TERRY GETS ONE NEW OIL WELL; TWO LOCATIONS

Terry County got one new oil well last week and two new locations. So did Yoakum County. Both wells were in the Prentice field of both counties. The Terry County new producer, was Great Western Drilling Co., No. 3, Brit Clare, located on section 22, block D-14. Total depth was 5,965. The producer pumped 182 barrels daily on proration test, 30 gravity oil and some water.

The Yoakum County well was the Tennessee Production Co., H. A. Hedberg, section 332, block D. Total depth 6,769 feet, and rated 191 barrels of 30 gravity oil, no water, daily. Both wells are pumpers.

Of the two new locations in Terry County, one is classified as a wildcat, being the Anderson-Prichard Oil Corp., No. 1, Rich. Location is on section 15, block DD, located 11 miles southwest of Brownfield. To be carried to 10,500 feet with rotary, at once.

The other is in the Prentice field, being Placid Oil Co., No. 6, Al Muldrow. Located on section 20, block D-14, 15 miles northwest Brownfield and to be carried to 6,000 with rotary tools at once.

Over in Yoakum, San Jacinto Oil Co., is to drill a well on Mrs. J. M. Roman's land in the Prentice field, on section 26, block K. To be carried to 7,100 feet at once.

The other, a wildcat, by Felmont Oil Corp., on the R. M. Kendrick land, five miles south of Bronco. Using rotary tools, the well is to be drilled to 12,000 feet at once.

Presently there are eleven rigs in the proven fields of Terry County, and 3 drilling wildcat wells. There are 12 field rigs in Yoakum County, with 4 drilling wildcat wells.

Texas Rangers returned Wednesday from Austin without a report in regard to autopsy findings in the death of Mrs. Deloris Alice Norris, 35, who was found dead by her husband early last Friday.

Ranger W. E. Renfro reported that the autopsy findings may be available this week.

The autopsy, ordered by County Judge Herbert Chesshir, was conducted after Mrs. Norris died in her bed. Norris said his wife had been in ill health for about two years.

Country Club to Give Annual Show in Nov.

Members of the Brownfield Country Club are hard at work on the sixth edition of their annual review, which is given under the auspices of the Ladies Organization of which Mrs. Jack Bailey is president.

Mrs. Tommie Zorns is entertainment chairman, in charge of arrangements; and Mrs. Dip Pemberton is chairman in charge of ticket sales. Mrs. Prentice Walker will have charge of table reservations.

The show is directed by Mrs. Roy Wingerd, and will feature the theme, "Law West of the Pecos," which should appeal greatly to the public in this area. Bernie Howell, well known TV star and organist of Lubbock, will play for the show.

Brownfield has outstanding talent to offer, and this had made the Annual Show something of an event in entertainment circles here. A preview of the talent on parade has convinced critics that this will be one of the best of their many fine offerings.

The part of Judge Roy Bean will be ably portrayed by local attorney, Burton Hackney. Chorus will feature the dancing of Ladies Club members Jane Shirley, Tiny Barrett, Marge Williams, Marion May and Katie Weiss in the Indian chorus and Mesdames Jack Bailey, Dorothy Kerschner, Evalyn Cruce, Thelma Crites, Jean Brownfield, and Helen McClain, under the direction of Roy and Kitty Fleming.

A cowboy quartette will sing during the evening, and the crooning of Jack Shirley and Crawford Taylor will be featured.

On this occasion the public is invited to attend, and see the annual revue. Sandwiches and soft drinks will be served during the evening.

CUBS TO PLAY ANDREWS TONITE

Tonight the Brownfield Cubs will battle the Andrews Mustangs at Cub Stadium at 8 o'clock.

The Mustangs have had only one defeat this year with Levelland (20-19) and Levelland beat the Cubs, 33-13.

Andrews have a very good team this year and have the best defensive team in the State. Huestes is a very fast boy with shifty legs. His weight is 128. Their power-hitter is big Wright, 192, who is a very hard-running player. They have a well balanced team built around their big center, Brewer, 219. The two favored pass receivers are Huckabee and Ellis. The Mustangs have a passing team as well as a running one.

Let's all turn out and help support our home team in their struggle for the district championship!

HOMES NOW BEING MOVED FOR NEW RIGHT-OF-WAY

The M. R. Watkins' home, located two miles south of Meadow, was the first of nine houses to be moved off the Lubbock highway to make way for the new four-lane highway, which is to be constructed soon.

Mack Thomason and Jake Fulford, committee men appointed by the Commissioners' Court to secure the right of way, were on hand Tuesday afternoon to oversee the project completed.

The Watkins moved their house near the highway approximately five years ago and they own other farms in Terry County. The committee stated that the farmer and his wife were one of the most agreeable land owners that they had contacted in regard to the highway project.

$250,000 bond issue was passed recently to make funds available to secure right of way for a four-lane highway through Brownfield, two miles south of here, and north to the county line, and to put fifteen additional feet on each side of the highway from Brownfield to Tokio. The committee expect to secure right of way from all the farms and be ready to hand over papers to the State some time in January.

When the highway is completed, it will be one of the most practical in the United States, having two 24-foot lanes on each side with a 30-foot space between the sides. On the east side of the highway, a service road will be completed within the next four years, which will be used by farmers for their combines, trailers, tractors, etc.

Next house scheduled to be moved is the Jeeter Nettles house, located two miles north of Meadow, and then the Tom Adams home one mile south of Meadow, will be moved. The Adams house, located a half mile south of Meadow, has the distinction of being built out of lumber from the old courthouse, which was bought by the late W. M. Adams about 1923, when that structure was torn down. Besides the house, Adams built 3 big barns, one at Meadow, one near Gomez, and one near Foster, from the courthouse lumber.

The committeemen stated that it takes approximately two days to move a house and sometimes even three or four days will be necessary. Mack, who is in real estate business in Brownfield, is an ex-commissioner, and Jake, who was a recent president of the Terry County Farm Bureau, operates a farm east of Meadow, and both men are at present devoting all their time to the county.

Other stops will be at the guided missile installations at White Sands, N. M.; the Air Defense Command Headquarters at Colorado Springs, Colo.; and the Strategic Air Command, Omaha, Neb.

The group's cross-country tour is designed to get "background" for Air Force budget hearing in the next session of Congress.

Other congressmen making the tour are E. P. Schivner, (R., Kan.), and Roman I. Hruska, (R., Neb.).

Mahon Warns Farmers and Businessmen To Keep Informed on Acreage Developments

Congressman George Mahon warned farmers and businessmen this week of the importance of keeping abreast of acreage control developments. He feels that many adjustments are going to be necessary to meet the shock of forthcoming programs. He points out that by reason of the anticipated drastic reduction in cotton plantings, overall cash farm income will be down. Mahon made for the press the following statement on the situation:

"Farmers and businessmen can do a better job of planning if they have a general knowledge of what to expect by way of government controls. Of course, no controls will be imposed unless they are first approved by the farmers themselves. A majority of two-thirds of those participating in a referendum is required. The object of controls is to reduce production, prevent excessive surpluses, and make possible relatively high government supports.

"The vote on cotton acreage controls is set for Dec. 5. Secretary Benson has announced that, under existing law, if controls are approved, cotton farmers as a whole will be given a national allotment of 17,910,000 acres. This is 16 per cent below what farmers were able to plant in 1950, the last year when acreage controls were in operation.

"There has been a shifting of cotton production toward the West, particularly to California, and these Western States will share in the national allotment. This means that in most cotton counties of the Nation sharper reductions will be made because of the shift of cotton production westward, and because of the overall 16 per cent cut below the 1950 crop program.

"Under the anticipated control program, farmers in cotton-producing counties will be privileged to plant a certain percentage of their cropland to cotton. Generally speaking, within the county the percentage factor for each cotton farmer would be the same. The factor would differ from county to county. It would be based upon the percentage of the total cropland in the county which had been planted in cotton during the past five years. However, the five-year period upon which allotments for next year would be based would not include 1949 and 1953. The law specifies that abnormal weather conditions must be taken into account in arriving at allotments.

"In the 1950 program in the 19th District cotton factors ranged from a low of 12 per cent in Yoakum County to a high of 58 per cent in Dawson County. The factor represents the percentage of cropland that the average cotton farmer in the county could plant in cotton under the program. The average factor in the 25 counties was 38 per cent. This was by far the highest average of any block of counties in Texas. Scores of Texas counties had factors of less

Mahon Among Three Congressmen Making Defense Inspection

Congressman George Mahon, of this district, who recently spoke in Brownfield, was among three touring Congressmen of a House Appropriations Committee group, who left Fort Worth last week to continue Air Force and defense plant inspection in San Antonio.

The representatives toured the big Convair and Carswell Air Force Base and planned to see Kelly Air Force Base.

NEW SHOE STORE OPENS HERE SOON

Brownfield will have a new shoe store about Nov. 18. Carpenters are busy building shelves and painters are redecorating the store at 415 West Main, where Southern Auto formerly was located, which will house the Fenton and Thompson Family Shoe Store.

Myron Fenton, who owns a similar shoe store in Snyder, will announce the formal opening date sometime next week. Mr. Fenton, his wife, and children will move to Brownfield as soon as the Chamber of Commerce locates them a six-room unfurnished house.

The store will be modernly equipped and will handle major brands of shoes, as Mr. Fenton has been acquainted with the shoe business for the past several years.

Meadow Tackle Still Under Observation In Dallas Hospital

Ben McCarty, 16, of Meadow, who was injured in Friday night's football game between Plains and Meadow, regained consciousness Saturday morning in Dallas' Baylor Hospital, where he was flown soon after the game for treatment.

McCarty, junior tackle for the Meadow High School Bronchos, was hurt on the third play of the game. He walked to the edge of the field and told Coach Tyler that his head felt stumped up.

When he suddenly collapsed, several minutes later, he was rushed to the Yoakum County Hospital in Denver City, where doctors diagnosed an injured blood vessel in the head. At 1 a.m., Saturday morning he was taken to Dallas by the Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance.

Baylor doctors are pleased with the boy's improvement, but they intend to keep him there to prevent further complications, Coach Tyler said Saturday night.

Tyer also said, "His injury took a lot out of the victory, and we will not try to use him again this year." Meadow won the game, 59 to 20, to gain the District 4-B championship.

Three years ago a similar injury was sustained by Ben's brother, Ronnie, now a Tech student, when he was playing for the Meadow team.

Ben is the nephew of Jean Finley, who is employed by Bailey Chevrolet Co. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Finley, of Meadow. The Finleys have been with Ben in Dallas since the accident.

INDIAN CEREMONIAL by Cub Scout Pack No. 43 was held Tuesday of last week at the First Christian Church. The program opened with an Indian dance performed by approximately 25 Cubs, dressed in Indian costumes made by the boys. They danced to the accompaniment of large ceremonial drums which they had made and decorated, in front of an Indian village of teepees which were also handmade. After the dance, the boys were awarded their achievement badges, which were presented by Cub Master Lanse Turner. An Indian ball game was staged by the whole group and afterwards the program was closed with the Cub Master telling the boys several Indian legends. Lumber Company To Construct Office and Storeroom; Sheds

Passing the Higginbotham-Bartlett Co., half block of lumber offices, storage and sheds, this week, we found they had torn down some of the old buildings erected in 1918. So we decided to drop in and check up with the manager, Cecil Smith. He stated that they had started a move which would eventually modernize buildings and equipment that has been out of date for years.

They have a trench digging machine going, and several hands getting the trenches ready for the concrete foundation of a 50x100 foot modern office and store building. Construction will be of tile and brick, and the building will have plate glass front and will be modern in every detail.

About 1917, the Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. purchased the site of the old Uncle Jack Coble pioneer day livery stable and wagon yard, which had lived up to that time, and fulfilled its niche in the pioneering era of Terry County. Livery stables had outlived their usefulness at that time, and wagon yards had almost reached the same point.

Cecil stated that construction would be carried on as fast as possible during the winter months.

NEWSOM HITS US A STUNNING BLOW

R. D. Newsom, the Panhandle Oil man walked in last week and announced that he thought he had better pay up on his subscription. He threw a ten dollar bill down, and we started to credit him, thinking he'd want possibly two years at the cheap rate.

We asked how many years, thinking he would say one, two, three years at the outside. Just give me credit for the whole $10 bill, he said and walked out. He has 6 1/2 years coming up.

First Armistice Day Was Celebrated On November 11, 1918

Maybe it don't seem to be 35 years ago, or on November 11, 1918, when we celebrated the first Armistice Day here in Brownfield, and in fact all over the USA. Some places were a day premature, as one press association got balled up on the date. But it was official when we got in the game. What brings up all this is a two column displayed article on the front page of the November issue of Texas VFW News.

That article reminds us that those old doughboys crawled out of their "cootie" infested trenches, and sent up a yell heard around the world. Old Kaiser Bill was defeated, and "the world made safe for democracy?" Well, at least we thought so at that time. But we had not reckoned that some more dictators, Hitler, Mussolini, and the Jap boss would come along some 23 years later and spoil our dream. So all hades broke loose at Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, and the job was all to be done over again.

So we just knew we had the thing sewed up then. Didn't we have one of the dictators on our side, "good old Joe?" But a dictator for all that, as Shakespeare would say. And our "diplomats," FDR AND HST had let "Uncle Joe" out-talk and outmaneuver

CUBS SCALP THE INDIANS LAST FRIDAY

The Brownfield Cubs thrilled a homecoming crowd last Friday night by defeating the Seminole Indians with a score of 13-0.

The game was a defensive battle throughout the first half and third quarter, with neither team getting very far.

The only great weakness in defense was shown when Hargrove galloped 49 yards on the first scrimmage play of the game.

The game was still undecided until late in the fourth quarter when Billy Thomason helped to set up the first Cub touchdown with a power play through the middle to the Seminole 7-yard line. A pass from Maggett to Howell, who tore the ball from the clutches of the Indians and to score. The score was now 6-0 for the Cubs.

Jack Stricklin kicked off for the Cubs and Travis, an Indian, ran it back to the Cub 4-yard line and that's where they stayed until the Cubs took over on downs.

Brown's and Thomason's running put the ball on the Indian's 4-yard line. Thomason scored the last tally on an off-tackle play and Brown made the extra point.

The game ended 13-0 for the Cubs.

The American Creed

We believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many states; a perfect union, one and inseparable established upon these principles of freedom—equality, justice and humanity, for which American patriots have sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

—Terry County Herald.

Most of us are sometimes too prone to criticize our fellow beings, and presently we are riding the juveniles pretty hard. All will have to admit that we have these youngsters, a few at least, who are not all that the community expects, and a lot of the time the parents of the youngsters are more to blame than the juveniles. In other words, the parents are sometimes too busy with their own pleasure seeking to give the youngsters wholesome advice, or to set proper examples before their offspring. For that reason, the kids get most of the criticism. In this connection, for the past year or two, we have heard and seen printed a world of criticism of our youths who have gone overseas in the Army, Navy and Air Corps at the behest of Uncle Sam. This is particularly true of those based in Japan. There has been numerous articles, some of them in the widely circulated magazines, and we believe in some of the religious journals, offering criticism of these boys, who are far from home and loved ones. Most of this criticism has arisen because of the number of illegitimate children, said to be the products of the GI's and Japanese girls. Many of these reports put the number of such babies and children as high as 200,000 and even some at 300,000. But in the last issue of Everybody's Digest, a popular monthly, we have another story, that trims this high estimate to a reasonable figure. The writer of the article spent many years in Japan and Asia some 60 years ago. He was at that time a missionary of the Protestant Methodist Church, and made a close study of the oriental people. After a bit of investigation, this gentleman, who is over there for other reasons presently, or lately, doubted seriously the high figures of illegitimacy that had been published, after a private investigation. After much persuasion and pressure, he had a real checkup made by the Social Welfare Department of Japan. All the hospitals, private, or run by churches were checked for these births, and even the mid-wives were checked, in all sections where our troops were located. The result was that there was not 200,000 or even 25,000 illegimates, but the final figure was placed at 5,013. Of these, too, many were the offspring of legal marriages between the GI's and Japanese girls, and many of the 5,013 children are now in the United States, in the homes of their parents. We wonder if the sources that spread this slander, will now do the right thing by making equally good apologies.

For some time we have been seeing statements that the Young Democrats of Texas, were to hold a meeting in the State, at which time, they would organize. From the names given as the leaders and sponsors, it stood out like the nose on a clown's face, that the idea was all hatched up by the New Deal or leftist bunch who were at the head of the organization. Further, they intimated that Mr. Stephen A. Mitchell, National Democratic Chairman, had given them a charter, during his recent visit to Texas. But, after Mr. Mitchell heard of the matter, he made the statement: "Any claim that I have granted a charter to any group is incorrect. . . . The National Chairman of the Senior party has no such authority." Others have stated that it was very apparent that some would make the Young Democrats of Texas a purely partisan organization, devoted to the advancement of special cliques inside the party. The idea left no doubt that there were some on both extreme fringes of the party who would work toward such an end. But this was not the idea of the Senior organization, some of which were with Stevenson and some with Eisenhower in the campaign of 1952. What the Senior organization wants, it appears, is a uniting of all factions, if possible. On the other hand, Gov. Shivers has come out squarely on the idea dropped by the Republican organization led by Mr. Porter, that the vote last fall for Eisenhower, was not a Republican vote, but a vote of protest against the regime that had held on at Washington for the past 20 years, and had led the party into almost absolute Socialism. In fact, many of the leading old time Democrats of the South, such as Byrd of Virginia, Byrnes of South Carolina, the Gov. of Louisiana, and many other Southerners, refused to support the New Deal or "Queer Deal" ticket longer. The government offices were becoming loaded with Communists or sympathizers, and Russia had any secret in our armament plan, almost as soon as we had it. For that reason, many Southern people believed it was time for a change, and voted that way. But back to the dispute as to who is or is not in power presently, we have before us a signed statement by Hilda B. Weinert and Wallace Savage of the State Democratic executive committee. They state that the officials of the last legal Young Democrats Convention, are still the legally constituted officers of that organization. This convention was held in 1949, and there has not been a convention since.

We have an article for this week's paper from Congressman George Mahon that gives quite some advice to our farmers. While the article is rather lengthy, we consider it worth while to our farm people, so we are printing it in full. If we do any censoring, it will be cotton allotments for the several counties of the 19th district, far removed from Terry County, and give only those near or adjacent to Terry. Now then, before you ask too much about what George knows about farming, we want to tell you that we have known people who lived on adjoining or nearby farms to the Mahon farm down in the Loraine section of Mitchell County. One of these men was the late Gene Brown. We have heard Gene say that George really came up the hard way, as he was left an orphan, and we believe he was the eldest of the family, and had to take the place of his father very early in life. And according to Gene, George Mahon knew his bulltongue plow, his side harrow, his walking turning plow, and the old walking cultivator. And that the familiar ring of the old gooseneck hoe was no stranger to him. Of course after he grew up, he attended college and became a lawyer at Colorado City, and finally the Congressman from the 19th district. Aside from that, many of the relatives of the late Joe Roberts, our brother-in-law of Coahoma, Howard County, live at Loraine, and have told us of the early life and struggles of Mahon. Only last week, when George Mahon came down from Lubbock to address the Farm Bureau, he called at our home just before time to attend the barbecue, and make an address, and was telling us of attending the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bennett at Loraine. In fact, the old Mahon place has been pointed out to us in that area, as

All our life we have heard tell of the Bowie knife, and when just a small lad, we thought some of the old timers had the knife confused with the familiar butcher knife, and we often called the butcher knife the Bowie knife. But there was a vast difference in the knives. While neither butcher or Bowie would open and fold like a pocket knife, the blade being permanently fixed in the handle or hilt, that was as far as the resemblance went, we were to learn as we grew older. The butcher knife was made for the butcher, or the farmer who processed his own meat on the farm. The Bowie was made for offense or defense in an angry encounter. Last week, Wayne Gard, an editorial staff writer in the Dallas News gave us the lowdown on the Bowie knife than we had ever read before. Even though the knife was used extensively in the settlement of Texas, and we even have counties and towns by that name, the knife was really named for James Bowie here in Texas, but he was not the inventor. It seems that Bowie really introduced the famous knife in Texas, which could be used in cutting up meat, as well as encounters with Indians and outlaws. Gard relates that the knife was invented by a man by the name of James Black, who ran a blacksmith shop at Washington, Ark. That was where Bowie obtained his first knife, as he migrated through that state to Texas. Perhaps many other blacksmiths in Texas and elsewhere began to copy the knife, as it would have been quite a jaunt to ride horseback to Arkansas when one wished to buy another Bowie knife. It is related that Bowie was actually attacked by some desperadoes, and that he killed them with his Bowie knife. However, it is said that Black, who made the knife in Arkansas, had a secret process of tempering these knives, and that they would take a very keen edge that was hard to dull with use. Also, that the knife in its original form, was one of the most terrible weapons ever invented. While the blade was long, and sharp only on one side of the length, where the blade curved near the end, both sides were sharp. It was made of the finest quality steel, had horn handles, and guards and was well balanced. No doubt some of these knives were used by Texans in the fight at the Alamo and perhaps other battles. David Crockett, one of the heroes and martyrs of the Alamo wrote "that the knife was enough to give a man's stomach squameish and colic, especially before breakfast."

Mrs. Doloris Norris' Funeral Conducted

Funeral services for Mrs. Doloris Alice Norris, 35, who died in her home about 8:30 a.m. Thursday of last week, were conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday in the North Side Baptist Church, the Rev. A. J. Franks, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Terry County Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

Mrs. Norris' death was discovered about 8:30 a.m. Thursday of last week by her husband, Marvin, at their home nine miles north of here. Norris said he got up a little after 8 and fixed breakfast. He said he didn't disturb his wife since she had been in ill health for the past two years. When he went to awaken her, Norris said he discovered she was dead.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Norris is survived by her mother, Mrs. Nina King, Brownfield, and two sisters, and two brothers, A. H. and Jesse King, both of Brownfield.

Pallbearers were Leonard Lang, Carl Stephenson, Lee Hester, Bryant Reasoner, Ray Levins, and Lindell Levins.

no doubt put words in the mouth of the caravan spokesmen, what to say and what not to say. But they found that Ezra Benson was not a man to be easily stampeded. While he gave them a very respectful hearing, after they had their say, he turned them down, cold. Now Mr. Benson was not in the dark on the matter, mind you. He had been getting a lot of mail from cattlemen who were hurt by both drought and the falling prices, and he had kept an accurate count of such letters. Let it be known here and now that of all the mail Benson had received from cattlemen, either because of drought, lower prices or both, ran about 25 to 1 against support prices for cattle. The real old time cattleman is as game as a fighting cock; he has always made his own way over the rocks and bumps as well as the smooth roads. He has always been averse to the government getting its hands into his affairs, and the less government control, the better the thing suited them. But no one will say that the government should fold its hands, as it were, and let the cattlemen or other people suffer, especially because of drought, which no one can do anything about, except to wait patiently until it is ready to rain. Not only should the government and the states help to get feed to the drought stricken areas, but if necessary help in other ways, as after all, these cattlemen have been good and patient taxpayers when prosperity abounded. But the present administration does not want to get into the cattle business, nor do cattlemen want the government in the business.

As the matter of the cattlemen's caravan to Washington recently is more fully studied, the more apparent it becomes that it was a political trick, and that former Secretary of Agriculture, Charles F. Brannan was the chief instigator. The very demands that these cattlemen made, from various parts of the country, are the ideas of Mr. Brannan in ditto, and the idea of government price supports are the ones the Congress turned down, when Brannan was in office. It was part of his farm plan that did not set well with Congress or with most farmers and cattlemen at the time. And further it is becoming known that it was not the idea of the great majority of cattlemen, who have always stood on their own feet, in good or bad times. It was the idea of one lone farm organization, and one of the least in membership, the Farmers Union, to make the march on Washington, and not ask, but demand, price support. And as Brannan is the attorney for the FU, he

we used to sometimes stop in at the little town to visit a few minutes with Joe Robert's kin, whom we had met at Coahoma. So, don't lose any sleep over the fact that Mahon does not know anything about farms and farming. While for many years now he has been a professional man, he has never lost contact or interest in the grass root section of our great State. The very fact that his district is largely still agricultural, would in itself keep him well abreast of farming and farm interests. So, we are asking you to please read the article. There is a lot of information on the same order.

G. I. QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q. I have a 20-year GI home loan and I've recently had to take on some additional financial obligations. Now I'm afraid I won't be able to meet my monthly payments. Is there anything that can be done, so I won't have to default on my loan?

A. Yes. It may be possible for the terms of repayment to be extended over a longer period of time, which would result in lower monthly payments. You should discuss the matter with your lender or your VA office.

Q. Through an oversight, I paid my GI insurance premium just before the 31-day grace period came to an end. But I'm afraid the premium won't reach VA until after the grace period expires. Will my insurance lapse?

A. The postmark date on the envelope is considered as the date on which the premium was paid. So long as the postmark date is within the grace period, you will be protected.

Q. I had to interrupt my World War II GI Bill training to go back into military service. I'm about to be separated from service, and I want to resume my studies. Is there any time limit on going back to school?

A. You will be required to re-submit your GI Bill Training with a "reasonable period" after your discharge. This reasonable period is determined individually, and depends upon a number of factors, such as availability of training, and the like.

Q. I'm a disabled Korean veteran and I'm planning to take training under Public Law 16. How long would I be allowed to train? Would the length of training depend on the amount of military service I've had?

A. You would be permitted to train for as long as is necessary to restore your ability to earn a living in spite of your handicap; that is, to become rehabilitated. The maximum, generally, is four years. Training time does not depend on your length of military service.

Improved again!

No. 1 in Texas

by a wider margin than ever

A few weeks after the Japanese surrender in World War II, the Humble Company introduced a vastly improved Esso Extra gasoline to Texas motorists.

At that time, the Company promised a policy of continuous improvement: Humble told motorists that Esso Extra would never take second place in quality.

That promise has been kept. Improvement of Esso Extra has been continuous. Statewide, Esso Extra has consistently led other Texas gasolines in quality. Statewide, Esso Extra has been No. 1 in quality every year.

And now, because Texas motorists driving modern automobiles have learned that Esso Extra gives them extra performance, Esso Extra is also No. 1 in sales.

The improvement in the quality of Esso Extra announced by this advertisement is substantial — it is a major improvement. It places Esso Extra far ahead of other gasolines in the qualities that are reflected by performance in your car.

Today, Esso Extra gasoline is No. 1 in Texas by a wider margin than ever before.

See for yourself — test Esso Extra in your own car

Esso Extra will give you the same results obtained by researchers when you test it in your car. Its quality is so superior that you will notice at once that Esso Extra gives you extra quick starting, extra anti-knock performance, extra power.

You'll discover that you enjoy your car more, that it runs better, that you're getting — at last — the performance you expect from a modern automobile. No other gasoline can duplicate Esso Extra's performance in your car, because no other gasoline matches Esso Extra's quality.

Fill up with improved Esso Extra gasoline at any Humble sign — it's the same extra performance gasoline at every Humble sign.

HUMBLE
Esso Extra
GASOLINE
HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.

Now the BEST gasoline in Texas is even BETTER!

Esso Extra gasoline, statewide, has consistently led all other Texas gasolines in quality; now, new improvements have widened the margin between Esso Extra and the rest: Humble Esso Extra has no equal throughout the state of Texas.

Tests prove Esso Extra's superior quality!

There are three qualities of a gasoline that are brought out in the performance of your car. In all these three qualities, Esso Extra leads.

Extensive and continuous laboratory testing of Esso Extra and other gasolines proves Esso Extra's superior qualities, and these laboratory tests have been confirmed by road testing in specially equipped automobiles.

Esso Extra leads in anti-knock performance: In today's automobile engines, with their high compression ratios, anti-knock performance is the most noticeable quality of a good gasoline. There is no substitute for this quality. Only a gasoline with a high octane rating — that is, high anti-knock performance — burns so evenly and completely that it transfers all the usable energy from the gasoline to the pistons. When your car's engine pings or knocks, you're losing power. Esso Extra has the highest anti-knock performance in Texas.

Esso Extra leads in power: High anti-knock performance assures more power. Since Esso Extra has the highest anti-knock performance in Texas, it gives you more power than any other Texas gasoline. This conclusion has been verified by special laboratory testing equipment which actually measures the power delivered by a gasoline burning in an automobile engine. Road tests by both Humble technicians and independent research facilities have confirmed the laboratory tests. Your car will develop extra power when you use Esso Extra.

Esso Extra leads in quick starting: In comparative tests with other gasolines, Esso Extra's quick starting characteristics were rated "Excellent," while those of other popular gasolines ranked from "poor" to merely "adequate." When you use Esso Extra your engine starts at almost the instant you press the starter button. But quick starting is more than a convenience. It saves gasoline, and it prevents gasoline dilution of the crankcase oil. If you use your car mostly for town driving, you will specially appreciate Esso Extra's quick starting qualities.

And for good measure, Esso Extra contains a patented solvent oil: This oil is not a lubricant. Its purpose is to dissolve the gummy substances that collect carbon on top of pistons and under valves, and thus help to prevent carbon deposits in the upper parts of the engine.

LOOKING AHEAD

GEORGE S. BENSON

YOU ARE A STOCKHOLDER

As citizen stockholders participating in the management as well as in the earned dividends of the great enterprise called the United States of America, we should frequently open the ledger and study the balance sheet. What are its liabilities? We need to understand clearly the nature of the assets so that we can nurture them and expand their benefits. And we should carefully examine the liabilities so that we can guard against the dangers, and in time eliminate them.

The greatest asset we have is the American way of life which gives us freedom to worship God as we choose, freedom to own our own home, freedom to work at the occupation of our choice and week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. West, and attended church services Sunday morning.

J. V. Pendergrass was a patient in the hospital at Brownfield for a few days last week, but was moved to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Moore, where he is improving.

Several of the women from here were in Lubbock, Monday, for a district meeting of the W.M.U. which met at the Baptist Church. A missionary was the speaker for the afternoon session.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sertz, of Crosbyton, spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barrett.

Rev. and Mrs. Harvey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Castleberry and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Castleberry, of Morton, were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Castleberry, Sunday of last week.

for whom we please, freedom to go into business and make a profit (or suffer a loss), freedom to associate together in common cause, freedom to make a contract, freedom to vote for the candidates who we think can best serve the welfare of our community, state and nation.

Costly Ignorance

The liabilities are not so clearly seen. The heaviest and most dangerous is lethargy; not illiteracy, but the lack of concern among our literate citizens, the lack of consciousness of the facts of today's economic and political life.

A great many of our people, in and out of school, are not consciously aware of the array of assets on our American balance sheet. They are not informed on the elements that go to make up the American way of life. Many citizens who are well informed on most things are nevertheless unaware that the American economic system has made possible a living standard three times as good as that of the major nations of Europe and five times better than the living standard in Russia's "Workers' Paradise." And many who are even aware of this advantage do not know why the private enterprise system is so productive; they do not know what makes it tick.

Deep Penetration

This lack of awareness renders millions of Americans vulnerable to the cunning propaganda of the Communists and Socialists who, by shrewd methods, seek to wear our people away from, and even turn them against the basic American principles, one by one. The Fifth Column in America hasn't been seriously injured. The US Senate's Internal Security Committee warns the nation that it hasn't even been thoroughly exposed.

Its prime objective, according to the best authorities, is to undermine our people's faith in the economic and political principles which have given our nation its strength, its productive might, its unmatched standard of living. To accomplish this, Communists have infiltrated government, religion, education, labor, literature, entertainment, and communications. This threat, cleverly disguised, is a greater danger, a greater liability even than Russia's might. Our eyes are open to military threat; they are only half open to the internal undermining.

Demands of Citizenship

The National Debt of $272,000,000,000 is a serious liability. So is the huge government bureaucracy that has grown up haphazardly and now takes a big share of the federal tax load which totals 25 per cent of the national income. The debt constitutes a mortgage of about $6,800 on the present worth and future earning power of every family in America. And the taxes, from 25 per cent on the lowest net income to 92 per cent on the highest, are taking from our private citizens the ability and incentive to invest in new or expanding enterprises. And if private citizens don't, the government will declare that it must—

Stricklinly Speaking

By OLD HE

Well, Folks, its getting on toward Christmas, and we were forcibly reminded of that fact this week, when we received a little missle addressed to "Santa Claus." But the letter itself was written in Egyptian or other graphics, and was "Greek" to us. But maybe old Santa can read it as he is a much wiser old owl than we.

Anyway, we hope the little man or woman who wrote the letter gets their heart's desire. And to tell the truth folks, Christmas isn't but some six weeks off, and we just hope we have a clean pair of socks to hang up.

The dailies gave us news article, Sunday, about the death of Mrs. Lillian Trixie Ross, wife of the late Tom Ross, who had a ranch along the line of New Mexico and Gaines County, Texas, in the early days. Mrs. Ross has made her home at Lovington since 1912 and was married at Gomez in 1904. That was the year Terry was made an official county.

We could go on and enlarge greatly about Tom Ross, but whatever we might say, many good people liked Tom, and his home was always open to the wayfaring man, stranger or friend. So, we shall have nothing to say here about the dead. Mr. and Mrs. Ross are both buried at Lovington.

That lucky scamp, County Judge Herbert Chesshir, got off with one of our Harvest Festival free Herald, when we aimed for them to go to the poor, lowly and rugged individuals. But guess we'll have to go along and give him a full year of the Herald.

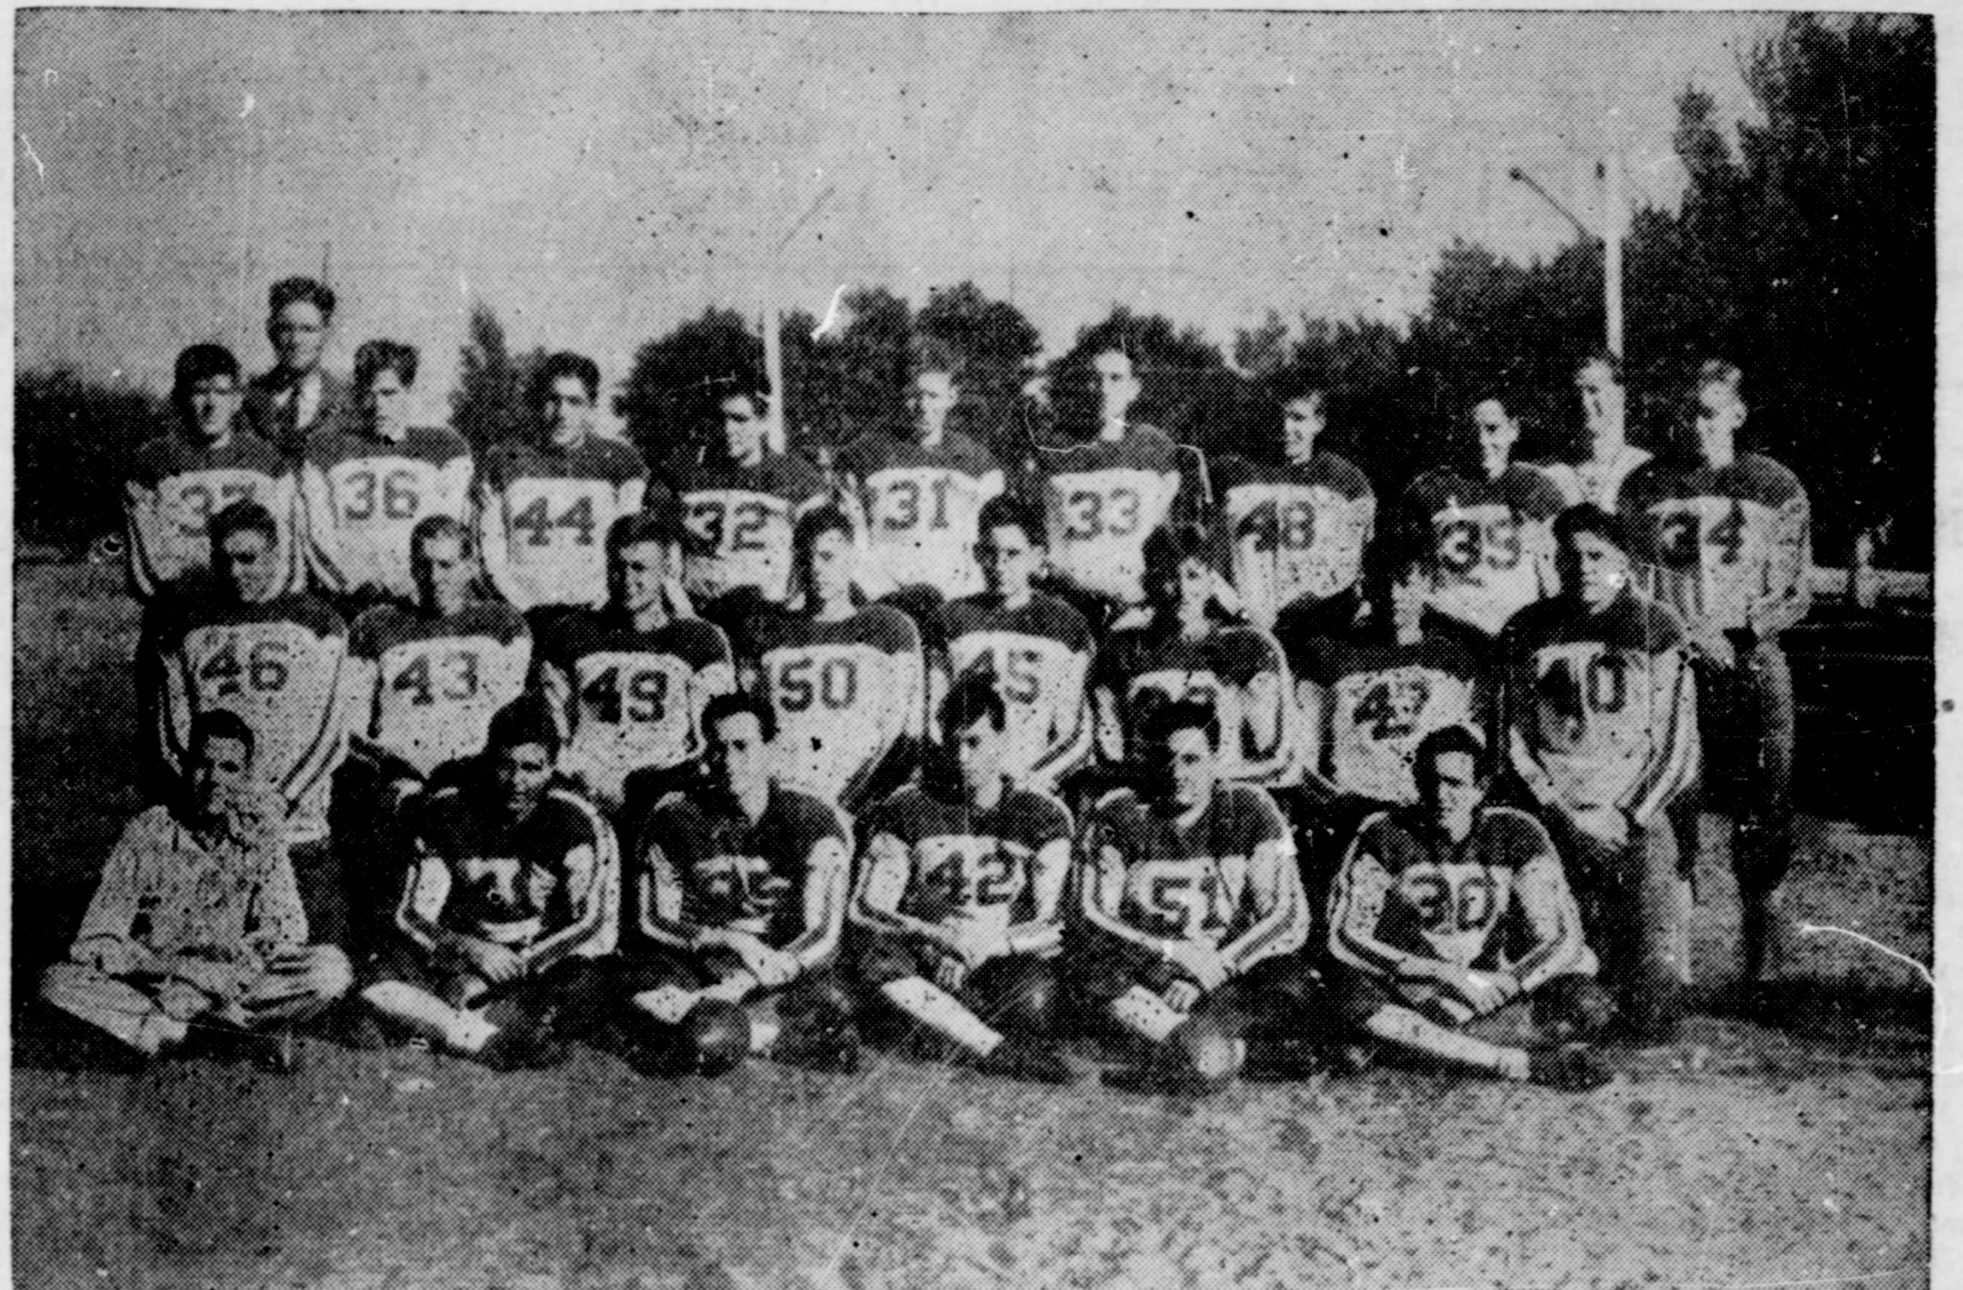

On second thought, it ain't going to be too far from January 1st, when we'll get to hit the old boy up for an announcement fee. Rah!

After all, the Brownfield kids were not too huxey on Halowe'en. Oh, of course there were a few windows soaped up down town, or some moveable object moved some, but no real destruction that we heard of.

Most people have learned to have some "treats" on hand to avoid "tricks." However, even if we had the treats, a lot of us have learned to move the waste barrel from the alley to near the rear and we'll have Socialism.

There are other liabilities but the foregoing are the most dangerous. How can we everyday citizens cope with them? By understanding the American way of life, and Communism and Socialism; by understanding Communist propaganda techniques; by becoming active in government; by striving constantly for spiritual growth so that faith in God is our anchorage and service to our fellow man our goal; and, finally, by dedicating a part of our everyday life to bringing these citizenship requirements to the attention of everybody we can reach.

door for the night.

Supposedly, we of this free nation all stand alike before the law but it seems that we have been fooled, and that the lawmakers can make exceptions. That all of us don't stand equal before the law. We learned recently for instance, that any "small business" may obtain a loan from the government with low interest rate, and long term payments—except . . . newspaper and radio stations. This was a bit hard to understand, until we read on. It was the idea of Congress, seemingly, that some lawmaker might help a newspaper or radio station obtain a loan, and in turn would demand that the newspaper or radio station would work for them. A bright idea, if you ask us. No newspaper or radio station worthy of the name, is going to sell their birthright for a mess of pottage.

It seems strange and unreasonable to us that some high church officials will keep mouthing about how the investigating committees of the Senate and House are treating the Commies. It is hard to realize these Kremlin soft-soapers, who are supposed to stand high intellectually and educationally, can't understand that these subversives are trying by might and main to destroy our country and its free institutions.

We wonder if they ever read or look at pictures showing GI prisoners that have been tortured, and some murdered and buried in common trenches? It could be possible these preachers took their "Q" from the ex-President, that had a lot of animals about him, some special pets.

Some mighty bad looking stuff is coming out of some of these commissions and departments, and before it is all over, we fear we will disco a lot of what is "rotten in Denmark."

The Chamber of Commerce is a good place to get information about the early days of Brownfield. At least one young student thought so, and wrote the C. of C. and the C. of C. gal, in turn had to hold a phone interview with the Old He about the matter, and we hope we helped some.

We don't know whether or not the lad who wrote the C. of C. for help about the early days of the town, lived here or not. Anyway, all of us should stand ready to help the youngsters in their educational endeavors.

Here we have been telling people, and perhaps have stated in this column on occasion, that we came near seeing the last legal hanging in Texas in 1910, in Clarendon, when a fellow by the name of Miller was hanged, publicly. Oh, we lacked a few hours seeing it, as we passed through Clarendon—or was it Memphis? He was tried at both places—about dark, and the hanging took place that afternoon. But we got to talk to a lot of the "excursionists" that were going on toward Vernon and Wichita Falls on the night train. Daggone it, force of habit almost made us write it "Whiskey Taw" instead of Wichita Falls.

In those good old days, one had to go to Lubbock on a "line car," take a train to Amarillo, change cars and take another train, the Fort Worth & Denver toward Dallas and Fort Worth, when you had business in those cities. There was no railroad completed from Lubbock to Sweetwater. Either that, or you could take a car for Big Spring, if you had one, and the T. & P. to Cowntown and Dallas.

But in Sunday Dallas News, we found we were some 13 years behind the times, that the last legal hanging was in Waco, when a man named Mitchell was hanged. He was a rapist and murderer, and several others caught heck, as circumstances pointed to them, two being negroes, one serving time, one mobbed and one committed suicide. All this before Mitchell was apprehended and the facts pinned on him, and being identified by one victim.

That was July 30, 1923, according to the writer, and absolutely the last before the hot chair was completed at Huntsville penitentiary to electrocute criminals. Anyway, the hanging was supposed to be private, and cotton bagging was hung around the scaffold, near the McLennan County jail. But there was a crowd of some 5,000 on hand, who tore down the bagging, and the hanging became public. A picture of the hanging scene was run in connection.

Personally, we have never had the least desire to see an execution, either by hanging, electrocution, much less by mobs.

Just a few ideas borrowed from columnists, who have nothing to do but sit and study up funny stuff: "How about a modern novel with a flat chested heroine?" "When an opinion is formed, it takes dynamite to change it."

"When the day is done, and the night falls softly, better lock your door and count your change."

MEADOW PVT. INJURED IN FOOTBALL GAME

Pvt. Dan L. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roberts, of Meadow, recently broke two ribs while playing touch football for the 81st Recon. Battalion, Fort Hood, Texas.

Roberts is a graduate of Meadow High School, where he played as a lineman on two Meadow Class B district championship teams.

Roberts' battalion was playing the 13th Tank Battalion when the private was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Flache and A. A. Sawyer had as their guests last week, Col. and Mrs. Harold Barber, of Trail, Ore. Col. Barber was Mr. Flache's commanding officer when he was in Germany for eight months.

The soft touch who is always lending money when he shouldn't be will never have much of it.

A bridal shower in honor of Miss Jean Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Craig, of Brownfield, bride-elect of John Lewis Laird, of Sonora, Texas, was given Friday, Nov. 6, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. A. A. Sawyer.

The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Sawyer, Miss Craig, her mother, and sister-in-laws, Mrs. M. J. Craig, Jr., and Mrs. Robert Lee Craig.

Mrs. W. B. Downing registered guests in a handmade book made by Mrs. Mildred Rambo. Lace and rhinestones covered the book along with pink and white satin streamers.

Hostesses included Mesdames D. D. Denison, J. O. Gillham, W. B. Downing, Tom May, Joe Johnson, Sawyer, and Miss Ann Lilly, all of Brownfield, and Elizabeth Jo Anthony of Midland. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Charles Bruce and Miss Eleanor Miller.

Gifts were shown in the bedroom by Miss Lilly and Miss Miller. Corsages of white mums were worn by persons in the receiving line and hostesses wore attractive corsages of small kitchen utensils sewed on dishrags, and the honoree's corsage was of blue and white mums.

Mrs. Charles Bruce poured hot spiced tea from a sterling tea service and pinwheel cookies, sandtarts, and nuts were served from a bone china set.

The bride's table, covered with a white organdy cloth and decorated with Irish linen, was decorated with a huge heart covered in pink satin ribbon, with wedding bells filled with clusters of lilies of the valley. White mums surrounded the base of the heart. An archway with bride and groom and pink tapers at the sides in silver candelabra, were placed on the buffet.

Student Councils Hold Day Session And Banquet Here

"Youth is the greatest resource and asset of this or any other community," a Denver school teacher told more than 300 South Plains high school students and adult leaders here Monday of last week.

Speaking at the annual convention of the South Plains Association of Student Councils, Dr. Geo. E. Mathes, director of student activities in Denver Schools and first vice president of the National Association of Student Councils, told the young people, "The prime job of the schools is to teach good citizenship . . . and through your student councils this can be accomplished."

During the afternoon program in the Brownfield High School auditorium, Dr. Mathes asked the group five questions which point up the overall work of the student councils. He said if the young people can answer "yes" to each of them, their particular council is fulfilling the purpose of "a good student council."

The items to be considered in evaluation of the groups, he said, are: Is your student council developing the democratic way of life? Does your group sponsor meaningful projects? Does your student council work with the entire student body and the entire faculty? Does your council understand its part in your overall school program? Is your student council going to be better because you came to this convention?

Dr. Mathes also spoke at the night banquet at the Jessie G. Randal School cafeteria which concluded the day's program. During this brief address he used the theme, "Where Do We Go From Here," and gave a summary of the convention.

In an afternoon business session at the high school, delegates of the 32 member schools represented, elected Muleshoe High School as president for the coming year. Brownfield High School was named vice president; Tulia High School chosen secretary-treasurer and host for the 1954 convention; and Odessa High School was selected parliamentarian.

Schools holding office this year were Levelland High School, president; Crosbyton High School, vice president; Brownfield High School, secretary-treasurer; and Lamesa High School, parliamentarian.

Presiding at the meetings was Derry Don Harding, Levelland. The afternoon invocation was given by Shearline Erwin, Crosbyton, and the welcome was given by Billy Thomason, president of the Brownfield Student Council, and Omer R. Douglas, superintendent of the Brownfield Schools.

Mrs. F. M. Burkhalter, Amarillo, a member of the executive committee of the Texas Association of Student Councils, briefly discussed several phases of the State program for the group.

Students from Amarillo and Eunice, N. M., were special guests.

University Lands To Be Leased In Andrews

We note that some 80 tracts of land belonging to the University of Texas, in Andrews County, are to be auctioned by the board of lease trustees, at Austin, Dec. 11. A lot of this land is in the production area of that section. Present leases, supposedly expiring, run up to $323.00 per acre, per year.

Another major oil transaction that has recently taken place, was the purchase of the Reno Oil Co., by the Tennessee Production Co., of Houston. The Reno Co. was in process of liquidation, and while their major holdings, including some 5,000 producing wells were mostly in Texas, it was stated that they had holdings in some five other states.

Since the decrease in large foreign imports of oil, reports are current that the large stocks have declined considerably. Even 287,000,000 barrels of oil in stock is a whale of a lot of oil.

Economic Problems Of Older People

College Station.—While the total population of the United States has doubled since 1900, the number of persons 65 years old and over has quadrupled so that today older people make up eight per cent of the total population.

Home Management Specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says recent reports from legislative committees indicates the long-run declines in the morality rates and in the birth rates, as well as in immigration, have been important causes of the increasing proportion of older people in the population.

Out of every 10 persons 65 and over, four are under 70 and seven are under 75. The larger majority of older people are urban residents, but 14 per cent of them live on rural farms. More than half of the older people are women.

Sixty-nine percent of these older persons live in their own households, 25 percent live in households not their own, and only six percent live in institutions, rooming houses or hotels. Forty-four percent are married and living with their own spouse in their own household.

As to the income and assets of the 13 million older persons, 31 percent were earners or wives of earners; 38 percent received payments under social insurance and related programs such as Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, railroad retirement, veterans' compensation and pension program; and 20 percent received Old-Age Assistance, according to recent estimates by the Social Security Administration. About eight percent of them received income from more than one of these sources.

LIQUOR INSPECTORS GET 5 ILLICIT STILL

The Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors in September reported the seizure of five illicit stills.

With the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 320 gallons. Inspectors captured 380 gallons of mash and made one arrest. Two gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

One still was taken in each of the counties of Harrison, Titus, Grayson, Limestone, and Freestone.

CATTLE PRICES MAY DIP LOWER

College Station.—Texas livestock producers face the coming winter with a forecast that cattle prices will remain low compared with a year ago during the next few months and may dip even lower.

Despite this outlook, says John G. McHaney, assistant extension economist, reduced cattle inventories should stabilize the market during the next few years.

Prices at Texas cattle markets dropped 56 percent between April 1951, and July 1953. At mid-year producers were receiving 82 percent of parity compared with 152 percent in April, 1951, the all time high. Cattle prices are today more in line with other agricultural products than they were several months ago, McHaney says.

Favorable grain and roughage supplies caused the nation's producers to add about 4 million head to inventories during 1950. The following year price ceilings served as a stimulus for cattlemen to hold on to their beef animals and 5.5 million more animals were on farms by the end of 1951. That year cattle slaughter hit its lowest ebb in 10 years. Calf slaughter dropped to the lowest point in 18 years.

Record cattle numbers followed by the unprecedented drought has been responsible for increased marketings and, thus lower prices paid to producers.

The weather holds a direct bearing on the price outlook in the future, McHaney says. With the exception of seasonal fluctuations, the market should level off and prices should become more stabilized unless drought conditions and other weather factors necessitate speeded marketing, he points out.

If the demand for beef weakens, cattle prices will further decline. Also, concludes McHaney, any downward trend in pork and lamb prices in the years ahead will lower cattle prices.

BETWEEN CLASSES AND 'ROUND TOWN

with Jane Griggs

Well, school is sort of back to normal again, with homecoming over. Every solitary person is perfectly satisfied with the festivities of Homecoming. The football game score was just right and the Homecoming dance was a wonderful success.

Last weekend wasn't quite so pleasant for some people, though, Ben McCarty, of Meadow, for instance, got hurt pretty seriously in the Meadow-Plains game Friday night. It was some sort of head injury and they took him to Dallas that night.

Ray Stockton probably didn't think it was such a good weekend either, because he sprained his foot out at the skating rink and has been hobbling around on crutches this week. Somebody else is Herbie Singletary — she sprained her hand when they were out at the VFW Hall decorating for the big shindig after the game. Another is Gerald Casey, who sprained his foot over the weekend, also.

Tuesday morning we had home-room meetings to collect money for the War Child, Rene Neveau. Every month, the Student Council takes up a collection to make up the $22.50 which we send to the little French boy. Right now, Mrs. J. D. Miller is in desperate need of someone who can translate French so that she can have the letters read that he has written us. So, if you can halfway translate a little French, please contact her.

Some of the Saturday daters were Virlene Sharp and Dickie Green, Herbie Singletary and Joe Foshee, Dixie Brinson and Howard McQueen, Alta Merritt and Charles Turpen, Sandy Castevens and Don Adress, and Johnora Haynes and Jimmy Walker.

Congratulations to the new Junior High School Council officers. Don Burda will be the "Rod" Gown in Junior High this year. His secretary is Dianna Adams and the assistant "Rod" will be Lonnie Bartley. They had their elections for home room representatives and officers last Friday.

If you're riding down the street nowadays and hear some weird sounds coming out onto the pavement, it's just some poor kid practicing for All State Band Tryouts to be held Dec. 11. I'll tell you who's trying out later when they have all made up their minds.

The Training Union Directors out at the Calvary Baptist Church are giving a banquet for their young people and their dates next Thursday. The menu sounds real "yummy" with turkey and pumpkin pie being the best sounding part. With Thanksgiving coming up, there are a lot of banquets and special parties coming up.

On November 24, one of these special banquets is going to be held in the basement of the First Baptist Church. The room is going to be decorated with an old spinning wheel and old-time pictures to make it look like an Old Plantation. Tickets went on sale this week at 50c and you can get one of them from one of the B-H-U members.

Some of the Sunday daters were

Joy Martin and Sammy Key; Donna Cristopher and Jimmy Nowell; Peggy Graves and Roland Moore; Shelby Thompson and Burl Warren, of Seagraves; Clea Harbin and Clem Stewart, of Seagraves; Ann Griggs and Bob Smith of Seagraves; and Joyce Simmons and Billy Derrington (by the way, she's wearing a sparkler on her left hand now).

Virginia Daugherty and Travis Tyler are going steady now. Richard Ridgeway and his roommate wens home from Tech last Friday. Jo Ann and Gene Ridgeway were here for Homecoming. Also home were Jackie Crump, Mackay Hord, Freda Anthony, Jacky Stockton, Ray Latham, Jerry Bailey, and Parilee Nelson.

That's about all for now. Bye.

Nancy Wier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wier, of Brownfield, was among the eighteen pledges initiated Thursday night of last week by members of Sigma Tau Delta, national English honorary society, in ceremonies in the Student Union Building, Tech campus.

The entertainment consisted of game and literary charades. Qualifications for initiation are: junior standing and upper grade level for majors and minors in English.

STILL GOING STRONG

The people of the area seem to appreciate our cutting the price of the Herald on account of the drought to—

$1.50 per year

Until further notice we shall continue the rate in our TRADE AREA ONLY. You'll have to hurry. We appreciate those who have responded with their renewals as well as the many new readers we have obtained.

As soon as conditions change, we aim to go back to the old rate of $3.00 per year in the trade area, as we really lose money at $1.50 per year.

CHAPPELLE SPEAKS TO AG. WORKERS

Agriculture workers from three counties met for their regular breakfast, Tuesday morning, Nov. 10, in the Jessie G. Randal cafeteria. The FFA chapters of the counties sponsored this monthly meeting.

R. L. Chappelle, who is head of the agriculture education department of Texas Tech, spoke to the 30 agriculture workers on the problems confronting the farmers. Mr. Chappelle stated, that we must start adjusting ourselves to enjoy prosperity, and to take recession and depression in our stride, because since the beginning of our economic system, we have had "ups and downs." Chappelle stated that the first appropriation to the USDA was one thousand dollars, and now it is over two billion dollars. He said, there has been a great revolution in agriculture, and we can never go backward if we adjust ourselves to the economic trends. In 1850, 85 percent of the population were farmers, and in 1953, only 15 percent were farmers. This was result of a tremendous increase of population from 19 million in 1800, to 160 million.

There is still 80 percent of the population in other counties engaged in farming, but due to our modern methods we are able to produce more to take care of our increase in population. It will take 1 1/2 million tons more food this year, it will take 3 million more next year, and keep pyramiding until we will have to do a much better job of producing food than we are now.

We have three times as many tractors now, as we did in 1940, and there are thousands of ways that we are improving farm methods to feed our steady increase of population.

Mr. Shappelle, who summed up his talk by emphasizing that the outlook for farmers is not bad, and that they must adjust themselves to present conditions, because we have always had inflation and depressions and we have always lived through them to see better times.

Elementary School At Plains Dedicated

More than 400 patrons of Plains schools attended the formal dedication program of the new $250,000 elementary school building on Thursday night.

Dr. John S. Carroll, head of the Educational Department of Texas Tech, gave the principal address of the evening, speaking on "The Modern Way in Texas Education." In his talk, Dr. Carroll pointed out ways in which the State's schools reach the objectives of education.

E. H. Boulter, member of the State Board of Education, introduced the speaker.

Following the program in the high school auditorium, the visitors were given a tour of the facilities of the elementary building, which is in the same area. All of the teachers were in their home rooms and explained to the guests the new equipment available for the students.

The building has eight classrooms, an activity room and offices, all of modern design.

During the dedication program, members of the board of trustees, Supt. G. D. Kennedy, and Elementary Principal Roger Harvey were introduced. Special guests for the occasion were the architects for the building, James Atcheson and Atmar Atkinson, Lubbock, and the contractor, Williams B. Warner, San Angelo.

COLLINGSWORTH CO. GIRL QUEEN OF FB

We were wondering Wednesday P. M., who was elected State Queen of the Farm Bureau, at Mineral Wells. Two of those present were prominent members of the local Farm Bureau. However, all of us decided that she was not the Lubbock girl, or we would have seen plenty about it.

Later we ran across the information in Wednesday's Dallas News. The State Queen is Miss Fayette Peeples, a high school senior at Quail, a small town in Collingsworth County, up in the Panhandle. She is 17 years old.

She will receive $500 as expenses for she and an escort to the National Convention in Chicago, later this year. As we understand it, there will be a contest for National Queen decided at the Chicago convention.

Fayette is not hard to look at, if we know our okra.

Ninth Grade Cubs football boys and their coaches will spend the weekend in Ruidoso.

Brownfield Baptist Brotherhood Meets With Wellman Church

Wellman (Special).—The Brownfield Baptist Brotherhood met with the Wellman Baptist Church for their quarterly meeting Tuesday night, Nov. 10. A barbecue supper was served by the host church at 6:30. Following the supper the president, Dub Fulforth, of Tahoka, presided and made introduction of the visitors present and recognized the new pastor of New Home, Rev. Robert Clemens. He then turned the program over to the program chairman.

A Quartet from Wellman gave a number entitled "Something Wonderful Happens to You." The quartet members were Rev. Alvin F. Hamm, A. J. Felts, Ted Lanham and Rev. Vance Zinn, substituting for Jim Jackson, who was absent. The program chairman, Durwood Howard, introduced the speaker, Elmer East, president of the American State Bank of Lubbock, who brought an interesting message on "Stewardship." Rev. Lee Ramsour, of Tahoka, closed the meeting in prayer. There were 78 men present representing Lakeview, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Brownfield, New Home, Lubbock, Forrester, Meadow and Wellman.

NEWSPAPER AND MAGAZINE REVIEW

Bob Tobey handed us a very interesting old paper recently, being the Deming (N. M.) Graphic, dated Oct. 8, this year. Bob, you possibly know, is soon to become a citizen of that western New Mexico city, and is to take charge of the radio station. For the past few years, Bob has had charge of the Retail Merchants Association here, and we regret exceedingly to lose this good man and family.

Copied from Files of 1910

But what was interesting about the old paper, was a description of the visit President William McKinley made to Deming in 1901, 52 years ago. Of course they were all there in the wagons, buggies, and horseback—no cars. And they were joined by large delegations from the capitol, Santa Fe, as well as Albuquerque and Socorro. They even brought the Territorial Band, all of 18 pieces.

And the El Paso News of April that year announced that oil had been found in the Deming area, and oil people thought the finding would be superior to the Texas fields. Well, perhaps they were superior to the known fields of that date, around Corsicana, but not as of today. Even New Mexico's main oil fields are in this vicinity, in Lea and other adjoining counties.

The magazine we speak of was the Southern Observer, which is mostly of a literary nature, stressing mostly southern books and authors. And we'll have to admit that we are not aware that the South had turned out so many top writers, many getting the Nobel Prize on their books.

But one of the most interesting things to us was the population figures for several of the old South states, with the people from other states enumerated, as well as the natives. We had known that Southern people don't migrate to each of the other's states, like we do here in the Southwest. But North Carolina seemed to be an exception, perhaps because of its vast manufacturing establishments.

Other than the native population of 3,530,075, in round numbers, thousands we found, 148,000 from South Carolina, Virginia, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, and New York from 8,500 to 72,000. Even 3,160 Texans lived in N. C. And New Mexico showed up with 440.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF TERRY PIONEER ENTERS CONTEST

We note that Miss Laura L. Bailey of Lubbock, has entered the contest for Maid of Cotton. Miss Bailey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey of Lubbock, and her mother is the daughter of the man the city of Brownfield is named for, A. M. (Dick) Brownfield. Mrs. Bailey was therefore reared in this city.

For many years Laura's dad was employed by the mechanical department of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, as linotyper. And during the late twenties he was employed by the Herald for several years, and met his wife while he was working for the Herald.

Both Laura L's grandfather and great grandfather were pioneer ranchmen of Terry County.

Mrs. Odis Lewis, of Plains, was shopping in Brownfield, Saturday.

Cab Owner Robbed Of $100; Suspects Nabbed San Antonio

Three armed Latin Americans were taken into custody Saturday afternoon and two of them have been returned to Brownfield by San Antonio officers, after two of the trio had held up a local taxicab owner and one was reported having robbed three cab drivers in San Antonio.

A state-wide alarm was put out for the men, who robbed J. V. Boen, owner of the City Cab Co., of approximately $100 early Thursday night of last week.

Boen told officers, that he picked up the two men in downtown Brownfield about 7:15 p.m. and after driving 6 miles northwest of town, he said that one of the suspects pulled a .32 calibre automatic on him and demanded his money.

After turning the money over to the bandits, Boen said he was ordered from the cab. Boen was not injured and was returned to Brownfield by Carl Ming.

Officers learned that the bandits were picked up by a third man in a late model pickup truck, after they walked to the Levelland highway and the three headed for San Antonio.

One of the Latin-Americans remains in San Antonio for questioning, regarding the robberies there, and the other two men are in county jail here awaiting action of the next session of the grand jury, according to Sheriff Chic Lee.

Pickup Theft Suspect Held At Levelland

A '51 Ford pickup, owned by the County, was stolen Tuesday, about 2 a.m., from in front of Carl Watson's house in Wellman. The pickup, usually driven by Commissioner Bob Burnett, was reported stolen to the sheriff's office at 9 a.m., Tuesday, and the truck was found at 10:30 the same morning, abandoned south of Levelland city limits.

A suspect was arrested in Levelland for questioning concerning the truck, and a stolen Pontiac that was wrecked in Wellman, midnight Monday. The man denies knowledge of either incident. Highway Patrolman Amos Eggen was in charge of investigations at Wellman, according to the local sheriff's office.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Parks are planning to attend the VFW district convention in Slaton, Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. Berwyn C. Mattison, health officer: "To overcome insomnia, listen to soft music and a funny story before retiring."

Russia, with the H-bomb and a swiftly expanding striking force, constitutes a very grave and constant threat to our survival. There is no doubt about that. But the threat isn't something new. At least two years ago we knew that Communists who had been permitted to infiltrate our super-secret government projects had sent to Russia all the necessary data to build the H-bomb, and it was publicly acknowledged that the Reds could build it.

Yet in recent weeks confirmation of this fact has brought on talk among some governmental leaders of vast new borrowings, of big out-of-balance spending, of postponed tax reductions so that the "new danger" may be met. In all Washington pronouncements I've read there has not been one suggestion that the sprawling spending mechanism of the federal government be drawn tightly together and substantial cuts in all functions except those essential to a sound economy.

Facing An Emergency

If we have such a dire emergency then let's face it. Families along the Florida Gulf coasts were told recently that Hurricane "Hannah," roaring up from the Caribbean probably would strike them with destructive force. What did they do? They took emergency measures. They had years of living in a world in which the hurricane "season" is a clearly seen reality.

Through the years they had made their homes and businesses as hurricane-proof as possible—with special construction, with removable battens, and with storm cellars. As "Hannah" was charted closer and closer to the coast, families gave up all the enjoyments and most of the "necessities" of life. Parents gathered the children in the safest haven. Johnny's home work, Susan's tooth-ache that needed a dentist, and father's "big deal" at the office—all were subordinated to the problem of survival. They would be properly attended to—but not until the dire threat from the hurricane had subsided.

Strength Impressive

The threat of Russian Communism with the H-bomb may not subside for a long time. Gen. Alfred Gunther, supreme commander of NATO, who has spent three years in Europe close to the seat of Russia's power, said just last week that the Soviets would not strike so long as we maintained our strength. This seems to be a common sense conclusion based on both the military facts and an understanding of the Communists thinking.

Russia's dictators are realists. They remember vividly what happened to Hitler when he miscalculated the strength of the America which turned the tide against him. They do not wish the same fate. They will abide their time, seeking to undermine our strength. Dr. Marek Korowicz, the Polish UN delegate, who deserted the Reds a few weeks ago in New York and now is being given sanctuary here, said the Soviet master strategy is to avoid war at present, and use every undercover means available to undermine the economic, political and cultural foundations of the free world.

The Facts

History shows that the surest way to injure a nation from within is to force it into bad financial practices. Our real strength, in peace or war, rests upon financial stability. We cannot maintain financial stability if we engage in great new spendings for H-bomb defense on top of the already tremendous spendings, the taxes for which are sapping our vigor for wholesome industrial growth. Lenin, Russia's first Red leader, said: "We shall force the United States to spend herself into bankruptcy."

Certainly we need to build defenses. But in view of the lessons of history and Russia's known plan for undermining our strength, shouldn't we give careful consideration to safeguarding our shaky financial condition. Heavy emergency pruning throughout the federal government would release adequate money for H-bomb defense. It would mean throwing overboard a lot of "pet" projects backed by special group interests. But it is the sound and safe way to preserve our strength and stall Russia's master plan.

The Boston Tea Party was planned in the back room of the Boston Gazette.

THE WELLMAN NEWS

By REV. ALVIN F. HAMM, Reporter

Junior Class To Wash Cars
The Junior Class is washing and polishing cars Saturday, Nov. 14, at the Agriculture Work Shop. There will be a charge of $1.00 for washing and $2.00 for polishing. This is one of the money raising projects this year for the Junior Class. We are hoping that many of the people in Wellman community will take advantage of this offer and have their cars cleaned up after the fine rains that we have just recently received. This is a worthy project and our school superintendent and principal have no objection to the Junior Class raising money this way.

HOMECOMING BIG SUCCESS
The Wellman Homecoming for ex-students of Wellman Schools was a great success and the program, under the direction of Mrs. Alvin Hamm, was real good. Many of the old time members of the school were present. The first superintendent of the school, Judge A. M. Simms, gave some interesting highlights of the first year of school here with only 12 students attending. This first school was held in 1920 and the first building was built in 1920. Terry County Judge Herbert Chesshir brought an interesting message on "Foresight." Several other highlights of the program, using present students of this year, was enjoyed by all the former members of the school.

Lunch was served at the cafeteria to 75 guests. At the afternoon tea, officers for another year were elected, and they are: Mrs. Dorothy Christopher, president; Lowell Weaver, of Pecos, vice president; and Mrs. Bob (Winnie) Burnett, secretary. Those attending from out of town were Mrs. Edna (Neurme) Crestman, Wofforth; Fince Chrestman, Wofforth; Hesta Fae Beavers, Lubbock; Helen Ilene Rogers, Brownfield; Joyce Lynn Bryant, Canyon; Zana Lee Christopher, Brownfield; Louise Ballard, Seagraves; Mrs. Frank and Rev. Frank Storey, Sundown; Don Rogers, Welch; Ray Ballard, Seagraves; Mrs. J. R. Tate, Brownfield; R. L. Fleming, Seagraves; Walta Livesay, Brownfield; Mr. and Mrs. James Willis, Brownfield; Anna Fay Abbott, Hobbs, N. M.; O. D. Edwards, Brownfield; Myrtle Mae Edwards, Lubbock; Myrethia

Edwards Wood (Harley, Jr.) Lubbock; C. A. Wilhite and wife, Seagraves; Winnifred Watts, Brownfield; Mrs. Montez Rogers, Tahoka; and those attending that live in the Wellman community who are ex-students, were Carl Cape, Mrs. Jessie Hill, Mrs. Monte Hamm, Mrs. Colleen Hulse, Robert Berryhill, Johnny McKenzie, Jack Hamm, Jimmie Berryhill, Mont Hamm, Lester Dunnean, Elmo Adair, Ronnie Graham, Robert Hamm, Mozelle Hamm, Don Rogers, Mrs. Winnie Burnett, Pattie Thomas, Conrad Cape, Raymond Adcock, Sam Adair, Willie Maye Oliver, Dot Oliver, J. W. Hawkins, Nita Beth Golden, Jimmie Welsher, Ernest Berryhill, and many others whose names were not obtained.

Local Happenings
Rev. and Mrs. Billy Wadley and girls, of Lipan, who is pastor of the Live Oak Baptist Church, visited the Rev. Baldwins last Friday and Saturday.

H. L. Holleman went to Brownwood last week to take his father, W. H. Holleman, back home. The elder Mr. Holleman has been visiting his son for some two weeks here in Wellman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lyon attended the funeral of Edmond Williams, who was burned to death in the oil field explosions and fire a few days ago. Services were held at the Loop Baptist Church last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Warren, Sr., have returned from a two week's vacation in different parts of Texas with friends and relatives, and have again resumed operation of their store. Their children, of Brownfield, had been running the grocery and station in their absence.

We Take A Fresh Look At Rural Terry

Sunday afternoon was a lovely P. M., and we just couldn't resist the impulse of a sashay out in the rural precincts. First off, the last we "seed" of Phillip Rogers, part of his family were recovering from a bowel disorder, and that his wife, Faybelle, had come down with it. But they were not at home. So we drove on to the Pool-Johnson P.M. road, and on to Johnson, and decided to call on the wife's kin folks, Carl Ming and family. Weren't at home, either.

So, we decided to see some of the fertile land between Johnson and a straight line east, 'till we come to the north-south road that leads to the home of a niece, Mrs. Anna Belle Lay.

Carl and Bob were over at the irrigation well Bob is having drilled on his place, and his wife, Irene remarked that he would be right there until the well is finished, which was expected by Tuesday this week.

After a big chin fest, we journeyed on home. Turned in the Memorial Cemetery, and will say they are getting it in prime order. Also the old cemetery is being brought out of the kinks in a hurry. That Mary Ballard is a worker.

Found the territory we covered in fine shape, considering what it has endured this year. What isn't sowed in wheat and looking good, has been rebudded since the rains, to hold it as much as possible during the blow come next Spring. Some of the land looked as if it had been planted to wheat or some cover crop since the big rains.

Going back to the McKinley irrigation well, Bob stated that as far as they had gone, at that time, the ground was still wet. They had some 6 or 8 inches of rain out there. And a good bottom season.

J. W. Hogue returned Wednesday of last week to his home at 309 West Lake, from a Lubbock hospital. He is reported doing nicely. Mrs. Hogue, who had been ill at their daughter's, Mrs. J. A. Benton, is also reported as doing fine.

COFFEE TIME

with Mary Winston

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Browder were in Midland over the weekend visiting with their son, Norwood and wife and new granddaughter, Rebecca Ann, who was born Thursday of last week, and is the first girl born in the Browder family in 24 years.

The Browners returned Sunday night. Among Tech exes attending the Tech homecoming festivities last weekend at Lubbock were Messrs. and Mmes. Grady Elder, Edgar Self, Tommy Hicks, Don Cade, Robert Knight, Coke Toliver, Jake Geron, C. W. Denison, Bill Cope, and Toby Greer, and Mrs. Harley Starnes, Mrs. Glenna Steveson, Miss Margaret Goza and Jack L. Browder.

Former residents of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Hester, of Carlsbad, N. M., both of whom are reaching the century mark, visited last week with their daughter, Mrs. Mack Thomason and husband, 620 East Main.

The Hesters left Brownfield in 1917 after a 1-year stay, because doctors told Mr. Hester that he didn't have long to live. (He is now 93 and his wife 95).

They are still very active, and in February will celebrate their 70th year of marriage. The couple returned home by way of Lovington, where they visited their son, C. D. Hester, and grandson.

Madrigal Singers Be Here Nov. 24 Under Cen-Tex Sponsorship

The Cen-Tex Music Club, of Brownfield, is sponsoring the Texas Tech Music Department in a concert to be presented Nov. 24, in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m.

The program will consist of numbers by the Madrigal Singers, both in the Madrigal songs and in contemporary numbers, by Robert A. Elson, baritone, Herbert Colvin, pianist, and by two barbershop quartettes, female and male. Music for all tastes and ages is to be given.

The Madrigal Singers have become very popular in the past several years at Tech. They are much in demand for local and area concerts and last year went on tour for a series of concerts. They wear costumes that cost $2,000 and that are authentic of the Elizabethan period from which most of the songs are taken. They do most of their music a cappella, and give excellent performances.

Mr. Elson is director of the group this year. Besides their repertoire of classics, they will give a portion of their program to contemporary and popular numbers and will appear in evening dress for these numbers.

The Madrigal Singers are Marjorie Hendrick, Baird; Joyce Miller, Friona; Majori Scales, Lubbock; Alice Ann Yates, Plainview; Bill Cormack, Amarillo; Clarence Whiteside, Lubbock; John Taylor, Dallas; Tim Magness, Friona; and Ned Hardin, accompanist, Lubbock. Besides their appearances in Lubbock and surrounding communities, they recently appeared on TV and radio at the State Fair at Dallas.

Giving solo performances for the concert will be two instructors from Tech, Messrs. Elson and Colvin. Mr. Colvin has received publicity from his many concerts and appearances that he has made since coming to Lubbock. He has two degrees, BA and BM, from Baylor University, a master of music degree from University of Colorado, and studied at Juilliard School of Music, New York City. He has been conductor of the South Plains Music Teachers' Association 24-piano ensemble the past three years and again this year.

MON IS UP AND ABOUT

Mon and Kate Telford have been home now some three weeks, but we saw him for the first time out of a hospital bed at the postoffice one day this week. Both are getting along fine.

Readers will remember the Telfords had a very serious wreck in western New Mexico some three months ago, while returning from California, where they visited their son and family. Mon was driving, and suddenly fell asleep—and you can imagine the rest.

DREAMS OF GOING ABROAD COME TRUE FOR ROY WINGERD FAMILY

By Mrs. Roy Wingerd

Tourists See Original Painting of "Lord's Last Supper" and Note Natives Are Different in Industrial Centers

From Lake Como, we traveled by special bus down to Milan, or Milano, as the Italians say it. This is the great industrial city of Italy, and its citizens are very proud of their many rich industries. They will tell you happily that "In Naples they sing; in Rome they pray, but in Milan, they work. Certainly the people in the streets are bustling importantly about, in decided contrast to some of the provinces farther south.

The most important sight for us, here, was the famous painting of the great picture "The Last Supper" painted by Leonardo Da Vinci on the walls of what was once the refectory of a monastery; and is now a chapel. In between, it served for many years, as a stable, and it seems one of God's greatest miracles, that the masterpiece has survived the centuries. During the bombings of the late war, the wall of the building on which the great Biblical scene appears, was protected by sandbags. This precaution paid off, as the chapel was hit by several bombs; but again, God's hand seemed to have protected the painting. Perhaps, He could not bear to permit this greatest of all portraits of His son, as he walked here on earth, to perish from the earth.

At the opposite end of the chapel there is another portrait in fresco, but so great is the effect of the Last Supper upon the beholder, that no one even remembers the subject of the other painting.

It is as though the eyes of the Saviour follow one, no matter in what part of the building, one may be standing. Familiar as I had been with this great picture from early childhood, I still found it extremely moving to see it in reality.

Later in the day, we took the train for Venice and one of the most enjoyable, and certainly the most different parts of our stay abroad.

Here, is a city, just off the mainland, built upon the water, where the streets are all canals, and only one block of solid land is in evidence. This is the beautiful Plaza, the center of the city, around which are situated such magnificent public buildings as St. Mark's Cathedral, The Campanile, or bell tower, the Doge's Palace, and the graceful and exquisite Government buildings.

Once, in the centuries just before the discovery of America, Venice was a rich and powerful city state, ruling the Adriatic, of which she was the undisputed Queen, and in constant warfare with the neighboring cities of Florence and Genoa. Now, she gracefully sleeps away, the centuries, dreaming of her past glories; but resigned to a pleasant old age.

Her heritage is Mediterranean, and nothing shows this more clearly than her graceful palaces and public buildings, which front on the many winding canals. These are Moorish in architecture and feeling; and the colors are whites, pinks and yellows of a tropical climate.

Her main street is the Grand Canal, a magnificent waterway, which winds through the city from the fabulous bathing beach, The Lido, to the Grand Station. Up and down this Grand Canal ply many water taxis, and hundreds of Gondolas, for boat travel is the accepted manner of getting around in this tidal city.

The Gondola is typical of Venice, and they are a much larger boat than I had pictured. They will average about thirty feet in length and they are always black. The gondolier will manage this long and treacherously narrow barque with a grace that is effortless and amazing; and can only be acquired through years of practice. He, too, will be dressed in black; unless he happens to be a private boatman for some wealthy Venetian house, in which case, he will wear the colors, and livery of his employers.

One of our most enjoyable occasions, was a boat ride along the canals of the city, accompanied by other gondolas carrying street musicians, and two young opera students from La Scala at Milan. These young singers delighted our ears with their Italian folk songs, while the musicians regaled us with music of their guitars and mandolins.

We ended at one of the delightful street cafes, where we treated the musicians to a draught of the medium good beer of the country, and had our health drunk, and our welfare toasted in a language we could not understand. The good

JAN. DRAFT CALL FOR 23,000 MEN

The Defense Department Friday issued a January draft call for 23,000 men.

The action apparently delayed at least until February action on an Army proposal to level off monthly draft quotas at about 37,000 men a month.

All the men drafted in January will go into the Army. The call will raise to 1,607,430 the number of men taken by Selective Service since the start of the Korean War. The Army had proposed increasing monthly draft quotas to 37,000, starting in January, to smooth out peaks and valleys which occur under the present system. Proponents said the plan would save the government money by stabilizing training programs.

Assistant Defense Secretary John A. Hannah, manpower chief for the Armed Services, told a reporter the department has not rejected the Army plan. He said he wants more time to consider what effect higher quotas would have on Army strength in fiscal 1955, which starts next July 1.

The administration has not decided on the strength of the Army in fiscal 1955.

The department said the Army's request for 23,000 men in January was based on "maintaining approved strength after allowances have been made for enlistments."

The quota is the same as monthly calls since last July.

All but 81,430 of the men drafted since the start of the Korean War went into the Army. They were inducted into the Marine Corps.

Until the Defense Department puts the Army's higher draft plan into effect, calls are scheduled to remain at the 23,000 level until next July when they would jump to 45,000 a month.

Many Animal Heads Show Rabies Evidence

Austin. — Positive evidence of rabies infection was discovered in 115 animal heads autopsied by the State Health Department laboratories in Austin during the past month, the department announced. By species, positive heads included 104 dogs, 4 cats, 2 cows and 2 calves.

Heads from 27 counties made up last month's tabulation. Harris County was high with 73 submissions. Other counties were Austin, Brazoria, Caldwell, Collin, Comal, Fort Bend, Guadalupe, Harrison, Houston, Leon, Liberty, Matagorda, Red River, Rusk, Tarrant, Washington, and Wood, with one submission each.

Brazos, Cameron, Maverick and Webb counties submitted 2 heads each, and Bexar and Jefferson turned in 3 apiece. Waller County submitted 4, while Dallas had 6.

The tabulation was made in a regular monthly rabies report, a departmental public service which shows rabies incidence throughout the State. It lists the species involved and gives the date and county of occurrence.

Meanwhile, State laboratory officials are still surveying insect-eating bats for rabies infection. A total of 105 of the flying mammals have been checked so far with negative results in each instance. The study began two months ago after the department became suspicious that bats heretofore believed to be entirely beneficial, might be harboring the deadly rabies virus.

SUPPLEMENTAL FEEDS FOR WINTER MONTHS

College Station.—As winter approaches and with range grasses in short supply in many areas, supplemental feeding continues of prime importance with livestock producers.

One of the best ways producers can beat the cost-price squeeze is to continue feeding oil meal products as a source of supplemental protein, says Uel D. Thompson, extension animal husbandman. Oil meal products are the most economical and dependable supply, he says.

Latest Texas research indicates steamed bone meal and common salt are still the best supplementary minerals. Leafy legume hay furnishes an abundance of vitamin A. And, roughages, if not available from field crops, must be supplied from straw stacks and baled hay.

Beef producers need a knowledge of livestock feeding, Thompson says. Producers are unaware that many feed dollars are wasted by overfeeding. It's like driving a car with the carburetor set too

THE "LOW DOWN" FROM HICKORY GROVE

That land of grand scenery—Colorado—with its Pike's Peak, clear and clean air, can boast of more than just being nicknamed the "Switzerland of America." Colorado has a US senator who knows that a straight line is the shortest distance between two points—who knows that detouring around, hunting another obscure route, is donating your time and delaying your trip.

This Colorado senator says, "We can balance the budget by not spending so much money." In the domiciles of this Nation you will be most likely to find contentment and happiness in the ones that "cut their frock to match their cloth." Our Gov't. has been weaned from such honest thinking and doing. I hand the palm to this Colorado senator—Senator Millikin—and the folks who elected him.

On every hand—and with one eye shut—we see fumididdle Gov't. spending. We pry and fuss around into the world's eating habits and find Ireland eats the heftiest. We pay the expenses, our paper says, of lecturers from every Tom, Dick and Harry country who choose to come and eat as they spread across the land their fool theories of Gov't. We pour US dinero—tax exempt—into projects and giant power machinery from Virginia to California. Like the gent walking in the soft and fresh snow—he slipped back 2 steps for every step forward. That's us. This man from Colorful Colorado has put his finger smack on our sore spot—too much fool spending.

JR. CUB TEAMS STILL SHOWING GOOD DESPITE LOSS PERFECT RECORD

JIM ELLIOTT, COACH

Brownfield Freshmen Look Good In Beating Arch Rivals, 28-7, Thursday

Nov. 5.—The Brownfield Freshmen looked good as they beat their arch rivals, 28-7. The Cubs were very determined from the start.

Plainview received and Jenkins' kick skipped and hopped down to the 5. The return was to the 10. Plainview cannot make a first and kicked out on their own 45. Odom hit the middle for 8 and Meeks picks up a first. Moore picks up 9 on a quarterback sneak. Odom hits for 7, Meeks for 8. Odom hits for the TD. Meeks runs the extra point over—7-0.

Plainview returns the kick to their own 20 again they cannot move and are forced to kick to the 50. The Cubs drive to the 25 in 3 plays. They hit the line two more times for a first. Plainview is penalized to the 1 for defensive holding. Moore carries over on a quarterback sneak. Meeks carries for the extra point. Plainview returns the kick to their own 10. They try the line for no gain. The quarter ends at 14-0, and Plainview has not made a first down.

The Bulldogs cannot make a first so they punt. The punt is fumbled and Plainview recovers on the Cub 30. They make a first down but their second try fails. The Cubs take over on their own 20. They drive to the 40 before they are forced to kick. Plainview taking over on their own 45. Muldrow covers a fumble on the 50. Arlon Odom hits off tackle for a TD. He also carries for the extra point. Plainview returns the punt to their 30 and advances the ball to the 50 before the half time whistle sounds.

Early in the second half Meeks breaks through for a 60-yard TD, but is called back for a clipping penalty. However, the Cubs hit the line for 5 tries and drive Odom over for the TD. A pass from Moore to Campbell is good for the extra point, 28-0.

The kick is returned by Plainview for a TD. However, there was a clipping penalty which brought the ball back to the Cubs 35. Plainview drives to the 4 with a 1st and goal. The fighting Cubs hold and take over on their own 1/2-yard line. The Cubs cannot get the ball away from their own goal in the final period, and Plainview made the TD. Just as the clock runs out the try for extra point is good. Score, 28-7.

We would like to give special praise to Leon Willis, who has been playing guard. However, Willis did a fine job at fullback on offense and an outstanding job at defensive end. Other outstanding players were Odom, Meeks and Moore, in the back field; Chambliss, Jenkins, Hyman, and Inscore, in the line. Buddie Campbell did an excellent job blocking from his end position. Our center, Ken Muldrow, played a fine game both defensively and offensively.

7th Grade Spoils Perfect Record With 12-6 Loss To Plainview Bulldogs Thurs.

Nov. 5.—The Brownfield Seventh Grade spoiled their perfect record with a 12-6 loss to the Plainview Bulldogs, Thursday. The little Cubs played a great game but were outweighted and lacked speed.

The Cubs received and the ball bounced down to the goal line but was finally carried to the five by Patrick. Then the Cubs drove from their own 5 to the Plainview 12 before losing the ball on downs. The Plainview team hit the line twice for no gain, then skirted their own left end for 82 yards and a TD. The try for extra point failed—6-0. The kick again went to the 10. The Cubs drove the ball to the 25 before the quarter ended.

The Cubs are forced to punt. The Bulldogs take the ball on the Cubs' 40. They skirt the end for 30 yards and then plunge it over for a TD. Extra point fails—12-0. A short kick is covered by Buddy Little. The ball is advanced to the Plainview 25 but was lost on downs. The Cubs hold and Plainview is forced to kick. The ball goes out on the 50. Patrick hits off tackle for 45 yards. Five and goal—the Cubs plunge it over in 2 plays with Patrick carrying. The try for extra point fails—12-6.

The Plainview team advanced the kick to the 50 before the half ends with the score 12-6.

The Cubs kick and make the tackle on the Plainview 25. In 3 plays Plainview is forced back to their own 12. They kick out to the 40. Brownfield tries the end but fumbles and Plainview recovers. In 3 plays Plainview is forced back to their own 20. They kick to the Cub 40 where the Cubs draw a 15-yard penalty (personal foul) putting the ball on the Cub 25. The Cubs advance the ball to the Plainview 15 before the quarter ends at 12-6.

The Cubs advance to the Plainview 4 before they fumble and SEVENTH GRADE CUBS FOOTBALL TEAM, a portion of which is pictured above, has won 6 games this season and lost one, the latter being to Plainview, 12 to 6. Scores for games won were: Cubs 21, Lamesa 0; Cubs 34, Lamesa 0; Cubs 28, Wellman 0; Cubs 14, Wellman 0; Cubs 33, Post 0. Pictured above, left to right, back row, Leon Hinson, Gay Henson, Forrest Kuykendall, Lydole Scott, Charles Rea, Robert Burk; front row, Jimmy Jones, James Mitchell, George Merritt, Eli Garcia, Clinton Taylor.

Plainview recovers. Plainview hits the line twice for no gain, then skirts the end for 50 yards. However, the next 3 plays they are forced back 20 yards. They kick to the 30. The Cubs drive the ball to the Plainview 22 before the game ends at 12 to 6.

Seventh Grade "B" Squad Scores 14-0 Victory Over Wellman's 7th and 8th

Oct. 29.—The Brownfield 7th Grade "B" Squad found stubborn resistance when they tried to move the ball. The Wellman kick was taken on the 20 and returned to the Brownfield 25. Eli Garcia carried 8 yards around his own right end, then made a first around his left end. The next series of plays failed to net a first. Wellman cannot move and again the little Cubs move for 2 more first downs before they are forced to kick. Wellman has the ball on their own 30. Quarter ends, 0-0.

Wellman is forced to kick. The Cubs drive down to the 3 and Spears carries over for the TD. Merritt catches a pass from Kuykendall in the end zone for the extra point, 7-0. Wellman brings kick back to their own 30. They cannot move through the line so they throw a long pass which is intercepted by Goldston. The Cubs move to the 12 before the half.

In the second half, Wellman threatened the Brownfield goal only once. The Cubs scored and made the extra point bringing the score to 14-0. This win brought the seventh grade to 6 wins with a total of 154 points to 0. Outstanding players were Forrest Kuykendahl, Eli Garcia, Carroll Goldston, Jerry Browning and George Merritt.

8th Grade Suffers First Loss of Season at Hands of Lovelland Loboes Tuesday

Nov. 3.—The Lovelland kick to the 25 is brought back to the 30 after one first down. The Cubs punt and Lovelland receives the ball on their own 30. Both Brownfield ends got their hands on the ball carrier, however, he slipped loose and caught the remainder of the Cub team asleep and raced to the Brownfield 10 and was finally stopped by punter Loyd Merritt. The Loboes cannot make the 10 yards for the score and the Cubs take over on their own 1-yard line.

MEADOW BRONCOS KNOCK PLAINS COWBOYS OFF UNDEFEATED RECORD

Meadow scored from all over the field Friday night of last week to knock the Plains Cowboys out of the undefeated ranks by a whopping 59 to 20 score.

The one-sided victory established the undefeated Broncos as the undefeated favorites to take the District 4-B flag race. Until last Friday night, each team had won seven games without a loss, four apiece in the conference race. The victory sends Meadow against two other foes with an almost clear shot at the title.

Friday night, the Broncos got the ball twice in the first quarter, took a single play to score each time and widened their margin in every quarter thereafter, before coasting during the final minutes of the game.

Plains almost made a ball game of it in the first period when the Cowboys kept a sustained drive alive to their own 32, finally sending Left Half Eual Strickland over from two yards out to knot the score at 7 to 7. Sammy Russell ran the extra point.

The Cubs move the ball out to their own 30-yard line before they are forced to kick. Lovelland brings the ball back to the Cub 40 yard line, running the Cub left end for 8 yards and then passing for 30 yards and a TD. They make the extra point—7-0. The Cubs bring the ball back to their 40 and drive to the Lobo 40 before the quarter ends at 7-0.

Meadow's first tally came after Plains had fumbled the opening kickoff, giving the Broncos possession on the Cowboy 32. On the first play, Quarterback J. W. Eubanks passed to End Joe Longley for the score and End Larry Lockett kicked the extra point.

After the Plains score that followed, Meadow took the kickoff on their 42 and Half Manuel Garcia went off tackle on the next play to the end zone. The try for extra point was no good.

The Cubs move the ball to the Lobo 30 before losing the ball on a fumble. The Lobos are forced to punt; the Cubs taking the ball on their own 40 and moving it to the Lobo 45 before they are forced to kick. The Lobos are thrown for a loss three plays in a row, leaving them on the 3-yard line and 40 yards. The poor punt was returned by the Cubs to the Lobo 20. However, the play was called back and a 5-yard penalty against the Cubs brought 4th and 25. Again the kick and Lockett another to make the halftime score-board read 33 to 7.

In the second half, Fulford ran 32 yards for one tally, and intercepted a pass minutes later that allowed Eubanks again to pass to Longley for 29 yards and put the score at 45 to 7. Then, in the final period, Fulford ran 70 yards to the double stripe after Plains had again lost the ball on a fumble. Lockett kicked the extra point.

The Broncos added three more scores in the second period, one on a 22-yard run by Garcia, another on a 32-yard run by Fullback Dalf Fulford, after a recovered Plains fumble, and the third on a 32-yard pass from Eubanks to Lockett following a blocked Plains punt. Fulford rane one extra point and Lockett another to make the halftime score-board read 33 to 7.

In the second half, Fulford ran 32 yards for one tally, and intercepted a pass minutes later that allowed Eubanks again to pass to Longley for 29 yards and put the score at 45 to 7. Then, in the final period, Fulford ran 70 yards to the double stripe after Plains had again lost the ball on a fumble. Lockett kicked the extra point.

The second half proved to be a defensive battle with the statistics much in favor of Brownfield. The Lobos were in Brownfield territory only once in the entire second half and the entire 4th quarter was played within the Brownfield 20 and 40 yard lines.

Outstanding players were Cox, Bullard, Merritt, and Cooper.

Longley passed to Dub Warren for 30 yards to end the Bronco scoring moments later. Ben McCarty kicked the extra point and Meadow led 59 to 7.

Plains got back into the scoring column twice in the final moments of the game. Left End Don Ham crossed into the end zone once and the Cowboys tried an onside kick that worked, recovering the ball. Strickland went the final 20 yards to the goal line. Ham made good a try for extra point following his own touchdown and the game ended at 59 to 20.

Meadow has now won five games in conference play and has two to go before officially sewing up the district title.

The "stamp of newness"—and another new Santa Fe freight car is ready to roll

21 miles of new freight cars added by Santa Fe last year!

Remember when you used to count freight cars as a kid? How would you like to count and stencil the "stamp of newness" on 21 miles of them? That's what Santa Fe did last year—added 21 miles of new cars to its great fleet of modern freight cars. And so it goes—year after year after year—until today there are 84,898 freight cars serving shippers on the Santa Fe.

With this building new program, Santa Fe is meeting the ever-growing need for moving vast tons of wheat, livestock, perishable foods, minerals and merchandise to the markets of America.

And many of these cars are new and special types to serve shippers in new and better ways—like the "MTC 3150" mechanical refrigerator car that works like your home freezer.

It costs Santa Fe millions of dollars—earned dollars—to acquire this great fleet and maintain its own "steel highway."

But it doesn't add a penny to the taxes you pay.

He suffered a heart attack about 12:30 a. m. and was rushed to the Trendaway-Daniell Hospital in a Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance. Death occurred at 1:10 a. m.

T. J. Finley, of Dimmitt, former minister here, officiated at services held in Crescent Hill Church of Christ. Elder Joe Chisholm, of Brownfield, assisted. Burial was in Terry County Memorial Cemetery.

Sorority Discussed Local And State Projects At Session

Discussion of local projects was the principal topic of discussion when members of Beta Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority met at 7:30 p. m. in Nick's Cafe for a regular business session. Miss Margaret Goza, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Local projects of the organization include purchasing of crutches to be used for county welfare, and buying such materials as globes, maps and record players for Jessie G. Randal School.

As part of their state project, the club mailed a check for $50 to the Southwestern Poliomylitis Respiratory Center in Houston.

First notes in the sorority Baby Contest will be posted on Monday at the Gore Fashion Shoppe. Other race standings will be totaled on Thursday, Nov. 19, and Saturday, Nov. 21. On the final day of the race, Tuesday, Nov. 24, standings will be posted several times during the day and voting will continue up until approximately 7:30 p. m.

Coronation of the King and Queen of Babyland will take place at the Rialto Theatre between shows. Both the King and Queen will be crowned, receive a trophy and be presented with a $25 U. S. Savings Bond. Also, each child entered in the contest will receive a small gift as a token of appreciation from Epsilon Sigma Alpha.

Members attending the regular meeting were Alma Cade, Lillian Cameron, Anita Cooper, Trucene George, Grances Gillham, Margaret Goza, Bernadine Grabber, Sue Jones, Pat Steen, Winnie Doss and Marguerette Chanslor.

LOCAL MAN LOSES FATHER AT LUBBOCK

Many of the old timers will regret the passing this week of Sim O'Neal, of Lubbock, father of George O'Neal, of this city, our wholesale Humble Oil Co. dealer. Mr. O'Neal was 66 years of age, and died suddenly of a heart attack. He is survived by his wife and another son and daughter.

Sim came to Lubbock the same year the writer landed in Brownfield, 1909, and therefore has been a citizen of that city 44 years. The article about him in the Lubbock papers stated that he was a traveling salesman for a dry goods company.

The first time we met him was about 1910 or 1911, and at that time he was the manager of the old John P. Lewis Dry Goods Co., then situated on the southwest corner of the square. One reason we liked Sim so well, was that he would hand out some fat ads to be run in the Herald.

But whether you ever did business with Sim O'Neal or not, he was a man you could learn to like. His passing saddens us.

them. So, the Korean mess came on and it just fitted Joe's purpose; he could officially stay out and let us do the fighting in this "police action" that cost us the lives of many of our brave sons, and the crippling and horrible imprisonment and murder of many more.

But back to Armistice Day, 1918. The news of the surrender and armistice broke that morning, so a few of us guys that liked to put on a show, got our noggins together. But where in heck would we get explosives. Some one remembered that H. H. Longbrake had stored a lot of dynamite in a warehouse that was used in blasting for cuts in the Santa Fe right-of-way. This dynamite was secured, and the fun began after dark.

Those old "hoss racks" were still around the west side of the Courthouse park, so four or five sticks would be tied to wires where the horses usually were hitched, and the charge set off by the late A. M. McBurnett, who was an expert handler of explosives. Of course the horses had been moved, or some old cowboy would have had to walk back to the ranch that night. As a consequence of these explosions, all the glass in the front of the old stores on the west side, all wooden except the State Bank at that time, was knocked out. None of it was plate, just ordinary window glass.

We remember that some of the merchants, particularly Dock Powell, of the Mercantile, that stood where the Factory Outlet now stands, tried to persuade us boys to stop blasting, as his windows were all out. But most of us had sampled a few draughts of Hill & Hill, and were in no position to listen to reason. Others brought their old shotguns down town, and would line up and fire volleys. Not a few had six pistols, and Sheriff Jim Lewis agreed to not notice the arms that night.

About 11 p. m., we decided to go home, living at that time over in the northwest part of town. Found the lady with a splitting headache, and she asked if those explosions were to go on all night. Being out on the ground, we had noticed no concussions. But about that time, a charge went off up on the square that quivered our house like a feather.

Outside of the windows, there was no apparent damage, and we had celebrated the fact that "our boys" had "made the world safe for democracy." Some never returned alive, one of the Howard boys, Wm. Guyton, for whom the Legion post is named, as well as two of the Allen boys, Terrell and Phillip, from the old Meadow section, for whom the Lubbock post was named. The Allen brothers worked for the old L7 Ranch, owned by Ellwood & A. nett at that time.

Eight Delegates And Wives From County Attend Farm Meet

Eight Terry County Farm Bureau members and their wives were among the 1,500 delegates attending the Texas Farm Bureau Federation's 20th annual state convention in Mineral Wells, Nov. 8 through 11. A resolutions committee met Wednesday of last week to sort out resolutions from county groups.

The convention proper was held Nov. 9-11, with registration starting Nov. 8.

Among problems considered by members were state water problems, rural roads, the sales tax and the refund of gasoline taxes on fuel used in tractors.

Also discussed was price supports on cattle, acreage controls, and whether price supports on crops should be flexible or rigid. From Brownfield were Messrs. and Mmes. Hub King, E. V. Riley, Leonard Lang, Eulice Farrar, Grady Davis, Tom Cornett, Alton Loe, and Tom Meadow, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton White.

McKelvey, of Electra, senior vice commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Texas, will be the principal speaker at the fall meeting of District 7 in Slaton on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 14 and 15. He went in as an aviation cadet and won his wings and commission as a pilot. After serving in the Pacific during World War II he was separated from service as a captain in the Air Force.

Returning to Electra, he entered law practice with the late C. P. Engelking under the firm name of Engelking & McKelvey. He married Dorothy Parr of Electra and they have two daughters.

GROUND OBSERVER CORPS NEEDS MANY MORE VOLUNTEERS

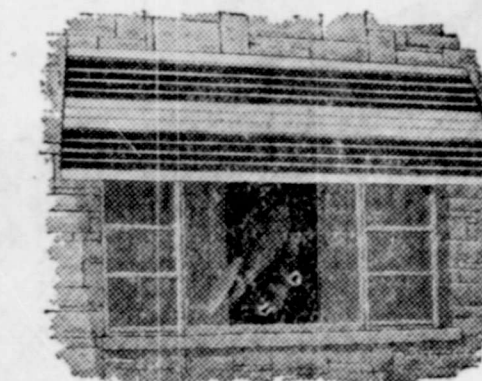

Austin.—The Army, aware of the danger of an attack upon the United States by long-range bombers, strongly supports the Air Force in asking citizens to enroll in the Ground Observer Corps and to become members of the Air Defense team, according to Fourth Army headquarters.

Many thousands of volunteers are still needed to back up the Armed Forces in defending the United States' skies. The Ground Observer Corps has been on a 24-hour a day basis for over a year but its strength has not yet reached the minimum required figure to enable it to accomplish its mission effectively, it was pointed out.

Federal civilian employees at continental installations, the Army said, comprise a large group whose participation in the Ground Observer Corps on a voluntary basis is greatly desired.

The Army has requested its installation commanders to take action through such means as may be appropriate, to stress to civilian employees the importance of the Ground Observer Corps program and to state the cooperative policy of the Department of the Army toward this defense effort.

than 5 per cent. The factor for Terry County was 30 per cent.

"Prior to December 15 the local PMA office will announce the proposed factor in each county. Generally, the announced factors will be lower for 1954, but the figures cannot be accurately predicted. Many variations can be expected as a result of cotton-planting histories for the key five-year period.

"In my opinion, the announced national cotton acreage allotment is too low, and I believe that the chances are about fifty-fifty that Congress, when it reconvenes, will raise the national allotment to about 22 million acres. However, the farmer cannot be sure of future developments. The House of Representatives passed a bill in June raising the national allotment to 22 1/2 million acres, but a controversy on the matter arose in the Senate and final action was not taken.

"Secretary Benson has announced that controls may be established on corn production next year. If this develops, a control program on combine milo could be announced. Yet, as of this date, there is no regulation which would limit milo and sorghum plantings in 1954. For example, a producer in a county with a 30 per cent cotton factor could plant 30 per cent of his land in cotton and 70 per cent of his land in milo. The secretary has already announced a support program on milo for next year at 85 per cent of parity.

"The wheat control program is already in operation. However, it has now been specifically announced by the PMA in Washington that non-wheat farmer without an allotment can, without penalty, plant, harvest, and sell the wheat production from 15 acres of wheat or less. He would not be eligible for a loan on the wheat, but this would not throw the producer out of compliance on other farm programs."

Following are cropland factors for cotton acreage allotments in adjoining counties:

Bailey, 3135; Cachran, 4431; Dawson, 5803; Gaines, 2000; Garza, 4664; Hockley, 4516; Howard, 4817; Lamb, 4122; Lubbock, 4899; Lynn, 4772; Terry, 3040; Yoakum, 1200.

The US is considered ready for an atomic conflict.
