BROWNFIELD, TEXAS

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1950

NUMBER 12

This Picture Is From the Architect's Drawing of Brownfield New City Hall

We are glad to picture the new city hall, police and fire station this week from the architect's drawing. Butler & Brasher of Lubbock, are the architects, but Jack King, hustling employee of this firm is the one that has had most to do with the planning of this model city hall. And they tell us Jack will be on the job until it is turned over to the city some time next spring.

The contract as finally let, was construction to W. B. Abbott Construction Co., Lubbock, for $108,496.00. This firm has just finished the Five County Medical Center here. The Southern Steel Co., of San Antonio, received the steel contract for the prison equipment, at $10,957.00. Ballard Plumbing and Electric, a local firm, got the plumbing and electric job for $18,569.00, and the Nunn Electric Co., of Lubbock, the heating and air conditioning for $21,110.00. Total $159,132.00 complete.

Construction of the building will start immediately, and will be rushed to completion, but we understand the contractors have 240 days. The building is on the corner of the 200 block on west Main, across from the First Baptist church.

Cubs To Meet Plainview Tonight

The Brownfield Cubs journeyed to Plainview this morning where they will meet the Class AA Bulldogs at 8:00 p.m. in a non-conference clash.

The Cubs met a defeat of 53-13 last Friday night from the Littlefield Wildcats, defending state Class A champions. Although the Wildcats led by a large margin of eight touchdowns, the Cubs scored two sensational ones.

The Cubs first score came in the second quarter when Howard Swan, Cub end, caught a direct pass from reserve quarterback Donnie Boyd. Swan connected on the Cub 41 and ran 59 yards for the first TD.

The second count came in the third quarter when the Wildcats kicked and reserve halfback Bobby Latham caught the ball on the Cub 15 and raced down the north sidelines for the second TD.

The Cubs have been receiving stiff work outs this week, and will give the Bulldogs plenty of fight tonight. In the absence of Coach Greer, assistant coaches Farris Nowell and L. G. Wilson will be in charge of the coaching duties.

The probable starting line up of the Cubs will remain the same as in previous weeks.

The probable starting line up for the Bulldogs will be Dale Scott, quarterback, Otis Ratcliff and Tom Caskey, backfield, Wilbur Wilson, fullback, Bobby Shaw and Clint Johnson, guards, Jake Pinney and Don Yarborough, tackles, Skippy Calloway, center, and Dick Roberts and Weldon Hayes, ends.

We shall give the readers more about this modern facility in next week's paper.

T. E. Commission Sets Up Local Office

C. I. Grimes of the Texas Employment Commission has set up a temporary quarters in the County Agent's office in Brownfield for the fall season.

H. L. (Hub) King is in charge of the office whose main service is to make farm labor placements. The office will be in state wide communications with other areas in Texas. In the areas where there is a labor surplus they will be directed to those areas that will be a labor shortage which will keep the employment equally divided.

C. I. Grimes who is area office manager has the following counties under his jurisdiction: Terry, Lynn, Gaines, Yorkum, Dawson, Burden and Scurry. The area headquarters is located in Lamesa.

Farmers in need of laborers should contact Mr. King either at his office or by telephone. The phone number is 27.

Brownfield Welcomes Return of McDuffie

Many of the people who were here during the time the W. R. McDuffie made their home here for more than twenty years, will be pleased that they are returning to Brownfield. Dick was not only a good banker and mixer, but took great interest in the civic, school and church affairs of the city.

He was always willing to help out in any undertaking, and unlike a lot of us, never used that old one, "just ain't got time." His wife, also was one of the most pleasant of ladies. Maurine McDuffie always had a smile and a good word for her hosts of friends. None of the upity-up stuff about Mrs. Mack.

They also reared a mighty good son, Richard Jr. (Sonny) who continued his high school studies here after his parents moved to Lubbock, finally graduating here.

NEW BUILDING JUST WEST OF BANK

Lal Copeland and Lad Brownfield are erecting a brick and tile building just west of the Brownfield State Bank and Trust Co. building, on west Broadway.

The building is to be 50x120, and will probably be used for office space. Roy Wingerd is contractor.

Miss Beth Golden, above, candidate of the Wellman high school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Golden of Wellman. Beth is secretary and treasurer of the sophomore class and is a member of the girls basketball team.

More Oil Exploration In Terry Than Production

Lubbock Banker Buys Major Interest In Brownfield Bank

(From Tuesday Morning Lubbock Avalanche)

W. R. McDuffie, a vice president and director of the First National Bank of Lubbock, has purchased a controlling interest in the First National Bank of Brownfield, it was announced Monday by Walter S. Posey, president of the Lubbock banking institution.

McDuffie will continue his connection with the First National Bank in Lubbock "for the time being, but at a later period probably will move there and devote all his time to that institution," Posey said.

Posey expressed his regret at "losing" the popular bank officer, but his pride in the rise of McDuffie was evident.

McDuffie came to Lubbock in May of 1947 as a vice president and director of the Lubbock First National Bank.

He had been in the Brownfield First National Bank before that time—from 1924 to 1945, starting as an assistant cashier and working up to executive vice president. Earlier he had worked in various banks approximately six years, including the Federal Re-

There has been few new oil fields brought in since we can remember in Texas that have not had some disappointments. This will appear in the best of fields, a dry hole now and then—a duster, to use oil field language. And those hereabouts have about decided that the No. 2 Beaver, west of the No. 1 Beaver, discovery well, might be a duster.

We hope not, but with the 200 feet low structure in the west of the Wellman field, already down below where production was found in the discovery, it doesn't look so good. Might be just a bit too far west. Then remember the mile west of the Mound Lake pool. It too, was low—or was it high structurally. Anyway, a duster.

Some of the wells in the Wellman area should be getting into the neighborhood of pay, but we've heard no reports. Then there is one south of Wellman a mile or two. Don't know just how far it is getting down.

Flash!

As we go to press we learn that the east offset to the discovery well Bevers No. 1, near Wellman, had an hour's test of 126.5 barrels of high grade oil in an hour. It is Magnolia Petroleum Co., No. 1 Scales. That figures out a bit better than 3000 barrels per day.

As to the Cotten-well area, southeast of town, there is nothing to report on any of the four wells drilling. Possibly in the next two weeks, some of them will be getting into the neighborhood depth of the discovery, and we'll find out if this pool is really going to be extensive or narrow. Seems strange, however, that it would be possible to exactly hit three reef strata in three different parts of Terry and no oil except in the discovery wells.

Well, that hardly ever happens. In the meantime the derrick is up for the No. 1 A. M. Brownfield wildcat three miles east of town, and the well has been spudded in. Now if you are not an old oil field man, that spud-in may mix you up. But it just means the hole has been started down toward China.

The several projects announced recently, mostly new builders supply and oil field supply houses, are coming along nicely, and it should not be too long until they are ready for business.

Trading in and the purchase of real estate in the city and vicinity, other than for oil leases and royalty, keeps going at a fairly lively clip, and while building is nothing sensational, it is doing well considering recent restrictions imposed by the war department at Washington.

People in neighboring towns are coming in and advertising houses and apartments for rent, thinking with the overflow here, some might live as far away as 30 miles, and work here.

Hello You Little New Comers—Welcome

The newcomers via the Stork route to arrive in Terry from October 2nd through the 7th, are as follows:

Veneta Ann Steen to Mr. and Mrs. Conley Clarence Steen; Sylvia Elidia Perez, to Mr. and Mrs. Anastacio Perez; William Earl Thompson, Jr., to Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Thompson; a boy (unnamed) to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Christopher; Robert Tilden Harred to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harred; Jerry Don Burke to Mr. and Mrs. Newton Edison Burke; Dana Lynn Prestridge, to Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Prestridge; Thomas Earl Jones, to Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whisenant, Mrs. Dewey Duke, and Mrs. John Cloud of Socorro, N. M. are here visiting Mrs. Homer Winston and other relatives.

Hello Folks! We Hope You Like Brownfield

Fifteen new folks have arrived in Brownfield, week beginning October 2 and through the 7th. We hope we are not leaving out anyone: If there is an average of four to the names given below, that means 60 newcomers, and if only three: 45. We hope "youall" will like it here.

To those who have been here for a period of time, and now consider themselves as stable citizens, just this word: Remember that you was once a newcomer, and how glad you were when any of the natives took notice of you and made you feel welcome.

It doesn't take but a few minutes of your time, and scarcely any effort to make the newcomers you meet feel at home, and they are a part—a big part—at that, in the building of a bigger and better Brownfield and community in general.

We have occasion to meet many of them, as they come to the Herald office frequently, sometimes several in a day, looking for houses to rent, apartments and even rooms.

Sometimes we feel sorry for some good lady when it appears that she and family may have to camp out under a tree. But somehow, they most always get a shelter in the time of storm until they have time to look around and find what they want. But here's the list:

H. V. and F. L. Bice, both of Amarillo; Earl H. Beauchamp, Abernathy; Joe Glavin, Slaton; W. A. Grisamor, Colorado City; Mrs. Cecil Hill, Holiday; Mrs. Luther Diarmid, former address unknown; Miss Clarie Newton, Amarillo; George D. Martin, Benton, Ill.

Glenn Marrow and B. G. Purser, both of Snyder; Bobbie Scope, Anson; Jack M. Short, former address unknown; J. H. Strickland, Snyder and Homer M. Vaughn, Spur. Some have local address, but we decided not to publish that information.

NINETEEN NEW CARS SOLD LAST WEEK

Well some of our folks at least are sporting new cars, but there are so many now, only a few months old, that practically all seem new to us. The list we received includes the following, and then maybe some had not been registered at the time:

N. C. Clananah; Ford; Herman Cottrell, Ford; Tess Fulford, Chevrolet; Billy E. Green, Dodge; Ray Hailey, Ford; J. Brooks Hamilton, Ford; C. L. Kinder, Chevrolet; W. B. Lee, Mercury; D. A. Lowe, Chevrolet; J. R. Patton, Buick; F. B. Raybon, Buick; Mrs. B. F. Shipley, Dodge; Fred Smith, Chevrolet; E. V. Tarbutton, Pontiac; Emmett E. Tucker, Plymouth; James E. Underwood, Ford; Warren J. Wahlgren, Studebaker; Magnolia Petroleum Co., Chevrolet; Stanolind Oil & Gas Co., Plymouth.

Baptist Conference to Be Held in Lubbock

A special conference for the Baptist pastors and Sunday school superintendents of this territory will be held in the First Baptist church, Lubbock, on Wednesday, October 18. There will be three sessions, 9:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 7:00 p.m.

Andrew Q. Allen, state Sunday school secretary from Dallas will preside over the morning and afternoon sessions. Dr. W. L. Howe, professor of religious education, Southwestern Seminary, Fort-Worth, W. A. Harrell, secretary, department of church architecture, Nashville, Tenn.; A. V. Washburn, secretary teaching and training, Baptist Sunday school board, Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Florida Waite, secretary church library service; Baptist Sunday school board, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. W. O. Vaught, pastor, Emmanuel Baptist church, Little Rock, Ark., and Mrs. A. V. Washburn, will deliver addresses.

M. D. Rexrode, associate in the Baptist Sunday school department, Dallas, will preside over the evening session at 7:00. Miss Melba Cook, state elementary secretary, Dallas, Mr. Washburn and Dr. Vaught will lead discussions at this session.

COACH GREER HAS OPERATION SATURDAY

A. G. (Toby) Greer, Brownfield high school football coach, underwent an appendectomy Saturday afternoon in the local hospital. Greer became ill Friday night shortly after the football game with Littlefield, but did not go to the hospital until Saturday.

We are happy to report that Coach Greer is doing nicely. The assistant coaches, L. G. Wilson and Farris Nowell are assuming the duties of directing the team while Greer is ill.

SOME CHANGES IN POSTOFFICE HOURS

Acting Postmaster Joe Shelton gave us some changes in postoffice closing hours that are to go into effect Monday, for the duration of the fall, winter and early spring season, as follows:

The postoffice will open at 8 a.m., as at present, but will close at 6 p.m., instead of 5 as at present. In other words, the general delivery window will be open an hour later, beginning Monday.

The money order service, however, will not open until 9 a.m., and will close at 5—not 6 p.m. Get these hours in your mind and save future questioning of the personnel, is our advice.

MRS. G. G. GORE UNDERGOES OPERATION

The many friends of Mrs. G. G. Gore learned this week that she underwent an operation of bone grafting Tuesday, at St. Joseph hospital in Fort Worth. She was on the operating table 4½ hours. It was reported to us that the bone surgeons stated that if everything went according to plan, Mrs. Gore should be up and in a wheel chair in a few weeks.

It will be remembered that her thigh bone was broken close to the hip last spring when the pet dog in his eager way to welcome them home knocked Mrs. Gore down.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerch are in Ft. Worth this week. They plan to attend TCU-Tech football game this week end.

Fairy Tale To Be Sponsored By PTA

Sponsored by the West Ward Parent-Teacher association, the beloved fairy tale, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," will come to life at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 18, on the stage of the Brownfield high school auditorium.

The excellent New York company will present a musical stage version of the famous story embellished with glorious costumes and elaborate scenery. It will be a production designed for children of all ages coupled with the sweet sentiment of the time honored story of Princess Snow White's love for her Prince Charming.

The lovable antics of the seven dwarfs and the magic of the Queen-Witch plus the singing and dancing together make up one of the most delightful stage attractions ever witnessed.

The cast, which has been assembled with utmost care from the ranks of New York performers, has presented "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" in every section of the country. Audiences in such metropolitan centers as Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Seattle and many others have been thrilled with the brilliant musical performance.

It is a safe assumption that any child who sees this production will always remember it as a most joyful event. The magic of the stage, the living actors, music, dancing and the colorful settings which go to make up a musical show never fail to impress the young mind and to guide it towards a fuller enjoyment of the beauties of life.

BAPTIST SS CLASS TO HAVE SOCIAL

The intermediate Sunday school department of the First Baptist church will have a social on Monday evening at 7:30 in their department. Bill Neel is their superintendent.

Many writers, and some of them are editors of small weekly papers, some smaller, some larger than the Herald, have learned how to make themselves what they think, impressive. They have learned to hurl such words as Wall Street, plutocrats, and Pirates of Wealth with a dainty touch of their typewriters. Some of them are bearing so far to the left, that they think our system of profits and free enterprise is out dated. We wish a lot of them could read the recent address of the president of the Benjamin Franklin University, a school of accountancy and business, delivered to a bunch of students. First, he takes up the method of ancient Rome, where in 60 percent of the people were slaves; the wealth being held by those owning property but who did not work. Their natural resources gave out, and Rome fell. Then he gave an example of Russia, which also depends on slave labor, a lot of it being their own flesh and blood. But the leaders have made the people believe that the state owns the wealth, and that therefore they are working for themselves, although they never see any of the wealth, and their average standard of living is far below that of the lowest paid odd job man in the USA. He then took the modern English idea of socialism. There too, the living standards are far below that of the USA, but better than Russia, and everyone working for themselves, they think. But there are no profits to be planted back into the industry, to create more jobs and wealth. In the United States, the owners of the factories and plants, and that sometimes means hundreds of Mr. John Q. Publics, with shares in the enterprise, take a small portion of the income of the plant or factory, and the rest is salted back into the industry to buy new and more modern machinery, add air conditioning, and other things for the comfort and pleasure of the workmen. The employees in many of these plants have a full hour at noon, where wholesome meals are served in the plant canteen, at or near cost; games are provided, rest rooms, small libraries and reading rooms. There is nothing like this in any other country on earth, and none but the hairbrained believe there is or any hope for such. And the only way working people are kept in check in "government ownership" countries, is to keep the working people in abject ignorance of what is going on in the rest of the world.

The Democratic stalwarts up at Washington seem to be just a bit doubtful how the Josephus Daniels book, "The Man of Independence," is going to strike the general public. In fact the Republicans have already jumped on the book with all both feet—not angrily, but gleefully. The book pictures Mr. Truman as "the average man," and the critics are now busily pointing out that there are thousands of average men in the United States, and what the nation now needs most, is an indispensable man at the head of the government at this critical period. They also point out the fact that the framers of our constitution, and those early presidents were not just average men, not mediocre, but men of great intelligence in sponsoring a great nation and keep it going. Of course the inner circle thought they had launched the third term under great auspices with a cocktail party at one of the big Washington hotels, and pictured Mr. Truman as an "everyday American." But who else is in the limelight of the leftwingers? Not a man that could be considered a great statesman. So it must be Mr. Truman or nobody. There is no second choice, horse or fiddle. Even if two thirds of the state legislatures adopt the new amendment making a president ineligible to succeed himself, the law would not go into force during the tenure of the man in office. But the fact that there was such a law would be very embarrassing to the Democratic National convention. Many believe the book is backfiring instead of helping Mr. Truman. We might add that the language Mr. Truman is in the habit of using about such men as John L. Lewis, sounds more like the offerings of the back room of the old time saloon bar than that of a statesman. A lot of us don't like Lewis, but if we were public men, we'd try to elevate the office we filled instead of gutterizing it.

This week, the medical profession is forgetting their aversion to newspaper and other advertising. They are forgetting social ethics, and are starting down the line with some paid advertising which has been termed "an educational campaign," to try to stall the idea of the left wing congressmen in their effort to pawn off their socialized medicine on the American people. From the earliest dawn of our nation, we have had free medical practice, just as we had free farmers, brick masons and carpenters. It has been entirely satisfactory to most people. In fact all except the few in the gimme bunch, and thank goodness they are scarce in this neck of the woods. Most people want medical practice to remain independent just as it has throughout their lifetime. They want to use their own physician when they need one, and they don't want to have to go to some bureau and fill out a questionnaire before they see a doctor, then perhaps don't know who he is. Doctors tell us that the more they become familiar with the family, its weaknesses as well as its strength, the better prepared to diagnose disease attacks. Personally, this writer wants the physician of his choice, just the same as the church or the school, or even the merchant and newspaper of his choice. We even claim the right to choose the hospital we want when we or any of our people have to enter one. And we don't want to have to ask some swivel chair guy about the matter. If you think the socialized crowd is not making an effort for the other side, you've just failed to read or listen to radio speeches. Only recently Oscar Ewing of the Federal Security Administration was in Houston at the national convention of American Federation of Labor, and addressed that body for socialized medicine. There is little doubt that the American taxpayer put up the spondulix for Mr. Ewing's trip to and from Houston, as well as his salary. Not too long ago, Ewing is said to have been in a hospital at Government expense, under the care of professional men he termed "stupid and dangerous" down at Houston. The radical press big and little are howling about the big funds the medical men, railroads, oil men, power companies, etc., have put up to fight socialized medicine. But they never mention trips around the country at government expense, Ewing and others make.

If your memory is so short that you have forgotten those cutting remarks that President Truman said about the US Marines, you now have a refresher course in his latest tirades against John L. Lewis, and the latter's reply in like cowbarn fertilizer. It all started when little Harry became indiscreet as usual. A friend in Colorado wrote the president in a rather humorous vein, asking why he did not appoint John L. as ambassador to Russia? In the letter the writer stated that John L. could veto, say "no" and generally antagonize other people equal if not better than Stalin, Molotov, Malik, et al. In other words, John L. has no par in generally raising hades, roaring and disputing. The president said he enjoyed the humor in the letter, but would not appoint John L. as dog-catcher. Now the miner boss has come back in true Lewisonian fashion with a blast at Truman and his state department that fairly raises the lid. He calls Harry's attention to the fact that he has some sorry pups in some of his departments, and a few pusillanimous pups, that Mr. Truman might be wise in getting rid of. We old fashioned folks still believe that the office of President of the USA should be the acme of dignity and decorum. But such stuff as the above sounds more like the street rattle of mobsters than it does coming from the highest office in the land.

Editor Richards of the Anton News stated in the last issue of his paper that a prominent citizen of his city had recently whispered in his ear that the farms were fast drifting into fewer farm owners and/or renters. We wonder if Editor Richards had really just found this out? The story went on that farm land was fast falling into the hands of men with capital, mostly town people, who really do no farming themselves, but have it done on a large scale. The drift has been less farms and farmers for the past two decades. There are not as many farms and farmers in Terry county as there was ten years ago, and much less than twenty years ago, 1930, or even 1920, perhaps. The government payment is a neat asset to the two section farmer, but scarcely a drop in the bucket to the 160 acre farmer. The census of this year showed an increase in the farm population in Terry, but was there? It showed that some 2000 people lived just outside the city limits of Brownfield. But they were not engaged in farming. They worked here in town. If the city limits had been spread a half mile each way, the town would have shown some 8,000 people instead of 6,160, and the rural population a loss from 10 years ago. Still the world is seeking more land for homes, but the size of the farm is increasing with mechanized farming, and fast. The Crosbyton Review remarked last week, that "lots of Europeans are looking for home—so is a lot of Americans."

Farmers have been warned that federal officials are liable to be on their necks if they employ minors on the farms. This includes local white, colored or Mexican school children, as well as the minor children of migratory farm help. And it matters not if the minors are brought into the fields by their parents.

The penalty is up to $10,000 as well as a jail sentence. So it is up to the farmer to see about this matter. The parents are not the ones that are fined—it's the employer—the farmer. We note that many schools are getting around this by dismissing school for a few weeks when cotton is ready to pick, making up the time next spring, together with shortened holidays, in some instances. With such things in view, the drift will be more and more to stormproof cotton and mechanical pickers. It looks like the government is fishing for a job of feeding and clothing the migratory laborer's family. Well, they vote, don't they?

Who Runs America?

the Congress? the President?

OR YOU AND THE MAN NEXT DOOR?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today—keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of Women's Clubs
 American Farm Bureau Federation
 National Orange Veterans of Foreign Wars
 National Conference of Catholic Charities
 American Protestant Hospital Association

American Legion
 National Association of Small Business Men
 United States Chamber of Commerce
 National Association of Retail Grocers
 National Retail Dry Goods Association
 American Bar Association

Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism. Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them. And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the proudfest security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospitals, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! Nothing FOR Something

It's an old trick of the curbstome pitchman to offer you Something for Nothing

"Tell you what I'm going to do, Ladies and Gentlemen, I am going to give you, absolutely free..."

Yes, it's an old trick. But it's still a popular one. Salesmen of Socialism use it the world over. Yet when analyzed, their Something for Nothing always turns out to be—NOTHING FOR SOMETHING!

That isn't the way America became the greatest, healthiest Nation in the world. American business has reached its present stature because it believes in giving the customer his money's worth.

Through healthy competition, and the will to serve, American medicine has created the finest system of medical care in the world.

Through ingenuity and free enterprise, American citizens have higher incomes, better education, better health and more freedom than citizens of any other great Nation on earth.

Freedom is America's heritage, and Americans cherish it deeply—for themselves and for the entire world. In exchange for this good way of life, the political pitchman offers us the quack remedy of Something for Nothing...of "free" medical care, doled out by politicians.

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

We are still sore at that weighing machine up the street that is supposed to also reveal your fortune. We poked a coin, penny, in the thing one day last week, and it said we weighed 180. Then added for good measure, "You are inclined to take too many chances and lose gambling."

"Why that lying piece of machinery. Of all the catalog of sins that may be charged to us when we face St. Peter, gambling is not one of them. We never had any weakness for gambling or chance taking. Not a drop of sporting blood in our veins."

The current issue of the Sentinel, Sentinel says that it sees where a number of exchanges aned $25 to get a XXX rating. The Herald did not ante for one, although it had the triple X rating. There is a long story about that matter, and we had supposed that all newspapers went through with or got the same bait we got.

It all started by requesting a copy of the Herald, way back several months ago. We supposed that the outfit, the Community Research Bureau was fixing to offer us a good fat advertising contract. Nothing like that happened, but in the course of time we received notice by mail that the Herald had been rated XXX—the best—as a paper and advertising medium, and of course the cost was a mere $25.

We already knew in our own mind, that the Herald was way above par. It didn't have to be appraised as such by some strangers up in New York to make us believe it. And we didn't think it was worth 25 bucks, and still don't. Not even two bits.

The Sentinel seems to think every Texas weekly paper got such a rating. They did not. Some were 2X; some 1X some Bs, Cs, etc. But more than 100 Texas weeklies made the grade, according to CRB. Sorter reminds us of triple X and 4X rye whiskey that used to be advertised. Perhaps all made in the same pot.

Speaking of newspapers and editors, Editor Troy Morris was down from Ropes Saturday wanting a certain kind of paper which he aimed to cut up and do some job work. The very idea! Don't that man's hair get the least bit kinky on Saturdays?

Saw old George Wade pass our window one afternoon last week. Didn't say a word or even hail. And a week or two before, he and the Mrs. had left for a three week trip and visit to the old states. So, we trailed that lad to his lair for a little confab.

Found him next door at the pharmacy. He laid the whole trouble on the good lady. It rained too much, and the chiggers and mosquitoes were fierce, and she was not used to either. So, she was ready to come home. We aim to check with her next time we see her.

Neighbor, are you reading the series of ads carried by the Brownfield State Bank and Trust Co., in this paper each week? Did you know they carry a world of financial advice, not only to the farmer, but the townman, merchants and laborers. There is advice for the investor, the builder or the buyer, and occasionally, even the borrower.

Reports in the dailies tell us that the school cafeterias of Dallas have been getting some of those notorious potatoes that Uncle Sam has been hoarding. They expected this year's crop, but instead got potatoes of the 1949 crop. The lady in charge of the Dallas school cafeterias stated that half the potatoes were unfit for use.

Down in Johnson county, which was the first Texas home of the Old He, beginning with the first year of this century, they have paid the last penny of a two million dollar bond issue that was voted to build roads in 1921. The county got to use less than $10,000 worth of this money.

The bonds were sold and the money banked at Cleburne. One night one of the bankers loaded the hoard on his car, and with his family and two extra cans of gasoline, headed for the border of Mexico, supposedly. So far as we know, they have never been heard from. Neither has the money. Now, after thirty long years of high taxes to pay for the damage a thief can do a county or community, Johnson county taxpayers are to get a tax reduction.

Those were the good old days when a bank and bankers were thought to be above the least suspicion. Now counties and municipalities as well as states demand that bankers put up some heavy bonds to cover funds. In the meantime, Johnson county was years behind neighboring counties in road building. It took years for the voters to forget what happened to them on their first big road bond issue.

Now for a bit of tripe and we're through for the week. Advice to the birds that drive like mad with Violets in their arms: They are liable to end up with Lilies in their hands.

Spying On Crops In Terry Sunday

After a not too elaborate meal Sunday, and a full hour siesta, we just had the urge to see some of the Terry county crops. We wanted to see how the cotton was opening, after a rather wet fall, lots of cloudy weather, little wind and scarce sunshine.

In the communities visited, we found that the crops around Gomez were better than last year, not so good around Johnson, and something like the same in the Pool, Needmore, Meadow and Challis areas. But cotton is making slow progress opening. The stalks and leaves are still green and rather rank. However, the opening process has started right at the ground and is coming to the fore, fast.

If we continue to have sunshine and a breezy wind like the first part of the week, those bolls are going to start cracking open like nobody's business. Most fields are clean, although we found a few exceptions. Guess the planter of these fields had to spend too much time in town "saving the government."

Man alive, there is lots of grain in old Terry this time, and soon the trucks and trailers will be lined up at the unloading places reminding us of the line that reached back along the highways almost a mile last year. We are however fearful that some of the maize is not going to mature before Jack Frost comes, and let us hope that's what it will be and not a freeze.

Stopped for a few minutes chat and Coke up at the Johnson store. Lay's dad and brother were up from Coahoma, and had to see what kind of a crop the Lay bunch had produced up here.

A lot of wheat is up and green and pretty as you ever saw. Some just planted, but the ground in fine shape for the newly planted grain. If we can just have a little dampness through the winter, such as snows, we'll at least have a fine pasture for the dumb brutes, and maybe next June, a bountiful wheat harvest.

Junior Sees the South Side

While we were making the communities mentioned above, the Junior Editor and family were cruising around over the south part of the county, taking some of the country lanes that are unpaved, instead of the highly traveled part of the section.

He reported seeing some good cotton and a lot of good grain, and wheat up and doing fine. Indeed, some that was planted late August or the first part of September, is now large enough that some have turned cows in on it.

In conclusion, will say that the crops of Terry will soon be white unto the harvest, and we hope the laborers are sufficient.

Now for a bit of tripe and we're through for the week. Advice to the birds that drive like mad with Violets in their arms: They are liable to end up with Lilies in their hands.

4-H Girls Do Club Project Work

Four 4-H girls who have done outstanding project work and club work are Donna Weldon, Ethel Fuller, Betty June Howard and Joyce Herring.

Donna Weldon, member of the Wellman 4-H club is the gold star girl of Terry county for 1950. Sometime in the near future, she will be awarded, from A&M college of Texas, a gold pin with a star in the center.

Donna began her work in McCullough county in 1947. She had a garden which placed first in the county that year. She also learned to sew that year.

Since moving to Terry county, Donna has continued with these two projects and has taken up poultry and home improvement. She has done field work, and each year has a patch of cotton of her own.

Poultry has been one of her main projects in Terry county. Last year she bought 50 baby chicks. She dressed and sold the cockerels and kept the pullets. From them she has had eggs for home use and has sold the surplus. She has made a profit of $101.87 from them.

From her garden work, she has made a profit of $31.85. From the poultry and garden income, she has been able to purchase a cow and a pig. The cow is now furnishing Donna an income from the sale of cream.

During her four years of club work, Donna has made 83 garments and has canned 241 quarts of vegetables and fruits.

Each year year she enters exhibits in the Lubbock fair. She values very highly the blue ribbon she won last year on her poultry scrap book.

Ethel Fuller Is Busy Member

Ethel Fuller, member of the Pool 4-H club, was another contestant. She had had a garden each year of her club work. She has done much of the food preparation in the home, and she and her sister do the family laundry and housework each week. It is necessary for them to do this work without the help of their mother, since she is unable to do it. Last summer, for three weeks, Ethel did all the housework, because her sister was ill also.

Still another duty of Ethel and her sister, is to do all the home canning and poultry work. In addition, Ethel assists her father with the farming and runs the tractor.

Recently Ethel and her sister prepared 100 chickens for the frozen food locker.

She helped to paper three rooms in their home; refinished the dining chairs; and painted the kitchen cabinet.

From a refrigerator box, Ethel and her sister made a closet for

COLORFUL PAGEANTRY—White-costumed men of Viterbo, Italy, prepare to carry the "macchina," a church-like structure containing a statue of St. Rosa and adorned with hundreds of lights, on the annual mile-long procession through the town. The saint has been honored each year since 1664 when Viterbo escaped a severe epidemic, presumably through her intercession.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank each one that was so nice to us while Daniel and Roy Perkins were in the hospital. The hospital staff and the nurses were all wonderful. For the beautiful flowers and all the gifts.

Mrs. Mollie Perkins and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dugger visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mashburn in Stanton Sunday.

MIX AND MATCH

Some of the pullets are now laying.

Cooking is one of Joyce's hobbies. She is especially fond of baking. During her 4 year of club work, she has baked 110 cakes, 240 dozen cookies, 30 pans of cornbread and 65 dozen biscuits.

Joyce helps with all the home canning and laundry work. She makes some of her spending money by pulling cotton. She reports having made $40 this way.

Complete ACP Practices Early

It won't be long until it will be too late to complete practices under the 1950 Agricultural Conservation Program, warns H. H. Harred, chairman of the Terry County Production and Marketing Administration committee. Practices must be completed this year to be eligible for assistance under the 1950 program and no assistance can be given for practices started but not completed.

Harred explains that soil and water conservation practices, to be eligible for ACP assistance, must meet established standards and until the practices are completed, this cannot be determined.

He points out also, that when a farmer signs up to carry out certain conservation practices, funds are "earmarked" or set aside to cover the government's share of the cost. The farmer who does not complete the practices for which he signed up merely blocks the use of those funds to get needed conservation work done.

Urging farmers to complete their practices as soon as possible, the chairman says: "The funds have been provided to protect the public welfare by assisting farmers to carry out conservation practices. When a farmer fails to carry out his share of the bargain, the purpose is defeated by just that much."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton visited Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Black in Clovis, N. M., Sunday.

Take This Tip:

From the Floydada Hesperian comes this tip: Hurry down to the grocery store and buy some soda. Buy a half dozen more than you have been buying. Buy yourself a case. Don't let the hoarders beat you to it. You don't need soda, they don't need soda, but somebody somewhere does. You might be out of soda sometime when you want it. Maybe you send a mile or 10 miles to the bakery and no bread. You might possibly have to whip up a few muffins or a biscuit or something. Mighty bad you'd have to put out all that effort, of course. But, anyway, even if nothing like that occurred, you'd have the soda just in case. Also, soda has gone up. It may go down, but now the signs point another direction. Don't get caught short. Buy a case of soda. Have the comforting thought you have it on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bynum visited friends and relatives in Paducah Sunday.

LOCAL GIRLS ARE ENROLLED AT TSCW

Miss Patsy Jean Hall, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. John M. Hill, and Miss Flo Dean Stafford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stafford, Sr., of Brownfield, enrolled for the fall term at Texas State College for Women at Denton.

One hundred and eighty-four out of 254 Texas counties are represented in the registration figure as well as 19 foreign students from 10 foreign countries and 284 registrants from 30 states. Housing facilities are the best in the college's history as all girls are housed in brick, fire-proof, modern buildings. An upper classmen dormitory is under construction and is scheduled to be completed in time for the second semester.

A new dining unit, Hubbard Hall, seating 2400 accommodates the entire student body at one time.

National Cotton Council fashionists say that the two-way scarf lined in cotton plaid has a zippered pocket in one corner for small change and lipstick.

FLYING NEWS AND VIEWS

By EDWIN E. DUNCAN

Activities seem comparatively quiet around the airport after the worms finally decided to let up a little. However, since defoliation is starting things will start buzzing again—airplanes, that is. Farmers who defoliate their cotton find that they can make at least 10c a pound more

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of trying to thank our many friends and neighbors for the many things they did for dad and for us during the last trying hours of his life here on earth. Words are wholly inadequate to express our appreciation to all who rendered such fine service at this sad time. May God richly bless each of you in our prayer.

The Noah Bell family.

Mrs. Tom May is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. M. D. Oakley and family in Colorado City.

than on that which matures in itself. Also government statistics show that the farmers who defoliate just two days before frost come out ahead.

Getting away from the harvest season which has been foremost in our minds, some of you will be interested in the formal dedication of the new half million dollar airport at Borger on Oct. 18. There will be a pilot's breakfast at 9 a.m. and valuable prizes will be offered for first out of town pilot to arrive; oldest and youngest woman pilot and various other contests. Better plan to attend; we hear the new airport is really beautiful.

Among the college students home for the week end who put in much of their time flying, were Willard Stell, who attends Hardin-Simmons at Abilene, and Bill Noble, who is a freshman at Sul Ross college at Alpine.

Don Gorby had a lesson in slipstreams and prop wash this week when he stuck his head over the side of a Stearman in flight and his glasses were blown off. He will know, next time, I'll bet.

Representatives of oil companies are still flying in every day. Among the new students at the field are Winston Pritchard of Tahoka, and John Taylor who works for H. E. B. Construction Co., here. Don Gorby and Gene Willingham have also started their flight lessons.

The second annual All-Texas Air Tour will begin Oct. 21 and continues through Oct. 28. It will attract hundreds of birdmen from all over the state. Texas Aeronautics Commission plans for the aerial event to cover 3400 miles of airways. The tour will begin Oct. 21 from Temple, and end Oct. 28 at Eagle Pass. It is expected that twice the 150 airplanes with 450 persons who took part in last year's tour will participate this year.

Also as a word of interest to you football fans—Southwest Airmotive in Dallas has sent word that they are renting buses for all those who fly in for the Oklahoma U-SMU football game. Buses will leave the airport via one of the downtown hotels, to the stadium, and then will be waiting when the game is over to carry you back to the airport.

"Cutest" airplane we have had in recently was a little one place Mooney from Enid, Okla. It even makes a Cub look big.

A representative of H. E. B. Construction Co., finds flying very convenient when he can fly in from Hobbs, N. M., every few days then walk across the highway to his place of business just east of the airport.

The most recent story to come out of a hangar flying session is the one about the pilot who flew his plane into the side of the hangar while landing at a strange field. It seems that upon reaching the field he noted that the wind sock was standing straight out, indicating a strong wind. He made the traffic pattern and lined his plane up with the runway, which incidentally was headed straight toward the hangar, and came in with power on for a wheel landing. The runway slid under him at a terrific rate of speed. He tried applying his brakes, but still the hangar kept coming. It was then he realized that he had landed in a dead calm, and there was nothing to do but let the hangar stop his landing roll. As soon as he had recovered from his shock he began to inquire about the stiff wind sock. He was immediately informed that the sock had become brittle with age and in order to preserve it the field operator had put on several thick coats of shellac.

Mrs. Wendell Russell, of Snyder, visited Sunday in the home of her brother, Joe Shelton and family. Also in the L. M. Wingerd home. Mrs. Russell is better known here as Bettie Shelton.

Farmers Advised To Keep Plenty Cottonseed

Cotton men as well as the agricultural department men are advising farmers to keep all the good planting cottonseed they will possibly need. The advice is based on the fact that seed prices will be high, tempting many farmers that produce good planting seed, to sell all but what they will themselves need.

With the announcement that the planted acreage will not be limited next year, it is feared by many that seed will be scarce at planting time. The advice is that if your own cottonseed is not just what you want, better trade some of them with boot, if necessary, to some of your neighbors who have good planting seed.

When the writer was growing up, farmers were all of the opinion that the best seed grew along the middle of the stalk; that neither the extreme bottom nor the top had the best seed that would germinate well and assure the farmer of a good stand the following year. Nor, they said, was the top or bottom variety as likely to be true to grade.

All that may have been chang-

LOCAL MAN'S SISTER DIES IN DALLAS

Ed Thompson received the sad news Monday of the death of his sister, Mrs. George (Mattie) Morrison, at Dallas. She had been ailing for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left Monday night for Dallas, as the funeral had been announced for Tuesday afternoon in the family this year; Tom Thompson of California; a brother-in-law, Lee English, of Altus, Okla.; and Mrs. Morrison. Only five of a large family are still thought to be living, four of them for sure, Mrs. English and Aldine of Altus; Albert of Dallas; Mrs. Parker of Johnson county.

Mrs. Luther Harold spent the day with her family Sunday in Littlefield.

In the past 40 years since we worked on a farm, and different ideas come to the fore. Anyway, as most of the cotton is gathered in this section the "first" over, as well perhaps as the "last" over, some of the seed would naturally come from the bottom as well as the top of the stalk.

In any event, it would be best for you to talk with Jim Foy, our county agent. He will know all the latest wrinkles on planting seed.

MRS. BOWERS CHECKS UP ON THE OLD HE

A fine lady called last Saturday. Didn't have any particular business, Mrs. R. L. Bowers stated, but as she had not seen us in some time, and she was in our section of the city, she called. Been knowing this good lady for many years. She was a fetching looking school marm when her dad and mother, the late Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wines moved here from Vernon, many moons ago. Bob Bowers then being a bachelor, began at once making overtures to the young lady, and succeeded in hooking her.

However, no doubt that Bob would say that he was the fish that was caught, but we know better. After all she did not come empty handed, but presented us with a mess of those fine-ripe tomatoes she always produces. Thanks a lot.

Over the years, behind our counters, we've sold many kinds of accepted medicines and we've filled thousands of prescriptions for people of this community. We've helped measure out a lot of medical progress. We've seen new treatments and new drugs turn illness into health, despair into hope.

This progress is more than statistics—it's people! And the people we know don't want it tampered with!

Service Office News

C. L. Lincoln
Special Cases

For special types of disease, Texas veterans are sent to other facilities better equipped to treat the particular condition. Cancer cases, for example, are set to the VA hospital, Hines, Ill.

Provision of Law

The law provides that veterans needing treatment for service-connected disabilities need not show that they are financially unable to pay for their own hospitalization in order to be eligible for free hospitalization by the VA. Veterans needing hospitalization for disabilities not of service origin must state on application Form P-10 or 10-P-10 that they are unable to defray the expenses of hospitalization in order to be eligible for free hospitalization from VA. The application will not be questioned as to his inability to defray his own hospital expenses, including transportation if his answer is to that effect.

Emergency Cases Defined

Many hardships and inconveniences have been experienced because of misunderstanding among service officers as to what constitute emergency cases within the meaning of the Veterans Administration regulations. An emergency case can be defined as a condition or circumstances that will not permit delay in treatment without endangering the health of the patient, or the safety of the community. Professional judgment should always be exercised in determining an emergency. It must be established to a reasonable degree of certainty that the patient requires immediate hospitalization because of his condition. It follows, therefore, that chronic cases cannot be classed as medical emergency. However, chronic might become acute, and classified as emergency.

Examples of emergency cases: appendicitis requiring immediate operation; insanity, wherein the patient threatens the safety of his family and the community, active tuberculosis, and the like.

Before attempting to have a veteran admitted to a veterans hospital as an emergency case, the service officer should consult the veteran's physician and have him make a definite statement as to the existence of the emergency.

The execution of Form 10-P-10 in an emergency case, may be deferred until after the arrival of the patient at the admitting hospital.

Veterans Too Ill To Travel

Where a veteran needs immediate treatment for a service-connected disability and is too ill to travel to a Veterans Administration facility, his physician, through the service officer, should wire or phone the nearest VA regional office or contact office, and ask for treatment in a local hospital. The doctor should state all symptoms and findings and make a definite diagnosis. This is known as "out patient treatment."

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Machen and JoAnne visited friends and relatives in Seymour over the week end.

Gillhams Heads Warm Springs Foundation Drive

Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation's campaign for funds is gaining in momentum this week as more Texans board the bandwagon to make the non-profit treatment center second to none. Spearheaded by Gov. Allan Shivers, volunteer workers in virtually every county are giving their time and efforts to make known the needs at the hospital for Texas boys and girls. Mrs. J. Howard Hodge of Midland is co-chairman of the Foundation committee with the Governor.

Founded in 1937, Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children has become one of the most outstanding in its specialized field in the United States. For the past two years, the treatment center has been operating at a capacity of 115 beds. There is a critical need for more beds, more scientific equipment and expanded facilities.

Mrs. Victor Beck of an Antonio is state chairman of volunteer workers for the Foundation. J. O. Gillhams heads voluntary activities in Terry county. They have joined with hundreds of other Texans in proving that "Texas takes care of its own" handicapped children.

This Is Texas Farm Bureau Week

Gov. Allan Shivers has proclaimed October 10-17 as Farm Bureau Week in Texas, and will officially launch Farm Bureau Week on the federation's state-wide broadcast to be heard on Tuesday morning October 10, over the Lone Star chain network. J. Walter Hammond of Tye, Texas, TPFB president, will appear on the program with the Governor. Layne Beaty, WBAP farm editor, will be master of ceremonies and the programs will originate from the studios of WBAP in Fort Worth.

Some 8,000 workers in 200 Texas counties will be assembled at breakfast meetings to hear the broadcast before going into their respective counties to ask friends and neighbors to become members of the organization with them. Counties have accepted quotas which will net the states more than 60,000 members in their annual membership enrollment program which will be conducted during Farm Bureau Week. Present state membership is 47,000.

Mrs. Wendell Russell of Snyder visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shelton Sunday. Mrs. Russell is Mr. Shelton's sister.

Conservation In The Public Interest

According to H. H. Harred, chairman of the Terry County PMA committee, the Agricultural Conservation Program was established to assure continued production from our land and not as a means of distributing funds to farmers. Its primary purpose is to safeguard the ability of our land to produce the food and fiber needed by our present population of 150 million people and by possibly double that number within the life span of people now living.

As the chairman sees it, the protection of our freedom from poverty and want, which would follow a wasting of our soil and water resources, is basic to the preservation of all our other freedoms.

The program is necessary, he explains, because often it does not appear to the farmer's direct advantage to do the things which will safeguard the future food supply. Using up as quickly as possible the minerals essential to plant growth may often seem to provide the greatest short time gain to the individual farmer.

As Harred expressed it, "under our form of government we do not require farmers to build terraces, seed grasses and legumes or plant trees, but we have found a way to get these things done through the ACP. It is essentially a means of protecting the interests of each of us and of future generations who will depend on our limited land for food and fiber."

"If our land is to continue to produce enough, it is necessary that our farmers carry out essential soil and water conservation practices."

DEPOSIT LIMIT RAISED TO TEN THOUSAND

The Act of Congress changing the federal deposit insurance limit on deposits of banks from $5,000 to $10,000 for each depositor became effective on September 21, has been announced by the secretary of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

New official signs and new membership certificates for banks will be forthcoming as soon as they are available, states a memorandum sent to all banks.

Looking for POWER?

Better Buy Buick!

THAT bold bonnet that stretches out before your eyes on a 1950 Buick isn't there just for show.

Lift it up, and you'll find that the space beneath is abundantly occupied, by one of the biggest hoodfuls of power you'll find in any motorcar.

What you're looking at is Buick's modern version of the high-compression valve-in-head engine, which gains extra wallop from the fact that it uses the exclusive Fireball combustion principle.

We could list a lot of mechanical reasons why fuel gives up extra power in a Fireball engine—how it's wrapped in a swirling, ball-shaped charge—how it burns with a smooth, clean thrust that delivers maximum action.

But the best way to find out what all this means is to touch off the eager horsepower out on the highway by a gentle nudge of your toe—and feel your shoulders press deep in the cushions behind them.

Now all this sounds thrilling, you say, but how about the feed-bills for all these horses? How about miles-per-gallon?

Only BUICK has Dynaflow Drive® and with it goes! HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD forefront, taper-through fenders • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garage-ing, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS, cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube

The practical answer to that one is found in this year's experience with the SUPER and SPECIAL—and even the ROADMASTER.

In all three, the horsepower was stepped up at the start of the year—and in all three, happy owners report the best mileage in modern Buick experience.

This is due to a little-known but authentic engineering fact—which is that an engine burns less gas when it doesn't have to labor. At any normal driving speed, therefore, extra power is extra thrifty.

So we say again—if you're looking for power—mighty power—buoyant power—silken power—thrifty power—better buy Buick.

Your Buick dealer is eager for the chance to demonstrate how sound this hint really is.

Some More Crops Viewed Tuesday P.M.

Hadn't been out east and north-west in a week or two to see how the crops in that area was coming. So, took off Tuesday afternoon after closing time. We'll admit right here that we were partially curious to see where they put that new well on Dick Brownfield's land, which they hope,

Dick hopes and the Old He hopes has plenty of oil in it.

It was just about where we had pictured it—about 400 yards this side of where the Country Club road turns off the Tahoka highway, and some 400 yards south of the highway. A keen looking new rig all braced to pierce the earth to a depth of 10,000 in quest of the Pennsylvania reef.

There are mighty fine crops out in that area, both maize and cotton. And cotton is opening the last few days like nobody's business. We found several picking, but more like a family affair than a bunch of pickers from out of the area. We pity an average family that starts to gather the cotton from some of those fields. But they'll get help.

Hadn't bothered Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Oliver in some time, so decided to drive up and have a few minutes late afternoon jaw with them. Mr. Oliver appears to have as good crop as last year, and that's saying something, and the cotton is getting white unto the harvest. In fact, J. D., one of the sons, came by with a bale while we were there from his place.

Mr. Oliver stated that he had a letter from the large bunch of negroes down in east Texas, that have been helping him for years, that they were ready to head for Terry as soon as notified. He has already written them to come on out at once, as his cotton is opening very fast.

Coming back the road that comes into the Lubbock highway, the crops were mostly all above average, and some cotton around the Jess Smith farm looks like river bottom stuff, and full of bolls from the ground up. Going to see Jess in a few days about a job picking.

Strange, most of the farmers did not plant peas this year or they are way off the road where we can't find 'em. But Mrs. Oliver told us where we could find a fine field of them belonging to one of the Oliver boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Johnson left for Ft. Worth today. They will attend the TCU-Tech game Saturday.
