Miss Kay Adams, of Hollywood, Calif., who is supervising the Hollywood Amateur contest for the Delphian Study Club, to be held at the old high school auditorium Monday night, February 5, reports that Brownfield and the surrounding communities has produced some excellent talent.

Entries in the contest include novelty numbers, as well as vocal, dance, band instruments, piano, and guitar.

Three gold cups are to be awarded to the first, second, and third place winners of the contest, and the cups are on display at Mc-

If the winner prefers, they may have a cash prize of $500 instead of the trip. The audience may participate in the contest, as they will select the winners by their applause. Judges are to be Mrs. Joe Shelton, Mayor C. C. Primm, and Dr. T. H. McIlroy.

Nathan Daniel of radio station KTFY will act as master of ceremonies and will introduce each contestant.

Chamber Managers To Have Conference

A. M. Muldrow, president of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, announced today that February 15th, at 5:00, a conference of Chamber of Commerce managers will be held in Brownfield at the new Brownfield High School, with Fred Husbands, Executive Vice President and General Manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, conducting the meeting.

Mr. Husbands had requested such a meeting due to the fact that he will deliver the principal address at the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce annual banquet on this same date.

Local Chamber of Commerce managers are requested to come prepared to present any problems their cities or counties might have.

Mr. Husbands has stated that the West Texas C. of C. is being reorganized with local assistance programs that will benefit all cities of West Texas.

Manager Wayne (Red) Smith stated that invitations to the conference will be mailed in the near future. However, the conference is open to all C of C managers or C of C representatives who wish to attend.

It is expected that approximately fifteen cities will be represented at the conference as this will be Mr. Husbands' first area meeting in this section.

Sheriff's Office Issues Warning

The sheriff's office has issued a warning to local merchants to beware of cashing checks made out to Harold L. Brown, drawn on an El Paso bank by the McKee construction company. Sheriff Ocie Murry and Deputy Cliff Jones said that the checks had been stolen by a person or persons driving an automobile carrying license HP 4405, and were probably made out in the amount of $177.05.

Officers also issued warnings on cashing checks signed by the names of Fred Martin, Thomas Martin, or Thomas H. Martin. Merchants having any persons attempting to pass checks similar to the above mentioned are requested to notify the sheriff's office immediately.

JUNIOR DEPUTIES MEET FEBRUARY 8

Sheriff Ocie Murry has announced that members of the Brownfield, Wellman, and Meadow Junior Deputy Sheriff's Posse will meet Thursday, February 8.

The Brownfield chapter will meet at 10 a. m., the Meadow posse will meet at 1:30 p. m., and the Wellman group will meet at 3 p. m., on that date.

Murry said that plans for summer activities, including baseball teams will be set up and preliminary plans for a trip to be made by the group this spring will be discussed.

Carr Doing Well As Freshman Lawmaker

Had a personal letter from Representative Waggoner Carr, of this, the 119th Representative District, and reported things moving fast down at Austin. The people of Texas are glad to note this, as the previous legislature stalled for a month before it ever got to work, then upped and spent every penny that had been saved through the war years, and all it could get its hands on besides.

But Carr says that instead of trying to see how much they can spend, the new legislature is inclined to economize at every turn possible; get the work done and go home. For a freshman member, Waggoner has been appointed on several committees, some of them very important, such as:

"Congressional and Legislative districts; Conservation and Reclamation; Criminal and Jurisprudence; Privileges, Suffrage and Elections, Local and Uncontested Bills." As we understand, the first named will handle the highly controversial redistricting bills. And by the way, instead of one representative for the whole South Plains, Lubbock county will likely get two, and the rest of the South Plains two or three.

This portion of the district may have one composed of Lynn, Terry, Yoakum, Gaines and Andrews counties. It will look sorter like a tri-square, but we will have our proportionate representation. The idea is to get around 42,000 in each district, according to the 1950 population.

Fred Bucy Is Trying To Feed The Hungry

Fred Bucy and the Old. He have just a bit in common. Both at one time resided in old Johnson county, but they ran us out of there pretty early in life. Fred hung on years later. In fact, he may not have been around when we left there in 1906. But it was in that section that Fred first got the love of raising good livestock, especially beef cattle. We got printers ink in our blood in Tennessee when a boy and fell from grace on the farm proposition.

After coming to Terry a number of years ago, he first bought considerable holdings in the Johnson community, where he still does most of his breeding, as well as extensive farming. In the past few years he bought a large farm 7 miles out on the Levelland highway, where he does extensive feeding as well as breeding. His main forte is the Aberdeen-Angus cattle, but in the feeding operation he has both A-A's, Herefords, or crosses. All in good shape, and he sells as fast as they reach a prime stage.

Went out with Fred one day last week in his pickup. He resides in town, but has two houses out there, and a couple of Latin's to handle the farming. He has an excellent place, good mixed land. The improvements are in a low place, that could with heavy rains, form a kind of lake. It is his intention to soon break out all his low lands, and plant in the favorite pasture grasses and irrigate it.

An Old Timer Called On Us Tuesday

Our old friend, W. E. Stone, called Tuesday on a little business, and we drifted into conversation. W. E., as well as others, may claim to be really one of the old timers, having come here 31 years ago from the Childress section. Mr. Stone is still grief stricken over the loss of his life companion, which happened only a few weeks ago.

He informed us that as soon as the weather is warmer, he aimed to visit some sisters and other relatives in the west and just rest and visit and maybe fish some. He lives near his son, Marjion and family, and does not in the least mind batching, as he had four years of it when a young man. But the Old He had him skinned one year, as we put in five, in Johnson and Jones counties.

By the way, W. E. mentioned that he has had tuberculosis at least 31 years, now probably an arrested case. After examination by his doctor at Childress, about 1919, he went to Carlsbad State Hospital near San Angelo. They verified and recommended that he take treatment there for at least six months.

But instead, he returned home, decided he didn't have time to bed up, rolled out for Terry, and the late J. F. Winston sold him the place he is on. "And," he concluded, "I feel that I have several more years of usefulness before I shuffle off." He is now 78.

The conversation then drifted to a lot of people we knew as children or young men, who took the disease and soon passed on. Sometimes it wiped out whole families. Trouble is, people then just didn't know how to handle TB, or how to take care of themselves.

'51 MARCH OF DIMES FALLS SHORT OF GOAL

Milton Bell, chairman of the Terry and Yoakum county March of Dimes fund drive, said this week that, although the returns are not yet complete, the quota of more than $7,000 which was set for the two counties will probably fall short of the goal.

As the Herald goes to press, only about $3,000 has been accounted for in Terry county, with no returns in from Yoakum county as yet, Bell said.

A complete list and total for the drive will be given in next week's issue of the Herald.

Green Hut Grill Open For Business

The Green Hut Grill, located at 502 Seagraves Road, is open for business, according to Glen Hardin, manager.

Carrying out a green color scheme that ranges from pale green through chartreuse to a dark green, the new grill will specialize in short orders, Hardin said. The 60x25 foot tile building will accommodate 54 persons easily. There are 10 booths, as well as Counter stools, and all the equipment, including a central heating and cooling system, is the most modern. The grill will specialize in fine foods, with one of the specialties being chicken-in-a-box to take out.

Hardin, who has been associated with a cafe in Lamesa, prior to moving to Brownfield, has had years of experience in restaurants. He is married and has one son.

An advertisement in this issue of the Herald invites the public to visit the Green Hut Grill.

FURR'S WILL CLOSE TEMPORARY QUARTERS

Furr Food Store, located at the corner of Lubbock highway and Broadway street, temporarily, will close Saturday, February 3, according to Ralph (Bud) Harding, manager.

Formal opening of the new Furr Food Store at the corner of West Cardwell and S. Fifth streets, will be held Thursday, February 8, Harding said.

The new store is being completed after a fire destroyed the building in December. Just a few weeks after its construction.

CPL. MILLER WRITES TO PARENTS REGARDING HIS ACTIVITIES IN KOREA

it, but I had just as soon get it over with now as to come back in a year or two. When I first got over here I wondered what I was fighting for, but now I know, for every time I see women and children leaving their homes going south I think, what if that was my mother, daddy, and brothers having to do that, and you will unless we stop it.

There are 23 million people in South Korea, you can imagine what it's like all of them trying to get to the same place at the same time.

Bill Christian is still with me. I don't know what I'd do without him.

We stopped last night and put up tents and we have stoves in them. It sure is nice. We never stop for more than two or three days.

Tell Connie maybe it won't be so terribly long until she can hear Uncle Dale splashing in the bathtub as she thought, I hope. Tell her hello. I'll bet she is some gal now. I see kids about her age every day starving and freezing. I don't see how they live. A woman tried to give me a little baby girl the other day because it was freezing and she didn't have anything to keep it warm, but I couldn't take it.

I sent you a telegram the 22nd of December from Japan. Did you get it? They said you would get it Christmas morning.

Tell Alan I got his letter and I would write but I haven't time and for him to write again. I guess I would go flat nuts if it wasn't for mail.

The Air Force and Artillery are sure doing a good job over here.

The other day there were a few guerrillas in a hill close to us, and we called in the Air Corps and a few minutes they liked to have blown that hill to pieces.

I guess I had better close and get a good night's sleep while we have this tent.

Bye now and write,

Love, Dale.

Blizzard Gets Here 'Round About Way

A highly touted ringtailed blizzard began to be announced in the news columns along about Friday as headed this way, out of the coldest part of the world. Radios took up the hue and cry. But despite the headlines in the area dailies on Sunday morning, most of us could not tell that it was much colder than common.

Driest 4 Months In History Recorded

Hugh Porterfield, superintendent of the Experimental station west of Brownfield, reports this week that the past four months period, from October 1, 1950, to February 1, 1951, is the driest in the history of Terry County.

The total rainfall for the four month period is .24 inches. On October 1, .15 were recorded; on October 2, .04 inches were recorded; and on January 2, .05 inches were recorded.

This is the driest period, Porterfield said, since a six month period from October 25, 1950, until May 10, 1950, when only .63 inches were recorded for the county. In 1949, from November until December, only .29 inches were recorded.

The .24 recorded for this period is about 18 percent of the normal moisture, which is 4.25 inches, Porterfield said.

Last year's total rainfall, as recorded at the experiment station, was 18.03 inches.

National Bank Is Being Remodeled

Remodeling is underway at the First National Bank, located at the corner of Main and Fifth streets, and should be completed within 30 days, according to Dick McDuffie, president of the bank.

Haynes and Soash Construction Company of Lubbock are contractors for the project. McDuffie said that the front of the bank will not be changed, and the new addition will not have an entrance of its own.

The 25x75 foot building, formerly housing McKinney's Insurance Agency and Lowe's Studio, is being taken into their original bank building and will have three open offices, two tellers windows, and two portable tellers windows. The bookkeeping department will be in the back of this building, McDuffie said.

Vynheid Clinic In All County Schools

Clinics for typhoid vaccine are now being organized in all Terry County schools by the South Plains Health Unit. The first clinic was held in the Wellman school, Wednesday, January 24, where 130 school children and teachers were given the vaccine.

Typhoid immunization is given in a series of three doses for those who have not had them previously. For those who have had them within the past year, only a booster or just one dose is given as a re-inforcing dose.

There is probably a greater need than usual for these immunizations, because more cases of typhoid have been reported than for any previous date in the past several years. In the Texas Morbidity report for the week ending January 13, six cases were reported for one week; seventeen cases were reported for three weeks in one county. This is mid-winter too, making one aware of the need for immunization against typhoid for the year around. A significant thing is, that all but a few of the cases reported are among children.

We like to note here that the vaccine has been accepted and reactions are much less severe than previously noted.

His Favorite Breed Of Cattle

Speaking of Fred's favorite breed of cattle, we remember that when Angus were first introduced into this section on ranches some 35 or 40 years ago, they were just black polled (hornless) or as some called them, polled Angus. But more recently these Scottish bred cattle are termed Aberdeen-Angus. People used to think they were a kind of wild breed, and most stayed with the Herefords. But Fred says when in the feed lots they are as gentle as other cattle, and easy to handle.

Fred went down to the ranch section just north of Fort Worth recently and bought 2 male and several A-A females, highly bred and registered. In fact, they are real aristocrats of the Angus fraternity. From these, he will get his thoroughbred as well as good grade stuff through breeding.

Of course Fred has the usual bunch of porkers on hand to clean up the waste, and make bacon and hams. He also has thousands of dollars worth of farm machinery, and he says one of the first steps to be taken is a shed for these costly farming implements. It is now taking all kinds of weather as it comes.

The two tenants were harvesting the cotton leavings with a combine when we reached the farm, but they were not getting as many bolls as Fred expected, and an examination revealed that some of the "fingers" on each side, a 2-row affair, were broken off. He brought them to town to repair or replace.

Cotton is too high to leave any in the fields. He wants to show us his Johnson community farm some day.

Cnl. Riley Promoted To Sergeant

WITH THE 7TH DIVISION ON THE FIGHTING FRONT — Corporal R. J. Riley, son of Mrs. Edith L. Riley, 213 North 4th Street, Brownfield, Texas, recently received a combat promotion to Sergeant for his "excellent performance of duty in ground combat against the armed enemy in Korea."

Riley's unit made two amphibious landings and they were the only United States troops to reach the Manchurian border. Later they took part in the successful evacuation of the Hungnam beachhead, the largest water evacuation in American military history.

Mrs. N. T. Dalton of Littlefield, Mrs. Husted Ruff of Albany, and Mrs. O. G. Cheek of Hobbs, N. M., were visitors in the Ed Ballard home over the week end.

But from then on we could. The tooter seemed to have swerved off the Panhandle down through Whiskeytown Falls and on toward central and north Texas. But sometime Sunday, Gen. Weatherman yelled right face, and here the thing came toward the South Plains like a roaring lion. It was hard for us thin blooded to keep warm even indoors, and the minute we stepped out, we could tell whether or not our long handles were faced up front and rear. We are ready for the thaw.

While the radios were yowling about rain, snow and sleet and slick roads down east, Monday night, it was just cold out here—not a drop of moisture. We are still looking for an 8 or 10 inch wet snow, sans wind, or an inch of rain falling slowly for about 24 hours.

A liberal reward will be paid by Terry county and area for above, delivered, right away.

Driest 4 Months In History Recorded

Hugh Porterfield, superintendent of the Experimental station west of Brownfield, reports this week that the past four months period, from October 1, 1950, to February 1, 1951, is the driest in the history of Terry County.

The total rainfall for the four month period is .24 inches. On October 1, .15 were recorded; on October 2, .04 inches were recorded; and on January 2, .05 inches were recorded.

This is the driest period, Porterfield said, since a six month period from October 25, 1950, until May 10, 1950, when only .63 inches were recorded for the county. In 1949, from November until December, only .29 inches were recorded.

The .24 recorded for this period is about 18 percent of the normal moisture, which is 4.25 inches, Porterfield said.

Last year's total rainfall, as recorded at the experiment station, was 18.03 inches.

Melvin Carroll visited Wayne and Billy Bagwell Sunday.

Blizzard Gets Here 'Round About Way

A highly touted ringtailed blizzard began to be announced in the news columns along about Friday as headed this way, out of the coldest part of the world. Radios took up the hue and cry. But despite the headlines in the area dailies on Sunday morning, most of us could not tell that it was much colder than common.

But from then on we could. The tooter seemed to have swerved off the Panhandle down through Whiskeytown Falls and on toward central and north Texas. But sometime Sunday, Gen. Weatherman yelled right face, and here the thing came toward the South Plains like a roaring lion. Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

Had a letter this week from Davis & Humphries, Inc., of Lubbock, owners of the Piggly Wiggly and D & H stores of this section on the fine response of the people to the opening of their new store here. They are well pleased by the warm-hearted and generous greeting their fine store and organization had at their opening in their modern building.

Since the government got to taking all the people earn except a little pot licker, people are beginning to cease to brag about how much they have or what a pile of dough they made last year. Such has had a leveling off effect. Could get to where people will have little ambition to try to make much.

And speaking of ambition, doesn't publisher Amon Carter of the S-T get his mug in that paper a lot? Sorter reminds us of the self-mugging of some officials connected with some of our press associations.

An Arkansas sheriff of the Ozark section, and a town marshal combined its local barber in a small village recently got tied up with four California gunmen. Now this Ozarkian couple had no doubt hunted squirrels with rock when ammunition was scarce, and have excellent throwing arms. Anyway, the Californians came out second best and are in jail at Dallas.

The gunmen are wanted for shooting two Dallas traffic cops, one fatally, perhaps, and the other seriously. Plenty Arkansas (parson; Arkansas) rocks and a good throwing arm fazed the gents from the west coast.

We should be a very lucky guy from this period on. Thursday last a mag sent us a "penny for our thoughts." Then the very next day we got a horseshoe watch charm with the words "good luck" on the reverse side.

You remember that the brides put a penny in their shoes when they march down the aisle to say "I do!" We have, however, often wondered about the exorcising gain caused by this little coin in case it worked over and under a coin.

And to carry the argument a bit further, we have seen guys coped with a pitched horseshoe when the kite was watching the stake and not the aim of the pitch.

And that reminds us that we see very little horseshoe or dollar pitching these days. The latter are too scarce, and horseshoes, like the horse, are getting as scarce as the dodo birds. When we visited Tennessee back in the thirties, the men played marbles out under the shade of the sweet-gum. Now its croquet.

Col. Red Smith of C. of C. fame hereabouts took the trouble to send us a folder of the Brussels, Belgium International Trade Fair. It is to be held next year providing "good old Joe" and his gang has not marched in by then.

We thank Red exceedingly for the nice, well illustrated folder. But unless we change our mind—and we sometimes do—we'll stay on this side of the Atlantic. We are not even interested in scaling the Alps in Switzerland.

Isn't it strange how all at once someone will remember your name and address, although years have elapsed since you saw them? But they will call, wire or special deliver a letter to you requesting funds by 12 noon tomorrow.

Not long ago, such a guy approached us, that we'd last seen when the oil boom hit Hobbs, N. M., back in the early 30ties. At the time he needed ten bucks. We finally remembered him, but not too enthusiastically. He said nothing about borrowing more funds, or returning the other.

Most every week we have some salesmen call with a gadget that is calculated to make you rich in the next few weeks, anyway.

Then we wonder why the salesman is still a traveling salesman. That's the catch.

Sometimes it isn't the joke that tickles you most, but the fellow who tells it. Oh, it may not be too risqué, but maybe it is someone whom you least expect to tell a joke.

And that brings us down to the comic strips in the dailies. In practically all the westerns like Roy Rogers, Capt. Easy, Hopalong, et al, the local law usually sides with the outlaws. We have often wondered whether the cartoonist wished to prove that the local "law," generally speaking, is crooked or just plain dumb?

It seems that not a few are bothered about Gen. Ike Eisenhower's religious belief, if any or his lodge affiliations. We learn he is a protestant in religious matter, but it is not known whether he has any lodge affiliations. No one even seems to know just how Ike stands on his political affiliations.

Speaking of politics, Editor Hale over at Plains in old Yoakum is threatening his people with the possibility of a beer election if they don't pay their poll taxes. He intimates that some of the wets already have the location of a beer "jint" spotted.

Over here we don't have any beer agitators. They know it's useless. It is just a nice outing and drive through Plains to Bronco. And while we are on the subject of editors, if Editor Troy Morris doesn't learn to spell our name, we're going to skip up to Ropes some day when he's out of his shop and pi all his type.

The Dallas office of the FBI reports to the guy, Edgar Lee Leach, ex-convict and killer, has been apprehended up in Missouri. Mr. Hawkins, the special agent, thanked the press for publicity.

A boss is the bird that is late when you're early, and vice versa. Some wives have little respect for their fishing spouses. They now term a fishing rod a pole with a worm at each end.

FLU-PNEUMONIA IS PREVALENT IN TERRY

The State Health Department report on communicable diseases up to Jan. 13, was as follows:

Influenza 8 cases, Measles 6, pneumonia 8 and 3 cases of whooping cough. During the same period Yoakum county reported no cases.

Mrs. Alfred Tittle has been at Sweetwater the past week at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. F. M. Smith, who suffered a heart attack. Her condition was improved when Mrs. Tittle left Sunday night. Mrs. Smith is a former resident of this community.

KOREAN INGENUITY—Using his cart as a pack-board frame, this South Korean refugee lashed his belongings to the vehicle. A pair of improvised leather suspenders, attached to the cart, enabled him to wear it like a knapsack as he crossed a footbridge over the Han River during the last days of the Seoul evacuation.

Worker Killed In Collapse Of Rig

Clyde Spear, a resident of Brownfield for about four months, was fatally injured about midnight Sunday night in an oil field accident in the Bennett field of Yoakum county.

Spear was crushed when a rig on which he was working collapsed and pinned him underneath. He was brought to Brownfield by a Seagaves ambulance.

A Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance carried the body overland to Shamrock Tuesday for services and burial.

Spear is survived by his wife and two children, and his parents, who live in California.

Sally Ann and Tommy Dick Tucker of Lubbock spent the week end with their grandmother, Mrs. Emma Tucker.

Lyle Shelton is home between semesters from Texas Western at El Paso, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shelton.

Fascinating Fashions By Judy Seaton

At-home evening and leisure time wear can encompass a wide variety of clothes, and most women have definite ideas about which type they most prefer.

"An actress has to be dressed up so much of the time," says Rhoda Williams, who plays the role of "Betty" in CBS's "Father Knows Best," "that I think it's a wonderful feeling to go home and get into a comfortable shirt and slacks."

Rhoda feels that if one really wants to make slacks one's leisure-time outfit, three pairs are essential. "They can be very inexpensive," Rhoda explains, "but I find that if I have a pair of slacks or dungarees that are especially for doing around-the-house chores and painting jobs, another for hiking or donning for cold evenings around the house — and the third pair, for informal dress-up. I have the perfect slacks wardrobe for any sort of informal occasion."

Joan Alexander, of CBS's "Perry Mason," likes to ride horseback in her leisure time — and she feels she relaxes most when she's in her riding clothes. However, for at-home evenings, when she feels company may drop in, Joan likes best either a full-skirted hostess dress or — when she has no time to change from her studio outfit — a gay, voluminous party apron to tie on over her street dress.

Audrey Egan, pictured above, is a quick, energetic person, and her leisure-time clothes are chosen with an eye to giving their wearer freedom of movement. Audrey, who is in NBC's "When a Girl Marries," shares Joan's liking for party aprons — and has one gay, striped taffeta apron or "overskirt," that ties around her waist and falls all the way to the floor. "It seems to give me a magic sense of glamour."

Met Diva On Musical Comedy Time

Lovely Marguerite Piazza, famous Metropolitan opera soprano, will appear on NBC-TV's "Musical Comedy Time" in the first television production of Victor Herbert's lilttingly lively opera, "Mlle. Modiste." Marguerite has a special feeling for video, since it was her success in this medium which led to her Metropolitan contract.

Recruiting stations of the different armed services ask men of draft age to sign certificates that they have not received orders for pre-induction examination. Those who sign false certificates can be discharged for fraud and then inducted.

In one such case in federal court at Houston the induction of a registrant was upheld after the registrant was discharged for fraud in connection with signing a false certificate.

State Draft Boards Being Swamped

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 22. — State Headquarters for Selective Service and some local draft boards in Texas are being swamped with pleas of many young men of draft age to permit them to join the service of their choice after the induction process has begun.

"We are forbidden by law and regulation to permit enlistment in such cases," commented Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director.

"We have no authority to act favorably on such requests."

The state director said that Section 15 of the Selective Service law states that no person shall be accepted for enlistment after the induction process is once started.

"This prohibition against enlistment has been interpreted by the Department of Defense to mean that no person shall be accepted for enlistment after he has been notified to report for armed forces physical examination by a Selective Service local board," General Wakefield said.

Local draft boards were advised of this interpretation by official publication under date of November 15, 1948, and the official advice has been in force and effect since that time.

Before order to report for pre-induction physical examination is issued there is no prohibition of any kind against the enlistment of any man registered with a draft board.

"If the individual is acceptable to the service concerned, he can be enlisted before he gets his order for physical," General Wakefield said. "Under such circumstances, there is no need to consult the local draft board, as the permission of the board is not required."

If the man waits until the physical notice is mailed, then it is too late. The draft board cannot, because of the prohibition against it, release the man to join a service of his preference," the state director concluded.

Recruiting stations of the different armed services ask men of draft age to sign certificates that they have not received orders for pre-induction examination. Those who sign false certificates can be discharged for fraud and then inducted.

In one such case in federal court at Houston the induction of a registrant was upheld after the registrant was discharged for fraud in connection with signing a false certificate.

LILLIAN KALLIR, PIANIST, TO BE GUEST ARTIST HERE FEBRUARY 6

LILLIAN KALLIR

Lillian Kallir, pianist, who will appear here on Tuesday, February 6 at the new High School Auditorium, at 7:30 p. m., although still in her teens, has already made a name for herself in music.

A native of Prague, Lillian came to this country with her parents at the outbreak of the war and immediately resumed her general and musical education which had been interrupted by a year of wandering through the war-torn European countries.

Settling in New York, Lillian began to study with the late Herman De Grab, first privately and later under a scholarship at the Mannes Music School. Young Lillian worked hard, dividing her time between music and academic studies and subsequently en-

Members of the Helpers Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church were guests at a luncheon given January 25 in the home of Mrs. H. M. Morris at 507 N. A Street. Mrs. P. R. Cates was co-hostess.

Guests included Mesdames Lois Taylor, Ora Lee Drinnan, Pearl George, O. B. Garner, Ted Hardy, Virgil Burnett, M. R. Paddock, and the teacher, Mrs. A. W. Turner.

Gee Gee's Chit Chat

Comes yet the heart month, and a busy one it is, too. The national Heart campaign fund began February 1, sponsored here by the American Legion of which Dr. W. A. Roberson is commander. The drive will continue through February 18, so when you see the little collection boxes in local businesses, drop your contributions into the little red hearts to further "New Hope for Hearts in 1951"

February 1 is National Freedom Day, commemorating the signing of the 13 Amendment in 1865. February 2 as Ground Hog Day, Feb. 4-10 is National Peanut week, February 6-12 is National Boy Scout week, February 7 is Ash Wednesday. Other February highlights are World Day of Prayer February 9, Abraham Lincoln's birthday on the 12th, Washington's birthday on the 22nd. February 12-18 is Americanism Week, a 7-day anti-communist program, sponsored by the national Junior Chamber of Commerce; February 15-22 is National Cherry Week; Brotherhood week is February 18-24 and February 26-March 3 is Smile Week.

Next week will mark the re-opening of Furr Food Store at the corner of South Fifth and West Cardwell Streets. On February 14, which is also Valentine Day, as any foot would know, the big new Jones Theatre, the Regal will open at its location just off the square on South Fifth Street. Also opening this week end and next week, respectively, will be the new Norris Cleaners at 713 Lybbeck Road, and the Modern Steam Laundry at 905 Lybbeck Road.

Come Monday night, the 5th, the Delphin Study Club will present its talent show at the old high school auditorium. This show should serve up plenty of varied entertainment and I hope you will all plan to attend.

In mentioning the re-opening of the new Furr Food Store, I discovered a very interesting fact the other day while talking with the store manager, Bud Harding. As you know, Furr's, along with several other business firms here, give stamps with each purchase made. The stamps are glued into a book and when the books are filled with stamps, may be turned in for valuable gifts. The other day Bud told me that for only Lillian Kallir appeared in many solo recitals, in radio programs and with chamber music ensembles. She also made numerous appearances as soloist with orchestra, including the New York Philharmonic at the opening night of the Carnegie Pops, the Waterbury Symphony, the Little Falls Symphony and the Wheeling Symphony.

Possessing a personality equaling her great musical gifts, Lillian Kallir has won high praise and enthusiastic acclaim for her extraordinary talent and has a way of winning an audience which is nothing short of phenomenal.

The concert is sponsored by the Brownfield Concert Association. The next concert for members will be held at 7:30 p. m. Saturday February 24 in the high school auditorium, with Norman Farrow, pianist as guest artist.

Carbon Copies Are Twice as Nice

BY EDNA MILES

THERE'S nothing like a mother-daughter ensemble to make a little miss feel as grown-up and responsible as her mother.

The carbon copy creations can be purchased in both dressy and informal styles and help to instill in the small set a real appreciation of clothes and their care.

Many mothers wisely make washing, ironing and mending a joint chore and this is, of course, much more fun when both costumes are identical.

An example of the pert sets now available may be seen at left in the floral printed percale fashioned in Florida. Both dresses feature a dainty bodice ruffle and crisp pocketed organza apron.

For lounging, the cotton housecoats at right ring the bell twice. The ladylike robes are done in a brilliant floral print on a dark ground, bound and buttoned in contrasting color. Full, flustering skirts finish the luxurious quilted robes.

If a number of big-small sets are kept on hand, your daughter may be encouraged to cultivate taste in choosing a costume for the day.

In any case it is certain that when mother and daughter travel together in identical costumes, they will win approving double-takes wherever they go.

River Compact Bill May Be Held Up

A bill to ratify the Canadian River Interstate Compact has been introduced in the Senate by Senators Grady Hazelwood of Amarillo and Kilmer B. Corbin of Lubbock and Lamesa.

Designated Senate Bill 50, the measure would give State approval to the compact signed last year by representatives of Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma to divide the waters of the Canadian River.

One hitch to approval of the bill is the necessity for including in it an appropriation of $1,000 for the administration of the compact, Corbin pointed out. In that connection, he cited his vote against a change in legislative rules to prevent consideration of special appropriation measures, pointing out that nevertheless the rule was adopted 28-2.

The rule change prohibits consideration of any appropriation bills except the major money bills for state departments, education, institutions and the judiciary for 75 days of the session.

"Even then, the rule can be interpreted to mean that no other money legislation can be passed until the 'big four' are passed," Corbin declared. "That means that, unless we get special dispensation we're going to have a difficult time winning passage of the Canadian River Compact bill."

Corbin On State Affairs Committee

AUSTIN — Sen. Kilmer B. Corbin of Lubbock and Lamesa, has been named to the powerful State Affairs Committee in the Senate for the current regular session of the Legislature, it has been announced in Austin.

As a member of that committee, Corbin will work closely on any and all tax bills coming to the Senate for consideration. Since revenue-raising measures must originate in the lower house, the State Affairs Committee will consider only such tax bills as the House may pass.

In addition to tax measures, many other important bills will clear through the State Affairs Committee, considered one of the two most important committees in the Senate, the other being the Finance Committee.

Corbin also was appointed by Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey to the Committees on Aeronautics; Insurance; Internal Improvements; Public Debt; Claims and Accounts; Public Health; Public Printing; State Affairs; and Public Buildings and Grounds.

In addition, he was named chairman of both the Internal Improvements and Public Buildings and Grounds Committees. As a member of the Texas Insurance Committee, Corbin will help work out the revision of the Texas insurance code on which an interim legislative committee is to report during the session.

G. I. QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q—My husband, a World War I veteran, is drawing a VA pension for non-service-connected total disability. He has a yearly income of $2,000, while I have a personal income of around $600. When he reports his annual income to VA, does he include my $600 along with his, or does he just mention my own money?

A—He reports only his own income to VA. Your income has no bearing on his rights.

Q—A friend of mine served in World War II and received an honorable discharge. After the war, he re-enlisted and was later dishonorably discharged. Will he be entitled to GI Bill benefits?

A—YES, on the basis of the military service for which he obtained an honorable discharge.

Q—I have just been discharged from service, and I want to keep my National Service Life Insurance in good shape. I would like some tips on the best way to handle my premium payments.

A—The safest way to pay your premiums is by money order or check. Do not send cash through the mail. Also, be sure to use the printed return envelope VA sends you regularly; then you'll know your premium won't be misdirected. Most important of all, pay your premiums on time.

Mouthings Of A Socialist Are Aired

Just recently a "peafessor" of a college up in the Hoosier State came out with this load of fertilizer: "A man who isn't a Socialist at 20 has no heart. If he isn't a Socialist at 30, he has no brain."

Dr. George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D., who conducts a daily questionnaire in some dailies, the Dallas News one of them, hit upon the professor's idea in the Crane test, which he calls "Test Your Horse Sense." Here they are, and suppose you try them, scoring yourself one point on each question. Mark them "T" for "True" and "F" for "False":

T F (a) There are more college students in the United States than all the rest of the world combined.

T F (b) Socialist England has been lending billions of dollars to the United States since 1945.

T F (c) In Socialist England there is one automobile for every 22 people.

T F (d) In Communist Russia there is one automobile for every 252 people.

T F (e) in the United States there is one auto for every 4 people.

Now don't bother to send your replies to the Herald, Brother. Just work it out and see how much brains you think the Indiana professor has. We will say however that Dr. Crane says the first, third, fourth and fifth questions are true. No. 2 or (b) is the reverse. We have been lending Socialist England billions of dollars since 1945. Or shall we say giving it to them.

OOPS! SORRY . . .

Q—I obtained a GI home loan, and authorized the lender to apply VA's four percent gratuity toward reducing the principal of the loan. Now I find myself unable to meet my payments. May the lender reapply the gratuity toward the payments I can't meet, and thus prevent a possible foreclosure?

A—Yes. It is legally proper to reapply gratuity initially credited toward the principal, if it's for the purpose of preventing or curing a default.

The White race is learning the Red China's soldiers aren't yellow in combat. And hoping that they'll soon be black and blue.

Branding the Reds as the aggressors in Korea is like calling a steam shovel a spade.

We have just been through a campaign, the March of Dimes, to raise funds to fight polio. We hope that Terry and Yoakum raised their quota and more. But polio is at its worst epidemic years is a mild killer compared to heart disease. Statistics for 1948, the last year available, show that heart disease killed 637,000 Americans, or 44 percent of all the deaths that year. And the figures were just a few thousand short of all Americans killed in wars from the Civil war to now. Heart disease of children usually comes in the form of rheumatic fever. But that year it killed five times as many children as polio. But we have had heart disease with us for so long that we refuse to become alarmed. Hertz's rub, however, Polio is the costliest disease known to treat, and for that reason great sums must be raised to fight a comparatively few cases. We are also learning more about heart disease since some effort has been put forth to fight it. We used to think that worry was a great pal of heart disease, but medical science now says it is not, unless you really have the disease. But overweight is a bad factor when the disease is present. And blood pressure should be about the same whether you are 30 or 50. It should, however, remain about normal and should not greatly increase with physical activities. Heart disease can be controlled by treatment or surgery. Other types can be controlled by reducing strains on the heart. But the best plan is to see your doctor if you suspect you have heart disease. In fact, if you are 50 years of age or older, better have a checkup by your doctor at least twice a year.

In 1949, the United States produced 54 percent of the world's crude oil amounting to over one billion eight hundred million barrels. This gives the US a military asset of the very highest magnitude, and its presence or lack of it, can mean victory or defeat. We, the people of this country, had nothing to do with oil being here. It was no happy accident. We have been greatly blessed with natural resources. So has Russia, to mention one, but Russia has not had free, unhindered private enterprise to investigate and utilize its resources. It had to take the slower process of waiting for the bosses to decide what to do. Oil development in the USA is less than a century old but today there are 450,000 wells scattered over 26 of the 48 states, and a new oil well is brought in every 23 minutes. Only free people working in a free, intensely competitive economy could account for this great achievement. In the totalitarian states where the government is the master, and the individual a voiceless slave, they have nothing to offer in comparison.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove
Old sayings and maxims, they intrigue me—they are meat in the literary coconut. The old ones, "there is a time for everything" and let "bygones be bygones," I hook them up with our modern trend in Govt. Based on these 2 texts I will proceed with my learned deductions and sermon.

Europe is in bad shape—most of Europe is Socialist from the R.R. depot to the phone booth to the power station to the hospital. The Govt. finger is in every pie—has been for years. It has been a good test for Socialism. Europe has gone backward—not forward.

Our USA has been tinkering with theory. Continuing same and such will lead us in time to take to the same uncomfortable and hard-type bed as is Europe's. So here is where "a time for everything" comes in. I propose it is time to write-off our losses. Sell all the TVA's and projects of every type and color to the highest bidder—wash our hands of Europe-type Govt.—stop further losses. Get out of Socialism before we are completely swamped. Let bygones be water over the dam—split milk—a dead horse. We have it in us to do these things. Taking the bull by the horns is our job—now—not manana or pretty soon. Amen.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

In Education • 1876-1951
Our first state college—Texas A. and M. is now in its seventy-fifth year

Organized in 1887 as an honor company and crack drill unit, the Ross Volunteer company at the A. and M. College of Texas is the oldest student organization in the state. The first company was called the "Scott Volunteers" in honor of the popular Col. T. M. Scott, then business manager of the college. In 1890, when the illustrious Lawrence Sullivan Ross, Confederate General and former Governor, became president of the college, the name was changed to honor him, and the group became permanently established as the honor company of the college. Through the years the Ross Volunteers have held to high standards of character, scholarship and military precision. In addition to their spectacular precision drills, they have served as honor guards for distinguished visitors to the campus and have participated in many state ceremonies as an honor guard to the Governor. Ross Volunteers, in their white dress uniforms, are shown here grouped around the statue of their patron, Sul Ross, which is a campus shrine at the Texas school.

Texans In Washington
By Tex Easley
AP Special Washinton Service
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Olin Teague of Texas says the special house committee he heads has only scratched the surface in its inquiry into the 11-billion dollar GI Education program. The house last year authorized an investigation of the education and training program for World War II veterans.

Teague says the committee has just started on the stacks of complaints from all parts of the country. It has nine members and seven staff employees.

"By and large the GI training program is a wonderful thing," Teague said, "but there are too many instances in which unscrupulous and dishonest individuals have worked their angles under it at the expense of the government."

The purpose of the committee study, he said, is primarily to discover the weak spots and to make recommendations which will avoid similar mistakes when a program is enacted for veterans of the Korean War.

At present the over-all GI education benefits are extended only to those who served in the armed forces between September 16, 1940 and July 26, 1947, or who volunteered for service between Oct. 6, 1945 and Oct. 6, 1946.

There is little doubt but what Congress will extend similar benefits to the Korean war veterans. As it is now, only those Korean war vets with disabilities qualify, and solely for vocational rehabilitation.

Teague is a World War II army combat veteran of European fighting. Wounded half dozen times and holder of 11 medals, including three silver stars and the French Croix De Guerre, the former colonel is married and has two sons and a daughter.

The Turquoise Room is for private cocktail and dinner parties. Features of the room are the turquoise, silver and gold decorative treatment, consisting of golden tint plate mirrors, gold colored draperies, turquoise carpeting and art deco type sliding doors.

Utley stated that he had tried to get Chiang to reveal all these offers for the American public consumption, who were left in the dark about the whole mess. But he refused to betray his supposed western friends. After all these revelations, it looks like our state department and the brass hats in the Pentagon will have to concede some and forget General Mao and his brigades, and ask aid of Chiang. The idea of trying to appease Commies, either white or yellow, has led our nation into a sorry mess. Such men as Gen. Chienault, who fought the Japs along with Chiang, have never agreed with the state department plan of dumping the Chinese Nationalist government. And such men have been hushed by their powers at Washington for their outspoken ideas. Not many private people believe that dumping Chiang was the idea of Gen. MacArthur, but rather that of General Marshall. When this whole episode is written into the history of our nation, it is not going to read very good, and some of those in the higher brackets may be devotedly ashamed of the part they played in betraying one of the oldest nations on earth.

It is fast developing in this nation of our that the medical profession, and the folks that some editors like to refer to as the "special privileged" group, who ever they are, are not the only folks that are watching closely to try to prevent our nation from jumping into socialism over their heads. Only recently, one of the shrewdest statements made before the house of delegates of the AMA, was made by William L. Hutcheson, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, as well as vice-president of the AFL. We quote: "When the government has the authority to tell one group or profession where and how its members are to work, no other group or profession can be safe long. When the day comes to America when Uncle Sam usurps the power to dictate to doctors under the health plan, it will be a sad day for the carpenters if it is logical to nationalize the medical profession to get more medical service for the poor, it is equally logical to nationalize the home construction to get roofs over the heads of the lower income groups. Carpenters want to be free agents; free to work where they want to; free to negotiate the terms of their wages and working conditions through collective bargaining; yes, even free to leave the industry and try their luck at something else if the spirit moves them. They will retain their freedoms only so long as other groups retain theirs." Yes, sir, Bo, we are all in the same boat when it comes to socialism. When you start with one industry or profession all others are in danger. One group is just a starting point.

After quite a siege of pneumonia, Bill Williams was carried home from the hospital Monday.

Sermons For The Deaf

Baylor University Senior Carter Bearden, 22, demonstrates the sign language he uses in preaching to the deaf. He works full time during the summers and on weekends during the school year to carry on ministry among the deaf in Texas. Bearden is one of two ministers employed by the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board. He became deaf at the age of three, but follows regular class work at Baylor by lip reading and the study of carbon notes made by his classmates.

Luncheon Scoops

by Wendy Warren

50 Winner, Yvonne Findling
Paris, Copenhagen, Oslo, Stockholm... Those are magic names to every stay-at-home, and Glamour Magazine is about to launch its annual contest for 1951 that will result in some lucky and style-conscious lass travelling to all those far-away places — and in a brand new wardrobe!

The contest is called Ten Girls With Taste, and the prize winner for 1950, Yvonne Findling, has provided me with one of my liveliest luncheon interviews. As a fellow career woman, I was very interested in hearing Yvonne's impressions of her trip — and especially in her prize-winning ideas about a working girl's wardrobe — which had originally won her the trip.
I came away from lunch with one impression in particular... Listening to Yvonne, and knowing my own experiences and those of many of my friends with the career woman's most urgent problem — wardrobe, it occurred to me that to learn how to "look like a million dollars on a beer budget," was actually a lot more fun than doing it on a real million dollar budget!

SS Board Clarifies Draft Regulations

AUSTIN, Jan. 25.—There has been no change in Selective Service regulations regarding college student enlistment, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state selective service director, emphasized today.
General Wakefield quoted the following telegram he received from Major General Lewis B. Hershey, national director of the Selective Service System.
"College student enlistment is a matter of discussion in Department of Defense. You will be promptly notified if any change is made in Selective Service procedure."

College students, the state director pointed out, are prohibited from enlisting in the service of their choice under existing regulations after order to report for pre-inducting physical examination is mailed.
"This applies to any registrant, as well as college students," General Wakefield commented. "The authority is set forth in Local Board Memorandum No. 11, issued by national headquarters in November, 1948."

The state director added that no official change in this authority has ever been received.
General Wakefield said that, under existing regulations, any registrant, including college students, "may volunteer for immediate induction through the local board at any time."

He pointed out that all registrants inducted go into the army, as other services, including the air force and navy, have not as yet requested manpower through the Selective Service System.

FOUR MEN FINED ON BOOTLEGGING COUNTS

Four local men pled guilty and were assessed heavy fines on "bootlegging" counts by the sheriff's office over the week end.
One of the men was charged with illegally possessing 19 cases of beer, 26 pints and 7 half pints of whiskey; one was charged with illegal possession of 13 pints of whiskey; and the other two were charged with illegal sale of liquor.
Sheriff Ocie Murry said that his office was "cracking down" on bootleggers in the city and county, and that heavy fines will be assessed for violation of the laws.

Services Held For Mrs. Mary Johnson

Services were held in the First Baptist Church here, with Rev. Fed Stumpp, minister of the church, officiating. Burial was in Terry County Memorial Cemetery, under the direction of the Brownfield Funeral Home.
Mrs. Johnson had been a resident of Brownfield since 1924. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. V. O. Jobe and Mrs. T. M. Barton, both of Brownfield; two sons, J. C. of Brownfield and W. R. Johnson of Vernon; and several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dugger over the week end were her sisters, Mrs. Aaron House, and Mrs. Norris Bailey, and their husbands, from Stamford.
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sutton, Tony and Mike, of San Angelo, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Helms.

Mrs. Dave Finney left Monday morning for Ontario, Calif., to be with her mother, Mrs. Robertson, who is seriously ill.

Texas Venture
In Education • 1876-1951
Our first state college—Texas A. and M. is now in its seventy-fifth year

Less than a generation ago grain sorghum was a tall spindling chicken-feed crop, grown on a few Texas farms. Today it is the state's second money crop, valued at $165,000,000 a year. A $24,000,000 plant for processing this one crop has been built at Corpus Christi. This amazing development is the result of research by plant scientists of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station of the A. and M. System, under the leadership of R. E. (Bob) Karper, A. and M. agronomist at Lubbock.
By juggling the genes within the grain sorghum seed, Karper and others have been able to pull it down to a thrifty low-growing plant with big heads at uniform height throughout the field. This made it possible to harvest the grain mechanically, completely revolutionizing the agriculture of the Texas plains area. The present day combine-type grain sorghum is being further developed for a variety of uses and is increasing rapidly in value to Texas farmers, as a result of the work of this Pennsylvania farm boy who has been engaged in agricultural research on the Texas plains since 1915.

VALENTINE — FAMILY STYLE

Hearts and flowers, candy and lace. Such is Valentine's Day made of. And all because long ago, St. Valentine became the patron Saint of Lovers.
Why not say "I Love You" to the whole family with a sugar-coated Valentine Cake? It will show them that you are in the spirit of things, and will give a party air to dinner. Winifred S. Carter, who directs the Household Information Service for Procter & Gamble, has a recipe for such a cake, which she offers here. If you want to carry the Valentine theme further, she suggests you place a lace paper doily under the cake, and make small coronets of heart-shaped jelly candies to put at each place setting. Here's the recipe:
SUGAR-COATED VALENTINE CAKE
Measure into mixing bowl:
2½ cups sifted cake flour
1½ cups sugar
½ cup Crisco

Welcome to 8 New Comers Past Week

According to our source of information, at least eight new people came to Brownfield week ending Jan. 20th. Just how many of these had a wife or families we would have no way of knowing except to personally interview. Some at least were giving resident addresses.

Nor is there any way to check whether or not this was all the new people. Possibly several others came and their names were not reported. But here's the list: Mrs. Martha Walser, from Childress; J. L. Dishman, Lamesa; Arthur Laughry, Dumas; Van J. Carpenter, Floresville; John E. Ashton, Odessa; Henry J. Forbes, California; L. W. Wilson, Duncan, Okla.; and B. J. Allen, Oklahoma.

Six moved away and we note that the forwarding address of one of the number is wanted. Maybe he left some cold or hot checks. The new address of seven others are also wanted.

Week ending the 27th of January, the following were known to have come to Brownfield to make it home, temporarily or permanently. Whether they had families, we are not prepared to say. Nor have we any way knowing how many others came of which we have no record:

Troy E. Hudson, from Winters; Geo. H. Sherrill, no former address; J. T. Moore, Olton; Jack Lane, Lubbock; and Van J. Carpenter of Floresville. Four removed to other towns.

J. L. Langford was in from the Challis community last week to get his Herald and Avalanche up another notch. We got to quizzing J. L., and he allowed as how they would have an almost perfect community out there if it

Local Boy Assigned To 40th Infantry

CAMP COOKE, Calif. — Pvt. James W. Parrish, 21, who was drafted recently from Brownfield, Texas, today was assigned to Southern California's 40th Infantry Division.

He is one of the thousands of draftees, volunteers, and reservists from all parts of the country sent here to fill the ranks of the 40th.

A former National Guard organization commanded by Maj. Gen. Daniel H. Hudelson of Los Angeles, the 40th was recalled to active duty last September.

Before he was inducted into the Army, Private Parrish lived on Route 1 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira T. Parrish. He was employed as a cable splicer and was assigned to the 40th Signal Company, a unit of the 40th division.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fleming were in Dallas earlier this week on business and visiting their daughter and her family.

TEXAS JUNIOR VEGETABLE GROWERS WIN FOUR AWARDS IN NATIONAL COMPETITION

TEXAS junior vegetable growers were named winners of two sectional and two state awards in the 1950 production-marketing contest of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association at the NJVGA concluded its sixteenth annual four-day convention at New Orleans, La., today.

Sectional honors went to Lawanda Vinson, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Vinson, Tuscola, and Max Thomason, 17, son of Mr. J. W. Thomason, Jacksonville.

Each received a $100 prize from the $5,000 scholarship fund provided each year by A & P Food Stores to encourage better production and marketing of vegetables by farm youth.

State-wide honors went to Syble J. Wall, Chireno, and Mildred Gregson, Amherst.

Also announced by John Hutchinson, Department of Horticulture, Texas A & M College, and state NJVGA leader, was the awarding of the national championship and the top $500 scholarship to James L. McRee, 19-year-old grower of Philippi, West Virginia.

Twelve-year-old Lawanda, one of the two sectional winners, grew seventeen varieties of vegetables on her 150 by 100 yard plot at Tuscola. She picked all of her vegetables by hand early in the morning, and hoed her own potatoes just at the time when pressing would loosen the soil.

She decided on a garden so she could have fresh vegetables all through the year and sold those that weren't used by the family. She grew her own tomato and pepper plants in seed boxes. Lack of rain made her job harder and required much hoeing for this slim Texas girl. Besides the 144 hours she managed to put into her gardening and canning, she also found time for school, basketball, volleyball, and baseball.

Max Thomason, the other sectional winner, farmed two acres at an average return to his of better than $9.00 an hour profit. He concentrated on tomatoes, sweet potatoes, and the former just nosed out the latter as a profit-maker. Believing that the way to make a success of farming is to have a high quality crop to sell, he sold his tomatoes and potatoes at the top market prices, realizing a profit of close to $500.

He took advantage of favorable market conditions and made contacts with several potential buyers so he would not be confined to one outlet. He paid special attention to hours of grading to reduce marketing costs and used containers that were most in favor in the markets taking his crops.

He says he is following in his father's footsteps by making tomatoes and sweet potatoes his main market crops.

Mildred Gregson, a state award winner, is another of the real young group of farmettes who are doing a fine, workmanlike job. She concentrated on watermelons, corn and peas and used just two-fifths of an acre of her father's 177-acre farm.

She paid special attention to insect control to get fine-looking fruit, but she didn't market any of her crops this year. Dry weather, she says, delayed crop maturing.

Syble J. Wall had a most ambitious program of growing nineteen varieties of vegetables and spent 353 hours' time in her garden. She canned 956 quarts of food and sold some of it to markets and friends. She furnished vegetable for a family of nine, was also able to give some to neighbors.

She showed ingenuity by developing a grocery store market for her crops after she learned the grocer had no other set source of supply. This wide-awake marketing brought her return of more than $500.

New Traffic Light Installed On Hiway

The state highway department last week installed a three phase traffic light at the intersection of the Lubbock and Taboka highways, relieving a traffic bottleneck that has increased daily with the growth of Brownfield's population.

Mayor C. C. Primm said that the light had been requested numerous times, but highway officials did not feel that the light at that point was justified. However, Primm said a recent check showed that an average of 1375 cars went through the intersection per hour.

The two other traffic lights on the Lubbock highway, located at the corner of the highway and Main and Broadway streets, will also be made into three phase lights, Primm said, in an effort to cut down on minor traffic mishaps.

Long-term Investment that pays daily dividends

THESE are days when thoughtful people turn their minds to the durability of things they purchase—and that makes good sense at any time.

But you may have noticed that it's a rare occasion when doing your duty turns out to be the best way to satisfy your heart's desire.

That's what's so marvelous about this '51 Buick.

If you picked a car just for the lift it gives you—your pride in its power and pace—or its generous comfort and room—you couldn't make a better choice.

But make note of this:

That gleaming new push-bar forefront, which greets your eye with flashing beauty, contains 25 grille bars made of stamped steel, individually mounted to "give" and come back unharmed. Combined with a massive, wrap-around bumper, fortified by two stalwart "bumper bombs" and two added uprights, it gives unsurpassed protection.

The springs of stout spiraled steel on all four wheels let your wheels dip and curtsy over uneven highways, while you ride level as a lance. But these springs also need no servicing, and breakage is virtually unknown.

Buick's great-powered engine is a Fireball, wondrously lively and eager at the mere touch of your toe—but it also wrings extra power from every drop of fuel, and has the mechanical perfection that comes only from years of experience with this basic design.

Dynaflow Drive gives every mile you drive effortless smoothness of control—but it also eliminates clutch repair bills, saves tires, puts less strain on the whole driving mechanism, from engine to differential.

The road-steady gait of a Buick gives you a sense of relaxed security—and is also evidence that you have a durable, deep-silled, X-braced frame beneath you.

However you check it, you'll discover this: The things that make you yearn for a Buick on first acquaintance, are the very same things that make Buick such a smart long-time buy.

Better make it a point to see your Buick dealer—soon.

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

No other car provides all this:

- DYNAFLOW DRIVE • FIREBALL POWER
- 4-WHEEL COIL SPRING • DUAL VENTILATION
- PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT • TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE

Still Nothing Exciting About Oil Situation

Statistics of oil rigs drilling show that Terry County stands third in the list of West Texas counties. Scurry still first, Midland second and Terry third. Yet the day is past when you see a dozen men on the streets with maps in their hands, under their arms, etc., supposedly trying to lease or buy royalty. But no one seems to be scared off.

Fact of the matter is, the oil business is just leveling off. Of course we lay oil promoters get a frog in our throats when the reef is missed. But these old oil birds seem to figure that if there are some places in the county that has a heluva lot of oil in some of the wells, there are other places just as good, and why not look for them?

But speaking of producers, and they are the ones that tickle us night and day, that Wolfcamp field in south central Terry seems to be getting more wells for the number of holes than any of the discovery areas. They have just brought in another. The last one went something over 600 barrels per diem. They are not what you would call sensational, from about 600 to 900 barrels, but they now have about a dozen in that field, and they are 2,000 feet shallower than the reef wells at Wellman and Brownfield.

One of them can be put down in a week or two sooner than the Canyon reef wells. The deeper you go, the more the cost per foot for drilling. Incidentally, a well 8,000 deep that flows at the rate of say 600 barrels per day, may pay a dividend per day equal to a 10,000 foot well giving up 1,000 barrels daily. Those little 2500 foot pumps or from 100 to 250 barrels per day around Post are said to be fast income fetchers.

It seems that the No. 3 Christova Stitt well in the South Brownfield pool, which only edged the reef, and went on down to some 12,000 feet, will be cased back to what reef was found and which had some oil show, to be finished. Likely a rather weak pump.

Incidentally, that field, it seems, is to drift east-southeast, unless perhaps some are found north when and if any are drilled in that direction. So far, all the tests have been west, southwest, southeast and east of the discovery. Either west or southwest, the reef plays out. Same with the Wellman pool.

Shirley Miller And Charles Wood Marry

In a candlelight ceremony read at 6:45 p. m., January 20, Miss Shirley Jean Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller, became the bride of Charles R. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wood of Roswell, N. M.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred Stumpp, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Brown. Tall tapers burned in a background tier of wrought iron candleabra, which was flanked by baskets of white lilies.

Miss Nelda Miller attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a black and white two piece suit with a corsage of red roses. Donald Price was best man.

The bride wore a navy blue sheer dress with pink and navy blue accessories. Her corsage was a cluster arrangement of pink roses, tied with ribbon and net.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Brown home. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and featured a centerpiece of pastel snapdragons. Mrs. Brown served the two tiered wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bridal couple, and Mrs. Herman Denson presided at the crystal punch service.

Guests at the wedding included the parents of the bride and groom; Mrs. S. L. Rinley of Roswell, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Denson and Don, Bonnie Chappell, Mrs. Fred Stumpp, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Jan, all of Brownfield.

Mrs. Wood is a graduate of Brownfield High School and is employed as a bookkeeper at the Brownfield State Bank & Trust Co. The groom is a graduate of Roswell High School, and is employed with Furr Food Stores, Inc.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple is at home at 901 E. Hill street here.

A SON HAS PASSED

A son of noble heart has passed to God's green pastures. The arm of destiny has conveyed him into a fairer land of everlasting rest.

Sweet adolescence in season nipped in the bud. Fear not brave heart, for yours is the glory since you have passed from this fragile and hopeless planet.

Pleasant memories you have left behind for me your friend, will linger on 'til have passed my mark. Sadness mingled with the loss of human frailty belongs to us all—so fret not great and noble soul.

A son to me, indeed a son to all who knew that great noble youth.

Written from the heart in memory of my friend, Billy Way Harris.

—Stevens S. Hearts

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Roberson will leave Saturday for Chicago, where he will attend the Chicago Mid-Winter Dental Clinic next week. They will return to Brownfield next Saturday.
