

TEAM CAPTAINS FIGHT IT OUT—The fight is on between Lions team captains, Vern Townes and Cliff Jones, who are competing to sell the most tickets for the talent review scheduled February 19, at the high school auditorium. The Club, divided into two teams, started selling tickets last week. The losing team, the one that sells fewer tickets, will eat beans at a luncheon following the show, and winners will eat steak. Twenty entries to compete in the show have been received and more persons indicated interest in entering. Pictured above, on the floor, is Townes, who stated that this was only a publicity shot and that his team would win. Jones, who has the upper hand in the picture, said he was sure this picture was a forecast of the outcome. (Staff Pho.)

CLEANING PLANT IS GUTTED BY FIRE ON FRIDAY

The Loudermilk Cleaning Plant out on the Lubbock highway, had a serious fire last Friday, which not only ruined the machinery, but burned all the clothing then in the plant. F. A. "Preacher" Loudermilk, owner, stated that solvent from a filter became ignited, causing the fire.

Mr. Loudermilk came here from Brownwood about a year ago, and despite an unprecedented drought, had built up a good trade. He has moved into an adjoining building, as the one he was in will have to be redone on the inside, as well as have new plate glass put in and some exterior painting.

The other tailoring establishments of the city have been very nice to Mr. Loudermilk, taking in his work while he is rebuilding his plant.

Mr. Loudermilk was profuse in his praise of his competitors in coming to his rescue in time of need. He added that he would be back in business as soon as possible.

CENSUS TAKERS GET INSTRUCTION—Wellman, and Meadow census takers met this week with County Superintendent E. E. Brownlee, regarding their work, for additional instruction. County enumerators include J. B. Curtis and Bill Conlee, from Brownfield Schools; T. W. George and B. H. Baldwin, from Wellman school; Mrs. H. B. Settle, Mrs. Perry McCallister, and Mrs. Curtis Hulse, Meadow School; and Supt. M. G. Gary, Union School. Pictured above, left to right, in the County Superintendent's office, are T. W. George, Mrs. McCallister, E. E. Brownlee, Mrs. Settle, and B. H. Baldwin. (Staff Photo.)

Hutson Appointed General Chairman Red Cross Drive

B. F. Hutson, manager of the Pioneer Natural Gas Company, has accepted general chairmanship of the Red Cross Fund Drive, which will begin March 1 and continue through the month. Hutson met with Fred Brodt, of Big Spring, special representative from the Red Cross, Saturday, to map plans for the drive.

A kick-off breakfast will be held the latter part of February and team captains for the drive will be appointed soon, according to Hutson.

The year's goal is $3,280 for the county, almost $1,000 below last year's $4,100, which was not reached; lacking approximately $1,000.

Hutson replaces Dip Pemberton, who resigned due to frequent out of town business trips, and who will work with the drive. Others include Clyde Bond, Jr., assistant chairman, and Wade Yandell, the county chairman.

Mrs. J. A. Guest, of Plainview, spent the week in Brownfield, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grady Dickson.

Farm-Labor Meet Holds First Session

Terry farmers and prospective farm workers met in the office of the Terry County Farm Bureau from 9 to 12 a.m., Monday, making the first in a series of farm-labor meetings held under sponsorship of the Texas Employment Commission in cooperation with the local Farm Bureau.

The meeting, conducted by Aubrey Jones, local TEC manager, was devised for the purpose of enabling farmers to interview more than one person for a job. Mexican Nationals are not involved in the consideration. Dayton Carroll, manager of the Lamesa TEC, assisted Jones.

Of the 75 persons who attended, eight were farmers, and the remainder, job applicants. Jones explained that only a limited number of farmers attended the meeting because they do not need labor at the present time.

February 1 is the date set for the next meeting here.

POLIO PATIENTS STILL IN NEED OF 'DIMES' AID

A new and tragic record was set when 1954 started with the largest number of polio patients ever reported who still required March of Dimes aid in paying treatment costs. On Jan. 1, some 66,000 polio victims stricken in 1953 or previous years were receiving such help from March of Dimes funds. This is the longest list of carry-over patients in history.

Continued high polio incidence rates year after year have resulted in each year starting with a greater number of "old" cases than the year before. At the beginning of 1953, there were 60,000 cases from earlier years, while 1952 started with a patient load of 45,000 "old" cases.

Long-term 'lung' Patients

Some of these are longtime iron lung patients; others still require regular physical therapy while some need orthopedic surgery to restore use of their crippled limbs. A survey made in March of last year revealed that 98 per cent of long-term respirator patients had polio before January of 1953.

No polio patient who can benefit from further treatment ever is refused aid regardless of when the disease struck. Four patients who received March of Dimes assistance in 1953 had had polio back in the 1890's. Also, 17 per cent had had the initial onset of the disease at least five years before.

TERRY GETS ONE WELL, ONE NEW LOCATION

The second week of 1954 was not too good to Terry, but we'll settle for what we can get when we can get it. Our only new well last week was the Honolulu Oil Corp. No. 12-31 Alexander, on section 18, block K. This well in the Prentice was carried to a total depth of 5,885 feet and when finished and put on pump, it produced 207 barrels of 30 gravity oil daily, no water.

In their part of the prentice pool, Yoakum County got a well, the Honolulu 3-C J. C. Meeks, section 25, block K. Finished at a total depth of 6,750 feet, the well pumped 210 barrels of oil daily, 29 gravity, no water.

Terry only got one new location, and we believe we explained that last week, an offset of the Terrentine well, south of Tokio, on the Thompson holdings. On the other hand, old Yoakum really got a bunch of new locations, three in the Watson, three in the Brabant, and one wildcatter, or rather an old well, re-entered to deepen, six miles north of Tokio.

When there was that well, the Texas Pacific C&O Co. we reported as pumping 4 barrels of oil and 12 of water. It seems the driller boys jiggering with that dagdugged well till they got it up to 72 barrels of oil daily, and for all we know they are still messing around with it. No water was mentioned in the last report.

Anyway, water is a mighty good thing to have around as well as oil, but nearly all the water struck at around 6 to 12 thousand feet in this country, is either salt or sulphur—phokey!

22,702 Bales Cotton Have Been Ginned

Up to this week, according to County Agent Jim Foy, a total of 22,702 bales of cotton had been ginned from the 1953 crop. Let us state here and now that this is far above any estimates of the ginings back before the ginning season started. Mr. Foy stated there would be some other cotton ginned yet.

his county, like Lynn and others of the southern part of the South Plains, where dry farming mostly is practiced, have been ginning some cotton from the big irrigation counties north of us. But we are unable to give exact figures on this.

However, Mr. Foy stated that the next and final report would come from the Cotton Cladding Office at Lubbock.

A REAL OLD PIONEER PASSES AWAY SUNDAY

MRS. T. J. PRICE

Early Sunday morning, at about 7:15, the spirit of a grand lady and an old pioneer of Terry County, took its flight from this earthly body of clay, to be later judged by the All Wise of deeds done in the flesh—and her good deeds were many, viewed from the writer's point of view. The good lady in question, Grandma T. J. Price, was ripe in years, being 85, and would have been 86 if she had lived until the 28th of February. Grandma Price lived at 801 East Felt Street, and since her recent illness, her eldest son, W. W. Price and wife had moved in to (Continued on Back Page)

CofC DIRECTORS NOMINATED—TO ELECT PREXY

The nominating committee of the Chamber of Commerce has completed list of names to be submitted to the members for the election of the 1954 Board of Directors.

Those nominated are Joe Christian, Western Farm & Ranch; Dennis Lilly, First National Bank; J. E. Smith, Smith Machinery; G. C. Griffith, Griffith Variety; Marion Bowers, Bowers Butane; J. T. ## Western Auto Store Is Doubling Space

The Music Mart, having recently discontinued their business next door to Charlie Price's Western Auto Store, Mr. Price leased the building and the partition walls are being torn out this week, when both stores will be occupied by Mr. Price with his business.

The store has been so badly crowded in the 25-foot building on the corner, that it was hard to display the stock. But this doubling the capacity of the floor space will alleviate this in a great measure, and allow well arranged floor and window displays.

Mr. Price has recently returned from Fort Worth, where a school of sale instruction, display, etc., held and he got a great kick and a lot of good thoughts and suggestions. Despite drought conditions the past two years, Mr. Price is very enthusiastic about the future of our fine little city.

His aim is to push all lines of his business, as well as some of the special lines, such as the Nechi Sewing Machine, and others. And he is thinking seriously of a new slogan—"your credit is good."

Rev. Paul Farrell, minister of the First Christian Church, returned last week from Fort Worth where he attended the annual Ministers' Week, held at the Texas Christian University campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Steele, 110 Seagraves Road, had as their guest last week end, Mrs. Steele's father, Charles W. Gale, of Denver, Colo.

Farm and Home Lease New Building

Finding their 25x100 foot building too small for good display purposes, Farm & Home Appliance has leased or rented the large building at the corner of Tate and Fifth, formerly occupied by West Texas Motors. The building belongs to Joe Chisholm.

Much work has been done on the interior as well as the exterior, to make the new place attractive, and all new furniture and appliances have been moved to the new location, and a really attractive store has been made of the place. Daryl Walker, manager of both the stores, is in charge of the new place, while Less Short will be in charge of the place on the south side of the Square.

The south side store will handle both new and used furniture and appliances. The new store will handle new merchandise exclusively. We congratulate these progressive young men in their effort to better serve the people of the community.

Lectureship Program At S'ide Church of Christ a Big Success

The five-night lectureship program at the Southside Church of Christ closes tonight with W. T. Hamilton, of Lamesa, speaking on "Building Through the Unity of the Body." The theme of the program has been "Building a Strong Church."

Through the week, the public has been fortunate in hearing some of the best Gospel Preachers in this area, discussing the different phases of the work.

Monday night, Alfred Waller, of Denver City, was the speaker. Tuesday night it was Stanley Lockheart, of Levelland; Wednesday night, Joe Chisholm, of Crescent Hill (Brownfield); and Thursday night, Jack W. King, of Littlefield.

We feel that much good has been accomplished during these few nights. The lessons will not be soon forgotten by those that are truly interested in Building a Strong New Testament Church.

You may hear Joe Chisholm each Tuesday and Thursday afternoons over the local station from 1:15 to 1:30. On Wednesday, you are invited to hear a fifteen-minute discussion on the New Testament Church, over the same station, at the same time. Bill Andrews, minister of the Southside Church of Christ, is in charge of this discussion.

BOY SCOUT WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED, FEB. 6-13

Tentative plans are being made this week for the observance here of the annual Boy Scout week, starting Feb. 6.

John Hupp's Troop 47 will hold an open house, Feb. 6, at the First Christian Church troop room and parents and the public are invited to attend. Featured at the meeting will be exhibits and handicrafts by the scouts and guests will be served coffee cooked over an open fire outside the building.

Boy Scout Sunday will be observed in Brownfield Churches, Feb. 7, and Feb. 8 will be Uniform Day. Complete coverage of scheduled activities will appear next week.

A banquet is slated, Feb. 12, for Cecil Hill's Troop No. 74 and Lewis Simmond's Cub Scout Troop No. 74, to be held at the Legion Hall. A covered dish supper will be served to parents and scouts attending.

Recharter Meet Held

The Boy Scout Troop Committee held the annual re-charter meeting last Wednesday at the First Christian Church. Each year the troops renew their charters with the South Plains Conference, when boys active in the troops are registered.

Attending the meeting were J. O. Burnett, institutional representative; Dr. David Cowgill, troop committee chairman; troop committeemen, Joe Shelton, John Venable, W. Coor, Joe Christian, and Hupp; and J. C. Powell, scouting commissioner of the South Plains Council.

The American Creed

We believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many states; a perfect union, one and inseparable established upon these principles of freedom—equality, justice and humanity, for which American patriots have sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

—Terry County Herald.

We get a little paper published twice monthly, called Boles Home News, and put out by Boles Orphan Home at Quinlan, down in Hunt County, Texas. In each issue is a supposed interview with a youngster called "This Is Tony Talking." In the last issue, little Tony stated that most of the hospital beds were empty, and remained that way most of the time. That most of the children were very cheeked, and their little legs were fat. "We hardly ever have enough sickness to go to the hospital." Another thing Tony was thankful for, was that they did not have to wait for certain designated days to celebrate. That each day was a day of rejoicing at the home. That each day they had a blessing, without waiting for Thanksgiving, Christmas and other days to celebrate. That they realized that they had Christian and charitable friends throughout the length and breadth of Texas, and other states, ready to supply them with food, raiment and a nice place to sleep. Even a hospital, should one be needed. Tony went on to say that contrary to what some people believe about an orphan home, perhaps read in fiction by Charles Dickens and other writers, that they had a great time. Indeed, he related, "other children with parents and a home, often came to visit the Boles Home, and that they have such a good time playing with the children of the Home, that they wanted to stay there." They also have their television and sometimes children are shown in lands not so fortunate as ours, where the children had poor food and clothing. So, Tony and his home and school mates thanked God that such nice people all over the land looked after their welfare. And referring to the US flag that flies over the campus, Tony remarked that it was the most important thing on the campus. It represents the land of the free and the home of the brave. Now, having given you the above, we want you to contrast this letter from Tony with the letter elsewhere in this paper, written by a home boy, Pfc. Billy E. Faught, who is presently serving with the US Army over in Korea. We want you to read the article he sent. They not only have thousands of orphans over in Korea, left by the ravages of war, but in addition millions of refugees that fled before the invading bolsheviks. And like any other land that has had three years of devastating war, no crops have been made to amount to anything, and there is no work for the people who live there, much less for these refugees. We hope some club or church will take over the matter of getting this idea of Billy Faught's under way.

It would seem from reading between the lines that a lot of otherwise good people are going to be greatly disappointed if there is not a recession, or perhaps a depression. And it seems to us that lots of folks don't realize that they might actually talk themselves into such a condition. Just recently, we read an article about honores that have been perpetrated on people from time immemorial, some of them to say the least, as unreasonable as you make them, but believed by many. And in some instances, at least they have caused suffering, mentally as well as physically. An absolute lie may be told and repeated by dupes until a world of harm has been done, and good people, as well as intelligent folks, will begin to believe these falsehoods. We used to have an old uncle who would state, "I wouldn't believe a lie if I told it to myself." This is all very well, but we don't have to be too old to remember back when Hitler and his bunch were making up and telling lies by the wholesale, and they would stress the fact, the bigger the better, and the more people will believe them. The same thing was happening down in Italy at the same time; with Mussolini and his help doing the falsehood job in that nation. Many people now wonder why they ever believed such things in the first place? It was just a matter of repeating over and over. Today, we have people right here in the good old USA that are so partisan in their general makeup that it would seem they really hope we have a depression, at least a recession, to show the people that we need the good old New Deal back in power to tax and spend, spend and elect. It is true that farm products and meat animals are much lower than two years ago, but some will admit only under pressure that a lower level did not start just when the Republicans came in power last January, but had really started in the spring of 1952. But only recently have we noticed a great deal of difference in the cost of finished products, as it is a notorious fact that prices of the finished products usually stay up until the supply of the high priced raw material is used up. Only lately therefore, have we noted a slight trend downward of our groceries, machinery and dry goods. But sometimes our big mouths can help to hasten a condition most of us fear. Another thing, the war in Korea is presently not a hot one at least, and that means a tapering off of many things that are manufactured. But we had rather have lower prices than a war, any time.

In the last issue of This Week, a magazine section of the Dallas Morning News, we read a very interesting article about the last days of Senator Robert A. Taft. The article was written and illustrated by friends of the senator, who had access not so much to him, but later to his relatives about the malignant disease that carried away a man who just a few months prior, doctors had declared in good health. The fact points out to most of us that our days are numbered, and only the good Father above knows when we are to be called away from this old earth. Discussing the man, we believe most people will admit, whether Democratic or Republican, that Robert Taft was a sincere man, and that he had the best interests of his country at heart. The people of Ohio, who knew him best speak for him by their ballots. That state, with one of the largest aggregations of union labor, always gave Taft an overwhelming majority. This pointed clearly to the fact, that even though much had been said about "the T-H slave labor law," most of the union men at least in that state, not dominated by labor bosses, voted for and elected Taft by an overwhelming majority, even in the strongest union cities, such as Dayton and Cleveland, along with other cities and more rural areas. In fact, the average laboring man knew that Bob Taft had nothing against them, and did not mean to harm them in any way. That Taft was looking out for all men alike, and not just one class of men, and that is the way every true blue American should look at the matter. But going back to Taft's physical troubles, it seems that the really first pain to bother him, hit him in the hip, when he and President Eisenhower were playing golf at Columbus, Ga., last

May. Long series of tests and examinations were given him in New York, Washington, as well as his home town, Cincinnati. After a few of these diagnosis, it was determined fully that Taft had a malignant cancer growth about him somewhere, and he even underwent an operation when his stomach and other vital organs were minutely examined. But the parent growth was never located. After his death, a post mortum examination was made, and the growth, no larger than the lead in your pencil, was found in his windpipe. In conclusion, we want to say that Bob Taft was the same Bob, during all this misery, even if Mrs. Taft was a wheel chair invalid herself. He would joke about the matters and make the most of bad conditions, even up to the time when he finally lost consciousness, just as he could smile in political defeat.

This week we reach the high point in the annual celebration of Texas Jaycees, that inspired and organized young manhood that has made a fine imprint on our Lone Star State, as well as other states. So, this is Junior Chamber of Commerce Week in Texas, from Jan. 14-21, and has been so declared by a proclamation of Governor Allan Shivers. As most of our people are well acquainted with what the Junior Chamber of Commerce stands for, and what it has accomplished in the past, as well as its aim in the future, we shall pass on to the subject at hand. And that is the selection of five outstanding young business or professional men, who have made their mark for the betterment of the State and their community. This has been the idea for the past 14 years, and many outstanding young men close to us have shared in these honors in times past. In this way, the organization celebrates another year of service to humanity, and this is done without jealousy and/or covetousness. The judges in the matter have already made their selections, and disclosed at this meeting at a statewide banquet which was held at Tyler, on the night of Jan. 16th. Mr. J. Harold Dunn, President of the Shamrock Oil Co., reported for the panel of judges, consisting of eight prominent Texas business men. The five outstanding young men consisted of George A. Constant, M. D., 34, of Victoria, Texas; Andre A. Crispin, a native of Brussels, Belgium, and exporter-importer of Houston; Arthur A. Kramer, Jr., 32, of Dallas, and well known throughout the state as a retailer; James Patrick Simmons, 29, of Monahans, who is a banker, and organizer of a saving and loan association in his city; Jim Wright, 30, of Weatherford, and who is mayor of that city, and a leader in getting things done in his city. Restrictions on age runs between 21 and 36, but the average of these five young men was 31 years, and all veterans of World War II. They are all married and together they have a total of 13 children. All of them have achieved something outstanding for their town and community by giving of their time and encouragement. They are men who can see the needs of their community, and get busy providing the help. In so doing, these young men have received the approval and congratulations of the people of their home towns over the State of Texas. In the 145 towns where they are organized, Val J. Peterson, ex-governor of Nebraska, was the principal speaker at the banquet. A new work by the Jaycees is a "Teen Age Canteen."

Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd is one of the most energetic men we have had in that office since Heck was a pup. Either that, or he has the best crew of workers this side of Kalamazoo. Unfortunately most people in office are kind of leisurely people, and wouldn't get in a hurry to scratch, even if they had seven-year itch. But John Ben gets things done, and if it don't suit all and sundry, its all in a day's work with him. For instance in December the office of the Attorney General received 206 requests for advice or an opinion on certain laws, and he not only passed on all of them, but two others in addition. During the full year the office received 1,110 opinion requests, but closed with one extra, probably brought over from 1952. And the office of Mr. Shepperd won 97 per cent of the suits tried or appealed during the year, a total of 1,199 cases were won in the trial of 1,232. Many interesting things were passed on, among them property bought at a sheriff sale must be sold at public auction. That faculty members of the UT may have expenses paid if traveling to original research meetings. A volunteer fireman, who has withdrawn and drawn pen-

TO DISTRIBUTE BIBLES

New York.—The American Bible Society has announced that two dozen national Bible societies throughout the world will launch a special program for 1954 "to re-awaken interest in Bible reading and to supply scriptures to people who want them." The groups plan to increase their annual Bible distribution from the present 20 million copies to 25,000,000 during 1954 to 50,000,000 in 1960.

The average American's opinion of the Constitution depends upon which side the Constitution supports.

sions, may again return to the duties of the organization, and subsequently retire again. The act regulating employment of public school teachers after retirement, is unconstitutional, being incorrectly drawn. We might mention right here that Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd takes on anything and everything in his stride, even the Commies. In fact he has been making those gents hot and bothered of late down Port Arthur way, as well as other places in Texas, where they have been infiltrating some of the new unions. One of these is the mine and smelter folks, who have been booted out or never were affiliates of the older and recognized trades unions. We note that one of John Ben's assistant's has been out at El Paso, assisting in the prosecution of some of the Stalin lovers, who have been running some of the mining business in southern New Mexico. It seems that this assistant is well acquainted with some of the boys who took over for the Commies out there. In the first place, the location of these Balsheviks is entirely too close to the White Sands Proving Grounds to suit either the Federal or State governments of Texas and New Mexico. It has been proved conclusively that this is a wildcat union and lovers of the "holy" Kremlin. Anyway, John Ben's assistant is rendering fine assistance out at the El Paso federal court.

Many People Keep Homes Too Warm

Austin.—"With colder weather in Texas, it is time to think about home temperatures during the winter months," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"There is evidence that thousands of homes are constantly overheated during the winter. In fact, many families tolerate an outdoor temperature during the colder months to which they should and so strenuously object in the summer. Such persons are not only uneconomical with their fuel supply, but are endangering their health as well," Dr. Cox continued.

"People living in homes with overheated temperatures become soft, the system is weakened and is at a decided disadvantage in defending itself against the sudden change from a too great indoor heat to the penetrating outdoor cold."

"Consequently colds, bronchial troubles and pneumonia, taking advantage of the situation, step in and do much unnecessary, and not infrequently, fatal damage. You will agree that this is entirely too high a price to pay for a few extra degrees of unneeded heat.

midity, is a definite safeguard. We need that safeguard. What does your thermometer read?"

JUST TO TOP OFF

"We all know families who are starting on their annual scourge of colds and sore throats. But this does not alter their affinity for super heat. They ignore the fact that 68 to 70 degrees is the best temperature. A thermometer kept within that range, plus proper hu-

A question box will be placed in the rear of the building, near the main entrance for any other questions you might like to ask. These will be answered on the following Sunday evening. TOWARD BETTER LIVING

Something good has been happening to the American farmer. In a single generation he has been able to double the productivity of his farming effort. That's the greatest advance on the land since men of ancient times fashioned the first crude plows from tree boughs and cultivated the world's first farms. The farm implement companies, the chemical industries and agricultural agencies have teamed with the enterprising American farmers to achieve this great advance. And it has contributed to the improving welfare of every man, woman, and child in the nation.

Du Pont, one of the pace setting pioneers in farm chemicals research, presents the story of John D. Burkholder, of Lititz, Pa., as an example of what's happening to industrious, progressive farm families throughout the nation. His farm life, his farming practices and his family's living standard are typical of conditions on perhaps 20 per cent of the family farms. The other 80 per cent are constantly improving their situation, but the degree of scientific farming practiced is varying lower than on the Burkholder 80 acres.

Well Equipped

John Burkholder has 26 cows, 8 steers, 6 heifers, 1,500 chickens. He grows corn, wheat, hay, tobacco and potatoes. He uses chemical fertilizers and soil conditioners, fungicides, insecticides, and a barn full of modern mechanical equipment. In the course of a year on his various crops he uses 38 different chemicals, not counting 20 tons of fertilizer which is one of his best investments. Fungicide spraying has helped boost his potato yield 100 per cent. Insecticides, medicinals and feed supplements for his chickens have increased egg output 71 per cent. And he estimates that just by eradicating flies which plagued his cattle his milk production has been increased 20 per cent.

A big boost in his farm's productivity—and profit—came when he thoroughly mechanized his equipment. Either one of his two small tractors today do the work which used to require five men, five plows and ten horses. He has an automatic hay-baler, a self-propelled harvester, and a dozen other machines which help him plant more crops, fertilize, spray and harvest them faster.

Production Increased

From his 80 acres, Burkholder is getting considerably more than twice as much production and income as the average 80 acres around the country produced 25 or 30 years ago. This fact is important not only to this one farmer, his wife and two children; it is vitally important to the whole population. By 1975, the US population will be 210,000,000—about 60,000,000 more appetites for the farms to satisfy. Ordinarily that would require, on the basis of average production, an additional 200,000,000 new acres of farm land.

There just isn't that much additional land to break to the plow. In fact our farm acreage has expanded hardly at all since 1920. The solution to the food problem seems obvious: Burkholder and the million or more farmers who have utilized almost every scientific farming advancement must continue to push up their productivity; and the 80 per cent who have not fully mechanized nor taken advantage of chemical developments must do so or quit farming.

The Future

The chemical industries, the agricultural agencies and the equipment manufacturers are going to make available untold new services to the farmers. And when you look at John Burkholder's income, his spacious modern-equipped home, his good-looking automobile and his happy family, you can feel confident that most American farmers who have the ability are going to adapt their farming to the new developments and practices. The incentive to the farmer is the opportunity for better living and greater service.

In the evolution toward this goal some of today's 5,000,000 farm families will not be able to keep pace, and will cease farming. This is a healthy, normal transition. John Burkholder was born on a farm and has adapted himself to agricultural progress. He fits the requirements for successful farming. Some don't. They will be better off doing something else, more productive for themselves and for society.

AN OLD FRIEND IS CONFINED TO HOSPITAL

Ed Thompson, who has been under the weather for the past several years is a pretty sick man at the local hospital, and is having to make use of oxygen. We are glad to report that he was resting some better, Tuesday.

A few years ago, Ed took an awful cough, and his physician ordered him to quit smoking, saying that his lungs were so full of holes that he could not contain sufficient oxygen for breathing purposes.

NEW PASTOR IS CALLER

Rev. S. R. Respass, recently called as pastor of the Westside Baptist Church, was a pleasant caller this week, to get his name on our subscription list. Their revival will start Sunday morning. You are cordially invited to attend. Services at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lillian Blake, of Dallas, is here for an extended visit in the home of her brother, Leon Morgan and wife, and will also visit with Mrs. J. J. Gaston.

Are You Sure of Your Soc. Security Benefits

When the children have cornered the TV set with a "bang-bang" Western and the missus has grabbed the local newspaper for a recipe try-out, and you've got a few minutes to spare before the boys come over for the weekly pinochle game—how about taking advantage of this time to take another look at your social security? In fact, take a double look, is the advice given by John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock social security office.

Hutton says, "There's no time like now to plan for the future—for your family income when you retire or die. Workers who make financial plans for tomorrow will find themselves in better shape than those who do little or no planning." As a starter, he suggests you might look twice at your social security protection. What does it provide? First, old-age benefits for you and your family when you retire at or after age 65. Second, survivors insurance for your family in case of your death at any age.

If you have any doubt as to how you stand under social security, Hutton recommends you get in touch with the Lubbock office. There you can get a pamphlet which explains in non-technical language what social security means to you, or you can get a complete and accurate answer to your own special question. A representative of the Lubbock social security office will be in Brownfield on January 28th at 2 p.m., at the county commissioners' room in the basement of the Courthouse, and will be glad to be of assistance.

THE WELLMAN NEWS

By Rev. Alvin F. Hamm

Ginnings Fall Short

The ginning season is over at Wellman, and there were not as many bales ginned as we had predicted in the beginning of the season. The Wellman Co-operative Gin ginned 446 bales and the Howton Gin ginned 390 bales, making a total of 836 bales ginned this year. Most all of the cotton came from irrigated land. Several more farmers are figuring on putting in irrigation this year.

The outlook for a crop another year is not very good at present time because of the drought. The young wheat is hurting very much because of lack of moisture. Those having irrigation wells are already irrigating.

PTA Plans Basketball Games

The Parent Teachers Association of the Wellman School is planning a big basketball game for the night of Jan. 28, with the women wearing the "old fashioned" bloomers and middie blouses playing against the high school team, who will be wearing their shorts etc.

The "fat" men will play the "slim" men, which will be a game more than worth your money and time to see. The women's team is composed of Mrs. Bob Burnett, captain; Mesdames Joe McGuire, Alvin F. Hamm, "Coach" Conwoop, Alfred Tiddle, Sr., Dot Oliver, Wesley Earp, Charlie Roland, Carroll Hulse, and Harvey Smith.

The "Fat" Men team are Rev. B. H. Baldwin, Bob Burnett, Rev. Alvin F. Hamm, Thomas George, H. E. Stevens, Grady Baker, Charlie Rex, Coach Conwoop, etc. The "Lean" Men team is composed of Homer Jones, Sewell Dean, Coach Rip Sewell, Pete Golden, "Bogie" Simms, Dot Oliver, Alton Loe, Alton Maddox, J. T. Bryant, and Robert Hamm.

The game is called for seven o'clock between the women and girls' teams and the "fat" and "lean" to follow. The admission to these games is 35c for children and 50c for adults. The proceeds will be used for the PTA school projects.

He Gets His Workout in 'Lung'

Although Joe Sidney Row, 6-year-old polio patient of San Antonio, relies on an iron lung to help him breathe, his need for exercise is met by temporarily substituting a chest respirator while his arm and leg muscles get a workout. Here Georgiana Harmon, staff therapist, is ministering to Joe in the Southwestern Polio Myelitis Respiratory Center at Houston's Jefferson Davis Hospital. This center, one of nine throughout the U.S., is made possible through contributions to the March of Dimes of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Thousands of youngsters like Joe will benefit from prolonged treatment such as this to strengthen polio-weakened muscles. By joining the 1954 March of Dimes you will help to assure that proper care is always ready for every polio patient needing it.

Stricklinly Speaking

Which shall we believe, Bro. Smith? Just happened to notice the last issue of the O'Donnell Index and found that pages one and two were dated Jan. 13; pages three and four bore the date, Jan. 7. To confuse us even more, pages five and six were dated, Jan. 20. Two pages were dated for Thursday and four for Wednesdays.

Now we admit all of us little country weeklies have a habit or hunch of getting many things screwy; we do most every week. But not many of us get three date lines in the same paper, all approximately a week apart. Now, Editor Smith, we want to know what you're drinking these days?

We have received our latest issue of the Friend Magazine, put out by the Chevrolet division of General Motors, and as usual, the magazine was most interesting. There were some mighty fine stories about different sections of our great country, where you may want to spend a vacation. These stories were all well illustrated, with interesting scenes, sans the usual magazine flair for posing half nude gals.

This departure from normal was even carried out on the front page. No suggestion of the sexy ideas. But there was a scene on the front cover that the child or adult got a kick out of. It was a big husky bull dog sprawled out on the floor, and the prettiest white kitty you ever beheld, playing with his ears.

Then there was a scene on one of J. B. Knight Co. calendars that was real interesting of a young ducky and his shaggy dog down on the stream, fishing. This is the little ducky with his cane pole, home-made line, and can of 'woims' was there—even the broad grin of the barefoot boy. The pup did not seem to be too much interested in the fishing part, but was taking in the scenes far out in the river.

Do what we may, and say what we think, crime is on the increase in this good land of ours, and the juries are going to have to get hard boiled, or the matter will go from bad to worse. Over in Lubbock County, according to the Avalanche, there were 105,000 cases of all kinds filed during 1953, most of which had been cleared up by arrests.

Crime is not confined to the larger cities, Dallas and Fort Worth of which, are having more crime than they bargain for. But even the smaller towns and cities, such as Brownfield, are having too much crime. Most of those who have made a study of the matter believe that the greatest remedy is for juries to get hard boiled, and the parole boards to sit easy for awhile.

These boards seem to have been extra busy turning the criminals out of the pen of late. They are no sooner free than they begin to rob, steal and rape again. Then there is the matter of the "professional" bondsmen, especially in the large cities, who have hired men posted to let them know the minute a criminal runs afoul of the law. The criminals are bonded out in a jiffy, and in the matter of hours are back at their old game, robbing, killing and raping.

Speaking of calendars, and who isn't, with the large variety now being put out by several business and professional firms in our city. But a fine one was put out by County Judge Herbert Chesshir. This one shows 12 hunting or fishing scenes, all closely allied to the month given. Then on the back of that page is a descriptive story by some well known sports writer, that fits in with the scene.

As the pages are put together with wire binding at the top, all pages may be preserved throughout the year, and referred to if you wish.

The "circular" boys sure had a time here last week end. There were circulars to the right of you, circulars to the left, overhead, in front and behind you. In your cars, and behind the windshield wiper if the car was locked. They were all over the front yards and blowing everywhere.

We imagine the street cleaner boys sure had a day of it cleaning up after the storm. What a loss of energy—and money! If the same expenditure had been put in the local papers, who employ many people, pay taxes, and support other worthwhile projects in our city, the papers would have gone into the homes and would have been read. We figure that 90 per cent of circulars go into the waste baskets. We noted that many car owners opened their doors and tossed the circulars into the street.

So, there is another "week" coming up. This one is to be National Potato Chip Week, and will be from Jan. 24th to 30th. Well, we love those 'tater chips, and have them around much—and especially the Morton variety. The Mortons, you know advertise their chips in this paper. So we like 'em.

We note the little leftist sheet down at Austin is agin' the Bricker amendment. We could have guessed that. Yep, like all "liberals" they want the UN to succeed the USA, and put our Constitution in mothballs.

Also, we note that the Gaines County News last week quoted some of the things "Wo-wo-willard B-r-right had to say when he was the owner and editor way back in the 30ties. Among them was the progress on the Bennett well over in Yoakum County. And that was the well that opened up the vast Permian fields in this area.

With the ending of the March of Dimes drive January 31st, which is supporting the polio funds, comes the Heart Fund drive in Texas, and the USA. The goal in Texas is for $458,000, and the drive is headed by Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor U. at Waco.

Let us keep in mind that presently heart disease kills more people in Texas and the USA than any other one single disease. While the Herald has advocated a "Community Chest" to take care of all such drives in one fund gathering effort, so far nothing has been done about the matter. However, many other towns and cities in this area report, after a community chest trial, that they are just what they ordered.

So, we have one drive right after another, such as the above, Red Cross, and others. The slogan of the Heart Fund drive is, "Help your heart fund—help your heart."

Altering Patterns Topic of HD Clubs—Leaders Named

Altering commercial patterns for perfect fit has been the January program of Terry County Home Demonstration Clubs. Approximately 80 women attended the meetings held in various members' homes.

The aim of every woman who sews for herself or her family, is to make attractive, durable, well-fitting garments. Very few women can use a commercial pattern as it is, and turn out a well-fitting garment. In most cases, alterations are necessary. Demonstration, by Miss Mildred Cox, County Agent, and through discussion and practice the women learned correct procedures for altering patterns to harmonize with their own measurements.

The following clothing leaders and demonstrators have been selected: Mrs. Roy Barrier, Pool; Mrs. J. W. Watson, Pool; Mrs. W. J. Moss, Meadow-Challis; Mrs. Frank Sargent, Union; Mrs. Crownover, Needmore; Miss Betty Kinney, Willow Wells; Mrs. W. M. Faulkenberry, Willow Wells; Mrs. Kellie Sears, Gomez.

Clothing demonstrators are Mrs. J. W. Smith, Needmore; Mrs. Floyd Joplin, Meadow-Challis; Mrs. Paul Gracey, Union; Mrs. W. F. Terry, Pool; Mrs. O. D. Kennedy, Willow Wells; and Mrs. Alfred Tittle, of Gomez.

These women will help other Club members to practice sewing methods that will enable them to turn out professional looking garments.

The program for February will be "Cutting Stripes and Plaids."

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs. Ida Bruton, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Yates, Leon Morgan and Henry Gaston went to Detroit, Texas, last Thursday, to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, Donald Kerr. Mr. Kerr died of a heart attack on Wednesday night, Jan. 13. Mr. and Mrs. Yates and Leon Morgan returned home Saturday. Henry Gaston and Mrs. Bruton remained for a longer stay.

MRS. POLLARD RECEIVES DEATH MESSAGE FRI.

Mrs. Gus Pollard, 903 S. Fifth, received word Friday morning that her brother-in-law, Mr. Petty, of Sweetwater, had died suddenly early that morning. Her sisters from New Mexico and Slaton were visiting her at the time, and the group attended the funeral, which was held in Sweetwater Saturday afternoon.

asked us to designate those we wish or can use.

Just send the bunch along, Don. We have plenty time to sift out those we can use. As most know, Don is a local boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Noble, and a graduate of the local high school. During his high school days he worked on the Herald, and was always an agreeable hand, and a willing worker. And we might add that Don was not given to vile language. While he might chuckle a bit at what the other fellow had to heave out in the way of profanity, Don himself did not indulge.

Evidently Don intends to pursue the newspaper profession in the days after he finishes his course at the university. He might be able to give us a job some day.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN A FORMER RAILROAD BOY

From railroad call boy to Chief Justice of the United States—that's the record of Earl Warren, former governor of California, who was appointed early in October, 1953, by President Eisenhower. Chief Justice Warren—whose father, the late Methias Warren, was a veteran railroader—cut his eyeteeth on the railroads, having worked summers on the Southern Pacific as call boy, "freight hustler," and mechanics' helper.—Santa Fe Magazine.

With some people it is better to remain silent, since they will do 90 per cent of the talking anyhow.

How To Get More Industries in Westex

Abilene.—Nine speakers will tell West Texas community leaders what to do about getting more industrial payrolls during a one-day industrial conference here on January 28.

After the first announcement of the conference program, officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring the event, have begun to revise upward initial estimates of the number expected to attend.

"We're getting reports of delegations of from five to fifteen persons per town who plan to attend," the WTCC's industrial committee chairman, E. L. Buelow of San Angelo, said.

Local chambers of commerce throughout the 132-county West

MARCH OF DIMES MONTH in Texas, January 2-31, has been declared by Governor Allan Shivers, above left. As Governor Shivers signs the proclamation, he is watched by Ruth Ann Bryant, 3206 Cherrywood, Dallas, a three and one-half year old polio victim, and General Robert J. Smith of Dallas, State Chairman of the 1954 March of Dimes Campaign and President of Pioneer Air Lines. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, through the March of Dimes Campaign, is seeking to raise an average of 50 cents for every person in Texas. Part of the 1954 plans are to conduct vaccine field tests in the State.

SOME THINGS OF INTEREST TO VETS

By C. L. Lincoln,
County Service Officer

RE-USE OF GI LOAN GUARANTY PERMITTED TO VETERANS

Under certain conditions, the VA will restore to WW II and Korean veterans the amount of the GI home loan guaranty entitlement. Of course, in any event, the VA must be completely relieved of any liability in connection with the original guaranty—and the veteran must establish, without question, that failure to restore the used entitlement would result in "substantial hardship" to him . . .

Conditions under which restoration of loan guaranty is made by the VA include cases where veteran's property is taken over for public use, destroyed by fire or other natural hazard, or "disposed of because of other compelling reasons devoid of fault on the part of the veteran." This will include health reasons compelling the ex-GI to move to a different climate. Another reason, being transferred by his employer to another city—provided the transfer is not the established business practice of the employer. If the veteran has used none of his loan guaranty entitlement other than that which is restored—he will be considered eligible for the maximum $7,500

POWER

TO HELP... TO HEAL... TO HOPE

Your dimes and dollars created the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis—you make up its army of 80 million supporters and two million volunteers.

In 16 years, a powerful force for good has grown from a mere handful of men and women. Its power is yours.

The National Foundation has created the most extensive voluntary research program ever leveled at a single disease. It sustains a program of patient aid in which no polio victim goes without the best available care for lack of funds. It trains thousands of hospital and health workers.

And it will take more in '54 to keep this program rolling—because victory looms over the horizon. Show your faith in the organization you have made—

JOIN THE MARCH OF DIMES

VETERANS HAVE INCOME TAX EXEMPTIONS

Payments to veterans or dependents for benefits administered by the VA are tax-free and need not be considered in computing income tax. This exemption also applies to dividends which veterans have received on GI insurance policies. Other tax-exempt veterans' benefits include:

Subsistence allowances for veterans training under both the WW II and Korean GI bills, including disabled veterans training under Public Laws 16 and 894. Payments by the VA to be applied to veterans' GI loans. Until late this last year, the VA paid the lender a gratuity up to $160 maximum to be credited to the veterans' account. Disability compensation and pensions paid to veterans for both service-connected and non-service-connected disabilities. Grants for seriously disabled veterans for homes designed for wheelchair living. WW I Emergency Officers' Retirement death benefits to families of deceased veterans are also exempt from taxation. These include compensation, pension and all GI insurance payments. State bonus payments likewise are exempt from income tax payments, and do not need to be reported.

DON'T BE SCARED AWAY FROM VA HOSPITALS

Just a thought about the financial statement (addendum) now required of some who apply for VA hospitalization (nonservice conditions):

The opinion of all who have gone into this matter with VA hospitals and regional officers, is that veterans should be positively encouraged to apply for VA hospital care when they need it, and not hold back or worry because of the addendum to the 10-P-10 calling for their financial condition in detail—the law definitely declares that an applicant's reply to the question, "Can you afford to pay the necessary expenses of care?" shall be conclusive. It is agreed by all that many a veteran who honestly doubts if he can, honestly says he cannot afford to pay for hospital and medical care, can honestly reply to that fundamental question: "No, except for a fractional part" or words to that effect. And again, during these times, nobody can afford to be sick. This addendum is a confidential matter and it stays right in the hospital and no investigation is made—it is accepted at face value and unless there is a strong doubt as to its truth, it goes no further. If there is a strong question as to the truth of the statement, it will then be forwarded to central office. This addendum will not keep anyone out of a VA hospital, nor is it intended to.

Adlai E. Stevenson, former Governor of Illinois: "Peace in the world, like good government at home, is a goal we approach but never finally or perfectly attain."

Mrs. Deryl Walker, city, visited with her sister in Amarillo this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Self, 208 E. Tate, had as their visitors during last week, Mrs. Mae Williams, Mrs. L. E. Tankersley, of Roswell, N. M., and Mrs. Luther Jones, of Nashville, Ark.

HERE'S HOW . . .

MAKE A TABLE-DESK

A simply-constructed table-desk can be made of wood with just a few tools and skills.

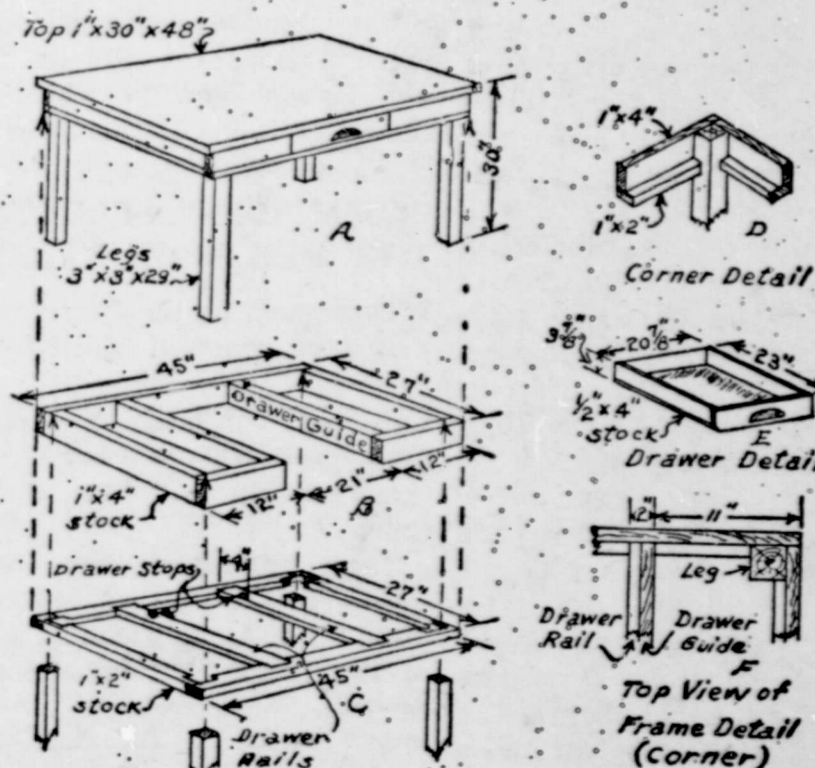

To start, construct a rigid frame, B, all of 1x4 material, both glued and screwed together for rigidity. Frame section, C, calls for sawing out the corners to accommodate the legs, and cutting the slots with saw and chisel for the drawer rails.

When B is glued to C and drawn tightly together with screws, the legs fit into the corners as shown in D and F.

The table-desk top may be of 1-inch or 2-inch material. If two 12-inch boards and one 6-inch board, each 48 inches long are used, there will be only two joints in the top.

The top is fastened either by screws from the top or right-angle brackets from beneath, and has a 1/2-inch "overhang" all around.

Drawer detail is shown in E. As for the best wood and finishes, your local lumber dealer will be able to advise you.

PIONEER PASSES—

be near her at all times. Grandma Price was born at Pontotoc, Miss., Feb. 28, 1868, three years after the Civil War closed. She and her husband, who passed on Feb. 1, 1938, were married at Pontotoc in 1884, but in their early days moved to Young County, Texas. They later decided to try an even younger county, and arrived with their then six children, in Terry County, on Christmas Day, in 1902, two years before the county was organized. Gay, a son born June 23, 1903, was the first boy baby born in Terry County. They settled on a farm north of town, and later moved to the thriving village of Gomez, where they lived until Mr. Price was elected County and District Clerk of the new county, and moved to Brownfield. Mrs. Price was noted as an all-around cook, but she had a neck with corn light bread that few possessed, and at picnics and other affairs in the early days, the old timers all wanted a slice or two of her corn light bread, as well as some of her fine old fashioned cakes, such as pound cakes. Not only was Grandma Price a good cook, and a great hostess in entertaining friends, neighbors and strangers, but she thoroughly heeded the Bible injunction to visit the sick and afflicted, widows and orphans. Many times we have heard that she never knew how many to prepare meals for, while her husband was in office, as he would insist that they take a meal with him. But if she ever had much to say or think about this, no one ever heard her. The guests came, and were always well fed and entertained.

The funeral for this fine pioneer soul was held at the First Baptist Church, Sunday at 2 p.m., she being a charter member of this church. The pastor, Rev. Jones Weathers, read the funeral sermon. Burial was in Brownfield cemetery beside the body of her husband, with the Brownfield Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Her grandsons were active pallbearers, being Buel and Bill Price of Lovington, N. M.; Jerrell Price of Odessa, and Donald, city; Lee, Leon, and Doyle Proctor, and Earl McCutcheon, the latter a great-grandson, all of this city.

Survivors are the sons, Word, Lense, Money and Gay, all of this city; Bayne of Plains, and Joe and Sam, of Lovington, N. M. The daughters are, Mrs. Elbert Proctor and Mrs. Robert Whitney, both of this city; a number of grandchildren, great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren.

Her son, Joe Price, is Police Chief of Lovington, N. M., and attending the funeral from that city were the following officers, who attended in a body and helped route the traffic: Foy Addison, assistant chief; Ray Castleberry, Reece Graves, and Jose Elvoice, patrolman; and Otis Hailey, a New Mexico State Patrolman.

Relatives and friends attended from Portales, Tatum and Lovington, N. M.; Overton, Lubbock, Plains, Odessa, Midland, Snyder, Post, Abernathy, Shallowater, Amarillo, Morton, Levelland and Seagraves, Texas.

AN EFFORT TO GET POLL TAXES PAID HITS STRIDE

An effort was started this week late, to get a maximum poll tax payments this year. Perhaps the idea was hatched in the minds of some when they read of the race of Lubbock and Amarillo for the most poll tax payments or exemptions. So the Herald decided to try to increase the payments in Terry County.

We really started too late this week, and is was miserably cold to get out and see this, that and the other. And you have no idea how many people you try to contact by phone, are out of town, or at least out of the office. As the ad will run this week and next, will try to contact more next week.

It is our desire to get a few of each calling, farmers, merchants, lawyers, preachers and school teachers. And we just about made even the first week fulfil this idea. Most people thought it a good idea to encourage people to pay their poll tax in order to vote.

However, we ran across a few who had a idea that it was none of their business whether people voted or not. But a few extra votes cast by good citizens, especially in State elections, sometimes means the difference between a good, patriotic office holder and a scoundrel.

We want to have something more to say along this line next week.

Lions Dist. Governor Shows Film Here On Kerrville Camp

Joe Phillips, District 2T-1 Governor of Lions Club, from Amarillo, paid his annual official visit to the local club Wednesday, at the club luncheon, held at Nick's Cafe.

The governor met earlier that morning with the club's board of directors at Nick's to discuss the programs and progress of the local club and to review any local problems.

Phillips, who assumed his duties in July, 1953, has already visited 40 of the 80 clubs he is scheduled to visit during the year.

He enumerated the accomplishments and objectives for the Lions Club in '54 at the luncheon and was introduced by Jake Geron, local president.

A film on the Lions Club Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville, was shown to members by Phillips and he answered questions in connection with the film.

He met with the Tahoka Club, the night before the meeting here. Out of town visitors at the meeting included Herb Henderson, one of the area zone chairmen, who accompanied Phillips, and Gene Leach, Farm Bureau field representative from Lubbock.

Approximately 42 members and guests attended. Next week's meeting will feature a film on "Juvenile Delinquency" which will be shown by Judge Herbert Chesshir.

COMMISSION SELECTS FOR FEB.-MAY TERM

Three men on the Jury Commission were sworn in, Monday afternoon, by County Judge Herb Chesshir, and met later to select the petit jurors, who will serve during the February and May term of court.

Those comprising the commission were Lee Bartlett, Milton Addison, and A. L. Fleming. Names of the jurors will be announced early in February.

Most people prefer sensation rather than news, just as they like gossip more than the facts.

Official Memorandum

By ALLAN SHIVERS
Governor of Texas

GREETINGS:

The Public School System in Texas goes back literally to the very beginning of our State. Texas' first Constitution made provisions for a system of public education. President Mirabeau Buonaparte Lamar, in his message to the Texas Congress in 1838 stated, "It is admitted by all that cultivated mind is the guardian genius of Democracy, and while guided and controlled by virtue, the noblest attribute of man. It is the only dictator that freemen acknowledge, and the only security which freemen desire."

The progress of our public schools from small beginnings to the fine educational system we have today has not been easy. It has required a cooperative effort of State and local officials, the active interest of parents and of citizens generally, and the energy and devotion of public-spirited men and women who have been willing to devote their lives to the teaching profession.

In recent years we have had to face great problems in the administration of our public schools. We have learned that the solution of these problems is only possible with public interest, understanding and cooperation.

One of the best evidences of public support is a definite effort on the part of each citizen to become familiar with the public school system and to keep in touch with it.

Therefore, I Allan Shivers, Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the period March 1-7, 1954 as PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK IN TEXAS and urge every citizen to visit one of the public schools during this period and become acquainted with the programs and accomplishments of our educational system.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 15th day of August, 1953.

ALLAN SHIVERS,
Governor of Texas.

CITY COUNCIL VOTES TO PUT 344 NEW STREET MARKERS OVER CITY

The City Council has voted to advertise for bids on street markers for Brownfield.

Approximately 344 four-way pedestal markers, of the type now on Main Street, will be purchased. One marker will be placed at each intersection with the exception of dividing streets, Main and First where two will be placed.

The Council will receive and open bids, Feb. 11, according to Jake Geron, city secretary.

POLIO NEEDS—

veloped through March of Dimes research and training programs, so new hope often can be given to "old" cases. Patients once considered hopelessly crippled have been enabled to work again. This is one extra dividend of the dimes you give.

No 'Forgotten Men'
The National Foundation and its 3,100 chapters have pledged that there will be no "forgotten men" on the roster of polio victims. As a result, the March of Dimes pays more hospital bills than any other voluntary health organization supported by public contributions.

Since the patient aid program started, the National Foundation has spent $174,000,000 for this purpose alone. This is 68 per cent of all funds used by the March of Dimes since it began. The money has provided necessary aid to 270,000 polio patients.

While it is hoped the new polio prevention program will spell ultimate victory over polio, the tens of thousands of past victims of this crippling disease cannot be forgotten. More dimes than ever before will be needed this year to insure that there are no forgotten men among past and present polio sufferers while prevention techniques are worked out.

The 1954 March of Dimes is now under way and will continue till the end of January. More of your dimes and dollars are needed now—they are ammunition in this crucial battle affecting us all. Make January the month of real giving.

A $50 BILL TO MARCH OF DIMES—Miss Pat Steen, representing the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority of Brownfield, is shown above presenting $50 to R. V. Moreman, local chairman of the March of Dimes Drive. The Sorority also gave the West Ward School $150 last week to be used to purchase school equipment and supplies. The climax to the month-long March of Dimes comes next week when three million women across the country hold their Mothers' March on Polio. Whether on foot, on snow shoes, on horse back, or in automobiles, neither rain, nor sleet, nor snow, will stop these indomitable women from visiting every house where a light signals that a contribution for the fight for polio awaits them. CofC Issues An Encouraging Letter

Members of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce had a very encouraging letter from the chamber officials this week, despite a bad drought, in which it made it clear that a balanced agriculture, oil and manufacture made a balanced economy in our community. That the 600 oil worker families in our city, for instance made a payroll alone of some $3½ million dollars annually, most of which is spent in our city.

Among other things, the light and water meters show a healthy increase over the beginning of 1953, a hopeful sign for our business barometer. Also that our bank deposits stand third on the South Plains, just behind Lubbock and Plainview.

For the accommodation of members, they have city directories of practically all the cities in this area, as well as names and addresses of manufacturers, road maps and travel information, flight schedules, and statistics on Brownfield.

Last but not least, they forewarn the members that the annual banquet will come up some time in February, and that it will be very important that you participate, and do more for your town in 1954.

ANDREWS INSTRUCTING CHORUSES AT BHS

Brother Bill Andrews, minister of the Southside Church of Christ is working with the BHS A Capella Choir and the Girls' Glee Club, as Mrs. Joan Dixon has moved to another town and is instructing here no longer.

Mrs. Dixon's successor will take over classes and the choral groups some time in February, and Brother Andrews will fill in until that time. He received his musical education at Freed-Hardeman College, in Tennessee, Austin College in Sherman, and Southwestern State in Oklahoma.

Brother Andrews has previously worked with choruses in Denison, Bonham, and Honey Grove, before he and his wife moved to Brownfield, five months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pounds and Mrs. L. J. Dunn, of Brownfield, visited in Lubbock, Wednesday, with the family of James Thompson, who was killed last Tuesday in an automobile accident.

LACKING HUMOR

"What do you think of our art gallery?"
"Oh, the pictures are quite good but there are no jokes under them."

So far as the legal records disclose, there has never been a trial, since the advent of law, that has resulted in a thoroughly satisfied plaintiff and an equally satisfied defendant.

Terry County Soldier Describes Conditions Over South Korea

Pfc. Billy E. Faught, a local boy, presently serving in Korea, asks us to print the following, after seeing the suffering in that country, especially 2,700,000 classified as refugees:

Today there are 19 million people in South Korea. One out of seven of these are refugees, people who have left their homes and fled before the Communist aggressors leaving everything behind except what they could carry on their backs. They live in a war torn country that has literally no industry and very little agriculture. Inflation has caused retail prices increase from 80 to 90 times compared with prewar prices. This has wiped out any savings that these people may have accumulated.

These people have fought hard for their freedom. They resisted Japan for 40 years refusing to submit to her whims in spite of complete occupation. When Korea was liberated in 1945 she at once designed a government of her own. When the Communist forces from North Korea attacked Korea in June of 1950, the people fled before the attack rather than again submit to a foreign ruler.

Right now this proud country has very little left. She has little money and needs time to get back on her feet. However, her needs are few. She needs clothing and medicines, and food in order to stay alive. Relief agencies are working at full capacity but they aren't able to handle the big demand.

Therefore we are asking you to help these needy people. They need clothing, especially for the many children. We would like you to send any old clothing that you may have. It makes no difference what state of repair or what size or what material it is. It will certainly be better on some Korean than lying around in a closet. It will cost you only the time and effort to package the clothing and the price of postage. We don't ask for new clothes but only the old discarded things that you will never use again. We are asking both as a unit and as individuals to help the Koreans now.

The packages will be collected in our battery and turned over to

Reorganization In US Ag. Dept. Has Not Changed 1954 ACP

Recent reorganization in the US Department of Agriculture has not changed the already announced 1954 ACP program, according to a recent Department statement. Requests for carrying out cost-sharing practices under this program will still be submitted to and reviewed by local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees. The program is being adapted to local needs through team work of representatives of the SCS, Extension Service, FHA, officials of the soil conservation districts, county and community ASC committees and others, according to Looe Miller, office manager for ASC.

According to the Department, general policies under which the program operates include limiting payment of conservation to be shared with farmers or ranchers only where they request it before work is begun, and then only on practices which it is believed the farmer would not carry out to the needed extent otherwise.

Requests for assistance under this program may be accepted at any time. The first Wednesday in each month has been set for the committee as the date on which these requests will be considered according to their merit and the funds available, Miller said.

The ASC office has been requested to make a report of crop-land prepared for the planting of cotton in 1953. If farmers of Terry County would go by the office or mail a report giving this information, it will assist them in making their report and substantiate this request to adjustment in the county base acreage for abnormal weather conditions that reduced the 1953 planted cotton acreage.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe carloadings for week ending Jan. 16, 1954, were 21,424 compared with 23,636 for the same week in 1953. Cars received from connections totaled 10,990 compared with 12,226 for the same week in 1953. Total cars moved were 32,414 compared with 35,862 for same week in 1953. Santa Fe handled a total of 28,389 cars in preceding week of this year.

HE OUGHT TO KNOW

Mrs. Youngbride (tearfully)—By the way you treat me, anyone would think that I'm nothing but the cook in this family.
Hubby—No, after the first meal, they wouldn't.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Little, of Midland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Watson, of Brownfield, last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Winchester, of Denison, visited in the home of their son, Rudy Winchester from Saturday until Tuesday this week.

Some reputable organization that is set up to distribute such packages. There are several such organizations located in our area. One unit in our area which is larger than ours has to date received enough clothing to supply approximately 14,000 persons. We don't hope to get near that number but if we and other neighboring units who are doing the same thing can get some response there should be a lot of Koreans receiving clothing.

We will turn the packages over to another organization for distribution as they are set up to handle such a situation whereas we are not familiar with this part of the program. We feel in that way these packages will get to where they are needed most.

The person who signs this letter has been requested to do so, so he may get personal recognition when the package arrives. He has also been asked to send this letter to some relative or friend. We sincerely hope that you will be able to respond. Send your packages to this address:
