Cates Is Candidate For Office of Tax Assessor-Collector

Don Cates has authorized the Herald to announce his candidacy this week for the office of County Tax Assessor and Collector, subject to the action in the forthcoming Democratic primary election.

In announcing his candidacy for the office Cates said, "I was born in Terry county and have lived here all my life with the exception of the time I was in the military service and school.

"I am 25 years old and married. I have my degree in Business Administration and Accounting.

"I want your vote and influence and if elected I will do my very best to make you the type of Tax Assessor and Collector you have a right to expect. Again your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated."

Red Cross Needs Hospital Beds

C. L. Lincoln, representative for the American Red Cross, announced this week that hospital beds, mattresses and crutches were needed to be loaned to worthy people of this area who are sick or crippled, and any organization interested in purchasing these articles are urged to contact him at the court house.

The county commissioners' court, VFW and the Tri-County Health Unit have purchased beds for use by the Red Cross, and at this time, 11 beds are made available through Mr. Lincoln's office. The 11 beds are now in use, he said, and others are needed.

It has been suggested that various civic organizations might cooperate in the purchase of articles mentioned above, and rubber sheets, as they are for use by deserving people who otherwise would not have beds or crutches.

Good Well Finished In Adair Field

The Union Oil Co., of California, finished up a good well in the Adair field, 12 miles south of Brownfield the past weekend. It was the No. 4 T. F. Chestman, and gauged 822 barrels of 45.8 gravity oil per day, on a three quarter inch choke.

In the meantime, and offset to this outfield has been located just over in Gaines county. A number of other wells are drilling. The reason we speak of it as multi-production field, is that there is quite a large field of what is usually termed shallow wells in that area, ranging around 5000 feet, and the Wolfcamp reef pool, at around 8,500 feet. The best wells are in the latter, and so far, no dry holes that we have heard of.

The most of the wells in the Wolfcamp portion are in Terry and we believe the most of the shallow wells are in Gaines county, so far. In the meantime, the Atlas Life Insurance well, 10 miles west of town, being drilled by Conoco Drilling Co., is getting down around 10,000 feet. Two apparent pay zones have been encountered in this 12,000 foot test, one around 5,000 and the other 8,000.

The Anderson-Pritchard Oil Corp., Royer No. 1, between Brownfield and the Wellman pool, is down better than 10,150 feet, and seems to have missed the reef. This well is slated for 10,500 feet, and we hope they may find something yet.

A well has been finished 12 miles west of O'Donnell, which should put the well near the corners of Dawson, Lynn and Terry county, pumping about 53 barrels each of oil and water daily.

SHE SHOWS HOW—Miss LaVerne Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Collier of Brownfield, who is assistant display director at Hemphill-Wells Co., shows with a dummy window how she started a display which won second prize in a nationwide contest for cities of 50,000 to 250,000. The cutout she is holding is an enlargement of the silver pattern she arranged. (Photo courtesy Avalanche-Journal).

ATTEND MEETING IN TAHOKA

Rev. Dallas D. Denison, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and J. Fred Bucy attended the Town and Country District Men's meeting in Tahoka Monday night at the First Methodist Church. Dr. Stotts of Colorado was guest speaker.

MAYFIELDS VACATION IN FLORIDA

Edmond J. Mayfield, special representative of the Republic National Life Insurance Company in this area, Mrs. Mayfield, and their daughter Carol Ann, have just returned from Boca Raton, Florida. Mr. Mayfield was a member of a select group of the company's field organization who were guests of the management at the exclusive Florida resort.

This winter vacation was sponsored by the Republic National for the entertainment of its most efficient representatives as a reward for their superior accomplishments. To qualify, high professional standards, through policy-holder service, and exceptional sales records are required.

Approximately 200 guests were present from the 20 southern and midwestern states in which the company operates. Headquarters were located at the Boca Raton Club, a luxurious resort hotel between Palm Beach and Miami on the east coast of Florida.

The compound microscope was invented about 1590.

Laverne Collier Wins Store Display Prize

A Hemphill-Wells Co. window display by Miss LaVerne Collier has been awarded second prize in competition of stores in cities of 50,000 to 250,000 in a nationwide contest, according to an announcement made in Lubbock Saturday.

The contest was sponsored by Redd & Barton, silversmiths, and featured one of the company's new patterns. Miss Collier, who lives at 2408 Seventh, Lubbock, received as a prize a two-piece salad set in silver. She has been in Hemphill-Wells window display department for two years.

Winner of the overall national prize, an all-expense trip to Florida, Italy.

Miss Collier, whose parents reside at 503 East Buckley, was reared in Brownfield, and attended Abilene Christian College one year. She finished art school at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque.

DONKEY BALL GAME AT MEADOW TONIGHT

The Night Hawks, outsiders including ex-sceners, will play the Bronchos, or school boys, in a Donkey Ball game tonight at 8 o'clock at the Meadow High school gymnasium.

Admission will be 60 cents for adults and 30 cents for children.

Brownfield Cubs to Play Levelland Here

The biggest test of the season comes tonight for the Brownfield Cubs cagers as they meet Levelland on the local high school court. A pep rally will be held this afternoon at the high school, and the largest crowd to attend a game this season is expected to attend.

The "A" squad scored a 47-33 victory over the Littlefield Wildcats Tuesday night at Littlefield, in a District 7-AA conference game.

In a preliminary game, the Brownfield B squad took a 50-29 victory over the host squad.

At Morton last Friday night the Cubs coasted along to a 69-31 win over Morton.

Lions to Sponsor Talent Show

The Lions Club first annual Talent Show will be staged at 7:30 p. m. February 29, at the high school auditorium, and committees were appointed for the arrangement of the show at the regular noon luncheon Wednesday.

Herbert Chesshir has been named director of the show, and O. R. Douglas is talent show chairman. Admission prices have been set for 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students, and tickets will go on sale next week. Those wishing to participate in the show are urged to contact Wayne Smith at the Chamber of Commerce office who is president of the Lions Club, Mr. Chesshir or Mr. Douglas, immediately, as arrangements are being made for the staging of the show.

With Mr. Chesshir and Mr. Douglas, the following members were named to assist with the project: Jay Jones, Clyde Wilson, Bob Tobey, A. M. Cope, Harold Denton, Coke Toliver, Jack Griggs, Lee Bucy, Dewitt Stafford, Crawford Taylor, Sid McIntosh, O. B. Stamber, W. N. Lewis, Dr. W. A. Roberson, Virgil Crawford, Ted Odon and Lidzey.

This committee will meet at 6:30 next Tuesday morning at the LaMecca Cafe for discussion of plans for the show.

NEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH IN SEMINOLE

Rev. Homer Haislip, pastor of the Brownfield First Christian Church, will give a special "ground breaking" address at Seminole at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, for a new First Christian Church there.

Representatives of First Christian churches in the entire area will attend the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Brown, former Brownfield residents, are members of the church at Seminole.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, we as American citizens enjoy more rights and more freedom than the citizens of any other country in the world today, our nation being the last great bulwark against tyranny—the hope and inspiration of every individual interested in preserving and perpetuating for all mankind the liberties and privileges enjoyed only by free men in a free society;

WHEREAS, each and every American should always be conscious of the fact that our citizenship also entails definite duties and responsibilities—that the privilege of being free can be perpetual only in a society where all share in performing the obligations of citizenship;

WHEREAS, Democracy and our American way of life are ever subject to the serious and world-wide threat of Communism and related doctrines, and each American citizen has cause to realize and appreciate that our precious liberties may also be impaired or lost through our own lethargy and lack of attention to our every day civic duties;

WHEREAS, the State Bar of Texas has sponsored and is sponsoring an educational program to emphasize to the citizens of this state that our great heritage as Americans and as Texans can be preserved only by the full and complete participation of each and every individual in the duties and responsibilities of that citizenship;

AND WHEREAS, this program of the State Bar of Texas deserves and merits the full support of this community, and to the better functioning of this program a week should be designated and set aside as "American Citizenship Week," that all may join in perpetuating our American way of life, in emphasizing the significance and dignity of the individual as a citizen of a free and democratic nation, and in meeting and conquering the communistic threat—the greatest challenge of our time;

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Brownfield, Texas, I, C. C. Primm, Mayor, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM that the week of January 20 through January 26, 1952, shall be known and observed in this community as "AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP WEEK."

And I do hereby encourage every citizen of this city to join in this week of dedication to the great principles of American Democracy, and call upon all groups and organizations to cooperate with the State Bar of Texas in making "American Citizenship Week" felt as a tremendous force in mobilizing the thinking and actions of our people toward a perpetuation of the principles and freedoms which have made America great.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto affix my official signature, this the 17th day of January, A. D. 1952.

Books Are Given to Library in Memory Of Late W. M. Adams

Two books have been purchased for the Terry County Library as a memorial to the late W. M. Adams, Miss Olga Fitzgerald, librarian, announced this week.

Instead of sending flowers for the funeral of Mr. Adams on December 31, three of Mrs. Adams' cousins and their families donated money for the purchase of books for the library. Rev. and Mrs. Homer Haislip of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hudson of Goodnight, and Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Mayes of Lubbock gave money that was turned over to the library committee of the Maids and Matrons Club, sponsors of the library, for the purchase of latest books, a biography of President Roosevelt's life, and "Time to Remember," and autobiography by Lloyd C. Douglas.

Both Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Douglas were greatly admired by Mr. Adams, who was a civic leader, and was always interested in world events.

Miss Fitzgerald stated the books are appreciated, and will be available in the library in about 10 days. "The books will indeed be a living memorial to a man who was respected and loved by all who knew him," Miss Fitzgerald said.

The library is sponsored by the Maids and Matrons Club, of which Mrs. Adams has been a member since 1914. The Terry County Commissioners' Court is co-sponsor of the library, and it will be moved in the near future to the new quarters in the addition to the courthouse, when many new books will be available to the reading public, Miss Fitzgerald said.

Athletic Banquet To Be Jan. 28

Plans are about complete for the annual athletic banquet, sponsored by the high school pep squad, to be held at the Jessie G. Randall school cafeteria on Monday night, January 28.

Members of the pep squad and their sponsor, Mrs. Mary Jane Platt, mailed invitations this week to the banquet, which will honor the high school football squad and members of the basketball teams and their coaches.

An out-of-town speaker will address the group, and special guests will be the Junior High school coaches and board members and their wives. Approximately 150 persons are expected to attend the formal affair.

County Agent's Office Move to Courthouse

County Judge Leonard M. Lang announced this week that the members of the commissioners' court approved the removal of the county agent's office from the post office building to a room in the new addition of the courthouse, and the office will be moved as soon as the building is completed.

County agent Jim Foy has been designated the office on the second floor of the addition, next to the new location of the county library. His office in the post office building will probably be occupied by the Soil Conservation Service, and the county PMA office will probably move to the rooms now occupied by the SCS.

It is hoped that offices will be moved in the addition to the courthouse within the next two weeks, Judge Lang said.

Farm Bureau Directors to Attend Meetings in Waco and Washington

Members of the board of directors of the Terry County Farm Bureau voted, in a meeting Tuesday night of last week, to send representatives to Washington and to Waco during the month of January.

President J. T. Fulfer and Jess McWherter were named delegates to Washington, D. C., to voice opinion concerning the Mexican labor matter. In the event one of these men cannot go, H. L. King was named alternate.

At Waco members of the legislative committee of the Farm Bureau and state director Bill Tilson of District 12 will attend a conference starting January 24, and Roger Fleming, secretary of the American Farm Bureau will be guest speaker. The program will include discussion of farm labor, the rural road program; and the purpose of directors from all of Texas is to review resolutions adopted by the Texas Farm Bureau and the American Farm Bureau, and to discuss ways, means and procedures for carrying out the wishes of voting delegates as outlined in the resolutions.

A. M. (Al) Muldrow is chairman of the legislative committee, and those working with him include McWherter, Herman Wheatley and Jim Foy.

Terry County Farm Bureau had two resolutions adopted in regard to protection for farmers pertaining to Mexican Nationals, at a recent meeting in Houston of the Texas Farm Bureau. These resolutions which will be discussed at the meeting in Waco, are as follows:

Joe McGowan to Address Students

Mayor C. C. Primm has issued a proclamation designating the week of January 20 through January 26 as "American Citizenship Week." His action is in line with a recent "Official Memorandum" signed by Governor Shivers setting up the entire month of January, 1952, as "American Citizenship Month."

Brownfield attorney Joe McGowan will address the high school student body next Thursday morning, January 24, at 9:40 o'clock, in the auditorium, as the student council cooperates with the campaign. Mrs. J. D. Miller is sponsor of the high school student council.

Stressing the responsibilities and duties of the individual citizen in preserving the democratic way of life, the event is part of an annual citizenship program sponsored by the lawyers of Texas.

"Every individual should stop and think about the fact that we have obligations as well as privileges arising from our status as citizens of a free and democratic nation," the mayor stated in referring to his official decree. "We cannot expect to retain our liberties forever unless each of us personally shares in performing those obligations as citizenship."

Theme for Mr. McGowan's address to the high school students will be "What I Can Do for Democracy?"

Lions to Buy Boxing Ring

At the regular noon luncheon for Lions Club members Wednesday, the group voted to purchase a portable boxing ring for use at the high school gym.

Tournaments are being planned, and local high school students will box with teams from various towns on the South Plains, including Golden Gloves boxers. A tourney will probably be held here the first week in February, according to Bob Tobey, secretary of the Lions Club.

The equipment will cost about $215, but will be available to the schools to carry on athletic programs, Mr. Tobey said.

2. To amend the present subsistence agreement to conform to some of the following methods:

a. Whenever the employer has furnished or offered the worker employment for 75 per cent of the term of the contract, and can produce records showing this compliance, the employer shall be released from any subsistence claims resulting from inclement weather, which the employer has no control of, and if worker makes claims, let him produce records showing the amount of time, and the dates of lost time.

b. Or, if preferable, it can be amended so that, whenever employer furnishes or offers a minimum of three days of work in each week, then employer will not be liable for any time lost the balance of the work week, due to inclement weather.

Those attending the directors' meeting here on January 8 were: President Fulford, L. M. Lang, H. L. King, Herman Wheatley, Bill Carter, Alton Loe, Earl Jones, Doc McCoy, Hubert Baird, Odel Valente, Jim Foy, Ernest Sears and Virgil Burnett.

Jaycees to Name 'Outstanding Young Man Of Year' At Banquet Monday Night

The "Outstanding Young Man of the Year" will be named and presented at the annual banquet of the Jaycees Monday night, January 21, at 7:30 o'clock at the Esquire.

The young man will be selected by a secret committee for his contributions to the affairs of the community, state and nation, according to Crawford Taylor, president of the Jaycees.

State Senator Kilmer Corbin of Lubbock will be guest speaker, and about 150 persons are expected to attend.

Last year the group named Dr. W. A. Roberson the "Outstanding Young Man of the Year," and others who have received the honor in the past are John J. Kendrick, Ray Christopher, Lynn Nelson, Frank Szydloski, C. C. Primm, Herbert Chesshir, Sam Privitt, J. E. Gillham, Tommy Zorns, Bruce Zorns and Virgil Burnett.

AIR, AUTO DESIGN WED IN NEW CAR

TOLEDO, O.—Here is the first picture released by Willys-Overland of its long-awaited passenger sedan, the first to be built by the company since it went into all-out production of Jeeps for war in 1942. This model, to be introduced by dealers early next year, is the "Aero Wing," so named because its construction and styling represent a "dramatic marriage of the most advanced principles of aeronautical and automotive engineering," according to company engineers. They described the car as "designed to meet the conditions of high-tax, high-cost living. It is the first time that the ride and handling characteristics of expensive, long wheelbase cars have been secured in a car of external compactness and outstanding economy." Tests cited by the company indicate the Aero Wing will, speed for speed, go farther on less gas than any other full-size car. It is reported to deliver up to 35 miles to the gallon at a speed of 30 miles an hour with overdrive using regular gasoline.

SIX MARRIAGES AND ONE DIVORCE

According to information handed out by Dube Pycatt, county clerk, the marriages got off to a good start the first week in the new year—six of them, four Anglo and two Latins, as follows:

Thomas Curtis Handley and Mrs. Evelyn Carlilo; Raymond Hernandez Jr. and Miss Manuella Valencia; Norman Wesley Earp and Miss Wynolla Ruth Baldwin; Robert Maggard and Miss Frances Yarbrough; Joe Walden May and Dorothy Mario Wheeler; Sam Vargas and Miss Siria Montos.

At the same time one Latin man filed suit for divorce against his frau, with District Clerk, Mrs. Eldora White.

TWELVE NEWCOMERS AND EIGHT ADIEUERS

According to one report of comers and goers, Brownfield made a net gain of four people or families the first of 1952. The following are the new folks, and we hope they like Brownfield:

Johannie E. King, of Roswell N. M.; Malcome H. Kilgo, Oklahoma; Archie H. Graves, Levelland; Chas. Mayfield Jr., Louisville; Doyle H. Baker, Roswell, N. M.; Monte W. Livergood, Pawhuska, Okla.; Joe Thomas Morris, Snyder; Garrett C. Perkins, Lubbock; J. D. Kirkland Jr., Littlefield; Leroy Hoover, Big Spring; Edward B. House, Dumas and Eugent V. Boron, Lubbock.

Of those who left, four went to Big Lake, and one each to Odessa, Toyah, Longview and Corpus Christi.

Five persons, all men, were charged with passing worthless checks.

An Editorial

By O. H.

This week, we are joining Mrs. Webb, Assessor-Collector of taxes for Terry county in trying to persuade the people of Terry county, 21 year and over to get possession of a poll tax receipt or exemption by January 31. There is no need of those 60 years or over to think about the exemption in this county, as that part applies to counties having a city of more than 10,000 population. If you are a newcomer paying your poll tax for any of the family, and one or more are over the 60 year exemption period, it might be well to have that fact noted in your tax payments. Then your vote would not be questioned. As we are still comparatively thinly settled, it may not be questioned anyway.

There used to be an old saying in Texas, and the papers played it up to a fare-you-well, that if you failed to pay your poll tax, you would be no better prepared to assert your citizenship than a Chinaman. In later years, it developed that not only the Chinese but the Japs, living in the USA, especially along the west coast, were just as well prepared to vote if a citizen of the USA, as the Caucasian race. Then there used to be a saying in Texas, especially the southern part that applied the non-voter and non-poll taxer to the man of Mexican decent. But it has been found in recent years that they are equally well prepared to vote as the Anglo variety of citizens. This has been proven over and over down in old Duval county year in and year out. An while they all vote alike as two peas in a pod, for the same men and measures, they vote. Of course most people in this section firmly believe that some boss tells them how to make out their ticket before they approach the polls.

Be that as it may, let us come to the point. It dawned on this writer four years ago that the same regime at Washington was fast running things into the ground, and for that reason we did not support the present administration, and we have no apology. We are a Dixiecrat, if you wish to so term us. At that time we thought Harry Truman was too light for the job of President, and we believe it even stronger today. But we are not alone. Thousands, yea millions, of clear thinking Americans have joined the procession since that time. Many now say they were a bit skeptical then, but decided to follow the usual "party pattern" but now see their error. If the Truman regime had been stopped four years ago, many, many grafting scandals would have been avoided.

But there was little chance of defeating Truman four years ago. He had his dice loaded with thousands of yes men employees. Tom Dewey, was just a "me to" candidate on the Republican ticket, and no chance for Strom Thurman, with only four of the southern states supporting him outright. And the nation can congratulate itself that there was no chance from Pinkie Wallace. He was never anything but a left winger gone gossling. So, things being lined up as was, there was nothing left to do for an old line Democrat than support Truman, even though we knew there was not a chance on earth to elect him. But a vote for a real Democrat was a protest vote against Socialist Harry Truman.

But there will be quite some difference this year. We have some real leaders all over this southland who see the drift to the far left, and know that it is time to make a change. It is later than you think, brother, but may be not too late. This time we will have a real leader in Governor Allan Shivers of Texas. The other southern states will back his judgment perhaps with the single exception of Arkansas, whose governor was the only one from the southern states at the recent convention at Hot Springs, Ark., that did not go along with the idea that there must be a change at Washington.

Other southern states have finally woke up to the fact that the national Democratic party, as such, is running on the Eugene V. Debs platform, which has been stolen from the Socialists, lock, stock and barrel. So-called Democrats in the northern states, many of which have always consistently gone Republican have charge of the Democrat party so-called. Southerners who have always consistently voted 'er straight, are ignored and laughed at, even though without them the nation would vote Republican at every presidential election. The south is the political orphan of the so-called Democratic party.

In the meantime, our nation was never in such a mess. The foreign relations administration is poor enough, the domestic is even weaker, and some portions of the domestic section is absolutely rotten. More and more we are finding out that some of the trusted appointees, the cronie brigade, are taking everything they can lay their dirty hands on. Some have quit under pressure and shame, and at the same time the nation feels that it has had a big let down just when we should have been showing the Communist world how smoothly democracy works. Some have quit, some have been sent to the penitentiary, and many, many others are to be tried. The real people of America are fast waking up to the fact that government "by cronie" does not work any better at Washington than at Kansas City. That Pendergastism has just moved from the Missouri river to the Potomac.

So, the idea is to get a permit to cast a vote this year. And if it happens to be hot on election

CCA to Meet IN Lubbock Feb. 4-5

LUBBOCK—Approximately 2,000 persons are expected to attend the 22nd annual meeting and convention of the Consumers Cooperatives Associated to be held in Lubbock February 4-5.

The convention delegates will journey here from a seven-state area—Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Colorado and New Mexico.

Consumers Cooperatives Associated is a regional farm supply cooperative serving 450 local farm cooperatives in the southwest with some 140,000 farmers and ranchers as members.

day or raining, get to your polling place by any means possible unless ill, and cast a vote for men and measures. Unlock that old brass collar you've been wearing for years, and become a free born American citizen. Folks, if we don't do that, our nation will be flat broke in another four years, and we'll be practically slaves. This is no wild eyed philosophy. It is the firm belief of many of the real leaders of our nation who have remained at home. They are uneasy about the future outlook of our country. Of course many of those who have kept up at Washington for a generation or two, have lost contact with home folks, and are going along with the administration on many of his fine spun theories of government.

We need to take stock, and that is just what the South is preparing right now to do. As stated above, Governor McMath of Arkansas is perhaps the only governor in the south that don't go along with the other twelve, and he may be repudiated by that state. Political prejudice is disappearing from that state just the same as many others. Only recently the city of Little Rock elected a Republican mayor by a huge majority over his Democratic opponent, and he is now serving his first term. Many of the other states have been on the verge of revolt or have already done so.

When the next national convention comes up in Chicago, our notion is that the 13 southern states with their votes will vote as a block. No Truman votes, and none for anyone who thinks as he thinks. No hand picking please, by the present administration, even though Harry decides not to run himself. And he nor none of his stalwarts can get the nomination and election without the southern block. If the 13 states hang together, they can block Truman or any Trumanite, or walk out of the convention and nominate a real Democrat that would keep any Trumanocrat from getting the office, and maybe throw the election into congress for decision.

Anyway, you folks that may read this know the lay of the land. You know how high your taxes are getting, and how money has been wasted by the present administration and its cohorts. Get ready to swat 'em this summer and this fall.

GET THAT POLL TAX RECEIPT WITHOUT FAIL.

SS Coverage For Self Employed

Many self-employed persons do not know that the 1950 amendments to the Social Security Act extend coverage to them, according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock Social Security office.

This change became effective on January 1, 1951. Self-employed persons now have the same rights to benefits on behalf of themselves and their families as employees.

Self-employment includes individual store owners, partners, pulpwood operators, owners of shoe shine stands and numerous other business activities. There are 14 specific exceptions for professional people, among them doctors, optometrists, architects, veterinarians, professional engineers, accountants, funeral directors and farmers.

Self-employment coverage is not voluntary. The individual is either covered or not covered. The self-employed person's income is reported with his annual income tax return. The first report is due before March 15, 1952. The rate is 2 1/4 per cent of the first $3600 of net business profit.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security office will be in Brownfield on Wednesday, January 23, at the Post Office at 1:00 to assist persons in Social Security matters.

HOUSE OF THE WEEK

In this space, you'll find "The House of the Week" with full descriptions. This series is made possible by area firms listed here... See them to help you with your Home Furnishing Problems.

LET YOUR HOUSE GROW WITH YOU

Whether you want to build your complete home now or build a small house and enlarge it later, you will find many attractive features in Farm and Ranch Plan No. 5136. If you want the complete home, build it as our plans illustrate. If you want a small two bedroom house, simply leave off the front bedroom, the breezeway and garage. When and if you decide to make additions there will be no structural changes required.

This house was planned to give the fireplace is sufficient for most hot air heating plants. It is centrally located to keep duct work to a minimum. An extra stack in the fireplace chimney will serve for a vent from the heater, regardless of type. If you do not need it for a heater it would be an ideal spot for a shower or half-bath.

The bathrooms, workroom, and kitchen can be served with a small amount of plumbing, yet they offer the facilities found in much more expensive home.

The front entrance is offset to protect it from the weather. The entrance hall with clothes closet will give privacy in the living area.

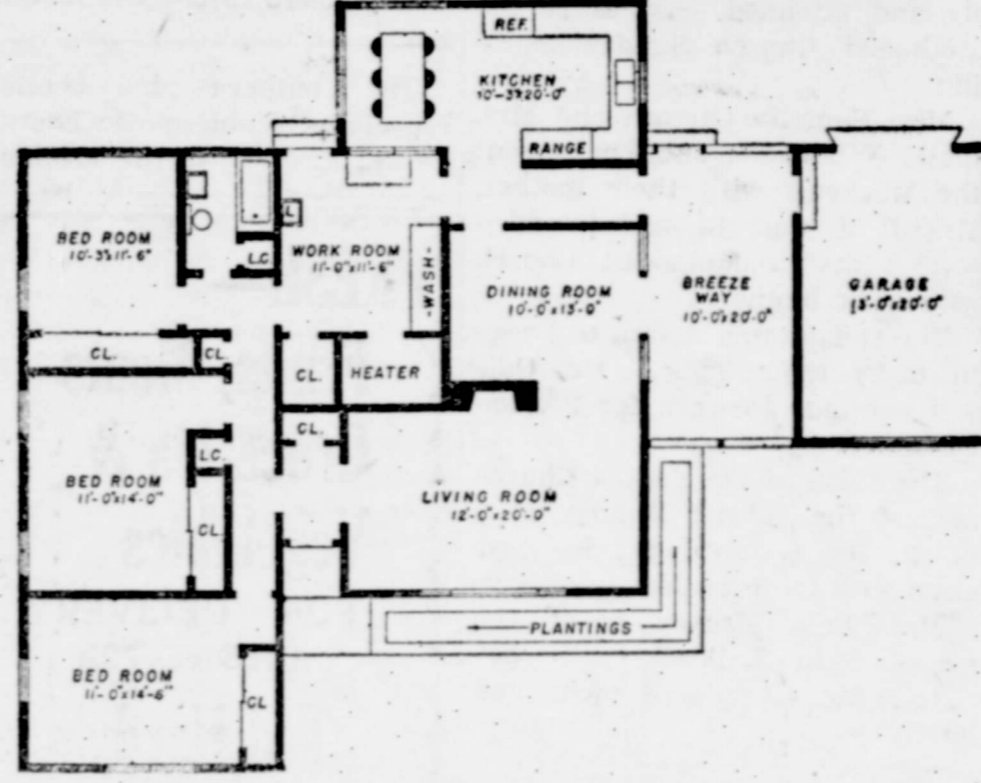

You can obtain blueprints for this TERRY COUNTY HERALD Farm and Ranch House Plan No. 5136 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, Farm & Ranch Southern Agriculturist, Dept. L193, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number—Plan No. 5136. Blueprints are adequate for any farm carpenter or for any farmer handy with tools.

HEAVY SLEEPER

KOREA.—(AP)—When the enemy attacked one night, Pfc. James W. Flett was asleep in his foxhole. A yelling mob of Chinese burst out of the 3 a.m. darkness. Artillery roared, machine guns rattled, grenades flashed, automatic rifles chattered.

For three hours the Reds blasted away, and the Marines blasted back. Within 100 yards of his foxhole, a fierce hand-to-hand struggle swayed. Flett slept serenely through it all. Next morning he awoke, gazed with astonishment upon a counted heap of 112 enemy bodies.

"It's embarrassing," he gulped, "to have to ask your buddies what happened."

GAME WARDENS A SCHOOL FOR TEXAS

COLLEGE STATION. (AP)—The seventh game warden school, a four-month required course for all Texas game warden candidates, will begin at Texas A&M College when the spring semester opens February 4.

The course is offered cooperatively by A&M College and the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

"Little David," perhaps the largest gun ever built, was a 36-inch siege mortar designed by the U. S. Army to help break through Germany's Siegfried Line in World War II.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe carloadings for week ending January 5, 1952, were 20,333 compared with 19,911 for same week last year. Cars received from connection totaled 9,835 compared with 10,687 for same week last year. Total cars moved were 30,168 compared with 30,598 for same week last year. Santa Fe handled a total of 26,913 cars in preceding week.

In the South China Sea 3 1/2 miles of communication cable was recently cut from the line between Hong Kong and Amoy. This is usually the work of thieves because cable material, unraveled and melted down, makes top black market items.

Steel production in the first four months of 1951 in the United States was 34.5 million tons, a new record.

Effects of Toxaphene On Dairy Cows

COLLEGE STATION. — Small amounts of toxaphene apparently are not harmful to dairy cattle. This insecticide is used widely in the control of grasshoppers on forage crops and pastures and in control of flies, lice and ticks on dairy cows.

The effects of toxaphene on dairy cattle were investigated during 1950 by research workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Amounts varying from two and one-half to thirty-seven and one-half grams of actual toxaphene per day were fed to four Jersey cows.

R. E. Leighton, associate professor of dairy husbandry, reports that none of the cows showed any harmful effects as long as the dose of toxaphene was not over five grams per cow daily.

However, when the dosage was increased to seven and one-half grams, symptoms of toxaphene poisoning—extreme nervousness, loss of appetite and convulsions—became evident, usually within one to two weeks. Feeding larger dosages of the poison finally resulted in the death of two cows.

In another phase of the experiment, calves were not harmed by drinking milk from Jersey cows fed half a gram of pure toxaphene a day. Leighton estimated that a dairy cow eating roughages sprayed with normal amounts of toxaphene would not consume more than half a gram of toxaphene in 24 hours.

Apparently, it is safe to spray dairy cows with five-tenths per cent toxaphene prepared from wettable powder concentrates, says Leighton. However, use of a five-tenths per cent toxaphene water emulsion spray prepared from emulsified oil concentrates may not be satisfactory.

Following the use of water emulsion spray in this experiment, toxaphene apparently was secreted in the milk for several days.

Further research on the effects of toxaphene on dairy cattle and their milk is planned by the experiment station.

The results of completed work are given in Progress Report 1409,

Urinary Calculi Study Progress

COLLEGE STATION. — Animal scientists report progress in investigations on the formation of urinary calculi in cattle.

These crystalline or stonelike deposits, which are formed in the urinary tract, may result in the death of animals by obstructing the flow of urine.

Recent work indicates that the urinary calculi content of the bladder is increased by including limestone in the fattening ration of a steer calf. Supplementing the ration with bonemeal apparently has a similar but less pronounced effect.

These results were obtained in an experiment conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture during 1950-51 at the Big Spring Field Station.

Six lots of eight steer calves each were used in this work. Two lots were fed 0.1 pound of pulverized limestone daily per head, two lots received 200 grams of bonemeal per head daily, and the remaining two lots received no mineral supplement.

John H. Jones, animal husbandman with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, reports that very small amounts of calculi were found in the bladders of the steers, although three were lost from this condition.

Of the steers which received no mineral supplement, nine were free of calculi and only one had more than 0.1 gram. Three of the steers fed bonemeal were free of calculi and only two had more than 1.0 gram. One of the animals fed limestone was free of calculi, nine had less than 1.0 gram, two had 2.0 grams and two had nearly 4.0 grams.

Results of the 1950-51 study are given in Progress Report 1407, available from the Publications Office, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, College Station, Texas.

FARM QUESTION BOX

by ED W. MITCHELL Farm Advisor General Electric Station WGY

- Q. I have a swarm of bees in a barn between the granary and the outside building siding. If I were to kill these bees with "cyanogas" in order to get the honey, would this gas make the honey unfit to eat? A. Yes and no. On exposure to the air, the cyanogas turns to hydrocyanic acid gas, which does the killing, and lime which is harmless. The gas is soon dissipated but either leaves an odor and taste of acetylene that is very persistent and distasteful, and might flavor the honey. Wait till some real cold day and then get the honey while bees are too cold to protect it. Maybe you can rig a door so it will be easier to rob the bees next year. Q. Please let me know what I can do for carpet beetles. I have them around a large 12 x 26 foot rug which is new, and I would like to kill them before they eat up my rug. A. Moth and beetle-proof both sides of this, and all other rugs and carpets, by spraying with a DDT, stainless type of fly spray (sold at most drug and grocery stores). Used with care it will not spot or stain, and used thoroughly it will control all insects for about twelve months. I buy a concentrated DDT and add some to the regular fly spray to make sure it is good and strong. Q. Please tell me how to compute the number of tons in a mow of hay. A. Measure and figure the number of cubic feet in the mow. About 500

- cubic feet of well-settled hay or 760 cubic feet of newly stored hay will make a ton. Timothy is heavier than alfalfa or clover. Q. We have a chimney that smokes whenever the wind is from the west. What remedy can you suggest? A. These are the remedies that usually help: revolving tin hood or chimney cap; build chimney a little higher so it is well above the ridge of the roof. Tall trees to the west might have some bearing on the case. As a last resort, put an electric exhaust fan in an L off the chimney and turn it on when chimney smokes. Q. How can I get rid of cat-tails from the sides of a brook? A. The practical control is to keep them cut off below water level for one whole season, so roots die from lack of foliage to provide air and food. Q. I wonder if you can give me advice on painting my new cow barn. That is, I have just finished a new cow barn; all new, planed lumber in it. Should we paint it, or should we whitewash it? I have heard something about paint having poison in it. A. I would paint it right away and use a good grade of paint. All paint contains either lead or other things that may poison cattle if they lick off enough of it, but if they get a balanced ration and minerals, they seldom eat enough paint to hurt them.

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

Honest John, this writer has said some pretty hard things about the present administration, but it remained for a prominent layman of the Baptist church, and twice president of the General Convention of that church to call the hand of Brother Truman and the cronies. Mr. Fleming stated in plain everyday language we can all understand, and we quote: "If the rotten so-called Democrats dominate this country for another four years, we won't have to go to hell—we'll already be there." Unquote. Well anyway, they have gotten this good old USA in to one melofafess. And like Mr. Fleming, we agree that the best hopes of the nation is to clean house from cellar to attic. When a good housekeeper finds her home messy, she don't just clean one room or one spot in that room. She goes after the whole building. And that's what we, the people, have to do at Washington. Not just a lick and a promise but a real cleaning. Now some folks think preachers and church folks should stay out of politics. But they are taxpaying citizens, most of them, and they have every right to express themselves. And when the church folks get stirred up at the way things are going, better move along little doggie.

Had a short letter from Ed Henson over at Ashdown, Ark., this week, said all were enjoying good health, and that he would see us when the roses bloom again—this summer.

He submitted three ads, which you will find on the classified page. There is some bargains for the man with surplus cash. Some of it rich farming land, and the other good grazing land. Read his ads.

The Old He and wife happened through Lamesa just after the time the big black female fight occurred last Sunday about 5 p. m. One negro woman died from wounds, another is seriously cut and stabbed, now in a hospital, and a third hurt some, but in jail.

Said by police to be all over "Mah Man" perhaps. Anyway, there was a huge crowd of negroes gathered just off the highway in the flats section in south Lamesa. Looked like an old fashioned fish fry gathering down on the Trinity River between Ellis and Kaufman counties back about 1900.

By the way, if you happen to need a sweater, let us state that the local merchants have them, and they are worth what they ask for them. You don't have to wait for a door to door salesman, who will sell you one of the explosive varieties.

It is always safest to buy from your dealer, even if you imagine you pay a bit more. If the article does not come up to Hoyle, he is there to exchange or adjust defect. The street peddler will be long since gone when you want him most. Trade with known dealers.

We bust our britches and scorch our shirt. We have just learned that when you run an ad, it must first be submitted to certain young fellows in this burg for approval, even though some other people are paying for the ad. Something deep down further than surface indications tell us there is a motive for this, and not favorable to this paper.

Some of these days we're going to dig up a lot of this mystery. We have a notice about the Public School Week March 2-8, when thousands of adult Texans will be privileged to go back to school and see what makes 'em tick. Maybe we'd better register and find just how modern business methods are conducted.

As we understand the matter, it gives the adult a chance to see "Democracy in Action." Well, if there is anything on earth the world needs, it is more democracy and less dictatorship. But more about "Public School Week" later.

So, car inspection time has been put off till September 6. Now let's see what day that come on—Saturday, by heck. So, Friday, Sept. 5th, we'll drive the old 40ty down to the place we have selected to inspect old reliable. And if some Smart Alex tells us that it will take just $100 to make 'er subject to road duty . . .

In that case, we're just going to tell them to keep the car, and please let us have the license plate. Seriously, we have noted in some of the big town dailies that people are griping, a few complaining that the "inspectors" want $50 or more to put a comparatively new car in "proper running order."

It seems this is mostly confined to the big cities where John Doe does not personally know J. Q. Public, and is out for all the money they can get while the getting is good. Here, on the other hand, where everyone considers the other fellow a friend and neighbor, we don't expect any such extravagant charges to be made—none perhaps on new cars.

We don't usually read the beer promotional ads that are found in the mags and occasionally in some of the weekly newspapers, but one paragraph of the Joe Marsh beer promotional ad—any brand—caught us recently, and the thoughts behind the ad could be true. An ice storm had struck with fury up north, and all the powerlines were down. No lights or power in the rural areas.

There was some squawking, of course, but not too much, as people knew that linemen were out in the frigid weather doing all they could to restore power. But one woman gave a new twist to the whole matter: I don't mind not having lights but I've got 20 cows in my barn and they have to be milked by machine. Nobody around here knows how to milk a cow by hand any more.

Had you ever thought about the truth of the above statement? Twenty or thirty years ago, all cows on the farms were milked by hand. Possibly there were a few old men and women in the community, if not too feeble, could have milked those cows by hand. But in a generation or two, people forget how to do things their dads and mothers thought were easy.

We note that the Hon. Tom Connally, senior senator from Texas, and chairman of the Foreign Relations committee has recently made a speech in the Senate. You know the Hon. Tom spent some time this year in Texas, being election year, and he kept his ears open while at home. He found that people in general are fed up on the idea of not only supporting ourselves but the entire world as well.

So, the aging Tom told the Senate that expenses, especially unnecessary ones, must be cut to the

Dates For Jr. Fat Stock Show Carded

LUBBOCK.—Dates for the South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show have been set for March 17-18-19, show officials announced this week.

The announcement followed a survey of the area's agricultural leaders to determine favorable dates for the show. Exhibitors annually journey here from 26 counties in Texas and New Mexico. Officials had seriously considered later dates for the show this year, but the survey revealed that exhibitors would have a longer feeding time between their local shows and the regional show here. The 19th annual exposition is expected to exceed last year's record entry list of 568 pigs, 266 calves and 142 lambs, a total of 986 animals.

bone, and the departments at Washington operate on much less money. And he feels that Europe should be able to operate and stand on its own legs by this time.

Tom is not unlike some of us right here on the south Plains, who came in the early days and withstood the rigors of making a new country out of a frontier. All of us hit the ball by telling everyone, everywhere what a great country this—was to be—and now is. But we get little credit for it.

Some of the folks—just a few—think that everything should make way for them. But many of the pioneers refuse to "drop dead." They feel they have some rights along with the newer people. Many of the new people are the same calibre as the old timers here. Perhaps their folks help to settle and develop regions just beyond the cap and central west Texas in general. They know and appreciate some of the inconveniences of the early settler.

But a lot of the old squatters refuse to "get lost" and may be around in these diggings for quite some time.

Shivers Speaks in South's Revolt

Allan Shivers has stepped forward as the leader of reform in the Democratic party, which has shown itself so badly in need of it. In deciding to stand for renomination to the office of Governor of Texas which he has held constructively and honorably for the greater part of two terms, since the sudden death of Beauford Jester, Mr. Shivers obviously has in mind that he can be of greater service as Governor in the fight to clear the party's name and record than he could be in a federal post should he seek and be elected to it.

At their recent conference in Hot Springs, southern Governors entrusted to Allan Shivers leadership in their combined efforts to restore honor and dignity to the Democratic party. They were conscious that, nationally, the party has embraced socialism in the visible effort to exploit its emotional public appeal to entrenched conscienceless venality in centralized power. The thinking South, never abandoning the cardinal Democratic principle of States' rights, is nauseated when the plundering political policies of Tweed and Pendergast are piously palmed off as Jeffersonian ideals. At Hot Springs they went on record against it.

Governor Shivers' press conference Saturday made his position clear. He is a Democrat who can not vote for the party candidate if this is Harry Truman himself or just another Truman. Many Southerners are deluded by, others injured to, still others suborned by the lack of principle in the national administration. Unlike these the Governor made it clear that he has hitherto voted for the nominee in hopes of reform. Now he recognizes that it is hopeless to expect anything of the Truman wing but continuing refusal or inability to serve the country instead of themselves. When a good American's stomach turns, he wants a remedy, not excuses and promises.

Significant in Governor Shivers' uninhibited discussion with his questioners was his forthright rejection of Chief Justice Vinson because of his written opinion in the tidelands case. A good constitutional lawyer could question the bench of any jurist subscribing to that particular opinion. It stands to reason that no fundamental constitutionalist can believe that the man who wrote the opinion could be trusted to support the Constitution. Assuming that Allan Shivers speaks for most of his fellow Governors, the chosen leaders of the South, here is notice to the Pendergast plunderbund that revolt is on the way.

Governor Shivers' announcement is clear-cut recognition that the leadership to which he has been named is a trust that can only be carried out by continuing to serve.—Dallas News.

New Cars Are Rolling in Rapidly

Make a kind of sashay around the premises of the local dealers who aim to show new 1952 cars this week. Yep, they all had one or more stashed away in celophane, but a knowing grin on their faces gave us to understand that there would be no "pre-views."

Over at Tudor Sales Co., they stated that the new 1952 Buick would be on hand, as per their ad this week, and they gave us to understand that it would surely be worth your while to come see. And we might add the Buick motto: "When Better Cars are built, Buick will build them." "Lucky Strike" Pace and his crew of showmen will be there to tell you the good points.

Everybody and old Uncle Jimmy Lillard and his hounds, if they were living, are curious to see that new Jeep at M. J. Craig Motor. But Jr., Craig stated that it was back in the warehouse and not to be shown until Friday. But from the pictures we have of the car, please don't expect a vehicle that favors the war time Jeep in the least. It is a real car, and said to go some 35 miles on a gallon of gas.

Down at Shipley Motors, they were afraid they would not have the new Dodge truck on display, as they did not have one up to that time. When they do, they will let us know and we'll pass it on to the readers.

And over at Portwood Motors, they were not sure about the Ford truck showing. And will not until the management returns from the showing at Dallas.

Father of J. T. Herod Dies At Seagraves

Funeral services for "Uncle Ben" Herod, 84, father of J. T. Herod of Brownfield, were held at Throckmorton Monday, January 7. Max Leach of Abilene Christian College officiated at services in the Church of Christ, and burial was in the Throckmorton cemetery.

Herod, called "Uncle Ben" by everyone who knew him, moved to Throckmorton when he was a child. He lived on a farm south of there.

He died Sunday, January 6, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Olin Trimble, who resides eight miles east of Seagraves. He had been bedfast a long time before his death. His wife, who survives, is also bedfast at Mrs. Trimble's home.

Other survivors are two other sons, Duard of Seagraves and Audie of Brownwood, and 13 grandchildren.

Attend Florists Meet in Lubbock

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rogers attended the regular monthly meeting of the South Plains Florist Association in Lubbock on Monday night, Jan. 7, and the next regular meeting will be held in Brownfield on February 4.

Mrs. Hoy was elected secretary-treasurer of the association. Other officers elected were president, J. E. Chisholm Jr. of Littlefield, and vice president, Archie Baldwin of Lubbock.

The association meets monthly to discuss problems of florists in the plains area, to exchange ideas and to discuss new arrangements and ideas.

The Tasmanian tiger, actually a marsupial wolf, is one of the rarest of living animals.

ALL-STAR GAME MONDAY NIGHT

Boys' and Girls' All-Star Basketball squads, sponsored by Goodpasture Grain Company, will play the Lamesa All-Stars here next Monday night in the Junior High school gym.

The games will start at 7:30 p.m.

New and Renewals

R. E. Townzen was in this week to beamen the Old He a bit, as we had not ordered his daily paper. Can't R. E. understand that we have to visit sometimes, and that he can do without a daily a few more days? We always have some excuse for our negligence.

Among the three year renewals of late were Leon Saffell, Rt. 1, Meadow, and C. D. Caswell, same address. Mr. Caswell also had the Herald sent to his son, Herbert, at Hollis, Okla. E. L. Howard is a new reader on Rt. 1, Meadow, and paid for three years. Those Meadowites sure have the dough, apparently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Corning have recently had the Herald sent to their daughters, Mrs. Retha Cardwell of Palvadera, N. M., and Mrs. O. W. Cowan of Dallas, Oregon.

Welcome to Ted Ratcliff, city, as a new reader. He is the local distributor of Borden's (it's got to be good) Milk, here in Brownfield.

Thanks to L. A. Rhyne, city, and George Mahon, our popular congressman, at Washington, for renewals.

L. R. Riney also had a kick to register of late, when he called to renew. We had it Riley instead of Riney, but he says he managed to get the paper. We get letters once in a while from people who have known us to these many years, that misspell our name, ending it with "land" instead of "lin." Even Sharley Shurnal Guy did that recently. He did that just 'cause we call him Sharley Shurnal, of Hubbock-Ambulance.

FFA CHAPTER NEWS

Richard Attaberry and Joe Stevens, both of Lamesa, were guest speakers at the regular meeting of the Future Farmers of America Monday night in the agriculture department of the local high school.

Attaberry is state vice president of FFA and he discussed the coming state convention, and told of the state FFA achievements. Stevens, who is an Area 2 officer, gave a report on area activities and the Area 2 projects.

Officers of the FFA and Ray Hensley, assistant advisor, planned the program. Claud Cypert gave record on the finances of the chapter, and the cost for setting up the pens for livestock on the project acreage. Total cost to the chapter is $387.89, which includes repairs to the windmill, purchase of the tank and stand and panels for construction of the pens.

Charles Batley gave a report on the district banquet, and Richard Ridgeway discussed the supervised farm program. Lanny Webb told of the calf feeding project, reporting that 53 calves are being fed now by FFA boys.

A film was shown on poultry diseases by Mr. Hensley, and refreshments were served to 52 members and guests attending.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Louallen and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Corning visited the Cornings daughter, Mrs. J. O. Cardwell, and Mr. Cardwell Sunday, Jan. 13, in Polvadera, New Mexico. They returned home on Monday, Jan. 14.

The Heat's in the Ceiling

Yes, both heat and light are in the ceiling as this modern young homemaker steps from her bath into a roomful of warm, circulating air. This versatile new unit—a combination ceiling heater, overhead light and air circulator—distributes even heat or cooling air throughout the room, while giving off soft, non-glare illumination. Easily and quickly installed in the home, out of reach of children's hands, "Heat-a-lite" overcomes the hazards of ordinary wall and portable heaters. It's ideal for bedrooms, nurseries and other small areas to be heated, lighted and air circulated. It's manufactured by NuTone, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Soup's On! Cheese Vegetable Chowder Today

WINTER WEATHER is the time to have a pot of hearty homemade soup for the family. It sticks to the ribs and is satisfying when the weather is cold.

Cream type soups are especially nutritious, and here's a speed-up method of preparation. Use economical nonfat dry milk and you won't need to make a roux, cooked butter and flour mixture, to thicken the soup. To illustrate this quick method we have a recipe for Cheese Vegetable Chowder, especially delicious for school day luncheons for the youngsters on a cold day.

But a word about nonfat dry milk first. It is milk with only the fat and water removed and it can be used for cooking, baking, drinking, with cereals—and it will even whip. Nonfat dry milk is an extremely valuable source of protein, calcium, riboflavin and lactose. It is a very economical food item, too, for a one-pound package, available at the grocer's, will make five quarts of nonfat milk at only about eight cents a quart.

And now for Cheese Vegetable Chowder:

Cheese Vegetable Chowder (Makes 6 servings)

- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 1/2 cup finely chopped green pepper
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup Starlac (nonfat dry milk)
- 1/4 lb. process American cheese food
- 3/4 cup cooked whole kernel corn
- 3/4 cup diced, cooked carrots or turnips
- 3/4 cup finely shredded cooked cabbage
- 1 cup diced cooked potato
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Cook onion and green pepper in melted butter in small frying pan until tender and light golden brown. Pour lukewarm water into soup kettle. Sprinkle Starlac (nonfat dry milk) over surface; heat until just blended. Add shredded cheese, cooked onion-pepper mixture and the remaining ingredients. Cover kettle and heat to boiling over low heat, stirring often. Serve at once; if desired, garnish each serving with chopped parsley.

WELLMAN BAPTIST WOMEN MEET

Women's Missionary Union of the Wellman Baptist Church met Monday night, January 14, at the church with six members present and one visitor, Mrs. Halley Brown.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Robert Hamm, vice president, Mrs. Charles Jackson presided during a short business session. The Anne W. Armstrong season of prayer was stressed, which is March 3 through March 7. Fifth Monday in March is work night, and members plan to fix up the nursery at the church.

Plans were made for the Sweet-heart Banquet, honoring the young people and their sweethearts on Valentine.

Mrs. Azle Brown was program chairman, and presented an inspiring program on "Good News For All Who Seek."

The next meeting will be on the fourth Monday, January 28, when members will have a Bible study. Miss Nora Mae Kerby will be in charge of the program on women of the Old Testament.

Charlie McCarthy Coming to Post

The Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy show will be presented in Post some time between January 28 and February 7, according to an announcement from Irwin Franklin, Bergen's public relations agent.

Bergen is staging his show at Post as a special "thanks" to the citizens of Post for their generous response to his recent Operations Santa Claus project. He thanked them on his national radio program January 6 and said at that time, "Charlie and I will be in Post soon to thank the people in person."

He also wrote that if at that time he visited Post the people had any philanthropic drive on he would gladly give a complete show gratis.

Proceeds of the show will go toward some phase of the new county hospital which is now under construction. Date, time and price of the show, which will be staged in the Stampedo Rodeo grounds on the Lubbock highway, weather permitting, will be announced later.

Mrs. G. G. Gore is in a local hospital in a very critical condition. She was improved over her condition of last Saturday, when she was admitted, but is still very serious.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gibson and children, Donald and Neva, who have been residing in the Wellman community, moved last week to Burnett where they will make their home.

Lieut. and Mrs. John Stranlund are now at home near Moffett Field, Calif., where he is stationed in the Naval Air Corps. She was Miss Theresa Chisholm before her recent marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McIlroy of San Antonio visited his parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. H. McIlroy, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dubose, during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Paul Bish underwent surgery in a hospital in Colorado Springs, Colo., on Monday, January 7. She is reported to be recovering nicely. She and Mr. Bish and children, Mack and Delana, are former residents of Brownfield and his mother, Mrs. E. P. Bish, lives here. He is employed with Maytag Air Corp., in Colorado Springs.

The modern vacuum cleaner with its various attachments is a boon to any housewife's life. Among the labor-saving devices is a paint spraying attachment which lends itself to many uses around the house. Here a young mother, expecting a "blessed event," is repainting the crib she used for her first child who looks on with evident enthusiasm both for the paint spraying and the expected "event." If you want to repaint your kitchen chairs, for instance, merely attach the hose to the blower outlet, as our pretty young mother has done with her Lewyt Vacuum Cleaner, and then add the paint sprayer to the other end of the hose. Be sure the paint is thinned sufficiently since several thin coats of paint are more durable than one or two heavily brushed-on coats.

WELLMAN SCHOOL

Mr. Guest has been sick the past two weeks but has recovered and returned to teaching school again.

The eighth grade is having their mid-term test now. They will receive their report cards Wednesday.

First Grade

Mrs. Lanious' room is sorry to lose Carolyn Warren. Her family has moved to Plains. The first grade welcomes Mary Lou Harris as a new student from Gomez.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Harris have recently moved to this community.

The attendance has really been good in Mrs. Lanious' room until this week, they report five absent Monday because of illness.

Both first grade rooms enjoyed "a fish story" movie Monday that makes it seem like spring anyway though. They saw two movies on fruit last week; speaking of fruit and fish makes us hungry.

Fourth Grade News

Wanda Smith spent last week at Comanche. We welcome Lynda Kay York, who has moved into our school from the Posey school at Lubbock.

A Honor Roll: Peggy Burnett.
B Honor Roll: Barbara Watkins, Virginia Thornton, Opal Hawkins, Velda Hill.

Pasy Sosebee missed school last week on account of illness.

Students and teachers both are very glad that mid-term tests are over. We hope everyone is happy with his or her report cards, if you are not, let's say work a little bit harder during this second school term.

Fifth Grade Honor Roll:

A or A—: Milam Ray Hawkins, Winston Livesay, Nancy Edwards.
B or B—: Ross Betcher, Dale Bingham, Roy Lee Brackett, Larry Cabe, James Jolly, Larry Dan Sims, Sammie Adair, Barbara Bishop, Dixie Bowlin, Tommy Loe, Jane Salisbury.

Nancy Edwards went to Lubbock Saturday, Jan. 12.

JACK THOMPSONS HAVE A SON

A son, Jimmy Lee, was born last Friday, January 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson, of route 4, Brownfield. The young man, who is an only child, weighed seven pounds and two ounces. The father is a farmer.

Larry Cabe has been absent from school on account of illness.

We are very sorry that Larry Don Sims is leaving our school.

Mrs. Lyon's says she is glad to be back at school after spending most of her time the last 10 days at a hospital.

Dale Bingham is going to move, not out of our school district we hope.

We welcome two new pupils to our room. They are Georgia Faught and Fidela Silas.

The fifth grade pupils who have neither been absent nor tardy:

Barbar Bishop, Buster Chambers, Dale Bingham, Gary Smith, Nancy Edwards, Vera Joyce Trigg, Chester Ferguson, Leona May Smith, Milton Dickens, Spencer Morley, Buddy Hawkins.

Sixth Grade News

Lynda Watts hopes to sing at Loop review. William Solisbury's brother and two cousins were in a wreck, one cousin was in a hospital.

Neva Nell Gibson moved to Burnet, Texas. Bill Adams' granddaddy passed away Saturday a week ago.

Glenda Jane Christopher's brother Jimmy was home this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Loe and Danny and Tommy went to Spur to attend the funeral of Mrs. Loe's uncle, Mr. John Lusk.

The sixth grade in mid-term tests were very good.

Freshman News

The Freshman had a class meeting Friday, Jan. 11, 1952. Bill Tom Goza was elected as president to succeed Jerry Don Sims who has moved to Fort Worth.

We have two new pupils—Franklin Langley from O'Brien, Texas, and Clyde Bragg from Lingleville, Texas.

A Visit to Old Scurry and Howard

The urge to travel a bit, and to see Herman, Sallie and Miss Scurry Beth called us loud and long last weekend and we took off. They have finished gathering the best test crop in years down in that section. Garza only made some 6000 bales and Scurry less than 10,000, and Scurry usually makes about as much cotton as Terry.

And the rainfall of Jan. 1-3, was light down there. Some did not believe they had more than 1/10th of an inch, while we had over three quarters of an inch. You could tell where it began to stack off east of Tahoka, and there was not much listing and breaking land down near Post and on. Just a light scum of ice on top, they reported.

A Talk With Rollin McCord

Had not seen much of Rollin McCord since he quit politics as District Attorney. And since he is now one of the owners of the Plains Implement Co., formerly the Price Implement Co., we decided to stop by his place. He informed us that the M-H company at Dallas had been talking to him about buying out Price since it was known that Money wanted to sell.

Just the same old Rollin as of yore, and he is really tickled with the manager here, Ben Cowling. Had known Ben since he was a boy, and even then Ben was not afraid of work, McCord stated. And he, McCord, expected Ben to put things over in a big way here in Brownfield.

By the way, McCord mentioned a figure he did not permit us to mention as the amount his concern sold in the way of machinery and parts last year. But it was astonishing.

Found all the kids and grandkids in fine fettle, except some running at the nose. It was our aim to go over to Coahoma Saturday morning and spend the day with the Rosetta Roberts family. But Sallie had a beauty shop date, and Herman rounded up his job of paying taxes. Like here, there are three places in Snyder, county and state, city and public school.

Taxes are not very high there for the reason of their huge oil fields. We believe the Snyder Daily News gave the county valuations at some $130,000,000, and the Snyder school district would not be too much behind. And speaking of the oil fields, they are really impressive at night. As one gets on the caprock north of Coahoma and hits the Big Spring Snyder highway, thousands of flare lights can be seen stretching for miles. Gives one the idea of a large city like Los Angeles at night.

Found the Roberts generation very well, and after an afternoon of conversation, we had a fine supper, so much more than we are used to, headed by fried chicken. We've been visiting in that home since the early twenties, and something you can always depend on—plenty to eat on the table. Found Mrs. B. R. Lay and the two grand children visiting from Brownfield.

Went via Colorado City, and back the north route. Monday was Sallie's birthday, but as we had to come home, we just made the celebration a day early, and had the cake and other good eats Sunday noon.

MEADOW AND CHALLIS CLUB

Members of Meadow and Challis Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Hugh Clark.

After a business meeting, Miss Doris Mahaffey, the demonstrator, gave a program on "Clothing Construction."

Refreshments of soft drinks and cake were served to Mesdames Tommie Pettigrew, George Martin, Sam Gossett, W. T. Moss, Hugh Clark and Miss Mahaffey.

The next meeting will be February 5, in the home of Mrs. Sam Gossett.—Reporter.

WSCS Circles Study 'Gifts We Bring' Meetings Monday Afternoon

Separate circle meetings were held by members of the Women's Society of Christian Service Monday afternoon, when they studied the World Outlook program on "The Gifts We Bring."

Mrs. J. L. Newsum was hostess to members of the Love Circle at her home, 916 East Tate. Mrs. James Warren, chairman of the circle, presided during a business meeting.

A prayer was offered by Mrs. Wayland Parker, and Mrs. Warren led the devotional. "Joy to the World" was sung by the group.

Mrs. Roy Herod led the program, assisted by Mesdames Leo Holmes, Johnnie Portwood and Parker.

Cake and coffee was served by the hostess to those on the program, and Mesdames James Thurman, Ernest Latham, R. J. Purtell, and E. C. Gerstenberger.

of gratitude to God for His boundless goodness and care.

Mrs. J. H. Carpenter led the program, and the call to worship was the group singing "Praise Him, Praise Him," and "Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee." The group read the responsive reading before another son, "A New Song."

"The First Gift—An Increased Membership" was discussed by Mrs. W. B. Downing. "The Second Gift—Well Informed Membership" was given by Mrs. J. Fred Bucy; and "The Third Gift—Volunteers For Christian Service" was told by Mrs. G. S. Webber. Mrs. Glen Harris discussed "The Fourth Gift—Money." Mrs. Carpenter led the meditation, and the closing prayer was said in union.

After the program, Mrs. Downing presided at a business meeting. Others attending were: Mesdames Anna Hare, Delta Lemley, J. W. Hogue, Jim Griffith and R. L. Cornelius, and Miss Maude Bailey.

The circles will meet together next Monday afternoon at the church for the study of the Book of Acts, led by Mrs. Webber.

Members of the Faith Circle met in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church at 3 p. m. Monday. The purposes of these programs are to stimulate members of the WSCS and Wesleyan Service Guild to a fresher sense

Baptist WMU Circles Study 'Crusade Home Missions' Monday Afternoon

The Mission Study, "Crusade in Home Missions," by Courts Redford was discussed in separate circle meetings of the Women's Missionary Union of First Baptist Church Monday afternoon.

At 3 p. m. the Bagby Circle met at the home of Mrs. Ame Flucht, 514 Lubbock Road, with nine members present. The lesson was led by Mrs. Loretta Preston.

Lois Glass Circle met at 3:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Homer Nelson, 402 East Hill, and Mrs. E. M. Bailey taught the lesson. There were seven members present.

Mrs. C. W. Denison was hostess to members of the Lucille Reagan Circle at 4 p. m. at her home, 1006 East Reppito, and seven members attended. Mrs. James Fitzgerald discussed the lesson.

Jamell Doyle Circle met at the home of Mrs. Jim Jones, 219 West

Ripley, at 4 p. m., and Mrs. M. G. Tarpley taught the lesson. There with 12 members present, and a new member, Mrs. T. C. Hogue. Mrs. Jones Weathers, pastor's wife, visited the circle.

Mrs. I. H. Miller, 502 East Oak, was hostess to members of the Blanche Grove Circle at 4 p. m., and seven attended. Mrs. D. L. Patton was in charge of the lesson.

Mrs. R. D. Shewmake Jr., taught the lesson, in the absence of a Mission Study chairman, at the Lottie Moon Circle meeting at 4 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Dorman Dumas, 1015 East Lake.

A Royal Service program will be held at 3 p. m. next Monday at the church, and all members are urged to attend. Lucille Reagan Circle will be in charge of the program, led by Mrs. C. W. Denison.

Cen-Tex Harmony Music Club Elects Officers; Has Program on Bach

Mrs. Grace P. Wood was elected president for next year by members of the Cen-Tex Harmony Music Club at their regular meeting Tuesday night at Seleta Jane Brownfield clubhouse.

Mrs. Ray Summers was named vice president, Mrs. K. B. Sadlier, parliamentarian, Mrs. William Coge, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Donald Cade, recording secretary, and Mrs. Viola Stallings, treasurer. Mrs. J. Fred Bucy, president, presided during the business meeting, and the club voted to extend an invitation to members of the Littlefield Music Club to meet here in the near future.

accompanied by Mrs. Wood at the piano. Concluding the program, Mrs. Jim Griffith discussed "Musical Oddities."

Refreshments were served to 14 members and one visitor, Mrs. F. M. Luckie, by hostesses Mesdames Eldora White and Stallings. Members present were Mesdames Bucy, Griffith, White, Wood, Dallas, Minerva Chesshir, Janet Wynn, Cade, Stallings, Sadlier, Luckie, Minnie Williams, and Misses Maude Bailey and Creola Moore.

The next meeting of the club is scheduled for February 5.

Mrs. Wood led the program on the life of Johann Sebastian Bach, and the story of his life was told by Mrs. W. H. Dallas, who also gave the piano selection, "Prelude From Well-Tempered Clavichord."

Mrs. John Luckie sang "My Heart Ever Faithful" by Bach, and "Songs Taught Me By My Mother."

MRS. JONES HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Doug Jones was hostess to members of the Gala Bridge Club Thursday night of last week, at the home of Miss Sue Jones, 217 West Hill. Mrs. Orb Stice was elected president for this year, replacing Mrs. Mike Barrett; and Mrs. Frank Ballard was named reporter, taking the place of Miss Jones.

During the bridge games, Mrs. Stice placed high, with Mrs. Ned Self second high. Bingo prizes were won by Mrs. Harmon Howze and Mrs. Leonard Chesshir.

A sandwich plate with coffee was served to the following who attended: Mesdames Self, Howze, Leonard Chesshir, Herbert Chesshir, Barrett, Stice, R. N. Lowe and Jones, and Miss Sue Jones.

Maids and Matrons Have Lesson on Youth

"Our Youth Gives Us Concern" was the topic for the program led by Mrs. F. G. White at the meeting Tuesday afternoon of the Maids and Matrons Study Club at Seleta Jane Brownfield clubhouse.

Mrs. White introduced the guest speaker, county attorney Vernon Townes, who discussed "Narcotics and Drinking" in regard to the youth. She also read a message sent to President Truman by the National Federation president, pertaining to the use of narcotics and drinking among youth in the nation.

During the business meeting at which Mrs. Looe Miller, president, presided, the resignation of Mrs. D. D. Denison was accepted, and Mrs. Frank Ballard was named a new member to take her place.

The club voted not to entertain their husbands at the next regular meeting, January 28. Mrs. Barton Evans will give a book review at this meeting.

Mrs. W. A. Bell, hostess for Tuesday's meeting, served sandwiches, spiced tea and candied plums to the following members who attended: Mesdames R. H. Casstevens, W. B. Brown, E. C. Davis, Evans, Lee Fulton, Leo Holmes, E. F. Latham, Miller, E. B. McBurnett Jr., Money Price, Gaster Spencer, M. G. Tarpley, J. M. Teague, White and Otis B. Larner.

H. D. Council Plans Work For This Year

"The objectives of the council are to develop leadership, and to forward and extend home demonstration work among both women and girls in all parts of the county," Miss Doris Mahaffey, home demonstration agent, told members of the Terry County council in their meeting Tuesday afternoon of last week in Miss Mahaffey's office.

"The county home demonstration council has three main responsibilities," Miss Mahaffey said, "they are: to serve as an advisory committee; to be a means of communication between the clubs and the agent and between clubs and various other groups; and to be a demonstration in organization."

Miss Kellie Sears, chairman of the council, announced the standing committees for the year. Mrs. A. J. Bell, chairman of the education-expansion committee gave recommendations for work in 1952. She also led the group in a discussion of how home demonstration work can be expanded in Terry county.

Mrs. Thurman Solsbery, chairman of the 4-H club leaders committee, announced plans for club work for the year. A county-wide dress revue and a bake sale are to be included in the year's work.

Mrs. Lee Bartlett read the budget for 1951 and discussed possibilities for 1952. She read a letter from Mrs. R. M. Almonrode, Texas Home Demonstration president, asking all club women to help in the March of Dimes campaign for an hour Thursday, Jan. 31. The council voted to hold a bake sale on that day, with all proceeds going to the March of Dimes fund.

Mrs. Bartlett, vice-chairman of the council, summarized the meetings for new council delegates, who are to make reports to their respective clubs.

Clothing construction was selected by the clubs as the major demonstration of the year, which will be climaxed with a dress revue in June. The demonstrations will be presented by Miss Mahaffey and clothing leaders from each club.

Terry county clubs will complete the third years of home gardening demonstrations with programs on the growing, preparation and canning of tomatoes.

Mrs. Bell led the council in singing "The Eyes of Texas" and Mrs. O. H. Murry, recreational chairman, directed a game during the recreation period.

Present at the council meeting were Mesdames Sears, Ralph Murry, Bartlett, Frank Sargent, J. D. Kinard, Bell, Earl Fox, Solsbery, W. F. Terry, W. J. Moss, Loyce Floyd, Tyler Martin, Alvin Herron, Murry, Miss Betty Kinard and Miss Mahaffey.

Officers and standing committees for the council were announced as follows:

Rebekahs to Meet 1st, 3rd Mondays

Members of the Rebekah Lodge No. 56 voted to change their meeting nights to the first and third Monday nights of each month, instead of each Monday night, at their regular meeting in the IOOF Hall Monday night.

All newly installed officers were in their stations and 37 members were present. Mrs. L. V. Wagner, Noble Grand, called the lodge to order, and conducted a business session. Dr. Argust Curtis was re-appointed drill team captain for the ensuing year.

A fund was started to aid in the March of Dimes campaign. Mrs. Claud Buchanan read and discussed the rules of the order. Mrs. Wayne Brown Sr. read an interesting article on the life of Thomas Wiley, who was founder of Odd Fellowship.

Refreshments of assorted sandwiches and cookies, cake and coffee were served to those attending by Geneva Bryant, Mary Ellen Brown and Mrs. Lillie McPherson.

The lodge will meet next Monday night at 7:30 for a regular meeting then there will be no more meetings until the first night in February.

MRS. LEWIS' CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

Members of the 13-year old intermediate girls' Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met for a business meeting at four o'clock Thursday afternoon of last week, at the home of their teacher, Mrs. W. N. Lewis, 608 East Hill.

Carolyn Burnett was elected president for the next quarter, and Wilma Donaldson was named secretary. Visitation chairman is Frances Floyd and membership is Clara O. Ray.

Margaret Sue Coward and Bobby Jean Quigg attended the meeting, with the new officers.

After the business session, Mrs. Lewis served hamburgers and hot chocolate, and the group sang several songs before they adjourned.

Other members of the class who were unable to attend are Carolyn Arthur, Sharon Yost, Jo Beth Dumas and Betty Ruth Hahn.

Draft Boards Not to Take Men Under 20 in February, Selective Service Director Says

AUSTIN.—The state draft call for February will not be filled with men below the age of 20, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, said last week.

The only exception that will be taken to this rule will be in the case of draft volunteers and delinquents.

Previously, national Selective Service headquarters had instructed state headquarters not to induct any men below 21 without first requesting authority from Washington.

"We requested authority to induct men as low as 20 years old," General Wakefield said, "and subsequently each state and territorial director was granted this authority. Here in Texas we were afraid that we might not be able to deliver our quota if we were confined to 21-year-olds."

The February induction calls is 2,144 men, as compared to 1,471 in January, and 362 in December.

The state Selective Service director said that state headquarters expected to get the February call to local boards in the mail either Monday or Tuesday.

"Texas is going to make every effort to fill the February call from examined and acceptable men who will be at least 21 years of age at the time of induction, regardless of which local board has jurisdiction over them," General Wakefield commented.

"We're calling first on the boards that have examined and acceptable men 21 years, or older," he continued. "Then we're calling on those our records show have no 21-year-old examined and acceptable."

Cleanliness Helps to Protect Tile Floors

COLLEGE STATION.—Cleanliness is important in keeping asphalt and rubber tile floors looking like new, says Bernice Claytor, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. She warns against allowing spilled food or water to remain on the floor any longer than necessary. The more grit and dirt on the floor, the more it receives, she adds.

A self-polishing wax is recommended by the specialist for a protective coating, rather than paste wax. She points out that the liquid used in thinning paste wax causes ingredients in asphalt and rubber tile to soften which results in swelling and pitting of the floor.

Avoid applying lacquer, varnish, shellac or so-called "plastic" finishes to asphalt or rubber tile floors, urges Mrs. Claytor. Don't use strong soap or caustic solutions. Instead use a mild soap or synthetic detergent and rinse the floor thoroughly after using them. Commercial floor cleaners can be used where colors are bleeding. Where the floor has become pitted slightly, a number 1 or number 2 steel wool can be used to cut the floor back to where it is hard and has a sheen. When this is done, however, Mrs. Claytor cautions against rubbing too deeply.

"We must make allowances for possible errors in local board reports, and, also, a lot of things can happen to some of those men that can make them ineligible for service at induction time in February," he commented.

The state Selective Service director pointed to authority in Selective Service regulations for induction of men into the armed for-

Death From Cancer On the Increase

AUSTIN.—"While the span of human life has been lengthened 10 years during the last four decades, the disturbing fact remains that there has been a marked rise in death from cancer during the same period," declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, and urged that the public be on the alert to detect this disease.

"Cancer is not a hopeless, incurable disease. It is not contagious or in itself hereditary. There are thousands of men and women in this country who have been successfully treated for cancer. The great hope of cancer patients lies in their having treatment during the first stages of the disease. Cancer announces itself by symptoms that are frequently painless and apparently trivial, thus giving the disease an unseemly advantage. Early diagnosis is the one powerful antagonist."

The danger signals can be classified as follows: Any lump in the breast or other part of the body; any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth; any unusual discharge or bleeding from any part of the body, such as vomiting of blood, passage of blood from the bowels, or unusual bleeding of any bodily passage, especially after middle-age. These symptoms may be from some other cause but should be diagnosed by a physician.

Two main rules should be followed in cancer treatment. First, have an annual physical examination by a reputable physician. In this way incipient cancerous conditions can be discovered and by proper treatment the disease can be conquered. The second rule is to mistrust high promising statements of "amazing discoveries."

"We did it Again!"

That's the jubilant news that comes from Flint to every Buick dealer—and here we pass the thrilling story on to you. It sure is true for '52 that better automobiles are being built — and Buick is building them. Read the good word and you'll agree.

And with all its new power, it delivers more miles per gallon.

But that is not all.

For those who wish it, there is a brand-new version of power steering that works like a helping hand—gives you the same sure feel of control you have always known in straight-away driving—yet takes less than one-fifth the effort needed to turn the ordinary wheel standing at curbside.

Sure, we're putting our best foot forward when we talk about ROADMASTER.

But you'll find a host of notable features in SUPERS and SPECIALS too—plenty to make them, as always, the standout buys in their fields—for ride, for comfort, for style, for room, and for power.

Come in—look this triumphant trio over—and you'll know why every Buick dealer from coast to coast is going around with a smile on his face.

LET'S pare this down to plain statements of fact and let them speak for themselves:

The dynamic darling pictured here is the 1952 ROADMASTER.

It has the mightiest engine in Buick history.

It has the biggest brakes of any postwar Buick.

It is the quietest car that Buick ever built.

It has the richest fabrics and smartest tailoring that ever graced a Buick's interior.

It has the greatest trunk space since spare tires moved off the front fenders.

It has the most superb ride in Buick history.

It has the finest carburetor that Buick research has ever devised.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Editorial

The nineteen hundred and fifty-second year is twenty-one days old today. It made its grand entrance with hopes of bringing happiness and prosperity to the world, but instead it was mournfully discouraged upon being greeted by a world of turmoil and confusion.

Radio programs and their sponsors wished everyone a happy New Year. People on the streets, in homes and business houses shouted to everyone, "Happy New Year." How could a new year be full of happiness and prosperity with the present condition of the world, in such a status? Wars abroad, international hatred among countries, and communism knocking on America's back door have caused global tension and fear among the people. With this fear of being destroyed constantly ravaging the mind of man, how can happiness and prosperity rule the world? Each news broadcast brings tidings of some investigation of corruption and graft in our supposedly perfect democratic government.

Obsessive fears of being slowly devoured by tyrants or something of that order, dominate the people of the world. Yes, the new year is far from being peaceful and happy. Happiness can only be attained by the human race when the people of the world learn to understand themselves and find

If I Were a Boy

If I were a boy I would, first of all, try to be sweet, popular, friendly, and a lady-killer. I would go to work instead of to school. I would have a date every night, because I would find a job where I earned at least $90 a week. I wouldn't go with just one certain girl, I'd play the field. I'd travel all over the world and do all the things that girls can't do. I'd never fall in love for fear of having my heart broken. I'd stay out all night and never worry about anything. I would never have to decide what to wear or how to fix my hair of what lipstick I should wear. I would never be bothered with dishes to wash, beds to make, floors to sweep, or laundry to do. I would be absolutely free with not a care in the world. I would be my own boss with no one to take care of but myself. I would be completely alone, needing no one to look after me.

All of this may sound pretty good, but I would be terribly unhappy, so I'm really glad that I'm a girl. Besides only a girl can take care of these creatures.

Kay Szydloski.

adequate solutions to global conflicts, but until then man will never know the happiness of a sanctuary of peace and prosperity.

CARLON BRADY NAMED FFA SWEETHEART

Monday night, January 7, at 7:30, in the Jessie G. Randal cafeteria, the FFA boys held their annual district banquet. Orville Miller gave the invocation and Charles Bartley gave the welcome. Carlon Brady, the Brownfield chapter sweetheart, was elected district sweetheart with the Post candidate placing second. The Curtis Brothers from Meadow provided entertainment with guitar playing and singing. Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Rucker, Mr. and Mrs. Buford, Mr. and Mrs. Hensley, Orville W. Miller, Charles Bartley, Richard Ridgeway, and Carlon Brady.

Gossip and Gab

By JANET JOHNSON

Well, kids, here I am, back with the gab. First, I better let you in on the Christmas Holiday romances. It seems as if the couples of BHS showered each other with gifts.

Kay Szydloski and Jimmy Billings had a nice Christmas. Jimmy gave Kay a 45 RPM record player and several records. She gave him an 11x14 picture of herself, a white dress shirt, a tie, and a cigarette lighter. They went to El Paso with Mr. and Mrs. Szydloski and had a wonderful time.

Roxanne Miller's gift to Pat Patterson from Lamesa was a sport jacket. Pat gave her some western clothes. They spent Christmas Day together and ate dinner with her family.

Gloria Little gave Sidney Allen a billfold and he gave her a jewelry box. Gloria went to Abilene Christmas Day so they couldn't be together.

Leah Portwood got a portable radio from Dale Cary. She gave him a watch.

Wynelle Webb gave Jerry Anderson a billfold and he gave her a Tommiecoat set. However, Wynelle spent Christmas Day with Bob Ferguson and Jerry seemed well occupied with Pat Kelly.

Patsy Kay Rogers received a jewelry box and a Teddy Bear from Doyle Bradley. She gave him an ID bracelet.

Parilee Nelson gave Max Black a tie and a pair of tie clasps. He gave her a cologne and sachet set.

Jenie Cloud got a beautiful ID bracelet with Calvin Farris's name engraved on the back.

Patti Truly and Tootie Billings were together quite a lot during the holidays. They had a date one night in El Paso. Had a pretty good time I've heard.

While Freda Anthony dated Sonny Zant, Charles Cabiness looked for Jeannie Cloud. He was disappointed when he heard she had been sick in bed.

Norma Rogers and Kenneth Grawunder have been getting along pretty good. He wasn't in town during the holidays but they're making up for it.

That's about all for this week, kids. I'll be back next week with lots more gossip.

HARD LUCK

By FERGUSON

It seems that Mrs. Chris Franks, who was well-liked by everyone, is having a run of bad luck. As you all know, Mrs. Franks was out of school because of an accident. Her father was injured when he fell from a boll puller. He lost his right arm and leg, but is now at home resting easily. Over the holidays her husband, Ed Franks, was in an auto accident and seriously injured. The man he was riding with was killed and Mr. Franks received a very bad hip injury. We hope he fully recovers and wish them all the luck in the world.

Two New Teachers In High School

When the new term roll around we will have two new teachers in the halls of BHS.

One of the teachers will be Mrs. Cornelia Peters, who will take Mrs. Franks' place. She will teach English and Journalism. Mrs. Peters is now a teacher in West Ward. She has her Master's degree from Columbia.

The other teacher will be a man—but he's married, girls. His name is Mr. Joe Wilson. He will take Mr. Miller's place as Math and Science teacher.

As yet, Mr. Easley's position as counselor has not been filled.

Norma Rogers and Tootie Billings Are Outstanding Senior Students

The outstanding senior girl is Norma Rogers. Norma lives at 1101 Lubbock Road, and her telephone number is 193. She has blond hair and green eyes. She weighs 126 pounds and is 5' 7" tall. Blue is her favorite color and her favorite song is "Cry." Norma plans to attend SMU in Dallas after finishing high school. Her birthday is March 4, and she is 17 years old.

Norma was very surprised and thrilled over the election. We think Norma was a good choice, don't you?

Many New Books In School Library

If you have been in the Library the past few weeks you have probably noticed some of the new books. There is a great number of new fiction books and lots of biographies. If you are going to give a book review, there's just loads of new and interesting books waiting to be read. Giving a book report doesn't have to be such a chore, just give a few of the books a chance and you will find that it's really enjoyable.

Following is a sketch of "What For a Tall White Sail," written by Margaret E. Bell, which is one of the many new books.

The seacoast of Alaska is the background for this story of young love and heroic endurance. It was in 1887, from the deck of the northbound steamer, that sixteen-year-old Florence Monroe first saw the tall white sail. She and her family were being transplanted from their homes in Victoria to Alaska, where her father had started a salmon-fishing business.

Florence's part in the venture was to go to the lonely fishery at Nichols Bay to keep house for her brothers. It was while she was still struggling with the unfamiliar tasks of life in the wilderness that she first met the young owner of the sloop. The grim surprises of Alaska weather turned their next meeting literally into a matter of life or death.

Florence and her twin brother were stranded alone for five weeks, their food supplies almost gone. "And then as if from nowhere—as if from another world—the tall white sail appeared."

Janet Johnson Is Senior Favorite

The Senior class chose as its favorite girl, Janet Johnson. Janet came to Brownfield just last year from Austin High in El Paso, Texas.

This cute little brunette stands only 5 feet 1 inch high and weighs around 100 pounds. She has dancing brown eyes and is 17 years old.

Janet is an active member in the band; besides, she is taking Grammar IV, Journalism, Psychology, Typing II and study hall with her favorite class being band. She is Gossip and Gab editor on the Cub's Den staff. When asked if she was going to college, she answered, "Yes, but I don't know where."

Janet likes popular music best with "Sin" topping her list of favorites. She like the color red, as it is one of the school colors. Johnny Cloud is Janet's favorite person and Mrs. Franks was her favorite teacher.

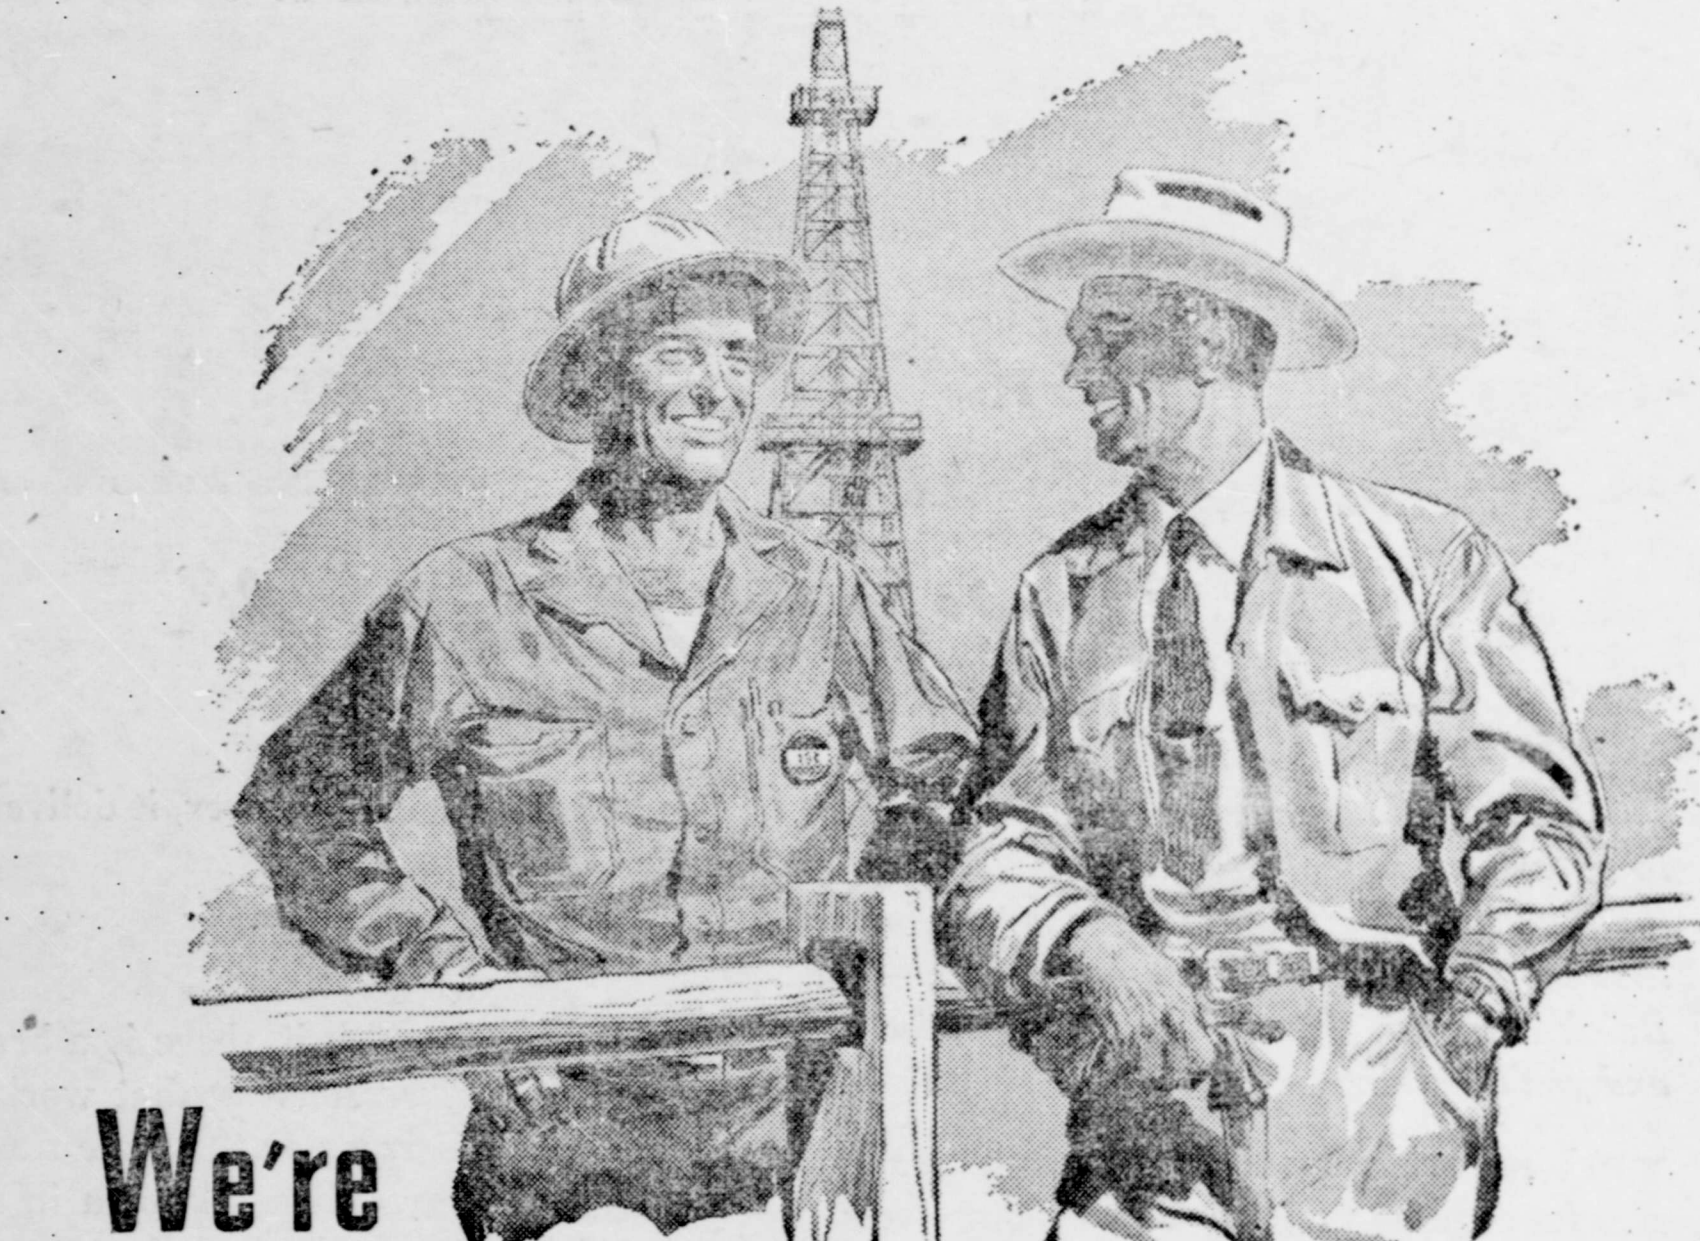

Janet lives at 902 East Repetto and her phone number is 977. I'm sure the seniors made a wise choice in selecting Janet class favorite.

FFA TEAMS PLACE 1ST IN QUIZ CONTEST

The two agriculture teams went to Colorado City. The quiz teams won first. The team consisted of Jim Milburn, Robert Flache and Vernon Brewer. This team will represent Area II in the state contest, which will be held March 15. The farm skill demonstration team tied for first, but was eliminated for state competition because of the repetition given by the team members in giving the demonstration. Big Spring represented Area II in this contest.

Mr. Scott and Mr. Nesbitt, the two trainees from Tech, concluded their work in the local agricultural department last Friday. The boys wish to express their appreciation for their coming to Brownfield Agricultural Departments and working with them the past six weeks.

We're neighbors

Wherever you live in Texas, the oil industry is your neighbor. For the Texas oil industry is the bread-and-butter, the opportunity, the daily work of some 190,000 Texas men and women.

The girl who sits next to you in the bus; the hearty-looking man who waves as you pass on the highway; the family behind you at the PTA: in Texas, they all could be, some certainly are oil workers. Bookkeepers, stenographers, executives, drillers, roughnecks, stillmen, geologists, salesmen, pipe liners, petroleum engineers—the oil industry supplies the livelihood of all, and many more.

Neighbors of yours these people are, folks who pay taxes like yours, spend their money in the stores you patronize, drive the same kind of automobile, send their children to the same schools.

The oil industry is more than a balance sheet, a set of statistics, an investment in derricks and pipe-stills. In Texas, it's the family next door.

MASON NEW SQUARE DANCE CLUB PREXY

N. L. (Bus) Mason was elected president of the Brownfield Country Club square dance club at a quarterly meeting held at the club Tuesday night, January 15. He succeeds John Cadenhead of Meadow.

C. L. Aven Jr. was elected vice president, and Mrs. Mason was named secretary-treasurer of the group.

A committee composed of the new officers and Leo Holmes and L. H. Dean was named to draw up by-laws and a constitution for the club.

MISS IDA BRUTON SURPRISED WITH PARTY

Mrs. Ida Bruton was surprised with a birthday party at her home 218 South Second street, Monday night, when Mesdames Ethel Tucker, E. P. Bish and Aurya Carter were hostesses.

Guests brought gifts and a birthday cake was served. Bridge was enjoyed by the honoree, the hostesses, and Mesdames Ethel Harris, Kenneth Watkins and Clemmie Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Autry of Levelland visited Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Adams here Friday.

Miss Payton and Bud Gossett Wed

Miss Dorothy Payton became the bride of E. D. (Bud) Gossett in a double ring ceremony read at the Ackerly First Methodist Church at 10 a. m. Wednesday, January 2. Rev. Cecil Tune officiated.

The bride is a daughter of J. W. Paydon of Slaton and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gossett of Meadow.

After a wedding trip to South Texas the couple will be at home near Slaton where Mr. Gossett is engaged in farming.

Society, Church & Club News

Couple Wed Sunday Evening At Church

In a candlelight ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening at six o'clock, Miss Patricia Ann Snedeker became the bride of James Weldon Thomas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Snedeker, 507 East Buckley. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Thomas, 2130 West Magnolia, San Antonio.

The Rev. Tom Keenan, pastor, officiated with the double ring ceremony. Leonard Ellington, organist, presented the nuptial music, and accompanied Miss Caroline Horne as she sang "Because." Vows were exchanged before the altar flanked with white tapers in tall candelabra, and a basket of white gladioli were placed in front of the communion table.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a turquoise faille street-length dress of Princess line, with rhinestone trim. Her hat was of matching color and trim, and her accessories were blue. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses attached to a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Nancy Weir and she wore a navy blue faille suit and her bouquet was white carnations.

Wayne Thomas of San Antonio served his brother as best man, and ushers were Jesse McMillan and T. C. Williams Jr.

A reception was held in the church banquet hall immediately following the ceremony, and hostesses were Mesdames Jesse McMillan, Frank Weir, and Mrs. T. C. Williams Jr.

Punch and a three-tiered wedding cake were served from a table centered with white carnations and white tapers in candelabra. Seventy-five guests attended.

After a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple will be at home in Raleigh, N. C., after February. Mr. Thomas will be associated with the Greenbriar Opera Company.

The bride, who was 1949 Harvest Queen for Brownfield, is a 1950 graduate of the local high school, and has been attending Trinity University in San Antonio as a sophomore music major.

The bridegroom is a voice major at Trinity University, and will receive his degree this month.

Crescent Hill Church of Christ News

In spite of much sickness in the community, the largest crowd we've had in several weeks gathered for morning services at the Crescent Hill Church of Christ this past Sunday.

A good crowd was also present for the Sunday evening services.

Bro. M. R. Lee, gospel preacher and member of this congregation, was speaker for both services of the day; and his morning subject was "The Joys of a Christian." In the evening he spoke on "The Foolishness of God versus the Wisdom of Men." His lessons were profitable to all who heard them.

Bro. T. J. Finley of Loveland, Colo., has been employed to serve as minister for this congregation. He will begin his work here the fourth Sunday this month.

You are invited to listen to the regular radio sermon Monday through Friday, 4:15 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. on radio station KTFY.

It's New... It's Exciting... It's Sensational!

In one giant stride, Willys sets a new pattern for the future with a car which embodies advanced features of Aero design. With its advent, many other cars become obsolete. For no other car possesses its combination of Economy; air-borne Ride; low-center-of-gravity Safety; sheer dollar Value and it's Beautiful!

It's Low and Wide, It's Big Inside and It's Beautiful. Today, Willys brings you this revolutionary car, a brilliant blend of aero and auto engineering, ready to thrill you with a new experience in motoring.

AERO-FRAME CONSTRUCTION, following principles of aero-design, welds the body and chassis members into one extremely rigid unit. Streamlined from its plane-wing hood to the rear air-fins, the Aero Willys, powered by a new 6-cylinder Hurricane Engine, gives breath-taking performance and up to 35 miles a gallon with overdrive.

PREMIUM GAS NOT REQUIRED because of F-Head engine design. This new engine, with 7.6 compression, produces 560 horsepower per cubic inch of displacement, surpassing even the engines in America's most costly cars.

HELICOPTER VISIBILITY, with panoramic vision all around, results from wide glass areas. All 4 fenders are visible from the driver's seat.

SMOOTH, QUIET AIR-BORNE RIDE. Road shocks, noise and vibration are smothered by new springing and rubber "pillows" at strategic points. Center-fill gas tank at rear... pull-out dash drawer... 24 cu. ft. luggage space—these are but a few of the features you will notice when you see the surprise car of the year—and it's Beautiful!

NEW AERO WILLYS SEDAN INTRODUCED BY DEALERS; HAS 90 FEATURES, GOES UP TO 35 MILES PER GALLON

TOLEDO, O. (Special)—One of the few entirely new automobiles to be introduced by an American manufacturer in over two decades, the new Aero Willys sedan is now on public display in showrooms of Willys-Overland dealers.

It is named the Aero Willys because of being "more fully engineered than any previous auto to combine principles of aeronautical design with advanced automotive engineering," according to Ward M. Canaday, company president. Long rumored as the car which may prove to be the automotive industry's most outstanding design innovation of 1952, the Aero Willys is powered, Canaday said, with "one of the world's most efficient engines and has 90 features that add up to an entirely new concept of motoring convenience, comfort and economy."

Answer to Rising Costs

The car is designed to meet the challenges of rising motoring costs and increasing traffic density.

"Gasoline economy is unsurpassed," according to Willys engineers, who cite tests of various models "from which, with overdrive at 30 miles an hour, up to 35 miles per gallon has been obtained."

The company's mileage tests, which show proportionate fuel economy at higher speeds, have been made with regular gasoline, despite the high 7.6 to 1 compression ratio of the car's newly developed six-cylinder F-head engine, it was stated.

High operating efficiency on regular gas is a timely feature, the engineers pointed out, in view of threatened shortages of lead for high octane fuel.

The traffic problem is attacked by "revolutionary design to obtain a compact 9-foot wheelbase automobile which at the same time contains big interior space for passengers and riding qualities heretofore associated, with expensive long wheelbase cars," they reported.

Roomy Comfort for Six Adults

"The Aero Willys, for example, has room for six good sized adults. Sixty-one-inch seating width, both front and rear, is wider than most cars, while the exterior width of 72 inches is narrower than most cars, providing a full foot of clearance on either side in entering a standard 8-foot garage doorway.

"Aero-Frame construction following principles closely similar to those used in airplane building, has been used to provide a stressed steel body having reinforcing steel members welded into one strong, solidly rigid unit that will stand up under years of use without body rattle or squeaks or rattles. The unit is cushioned from road shocks, and road and power transmission noises by extensive use of rubber pillows.

"The proof of a car's quality is in the driving," the engineers pointed out. "The Aero Willys goes over even rough, multiple railroad crossings smoothly at better than average speeds. Low center of gravity, only 23 inches high, virtually eliminates sway on curves.

"Wind resistance is greatly minimized by a low, tapering nose with the leading edge shaped like the edge of an airplane wing and a low roof only 60 inches from the ground. Air turbulence behind is lessened by vertical fins on the rear fenders. The highly efficient engine enables the car to cruise at 75 miles an hour using only 65 per cent of its capacity, leaving plenty of power in reserve for hills."

Driver Sees All Fenders

Other features claimed for the Aero Willys which contribute to convenience, comfort, easy driving and safety include airborne ride, with all six passengers "cradled" between the axles; panoramic visibility, enabling all four fenders to be seen from normal driving position and enabling driver to see road as clear as 10 feet in front of the bumper; automatically stabilized and steered; finger tip steering; oversize brakes; 18-foot turning radius; quick starting and warmup; 24 cubic feet of luggage space; pull-out glove drawer.

The car even has a feature designed to make things easier at the gas station. The gas tank inlet is located at the rear, easy to reach from either side.

POOL YOUTH TOPS TERRY COUNTY COTTON CONTEST

Warren Young, 20-year-old Pool community 4-H club farmer, has received the $125 first prize for the Terry county 4-H and FFA cotton contest, and Bill Tom Goza of Wellman placed first and received $125 in the irrigated class.

Both received their checks from Herman Chesshir who sponsored the county contest, which is similar to the district contest, with the exception that only 4-H club boys are eligible in the district.

Young won the dry-land contest with an average yield of 504 pounds of lint per acre. He worked a total of three and five-eighths acres on his certified five acres and his total expenses ran to $364.91. Of this amount, $249 was for labor. He netted $667.91 from the five acres.

Poisoned Twice
He planted Paymaster seed, three bushels to the five acres, in May and poisoned twice during the season. He also had hail insurance on his crop. Young lives with his mother, Mrs. Ethel Young, in the Pool community.

His field was certified by J. M. Bressell, Coy Perry and Thurman Salisbury.

The contest required that the five acres be designated before July 1, and the three men had to assure it, plus certifying that the cotton was harvested from that field.

Chesshir said he was pleased with results of the contest and that "we'll have to try it again next year."

Young, Bill Tom Goza, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goza and a freshman at Wellman High school, was the only boy entered in the irrigated class.

Average Per Acre
He had an average of 364 pounds of lint per acre. He also planted Paymaster, however he had to replant and used four bushels in all. He spent $206.50 for labor and his total expenses ran $263.88. His net income was $537.41 or $11.48 per acre.

Besides being in the dry section of the county Goza also got a little 2-4-D on his cotton, said County Agent Jim Foy.

Second place in the dry-land division went to Earl Brown Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown who live two miles west and two north of Brownfield. Earl is a sophomore in Brownfield High school and a member of the FFA chapter.

He won $75 with an average of 300 pounds of lint per acre or a total of 2,500 pounds.

His total cost per acre was $303.20 and he realized a net income of $411.68. He spent 21½ hours working on the five acres himself and paid for another 42 hours. James Heartstill, C. D. Wise and W. F. Green certified for the second-place winner.

Wayne Sanders of Meadow 4-H club was third and received $50 out of the $500 Chesshir contest. Young Sanders, who lives 3½ miles north and the old Levittand highway, had 483.25 pounds of lint per acre. His total expenses ran $295.01 and his net income was $793.23. V. D. Decker, James Henderson and R. L. Howell certified for Sanders.

Eddie Foshee, 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Foshee of Gosport community and a member of the Brownfield 4-H club, was fourth. Eddie had 2,088 pounds of lint and a net income of $524.51. He planted 2½ bushels of Macca on the five acres, and poisoned three times. His total expenses were $365.32, $265.42 of it labor. W. V. Lasiter, C. D. Parker and G. W. Lasiter certified to his project. He received $25.

Fifth Place Winner
Fifth place winner of $15 was Jerry Henson of Gomez 4-H club. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Henson, and lives north of Toledo. His average yield was 402.20 pounds of lint per acre. Total expenses were $309.85, $196.25 of it labor, and he received a net return of $593.14. He planted two bushels of Northern Star and sprayed three times.

Glen Reid, Brownfield FFA member who lives six miles north of town, was the youngest winner. The 12-year-old made 1,895 pounds of lint on his five acres and a total of $635.93 net-profit. His expenses ran $269.02, labor accounting for $186.20 of this.

Other winners included Jerry Michael of Wellman who received $12.50 for ninth place; Larry Briscoe of Brownfield, $12.50 for tenth; Lewis Chambliss, twelfth, $11.85 and J. C. Chambliss, twentieth, $11.25.

Take A Look See At the City Hall

Stopped one morning this week at the city hall, the first visit we have made to that splendid new building, which stands at the corner of Main and Third street. We did not attend the formal opening. Reporters of course called. Just reserved our ticket until things were normal and everything under control. Found Chief Houston Hamilton on duty at the police section and he showed us every department.

From the several descriptions we had read of the building, the interior that is, we expected to see something real nice, but to put the matter mildly, we were gloriously surprised. We have been in city halls in much larger cities, from 100 to 300,000 people, that has nothing on the Brownfield city hall in the way of interior decorations, furnishings and fixtures. Not only conveniently arranged, but its utility of every inch of space is well planned and executed.

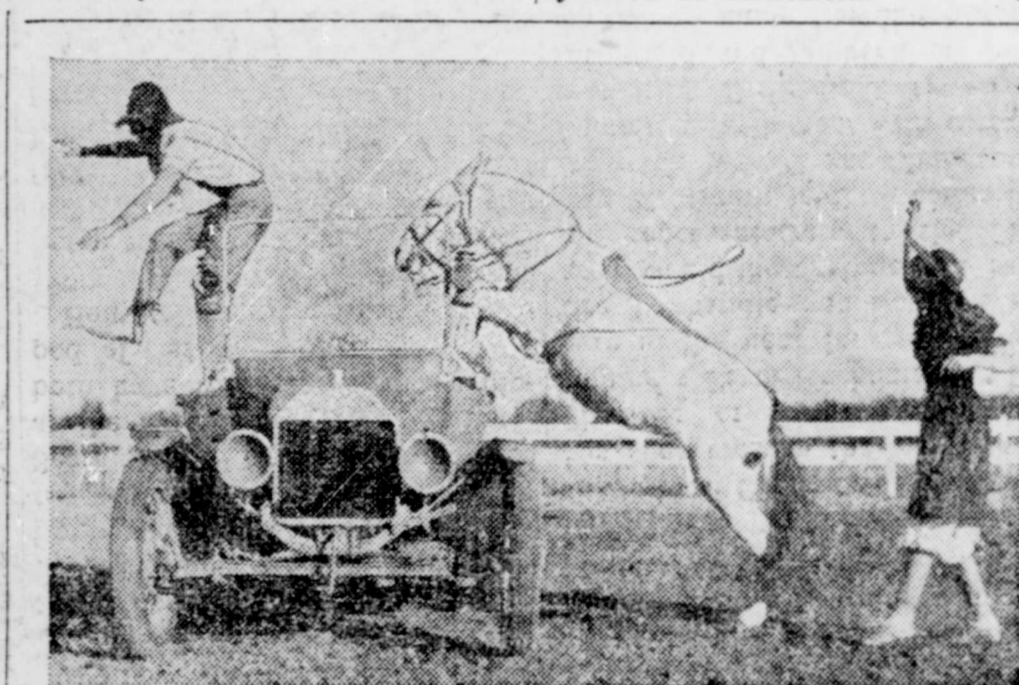

Up in front, there is a large lobby are for the customers of the taxing and utilities departments to transact business, with huge fire-proof vaults that will preserve all the city records for all time. City Secretary Bill Aschenbeck, as well as the Utility Supt. Eunice Jones, both have well placed and equipped offices.

Houston showed us some of the jail cells, and let us state right here that everything is nailed down hard and fast. Even the flushing of the commodes do not have protruding handles, but a push button affair. The steel beds are not movable.

There is a fairly large city courtroom, well supplied with needed seats, desks, and the firmen also have a hall for their meetings and entertainments. The extreme rear is occupied by the fire engines, and are in easy reach of the hall provided for the firemen. The people of this community should be real proud of this building, and we feel sure they do.

As mentioned in these columns once before, the building has foundation sufficient to carry another story or two, when and if needed.

The average Englishman is rationed to only about 50 pounds of meat a year.

TOAST BASKET YOUR LEFTOVERS

Leftovers go farther and taste better when dressed in toast baskets. To serve four, slice across 1 whole loaf enriched bread to form 4 equal parts. Remove crusts from each part. Cut out center of each with scissors leaving a rim and bottom of about ¼". Brush each basket inside and out with lemon butter, made by melting ¼ c. butter or margarine and adding 2 tsp. lemon juice. Place baskets on cookie sheet and bake at 350°F. (moderate oven) until baskets are brown and crisp, turning frequently. Meanwhile prepare creamed leftovers: Melt 2 tbsp. butter or margarine. Add 1½ cups leftover meat cut into bite-size cubes, ¼ c. minced onion, ¼ c. chopped green pepper. Cook until onion is clear. Sprinkle in 2 tsp. flour and gradually stir in 1 c. milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thick. Fill toast baskets with this mixture and serve at once.

Brownfield Chamber Of Commerce News

The nominating committee of the Chamber of Commerce, including Bobby Grave, Harold Denton, John O'Dell, Mrs. Ethel Jones Howze, W. B. Tudor, Roy Collier, and Clyde Graves, reported to the office Thursday that the following 16 men had been appointed to fill eight vacancies on the board of directors: Herbert Chesshir, Hugh Thomas, Sam Teague, James Harley Dallas, Clyde Truly, K. D. Adams, Charley Price, Harry Cornelius, Kenneth Purtell, W. N. (Doc) Lewis, W. R. McDuffie, Curtis Sterling, Vernon Townes Jr., R. O. Black, Wayland (Monk) Parker, and L. L. White.

Manager Wayne Smith reported this week that ballots with names of 16 men nominated to fill eight directors places on the board of the Chamber of Commerce will be placed in the mail on January 22. The ballots must be back in the secretary's office by February 4 to be counted, Mr. Smith said.

The board of directors will have a call meeting some time between February 6 and February 12, to elect a new president from the eight directors elected. The new president will be presented at the annual banquet on the night of February 12, when Secretary of State John Ben Sheppard will be guest speaker.

The local Chamber of Commerce has sent bids to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for the staging a Farm Mechanization Day here in the near future. The entire Panhandle and South Plains area would be included in sending representatives to the Field Day, Mr. Smith said. A committee from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will meet with committees from Brownfield, Levelland, Littlefield and Lubbock on January 25, to name the date for the Field Day.

TO ADDRESS HIGH SCHOOL

Rev. Jones Weathers, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will be guest speaker at the regular assembly at the high school next Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the student council announced this week.

Mrs. Ethel Jenkins is now employed as beauty operator at the Cinderella Beauty Shop, 108 South Main street. Mrs. Jenkins' husband, Roy Jenkins, is now associated with one of the barber shops here. Mrs. Jenkins formerly lived at Littlefield.

Price Daniel to Tell His Aims Monday Night Over Statewide Radio Hookup

AUSTIN.—Price Daniel, Texas' fighting attorney general, will make his long awaited announcement of his political intentions for 1952 in a statewide radio address Monday evening, January 21, at 7:30 o'clock.

Since Governor Shivers has announced that he would not run for re-election, there has been much speculation as to whether Daniel will run for re-election, for governor or for the United States Senate. Capitol newsmen are predicting it will be for the Senate.

Daniel has gained national recognition for his fight against organized crime and corruption in Texas and for his fight against federal officials in their attempt to take Texas tidelands from the Texas Public School Fund.

DRESS GROWS WITH GROWING GIRL!

When Mrs. Alice Hopkins of Columbia, S. C., was faced with the problem which perplexes all mothers—that of her child growing out of her clothes too fast—she decided to do something about it. She designed a dress that would grow with the child. Made of washable cotton, her "Pixie Grow Tall Dress" permits proportionate growth in body and width, as well as permitting hem lengthening. Mrs. Hopkins says that a little girl can grow in every direction and still the cotton "grow tall" dress will provide perfect fit for two years.

America's New Challenger

This is a man's-eye view, head-on, of the new superliner UNITED STATES at her outfitting dock in the Newport News (Va.) Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company yard. The sleek lines of the vessel, largest and fastest passenger ship ever built in this country, make a colorful pattern against the late afternoon autumn sky. The ship, now 85% completed, will be 990 feet long, 101½ feet in beam, and will have a speed in excess of 30 knots. She will be delivered to the United States Lines in New York early next summer and will join the present flagship of the line, the AMERICA, in transatlantic service.

Heavyweight Threat?!

The current holder of the heavyweight title need not tremble too briskly over challenger Cauliflower McPugg. During rehearsals of NBC-TV's "The Red Skelton Show," sports authority Red has given as his opinion that McPugg is strictly a shadow boxer. . . . And he should know — having created the ubiquitous C. McPugg.
