PLANS CONTINUE FOR NEW CITY GARBAGE SERVICE

The City Council will discuss recommendations made by representatives of residents in Brownfield, in the very near future, pertaining to prices for the new regular garbage pickup service planned for the city, Mayor C. C. Primm said Wednesday.

The Citizens' committee, composed of Dr. A. H. Daniell, Dr. W. A. Roberson, Virgil Travis and Wayne Smith, recommended that $1 per residence be charged, and from $2.50 to $15 for five classes of business. When the council meets, they may change the charges to be placed on city utility bills, Mr. Primm said.

A large number of residents have already purchased new 30-gallon garbage cans, and there are enough for every home in Brownfield, according to reports from the City Hall, where residents are asked to make deposits on the cans, the deposit is $4.75, and officials pointed out that one may pick up the cans at the warehouse, or ask that they be delivered to their home address.

After announcement was made last week of the new service for Brownfield, Mayor Primm said he had received much favorable comment, and the response has been encouraging. At least two regular garbage pick-ups per week is planned for the residential area, with as many as once or twice a day in the business area. The new service is made possible through the purchase of another packer truck to be used by the city.

A new bulldozer is expected to arrive this weekend, for use at the city dump grounds, southeast of town. In explaining the use of the new equipment, Mayor Primm stated the plans to use the "sanitary fill" method—simply digging a large ditch with the bulldozer, placing trash and refuse in the ditch, then covering it, as another ditch is dug with the machine. "We believe this will eliminate breeding places for rats, flies and mosquitoes, and other germ carriers, that are so numerous through the summer months. Although we have had a man at the ground continually burning and razing trash, the hazards continue. We hope the 'sanitary fill' method will help to clean up the dump ground," the Mayor added.

The City Council is composed of Herman Chesshir, Bruce Knight, Henry Chisholm, V. L. Patterson and Sam Murphy.

Bargain Days Are Here Again, Folks

Remember that Monday is Dollar Day again, and some of our merchants are offering some rare bargains to buyers. So, watch the Herald for these places, and you'll get your money's worth.

Of course we know that the farmers are busy as two hunting dogs gathering the crops, but after all, it is usually the Mrs. of the family that does the household buying.

So, come one, come all, the bargains are waiting for you.

Brownlee Discusses School Transportation

Elmer G. Brownlee, Terry county school superintendent, Monday released the following information on public school transportation, including bus service:

The report read as follows: "For the past several years, Terry county has received Transportation aid from the State. For the year 1950-51, the county was issued $37,783. Next year Terry county will probably receive more since base pay is determined by the size of the bus and the average number of students transported, instead of $3.50 per month for each child.

"On most counties, the state appropriation to the transportation fund will pay the cost of transportation but in thinly settled parts of West Texas and large school districts, such as Brownfield, the state money will not pay all the cost.

"This difference must be paid by the local school district. Since the State allocates to the school the largest per cent of transportation cost, they make a few rules governing the use of the buses.

"The state expects the county board and school officials to set up the most economical program of transportation that they can. The routes are mapped out to serve the most people. However, it is impossible to have the route come by everyone's home.

"Buses must travel public roads and not pulled off the approved route to pick up children who live three-fourths mile or less than the approved route.

"Approved routes are mapped out by the school officials, approved by the county board and sent to the state for approval. All changes in any of the approved routes must be approved by the state board.

"Any school caught violating the regulations set up by the state board may be denied their allotment for the remainder of the year.

"Schools which have money other than state money do not accept help from the state and can operate their buses as they please, but most of those schools are rich from oil and are few in number."

Witnesses Complain Of Grand Jury Report

Many of the witnesses, before the recent Grand Jury, feel that an injustice was done them, by the publication of the last paragraph of their report which reads as follows:

"We further find that a lot of irresponsible talk, has magnified occurrences beyond their true proportion."

We went before said body in response to their summons. We testified to facts, and told the truth. We stand pat on our testimony. We specially deny that facts we testified to, were exaggerated, or "magnified" or based on "irresponsible" talk. That part of the report is an unjust and erroneous reflection on our integrity, and we resent it.

We understand that because of technical and restrictive rules of Court procedure, an indictment might not have been sustained. But the evidence before the body was so abundant, and of such a degree and nature, as to completely refute, that portion of the report complained of.

Further, no doubt it will encourage the teenagers, and even grown-ups, hundreds of whom knew of their own knowledge, much about this matter, to ignore the moral code of our society, and refer to this report, that "no law violated," and as an endorsement of the conduct, in question.

However, it is consoling to learn this week, that the report is not having the effect on the public, as desired by the party who wrote it. And that the conscience and common sense of a shocked public is already and will react to the chagrin of the Jury. It certainly did not enhance, the respect and confidence, the public really prefers in that branch of our Courts.

We do not mean to be disrespectful of any of our Courts, but there are too many good citizens in this county, who know of their own knowledge, more about all of this matter, than the Grand Jury learned, to let the last paragraph of the report stand as brush off. The matter will not be dropped.

County Agriculture Officials Urge Farmers to Get Behind Scrap Drive

Steel, steel and more steel is needed by industries of the nation engaged in building weapons for defense, as well as items for civilian use.

Terry county farmers along with farmers throughout the nation, are being urged to help in furnishing these industries with all the scrap metal they need. According to Hugh Harred, chairman of the Terry County Mobilization committee, farm scrap is in special demand since it includes some of the heavier scrap iron and steel now needed by the mills.

Mr. Harred suggests that farmers check the farm for such scrap as worn out plow points and shares, cultivator shovels and sweeps, horse-drawn equipment which has been replaced by tractors, unusable wire and cables, old storage batteries and other items that no longer are used on the farm.

Farm machinery or equipment that can be repaired should not be scrapped, Mr. Harred says nor should metal that can be used for making repairs on other implements or equipment. Farmers are urged not only to make the best possible use of all machines and tools now on hand but to conserve all essential materials.

Discarded equipment unless collected and sold for scrap usually runs away and no one derives any benefit from it. Periodic cleanup campaigns covering the entire farm also help to keep the farm tidy and more beautiful, says Mr. Harred. Farmers should remember that scrap is also needed to make the new steel that is used in making more and better farm machinery and equipment.

Homecoming Game To Be Gala Affair

Ex-students of Brownfield high school will invade the city today with the Muleshoe Mules, for the annual homecoming activities and football game at Cub Stadium tonight.

Miss Joanne Shelton will be crowned student queen in an elaborate ceremony at half-time during the game, by Dean Murphy, president of the student council.

BHS QUEEN — Miss Joanne Shelton

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shelton, will be crowned queen of the Brownfield high school tonight, in impressive ceremonies during the half at the homecoming game at Cub Stadium. She was selected favorite in the race, sponsored by the student council, with 139-395 votes over her opponents' 114,885. The other girl in the race was Leah Dale Portwood, who will serve as one of Joanne's attendants. The queen will be crowned by Dean Murphy, president of the student council.

She will be attended by Miss Leah Dale Portwood, escorted by Chris Burda, from the senior class; Miss Patsy Rogers escorted by Ted Hardy of the sophomore class; and Miss Betty Cabiness, escorted by Kelly Mack Sears of the freshman class. Miss Shelton will also be escorted by Herbert Kendrick of the junior class. Crown bearer will be Lynn Smith. The Brownfield high school band and pep squad will also participate in coronation services.

Homecoming activities started last night with a huge pep rally. Coaches Toby Greer and L. G. Wilson have been giving the Cubs the strongest workouts of the season, in preparation for tonight's game. Coach Greer, who scouted last Friday night's game when Muleshoe played Levelland, said they have three fine backs, Buck Johnson, quarterback, who runs or passes; Bobbie Sid, fullback, can bear watching, with his left-handed throws; and Aubie Hethington. The Muleshoe line offensively totals 170 pounds, and defensively, 172 pounds. "We just had to be ready for those Mules," Coach Greer said.

Tonight's game will be the last tilt at Cub Stadium in this season's schedule, and the game with Muleshoe will be the second conference game.

Members of the Muleshoe Mules include the following boys and girls:

Approximately 35 boys will have gilts at the show, which is sponsored by the Brownfield State Bank and Trust Company, the First National Bank and Brownfield Chamber of Commerce.

Charles Bartley of the Brownfield FFA chapter is superintendent of the show, and Jimmy Benton, Union 4-H Club member, is assistant. Roger Bryant of the Wellman FFA is secretary. Meadow, Wellman and Brownfield chapters of Future Farmers of America will have gilts in the show, along with 4-H Club boys from every community in the county.

Owner of the Grand Champion gilt will receive $15; and Reserve Grand Champion owner will receive $10. First place in each class is designated $5; second place $4; third place in each class, $3; fourth place, $2; and fifth place, $1. Each boy who enters a gilt in the show will receive a check for $1 to help cover the day's expenses.

County agent Jim Foy is counselor for 4-H Club boys in Terry county, and he is assisted in the Gilt Show by advisors of the Brownfield FFA, Lester Buford and Ray Hensley; Wellman FFA advisor Robert Jones, and Truett FFA advisor of the Meadow FFA.

Officials of the local banks reported to the Herald their main objective in helping finance the show—which they believe will be an annual affair—is to encourage boys to raise fine hogs, and the experience the boys receive will no doubt be beneficial to them as future citizens.

Should be many pounds of good meat exhibited here tomorrow! Encourage the boys by stopping by to see their fine hogs!

GOOD CONDITION SHOWN BY BROWNFIELD BANKS

There was a sort of nip and tuck race between the combined statements of the two banks here this year and last. The loans are the way up, while the deposits and resources are somewhat higher this year. One thing that possibly made a difference was the small cotton acreage last year and the huge grain acreage, and a lot of the grain was in by October 1, last year.

Then too, we believe the producers of cotton have been to much more expens, this year in making their crops, choppings and poisoning taking the lead in expenses. Of course those who needed aid to meet farm expenses, got the money from the banks. When the call of December 31 is in, we look for a big hike in deposits, and much lower loans. Here is the combined statement of the two banks, along with the comparison with statements of October 4, last year, first figures 1951, second, 1950:

Cash and due	$ 2,129,101.50
(no figures last year)

Mahon Calls New Labor Law Intolerable

We had a form letter this week from our Congressman, George Mahon, anent the amended Wage-Hour act of 1949, which he terms intolerable. He added that no one wished to see children exploited, but that he believes that the law concerning the harvest of crops that may deteriorate fast, should be left to states, and not the federal government.

Elaborating, he stated that several members of the congress, including himself, had offered amendments to no avail. Reasonable people however, should be able to understand that while a Texan might not be able to know about farm labor in Massachusetts, for instance, neither would they understand the farm labor situation on Texas farms.

Now congress has adjourned without getting any bills before that body. It reminds us that a good Meadow area farmer stated to us just this week, that the more the federal government foiled with farm operations, the bigger the mess they got us into.

Well, old as we are we keep learning a little, bit by bit. In the current issue of our Humble Way, we learned a bit more about the oil business, and in another issue or two years, we should be able to drill an oil well if we just had the hundred grav or so that takes to do the "dirty work." This week we are going to give the uninitiated a bit of driller's mud. And next week we think we will discourse on drill bit test, learned from another article in the same issue. We feel confident that we are not by ourself as greenhorns in the oil business, as oil is comparatively new here, as far as production goes. As to the mud part, we have been hearing of driller's mud, and of late years more and more about driller's clay, from which the mud is made. We wondered what in heck they used mud for, anyway. Maybe you other lay oil people have had the same thought. Now this mud is not quite as heavy as it used to be in the old hoss lot in rainy weather, as it must flow through a circuit, down through the drill pipe and stem, then back up into the slush pit, where the heavier materials are eliminated, such as rock. Then the same mud is sent back for another round. But there are some losses. It sometimes is used to seal off "blows," presumably gas pockets, quicksands, etc. Mud was first used in deep water wells in the Dakotas, but seemingly first used on oil wells during the hell-for-leather days of old Spindle Top near Beaumont in 1900, where drillers encountered a lot of quicksand. There they made a fenced in pond, filled it with clay and water, turned in a bunch of cattle to mix the material. Of course machinery mix driller's clay and water now. But many sealing substances has been used in time, including feathers. The writer in closing the article asks the readers not to get too finicky about a bit of mud on a fresh shoe shine, or recently creased trousers. Just remember that it was mud that made oil and gas plentiful for the old lizzy when you wish to go places.

 Just why were so many Americans interested in the recent English elections? It appeared that it was just about as interesting subject to be talked prior to the returns, as was the presidential election in 1948, or the Senatorial election in Ohio two years ago, when top organized labor leaders undertook to oust Senator Taft. Most people in this section firmly believe Churchill and the Conservatives will cooperate more with America in the defense of western Europe, as well as many other ways. One time when addressing the American congress, Winston Churchill stated if his father had been an American and his mother an Englishwoman, instead of the other way around, he might be setting among you as a member or words to that effect. No doubt his mother instilled many of the American ideals into Winnie during his youth. American as well as British realize that after six years of trial and balance, that the present Santa Claus government is a failure. That the idea of having no cares of the morrow, that a paternalistic government cares for you from the cradle to the grave is not the ideal on which the British nation became a world power, but have lost prestige, more rapidly in the past six years. Our national administration, too, is fast drifting into state socialism. Therefore, many Americans that read and reflect were not surprised at the drift back to democratic form of government by the British, as the drift started in the elections some two years ago, but not sufficient to put the Conservatives in power. But the Socialist-Labor party across the pond was dumped good and heavy last Thursday. Maybe this will prove a good lesson to many here in our country that has drifted into the idea that the government is due them a living instead of the other way about.
 The McGhee court trials, first about three times with as many convictions, the last one giving the defendant death in the electric chair, are now history. And we believe that the second trial for insanity of the defendant that was declared a mistrial at Midland, is also over, with a lot of new expenses for trial, witnesses, and perhaps added torture to his family, whom we can all understand, if normal folks, are still for their son and brother. Another trial has been ordered, this time moved some 400 miles from Lubbock to El Paso, and still more and more cost to the state and county of Lubbock, with added travel mileage, etc. In many states, according to the Lubbock Avalanche, always a thirteenth juror is chosen. He has no vote on acquittal or conviction, but sets in at all hearings, and should another become ill, the thirteenth man can take his place. That was exactly what happened at Midland. One of the jurymen became ill, and with no substitute, a mistrial was declared. The same thing could happen at El Paso, and the case transferred to say, Texas, 900 miles east of El Paso. In view of the fact that Texas seems to rear back on its pasture joints to give the criminal every advantage of a doubt, the next legislature should provide a more modern law to protect the state from added and unnecessary expenses in the future. In the days before the automobile and paved roads, perhaps in the next county, another jury, ignorant of the case, could be found. But today, a jury 400 miles away may know more about the case than the next county 50 years ago. Of course we are burdened with laws and laws, many of which should be repealed. In fact, we are one citizen that believes a Constitutional Convention should be called, and remodel the whole state constitution, beginning when the present one was written back late in the 1870ties.

 In an article or two, including Stricklin's Speaking, we have discussed Trade Trips of late, but we only considered the matter from one angle, perhaps. In fact, as we saw it, the main thing was to get before the smaller towns and villages now connected with Brownfield by paved roads, especially in lines not generally carried in small towns and villages. But since that time, we have discussed the matter at some length with a prominent member of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, whose name we'll not use, as he did not authorize us to do so. After hearing our pro-trade trips argument, he then gave us a bit on the negative side, in which he had some down to earth experience. In his talk he mentioned that if it were possible to exclude all those who want to make the trips, but insist on taking their bottles of liquor, it would be ok. But in all such trips in which he had experience, there was always one or two who carried their liquor, and sometimes indulged too liberally. As a consequence, the enebriate would make some slight remark about the town or village visited, or say something smart to some lady or girl. With all the literature distributed, with nice talks from the more sober, with some fine music rendered by the band, it was all counterbalanced by the remarks of those loaded with whiskey. Then he cited a personal experience along this line, that happened in central west Texas. His city had gone on a booster trip to advertise some kind of affair, and as usual, one or two got bugeyed, and ripped their pants not only so far as they were concerned, but with the entire city visited. This matter hurt their town for years, he related. As a rejoinder, we remarked that perhaps a bunch could be picked that would leave their bottles and bad manners at home. There is no way of excluding anyone, he finished. One cannot afford to insult anyone else by telling them that it would be better that they and their drinks remain at home during the trip. We believe our informant has something, and we quit thinking up trade trips.

 This paper hereby admits it has come to the cross roads of the old age assistance amendment to be voted on the 13th of this month. As Lt Abner would say, we are left in con-fus-shun. With literature we had received from an ex-county judge of Collin county, which we supposed was straight, that all bars were let down, and that many old people could move in from other states and get on the pension rolls immediately, but that displaced person from Europe 65 years or older, as well as from Old Mexico could get on the Texas pension rolls. In view of the fact that the legal limit of pension for the aged was raised from $35 million to $42 million, with a host of others coming in would soon absorb the difference, and the real Texas oldsters would not be helped long, anyway, as newcomers would absorb the difference. Now comes another side of the issue headed by an editorial in the Lindale, Texas, News that says 'taint so. It also accuses the Collin county man being a banker instead of a lawyer. What difference that would make, is not explained. Personally we have seen a combination of the two, lawyer and bank president at Anson, Texas, back some 42 years ago. Anyway, the new article and argument gives the reading on the amendment, which after excluding those in State supported institutions, goes on: "The needy aged sixty-five (65) who have resided in the state for five years (during the past nine years) immediately preceding the filing of the application for such assistance, including one year continuously immediately preceding the filing of such application for assistance." According to the printed matter sent out by the Collin county man, a recently retired Attorney General over in east Texas is of the opinion that newcomers could get on the rolls immediately. We asked a local lawyer his opinion, but at this time he has made no statement. We do not believe that many would deliberately fight the pension amendment if it was really without question on the square. But it has left doubt in the minds of many people as it is written. Here is another angle to study: With addition of the 7 million dollars in Texas, the average pension would be only $35. Louisiana pays $42; New Mexico $37, and Oklahoma $42. So why should anyone in these states want to move to Texas and take $35, the Lindale News editorial argues? Your move.

Mrs. Goodpasture Is Grand Officer O E S

Mrs. Mollie Goodpasture was installed as district deputy grand matron of district 2 at grand chapter, Order of Eastern Star in San Antonio Thursday night of last week.

This is the first time a member of the local chapter has held a grand office. Mrs. Goodpasture is past matron of the Brownfield chapter, No. 785. She attended grand chapter with Mrs. Melvina Nelson, Mrs. Hazel Portwood and Mrs. Dora Lee-McCracken. Grand chapter convened in the Municipal auditorium in San Antonio Oct. 22 through Oct. 25. The local group remained for Mrs. Goodpasture to attend a deputies school of instruction on Friday, with the worthy grand matron in charge.

The installation ceremony was a beautiful affair, according to Mrs. Nelson, who is worthy matron of the local chapter. Mrs. Flora Best Boone of Littlefield was installed as grand matron of the grand chapter, the highest office in the Order of the Eastern Star of Texas. Mrs. Boone chose green and gold as her colors, and the year's work will honor the station "Martha" which is humility, and the "Lamb" is her emblem. She decorated the program for the 70th installation of officers of Grand Chapter to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hopping, pioneer residents of Lubbock, and on the dedication page she has the quotation from William Penn: "Next to God, our parents."

Installed as grand patron of the state chapter was Earl Manning of Temple, who has been an associate officer the past year. An official reception was held in Littlefield Monday, honoring Mrs. Boone and Mr. Manning. Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Goodpasture and Mrs. Ione Turner attended.

Mrs. Goodpasture went to Friona, Tuesday night to assist in constituting a chapter, and she was in Amarillo Wednesday for the same purpose. Attending grand chapter from this area includes Mrs. Nancy Fitzgerald, worthy matron, of Plains; from Denver City, worthy matron Mrs. Martha Anderson, and Mrs. Viola Fields, junior past matron, and others; Mrs. John Cadenhead represented the worthy matron, Mrs. William Moore from Meadew. Mrs. Moore was ill and could not attend.

News From Junior High

O. B. Stamped, principal of Junior high school, reported there are 499 students enrolled in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades in Junior high school, and the average attendance for the first six weeks averaged 95 per cent, or 459, which is above average.

Mr. Stamper is still optimistic about the completion of the addition to the junior high building—says it will be ready for occupancy by the beginning of the second semester. Lockers have arrived and the floors are being finished. Most of the wall in the rooms and halls have been plastered, lacking the paint and light fixtures. The building has been wired, and installation of light fixtures can be quickly installed.

Melvin (Sam) Lyle, Georgia Tech's new end coach, was the captain of LSU's Sugar Bowl squad of 1949.

Personanalysis

Guess Who?

We have a cute little babe from the Junior Class that we can't identify. Can you???

She is 5 feet 6 inches tall, and tips the scales at 145. She has brownish, redish, blackish hair, and blue eyes.

Running around and having fun tops her list of favorites while eating and football come in close behind. She was born at Topes, Texas, December 14, 1934, and moved to Brownfield in 1949. When she gets sleepy she goes to 906 East Broadway. If you ever need any advice on anything, such as slipping in the Drive-In, call 325-W.

The mystery's favorite colors are tangerine and chartreuse and study hall is her favorite class as she enjoys loafing. Her pet peeve is people who talk about other people behind their backs. Joanne Shelton is her favorite girl, but she likes all the boys.

If you haven't guessed it yet who drives a chartreuse Ford convertible with a black top and fender skirts?

El Camino Real

The Spanish Club of Brownfield is very active. For the next three weeks they will be seen on the court house lawn having a rummage sale. This is their way of making money for their banquet which will be held December 14. Also they are looking forward to next year's Spanish trip.

The officers of the Spanish Club are: President, Jimmy Walker; vice president, Billy Herrod; treasurer, Jane Griggs; secretary, Janelle Lewis; reporter, Sandra Casstevens.

Band, Pep Squad Performs in Dark

The Brownfield High School Band under the direction of Ferd R. Smith, and the pep squad, sponsored by Mary Jane Platt, exhibited an excellent half-time performance at Levelland, during the football game with the Lobos.

On the signal from the drum major the band stepped off playing "Queen City March." On the twenty-five yard line the band went into a criss cross procession drill. In the center of the field the band went from criss cross into a figure eight. The lights on the field went off and the band had hat lights in red which lined the drill. The band reformed and marched to the far end of the field and did a countermarch with the lights still off. The band went back to the center of the field and the pep squad also in the center of the field formed "CUBS." The cheer leaders led the band and pep squad in a yell. The band played marching arrangement of the Brownfield School Song. The pep squad had white lights and the band had red lights which are the Brownfield school colors. The band and pep squad reformed and marched off the field to "Show Boy March."

Besides being favorite of the Freshman Class, Joanne was also in the band. Now she is serving her second year in the pep squad. Joanne's favorite food is fish and Bill Holden is her favorite movie star. "Wonderful One" ranks as her favorite song. Liars are highest on Shelton's list of pet peeves.

Besides taking psychology, Grammar III, and chorus, Joanne's past time is participating in school activities. Aside from all this, she still finds time to devote to her steady, Billy Thomanson.

Our Band Director

I'm sure you all have noticed the man about 5 feet 11 inches tall, with blue eyes, wandering around the BHS campus. For those of you who don't know who he is, his name is Mr. Fred Smith. He moved here from Odessa in the late summer and started right in working with our band.

Mr. Smith is a busy man. Most mornings he reports to school at

Shelton Wins Queen's Race

For months now the students of BHS have been working like mad for the school queen candidate. This nip-and-tuck battle was finally over sixth period Wednesday. Each class campaigned until the last minute for its queen.

The lucky girl was none other than Joanne Shelton. When Joanne was notified that she would be the next queen of BHS you probably heard her jumping for joy. Being a bit speechless when asked how she felt, Joanne managed a joyous "I'm the luckiest girl in school!"

Shelton walked off with the race with 139,305 votes over her opponent's 114,885.

Joanne has a sparkling personality and a wonderful attitude. This cute and very popular girl is 5 feet 4 inches tall. She has brown hair and blue eyes.

Besides being favorite of the Freshman Class, Joanne was also in the band. Now she is serving her second year in the pep squad. Joanne's favorite food is fish and Bill Holden is her favorite movie star. "Wonderful One" ranks as her favorite song. Liars are highest on Shelton's list of pet peeves.

Besides taking psychology, Grammar III, and chorus, Joanne's past time is participating in school activities. Aside from all this, she still finds time to devote to her steady, Billy Thomanson.

Noon Hour Recreation

A new and different noon hour recreation program has been planned by Coach Nowell. This new program will be volleyball and basketball games between the Home Rooms. Each Home Room will sponsor a team and the teams will play at the noon hour. Games will be for both boy teams and girl teams of the Home Room. Each game won will count a point and the Home Room with the most points at the end of the year will be awarded a trophy. Everyone should take part in this new program and help your Home Room to win the trophy.

Homecoming!!!

Well, it's Homecoming time again. The time when we really try to outdo ourselves and show the Exes a good time, a good pep rally, and a good game. So everyone be sure and turn out for the Homecoming activities and show the Exes they are welcome back to their old stomping grounds.

The Homecoming activities, which were planned by the Student Council, began with the pep rally Thursday night, November 1. Everyone met at the old High School gymnasium and did snake dance down town to the intersection of Broadway and 5th, Streets. When the snake dance reached the intersection the pep rally began. The cheer leaders led yells and the band played. Exes introduced and speeches were made.

The Homecoming game will be played tonight, between Brownfield and Muleshoe.

At the half-time the school queen will be crowned by Student Council President, Dean Murphy. The crown bearer will be (now unknown) and the Queen and her court will be escorted by the president of the class she represents.

The Band and Pep Squad will both take part in the coronation services.

8 for an early rehearsal with the band. From 9 to 9:45 he drills the band in marching. Immediately after marching he goes to work with the junior band. The next period he rehearses the beginner's band.

In the afternoon he has band students coming in every period to practice.

On top of this, he must think of a half time show for every week and worry about how well the band will perform.

Mr. Smith is the choir director of the Presbyterian Church. He practices with the choir every Wednesday night.

Mr. Smith's favorite pastime is reading, hunting, and photography.

Mr. Smith is one of the best sports in our school and always greets one with a friendly smile. We are happy to have him with us.

Milk Checked By SP Health Unit

The residents of Brownfield will be interested to know that another periodic check of the milk sold in Brownfield has been completed by the South Plains Health Unit.

These checks are made every four to six months. A three bottle sample of pasteurized milk is collected from each of the creamery trucks supplying milk to Brownfield. These samples are tested for bacteria in the laboratory and must have a low bacteria count to meet the requirements of Grade A, which is set up by the United States Public Health Service.

The following creameries are meeting Grade A requirements: Banner Dairies, Bell Dairies, Border Dairies, McIlhenny Dairy, Tennessee Dairies.

These periodic checks are for your protection; therefore, play it safe and buy Grade A pasteurized milk.

4-H and FFA Members To Receive $500 In Cotton Yield Program This Year

Terry county 4-H club members and Future Farmers of America have started harvesting their cotton, and will soon have all their material ready to submit to judges in the Cotton Yield per Acre Program, according to county agent Jim Foy.

Boys in this county are fortunate as their prize money exceeds that to be received in other counties—Herman's Gins have offered two sets of prizes, for irrigated lands highest yield per acre, and dryland highest yields. First three prizes in each section will total $250, or $500 to be given winners by the judging committee.

The contest is sponsored by Herman Cheshir and his associates, Leonard Cheshir who is associated with Herman at the Brownfield gin, Harry Cornelius with Mr. Cheshir at Needmore, and Nathan Cheshir with his brother at Foster. The purpose of the program is to promote greater yields per acre if lint cotton on farms of the South Plains by improving the fertility and texture of the soil and by better cultural practices. Material to be submitted by boys eligible for the contest include regular crop record books, gin tickets from contest acres, and certification from three disinterested and unrelated adults showing acreage, total yield and that the yield was from the acreage designated.

Some of the boys having dry land cotton are: from Brownfield 4-H Club: Bobby Beadles, L. G. Willis, Garland and Eddie Foshee, Ernest Hyman, Leon Willis, Lewis Chambliss, J. C. Chambliss, Robert Flache; from Gomez 4-H Club: Wesley Britton, Lesley Britton, Jerry Hanson, Lavoy and Hilburn Briscoe; Meadow 4-H Club: Arnold Patton, Wayne Sanders; Pool 4-H Club: Warren H. Young, Gene Joplin, Donald Brown; Union 4-H Club: Tommy Faught; Wellman 4-H Club: Jerry Carmichael; and from Brownfield FFA: Glen Reid, Earl Brown, Jr., Charles Bartley, and Byron Wise, Vam Perry, James Watson, and Chester Albert; from Wellman FFA: two boys are entering the contest, Conrad Cabe and James Willis.

Boys having irrigated cotton entered in the contest are Max Miller of Brownfield 4-H; Bill Tom Goza of Wellman 4-H, and James Altman of Pool 4-H Club.

Mr. Foy reported that the boys have started getting their records completed, and one boy has already harvested three bales of cotton from five acres, the first time over.

A BETTER HOME FOR A SMALLER BUDGET

The plans for this offer the greatest possible economy in construction and at the same time they provide for a comfortable and attractive home.

Several guests can be entertained in this living room without crowding. Attractive furniture arrangement is easily accomplished with so much wall space. The bedrooms, also, are of nice size to allow a convenient and attractive furniture arrangement. Each room has large closets, seldom found in homes of this size.

The spacious kitchen has ample pantry and closet for equipment and foods. There is plenty of room for a table that will easily accommodate six people. The window over the sink and the windows by the table will make this room light and airy. One chimney, if properly constructed, will take care of the range and a space heater in the living room.

The linen closet in the hall will be fine for the bedroom linen. You can provide some very valuable space in the bathroom for medicines and things that will not fit into the medicine cabinet by arranging shelves over the commode. You also can provide bathroom linen storage space between the lavatory and the wall by making a thin wall plywood cabinet and using the lower section of it as a clothes hamper. The suggested location for this extra storage is shown by dotted lines in the bathroom.

The screened porch will not only serve as an ideal entrance and protection for the rear door, but will also provide space for a washing machine, a freezer chest, or other similar equipment.

You can obtain blueprints for this TERRY COUNTY HERALD Farm & Ranch Plan No. 5027 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Build.

Take Care of Those Woolen Clothes

COLLEGE STATION. — Now brisk winter days are just around the corner, most people will soon be pulling out their wool clothes. Certain rules need to be followed in caring for woollens, and here are a few offered by clothing specialists with the A. and M. College Station Service.

If wool garments are to be washed, use water with lukewarm temperature—95 to 100 degrees—and this applies to both washing and rinsing.

The specialists point out four ways in which the softness and shape of the woollens can be destroyed. They urge the homeowner never to rub woollens while wet or place them in hot water, changing suddenly from warm to hot or cold. Never use strong alkalies in the washing water, they warn.

Now for pressing wool, the specialists recommend using a dry woolen pressing cloth with a cheese cloth wrung out from water over it. If the moisture is needed use two thicknesses of cheese cloth over the dry pressing cloth. The woolen pressing cloth distributes the moisture evenly and the iron does not stick to the dry cotton cloth. As a rule, wool should be pressed on the wrong side, but such garments as men's trousers can be pressed on the right side if a woolen pressing cloth and dry cotton cloth are used. Brushing with the nap after the wool is dry will add to the softness of the fabric.

Texas Farm Are Under-insured

WEST.—The average Texas farm is "seriously under-insured," according to Geo. E. Kacir, West, Texas, executive secretary of the Texas Association of Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Companies. He said a bad barn fire would cause many Texas farmers a seriously financial loss.

"They would not collect enough insurance money," he explained, "to rebuild at today's high building costs."

Kacir also said there are still many farmers who do not have enough money saved to rebuild from their own funds.

Fire is a serious threat to farmers, Kacir said. Farm losses throughout the nation were more than $100,000,000 last year, and an estimated 3,500 persons lost their lives. Despite this he said many farmers are simply not "insurance minded."

"The average good barn," he pointed out, "will cost about $2,000 to build in Texas. Some, of course, will cost considerably more. A $2,000 barn can be properly insured for about $5 a year. Other farm properties — residences, tool and machinery sheds, garages, etc.—can be protected at comparable cost. Yet most Texas farm properties are under-insured by at least 40 per cent."

Farm mutual insurance companies carry on extensive fire prevention programs. Fewer fire losses mean lower insurance costs, since savings developed by these programs are passed on by the companies to their policyholders.

Kacir said the answer to the danger of under-insurance is an immediate appraisal. "Farmers should get an estimate of their property values from a competent source—their insurance representative, or the local banker or real estate man—and increase their insurance accordingly. In today's era of high prices, adequate insurance is of utmost importance."

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

Our old friend, H. P. French, who used to farm out in the Tokio section, but became citified a few years ago and moved to Brownfield, was in this week, to show us a story taken from a Las Cruces, N. M., paper, about his high flying. The flying stunt, joined by Mrs. French, all happened while visiting his son, recently.

They even took his picture and had the story in the papers. In that article, it said that French had tried everything from an ox-cart (French says an ox wagon), with steer for propelling purposes, back in old Alabama, to airplanes. But H. P. says the ground under a plane does not move as fast as he expected, and things on the ground become miniature.

Speaking of old timers in this balivwick, Lawrence (Sach) Green came in this week to renew for his Herald. During his boyhood years, back some 40 years ago, Sach did a hitch of some years on the Herald, and he was a faithful hand. We got to talking about some of the old timers who would drop in occasionally, especially when we were doing night hitches, and proffer their bottles.

Sach called to mind one hard bottle hither that drank all but two finger lengths of a quart of Hill & Hill without taking it from his mouth. We had forgotten the incident until he mentioned it.

Then there was another that called one night, when the Herald was located in a little 16x30 foot building where the former State Bank building now stands. He was fairly well stewed at the time, but still on his own power. After offering the bottle (all drank from the same fountain in those days) to us, he then asked if our apprentice would like a nip.

Now Sach had never heard that big word used before. It was either the printer or hired hand with him, so after the fellow left, Sach, then a big overgrown 14 year old boy, asked what "apprentice" meant. When informed, he got a big laugh, and repeated it many times in the future.

In those good old days, we had many old bottle-batters here that could really funnel the stuff, and then walk a six inch plank across a chasm blindfolded. They could take it. A tenth of their capacity would put the modern funneler on the blink.

Mostly we have seen the Sheriff's Posse on parade, and possibly many had gotten the idea that furs and feathers as their hobby and delight. But after two years in the limelight, most of us found that the Posse was useful as well as ornamental.

Only last week we found that they had other duties to perform aside from parading. Along about night an eight year old girl was reported to be missing. So, the Sheriff's Posse to a man, forked their steeds and began to search

Harris Stories of Crosby County Broadcast

Had a letter this week from Uncle Harve Harris and wife, of Tatum, N. M. In the letter they informed us that Mrs. Laura Hammer, who makes a specialty of broadcasting pioneer stories of the Plains, will start sometime in January broadcasting some of his stories. They will be about Crosby county some 60 years ago. Mrs. Hammer is now broadcasting Matador ranch stories.

Uncle Harve did not state which station, as Amarillo has three or four, but the time will be from 8 to 8:15 each Sunday a. m. Only trouble is, how many of us will be up at eight Sunday mornings—or 7 A. M. out there at Tatum—our time? But we are going to listen some, anyway. — (It's KGNC).

Uncle Harve is still talking about the fine time he and wife had out in California and the northwest from early July to Sept. 1. One sad note was that Bronco had lost its postoffice after 48 years. For many years, this was the place where the Harris family got their mail.

And he wants to let Texans know once more the Harris family enjoyed having them at the reunion last summer.

Mrs. W. P. Inman of Tahoka spent last week in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Nelson, while Mrs. Nelson attended Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star in San Antonio.

out every place in the area where the little girl could be likely found. Luckily, it was later found that she had gone home with a friend who lives on a farm, to spend the night.

But the parents didn't know this, and the Sheriff's Posse rode out into the highways and byways, looking for the little girl. We are truly glad we have this organization for just such emergencies. The little girl could have been really lost.

Well, gals, Sadie Hawkins Day is coming up November 17th. We hope you get your man.

Out at Phoenix, Arizona, a right amusing want ad appeared in a daily paper, that read approximately as follows: "Wanted, a cowboy for a dude ranch; must be able to play guitar and canasta. We will teach you to ride."

About a month or so ago, all the Washington brass talk was about some "fantastic" weapon. But the latest development to come up on the proving grounds out at Las Vegas, is "dazzling." Supposedly this is in reference to a ground propelled small A-bomb to be used by infantrymen.

So we now have a "fantastic" weapon that may possibly be "dazzled" by another one. Come to Terry?

You've heard of pie all your life—many kinds of them. But perhaps some of you never heard of printer's pi—note the "e" is left off the spelling. This newspaper had a double page spread to pi last week, and even by using other matter that could "stand" for awhile, it took hours of labor to get that run ready for the press.

Usually printer's pi is caused from a faulty lockup of the "forms." Yes, printers also use forms, the same as tailors. And it tore into a lot of good reading matter that we wanted very much to appear in the Herald. One or two of them are appearing reset this week, but some of them would be too late. Briefly, the following will not appear:

An article on the "Sick to Benefit from Nurse Training." Then there was a good one we had about the fine meal we got out at the Ed Thompson farm Sunday, the 21, together with the other visitors in that fine home, the Albert Thompsons from Dallas, the Kemps from Lubbock, and the Earnests, nearby neighbors, as well as all the children and in-laws.

Then there was one about old Ed Mayfield taking training at an insurance school in Dallas. Another about a bunch of new 4-Hers being initiated. Another about Humble Oil Co. broadcast of football games; still another about Mr. R. G. Nutt being chairman of the parole committee, the Fat Stock Show, etc.

But Pi's will sometimes occur in the best regulated printing offices. But they make the whole works mad as heck. It means hours of additional work.

Plains Band Has Varied Activities

(From Yoakum County Review)

The Plains high school band attended the Homecoming Festivities at West Texas State College in Canyon Saturday. They took part in a massed band show in which approximately 1,000 bandmen from 17 bands were on the Buffalo Stadium field at one time.

On Thursday, October 18, the Plains high school band went to Brownfield to take part in the Harvest Festival. Playing in the parade against such bands as those of Tahoka, Post, Sudan, Oton, Andrews and several others, the Plains Cowboy band was awarded second place. This is a good report in our estimation and represents good experience for the band. They feel that they will give a much better report of themselves at Plainview this year.

The band presented a band wedding as their trick at the football game Friday night, October 19. Jimmy Roy Robertson as the groom, Patsy Smith as the bride, Eddie Crump as the preacher, Dave Watson as the father of the bride, Mary Lois Blount as narrator, and the entire band provided the characters.

Jimmy Roy, Patsy (who was padded with pillows), Eddie and Dave were escorted out by the majorettes as Mary Lois read the story. The musical theme was present in the entire story such as when the narrator said the wedding bells were ringing, the band played portions of "Jingle Bells." The show, judging by the hearty laughter of Whitharral folks, was well received.

Scouts of Troop 47 Go To Camp Post

Several Boy Scouts of Troop 47 went to Camp Post last Friday for a "Green Bar" encampment in pioneering. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Scoutmaster Leon Painter accompanied Fred Niccum, Eddy McKay and Tommy Goodpasture to the encampment. Troop 47 is sponsored by the First Christian Church in Brownfield.

Recently Scouts in Troop 47 went on an overnight hike to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Givens, five miles southeast of Brownfield. Mr. Painter accompanied the group, including Eddy McKay, Fred Niccum, Jon Fuller, Steve Christian, Wendell McWilliams, Tommy Goodpasture, Leslie Hallbauer, Dean Breedlove, and James Gunn.

A campaign for the raising of funds to be used to purchase scout equipment, and to finance the annual encampment next summer at Camp Post, was planned when 20 scouts of Troop 47 met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McKay, 221 west Cardwell.

The boys sold candy at Cub stadium during the Harvest Festival, and they are continuing their sale of chewing gum. Everyone is urged to purchase gum from these scouts, who are making every effort to finance their own scouting activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Walker, Mrs. Sam Privitt and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams were in Lubbock last weekend and attended the football game between Texas Tech and Arizona University.

Not "Buttons and Bows" but small bows worn all over their clothes, dresses worn backwards and wrong side out... were among the initiation rules for new members of the Future Homemakers chapter in the Brownfield high school.

Students who were initiated went to school Wednesday, Oct. 17, with a tooth brush and cup, wearing an FHA sign around their necks, also an onion and a potato.

Plans for the initiation were made on Monday night, Oct. 15, when girls who had been in the FHA department more than one year met with their teachers, Miss Wanda Terry and Miss Dorothy Smith. Formal initiation with a candlelight service will be held for first year students.

Other rules selected for the new members were: wear half hair rolled up in rings; one wedge shoe with ankle and one school shoe with hose; do not wear any make-up; and bow to old members and address them as "Miss _____."

New members of the FHA chapter who went through all the "rigamarole" last week include:

Tea Pee Newtons Visiting Here

Was out of the office early last week when an old friend, T. P. Newton, called in to get his Herald started up to Truth or Consequences, N. M. Just why Hot Springs, N. M., ever allowed their well advertised town to take that outlandish name, is a deep, dark mystery to us.

Hot Springs suggests a health resort town, with the possibility of minerals in the water. Truth or Consequences suggests only a yelling, confusing mob before a radio mike, that some liked—others despised. But it's their town. Anyway, Mr. and Mrs. Newton are old time Terryites, having land in south Terry in the Welch section. Mrs. Newton was a Hulse, sister of Hugh and Lee, before her marriage.

Sorry we missed old Tee Pee, as both of us drifted to Terry from Jones county, and knew many of the same people down there.

90% For! 10% Against

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employes and the railroads. More Than 90% of Employes Accept Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employes—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employes. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employes are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer? They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages? Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19½ cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases? The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employes covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week? The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employes in yard service. The employes can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand? The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employes.
