LOTS OF LAND BROKEN IN AREA DESPITE DROUGHT

The writer and wife made a trip to Snyder the past week, going down via Lamesa and Gall and returning Friday afternoon via Post and Tahoka. While they had a bit more snow than we had in February, we had more rain than they around Feb. 24th. But there is a wonderful lot of breaking, either the chiseling or deep breaking method. By the way, we asked a farmer last week what he thought of chiseling, and he thinks it is fine for this section.

Now, if you live back east somewhere, or in the north, and don't savvy chiseling, the method consists of a series of long plow points, not unlike the old fashioned bull-tongue, except the chisels are much longer. They are fastened on the tractor, and bring up the clay and put it on top. Some farmers chisel the middles after the crop is planted, as it tends to hold all the moisture that falls. And in case of heavy rains, you lay by in store a lot of deep moisture, ready when dry weather hits. We are also told that it keeps land from blowing.

As to wheat, we found that the rather sandier soils have far the greener wheat. In fact, some of the harder soils look like the stuff is not going to come out. We noted this fact out on the Tahoka road Sunday afternoon, when we drove out to the Phillip Rogers farm. In a mile or so from one big wheat field, on sandier soils, the grain was as green and prettier, more moisture and some warm sunshine will bring out the hardy as you please. Maybe a bit of er land grain.

Also, while the harder lands spoken of above were blowing dust pretty bad Sunday afternoon, the sandier soils with the green wheat some six inches high, was not blowing a particle. And just a few years ago, we had an idea that if wheat was planted on our sandier soils, we'd as well kiss the top soil good bye.

Found the children and the grand baby OK at Snyder. They took off soon after we left for a visit with Herman's mother at Brownwood over the weekend. Out at the Rogers home, we found that Gary, the 2½ year old son, was the last to come down with measles. But he was up and pretty pert, despite the fact that he looked like a sitting of turkey eggs—speckled, we mean.

Church Of Christ Announces Meeting

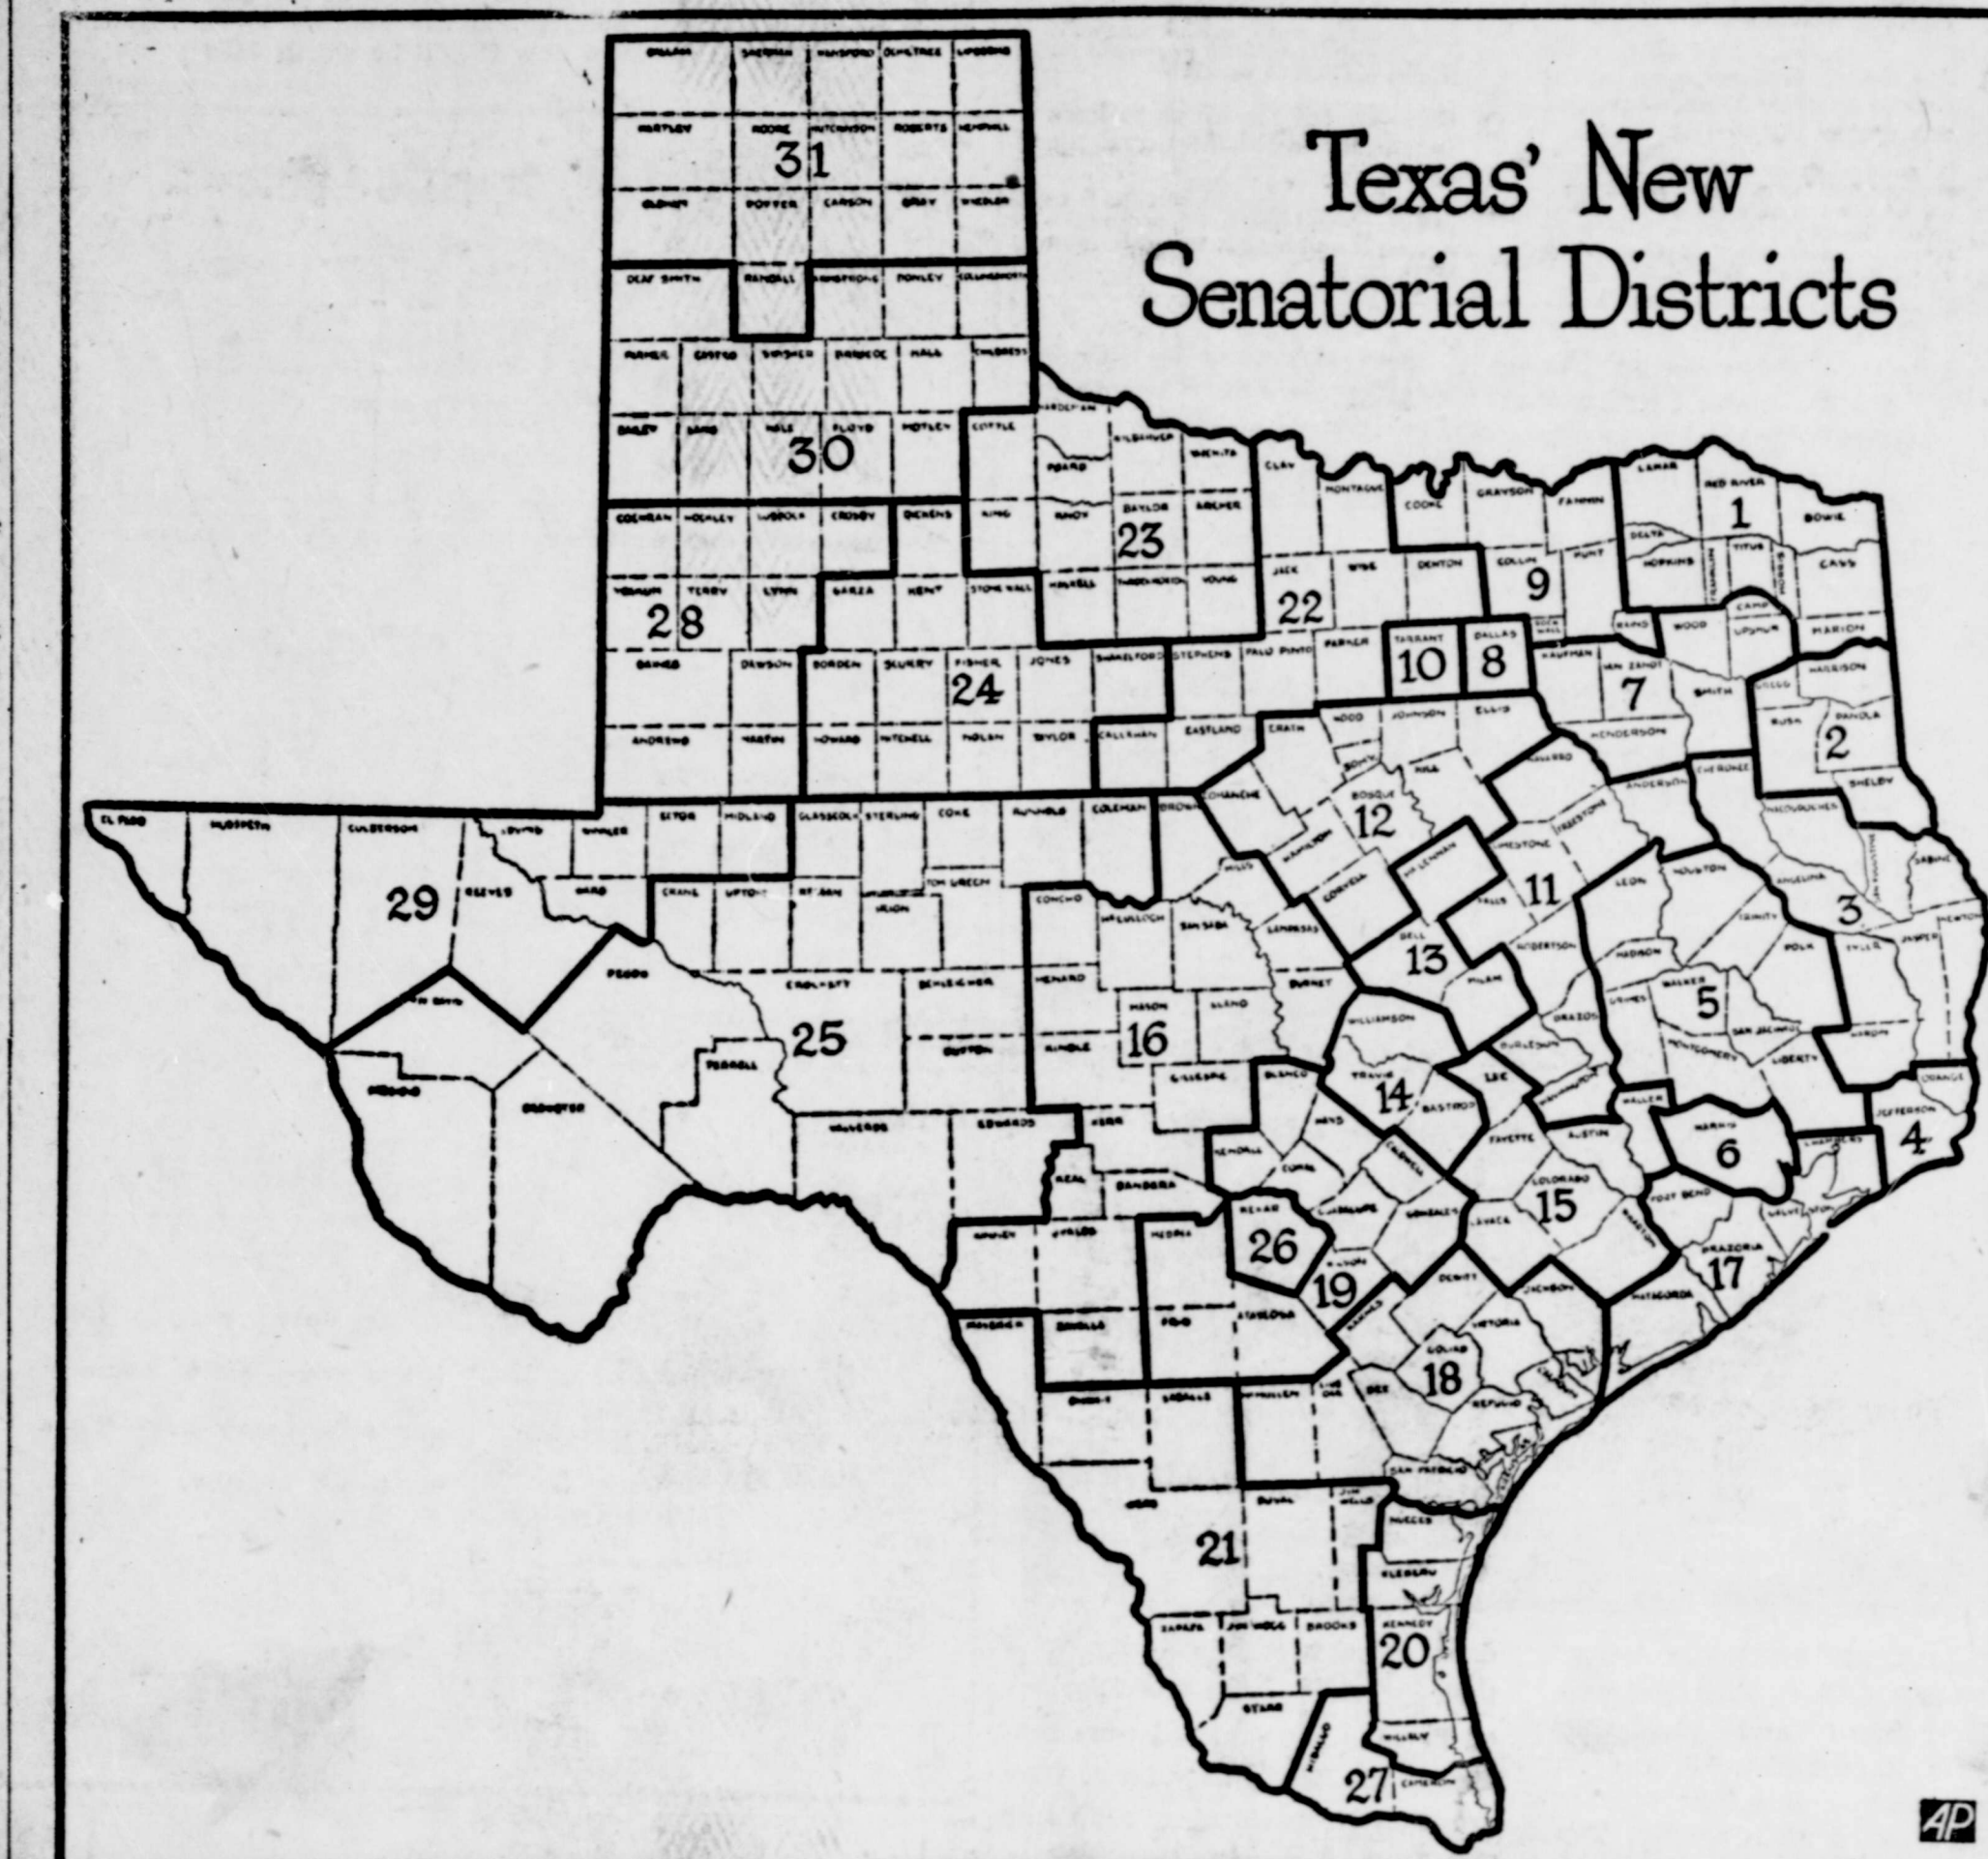

If you are a resident of Brownfield, you are probably aware of the fact that the Crescent Hill Church of Christ is getting ready to have their annual spring meeting. Window cards have been placed in all of the store windows, and individual invitations have been mailed and handed out over town. Likely one of the members of this church has personally invited you to come to their meeting. This meeting is to be held on March 18th, and will continue through March 25th.

Evangelist Preston Cotham of Childress, Texas, will do the preaching during the meeting. Bro. Cotham is well known as an Evangelist of the Churches of Christ in this section, having held several meetings in this area. At present he is engaged in a meeting at Tulia, Texas. Also, he has written several tracts upon various religious topics, and is a very effective writer and preacher. He is the regular minister of the Central Church of Christ in Childress.

The song services will be always be congregational in nature. T. C. Livingston and Tommy Hicks will have charge of the singing during the meeting. The songs will be the good old Gospel Hymns that we all love, and at least four will be sung at each service of the meeting.

There will be two services each day of the meeting. One beginning at 10:00 o'clock, the other at 7:30. In addition to this, each week day morning of the meeting a group of the men of the Church will meet at La Mecca Cafe at 7:00 for doughnuts and coffee, and a short sermon by Bro. Cotham. This is to be a special service of the meeting, and this is the first time that this has been done by the local church. All of the men of the congregation are urged to take advantage of this special service.

The Crescent Hill Church cordially invites you to attend any and all of the services of their meeting. You will find the people friendly, the singing inspirational, and the sermons profitable.

Farmers and other person who wish to rent the equipment may contact either of the two vocational agriculture teachers at the school, Lester Buford or Ray Hensley.

Charges for the equipment have been set up and will be carried out under the FFA program. Green Hut Grill To Have Coffee Day

Glen Hardin, manager of the Green Hut Grill, has announced that proceeds from all coffee sales in the Grill Saturday, March 17 will be donated to the 1951 March of Dimes for this county.

A coffee day was held by most of the cafes in Brownfield in January, with proceeds going to the March of Dimes, but the Grill was not open for business at that time and was not able to participate in the event. Therefore, Hardin said, the Grill will observe Saturday for their participation in the drive.

UNCLE SAM KIRSCHNER PROUD OF HIS STORE

Uncle Sam Kirschner, like the Old He, has seen better days. He gets tired in a crowd like they had at the opening of the new and bigger Bargain Center Store over the week end. So, He dropped in on us for a long chat, and partly to pick up some papers he wished to give friends about their opening in the new store.

Sam is really proud of the new place, and stated that he was delighted that they were able to put a store like that here for Brownfield and trade area folks. Things have not always been so rosy for Sam Kirschner. We believe he told us one time that he came over from Poland, or some nearby little country in Europe when a young man, landing first in New York, where he had some relatives.

But the big city was too crowded for Sam, so he took the advice of Horace Greeley: "Go West, young man." This immigrant boy finally landed the Tulsa area of Oklahoma, where he and Mrs. K. opened their first store, and reared their children, Martin, Jerry, and Mrs. Sid Rudin. "We almost worked day and night," Sam stated, "to make a go of the store, and to educate the children, but we gave them all a good education."

After the children were all grown, Sam and Mrs. K. moved to Brownfield some 16 years ago, and opened the Bargain Center. They put in long hours until the children came to help. However, they have some employees that have been with them the most

Bible Comment:

Jesus Chose as Friends Men From All Walks of Life

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, Walt Whitman, Henry Ford and Babe Ruth are but a few of the names that are certain to pop up in any discussion on men whose personal lives truly upheld the principles of democracy.

Few stop to realize that Jesus led the most perfectly democratic life. The proof of any man's involvement in a day-to-day life completely free from bias and prejudice is in the company he keeps.

Let us look at the friends of Jesus.

The disciples themselves were from fishing boats, customs houses, places of learning and all walks of life. Jesus said of them, "I have not called you servants, for the servant knoweth not what the Lord doeth, but I have called you friends."

But among His friends were also great men in authority, like the Roman centurion, whose faith He commended. There was also Nicodemus, the ruler of the Jews who came to Him by night.

Throughout His life Jesus received invitations to feasts and banquets in the homes of such wealthy personages as Simon, the Pharisee. In fact it was prosperous Joseph of Arimathea who claimed the Master's body and gave it burial.

But Jesus also befriended the sick and the needy, some of whom were unkempt and dressed in rags. And those publicly condemned as sinners also "heard Him gladly." His kindness was such that it brought upon Jesus the reproach of the Pharisee, "this man receiveth sinners and eateth with them."

The rich, poor, sick and strong were the friends of Jesus. And He was a friend to them all.

Can the records of antiquity produce one other life as gloriously democratic?

FINISHES WORK ON NEW DICTIONARY

BRONXVILLE, N. Y. — Four years of preparation by a staff of 28 persons, assisted by a committee of the nation's word experts, has ended with Clarence L. Barnhart, above, finishing work on his sixth dictionary. Barnhart, an unassuming scholar with a keen sense of humor is one of the world's leading lexicographers.

Working in his laboratory here Barnhart read each of the 80,000 definitions four or five times, a task he has engaged in for more than 20 years. Four years of preparation and an initial investment of nearly a half-million dollars is represented in The Thorndike-Barnhart, published by Doubleday and Company, one of the world's largest publishers. The new book is the first all-new quality dictionary to be sold at a low price.

Many new techniques were developed by Barnhart, who began his work with the famous educational psychologist, the late Dr. Edward L. Thorndike. Their combined efforts have made the modern dictionary a useful tool for the average reader, rather than a mere history of the words in the language.

Three basic principles guided the preparation of the Thorndike-Barnhart. First, all definitions were stated in words less difficult than the word defined. Second, all synonyms were keyed to the definition of the appropriate meaning of the word. Drawings were used freely wherever necessary to clarify definitions. Finally, the 80,000 words used in the book were chosen on the basis of a scientific count, showing which words appear most frequently in adult reading matter.

Another feature of the book is the correct labeling of Americanisms. It is the first popular dictionary to label specifically those words which have originated in this country.

FARM QUESTION BOX

by ED W. MITCHELL Farm Advisor General Electric Station WGY

- Q. Is it scientifically correct that "hot water freezes quicker than cold water when put under freezing temperatures?"
- A. Yes and no. Boiling may have concentrated or removed some gas or mineral in the water that might affect the rate of freezing either way. Aside from that, the hot water will freeze more slowly by the length of time it takes to remove the extra heat in it.
- Q. Are electric clothes dryers expensive to operate? Do they require any special installation?
- A. A good estimate would be from four to ten cents a tub, depending on how wet the clothes are when taken from the washer. The only special installation is that they must operate on 220 volts.
- Q. Our cellar does not seem to be damp, but it has such a musty odor we cannot store any fruit or vegetables there. How can we correct this?
- A. Ventilate more—even if you have to install an electric ventilating fan; clean up and get rid of any old musty boards, crates, etc.; dust chloride of lime over the floor and use some of the air purifiers you can buy at the grocery store. Spray or sprinkle walls and floor with copper sulfate solution—one pound in five gallons of water.
- Q. Can you tell me where to have well water tested, how, and the cost?
- A. The best and simplest method is to ask your local health officer to take a sample and have it tested for you free.

"Can't beat Dodge for dependability!"

NEW engineering advancements make traditional Dodge dependability

GREATER VALUE THAN EVER

THE DODGE reputation for dependability and long car life is a matter of record... a record of 37 years... a record no other car can match.

And with the many new advancements engineered into the great '51 Dodge, this famous dependability makes Dodge an even bigger value, an even bigger dollar buy.

For example, new Oriflow Shock Absorbers smooth out the bumpiest roads to give you a level, more comfortable ride... smother the jolts... reduce wear on vital chassis parts.

Cushions moving parts. Dodge Gyro-Matic, lowest priced automatic transmission, along with Fluid Drive makes handling easier and smoother for you. But equally important, Dodge Fluid Drive cushions the power thrusts from engine to rear wheels. Starts and stops are soft and smooth. Your car and your tires last longer.

Yes, everything about this great new Dodge—the way it looks, rides and handles—tells you that here's a car built to deliver years and miles of dependable, low-cost service.

5 minutes tells why. Give us just five minutes. Let us show you how you could pay up to $1,000 more and still not get all the extra room, handling ease and rugged dependability of this great new 1951 Dodge.

NEW ORIFLOW SHOCK ABSORBERS! With twice the shock absorbing capacity, you actually "float" over roads so bad they stop other cars. No bounce, pitch or side-sway—wheels stay on the ground for a smoother, safer ride.

Strange Whatzis . . .

Farm editor Glenn Shelton (above) of the Wichita Falls, Tex. Times insists this rare "insect" is a cross between a green bug and a hairy vetch. Folks were about convinced until he declared further that the bug could hum "Dixie." Then everybody recognized that it was just a big humbug. Most Texans will recognize the ferocious appearing oddity as a unicorn plant or "devil's claw." (AP Photo).

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Trying to come up with a 200 word reason why this land of ours with its long record of using horse-sense—should find itself in its present uneasy bed, is today's task. We are in our confused dilemma from listening to outbursts longer than 200 words. Full half hour rosy fireside chats, 2 column columns, have been our menu. After which we figured we knew under which shell was the pea—but under which, it wasn't.

We have focused our binoculars on an ignis fatuus, which means-if you have not been keeping right up on your Latin—ignis fatuus, will-o-the-wisp, for short. Talkative folks come to town in droves—the lunch clubs listen—the reporters listen. We have been told to relax, we could have prospered via spending—that the Govt. could make rough roads smooth—that more and more Govt. debt is not important, it is just owing money to ourselves. Big City editors were fooled—more than half of our citizens lost their equilibrium. We been worn to a frazzle from talk.

Now, nice people, all of you

Many Overloaded Trucks On Highways

AUSTIN — More than 17,800 truck arrests were made on Texas Highways for overloading and other violations for the year ending August 31, 1950, according to a recent report released by Kent Odum, Chief of the License and Weights Division of the Department of Public Safety.

8,447 cases were filed in Justice Courts throughout the State, charging the operation of vehicles with loads in excess of the 48,000 pound gross load limit and over 18,000 pounds of weight on each truck axle; 3,801 cases charging operations in excess of registered gross weight of the truck and 5,582 cases were filed for miscellaneous offenses, such as overlength, overwidth, driving while intoxicated and operating without permits.

According to the report, nine trucking companies were arrested more than 100 times last year. One Dallas firm with 265 arrests, was fined over $5,000 for hauling more than a million pounds excessive weight.

The License and Weights Division of the Department of Public Safety is composed of only 33 inspectors, who must work in pairs patrolling the 36,840 miles of the Texas Highway System. During the period covered by Chief Odum's report, these guardians of the State roads checked more than 72,000 trucks and found one out of every four violating the law.

How to Gain Typing Speed Told by Fastest Operator

Margaret Hamma Dilmore, who set the all-time, one-hour typing record of 149 words a minute told recently how anyone can become a fast typist. "Any world champion," she said, "will tell you that speed and accuracy can be acquired without special gifts. It is not too difficult, I found out, to become a fast typist."

Ease and skill in typing depend upon posture and the position of the hands at the keyboard. To attain correct posture, sit at the machine in a position that will cause the upper arm to slope slightly forward. The chair should be at a height that will put the forearms on the same slope as the keyboard. The typist must sit erect in front of the typewriter, with the body supported by the backrest, feet flat on the floor.

In addition, anyone who wishes to become a good typist must learn the secret of relaxation. To relax, Miss Hamma, after seating herself at her machine, always drops her hands to her sides and leaves her arms in that position for a few moments. Her fingers curve naturally and gracefully, but do not curl. Then, with her hands in this natural position, she returns them to the keyboard. Through relaxation she has gained the proper finger position that helps her make the fast finger strokes that earned her the championship.

The motion for the finger reaches must originate in the knuckles, and the principal movement confined to the finger. Use a quick touch and relax; finger pressure as soon as contact is made with the key. This makes the fingers react quickly and be in a position ready to type the next letter. In fast typing, it is just as important to release keys quickly as it is to strike them fast. Familiar phrases constantly practiced will help this touch develop.

An alphabetic sentence like "It is amazing how quickly by just a very few minutes of intelligent and zealous practice each day you can become an expert typist" will help overcome hesitation in locating letters on the typewriter keyboard. Many other similar exercises, so important to gaining typing speed and accuracy are included in a newly published typing guide that is being mailed free of charge to secretaries, typists and business students who will write to Typing Guide, Room 1801, 590 Madison Avenue, New York 22, N. Y. Practicing the exercises will help typists gain greater speed, so necessary during this national emergency. The guide also teaches rhythm development, the last hurdle in becoming a speed typist. Words that are difficult to finger should be practiced. Once the fundamentals of posture, hand position, relaxation, finger strokes, touch and rhythm are mastered the rest is practice. A few minutes spent in practice each day will greatly improve and consolidate the skill and ability developed by following the advice given.

Women Completed Tailoring Course

A course in home tailoring is now being completed by Mrs. W. J. Moss, home demonstration club member of the Meadow-Challis club. This is the announcement made by Miss Helen Dunlap, County Home Demonstration Agent. Five weeks ago, a class of thirteen women from Brownfield and surrounding communities enrolled with Mrs. Moss to learn to make suits or coats which they were unable to buy which fit. They bought one hundred per cent virgin wool material, since the results would be pleasing. Mrs. Moss states that this course has been especially helpful to those women who had special fitting problems, as she taught them how to alter their patterns to fit.

This is the third tailoring-school Mrs. Moss has held since she took the course herself two years ago, under the direction of Miss Mary Routh, State Clothing Specialist with the Extension Service. During this time, Mrs. Moss has trained eighteen leaders to alter patterns and to make wool suits or coats with them.

Women who have completed the course with Mrs. Moss are: Mrs. J. H. Carpenter, Mrs. James B. King, Mrs. Henry Chisholm, Mrs. Herman Cheshier, Mrs. H. L. King, Mrs. E. C. Drvis, Mrs. E. D. Jones, and Mrs. L. E. Hamilton, all of Brownfield. Besides them were: Mrs. R. C. Young, Brownfield, Rt. 5; Mrs. T. H. Charters, Brownfield, Rt. 4; Mrs. Carl Ritsell, Mrs. J. T. Swinson and Mrs. Lee, Bartlett, Meadow Rt. 1.

Wenzel Drops In To Report

Back during the Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth, we noted that a guy by the name of A. D. Wenzel of "Smithfield" had been elected a director of Texas Swine Breeders Association. We had an idea then that the reporter of the meeting got the wrong swine by the ear. It should have been Brownfield.

But A. D. did not exhibit, he went to see and observe. And just from his conversation, we gathered that he was not sorry he did not exhibit. He says they had some very nasty weather during the time, but they had a great show nevertheless.

He also attended the Lamesa show as an observer. They had a great show, he says, with good prizes to the winners. A correspondent of the Herald that Hampshire he had sold to Dawson county club boys, had won prizes at the show. Mr. Wenzel raises Berkshires. He did not personally exhibit any of his stock at the Lamesa show.

He also attended shows at Slaton and at Tahoka, and both were good, he stated. Slaton had $500 prizes in the swine division, and Tahoka, $300. Mr. Wenzel did not get much rain Friday — about a quarter inch, but had a fine 1.50 inch rain back Feb. 24th.

CHILDRESS IN TO REVENUE FOR HERALD

It has been a long time ago, way back when the railroad first came to Brownfield about 1917, that we first heard of the Childress family. Mrs. C's brother, John Black, had purchased land in Terry, and they moved on a place three miles southwest of town. But they have been living on their place in the Forrester community many years now.

The conversation naturally dropped to farming and like most old timers, M. B. doesn't expect much rain this time of year, but he got 80/100 of an inch Friday and Friday night. He says it will help a lot, but he doubts that part of his wheat will come out.

M. B. Childress and family are the kind of folks that have made old Terry what it is today.

OLD MONEY HAS ANOTHER BIRTHDAY

The Money Price clan gathered at the ancestral home home out on the farm six miles north of town in the Challis community, last Sunday, to celebrate another birthday of dad and granddad. But mainly to get some of Mom's cooking.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Buel Price and daughters, Cathy and Candy of Lovington, N. M. Also, their other son, Bill, wife and son, Bill Byron, Jr., of Denver City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Monnett spent the weekend in Pampa with friends.

Three couples decided the past week that two could live approximately as cheaply as one, and congratulations go to: Clitus William Addison and Miss Ella Euphonia Freeman; Thomas W. George and Bettie Francis Seaholt; Gerald David Perry and Miss Chloe Marion Schmidt.

On the other hand, four couples decided to call it quits and suits were instituted for divorces.

The glad hand goes out to one lone stranger that came to our portals for admission the past week. Welcome Emmett Johnson of Lamesa. In the meantime, two decided there were greener pastures elsewhere and O. L. Walls departed for Farmington, N. M., and Burl Brown went to Post.

Two Dishes Easy on Purse and Palate

BY EDNA MILES

WITH soaring food prices threatening to pop the lid off the food budget each week, dishes that combine economy, nutrition and taste appeal find an important spot in the meal-planner's book.

Macaroni, spaghetti and egg noodle dishes fit this category and because they lend themselves to wide variation with sauces, cheese, leftover meat, fish and vegetables, may be repeated often without loss of savor.

This spaghetti with white clam sauce is a quickie, too. Less than 15 minutes preparation should do it.

Spaghetti With White Clam Sauce (four servings)
Two tablespoons chopped fresh parsley, 1 chopped clove garlic, 1 chopped onion, ¼ cup olive oil, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 large can minced clams, 1 package thin spaghetti. Brown parsley, onion and garlic in hot olive oil until ingredients are cooked. Season with salt and pepper. Add clams and simmer for about 5 minutes. Don't overcook or clams will become hard. Drop spaghetti in boiling salted water. Keep water boiling. Stir occasionally. When tender, run cold water into hot water. Drain and serve with sauce.

Macaroni and Cheese Supreme (six servings)
One pound jumbo macaroni, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ pound American cheddar cheese, ½ cup buttered bread crumbs. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water. Drain and place in casserole. Melt butter in sauce pan, add flour and blend. Add milk and stir slowly until sauce thickens. Season. Flake cheese and scatter over macaroni. Cover the top with buttered bread crumbs. Pour sauce over all and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes.

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He
We came as high as one forgetting this column this week. Maybe it isn't important anyway. Anyway, we have had some quite encouraging letters from some of the readers. One was from L. L. Brock, a former resident, now ranching out in New Mexico. We're going to slip up on the Brock family some time from the blind side, if any, put old Paint in the corral, and call for our eggs and a rasher of bacon at the De Haven Ranch.
L. L. gets a kick out of some of our editorial efforts, especially when we lay a stinging punch on some of the mink coat-5 percenters and others, who, as Mr. Brock states, "are bound to be creating quite an odor around the national capitol." He finishes the letter with the admonition—"pour it on, A. J." By the way, almost forgot the main part of his letter, a $3 check to keep 'er coming.
Then there was another from a good lady out at Modesto, Calif., who used to live here. She, too, gets a kick out of our little arti-

SITE FOR SHAPE—This quiet pastoral scene will soon become a beehive of activity as workmen move in to construct buildings for Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers in Europe (SHAPE). It would be funny if not ridiculous, the idea some people get in order, they think, to hurt some one else in the same profession. Some of the lame brain methods is to get "exclusive" rights to some neighborhood writers. Perhaps it has never occurred to the smart folks here that there are other people in each community, and that they might have to hire a lot of folks they didn't need.

And if your competitor takes business for a song and sings it himself, it either shows inexperience in business, or a recklessness that will finally head one to the bankrupt courts. It is a pretty tough undertaking to put any well established firm out of business these days. We all have our friends who will stay with us—

If we are honest and our word is good.

We do not find any Farmer Corn tassels trying to eliminate Farmer Cottonboll, so he can raise all the crops himself. Corn tassels has too much horse sense. And generally speaking, most of the business firms of a town are willing to live and let live.

We are getting a bit uneasy again about the conditions in Korea. Every time heretofore that we have appeared to be doing the Reds up in a ball of yarn, the ball busts, and out hops a half million or so Chinese, ready to die for "dear old Joe."

One long story came out that when one was set off in New Mexico in 1945, just before the one was dropped on Hiroshima, that there was a raging storm in the desert.

But the writer says the storm came before the charge was set off, and they were fearful that the lightning might interfere with some of the preparations, but the storm passed on to the east.

Bible Comment:

Free Enterprise Should Be Based On Free Fellowship

RECENT wage and price policy disputes have brought the words "free enterprise" before the public eye again and again. And in ensuing discussions, the words have been a convenient label for all the merits and all the absurdities of this nation's economic life.
Free enterprise is what we make of it through free fellowship. It can stand for greedy gains by monopolists and unlimited strikes by labor or a reciprocal system of productivity and reward.
Success under such a system can be achieved through ruthless force or a steadfast diligence bounded by the principles of truly Christian conduct.
Jesus, who was somewhat of an economist because he dealt with worths and values, put love at the basis of all living. And Paul declared with clear, strong argument that we are members of one another.

And in practicing free enterprise, we would be wise to abide by the Ten Commandments, a code of conduct by which every businessman might benefit.

So far as this section is concerned, the people as a whole seem fairly well pleased with redistricting, as to representative and senatorial districts are concerned. But the congressional districts, are something else again. We had a letter this past week from Rep. Waggoner Carr of this district, and he too, was not so well pleased with present arrangements. He has been appointed the chairman of a committee to study districts 14, 20, 21, and 22, to see if there is any chance of a remedy. Having to add another district to Texas, making 22 in all, has caused some confusion. The Associated Press reports that Congressman Olin Teague of Bryan, will not have a single one of his old counties in his district. Of course it was not supposed to be the intention of the redistricting committee to try to arrange it so that all the old congressmen might be safe in an election. But in some cases it looks that way. Take the 15th, for instance, that of Omar Burleson of Anson, we find that his new district will be an elongated east-west affair, 2 counties wide, beginning at Fisher and Nolan, and terminating some 225 miles east with Johnson, Hill and Bosque.

Take our new district, the 21st instead of the 19th, the northern part is fairly compact, but instead of stopping at Howard as heretofore, it drops on south and picks up Glasscock, Sterling, Regan and Irion. Then over on the other side of Midland and Ector, it dips again, and picks up Loving, Winkler and Ward just where Texas drops under southern New Mexico. Of course we drop a raft of counties to the east and north. But this dropping under in two places, leaving Ector, Midland, Crane and Upton sticking up from the El Paso or 22nd district, makes that district have a much more odd shape than common. The 24th or Panhandle district is fairly compact, with Potter (Amarillo) about the center. Lubbock county will be the extreme northeast corner of the new 21st, with Cochran, Hockley and Lubbock forming the northern border. Of course all the counties with one and two congressmen, like Harris (Houston) with two, and Dallas, Tarrant (Ft. Worth) and Bexar (San Antonio) with one each, are compact enough. There was one correction in the map sent us: Upshur county should have been shown in District 1, with Texarkana, instead of District 2, another long, sprawling southeast - northwest district. This leads one to recall the word, "gerrymander" that popped up in politics way back before most of us were born. The idea was to make a political division in such shape as to suit the politician and give them an unfair advantage over an opponent. The gerrymander was supposed to be some kind of long, crooked sea animal or fish.

Down at Austin recently, there was heard a speech that the hearers as well as the reader of it, will long remember, perhaps. The speaker was former Congressman Martin Dies of the Beaumont district, and his immediate audience was newspaper men assembled for the Mid-Winter meeting of the Texas Press Association. It will be remembered several years ago by many loyal Texans, that Martin Dies was giving the commies in the government offices just about as much billyhell as Senator Fullbright of Arkansas is now using to make the RFC loan handout men shake in their boots. Indeed Martin Dies exposed many that were later convicted of disloyalty to the government. But at that time, these criminals were protected by the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration, and later by the Harry Truman crowd. Dies was maligned and insulted by the leftist press, and by even some of the papers in Texas. Supposedly, Congressman Dies asked himself, "What's the use?" and refused to run for re-election some four years ago. At that time, however, Dies told the American people that they were sold down the river at both Yalta and Potsdam. Alger Hiss, recently convicted for disloyalty, was one of the advisers at Potsdam. In other words, a now convicted traitor, at that time, carried more weight in the administration than a true, loyal congressman. Martin Dies, also at that time, told Americans that they could not do business with Joe Stalin and his government. Too late, perhaps, for our own good, the American people are waking up to the fact that Martin Dies told them the whole truth. But people were so wrapped up in the administration, that they thought of Dies kinder like they do McCarty at this time. Perhaps in a few more years we will find that many of the things that McCarty has had to say should have been heeded and acted upon, just as we now know that Martin Dies was telling us the whole truth about traitors in our governmental offices. Sometimes you almost have to knock down a person to make a believer out of him. He just cannot see any harm in those he almost worships.

Editor Wade, in his column, "Wading Around in the News," got off a pretty good one last week at the close of his column. It was a kind of stab at the habit of Southerners perennially "voting 'er straight." It seems that a northerner had hopped on to a native about how he voted; how his pappy and grandpappy had voted before him. The man from the South denied nothing, but answered: "Shore, we did, but let me tell you something, Mister, if you damyankees don't quit voting Democrat, too, you're gonna ruin the country." Many of us of the South have in the ages past thought of only the South voting the Democratic ticket. We don't give a hang how the man from Maine votes, but it is considered a disgrace for a man who lives south of the Mason and Dixon line to vote any way save Democratic. Admittedly there is not much logic in the idea, and that nine-tenths of it can be charged off to prejudice, a prejudice, by the way, that has had the South hog tied since Civil War times. Does a Republican administration feel obligated to favor anything for the South if it happens to be in power? Not the least. On the other hand, does a Democratic administration feel obligated to the South? Not on your tintype. Their reasoning is that they will get the vote of the Southern states regardless. "So let's shower the sugarplums on sections that are in doubt." The South is the Orphan Annie no matter who is in power. A bit more independent voting in the South would help.

In a way it appears on first thought that the law that makes it illegal for a state owned school bus to pick up a school kid unless he lives two miles or more from the school building which he attends is a bit arbitrary. We note that the same thing comes to light in the Scottish Rite News Bulletin as having happened at Mobile, Ala. Let us suppose for a moment that a child lives within a few feet of the two mile limit. Perhaps his dad's farm extends, say 2 1/2 miles from the school house, but the farm residence is a few feet shy of two miles. However, it appears that there must be some exact distance to go by, whether it appears to be arbitrary or not. So far in Texas, we have heard of no contests of the case, as most parents in their forties or fifties have walked much further than two miles to school, and they feel that their offspring can hoof it that distance. For that reason, a few years ago, the Rotary Club of Brownfield purchased and maintains a bus, even hiring the driver, to pick up children in the west and north part of the city, who live within the two miles, but a long walk for a small child on a cold, wet day. The local Rotary Club did not argue the matter, or perhaps had no thought of contesting the matter in court. That is not part of the ideal of the Rotarian. His business is civic, not legal. But, if a child should happen to live just over the two mile limit, we don't believe the Rotary bus would hesitate a minute to load him on and bring him in. This bus has made morning and afternoon trips for the past three or four years.

NEW TYPE HARVESTER

RALEIGH, N. C. — (AP)—A new type harvester windrows grain and allows it to dry before threshing. After drying, the windrowed grain is picked up with a regular forage harvester, chopped and blown into self-unloading wagons which carry the straw to the thresher.

Agricultural engineers at North Carolina State College here say the main advantage of the new method is that it results in better quality grain because the moisture content is lower.

SQUEEZE ON CORN SUPPLIES EXPECTED

DES MOINES — (AP)—The Iowa production and marketing administration says that a total U.S. corn supply of about 3,900,000,000 bushels is expected in 1951, but that heavy feeding operations and industrial needs may put a real squeeze on corn supplies to develop.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER WAS COURTESY TO MISS SCHMIDT

Complimenting Miss Chloe Marion Schmidt, who was married to Gerald Perry Sunday, a miscellaneous bridal shower was given in the home of Mrs. R. L. Walker on March 7.

Hostesses were Mesdames Walker, Frank Wier, Sexton, Ray Bailey, A. T. Stafford, Shorty Forbus, Johnny Haynes, Gay Price, J. J. Andress, T. H. McIlroy, and Ralph Ferguson.

Mrs. Walker greeted guests and presented them to the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Ray Schmidt; Miss Gladys McSpadden of Bay City, aunt of the honoree; and Mrs. Barney North, sister of Mr. Perry.

Miss Schmidt wore a gardenia corsage, tied with chartreuse tulle, and other members of the receiving line wore chartreuse jonquil corsages.

Miss Joan Price of Lovington, N. M., presided at the bride's book, which was a gift of Miss McSpadden. The registry table was lighted by chartreuse tapers in a silver holder. An arrangement of chartreuse jonquils in a silver bowl decorated the coffee table.

The tea table was laid with a lace cloth over chartreuse and featured a centerpiece of chartreuse tapers in three tiered silver candelabra. Caught in the candelabra with gardenias, chartreuse statin streamers, lettered in gold with "Chloe Marion — Gerald", fanned out to either end of the table. Mrs. Wier presided at the silver tea service, and Mrs. Forbus and Mrs. Sexton assisted in serving the spiced tea and chartreuse and pale yellow ribbon sandwiches.

An arrangement to tapers, bells, and jonquils carried out the honoree's chosen colors of chartreuse and pale yellow on the buffet. The arrangement was built around a chartreuse memory candle, which is to be burned each wedding anniversary for 50 years.

Recorded music was played throughout the tea hours, from 3 p. m. until 5 p. m. Approximately 30 guests came.

Duo Pianists Will Appear Here Apr. 12

Blanche & Florence Zucker

The brilliant duo-pianists, charming sisters Blanche and Florence Zucker, who will appear here Thursday, April 12, at 8 p. m. in the new high school auditorium are endowed, in addition to their great musical talents, with minds of keen intellectual curiosity.

In a desire to embrace music in more than one way, the Zuker sisters, aside from piano, also studied cello and singing. This intense desire for more and more musical knowledge did in no way eclipse the pursuit of academic lore. Blanche was awarded a full-tuition scholarship and Florence took a two-year pre-medical course at Hunter College.

The Zuker sisters are fascinated by new places and new people and they consider their love for traveling "a real blessing," for, as professional concert artists, they spend a great deal of their time in traveling, and, fortunately, "we never tire of trains or planes or hotels." Every town is a new adventure to the Zukers.

Blanche and Florence are as much of an ensemble in life as they are on the stage. Together they possess a large and constantly-growing collection of the great classic masterpieces of books and prints of some of the finest paintings in the world. They also possess the same keen enjoyment of physical exercise, such as hiking, gardening and swimming, which they say offsets and stimulates their otherwise rather sedentary work.

LUBBOCK VISITOR HONORED AT PARTY

A luncheon of chicken spaghetti, congealed salad, rolls, and coffee was served to Mesdames Paulger, O. L. Stice, V. L. Patterson, Cecil Casey, J. T. Bowman, Jake Gore, Jack Hamilton, and John L. Cruce, jr.

Following the bridge games, fresh strawberries jello and whipped cream were served to the guests.

Parilee Nelson New F.H.A. President

Parilee Nelson was elected president of the Future Homemakers of America Chapter, Brownfield High School, at a meeting held recently.

Other officers elected for the Spring and next year's school term were: Tommy Yates, first vice president; Charlene Tuttle, second vice president; La Dell Moore, treasurer; Sarah Higdon, reporter; Shirley Saul, song leader; Alta Merritt, pianist; Deona Mabry, parliamentarian; Wilma Garnett, photographer; and Marilyn Willis, historian.

At the meeting, members also set the date for their annual banquet for April 3. Plans for the purchase of a combination radio-phonograph for the department were also discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sawyer are in Fort Worth and Dallas this week, visiting relatives.

Gee Gee's Chit Chat

Well, the Future Farmers of America from Brownfield will be at Hunstville Saturday for the State FFA contests. Lester Buford, chapter sponsor, says he doesn't know how they will come out in the contests, but will do their best. And we'll sure be plugging for you, boys. Two teams will be going: Senior Farm Skill Demonstration team and Junior FFA Quiz team.

Guess you've noticed all the new stop signs the city police department has put up in Brownfield. The four way traffic stop created at the intersection of South and Broadway streets (near the new high school) was certainly a timely one. A few more days of the traffic going there like it was for a while, and I'd probably have been writing some one up a lovely obit for next week's issue.

The county 4-H girls are planning to have a bake sale in the court house, beginning at 9 a. m., Saturday, March 24. Although that's still a week away, you might remind yourself of this bake sale, because I have an idea that those gals will have some mighty nice goodies for sale next week. Don't forget it, now.

Speaking of good things to eat, I certainly got a delightful club steak at the Green Hut Grill last Sunday night. Being the sort of fellow that likes her steaks practically charred, it's often very hard to find a place where they can cook you a well done steak without it being dry as chips. Therefore, I was pleasantly surprised to get hold of that thick club, cooked well through and through, but still juicy. That's for me, and is probably one reason I stay so thin and willowy.

One more mention of things to eat, and this isn't, exactly. It pertains to black eyed peas, which I love dearly, but this doesn't have anything to do with eating them. Little Dickie Kendrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kendrick, has a young Siamese cat, which he has dubbed "Black Eyed Pea", a most unusual name for a kitten, I think, but, believe it or not, Dickie sure hit the nail on the head. The kitten looks for all the world like a black eyed pea.

Come Tuesday night, March 20, the junior class of Brownfield High School is sponsoring a show, "Rhythm on Ice". The well-known troupe of entertainers will bring their own portable rink and it will be frozen with real, honest to goodness Brownfield water. Tickets are now on sale, and if you want to see a really good show, don't miss this one Tuesday night at the new high school auditorium.

Most of you have probably received your Easter Seals from the county association for crippled children. The 1951 seals are light green background with a small girl on crutches holding out her hand in an appeal for help. Roy Fleming took over this year as chairman of the campaign, succeeding Lynn Nelson. Herb Ches-shir, executive treasurer, told me the other day that, due to a mix-up on the mailing list, some persons have probably received more than one letter containing the seals. He asks that you bear with the association on the mix-up, and to please send in your contributions. And further, use the seals!

The Terry County American Red Cross fund drive will begin March 26. Thad Risinger is the fund chairman, and he asks your cooperation in building up the county fund so that the Red Cross in this county can continue.

And a happy St. Patrick's to you all tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wingerd and Mrs. W. A. Bell returned Monday night from Dallas, where the Wingerds attended to business and Mrs. Bell visited Mrs. Lela Toome. Mrs. Toome returned to Brownfield for a visit with Mrs. Bell.

In Lubbock last Friday night to hear Dr. R. G. Lee of Tennessee speak at the First Baptist church were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Heath, Norwood Heath, Dorothy Elam, Melvin Moore and Bonnie K. Dye-martin.

TCID In Regular Session March 10

The home demonstration club women at the meeting of the county home demonstration council, voted to donate foods for the 4-H girl's bake sale to be held in the court house, March 24. They were requested to have their products at the court house by 7 that morning. With the pre-Easter bake sale, the 4-H girls plan to raise funds for defraying expenses of their delegates to the state 4-H Round-Up in June.

Mrs. W. F. Jones was appointed civil defense chairman of the county home demonstration council. All home demonstration clubs are requested to send the names of their civil defense chairmen to Mrs. Jones.

The council voted to send the county contribution of twenty-five cents a member to the district vice president before April first. This contribution, from home demonstration club women over the state, is used each year to help maintain two five hundred dollar college scholarships for outstanding 4-H club girls.

Following the council meeting, Mrs. Lee Bartlett, county chairman of the Texas Home Demonstration Association, conducted an election meeting to select 3 delegates to represent the clubs at the district meeting to be held at Tulsa, April 28. Those elected were: Mrs. Alton Webb, Gomez; Mrs. Ralph Murry Harmony; and Mrs. L. V. Alexander, Johnson. Two alternates, Mrs. Lenor Sastrowood, Needmore; and Mrs. Henry Tankersley, Union, were also elected.

GOMEZ SCHOOL MENUS GIVEN

A typical weekly menu, featured at the Gomez schools, has been released for publication by Mrs. Jack Mason, dietician.

Monday, March 12: stuffed celery, creamed potatoes, green beans, bread, cake, hot chocolate; Tuesday, March 13: baked ham, buttered peas, corn, cranberry sauce, hot rolls and butter, milk, apples; Wednesday, March 14: beans, corn bread, greens, potatoes with sauce, apples, milk, butterscotch pudding; Thursday, March 15: macaroni and cheese, black-eyed peas, sweet potatoes, cabbage and apple salad, ice cream, bread, milk; Friday, March 16: meat balls and spaghetti, fresh buttered carrots, honey and peanut butter, hot rolls and butter, milk.

MRS. LOYD HOLLOWAY HONORED WITH SHOWER

Mrs. Loyd Holloway was honored with a pink and blue shower at 4 o'clock Tuesday, March 6, in the home of Mrs. Wood Johnson. A pink, blue, yellow and green color scheme was carried throughout the party. Lemonade, cakes and mints were served to those present. Mrs. Holloway received many nice gifts.

JOHNSON HD CLUB MEETS

The Johnson Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Wood Johnson Tuesday, March 6. Miss Dunlap gave an interesting talk on proper selection of seeds for this area and how to prepare the soil. Twelve members were present and the next meeting will be Tuesday, March 20, in the home of Mrs. R. D. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hill of Midland and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill and Wade of Lubbock spent the week end with Mrs. Ben Hill.

Widow Entitlement to GI Loan—Death Of Husband

The VA has ruled that the date a serviceman dies has no bearing on the eligibility of his widow for a GI Loan under the Housing Act of 1950 (Public Law 457, 81st Congress).

The Act entitles unmarried widows of those who died either in or after service, from service-connected causes, to the GI Loan benefits for which their husbands would have been eligible had they lived.

There has been some doubt as to the eligibility of a widow whose serviceman husband died WWII for GI Bill purposes but Administrators Decision No. 864, dispels that doubt. . . in effect, it means that a widow of a WWII service or who is killed in Korea may be entitled to a GI Loan.

Also a widow would be entitled if her husband died from service connected causes at any time in the future—so long as she applies before the end of the GI Loan program on July 25, 1957. In its ruling, the VA states that "it was the intention of the Congress in enacting the 1950 Housing Act to substitute the veteran's unremarried widow for the veteran himself" in the case of GI Loan benefits, however, the veteran still had to meet these service requirements: active duty at any time between September 16, 1940 and July 25, 1947, and other than dishonorable discharge, and at least 90 days total service, unless discharged before 90 days for line-of-duty disabilities.

VA Issues Training Rules For Korean Disabled

The VA has issued regulations outlining conditions under which veterans, disabled after fighting started in Korea, may be entitled to Public Law 16 rehabilitation training. The training, previously limited to WWII veterans, was extended to many veterans disabled on or after June 27, 1950, by Public Law 894, 81st Congress.

Most of the policies and procedures set up under Public Law 16 itself have been carried over to the new training program. The newcomers apply for training on the same forms used by disabled WWII veterans.

Under Public Law 894, a veteran must have been disabled after the Korean conflict began and prior to a date yet to be fixed. The new law requires that the disability be such that the VA may pay compensation at full wartime rates. Such rates are paid for disabilities or injuries resulting from armed conflict, or during extra-hazardous service, or while the US is engaged in war.

Under Public Law 894, the July 25, 1956, deadline for Public Law 16 training will not apply to newly disabled veterans. Instead they will have 9 years from the end of the current emergency in which to train. This new law states the veteran who already had GI Bill or Public Law 16 training, as a result of their WWII service may be entitled to additional training, if found necessary because of new disabilities.

In determining whether such a WWII veteran needs training and what type he should get, the VA will consider his previous records of advisement and training as well as his current medical record. In the case of a veteran who interrupted Public Law 16 training to re-enter the armed forces, the VA also will evaluate his past training record and present medical file, to determine whether he still is able to go ahead in the same employment objective.

Persons disabled under normal conditions while stationed in the United States, or elsewhere, including Japan, will receive lower rates of compensation as this is considered peacetime service, which is only 80 percent of wartime rates and they will not be eligible for Vocational Rehabilitation under Public Law 16 nor 894.

THIS IS 'JOE' OF RFC PROBE—
 Beauteous Hannah Jo Parris (above), paused in her work at a government office in Dallas, to pose for a picture. A former Dallas RFC official testified in Washington he had tried to arrange a job for her there and referred to her as "Joe" in correspondence with E. Merle Young. She turned the job down, not because she feared Washington "Wolves," as alleged, but because she prefers Dallas. An besides, "I'm engaged," Hannah Jo says. (AP Photo).

Denise Doesn't Mind Donning Apron

NEW YORK—Denise Darcel does not share Susan Hayward's recently announced aversion to donning an apron and posing for pictures in the kitchen.

A few days after the redheaded Hollywood star declared she was through with kitchen pictures, Denise accepted an invitation to visit a General Electric demonstration kitchen here.

"Even the loveliest women in France are proud of their cooking and how much easier it is for American women to be glamorous with machines to do the work. All you have to do is push a button," she said.

The more attractive the gal is the more important it is for her to let prospective husbands know that she can cook, Denise believes.

"A beautiful face and figure is no excuse for heartburn three times a day," she said.

PEOPLE IN GLASS HOUSES—The entire outside of this 26-story apartment building in Chicago is made of steel and glass. When completed, the structure on Chicago's Lake Shore Drive will have more glass than the Merchandise Mart, which is the world's largest building. Two garages will be located in the basement and sub-basement of the "Glass House."

G. I. QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q—I am a World War I Veteran Life Insurance permanent policy which had lapsed but which was extended automatically as term insurance. The term insurance extension has expired and now I have no coverage at all. May I apply for new U. S. Government Life Insurance?

A—Yes, so long as you meet the health requirements for insurability.

Q—I took out a National Service Life Insurance policy when I entered service in February, 1942, and I allowed it to lapse when I was discharged in March, 1948. Am I eligible for the second special NSLI dividend to be paid in 1951?

A—No. The policy must have been in force for at least three months between its anniversary date in 1898 and the date in 1951. Your policy was not in force for three months during that period.

Q—I was discharged from the Navy in 1946, and I was recalled to active duty in the naval reserves for six weeks in February and March, 1947. May I count those six weeks in computing my entitlement for GI Bill education?

A—Yes. All members of the organized reserve called back to active duty for 30 days or more on or before July 25, 1947 (official termination of World War II for GI Bill purposes) may count that duty in computing GI Bill entitlement.

Q—I am taking full-time on-the-job training under the GI Bill, and I am required to take a correspondence course along with my job training. Will that correspondence course be charged against my entitlement?

A—No. Veterans in full-time training required to take correspondence courses as well, will not be charged additional entitlement.

It is estimated that most human beings can distinguish about 60 colors.

Misbranding Of Poison Taken Up

A group of Brownfield business and professional men were in Austin recently concerning several things before the legislature in which the people of this area are vitally interested. The group consisted of County Judge H. R. Winston, County Attorney Vernon Townes, Atty. Burton G. Hackney, Mayor C. C. Primm, and Wayne Smith, manager of the Chamber of Commerce.
 One of the things they went to see about was the controversial Graham bill that would have taken some $24,000 this year from Terry's part of the Farm-Market road money. That bill has been sent to the cemetery. Another was that of House redistricting. The boys here did not want to be lined up with a populous county. It is not. Hockley has more people, but Cochran and Yoakum less. Fairly satisfactory.
 Another thing they wanted to see Ag. Commissioner White about was mis-branded insect poison. That which was sold early last year was fairly good, but after that was gone, it was not much more than sand and water mixed. Mr. White promised to take this matter up at once, and try to get a law through with teeth in it to discourage selling of worthless poison.
 We understand it was the same way back in east Texas and the old states in regard to boll weevil poison. Some in Tennessee poisoned four or five times, with no results.

The Cause Of The Crippled Kids

The current funds drive of the crippled children's societies of Texas offers the people of the state an excellent opportunity to add another category in which they are the "biggest."
 By the manner in which they respond they can show just how "big" their hearts are.
 The money received from the Easter Seal drive will be used to aid children crippled as a result of a number of causes. The name of the Texas Society for Crippled Children means what it says, and where help is needed, the society endeavors to give it.
 One of its main efforts is directed toward aiding children with cerebral palsy. Around 8000 youngsters suffer from this affliction in Texas alone.
 Cerebral palsy is not a disease. It is a condition brought on by injury to the brain. As a result of that injury, many of those who suffer from it are unable to do so much as stand even with the aid of crutches and braces. Virtually all of them have speech difficulties and cannot talk intelligibly.
 Treatment is directed toward educating other portions of the brain to perform the functions of the injured part. Muscular control thus developed results in correction of these difficulties to a degree that those so treated are capable of normal or near normal, living.
 But this treatment is slow. It is expensive. The society must have a lot of money to carry it on. And this money must come from donations such as it seeks in its present Easter Seal promotion. It gets no state funds.
 The effort began February 25 and will go through Easter Sunday, March 25. Contributing to it will be investing in human happiness and well-being that will pay rich dividends to all concerned.

Oil Outlook Fair—Two Producers, Offsets

Considerable excitement was created here early this week, when it was reported that oil was found in the Humble Oil Co., G. F. Bell well. This well is some 2 1/2 miles west of the Corrigan pool, and about half way between it and the Adair pool. But the well was reported to be drilling below 12,000 feet, and if oil was struck, it was likely above this depth. Could be a 12,000 feet plus contract. This is on section 33 block C-37.
 However, evidently a northeast outpost of the South Brownfield pool, has a producer in its No. 1, Schreengost, Union of California. This well is reported to have struck the reef some 40 feet high to the No. 1 Stitt. The Union has also staked an offset, No. 2 Schreengost, northeast of No. 1. This is in Sec. 72, Block T.
 In the Adair Wolfcamp area, the 1-A Willard is section 5, block C-36, also seems to be a producer. This is an Amerada Oil Co., job, and is in process of finishing. Also the No. 2-A Willard, an offset, has been staked to spud in soon.
 The Anderson-Prichard Oil Co., No. 1, A. M. Brownfield, in the Wellman pool, is still in process of trying to make a producer. Evidently the drillers believe they will succeed in making some kind of well out of it, possibly a pump-jack.
 The wells east and northeast of town are still far above production depth in the reef, at least, and many think there is no other oil shallower than the reef in this area.

LOCAL LEGION POST OFFERS ESSAY MEDAL

An essay medal, for the essay contributing most to Better Living For Brownfield High School Students, will be awarded by Howard-Henson Post, American Legion, it has been announced by Dr. W. A. Roberson, post commander.

WEBBER DROPS IN FOR A SHORT CHAT

We don't get to see much of our old time friend, J. H. Webber, of late. In fact he has kinder retired from active jobs. Just looks after the odds and ends around the home the past few years. But he still gets around as frisky as a fice, and carries the same old grin.
 Way back when—J. H. was just a plain old nurse maid to cows, a cowboy, if you like. Finally he settled over in Yoakum, and for many years, made that neck of the woods a good citizen. After Brownfield began to grow, he moved over here and sold lumber for Cicero Smith several years. About the last full time job was janitor at the county court house.
 Anyway, J. H. has accumulated enough of this world's goods that he can now retire and take it easy. No, he is not on a pension. He figures that perhaps others need it worse than he.

EASTER SEALS NOW ON SALE IN COUNTY

The 1951 Easter Seals for crippled children are now on sale, according to Roy Fleming, chairman. Also serving on the committee are Vernon Townes, Dr. W. A. Roberson, and Herbert Chesshir, who is executive treasurer.
 Due to a mix-up in the names on the mailing lists, some persons have received several letters containing the seals, Fleming said. He asks that persons who received more than one envelope to just send in their regular contribution.
 This year's seals have a green background, with a picture of a small girl, on crutches, holding out her hands in an appeal for help.

O. R. Douglas To Be Convention Delegate

O. R. Douglas, superintendent of Brownfield Schools, was elected one of the District 4, West Texas State Teachers Association Delegates to the State House of Delegates, which will convene in Houston next November.
 Douglas was chosen to be one of the 66 delegates and alternates at a district meeting held in Lubbock last week end.
 Chosen as alternates were F. A. Wilson of Meadow and O. Fuller of Ropesville.
 Mrs. R. A. Stuart of Lamesa was elected new president of the group at the meeting. Other officers include Walker Bailey, Big Spring, vice president; Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, Tahoka, secretary; and Fred Miller, Abernathy, treasurer.

MERCHANTS ATTEND LUBBOCK MEETING

Many Brownfield merchants attended a meeting held Thursday in Lubbock in which ceiling price regulation 7, title 32-A, from the Office of Price Stabilization was discussed.
 Merchants from 16 counties attended the meeting.
 Wayne (Red) Smith, manager of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, said that the forms are now available at his office, and that the forms must be in the district OPS office no later than March 29.
 In order to continue "business as usual," merchants must receive an acknowledgment from the office that their forms have been received in the district office.
