Fred Smith is director of the band.

Members of the Brownfield High School band will be found listed on last page of this newspaper.

To Take Overland Trip to Alaska

Our old friend, Wiley Bridges, was in last week and calmly announced that he was out at the west Terry oil well last week, and climbed to the top of the derrick. And that is a right smart piece up in the air if you ask us. And even in our young days, we would not have thought of taking the climb. No matter how Wiley feels about the matter, he is no yearling, no more than the Old He.

So we asked what possessed him to climb that derrick that towers more than 100 feet in the air. "Why, Jack, when the Breckenridge oil fields came in, I spent some time down there monkeying with the oil game, mostly buying and selling leases, but I liked to climb those derricks and look around over the country. But they were babies beside this one in west Terry. They were capable of going around 8 to 10,000 feet in the ground, while the one in west Terry will complete a hole at least 17,000 feet deep, they told me."

Off to Alaska in 40 Days

When we get up 20 feet above the earth, our head swims, and we want down. But some folks are different. One time a guy that helped to build the first water tower in Stamford told us, "your head does not swim; you just lose your nerve." Anyway, something goes round and around, and our stomach feels like we have eaten something the cats drug up.

Wiley announced that he and another fellow were going to Alaska in about 40 days, when all the snow in low places is expected to be off. But they will go via the highways in a car, taking the Alcan highway in Canada to Alaska. Wiley has been to Alaska two or three times before, but always takes a steamer at Seattle to Anchorage, and via railroad to Fairbanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Phillip and children live in or near Fairbanks, and have been there many years, since back in the twenties. Mrs. Phillips is his daughter. Wiley estimates that the end of their destination is some 6,000 miles north-west of Brownfield. Bon voyage!

The FFA boys made up the entire program. On the program were Charles Bartley who gave a talk on "Our Soil," and Byron Wise gave a talk, "Agriculture in Texas."

AWAY BACK WHEN—Pictured above are the late John L. Randal and wife, Jessie C. Randal, who resides at 502 East Main. The picture was made in the early 1900's. Old He said the late Mr. Randal looked "just like this" when the couple moved to Terry county in 1902, with the exception of his mustache. Mrs. Randal was Brownfield's first school teacher, and the Jessie G. Randal elementary school bears her name. Those who know Mrs. Randal will remember her sweet kind face. The Herald force thought the readers might like to know how she looked "away back when."

Insurance Inspectors Thank Local People

While aiming their letter more to the press for their cooperation in making the fire inspection here a success, a letter to the Herald received from Texas Insurance Fieldman Association, between the lines, praised the citizenship of Brownfield in particular. The business places that were inspected here showed every courtesy to the inspectors, making their job easier and more of a pleasure.

Mr. Richard L. Orban, president of TIFA, stresses the fact that if the inspection should result in one less fire in Brownfield, or the loss of one life, he believes the inspection is quite worthwhile.

WEST WARD-JUNIOR PTA MEETS TODAY

Installation of officers for the coming year is scheduled for the program at the last meeting of the year of the West Ward-Junior High Parent-Teacher Association in the Junior High school library at four o'clock this afternoon. All members are urged to attend.

Jones Theatres Celebrating Their Thirtieth Anniversary in Brownfield This Month

Thirty years in Brownfield—and the public is invited to help celebrate the 30th anniversary by attending a free show at one of the Jones Theatres on May 13. Mrs. Ethel Jones Howze and son, Sammy Jones, owners, have announced Open House at the Regal, Rialto, Rio and Rustic Drive-In, in appreciation for the splendid cooperation from the citizens in this area who have made it possible for them to celebrate their 30th anniversary here.

"We take pride in bringing the citizens of this community the finest in motion picture entertainment," the owners announced. New pre-release West Texas showings are scheduled for the Open House May 13: Regal, "About Face," in color, with Gordon McRae and Eddie Bracken; Rialto, "The First Time," with Robert Cummings and Barbara Hale; Rio, "Honey Chile," with Judy Canova in color; and Rustic, "Sound Off," with Mickey Rooney, in color.

The first theatre in Brownfield opened by the late Earl Jones and Arnett Bynum in 1922, was on the site where the Regal is now located, in the 200 block on south Fifth street. The first pictures were shown in building that was used for a Legion hall, and they operated the show from 1922 until 1923, leasing the building that was formerly occupied by the Ritz Theatre. Formerly the "Pastime" theatre, it was closed in 1924 when the Rialto was built. The theatre was re-opened in August, 1935, and given the name "Ritz." Jones purchased the interest of Bynum in 1932, and built the Rio theatre in 1937. He died in 1939.

Hiram Parks of Lubbock leased the theatres in 1945 and operated them until January 1, 1950, when Sammy Jones became general manager.

Mrs. Howze and Mr. Jones announce that the Rig Drive-In, located on the Lubbock highway, will open in the near future, giving Brownfield five theatres. They extend a most cordial invitation to everyone to attend the free shows on May 13, in expression of appreciation for the patronage of people in this area. They express the hope that Jones Theatres will continue to give the public the best in entertainment.

Honor students of the high school will be named and recognized in a special Honor Assembly on Monday, May 12, Principal Byron Rucker said Tuesday. Valuedictorian and salutatorian of the senior class will be named at that time.

National Guard Unit Gets Excellent Rating

This is the first time a unit of the 2nd Battalion ever received a rating of excellent. Battalion companies are in Midland, Pecos, Monahan, Lamesa, Snyder and Brownfield.

The unit is now making plans for the annual summer camp which will be from June 1-15, at Camp Hood.

Dr. Frank P. Miller, director, South Plains Health Unit, Brownfield, attended the United States Public Health Service, VD Post-graduate Course at the Medical Center in Hot Springs, Ark., from April 14 through April 18.

Several outstanding speakers were on the program. A class of 49 participated in the course with 23 states represented, also Washington, D. C., and China. The purpose of the course was to inform the U. S. Public Health workers in the latest methods on the control of venereal disease.

This course was limited to a restricted number of applications of which only two from Texas attended, Dr. Miller being one of the two.

Correct Posture Week May 1 to 8

The coming week has been designated "Correct Posture Week" by the Chiropractic Public Health Committee of Texas. Drs. McIlroy and McIlroy of this city are sponsoring a bit of publicity on it for the area.

To say the least, we believe that the idea is good. It is good for looks of the person, and perhaps very good as a health measure. The Herald is glad to add its vote for Correct Posture Week.

GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL TO MEET MAY 6

Members of the South Plains Girl Scout Council will meet Tuesday night, May 6, a 7:30 p. m., in the Girl Scout Little House. All local, civic, business and study clubs are urged to have two representatives present at the meeting.

A visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stafford, 803 East Main, this week is her mother, Mrs. G. T. Peyton of Pecos.

Last Call For An Act of 'Good Citizenship'

This week County Democratic Chairman Burton G. Hackney is urging for the last time until that event approaches, the good citizens of Terry county to be sure to meet at the courthouse in the district court room, for the precinct conventions next Saturday afternoon. Time 2 p. m. At that time, those who are to meet in different precincts will be given the place and the time, in different parts of the courthouse that afternoon.

Each precinct will be allowed to select their number of delegates to the county convention, the number being based on the number of votes for governor, cast in the general election two years ago. These delegates will then meet in county convention next Tuesday, May 6, to elect delegates to the State convention. Be sure to be on hand, and let's start "Operations Democracy" from the grassroots. That's the only way to have the kind of government we want and deserve. To the candidates for county and precinct offices, remember that Monday, May 5, is the last day you may file to have your name placed on the ballot. Write-ins just do not do the job. A lot of people won't take the trouble to write in your name on the ballot.

Schmidt Announces For Commissioner

In an announcement made this week, Ray Schmidt announced his candidacy for the office of County Commissioner, Precinct 1, subject to action in the forthcoming Democratic primary.

Mr. Schmidt stated: "I wish to take this means as announcing as a candidate for Commissioner of Precinct One.

"I am a veteran of World War I, and have had two years' experience in working for the county. I feel I am qualified to fill this position, and if elected, will strive at all times to make you a good county official.

Your vote, your influence and your support will be greatly appreciated."

Weimhold Withdraws From Rep. Race

Forrest Weimhold, publisher of the Hockley County Herald, Levelland, announced Wednesday that he would not file by May 5 with the Democratic Chairman as a candidate for state representative from the 99th district, as previously announced.

Weimhold expressed his appreciation for the keen interest, support and encouragement from citizens all over the Hockley, Terry, Yoakum and Cochran district in behalf of his candidacy. However, due to business plans which will require much more of his time, he feels that he would not have the time to devote to this responsible position, so it is best that he withdraw at this time as a candidate for state representative.

FRIENDS FILE LYON'S FOR COMMISSIONER

Friends of J. L. Lyon in the Wellman community this week filed his name to appear on the ballot as a candidate for commissioner of precinct 4, subject to the Democratic primary.

Lyon stated that he will make his formal announcement through the paper next week.

There has been a vast change in the picture as seen back no longer than ten or twelve years ago, as concerns the little man, better described as the small wage earner, laying away for a rainy day. In 1940, according to the statistically minded, the percentage of investments of the low wage earner was at a low ebb, according to figures before us. In fact, it was the rich and prosperous that were putting their surplus funds into industries. But the picture changes radically up to and including the last three or four years. In fact, such investments has practically tripled. Then there is the matter of buying saving bonds that were a drag on the market in 1940, so far as the small wage earner was concerned. Most of the bonds at that time was purchased by men who had a lot of money, and the denominations ranged from $500 to $1000. In the year, for instance, 1942, only 27 per cent of people in the low range were buying bonds from $25 to $50. At the same time, 50 per cent were buying the large bonds. Coming on up to 1951, we find a changed picture, which includes the first six months of 1952. In the last figures, the small bond buyer had increased to 44 per cent, while the large buyer was down to 35 per cent of the whole amount purchased. Of course, there was a middle bracket of people, purchasing from $100 to $200 that supplied the other 21 per cent, slightly down also, from 1942. There are a vast amount of people too, in the low or medium income bracket, who are paying for modest homes on the long term investments, as well as sundry household appliances. Many people are looking to the time, and it may not be so distant, when the spiral of inflation will be topped, and then comes deflation, and that is not always slow in taking over, but is more like sliding down a greased pole. But if the investor, large or small, has something saved up for that inevitable day, the descent will not hurt so badly.

A few years ago the Herald received a map of a proposed canal beginning on the Missouri river up in Montana, and ending somewhere down about Monahans. The destructive floods in the Missouri river this year and last, has called to mind that map, and we aim to try to find and reprint it some of these days. The map was made by a Washington, D. C. engineer. So far as we know, he owned no land in any of the areas of the proposed canal. His only idea was to stop flood damage, and at the same time furnishing a lot of thirsty land in east Colorado and New Mexico, western Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas with abundance of water to irrigate millions of fertile acres. As we remember, the canal was to pass through western Nebraska, Kansas and the Oklahoma panhandle, passing just west of Amarillo, very close to Morton, and just west of Plains. The starting point in Montana was better than 4000 feet elevation, and there was a gradual drop, so that the canal would have a gradual fall, and carry billions of gallons of water for irrigation of semi-arid acres, and at the same time, lessen the danger of flood in the lower reaches of the Missouri. According to the engineer, whose name we have forgotten, the cost would be less than we are spending each year "rehabilitating" Europe, or around two billion dollars. The only difference is, that a great percentage of the money we spend in Europe is like pouring it in a rathole, whereas, the canal would benefit millions of our own people, who pay the taxes and make the country what it is. On the other hand, many believe, we are not only wasting our own money in Europe, but perhaps making some enemies. But speaking of the Missouri river again, Country Gentleman, a Curtis publication, has come out with an article that is worth the reading. The article in question is by Elmer T. Peterson, and the burden of the article is the condemnation of the few huge dams the government would build, and advocates rather a lot of smaller dams. Peterson maintains that the larger dams act to trap a lot of silt, the fertile soil of the upstream, and that in 50 years they will be filled with silt, and that they will flood millions of acres of fertile bottom land. The big dams are most beneficial to the large cities, whereas the series of smaller ones would benefit the farm population. And a series of big dams would cost more than the damage floods cause to land. He gives us an example not too far from home. He takes the huge Denison dam and shows that it can contain only 1.31 per cent of the runoff. He then compared that to a dam on Mill Creek in Oklahoma above the Denison dam that will empond 5.22 per cent of its runoff in Mill Creek. Peterson goes on to show that the big dams are driving a vast lot of people from their fertile acres, in order to empond this water for the benefit of the larger cities. It seems that our people must do something on a huge scale or nothing. It must be a sight for sore eyes, cost what it may.

In this little article, we are going to try to give people just a little fatherly advice, and this will apply to people who have been wanting a change up at Washington. Just any change that will last long enough to root out the grafters, the 5 percenters and mink coaters, and perhaps give us a clean government for a few years at least. Well, the time to start this house cleaning will be at your precinct convention next Saturday, May 3, which elects delegates to the county conventions the following Tuesday, May 6. In turn the county will elect delegates to the State Convention to be held Tuesday, May 27. The state convention in turn elects delegates to the National convention to be held in Chicago in July. Right at the grassroots beginning, your precinct and county conventions are the place to start the ball to rolling. If you don't want to vote for someone that the politicians designate, better get in on the ground floor. Yes, we know it is great that you have a vote coming in November, but will it be for someone you want—someone that you have confidence in, to carry out the wishes of the people, clear out the grafters, and lessen the tax burden on the people? Or will you leave all the preliminary work to the self-appointed leaders? We have had plenty experience the past several years with the "leaders," and we've found what they do in the "smoke filled rooms" at the national convention. But, maybe you say your voice at the precinct and county level would have no bearing? Do they have any bearing if left to the politicians? Look what the conventions have sluffed off on us for the past many years? Don't let George do it—do it yourself. If we are to clean house, we must start at the basement, and clean it to the attic. But you can do just like you've been doing for many, many years. You can stay home and take what the "leaders" offer you, or scratch them in the fall, or just forget to vote. "My vote don't count anyway," you may say. But if you fail to attend to the matter here at home in May, you've dropped your chance for a man for president that you want to vote for in November. And this may include a platform abhorant to you.

Speakers for the "loyal" Democrats have had many hard things to say about Gov. Allan Shivers and his methods. No one is saying that Gov. Shivers has not and will not make mistakes, not even he, himself. But we have kinder admired the way he has refrained from billingsgate with the loyalists. Most of us believe in loyalty especially to our state and nation, to our families and friends, to our towns and communities, schools and churches. But some of us will not go so far as to put party politics or some party leader above the interests of our state and nation. For that very reason, he believes Texas should send an unconstructed delegation to the Chicago convention of the Democratic party. Shivers is sage enough to know that if Truman's crowd can, it will control matters, both as to nominations and platform. And that the south, including Texas, if they remain "loyal," will have to go along with any yellow dog that may be nominated, or any platform dictated and/or written by the labor bosses. For the same reason that Gov. Shivers wishes an unconstructed delegation, and bargaining powers that may somewhat hold the radicals in check, the Eisenhower Republicans are going along with his ideas. Of course the old standpat GOP crowd has or believe they have everything in the bag for Taft. And many of them admit that they had rather lose the national election with Taft than win with Eisenhower. The Republican party has some plums to hand out, especially if they get control of congress, and Taft men are working that side of the street. We do not believe that Taft can carry a single southern state, but if Gen. Ike is nominated, and the Democrats are so foolish to put in a Truman dominated candidate, Eisenhower will sweep the south. Wait and see.

Here is some of the results of our foreign policies, or that of the administration, we should say, as revealed by figures furnished us by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The outlay of the USA in foreign countries in the last 12 years has been 89 1/4 billion dollars. This amount equals the valuation of all the building construction in this country in the past 25 years. These figures were brought to light by the Council of State Chambers of Commerce, and 32 other regional C. of C. organizations in 32 states of the union. Of this huge sum we have spent $48.3 billion in foreign aid in the seven postwar years. Not only that, but Uncle Sam has dug down in the sweat and blood tax money of our people to aid 700,000 people with nearly 3 billion dollars that have turned on us as enemies. These people are of course the several satellites of the Kremlin. These business organizations made no stinging resolutions but they did sound a note of caution, "disturbing reactions to our aid program, even among friendly nations may well justify a re-examination of them in the light of our experience." To say the least, we are laying a tax burden on the people of the USA for generations to come, because Uncle Santa Claus elected to play the part to people in Europe, who are now our enemies, not only secretly but openly. Even if there are no recessions in business, and there will be, it will take people hundreds of years to pay this vast sum and meet other emergencies we have to meet.

State President of PTA Is Guest Speaker At District Convention Held Here Friday

About 300 delegates and visitors were privileged to hear Mrs. H. G. Stinnett of Plainview, state president of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, at the annual spring conference of the 14th district here last Friday. Sessions were held in the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Stinnett discussed "I Speak for American Democracy," as the closing address of the convention. Dr. Travis White, pastor of First Christian Church in Lubbock, gave the principal address of the day on American culture.

The general session Friday morning opened with a prayer by Rev. Tom Keenan, Presbyterian minister. Brownfield Boy Scouts of Troop No. 74 conducted the flag ceremony and pledge to the flag.

In presenting the theme of the conference, "Safeguarding Our Freedoms Through Responsible Citizenship," Mrs. Robert Cross of Anson, district president, chose four Brownfield children to depict the symbols of freedom. John Patterson carried the door key, representing the golden key for opening the way to freedom. Ann Patterson carried the Bible, representing the necessity of basic religion to safeguarding our children. Tommy Harris carried the ballot, representing our freedom to vote. Lannell Chessir carried a large pencil, representing the freedom to speak and write.

H. B. Virgil Crawford, local attorney, welcomed guests, and emphasized the important aims of the PTA. They are to help parents understand the school and to bring teachers a better viewpoint of the homes.

Mrs. Glenn Woody of Lubbock, in her response, thanked Brownfield residents for their many courtesies, and recognized the local women for the many efforts and talents they gave to help make the conference a success.

The parts the PTA is playing in correcting the safety problems of the state was commended by Jim life memberships were recognized, as were Mrs. H. G. Stinnett of Plainview, state president, and Emmitt Smith, former Brownfield school superintendent who is now head of the education department at West Texas State College in Canyon. Mrs. Newell Reed furnished music during this luncheon.

Mrs. Holgate is the mother of Mrs. Jack Hamilton, who made the presentation of the life membership to Mrs. V. L. Patterson Friday morning. She is a former vice president of the district conference. A story about her work in the Parent-Teachers Association and civic affairs will be printed in next week's issue of the Herald.

The afternoon session opened with an invocation by Rev. J. W. Weathers, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Supt. O. R. Douglas greeted the guests, saying, "When citizens accept responsibilities as parents and teachers, we need not fear our tomorrows."

Dr. White was introduced by Mr. Douglas, and the minister stated that people today are inclined to be completely blinded "by the artificial light of our cellophane culture."

What chances do we have to change the future? he asked. "We come today with the realization that the only hope we have is in our children. As long as democracy can buy off gatekeepers, there is nothing we can do. We must train our children to be more spiritually minded. If you educate a man's mind and not change his desires, you are putting the weapons in the hands of a bargainer."

"A positive mental outlook and physical stamina must be guiding qualities for the generation we are to build. We must create clean bodies, clean minds, and strong positive emotions. Develop in our youth a sense of strong and rugged individualism."

The speaker stated that too many people are thinking as masses, not as individuals. "We are building in our children a cut flower attitude which will wither and collapse in the heat and hurry of life in today's culture," he concluded.

Mrs. O. L. Byrd of Lubbock presented Mrs. M. C. Butler of Lubbock, immediate past district president, with a plaque from the district board of managers in appreciation of her work in the past two years. The Brownfield High school chorus, directed by Harold Mulkey, sang, "Now the Day is Over" and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

Mrs. Stinnett read Stephen Bennett's poem, "What Democracy Means to Me," as she addressed the group.

"It is serious responsibility, being an American," she said. "When we think of freedom, we think of the opportunity to do as we please. We have many freedoms to choose . . . so many of us have the attitude, do as little as possible to get by, then not have the ability to face the ways of life as we meet them. . . Little do we know how much a word of encouragement can mean to a child. We can train a child in early life to make something of his desires and ambitions. One must have courage, wisdom, truth and honesty, charity, humility, reverence, faith and responsibility because one is accountable to God and his fellowmen for how he lives."

The congress next year will be held in Littlefield.

Vocal solos were sung by Miss Kay Syzdoski and Dale Travis, high school students, and Miss Syzdoski was accompanied by Miss Hightower, while Travis was accompanied by Miss Beverly Wartes.

Mrs. Cross gave a brief outline of the district organization, and Mrs. Larimer of Houston told of the work of the state congress.

Mrs. Larimer "chided" the men for leaving PTA work with their wives. She concluded her interesting talk with "All of us in Parent-Teacher work are striving to make this world a better place to live, through our efforts for a child."

Meet Thursday Afternoon
In the parlor of the First Presbyterian Church Thursday afternoon, a nominating committee was elected for next year, by the board of managers of the district. Mrs. R. B. Cross of Anson, district president, presided at the meeting.

The nominating committee includes Mrs. J. M. Harper of Lubbock, chairman, and Mrs. Hershel Carthel of Lockney, Mrs. E. M. Pittman of Anson, Mrs. W. O. Jones of Paducah and Mrs. F. E. Yohner of Littlefield.

In this meeting, Mrs. Jack Griggs of Brownfield was elected headquarters chairman for the district; Mrs. D. C. Rainwater of Ralls, civil defense chairman, and Mrs. Dave Walker of Stamford was elected vice president of Jones and Fisher counties.

Mrs. Patterson Given PTA Life Membership
Brownfield is fortunate in having a district vice president of the Parent-Teachers Congress reside here, and much of the success of the conference last Friday was through Mrs. V. L. Patterson's efforts. She was presented a Life Membership Friday morning by Mrs. Jack Hamilton, from the West Ward Junior High PTA.

Mrs. Patterson, who with her husband and two children, Johnnie and Ann, lives at 401 East Repetto, and she has been active in PTA work the past six years, since Johnny first started to school. She is a former president of the Randal organization.

Like Mrs. Jack Griggs, Mrs. Patterson leads a very busy life. She is program chairman for the Girl Scout organization here, and teaches a Sunday School class at Christ Hill Church of Christ. She is also an active member of the Alpha Omega Study Club.

Editorial

We start today on one of the most important events of the Senior year. It is the annual senior trip, as the majority of you understand already know. Speaking of its being an important event, it doesn't have any bearing upon whether it will make you successful in life or the like, but it is important from the sentimental standpoint. The seniors can recall to memory and tell their children of what a joyful time and of the happy moments they experienced for one week for they will be indelibly imbedded in their past. It's something like a gay departing party. "May good old acquaintances never be forgot." Each senior will be going his way with one week to take with him, a symbol of the last classmate "roadmap." Have fun!—The Editor.

D. E. Personality

D. E. Personality for this week is Billy Dumas. Billy works at a local grocery. Bill states that D. E. gives opportunities for later life if one plans to start a business. Billy is 16 years old, has blue eyes and blond hair. He stands 5' 6". His favorite teacher is Mr. Handley and his ideal person is John Robinson. Billy plans to attend college after graduating next year, but is undecided as to where he will attend.

Cub Track Teams in Regional at Odessa

Since this is the first year in several years that Brownfield High school has had a track team, Coach L. G. Wilson felt "right proud" of his boys, for getting to the regional meet. They failed to score a point at Odessa, April 19, but they made a good showing. The mile relay finished fifth, ahead of both Levelland and Muleshoe. Jackie Stockton, Loman Jones, Jerry Bailey and Donnie Boyd made up this team. In the 120 yard hurdles, Stockton was fifth, and in the 180 yard hurdles, he was leading the field when he tripped and the fifth hurdle, being disqualified. He probably would have won in this race. Boyd ran the half-mile race in the rain and mud, to place fifth. Coach Wilson stated that the competition was strong, as four districts were represented. The meet was transferred to Odessa because the field in Lubbock was too wet—then it rained in Odessa! The Cub track team competed in events at Big Spring, Abilene and the district meet in Lubbock. The squad is composed of sophomores and juniors, as only one senior, Donnie Boyd, will not be here for the team next year.

Seniors to Leave On Annual Trip

This morning at 4 o'clock the Seniors left on their annual Senior Trip. Their destination was Salt Lake City by way of the Painted Desert and Petrified Forest in Arizona. From there they will journey to the Grand Canyon and then on to Salt Lake City. The Seniors plan to spend two days in Salt Lake City and while there will visit the Mormon Tabernacle on Sunday morning. They will then go to Denver, Colorado and will spend the night there in the Shirley Seavoy Hotel, the nicest and largest hotel in Denver. They will also see Pike's Peak and the Royal Gorge Bridge. Plans are being made for the students to visit the State Penitentiary and to take other sight-seeing tours.

The last two nights of the trip will be spent in Manitou Springs on a 300-acre Dude Ranch. The ranch is located next to the Garden of the Gods.

There will be 47 Seniors going on the trip and their sponsors, Miss Mattie Morgan and Delwin Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Luckett and Mrs. Bud Mitchell will also go.

Seniors Counseled By Armed Forces

The seniors were counseled by the four services—the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Corps—one day last week by representatives of the branches of service. The boys and girls were counseled separately. These representatives told of the importance of joining the service. Requirements of the different branches of service were enumerated. Questions were asked by the students and pamphlets were distributed. Senior girls were very interested to learn women in the service rise at 6:25 a. m. for breakfast or "chow" at 6:30 a. m. Married women are not allowed in any of the services. After the eight weeks of basic training you can get married.

Students Enter 4-A Literary Events

The District 4-A Interscholastic League literary events were held Thursday, April 10, at the Levelland High school. Schools competing in the meet were Levelland, Littlefield, Brownfield, Muleshoe, Morton, Slaton and Tahoka. In the Senior Boy's Declamation, Earl McCutcheon from Brownfield won first, Wayne Bristow from Muleshoe won second and Ray Quiett from Levelland won third. In Spelling and Plain Writing, Jean Henry from Morton placed first, Jane Griggs from Brownfield placed second, and Charleen Ellison from Levelland won third. With the typing teams, Littlefield won first with 108.14, Levelland won second with 102.95, and Brownfield won third with 95.22.

The students who won at Levelland competed in the Regional Meet in Lubbock Saturday, April 19.

Seniors Win, 19 to 13, Over Next Year's Cubs

A hard fought battle between the seniors and the next year's Cub team was played last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Cubs Stadium, with the seniors winning 19 to 13. Both teams showed lots of hustle and spirit. Although the next year's team lost, we think that they will be good and will go a long way. We wish them the best of luck next fall when the football season rolls around again. Another meeting of the two teams has been scheduled for May 15.

Seniors, Here We Go!

Well, kids, it won't be long now! What am I talking about? Why, the senior trip, of course. That's right, only one more school day—Wednesday. We'll be leaving on Thursday morning at 4 o'clock for a wonderful time. We'll eat breakfast at 6 a. m. in Roswell, N. M. All the seniors are going to take a picnic lunch and we will stop somewhere between Socorro, New Mexico, and Springerville, Arizona. That night we will stay in Holbrook, Arizona, at the Arizona Rancho. We will leave Holbrook the next morning at 7 and eat breakfast in Flagstaff. At 11:30 we will reach Grand Canyon. We will have two and a half hours there to eat and see the sights. We reach Kanab, Utah, at 7:30 and the students are free to do as they wish. We will leave Kanab at 8 the next morning and eat lunch in Salina, Utah.

We reach our destination, Salt Lake City, Utah, at 5 p. m., on May 2. Tours and various types of entertainment are planned for our two days in Salt Lake City.

We will leave Salt Lake City on May 5, at 6 a. m., and eat lunch that day in Vernal, Utah. Arriving in Denver, Colo., at 8 p. m., we will stay at the Shirley Savoy Hotel in downtown Denver. The following day, we will see the Denver mint, the Denver Post, and Colorado's state capitol building. We will leave Denver at 2 o'clock that afternoon and arrive at Manitou Springs, Colo., at MacLaughlin's lodge. While there the students can enjoy horseback riding, hiking, hayrides, square dancing, or dancing in the main lodge if preferred. We will leave Colorado on May 8 at 7 a. m., and arrive at Brownfield sometime late that evening.

Sounds like fun, doesn't it? This trip will add to the list of senior highlights of the year, along with the senior play, Baptist banquet, and Junior-Senior prom. I'm sure that every senior will agree that this has been the happiest year in his school life. The year has passed by fast—too fast in fact, but we shall look forward to graduation with many wonderful memories of "remember when." We shall always remember and be thankful for paving the way to our future.

Visitors several days last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Casstevens, 511 East Cardwell, were her brothers, Dr. R. W. Payne of Clarksville and Dr. G. W. Payne of Austin.

Texas Western Band Visits BHS

The Texas Western College Choral and Concert Band came to Brownfield last Tuesday, April 22. They entertained us to the fullest extent by displaying their musical talents during our assembly. The choral group under the direction of E. A. Thormodegaard, sang several numbers for us. They included spirituals, serious, western, and amusing selections. The Concert Dance Band performed next under the direction of John L. Carico. I'm sure we all especially enjoyed the jazz number. Clive Jones, a past BHS student, was a member of the group. We were glad to see a Brownfield boy doing so well in his college career. The dean of women, Mrs. Swanson, extended to us a cordial invitation to visit their campus at any time.

Nominating Committee Named For Council

The Student Council selected the following to be on the nominating committee for next year's Student Council. We hope they make as wise a choice as others before them. The committee is composed of Ted Hardy, Jimmy Austin, Johnny Cloud, Kaye Hinkle, Max Profit, Joann Shelton, Lanny Webb, Jerry Brown, Wayne Caperten, Faynelle Hodges Cooper, Dale Johnson, Peggy Stewart, Betty Cabiness, Gail Davis, Nicky Greer, Dennis Knight, Kelly Mack Sears and Sandra Yandell.

Flatts Home Room Wins Contest

Last week the Frozen Food Association told the faculty of a proposition they wanted put over. Every home room in high school and classes of the grade school and junior high has the chance to win $25. The classes were handed cards, counting one person present at the meeting in the Rialto Theatre Wednesday, April 6, at 2 p. m. The cards were counted on a percentage of how many people present had them. The class that got the most to attend was Mrs. Mary Jane Flatt's home room. Mrs. Flatt's home room is a part of the junior class. A show was sponsored by an implement company.

Couple of the Week

For the couple of the Week, we have chosen Patsy Stice and Charles Duke. They have been going together for one year and two months. Their song is "September Song." Patsy has blue eyes, light brown hair, and is 5' 3" tall. She is a member of the Spanish Club and plays the alto saxophone in the band. She has been in the band for two years. Among her favorites are: Color, blue; food, fried shrimp, and pastime, eating. Charles has brown eyes, blond hair, and is 5' 11" tall. His favorites are: Color, purple; food, shrimp; pastime, riding around with the boys; and subject, typing. We think they make a darling couple. Keep it up, kids.

Junior Personality

The Junior Personality for this week is Betty Jackson. She has dark brown hair, blue eyes, and is 5' 7" tall. She appears to be interested in the musical phase of life. Among her talents is playing the piano. She has been a member of the BHS chorus for one year. Betty has a large collection of records. She spends quite a bit of time listening to them. Among Betty's favorites are: Color, blue; food, fried chicken; pastime, irritating Mr. Webb and subject, history. Betty is an outstanding student of BHS and she always greets everyone with a smile.

Tennis Team In Regional Meet

Three members of the boys' tennis team went to the regional meet in Lubbock Saturday, April 19, accompanied by the tennis instructor, Fred Smith. Kermit won the boys' singles and doubles and Phillips won the girls' singles and doubles. Glen Paden lost his match to Kermit 6-2, 6-0. He won his first match 6-0, 6-2. John Odell and Bobby Latham were defeated in their first match with Lakeview, 6-2, 6-3. Although the boys found the regional competition a little stiffer than the district, we are very proud that they took the Cubs that far.

Home Demonstration Clubs First Organized Here in 1940; Discussion of Work Given

The following article is a continuation of a story printed in the Herald last week about home demonstration clubs in Terry county. As this is National Home Demonstration Week, April 27 to May 3, women in the clubs are recognized:

Home demonstration work was organized for the first time in Terry County in June, 1940, as the result of the efforts of a group of interested women who had for several years been trying to convince their husbands and neighbors of the worth of the extension service for women and girls. At various times during this period specialists from College Station held county-wide demonstrations which stimulated interest. Miss Lida Cooper, district agent at that time, met with the women and commissioners court several times, and club women from adjoining counties told of home demonstration accomplishments in their own counties. Also W. N. McClain, county agricultural agent at that time, and the County Land Use planning committee did much to get the work started.

In April, 1940, the commissioners court called a meeting of all those interested in home demonstration work. About 150 women were present and at the close of the meeting when the question was asked, "How many of you still feel the county can afford and should have a home demonstration agent?" all those present voted for it. The court agreed to hire an agent on a six months trial with the condition that if the work proved worthwhile it would be allowed to remain.

At the suggestion of the district agent, six groups organized and elected temporary officers prior to the coming of the home demonstration agent. These were the outgrowth of community quilting clubs.

The county home demonstration council was organized June 29, 1940. Ten clubs were represented. They were Harmony, Johnson, Lاهی, Pleasant Valley, Pool, Seaday, Tokio, Union, Wellman, Gomez and Foster.

The Meadow club was organized in January 1941, and the Willow Wells club in June of the same year. However, the Willow Wells club did not meet regularly until it was reorganized in the spring of 1947. The Needmore Home Demonstration Club was organized in May, 1947. There are eight clubs in the county at the present time, with a total of 147 members.

Club Officers Named
The clubs and presidents are: Gomez, Mrs. Alvin Herron; Harmony, Mrs. Loyce Floyd; Johnson, Mrs. M. C. Wade; Meadow-Challis, Mrs. W. J. Moss; Needmore, Mrs. J. W. Smith; Pool, Mrs. J. M. Trussell; Union, Mrs. Frank Sargent; Willow Wells, Miss Betty Kinney.

The first home demonstration agent in the county was Mareta Holloway who came in June, 1940. She resigned in August, 1941. She was followed by Dorothy Faye Blanton who was here until September, 1943. Then Mozelle Reast was agent until the fall of 1945. Helen Dunlap was agent from December, 1945, until August, 1951. Doris Mahaffey, who is the agent at this time, came in September, 1951.

Each year the home demonstration clubs work on two main demonstrations. Each demonstration is usually a three-year program. In addition to these demonstrations the clubs have several programs each year on special interest subjects. Usually a craft is included each year.

Since home demonstration work began in this county some of the demonstrations that have been worked on are poultry, clothing, dairy improvement, production of home food supply, and practically every phase of home improvement. Tailoring was a special interest program in 1949, and sponge cakes for high altitudes was a special interest feature in 1951 and 1952.

One of the demonstrations that is carried on continually is that of organization. The county home demonstration council is a demonstration in organization. It is a committee composed of the president and council delegate of each club and chairmen of various committees. The objectives of council are to develop leadership and promote home demonstration work. The present council officers are: Mrs. Kellie Sears, chairman; Mrs. Lee Bartlett, vice-chairman; Mrs. Ralph Murry, secretary; Mrs. Frank Sargent, treasurer; and Mrs. A. J. Bell, reporter.

Meadow-Challis Club History
The Meadow Home Demonstration Club was organized in January, 1941, under the supervision of Miss Mareta Holloway, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Elmer Jones was elected president and Mrs. Jim Finley, council delegate. Mrs. Amy Pendergrass and Mrs. Jim Finley are still members of the club.

The women of the Challis community joined the club in 1950 and the name was changed to Meadow-Challis.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of the club is tailoring. Mrs. W. J. Moss, Mrs. Johnny Winston and Mrs. D. D. Qualls had training under Miss Mary Routh, extension clothing specialist. As a result they trained 39 women to tailor woolen suits and coats, 25

Brownfield's First School Teacher Given Life Membership in P-T Association

"Another one of my dreams has come true," said Mrs. Jessie G. Randal, Brownfield's first school teacher away back in 1904, regarding the Life Membership she received from the Randal Parent-Teacher Association, in a special ceremony at the 24th annual spring conference of Fourteenth District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers here Friday morning.

Mrs. Randal told this writer, "I've always wanted a P-TA Life Membership." Emmitt Smith, who is head of the educational department at West Texas State College, Canyon, presented the membership to Mrs. Randal. He was superintendent of the Brownfield Schools when the Jessie G. Randal elementary school was opened in February, 1942. The school was named for the town's first teacher, and when the building was formally opened on February 13, 1942 Mrs. Randal realized another dream, a beautiful building for the educating of children of many of her former students.

When she received the life membership, she wore an orchid corsage she received from eight of her former students in that first school in September, 1904, including Mrs. Ray Brownfield, formerly Doll Pyatt; Mrs. Morgan Copeland, formerly Bit Pyatt; H. M. (Dube) Pyatt; Mrs. Tom May, the former Ida Sawyer; Mrs. Aut Graham, formerly Allie Sawyer; Yvess and Arthur Sawyer and Mrs. George Hunt, the former Annie Hamilton. On the card with the flower was a message, "To our favorite teacher."

Mrs. Ivy Savare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Green, who is now principal at Roscoe Wilson school in Lubbock, greeted Mrs. Randal at the PTA conference, and reminded her that she was her first teacher. Mr. and Mrs. Green have passed on.

Mrs. Randal and her husband the late J. L. Randal, first came to Terry county "prospecting" in 1900; then they moved here in 1902, purchasing school land. Her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Shrock, accompanied the Randals to the prairie land "near Palo Pinto county where Mrs. Randal started teaching when she was 16 years old. She taught in Fox Hollow in Palo Pinto county, and her first experience in the west was teaching school in Lynn county the year before she was "asked to teach the first school here."

"Teachers were not paid in those days like they are now," Mrs. Randal recalls. "Those first board members really came to me and asked me to teach," she said, "instead of going over to the next county." The late M. B. Sawyer, and the late Judge W. R. Spencer, and W. H. Black, who now lives near Hobbs, N. M., were the school trustees.

That first school building was a 40'x40' building, which was well built, "but we had a coal stove and burned mesquite grubs . . . and winters were colder here in those days," said the charming lady who will be 79 years young next January. There were between 50 and 60 students between the ages of five and 21 and "I was fortunate — they all wanted to learn. I even coached several for their entrance examinations to college," she added. She has counted about 35 or 40 of her students that first year who still reside in the South Plains area.

"We didn't have football and basketball in those days, but the boys played baseball and pitched horseshoes. The older boys managed the baseball games . . . now we think the schools must hire coaches! If the boys fought on the school grounds, it was my duty to whip them . . . Arthur Sawyer reminded me not long ago that I spanked him! The children were so good to help me keep the school house clean . . . no janitor . . . they picked up the trash before they went home in the afternoons. The older girls got lots of experience, looking after the younger ones!"

After the late Mr. Randal had his homestead well underway, he taught with his wife the second year of school here. She did not teach after those two years, but has always been interested in school activities, and watching children grow. Their only daughter, Mrs. Gaster Spencer taught in the school that bears her mother's name, and now teaches in West Ward.

"We came to Brownfield to 'put down roots,'" Mrs. Randal continued as she "remembers away back when" . . . "My husband and I had always been interested in chemistry . . . I first met him when I was four years old . . . so we started studying to become druggists and we did . . . I still have my pharmacist's diploma, and my P-TA Life membership will hang beside it" Mr. Randal was also postmaster here at one time.

Not only was Mrs. Randal the first school teacher in Brownfield, but she was among the first in other organizations. She is a charter member of the First Methodist Church, the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Rebekahs. She is also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, and continues to be active in all of these organizations. "My church still comes first in my life," she said.

Mrs. Randal and Mrs. Spencer still make their home at 502 East Main, and Mrs. Randal likes to talk about her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The three grandchildren are Mrs. Martha Coffey of San Antonio, Mrs. Caroline Nickells of New Orleans, La., and John Spencer of Dallas. Ann Lingle, who is a senior student at

A Little Cutup Along With Our Readers

Four new readers added since last report, and two of them had been old times readers, Sam White and Rev. J. N. Hester. If we'd known these boys were off our list we'd have herded 'em in and made 'em get on the dotted line. Then Mr. L. V. Alexander, Rt. 2, and Tim G. Faulkenberry, city, were added. When a real good rain comes, we hope for many more.

Then there was B. W. Horn, Morris Smith, S. R. Loe, Jack Cravey, all in from the city or routes, followed by Jim Burnett, who came twisting in like a 16 year old. Will that guy ever slow up? Then there was Claude Hester out north of town, and he said he got an inch of rain on his farm. Then there was K. W. Howell, up and about after a rap over at the hospital, flat of his back, recently.

Then there was A. C. Miller, and District Clerk, Mrs. Eldoramefasolado White. No she won't get mad at her nickname we gave her before she married. There was also Robert Lee Craig, a native, Fred C. Smith, that keeps things going over at Cicero Smith yard, and J. H. Carpenter, who keeps the mail rolling out on route 1.

Added to that are several who did not know they renewed, as they will be billed the first. Then Johnny Kendrick renewed for his mother at Lubbock, D. H. McMillan of Amarillo, A. Y. Edwards, Tokio, Harmon Seales, Lubbock. And Mrs. W. B. Tudor renewed for her dad, J. S. Dixon, out at Hot Springs, N. M., or Truth or Consequences, if you want to call it that. We prefer Hot Springs.

Thanks a lot, folks, and will be seeing you every week if we don't break a singletree.

Some Tall Tales On The Colored Folks

Mayor Homer Nelson tells this one: A negro minister from a section of the country which have no 'possums, was called to hold a revival under a grove in the south. One night as he got in a weaving way with a red hot sermon, he happened to glance up, and saw one of the animals on a limb.

He forgot his sermon, and exclaimed: "Zzz xxx, what a rat!" L. E. Bryant had one just about as good. On darkey with two 'possums in a poke met another, and said: "Sambo, I have a couple of 'possums here in this sack, and if'n you can guess how many I got, I'll give you one." "You got two," said Sambo. "Some trifling whelp is done gone and tole you how many I had, and just for that you won't get any," the 'possum hunter allowed.

The Rainfall Was A Bit Disappointing

After two days of dusty weather, looked like we might be in for a good rain Monday afternoon, as clouds gathered in the west. By mid-afternoon it was thundering, and finally the rain hit. The way it came down for about 3.7 minutes, it appeared like an old timer. But the duration was shorter than it takes to tell it.

The USWB gauge showed 6/100 inch, hardly enough to lay the dust still in the air.

AT THE CHURCHES

Crescent Hill Church of Christ
T. J. Finley, Minister

Good interest and spirit is manifest in all phases of the work in the church which meets at Lubbock Road and Oak street. Bible school attendance is good; the ladies of the congregation have undertaken some work of a benevolent nature such as sewing and buying clothes for the needy; the young people are enjoying a good Bible discussion in their classes; in fact, we must say that the church as a whole is very busy and much good is being done. Visitors were in the services at both the morning and evening hour and they reported a very enjoyable stay in our midst.

Federal Tax Collections Exceed 1951 Figures

The federal deficit stands now at $3.3 billion and will probably rise to only $5 billion by the end of the fiscal year instead of the $8 billion forecast in President Truman's budget message.

Buying A Terry County Farm No Joke

Frank Hill, editor of the Lynn County News, over at Tahoka, was a pleasant caller at the Herald office late last week. The Hills, he and his dad and Billy, have been publishing the Tahoka paper so long that they now rank up among the old timers as publishers and editors in this area. They not only put out a creditable paper, but an interesting one.

Of course, we talked shop for awhile. That is always on the agenda when two newspaper folks meet. They generally have been at the business long enough to know they are not the only pebbles on the beach, and that there is still a lot to learn as we go along. He also had a short chat with the linotype operator, Mr. Forgy, who at one time ran the O'Donnell index, and had the paper printed at Tahoka by the Hills.

Then the amazing came to light. He had just closed a deal for a farm down near Loop, but just in Terry county. "Now what about a Lynn county editor buying a Terry county farm," he allowed: "If you ask us, it was a wise move. A farm anywhere on the South Plains is a good investment, but where a country editor get so much money?"

Then he told us this story. "Once upon a time, a country weekly editor actually earned $1, and then his wife inherited $9,999.00. The editor bought a farm." He left the rest for us to guess.

When driver safety tests were preferred in New York recently, 12,000 persons took the tests.

'Fashions on Parade' At Maid, Matrons

"Fashions on Parade," a style show given by the Maids and Matrons Study Club, was presented in the Seleta Jane Brownfield clubhouse Tuesday afternoon, April 15, at 4 o'clock. The show was in two parts, "The History of Style" and "Club Women's Day." In charge of the program was Mrs. L. M. Wingerd.

The first part of the style show, "History of Style," featured costumes from 1787 to 1950. All fashions modeled were authentic and none were copies. Among the costumes modeled was a "pale boy" suit, that was in style during the George Washington administration and has been handed down in the Redford Smith family. Other things modeled were hoop skirts, bustles, leg-o-mutton sleeved blouses and Gibson Girl blouses. Also modeled were a chemise and a petticoat which were both completely made by hand. Even the lace on the petticoat was hand-sewn.

Another costume modeled was a "western dress." It was called this because all the people at the time this dress was in style were going west. With the dress was also a tiered-bonnet to match.

Featuring the 1880's was a seal-skin cape and bonnet style hat and shoes to match. Dresses modeled from the 1920's featured "flapper girl" dresses and hats, then the 1930's featured dresses that seemed more up to date.

The second part of the show, "Club Women's Day," featured the latest in styles for the modern day woman. Clothes for this part of the show were from the local stores.

The finale of the show was the modeling of three modern wedding dresses of different types. First was a white satin street-length dress with white lace and a lace-train, modeled by Mrs. Glen Woodruff of Matador. Second was a white ballerina-length dress modeled by Mrs. Russell Stephens. The last dress was formal-length white ivory satin wedding dress and Juliet cap modeled by Mrs. Ben Monett.

Models for the show were Mesdames Lee Holmes, Money Price, Lee Allen, Bill Williams, Russell Stephens, Glen Woodruff, Ben Monnett, and Miss Mary Jane Brownfield, who modeled Junior dresses. Approximately 75 persons attended the style show and were served punch, cake and nuts by the hostesses, Mrs. Otis B. Larner and Mrs. M. G. Tarpley.

Library Now Has 1,092 Members

Since the county library moved to the new location in the courthouse, the membership includes 43 new readers, to make the present total 1,092, according to a report given at the meeting of the Maids and Matrons Study Club on Tuesday, April 15. During the past month 500 books were in circulation.

A new Encyclopedia Americana and two new dictionaries have been added to the library, and the general public and members of civic and study clubs are reported to have gotten good use of these books. A "card-catalogue" is now being made for the use of the books. The catalogue will list the books in alphabetical order, with the name of the author and the name of the book.

Many books that are on best-seller lists are added frequently to the library. Many of these books are available on the rental shelf. Miss Olga Fitzgerald is librarian, and the library is under the sponsorship of the Maids and Matrons Study Club and Terry County. The committee from the study club is composed of Mrs. E. C. Davis, chairman, Mrs. Barton Evans, Mrs. Money Price and Miss Fitzgerald.

The library is located on the first floor of the courthouse, near the west entrance.

Have You Heard?
—By Margaret Coward—

Members of the Young People's Fellowship Club of the West Side Baptist Church went to Littlefield Tuesday night, April 22, where they assisted with the organization of a similar club at Parkview Baptist Church. Rev. John C. Taylor, former pastor here, is now at the church in Littlefield and invited the group there.

There are now about 50 young people who attend services on Tuesday nights at 7:30 o'clock, and the boys usually conduct the devotional, either reading scriptures or bringing a short message. Then the group enjoys a songfest and recreation before refreshments are served. Mrs. F. E. Jackson is director of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McWilliams, who moved to Escondido, Calif., a few months ago, really "got homesick for a sandstorm" but they would not admit it. They are here on a combination visit and business trip. They purchased a small avocado ranch, about 15 miles from the Pacific ocean. There are so many interesting things to do out there, only a short distance from their ranch... hunting, fishing, swimming, etc. They are visiting his mother, Mrs. Price, and friends. Mrs. McWilliams' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holmes of Winnsboro, are also visiting here.

While en route to Dallas to meet his father, C. E. Ross of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Ross of Waco suffered injuries in an automobile accident near Waxahachie about 3 p. m., last Thursday, April 17. A pick-up was reported to have driven out in front of them, causing their car to turn over twice. They received emergency treatment in a hospital in Waxahachie, where it was determined Mack had a fractured ankle. His wife, the former Nancy Morgan, suffered bruises and lacerations. She was moved to a Waco hospital Thursday night, and was able to return to her home in Waco Monday. Mr. Ross, who was attending a GMC dealers meeting in Dallas, went to Waco as soon as he learned of the accident. Nancy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Morgan of Brownfield also went to Waco, and he returned Monday, while the mother is staying with her daughter. Nancy and Mack visited here during the Easter holidays. He will receive his degree from Baylor University in Waco in June.

The Wellman Baptist Church will soon have some new pews and a new piano paid for, and construction has started on a new parsonage for their pastor, Rev. Levarle Kite, and Mrs. Kite. A few weeks ago the piano was moved to the school building for use during a recital. The father of a little girl who was in the recital liked the piano so well, he sent a check to the church secretary to help pay for it!

Rebekahs Have Initiation Service

Brownfield Rebekah Lodge No. 56 met in Odd Fellows Hall Monday night at 8 o'clock, April 21, with Mrs. L. V. Wagner, noble grand, presiding at the regular order of business, which was followed by an initiation service. Mrs. Delta Lemley, 706 East Tate, was a candidate for initiation. Mrs. Sherman Mitchell, 901 Lubbock Road, a past noble grand of the Brownfield lodge, was admitted as a member.

Many bouquets of spring flowers, candles, and officers dressed in pink chiffon formals made a very impressive ceremony. Final plans were made for members of the lodge to attend the South Plains Association of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows, which was held in Abernathy April 24, where the Rebekahs competed for initiation honors. Alta Mae Steen and Mrs. Chas. Winn served sandwiches and grape punch to 40 members.

At the First Methodist Church Monday afternoon, April 21, in Fellowship Hall, members of the Society of Christian Service continued their new study. During a business meeting, Mrs. E. F. Latham, president, presided and plans were completed for the PTA luncheon Friday at noon in Fellowship Hall. The group will take food to the church by 9:30 Friday morning. Mrs. Latham announced that chairmen of each circle will tell of outstanding work done this year at the service Sunday night, when the WSCS will present the program.

The song, "I Would Be True," was sung before Mrs. James Underwood gave the devotional on "The Value of a Child," using scriptures from Mark, Luke, John and First Corinthians. Mrs. Geo. Weiss led the program, discussing the second chapter of the new study. Her topic was "Children Are People." Mrs. G. S. Webber discussed the third chapter, entitled "Emotional Maturity."

Twenty-three members were present. The regular fourth Monday luncheon will be held at the church next Monday.

Plans were discussed at a recent meeting of the Ministerial Association for a city-wide Easter Service next year. We'll be hearing more about this!

DECORATIONAL DESIGN TOUR SUCCESSFUL

Mrs. Bernarr Smith, chairman of the Hope Circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, reported this week that members feel the Decorational Design Tour the circle sponsored recently was indeed a success. She stated that proceeds from the lecture and tour doubled that of last year.

Proceeds will be used to furnish a Prayer Room in the new Methodist Church that is to be built here soon.

Mrs. Smith stated that all members of the circle wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone who assisted with the project, and especially do they wish to thank those who so willingly opened their new and redecorated homes for those taking part in the tour to visit. The next regular meeting of the circle will be next Thursday morning, May 8.

WMU HAS PROGRAM ON HAWAII APRIL 21

"Hawaiians Are Americans, Too" was the subject for the Royal Service program presented by the Bagby Circle of the Women's Missionary Union at the First Baptist Church Monday afternoon, April 21.

"He Lives On High," a hymn that has the same melody as "Aloha," was sung by the group, and Mrs. L. C. Heath led a devotional, using scriptures from Psalms 40:1-17. Mrs. E. E. Preston discussed "What Is Hawaii Like" and "How Hawaiians Become Americans."

"How the Gospel Came to Hawaii" was the topic discussed by Mrs. R. D. Shewmake Jr. Mrs. James Fitzgerald talked on "Baptists Are Late But Timely," and Mrs. E. D. Yeatts discussed "A Japanese Convert Tells Her Story." Mrs. D. P. Carter gave the closing meditation. Twenty-four members were present.

Notice Car Owners!!

DUE TO A RECENT WARNING by the Department of Public Safety, and in order to further clarify the situation regarding Automobile Inspections, the following revisions of Regulations governing this inspection of automobiles is published by the Officially Authorized Inspection Stations, for the enlightenment of automobile owners in Terry County.

"GET THE VEHICLE INSPECTED and avoid the delay and inconvenience of having to wait in line," advises an official of the Department of Public Safety. Only one-sixth of the cars registered in Terry County recently have been inspected the past 30 days. The deadline was extended through September 6th, and people operating after that time without an Official Sticker will be subject to a fine. If people are negligent and wait until the last minute to take their vehicles to inspection stations, there are not enough stations in Texas to inspect them all within a few days.

Stricklinly Speaking
By OLD HE

Many of the old timers of this section will regret to hear of the passing of Joe L. Heare, the pioneer station agent of the Santa Fe at Tahoka, recently. He was 65 years of age, and came to Tahoka in 1915, some three years after the Santa Fe built into Wilson, Tahoka, O'Donnell and Lamesa. In those days, Heare not only handled freight and express designated to Tahoka and vicinity, but also as far west as Tatum, N. M. Joe Heare fit right into the making of a new country until his retirement in 1943. Your wagon freighter back in the 'teens could give a check on you for freight, and we don't suppose Joe ever lost much money. This would go for dry goods, groceries, paper supplies and what have you. But as we remember now, your four full quarts of Old Dillinger came express paid. So far as we know Joe Heare indulged little if any with alcoholics, himself.

A WOMAN'S PROTECTIVE INSTINCT is the theme of the Carol Lane Award which will be presented each year, along with a $1,000 defense bond, to the American woman who contributes most to traffic accident prevention. Nominations are now being invited by the National Safety Council, which administers the award through grant of the Shell Oil Co. Carol Lane, women's travel director of Shell and whose name the award bears, is shown with the model for the bronze statue.

Our old friend, Sharley Journal Guy, up there at Hubtown, sometimes gets to speculating in his cubbyhoole, and comes up with anything from the sublime to the ridiculous. In one of his latest, he was figuring out an airplane in prospect that will be so fast you can't see it, and will make a non-stop flight of 20,000 miles before it becomes obsolete and ready for the mothballs.

We almost felt rich one day last week when we received a $100 William—but it turned out to be Texas and not US currency. But its size was in keeping with Texas brags, being 5 1/2 x 13 inches, and the due date is a long way off, perhaps Feb. 30, 2553, when Texas takes over all the rest of the USA. Not expecting to be hereabouts when the bill comes due, we are passing it on to our heirs apparent—the little gentleman and ladies from two to four years of age, and they in turn can pass it to their children and grandchildren.

The bill originated down at Heavenly Houston, but 600 years is a long wait, even by comparison with Li'l Abner' Dogpatch ham, which seems to be only about a century old.

Even Mayor Homer Nelson got two red "fixit" tags from the inspector last week. Wires although pretty well insulated, were hung over nails. But Homer says he's going to have them fixed soon. And that is a good example to all of us—the Herald got 4—to follow suit. No good in just saying those inspectors don't know what they are about. They are experts, and they know what's a dangerous fire hazard, while the most of us lay-electricians just guess, and maybe make a bad guess. Let's leave the red tags up, and call in our electrician and have them go over them and eliminate the trouble. We are now paying a big extra insurance premium because we had some bad fires, one at least caused by bad wiring, it is believed.

About the turn of the century there was a very popular stage song, which was duly recorded on the old "Edison Record"—the old cylinder kind. The song was both sad and funny, entitled "Waiting at the Church." It was sung by a high soprano gal, and was half way between a cry and a squeal. Saw a cartoon Sunday that brought back that old song to memory. There stood the gal at the J. P.'s door, and hearing a disturbance, that official had stuck his head out just in time to see the prospective groom fade in the distance, but the bride to be still held his coat by a sleeve, the rest of the raiment being on the porch floor.

The other weatherman here is still way ahead of our measurements. We sincerely wish we had gotten as much or more rain than he. Up to Saturday, according to the Lubbock Avalanche, he had 1.65. We had only caught 1.12, but we now have an extra 16/100 that fell after the Avalanche went to press about midnight Saturday, making our total to Sunday at 1.23 for April.

Anyway, it may be like the story of Pecos Bill, the rabble-rousing, hootin'-tootin' Texas cowboy, whose many stunts were impossible to anyone except a bragging Texan. The current issue of Texas Parade tells the story, and among others, Bill lay down under a mesquite tree to sleep, and while he slept with his shotgun grasped in his arms, there came a rain, and filled one barrel of the gun with water, and a sandstorm filled the other with sand.

Then there was the one about the old west Texas farmer driving along a lane seated in the spring seat of the wagon. A hard rain came up, and he moved on the other side of the seat and stayed dry. Way back around 30 years

Two Brownfield Men Enlist in Air Force

Two men from Brownfield enlisted in the Air Force last week, according to M/Sgt. J. A. White, in charge of the Army Air Recruiting office in Lubbock.

Billy Lloyd Metcalf, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Metcalf, 1105 North First, was one of the men. He is a graduate of the Brownfield High school, and had been working as a salesman prior to his enlistment.

Nelson Lee Brigrance, 21, husband of Barbara Jean Brigrance, 407 East Cardwell, is also a graduate of the local high school. He was produce manager for a local grocery firm prior to his enlistment. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Brigrance.

ago, a cloud moved backward and forward over the town section of the village of Brownfield. When it was over our gauge registered 3.60 rainfall, and two miles in any direction it did not lay in the dust in the roads. And that's no Pecos Bill story.

We note with some interest that the Texas Jaycees, meeting in Austin, passed a strong resolution against cities, towns, counties and the state running up to Washington to every time they need a little money, for a handout—of their own money. The resolution also severely criticised the highly centralized government at Washington.

At the same time we were somewhat shocked when Congressman Mahon criticised his House colleagues because they refused to follow Mr. Truman's request for more and more funds for the military. Yet, George was on somebody's neck just recently for waste and extravagance. Among some of the recent stunts is the air fields in north Africa, the runways of which were not usable when finished. And Sunday's papers tell us that the airfield in Europe doesn't have one bomb in case war comes.

Least that can be said is that if there ever was a mess on earth, the biggest one is at a well known location we call Washington, D. C.

URGES FARMERS TO START BABY CHICKS NOW FOR FALL EGGS

Despite the recent decline in egg prices, it is still good business for farmers to start baby chicks this spring. E. B. Powell, director of research for Purina, stated this week, "This drop in prices may cause some farmers to give up on baby chicks this year," Powell stated, "and we may wind up with an egg shortage next winter."

Powell pointed out the population growth since the last "baby chick season" will swell the normal demand upwards of a billion eggs next fall. The present market seems to be having the tendency to decrease production too much.

"The logical result of a heavy decline in replacement chicks," he continued, "will be fewer eggs next fall when the chicks put down now will be laying best."

He reminded farmers of a similar market condition a couple of years ago, when the egg market broke sharply in the spring, but bounced back to new peaks the following fall. "Good weather, better breeding and better feeding have combined to make a temporary egg supply larger than usual," he explained. "Obviously, this has forced the egg prices down. But the situation offers an unusual opportunity for egg profits next fall, according to most market experts. And here is their reason—some poultry keepers will not raise chicks this spring. So, there should be fewer pullets and fewer eggs next fall and winter. In the past, this has made extra high egg prices during that time of the year."

"Don't be misled into cutting down on chicks this spring," he cautioned, "let the other fellows quit." Some poultry flock owners were panicked into getting out of the egg business in 1950 when egg prices dropped to 30.7c that spring. Yet in the fall and winter of '50, prices hit 57.7c per dozen, Powell stated.

"The farmer who has chickens in production next fall should have some mighty good property," he concluded, "and he stands a good chance to show a satisfactory poultry profit."

Old Pioneer Leaves This Vale of Tears

Another old pioneer has taken his departure to where he and we all hope a country where pain and tears are unknown. J. J. Gaston of the Gomez community was one of the men among the many who came early to Terry county and helped to make it a good place to rear a family. He and his excellent family came to Terry county in 1823 from Detroit, Texas, and settled on a farm a few miles southwest of Gomez.

At the ripe old age of 90 years, he passed away at the local hospital at about 3:45 p. m. last Wednesday. Mr. Gaston had been in poor health for several years, and did not come to town very often of late, and his many friends missed his visits. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. Haislip, at the First Christian Church here Thursday, and the body was laid to rest in Terry County Memorial Cemetery, under direction of Brownfield Funeral Home. He was a member of the Christian Church.

Besides his wife, other survivors were four daughters, Mrs. Ida Brubaker, Mrs. Jessie Morgan, Mrs. K. Robinson and Mrs. Elizabeth Yates, all of Brownfield. Two sons, Henry Gaston of Detroit and Fancher of Graham, several grand and great-grandchildren.

Ninety Years Since Battle of Shiloh

Recently a nephew in Tennessee sent us a copy of the Memphis Commercial Appeal that gave numerous pictures as well as text matter about the two days' battle of Shiloh, on the Tennessee river. From the description given, fortified by an old wood cut that appeared in a New York daily, the battle was just about as ex-Confederate soldiers described when we were a boy. The delay of Beaugard lost the battle for the south.

Picture of Late H. R. Winston in Library

A hand-painted picture of the late County Judge Homer R. Winston was recently presented to the county library by Mrs. Winston and children, and is much appreciated by patrons who visit the library daily.

The picture was taken by a daughter, Mrs. Jerry Yost, the former Mary Lena Winston, who now resides in Fresno, Calif., and she hand-painted the print that makes it very life-like. Mrs. Winston also presented four autographed books, "Time Flew By," which she wrote last year. The books were presented as a memorial to Judge Winston.

Miss Olga Fitzgerald, librarian for the Maids and Matrons Club, who sponsors the library with the county, stated that many people appreciate the picture of Judge Winston, and feel that it, with Mrs. Winston's books, is a living memorial to the county judge who passed away last summer after serving Terry County 25 years as public official.

Mrs. Ed Carroll and son of Lubbock visited Saturday and Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Mason, 901 East Broadway.

Mrs. Mary Springer, who is a local telephone operator, is now on leave of absence while her husband, Pvt. Bobby Springer, is on furlough from the army. He has been in Korea, and overseas the past 10 months. They are visiting his mother at Plains.

That Test Well in West Terry a Puzzle

Frankly, we believe the owners and drillers of that well over in west Terry, 12 miles west of Brownfield, and four east of Tokio, know what they are about. But as far as we laywellmen are concerned, any man's guess is as good as the other. Most of us believe there is oil in that well. In fact, there are perhaps four paying stratas from some 8,000 to 12,730. But how much we know not. But here is the payoff, according to some who have studied the matter here and in other oil fields in Texas. If there are four paying stratas, then instead of one well on every 40 acres, there can be one well on each ten acres, but all must tap a different formation.

Several Serious Accidents Recently

Friday, April 18, about noon a discharged soldier who was riding a motorcycle, is reported to have collided with a truck on Broadway and the Lubbock highway, and he suffered a broken leg. He was taken to the Reese Air Base hospital after receiving emergency treatment here. He is reported to have been en route to New York.

Ingram Likes Northern Star Cottonseed

Marvin Ingram was in this week from the W. M. Hunter farm east of Meadow, to advertise his Northern Star cottonseed. We asked him about what he considered the special advantages of this cotton. He stated that he had raised Northern Star for several years, as well as other kinds. One thing he liked was that the lower limbs formed a bit higher off the ground, and in case of hard rains did not stain cotton so badly.
