulatory area, were cut from 12 per day to 10 per day and the possession limit was cut from 36 per week to 20 in possession at any one time. The Commission abandoned plans for open season on antelope, prairie chicken and pheasants in the Panhandle because of insufficient data and a policy of "playing it safe" until more information on these species could be obtained.

TEXAS BUSINESS REACHES AN ALL TIME HIGH

Texas business activity reached an all time high in May, as measured by the composite index of business activity compiled by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. The May index rose 6 per cent from April to 213 per cent of the 1935-39 base period, with all components registering increases.

Urban building permits, adjusted for price change, soared 51 per cent from the previous month to a level almost six times as high as the prewar level. Crude oil production gained 5 per cent; electric power consumption, crude oil runs to stills, and industrial power consumption 3 per cent each; retail sales adjusted for price change, 2 per cent; and miscellaneous freight loadings 1 per cent.

The boom in building continued in Texas during May, with the Bureau's seasonally adjusted index of building permits establishing an all time high of 1098 per cent of the 1935-39 base period.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Today, on account I just survived a near encounter with another of those double jointed, 3 story highway freight trucks on the way into town, I barge into this learned lecture on "transportation."

If a railroad could buy itself some cars, an engine, and a tank of diesel or a tender full of coal, and take off on the nearest highway or any highway it chose—no tracks to provide—no bridges—no signal system, sisters and brothers, rates and fares could tumble.

Box car type trucks get themselves a license plate, a tank of gas, and are off for here and yonder. 'Taint fair. 'Taint fair to the R.R. —'taint fair to the taxpayer who helps pay plenty for the highway. And even the R.R. itself must pony up taxes that go to bridges for its big box car type competitor. And now folks, with the campaign for fair play in the rings, are these any questions. I turn the mate over now, to the lunch club program persons. If they crave a pertinent subject, they now have same.

But before signing off complete and to show you I am not a 100 per cent greer pea at railroading, I hasten to say that I once jimmied myself onto the Santa Fe payroll. Clumb around there in roundhouses and such—Texas to Chicago to California—seeing to it that the wires were safe, insurance against fire. You gotta hand it to the Santa Fe—it goes the limit to make losses of life and property less likely, from fire.

Yours with the low down,
 JO SERRA.

May Be Big Boom For Appliance Dealers

Thanks to the current striking increase in the use of natural gas, there may be a big new boom on the horizon for the nation's appliance dealers. In the field of home heating alone, for example, nearly twice as many Americans use gas now as in 1940, and there is not let up in the trend. According to a government study, natural gas sales may jump another 50 per cent by 1952. Some predict that because of its ease of delivery, operation, and servicing, gas will eventually become the most economical and widely used of all fuels. Less than 3,800,000 houses were heated by gas in 1940, but by 1949 the number had leaped to 7,200,000.

Although the biggest use of gas in the past has been in kitchen ranges, the present huge increase in gas supplies throughout the country—some 30,000 miles of gas pipelines have been laid in just the past eight years—is expected to result in a correspondingly large increase in the use of other gas appliances, some of them of the "dream" variety. Appliance dealers will benefit accordingly.

Helping the Crippled Child Is Gratifying

Mrs. Irene Griffith, Terry County Health Nurse says: "One of the most gratifying experiences of the county health nurse is in helping get treatment, and if possible, correction for the crippled child. Some of them begin treatment in the first months of life and continue into or through adolescence.

"One is surprised to learn that a county would have 30 to 40 crippled children among its residents. There is a treatment available (made possible by agencies interested and some organizations mainly for that purpose) for all of them who are of sound mind. Some are of very poor parents or who may not realize this can be done and may need a lot of explaining and encouragement in getting started and keeping appointments.

"The local health department is always glad to have the case referred to them by physicians, neighbors, friends or anyone who happens to know about the child. A roster is kept of all crippled children and visits are made by the nurse where supervision is needed.

Judge Reed Makes Statement to Voters

It has not been possible for me to personally visit with many of you during my campaign for re-election as District Judge. The unusually heavy work in the courts of the district have deprived me of that privilege. Therefore, I am taking this means of asking you for your support for re-election as District Judge on the basis of the record I have made.

I am a veteran of both World Wars, having served overseas with the 90th Division during the first World War. While I was in the army during the last World War I gladly rendered every assistance within my power to every young man in the 106th District who was in military service and let me know that I could be of assistance to him.

I take definite pride in having served my country in both peace and in two World Wars, a distinction not enjoyed by many men.

I was reared on a farm and spent a large part of my early life in farming and teaching school in order to help support an invalid father and brother, and at the same time acquire an education.

I have been a church member since a boy of twelve, an officer in the church for over 25 years, and have taught a Sunday school class ever since I moved to the South Plains.

While I became your District Judge a little over 13 years ago, over three years of that time was spent in the armed forces, so actually I have actively served as your District Judge for only slightly more than ten years. The experience I have gained during this time has given me an insight into the problems which arise in the district courts that is impossible to gain elsewhere.

I believe that you will select as your District Judge a man who has the strength, the health, the vigor, and the energy to quickly and efficiently perform his duties. I refer you to the jurors who have served in court as to whether I am such a person. I am old enough to be thoroughly experienced and am young enough and have the health and strength to continue to efficiently perform the duties of the office.

Of the many hundreds of cases that I have tried since my return in 1945, only 33 have been appealed. Of this number the higher courts have ruled that I made errors in less than one-fourth of them. This is a much better record than the average for the State of Texas.

I have sought, made, and enjoyed close personal friendships throughout this district. I have shown to the best of my ability the same zeal to quickly perform my duties in each county. I have tried to do my exact duty regardless of the persons involved, their position in life, or the place where the case was pending.

In seeking re-election I do so upon the basis of my record as an efficient judge and upon my successful experience in serving my country both in peace and in war. I sincerely hope you see fit to show your confidence in me again at the polls on Saturday, July 22nd.

TRAPPED FARMER - Buried neck-deep in dirt by a well cave-in; farmer Henry Randall of Elkhart, Ind., was saved from smothering to death by quick-witted rescuers who slipped a bottomless ashcan over his head to prevent shifting soil from completely covering him up. A tractor and slip-scraper freed Randall before he was forced to use a garden hose as a breathing tube.
