Not Neutral—Not On The Fence—A Paper With An Opinion And A Purpose

Best Advertising Medium

The Herald subscription list is a splendid blend of town and rural readers, folks who can and do pay for their papers—they do not ask or want it donated to them. Many 30 and 40 year continuous subscriptions.

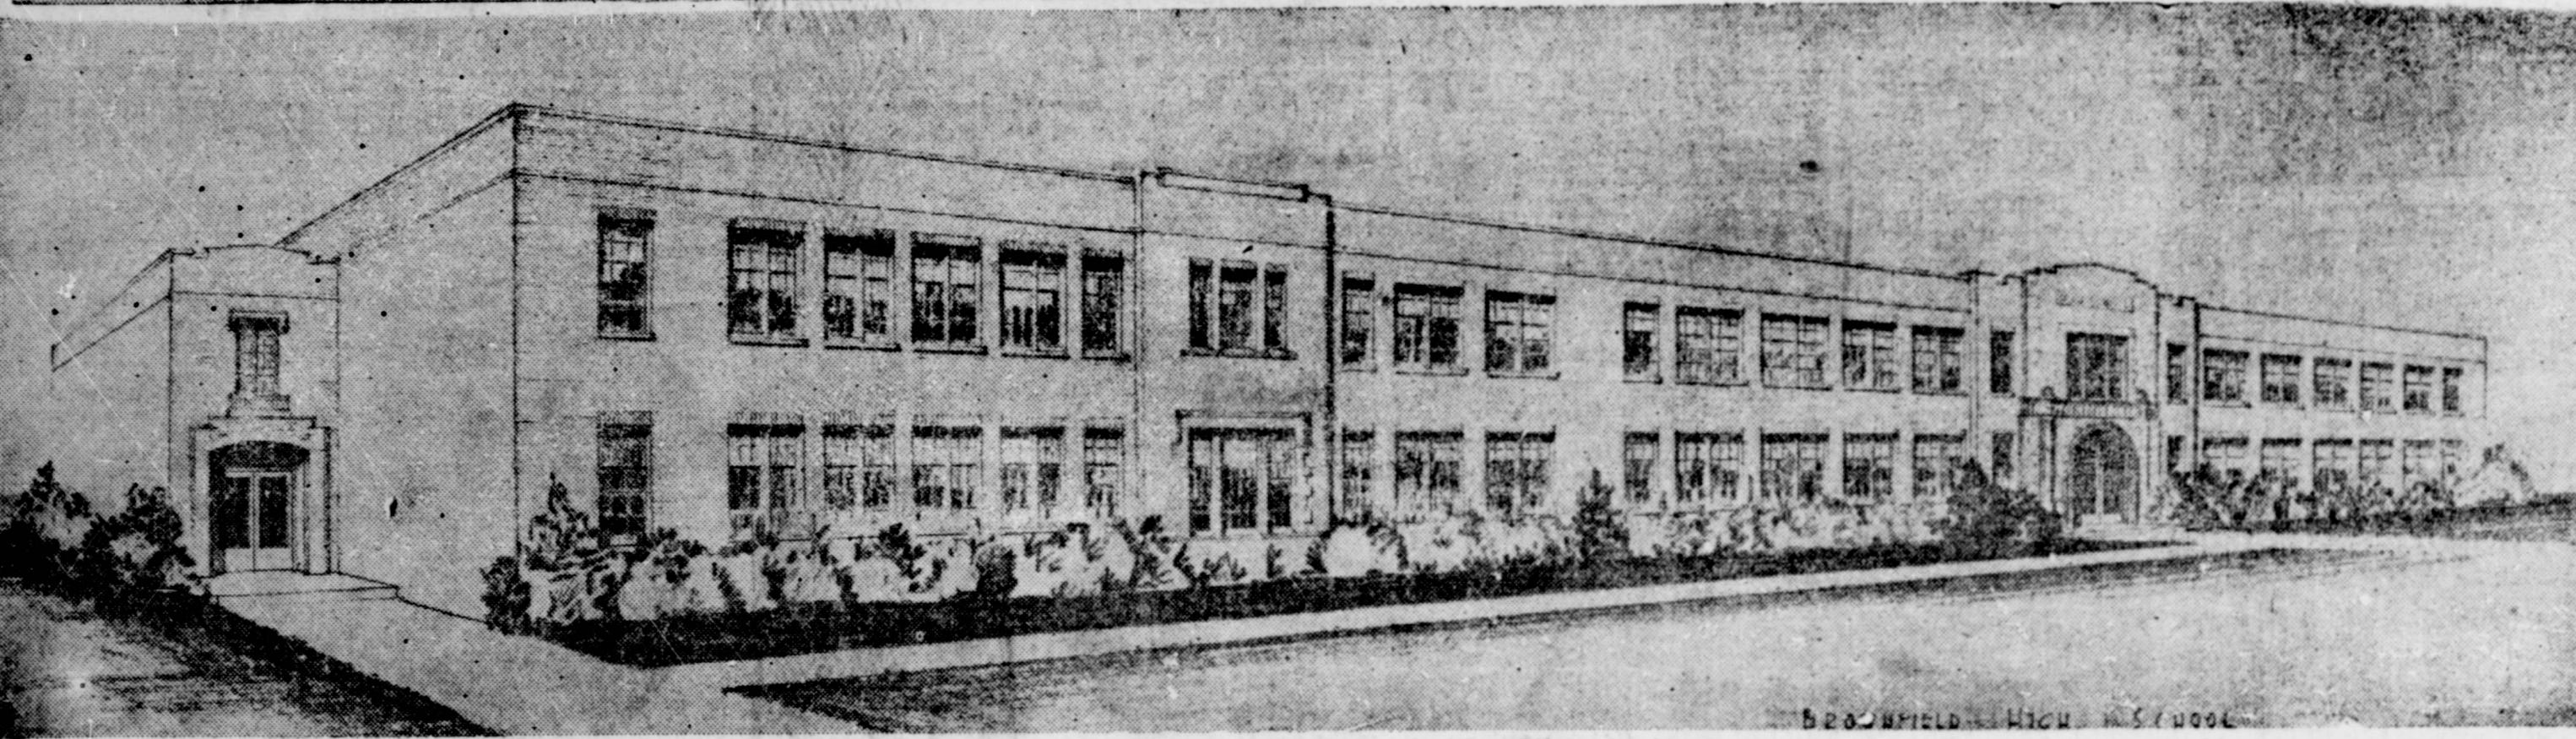

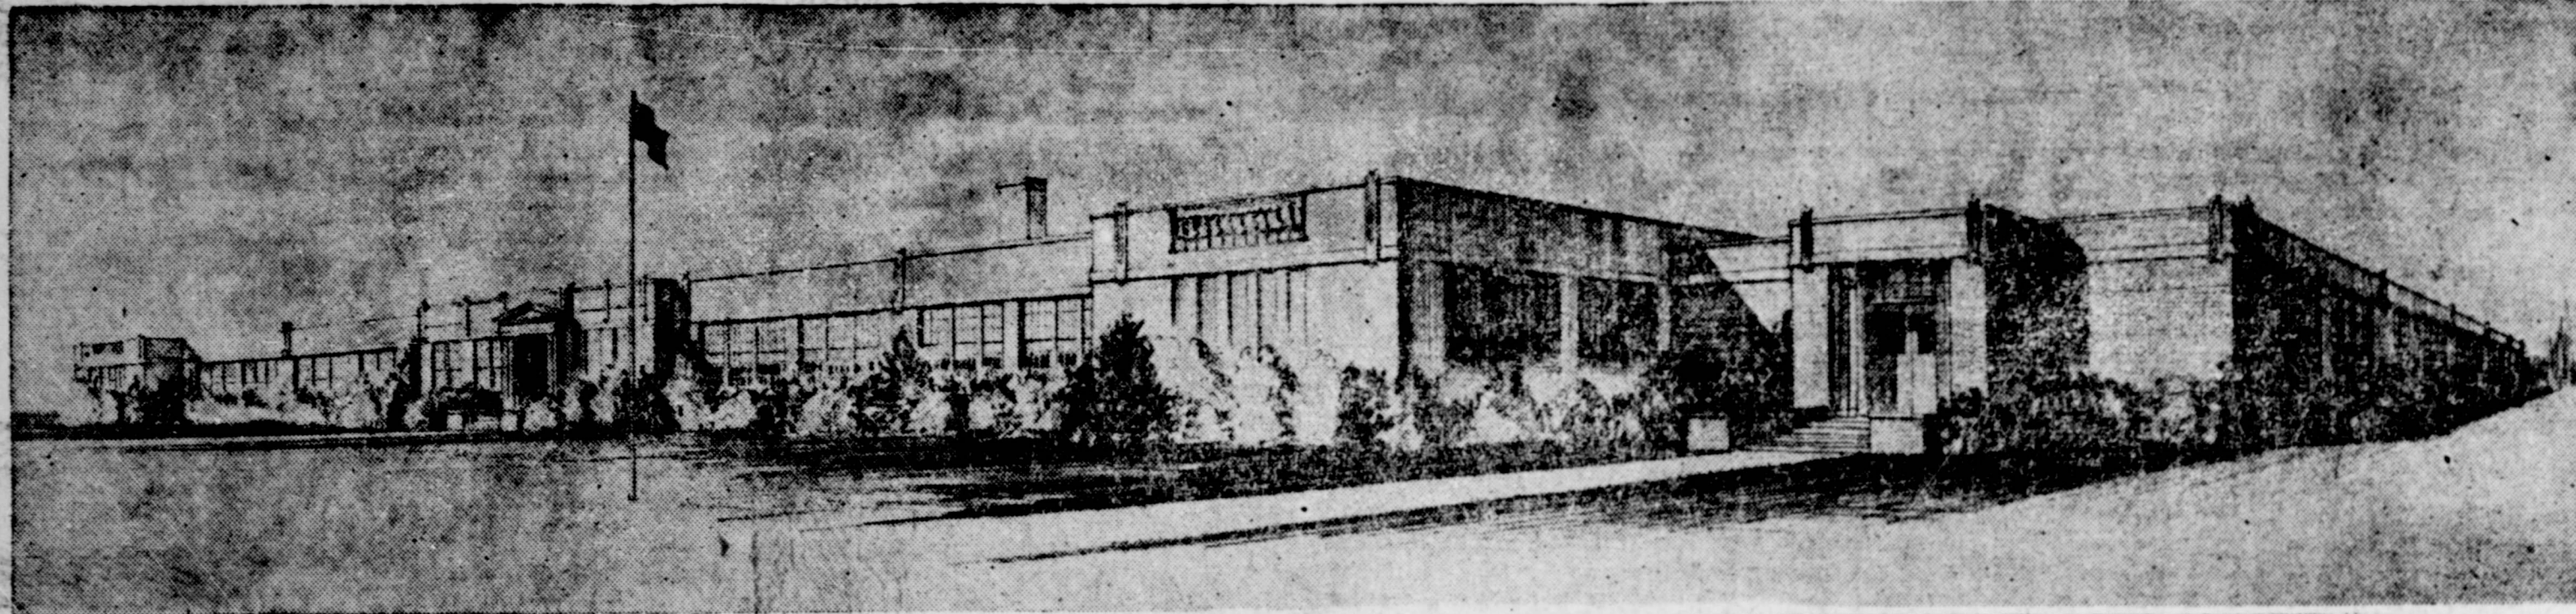

The Herald has grown with this section from strictly a ranch country. This area now consists of thriving towns and cities, supported by scientific farming and stock farming, augmented by huge oil fields, with the nation's largest known oil reserves.

School Bonds Will Be Voted On November 14

ISSUE PROPOSES ADDITIONS TO TWO SCHOOLS, CONSTRUCTION OF ANOTHER

As promised last week, we are putting in a mite for the school bond election coming up next Tuesday. If we did not think the buildings were needed, we'd be the last person on earth to come out for them. It hurts us just as much to pay our couple of hundred school taxes as it does another man to pay his thousands, or perhaps others to pay 15 or 20 dollars.

But here is the proposition. People are coming in fast. Many of them have children of school age. Are we going to help care for these little folks with a good public school education in a building that they have room to breathe, or are we going to pack 'em in like sardines? True, these people will pay no taxes here this year, but like our oil wells, are future potentials. And had we ever taken into consideration that if we have to make our schools a two shift affair, our children — offspring of the old timers, as well as the new timers, will have to take their turn.

The trustees have done their best to get ahead enough for the past two years to build some school cafeterias. But they have had their hands full providing school rooms, especially since the oil boom. We have occasion to pass daily the children from the farm areas gathering around to get a hot dog, sandwich or hamburger, with a bottle of pop. Now we like these occasionally, but any authority will tell you that they are not good for the growing child as a steady diet.

But it would cost a farmer with five or six school children that much in dollars per day, if the students took a full sized meal. Unless more room is provided, we had as well forget the school lunch rooms. For instance, there is the Randal school with a capacity of 450 students, but they have 860. It is supposed to have 16 class rooms, but by turning the part built for a cafeteria into class rooms, they have 22.

The West Ward is in the same shape. Capacity 450, with 660 enrolled. Even after the high school section is moved, they will still be crowded for class rooms, with the influx of new people constantly coming to our city to make their homes.

Now just a word about the Phyllis Wheatley colored school. This makeshift school for the negro children has three class rooms, and not a rest room in the building. The new building proposed will include 4 class rooms, 2 rest rooms, storage, and a curtained partition to two of the class rooms in order to make a larger auditorium for assemblies and plays. Also a stage.

Part of the $300,000, if voted, will be used in purchasing a site for a new elementary school when needed. The school officials had a statement last week, we hope the reader took the trouble to examine. These trustees and other officials, including Supt. Cowan and the principals are not just wanting to make a show. Some of them are heavy tax payers. Let's forget other matters next Tuesday to put over this bond issue for bigger and better schools.

Pictured at the top of this page are the proposed additions to Jessie G. Randal school, the new high school and the proposed new Phyllis G. Wheatley school.

Three Outstanding Agriculture Men Will Lecture At Experimental Station Today

A Field Day at the Experiment Station 11 miles west and one-half mile north of Brownfield will be held on Friday November 10, starting at 2:00 p. m. at the Station Headquarters. Farmers and ranchers, businessmen, agricultural workers, 4-H Clubs and agricultural students are cordially invited to attend. The Field Day is sponsored jointly by the Agricultural Committee of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, the District Conservation Board, the County Agent and the Research Division of the Soil Conservation Service.

Items of interest will be the observation of crops in various rotations, crops on 20 and 12-inch deep plowed land in comparison with land which has never been deep plowed, cotton following Harry Vetch and Austrian Winter Peas and five types of growing winter legumes. Also, there are 40 grain sorghum varieties which include the newer, improved types of which seed will be available next planting season. Also, 17 cotton varieties planted side by side may be observed. Grass plots of King Ranch Blue Stem, Blue Panic Grass, Sand Lovegrass and Weeping Lovegrass have been established under dry land conditions and methods of establishment will be discussed.

Principal speakers will be R. E. Karper, nationally-known grain sorghum expert, who will discuss grain sorghum varieties, Don Jones, Superintendent, Lubbock Experiment Station, who will discuss mechanical harvesting of cotton and cotton varieties, and W. L. Owen, Entomologist, Lubbock Experiment Station, who will give a talk on cotton insect control. The latest types of deep breaking plows will give a plowing demonstration and a brush mower will be on exhibit as well as other types of newly developed machinery.

Concert Membership Drive Began Tuesday

Forty-five workers attended a "kick off" dinner held at the Esquire Restaurant Monday at 6:30 p. m., by members of the Brownfield Mutual Concert Association, according to information received from Crawford Taylor, president.

Memberships in the association are being sold for $4.80, adult season ticket, and $2.40, student season ticket. A list of artists to be presented this season is not available, but Taylor indicated that the group will hear some of the nation's outstanding musicians this year.

Leading the discussion at the meeting was Robert Gauss, agent for the Lucius Pryor Concert Service of Council Bluffs, Ia.

The membership drive, which began Tuesday, will end at 1 p. m., Saturday, November 11, Taylor said. No single tickets will be sold to any of the concerts. Admission to the concerts will be by membership card only.

Further information concerning the membership drive can be obtained by calling 345.

The Oil Business Still Looking Good

The oil business in Terry county is still looking good to yours truly as well as to others, perhaps. One mighty good well was finished in the Wellman pool last week, and an offset in the Brownfield pool south of town showed a test of 91 barrels per hour on test early this week.

Then we have some news that is not quite so optimistic. That one is the Ohio Oil Co., A. R. Brownfield No. 1, eight miles east of town. Of course this is strictly a wildcat proposition, and we believe it fooled some people, maybe the driller included. For awhile this looked like a dud, but no reef to amount to anything was found.

At this time it looks like the Wellman field is going south and east. The west offset to the discovery seemed to be a failure, and the north offset was not as strong as the other. The latest to be finished in that field was the Beaver No. 3, a south offset. This was officially gauged last week as a 3100 barrel plus well.

The first offset of the Brownfield pool, five miles southeast of town, was assured this week. It is the Union Oil Co., No. 1, Stitt. From 9,915 to 10,115, approximately all the 200 feet in reef production. The well flowed 91 barrels of high grade oil in one hour through a choke. It is believed the operators are preparing to complete this well, which should test around 2100 barrels per day. This is a southeast offset to the Cotten well. No. 2 Stitt is now drilling below 8000 feet in lime and shale, and if no unforeseen accident happens this well should be in production some time soon, probably next week.

The west offset, Phillip Petroleum Co., No. 1, in the Laura Cotten lease is now down near 9,000 feet, and should be showing up some. This well likely would have been finished, but they have had a fishing job for tools.

The Wilshire Oil Co., No. 1, A. M. Brownfield is now down some 7,000 feet. This well is four miles east of Brownfield, and some four miles northeast of the Cotten field.

No other wells in Terry that we know of is down to pay. Soon, we hope.

Most Businesses To Close November 13

With the exception of a few, which will close Saturday, November 11, all businesses in Brownfield will be closed in observance of the Armistice Day celebration on Monday, November 13, according to Wayne (Red) Smith, manager of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce.

An advertisement in this issue of the Herald advises patrons of the First National Bank and the Brownfield State Bank and Trust company that they are among the many firms who will observe the Monday holiday.

Cubs Meet Morton On Home Field Tonight

The Brownfield High School Cubs meet the Morton High School Indians on home ground tonight (Friday) at 8 p. m.

Coach Toby Greer says his Cubs will be out for a win tonight, and is confident that they will throw the book at Morton.

Probable starters for the Cubs will be Max Black, center; Charles Cabbiness, guard; Dale Cary, back; Don Jones, tackle; Loman Jones, end; Bobby Latham, back; Charles Mayfield, back; Dean Murphy, tackle; Orbra Rowden, guard; Howard Swan, end; Graves Nelson, back, will probably be out for the remainder of the season, Greer said.

Morton's probable starters will be Bill Waydel, end; Leon Mills, tackle; Don Lindsey, guard; Bob Polvado, center; James Dewbre, guard; Johnny Green, tackle; Jackie Shipp, end; Lanar Burns, back; Kenneth Wilson, back; Kirby Lackey, back; Don Baldwin, back.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newman were in Oklahoma City visiting Mr. and Mrs. Homer Newman. Mrs. Newman and two daughters returned to Brownfield with them to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnett, and other relatives.

SIX LOCAL PEOPLE BUY BROWNFIELD NEWS

It was announced here last week that Curtis J. Sterling had purchased the Brownfield News, but at that time his partners in the purchase were not revealed. This week, the Herald is running a legal notice that gives further information concerning the deal, in which the newspaper publishing part was purchased from Mike Barrett. We understand that Barrett retained the job and supply business, moving it to a new location.

According to the legal notice of limited partnership, Messrs. Sterling and Rogers Curry are named as members of the general partnership, C. C. Primm Bruce Zorns, J. M. Teague and Jack Bailey are named as special partners, each with a contributed capital of $4,215.19. The limited partnership is to run for ten years. Charles Didway was retained as editor, as well as most of the mechanical and office force.

Fleming Typewriter Has New Associate

Bill Blake, a former resident of Lubbock, is now associated with Fleming Typewriter and Supply, Roy Fleming announced Thursday.

Blake, who has lived in Brownfield two months, previously operated an Army surplus store here. Prior to moving to Brownfield, he had been associated with an office supply house in Lubbock.

His sister, Miss Janice Blake, conducts a dancing school in Brownfield.

CAN'T KEEP UP WITH THE OIL NEWS

Since we wrote the oil news earlier this week, two other wells have been contracted to drill in various parts of the county, as follows:

Two Fort Worth oil men have contracted to drill an 11,000 test on the J. W. Johnson quarter section which is 2 1/2 miles east of the Cotten field five miles south of Brownfield.

Another drilling company of San Antonio are to put down a 10,000 foot test, six miles northwest of Brownfield and two north of Gomez, on the Hulme land.

Gin Worker Injured In Accident Tuesday

Vester Jackson, 60, an employee of the Co-op. Gin, suffered a mangled right hand at about 7:45 p. m., Tuesday when his hand was caught in a saw.

He was taken to the local hospital by a Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance, where the hand was amputated. He was hospitalized, and hospital attendants report that he is "resting well."

COURTHOUSE BOND PASSED 3 TO 1

A proposed $250,000 addition to the Terry County courthouse was endorsed by voters Tuesday when they cast 604 votes for the bond and 204 against, an almost three to one majority.

The Commissioners court will meet Monday to make further plans for the construction of the addition.

The bond election was held on the same day as the general election, and Terry county, as usual, voted the Democratic ticket.

ABSTRACT COMPANY IN NEW LOCATION

The firm of McGinty-Stephens Abstract Company has moved from the Alexander building to new offices at 410 W. Broadway, next door to McKinney's Insurance agency, it was announced.

Durwood McGinty and Lowell Stephens, owners, purchased the company from Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Price recently.

Assumed Duties As Fair Store Manager

A. L. Blasingim has assumed his duties as manager of the Fair Department Store, as of Monday

A. L. BLASINGIM of this week. He succeeds Melvin Dixon.

Blasingim, who came here from Lamesa where he was associated with Kayal company, has been in the clothing business for 25 years. He is a native of middle Tennessee but has lived in Texas for 30 years. He was once a professional baseball player.

The new manager is married and has two daughters, one a freshman and one a junior at Texas State College for Women in Denton.

Completion Near On Drive In Theatre

The new Rustic drive-in theatre, one of the Jones Theatres, is expected to be completed within seven weeks, according to Sammy Jones, manager of the theatres.

Located about one mile west on the Plains highway, the new theatre will have a 500 car capacity and will be equipped with in-car speakers and heaters.

The M. L. Montgomery Construction company of Breckenridge is contracting the job, Jones said.

Studebaker To Be Shown November 15

The new Studebaker will be shown at West Texas Motor company Wednesday November 15, according to information received from L. B. (Shorty) Forbus, owner.

A new high-efficiency V-8 Commander is one of the main newer features in the 1951 Studebakers, Forbus said.

The public is cordially invited to attend the showing and look over the new automobiles.

Added Parking Space To Be Discussed

We learned this week from one of the business men that a move was on for a meeting with the Commissioners Court Monday, to try to get the trees and shrubs rooted up from the court house park, and to make a parking lot of it like at Snyder. Our informant was opposed to the move. Frankly, we had never heard of it.

Anyway, there may be others opposed to as well as for the move, and it should be known among the people so if they want to meet with the commissioners and put in their dime's worth, they will know about it. This might keep down friction later on.

There are vastly more numerous ways to get caught conducting lotteries than one. Indeed some of the service clubs are coming before the federal courts of the land to explain why they were conducting a lottery even in the name of sweet charity. Down at Tyler, for instance, one service club that sold pencils for one dollar, and used the proceeds, some 97 1-2c profit; to have glasses made for underprivileged children, are up for that "offense" at Texarkana Federal court. The press associations are also warning the newspapers, or some of them, about their habit of having the reader guess about a certain name in the classified column. Such newspapers are advised to lay off anything that resembles a raffle in any form. A few years ago, the Herald received a pretty nippy warning from a federal solicitor at Houston about a tradesday ad we ran, but which looked innocent enough to us. Since that time, we have been very leary of taking any kind of an ad that suggested "taking a chance." The Herald believes that the best way after all to raise any kind of a charity "chest" is to solicit outright donations from the people of the town without giving or promising anything vaguely in return. Lotteries, raffles or chances are against the law, and as long as that is the law of the land, we believe law abiding people should obey it, just as they obey laws of any nature such as murder, theft, arson, etc. We should try to comply with laws, even though they seem foolish, until they are repealed.

It is sometimes strange language that some of us talk, as individuals or associations, and leads some of the disinterested to remark, now looks who's talking. Such a meeting was of the trucking association up in New York state recently, and a speaker was bemoaning the fact that if highways were in good condition and well maintained, trucking costs could be reduced 50 per cent, and that trucking concerns could save millions of dollars a year if the highways were modernized. At the same time, over in Maryland, there is a guinea pig strip of highway that nothing but trucks are allowed over, and the cars and private light trucks are routed over another section. Some dozen states have their highway departments represented there to note the damage by each to the same kind of pavement. While the experiment has not been completed, it has gone far enough for highway experts to see who is doing the damage, and that the box-car trucks are not nearly paying their proportionate part of the damage to our highways. With these things in view, will it be possible to get the car and pickup men in the several states interested in paying additional taxes for these highway busters to run over? The greatest crime of these highway users is that some of them will overload in spite of all the highway departments can do to stop it. This is not saying that all trucking concerns overload their trucks purposely.

Down in south Texas at a recent meeting of a local medical society, a physician raised the question if doctors were not themselves somewhat responsible for the demand for "socialized medicine." This doctor frankly stated that the medical profession itself was making itself somewhat "vulnerable" to such proposals through failure to train more young doctors to fit themselves to practice in rural areas. It seems that the high aim of the medical college at present is to train the young physician to be a "specialist" and seek an office high up in some skyscraper of the big cities. This leaves the smaller towns and cities that used to have from one to eight doctors practically without accessibility to a trained medical man. And therefore any idea about government controls, hit a vulnerable spot among the small towners and rural folks. The speaker maintained that if doctors would insist that medical colleges would stop the ideal of specializing and concentrating in the large cities, the agitation for socialized medicine might stop.

Very likely most of the small fry will get the toys they expected Santa to bring them. We hope so anyway. But the toy makers say they are getting up against a proposition on some materials such as wire, wood, zinc and steel. Toy makers are big consumers of materials, and as they have been restricted greatly since the war in Korea started, there may be a shortage of toys, perhaps not acute, but bad enough. But most dealers believe there will be plenty toys of some kind to meet the needs of all the little fellows, and they advise all not to buy unnecessarily.

Shooting, bombing or otherwise trying to take the life of a person that is a factual or imagined adversary, is one of the most unreasonable things that can be hatched up in the minds of a sane person. In the incidence at the temporary White House last week, the two revolutionists not only failed to get President Truman, or for that matter, anything near it, but one was instantly killed, and the other badly wounded. A policeman was killed and two or three others badly hurt. The wounded would be assassin is as sure for the noose or electric chair as the nation stands. The perpetrators got the sympathy of no true American, no matter which party they belonged to, or whether or not they believed Mr. Truman had made a good president or a failure. Just the same, as grievous as was the intended crime, the one now in a hospital will be given a fair and a just trial, as anyone should have in a democratic republic. With possibly one exception every martyred president we have had, Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley, as well as the attempts on Teddy Roosevelt at Chicago, and Franklin D. Roosevelt in Florida, have been of foreign extraction. The exception is John Wilks Booth the Lincoln assassin. And many historians are now led to believe that Booth was not the killer of Lincoln, and the man killed in a barn in Virginia was not Booth. The old time line of Americans of English, Scottish, Irish, and north European extraction, just did not believe in bumping off an adversary via the violence route. If they routed him, it was via the ballot box. The southern European seems to have the assassination ideas. Americans are just not given to holding grievances. As stated above, if they think a man should be removed from office, it should be done by balloting—not bullets. And this is more in keeping with civilization.

SALE OF BLACKSMITH SHOP ANNOUNCED

J. D. (Dewitt) Stafford announced this week that he has bought the blacksmith shop from C. H. Littlefield, and welcomes his old customers, as well as new ones, to patronize him.

Littlefield purchased the shop from Stafford nine months ago, when Mr. and Mrs. Stafford moved to Tahlequah, Okla. Littlefield said that he will continue to operate his portable welder, but has no definite location at this time.

Buy and store insecticides now for use on the 1951 cotton crop. They'll cost no more and possibly less than next spring and summer when you need them.

Q—I plan to obtain a GI loan to buy a house which I will use as a combination physician's office and home. Do the new VA down payment requirements for residential property pertain to me? About two-thirds of the house will be for my office and laboratories.

A—Yes, the down payment restrictions apply in your case. So long as any part of the house is used as living quarters, the regulations apply.

Q—I am a retired officer drawing disability retirement pay from the Army under the Career Compensation Act for the loss of a leg incurred in line of duty. Will VA provide me with any prosthetic appliance I happen to need?

A—So long as you draw retirement pay only, you are entitled only to an artificial leg or braces as needed, but to no other prosthetic appliances. However, if you can qualify for VA's disability compensation (by waiving as much of your retirement pay as you receive in VA compensation), you may be eligible for any appliance for the disability for which you are receiving VA compensation. And you'd continue to be eligible for the artificial leg and braces.

Q—I'm an ex-officer receiving retirement pay from the Army, and I am attending school under the GI Bill. VA has asked me to report my income, for the purpose of determining how much subsistence I am entitled to. Do I report my retirement pay as income? A—No. All that you need

The "Shovites" over in "Mus-tow" say our political campaigns are just mudslinging battles. Sure, Comrade Slowtosky, but that fact is a lot of fun to us bloated plutocrats. You know we have two of three parties, and we always say—let the best man win.

While over in your Stinkosky neck of the woods, you just have one party—one ticket—Stalin or nothing. And if any of you "democratic" people refuse to vote the ticket straight—kabooey! Either shot or sent to concentration camps. You have no fun throwing mud at the opposition. Get wise, Comrades, and have a little fun even at election time.

Down at Snyder, even the churches are forced to hold two morning preaching services. One comes early, at 8:45 and the last one at 11 A. M., with the Sunday school in between the two church assemblies.

Of course there is strong talk of a second or perhaps third congregation in other parts of the city. Led us to wonder why they do not have to have two services Sunday night.

Perhaps the communicants read, play bridge or dominoes Sunday night or off to the movies. But the fact fits other towns, than oil booming Snyder. Let the town that is not guilty cast the first stone at Snyder.

Well, that gas fire looks cozy at night again. But unlike the old fashioned blazing log fire place, the gas stove is no target for us spitting gentry. We cannot fit the first two fingers over our lips, and let drive at the blaze.

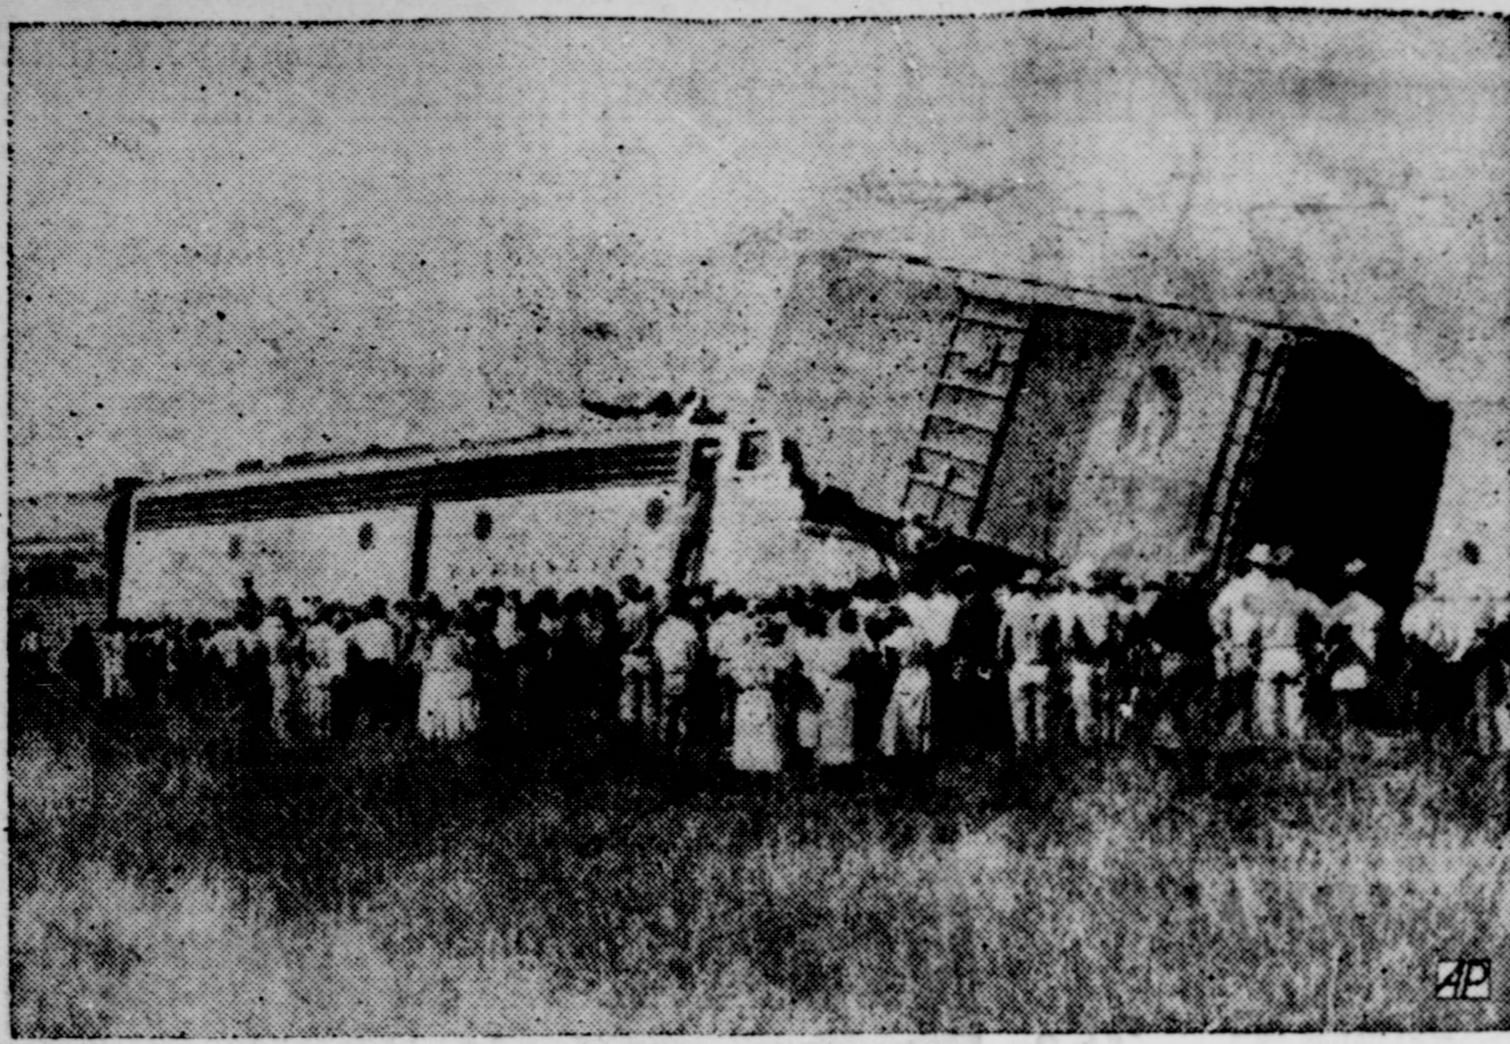

No, the lady of the house forces one to bring in the spitcan, if you "chaw," and you have to have a perfect aim, or you get a going over if there are any brown spots on the rugs.

Then it is rather hard to get into natural gas heaters and pop corn properly. That has to be done, if done at all, at the kitchen range. But popping corn was a great pastime in the old log fire days.

We note that an opera singer has quit with a huff, as it were, out in California. Not only that, but she has sued a nearby neighbor who owned two pups that hewed and barked at night. Led us to wonder if most of the howling was not put on at the same time that "Modum" was hitting the high C.

Now for a bit of off the record football reporting. At the outset,

TERRY COUNTY HERALD, FRIDAY, NOV. 10, 1950

SMASHED LOCOMOTIVE—Jack E. Hollis of Fort Worth, a diesel power expert, died in this locomotive and other crewmen were injured when the Fort Worth and Denver City's Gulf Coast limited ripped through an open siding at Quanah, Tex. The impact tossed the car of cotton on top of the locomotive cab. (AP photo)

let us say we know as little about football as we do about oil wells. But anyway—

Rah! for Meadow. According to the talk around this burg, Seagraves was supposed to have the edge on, them by at least two maybe three touchdowns. But the Broncs' licked the Seagraves bunch by a score of 39 to 12. It was never a question of who ruled the roost. That game threw Meadow and Seagraves into a tie for first place in the conference.

And right here let us say that the first year Wellman team is improving fast. The first few games, their opponents ran up as score as high as they liked and goosedged Wellman. Then Wellman come alive and went to making some scores of its own. Last week with Whiteface, the score was 33 to 20 for the feed pen cattle bunch. But Wellman is improving.

Even the Cubs seem to be doing better. Post was supposed to bury them alive last Friday night, but the score was 14 to 7. And this reminds us of another story we overheard two football fans telling. We were just a listener and will not vouch for its authenticity.

It is said that Post has one of the best passers in the conference, and if the Antelopes can't go through the line, they go over. You are aware that Littlefield has not lost a game in the past two seasons, and were the State A champs last year. But they dreaded that passing boy at Post.

So, the story goes when the Littlefield-Post game came up, one of the second rate Littlefield players raised a rukus with the Post passer, which developed into a fight. The referee sent both to the benches for the duration of the game. Littlefield won.

As stated, this was just a conversation we listened in on. And two local football fans were doing the talking. If true, this lacks a lot of being good sportmanship.

And while on the subject of area town, and all of them are good ones, and we dislike to see them step out on the wrong foot. There was a big splash in the Lubbock paper about the Jaycee convention, when the contest developed about moving the State headquarters from Abilene to Bryan or Grand Prairie, both in east Texas.

To our notion, Abilene is centrally located geographically at least, and made as good offer as the contesting towns. This included offices free of rent and taxes paid. Whereat, the Levelland delegate arose and made the offer that Levelland would pay the taxes at the Grand Prairie site.

Looked a bit like a stab in the back of another west Texas town, and Levelland may see the day when it will come handy for Abilene to pay her back in like measure with interest.

Live Turkeys Best For Thanksgiving

Although there may be some doubt about which Thursday in November to select for celebrating Thanksgiving this year, there should be no doubt about the quality of the bird you select for your Thanksgiving dinner.

D. R. Barrett, assistant poultry marketing specialist for the Texas A & M college extension service, has a few pointers for the many people who will want to select live birds and do the dressing themselves or will be having it done at the local locker plant.

Barrett points out that the quality of the live turkey cannot be improved by any method of processing. It is important that only live turkeys of the best quality be selected, since no higher quality meat can be expected to arrive on the table than was selected from the pen of live birds.

Flesh, finish and the absence of pinfeathers are the important factors which Barrett advises considering when selecting quality turkeys. Well-fleshed turkeys will have broad breasts that are well covered with meat. The thighs will be large and the drumsticks bulging.

Some fat over the entire carcass is desirable. The creaminess of the skin on all parts of the carcass indicates that the bird is well-finished. Turkeys should also be free of pinfeathers.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kendrick and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bowman attended the Texas-SMU football game in Austin over the week end.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending October 28, 1950 were 26,631 compared with 27,308 for same week in 1949. Cars received from connections totaled 14,743 compared with 11,986 for same week in 1949. Total cars moved were 41,374 compared with 39,294 for same week in 1949.

Santa Fe handled a total of 42,347 cars in preceding week of this year.

INSPECTORS CAPTURE THREE ILLICIT STILL

The Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors in September reported the seizure of 3 illicit stills.

With the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 130 gallons, inspectors captured 270 gallons of mash and made two arrests. 25 1/4 gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

One still each was taken in the counties of Harrison, Limestone and Bailey.

THE UNITED NATIONS is in close contact with the people of the world, through work in the field as well as in its new headquarters. Here a group in Eritrea makes known its views on the future of that former Italian colony to representatives of the visiting U.N. Commission for Eritrea.

TWO MARRIAGE LICENSES, FOUR DIVORCE SUITS

For the week ending November 4, there were four suits for divorce filed in the county versus only two marriage licenses applied for. Of course you know that a lot of the marriage business here is now going to our neighboring state, New Mexico, as no pending time is set for notice to get license in that state.

For various reasons, we will not disclose the divorce suits that were filed. If the reader is very much interested, they may be found on the records of the district clerk over at the courthouse.

But marriage license were issued to Ben Perez Deanda and Miss Belia Lopes Hornanda. And Bobby Ray Suggs to Wanda Talune Coor.

LOST MORE THIS WEEK THAN WE GAINED

According to Hoyle, we only gained four newcomers this week, and in return we lost five. Next week we hope the reverse will be true. The newcomers are, William W. Brightman, from Crane; Billie Joe Clark from Snyder; Hugh Outlaw, from Fort Worth and James W. Spence from Ozona.

We lost the following, some old timers, and at least one born and reared in Brownfield: Marion Bowers, Jack Cunningham, and Miss Billie Joe Tittle, all to Sweetwater, and Mrs. D. C. Hicks, to Rotan.

Around the Studios

with Charlie Brooks

A true diplomatic contretemps faced Gordon MacRae, baritone star of NBC's "The Railroad Hour," when he was confronted with no less than six button-hole carnations from that many fans just as he was going on the air. All six were waiting breathlessly in the studio audience to see which he'd wear, but Gordon was more than equal to the occasion. He arrived wearing every last one of them — in a kind of off-the-shoulder garland arrangement.

The youthful panel of MBS's "Juvenile Jury" quiz show received the following problem by mail from a worried mother.

... It seems that her three-and-a-half-year-old son loves to chew on leather pocketbooks and belts, and she can't figure out how to break him of this habit. "Tell him," suggested eight-year-old Elizabeth Watson, "that he shouldn't eat those things unless he boils them first."

Robert Q. Lewis is getting fairly used to receiving awards for different things, but the one he drew last Sunday night on the CBS-TV variety program, "The Robert Q. Lewis Show" really had him speechless for a moment.

Robert Young, star of NBC's "Father Knows Best," reports that in his family, mother definitely knows best! Twelve-year-old Barbara Young was scheduled to go away to boarding school this term for the first time, and she was gloomily dramatizing the separation, when her mother presented her with just the thing for her state of mind—a pair of pajamas in blue and white "prison" stripes, with a great red heart over the left side of the jacket. Barbara opened it, struggled to maintain her gloom, and then burst into peals of merriment. Now she can't wait to show them off to her new classmates.

FINDS JAPANESE BOND NO GOOD

RANGOON—(AP)—A middle-aged Burman has for five years been trying to cash a bond representing 100,000 rupees. The bond in 1945 was the first prize in a lottery run by the Japanese. The unhappy winner has hounded government treasury offices, banks and money-lenders trying to cash in on his winning. All told him, "Sorry, no dice."

The week of November 4-12 is National 4-H Achievement Week. America's 2,000,000 4-H members (approximate) will join together during the week to show to the world their 1950 accomplishments.

BRITISH CAR EXPORTS

LONDON—(AP)—The United Kingdom has exported 92,450 motorcars in the first nine months of 1950. Her principal markets were Australia, where 23,541 cars were sent; Canada, 19,441; Sweden, 7,000; the United States, 6,110; New Zealand, 4,191 and South Africa, 4,117.

Reports On School Patch Tests Given

Out of 302 students at Jessie G. Randal school who were given patch tests for tuberculosis recently, records show that 24 showed up with positive reactions according to information received from the South Plains health unit.

Health unit officials added that this did not necessarily mean that the 24 children definitely had tuberculosis, but it indicated that the children should need further checking by their physicians.

Patch tests were also given at Wellman, where there six positive reactions out of 53 children tested, and at Meadow, where there were six positive reactions out of 68 children tested.

Bird in hand that's a Beauty # and a Buy!

Now it can be told. This clean-lined, smart-stepping 1950 version is the most popular Buick ever built.

Ever since early in the present year, a value-wise public has been taking them away from us as fast as—or faster than—the great Buick factories could roll them out. Within recent weeks, production and sales have set an all-time record.

Count off the distinguished and time-tried features of this winner and you'll know why.

It has a Very Exclusive Motor—Buick's own high-compression Fireball—which gets its driving power from a combustion chamber found in no other car in the world.

It has the bump-smothering softness of coil springs on all four wheels and a torque-tube drive—a comfort combination that no other car provides.

It has Dynaflo Drive®—which ushered in a whole new concept of effortless travel.

It has a brilliant styling which sets it apart from every other car on the road.

And it has prices which say "buy me" to any motorist who's looking for maximum money's worth.

Isn't it sensible, while these great cars are still coming off the line, to check with your Buick dealer about getting one to call your own?

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Only Buick has Dynaflo—and with it goes!

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) NEW PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fore-front, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

To Get Around A Bale Per Acre

Rev. Ed Tharp, our old time friend, was in to see us the past few days and remarked that his renter out in west Terry was sure of three-fourths of a bale per acre, and stood a good chance to get a bale per acre off his cotton crop.

Ed did not state this time who was working his west Terry farm, but he has told us on former occasions that his renter was a real farmer. Rev. Tharp says he has good land, rich, etc., but it takes the co-operation of a good farmer with good land to make a good crop. He further stated that he had been about quite a lot over Lubbock and other counties that were irrigating, and that he'd seen no better cotton anywhere than on his dry land farm this year.

Rites Held Wednesday For L. F. Hudgens, 80

The many old friends and neighbors here of F. L. Hudgens of Stephenville, will be shocked to learn that he took his own life Monday. His daughter, Mrs. Kyle Graves of this city was so notified, but no details were given except death by gunshot. Mrs. Graves and family left immediately, but instructed her friend, Mrs. McElroy to notify old friends of the family.

The health of Mr. Hudgens has not been very good the past few years. Indeed he has been confined to his home. The Hudgens family came to Terry county back in the early twenties and bought a farm in the Forrester community. But they moved to town in a year or two and went into the grocery and hardware business with J. B. Knight. A few years later, Mr. Knight took over the hardware part, and Mr. Hudgens, his sons, Claude and Clarence and son-in-law Kyle Graves took the grocery business, both expanding. The grocery business later became the Kyle Grocery when Mr. Hudgens moved to Lubbock, and Claude to Levelland. Mr. Hudgens ran a grocery for some time at Lubbock, but finally sold it to others.

Mr. Hudgens had a body of land near Sundown in Hockley county, where much oil was found, and he became quite wealthy. While here he took great interest in church work, being one of the Elders in the Church of Christ. He also took much interest in the church wherever he lived.

His first wife, the mother of all his children, died here some 15 years ago. He married a few years later to a Stephenville lady that he had known in former years. She survives.

Other survivors are, Clarence of Plainview; Claude of Stephenville and Mrs. Graves of this

UNION TO RESUME FULL DAY SCHEDULE

Supt. M. G. Gary informed us this week that regular classes in the Union school would begin Monday morning. They have been out one or two weeks helping to gather the cotton crop. Either the cotton crop is progressing toward the finish, or else help has come from other places.

Anyway, Supt. Gary has been letting on to us that he was making a fair to indifferent hand, but every time we've seen him in town he didn't seem to have on the garb of a boll puller.

PLEDGING CLUB

Seven social clubs at Texas Technological college have announced the pledging to 100 men.

Among the pledges is Jerry Worsham, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Worsham, who pledged Socii club.

city. Mr. Hudgens leaves a host of friends wherever he has lived.

Progressive Citizens Of Terry County
And Brownfield

Gee Gee's Chit Chat

The crowds that thronged the city Harvest Holiday had nothing on the ones attending Furr's formal opening of their new super market, located at Fifth and Carlwell, Thursday night. This being one of the biggest weeks that Brownfield has had in many a moon, I am almost at a loss for something to say that will cover it. I will tell you this, however. This new super market—what I mean SUPER—just has to be seen to be believed. As the old country boy said upon returning home from a visit to the city, "I've been to three hawg callin' and two county fairs, and I ain't never seen nothing like it before."

Among the many things that impressed me at the opening was how unimpressed by the goings-on were some of the small fry. They simply walked in, took over the comic books, and proceeded to have themselves a whale of a time in the "library."

And speaking of openings, I failed to include Ava McKinney in the personnel of McKinney's Insurance Agency when I was reporting their opening for Saturday. Sorry, Ava. I guess I thought all wives were just considered "fixtures" around their husband's businesses. Ava has so many jobs that I can hardly keep up with her activities, but she certainly can't be included "out" of the insurance agency, as she is one of the mainstays of the establishment.

The wind blew and the sand flew and we need some clothing for our Red Cross and Veterans store room. We have so many calls for warm clothing, including shoes; that the demand far exceeds the supply. Please, if you have any clothing that you are no longer using, may we have it? Just take it by the county service office in the courthouse at your convenience. And thanks.

Well, I've been strolling merrily along and all of a sudden: Bingo, Christmas is just around the corner. Old Santa himself was in Brownfield Monday night, as a matter of fact. Right down at Knight Hardware, where they have some nice samples of some of the things he'll be bringing little boys and girls this year.

And speaking of Christmas, which I decidedly prefer not to do but must, Walter Breedlove, over at the South Plains Health Unit, suggests that something nice for around the home to hang on the Christmas tree would be a covered garbage can. It may seem to be rushing the season, but Walter tells me that a covered garbage can for every home is something that can, and should be used the year round.

While over at the health unit, Mrs. Irene Griffith, county health nurse, was telling me about a birthday party given by a group of friends for Joan Tidwell on her eleventh birthday October 28. Joan was stricken with polio June 4, 1948, and has been in a cast ever since. Irene says that Joan is very jolly and happy, but that she is getting better, she needs something to occupy the long hours she must spend in bed. Her sister, Francis, and two brothers, Jess and Jodie, are in school at Union, so Joan is alone a great deal. Wouldn't it be nice to send Joan a card, a color book, or write her a nice letter occasionally? If you would like to do so, and I know she will appreciate it, you may address her at route 5, Brownfield.

As I said last week, members of the American Legion Auxiliary will be selling popes November 10 and 11 in Brownfield. Buy your poppy, wear it proudly, and remember to be thankful that you can buy them instead of making them.

NOTE: VOTE IN TUESDAY'S BOND ELECTION.

With cold weather just around the corner, C. L. (Abe) Lincoln, county service officer, and Mrs. Sam Privitt, chairman of the Terry County American Red Cross, are making an appeal for used clothing to restock their store rooms.

The clothing, which includes shoes, underwear, and all other types of wearing apparel, is badly needed at this time since there are so many calls for it.

Any persons wishing to donate clothing are asked to take it to Lincoln's office on the first floor of the county court house.

Editors See Socialistic Trend

When 80 per cent of grass root editors answer "Yes" to the question, "Do you fear that our nation is heading toward Socialism?" don't you think it is time something was done about it?

We have no reason to believe that the majority of Congress wants Socialism. We know that if the victors in the last Congressional election had run on a Socialist ticket, they would have been soundly defeated. Yet is the vote of Congressional majorities which have created the situation which makes our country editors see the socialistic handwriting on the wall.

What can be done about it? The editors say these are the big things to do:

1. Drastically reduce the size and cost of Federal Government.
2. Re-establish homerule by returning governmental authority, wherever possible, to the States and communities.
3. Eliminate subsidies.
4. Reduce social services of the Federal Government.
5. Balance the budget and reduce the national debt.

Frankly, the editors don't expect Congress to do any of these things. Their major hope seems to be that Congress won't pass too much additional "socialistic" legislation.

But there is no reason why Congress cannot do all of these things if enough individual members are willing to put the future of the country, and of their own sons and daughters, ahead of politics.

A good politician, it has been said, is one who always votes for an appropriation and always votes against a tax. We have had far too many of such "good politicians" occupying seats in Congress.

It has become such a concern to the country editors that many no longer ask for tax reduction. They are willing to let present high taxes stand, and some would even be willing to pay higher taxes, if only Congress would reduce government costs enough to make it possible to chop down

Thanks, Folks!

On behalf of the Brownfield Rotary club, I wish to thank all of the citizens of Brownfield and Terry county, as well as all visitors, for their participation in our 1950 Harvest Festival.

Special thanks are extended to members of the Lions Club, the junior and senior Chambers of Commerce, all social organizations, and to the student bodies of Brownfield, Wellman, Union, and Meadow high schools. We are also grateful to the local merchants for their cooperation in helping to make this our most successful festival in four years.

We would like to express our appreciation to all of the queen candidates this year for their sportsmanship, especially those who did not win. If we had a choice, we would have made all of you winners, but since that is impossible, we are proud of all of you for running good, fair races.

The Brownfield Rotarians feel that, by your fine response to the festivals, you, as citizens of this county and community, endorse their efforts to make Brownfield and Terry county a better place to live and raise your children.

Very sincerely yours,
C. G. GRIFFITH, President,
Brownfield Rotary Club.

Local Girl Pledges TSCW Literary Club

Pledging to the 11 literary and social clubs on the Texas State College for Women campus is over, an about 250 student are now considered active members.

Among this group is Miss Flo Dean Stafford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stafford Sr., of Brownfield.

Chores imposed upon the lowly pledges during the initiation period included the usual "maid service" for their "big" sisters, getting a raw egg signed by 25 teachers, collecting faculty men's shoe sizes and carrying loaded suitcases to classes.

Purpose of these clubs is to stimulate interest in literature, art, music, to promote social activities for members and to encourage the achievement of high scholastic standing.

Miss Stafford is a member of the Aglaian Club.

Gov. Shivers Deplores Hazardous Highways

The following is a personal letter addressed to editors, radio stations, etc., and as these are Governor Allan Shivers' own words and sentiments, we are hereby copying his letter as written. We hope all our subscribers read and heed:

Mr. A. J. Stricklin, Editor, The Terry County Herald, Brownfield, Texas.

Dear Mr. Stricklin:

Texas traffic deaths are up 23 per cent over 1949. To date we have counted 1,660 deaths, compared with 1,348 during the same period for last year, according to the Department of Public Safety. Many additional thousands have been injured, some of them permanently crippled, and the economic loss is enormous.

This disastrous trend must be curbed. In our efforts to meet it, as always, we must depend largely upon the invaluable aid of the press, the radio stations and other agencies of public information.

We are initiating an important step toward slowing our death and injury rate for the days ahead. The plan involves stepped up traffic law enforcement, directed toward violations causing the greater number of accidents, improvement of adjudication in traffic courts, increased use of driver license suspensions, and thorough traffic engineering. To arouse public and official attention to the scope of this situation, I am calling a Governor's emergency traffic safety conference Friday, December 8, 1950, at 10:00 a.m.

I sincerely trust that you can be present and that you will give us all the help and publicity possible so that we may redeem Texas' name in traffic safety.

Sincerely,
ALLAN SHIVERS
Governor of Texas.

Mary Ballard spent the week end in Hobbs, N. M., with Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Cheek.

FREEDOM OR SOCIALISM? WE MUST CHOOSE

Let us be thankful that we still have the right to choose between them.

Hiller in his book, "Mein Kampf", told in detail what he proposed doing. NOBODY BELIEVED HIM.

Stalin also published a book—containing Communist plans for conquering the world, giving minute details of how he proposed to do it. AGAIN NOBODY BELIEVED IT.

NOW, let's take a quick look at our own country.

Our national debt is now in excess of 260 billion dollars and increasing every day. This is ten times more than the value of all the gold in Fort Knox.

To bring it closer to home—have you as head of a family, $6,000.00 to pay for YOUR share of this debt? Because every family in the United States owes that much.

Now read again what Karl Marx said in the third paragraph, once more from the beginning and Then read this entire article thru. THINK HARD. Not so bright is it? You can help brighten it up by letters to your congressman.

Chevrolet trucks are engineered to "take it," in every way. Chevrolet's heavy-duty hypoid rear axles offer maximum strength... with single-unit housings formed into tubular steel beams, and spined axle-to-hub connections that deliver power more evenly. Gears last longer, too... pinion gear is ball-bearing supported at each end, with adjustable thrust pad to prevent distortion on extra heavy pulls. Add these advantages to powerful Valve-in-Head engines, Synchro-Mesh transmissions, and channel-type frames. Then you'll know why Chevrolet is the most popular truck in America. ### FHA Members Place In Dallas Showing Nine Future Farmers of America and their sponsor, Lester Buford, attended the state fair in Dallas recently. They were competing in the Junior Commercial Steer Show and the Junior Pig Show.

Royce Kelly, Ray Latham, Orville Miller, Jerrel Rowden, and Charles Gabbiness showed one calf each, and Earl Brown and Byron Wise showed two barrows each. Marcellé Rose showed three barrows.

Kelly's calf placed in the choice class and brought 40 cents per pound. Calves shown by Miller, Latham, and Rowden had calves placing in the good class and brought 37 cents per pound.

The barrow shown by Wise placed eleventh in the second class, and one barrow shown by Rose placed fourth. Both of the barrows sold for 26 cents per pound.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

meats for quick selection. Behind these cases, convenient to customers who use the special case buzzers to call for special meat cuts, is a large cutting and packaging room. From here the case will be re-stocked without interference with shopping. This large room will have its own air conditioning system, to maintain both the packaging materials and the meats at the same uniform temperature of 45 degrees.

Among the other unusual features of this building are the sound system, for store wide paging and the playing of quiet music, and the mechanical air conditioning, which will produce a comfortable atmosphere the year round. Store directories, giving concise locations of all store sections, will be installed on each of the shopping carts.

Instead of using volumes of water only once for cooling the refrigerator compressors, water will be conserved by the installation of two large cooling towers. The water will be used, cooled, and re-circulated as a special conservation measure.

The new Piggly Wiggly Super Store will have seven speedy check out counters, and self-contained departments for specialty foods, drugs and household needs.

Store manager V. L. "Pat" Patterson has been store manager of Piggly Wiggly in Brownfield for 14 years. Market manager John Bost has held that position for 10 years.

The owners of Piggly Wiggly in Brownfield are Davis and Humphries, Inc., with general headquarters in Lubbock. This firm operates sixteen other Piggly Wiggly Super Markets throughout the area, in Lubbock, Floydada, Big Spring, Slaton, Seminole, Post, Littlefield, Levelland, Muleshoe and Andrews. They are also the owners and operators of D & H Super Markets in Tahoka and Snyder.

W. E. (Bill) Humphries, president, and J. M. Davis, vice-president, have pioneered in West Texas grocery business. Their partnership in Davis and Humphries, Inc., began 44 years ago in east Texas. They came to west Texas 26 years ago, opening their first Piggly Wiggly in Lubbock.
