Al Muldrow Home After Washington Committee Meeting

Al Muldrow, Brownfield oilman, farmer, and rancher, who was recently appointed to the US Farm Labor Advisory committee to represent Texas, by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, returned to Brownfield last week from Washington.

Muldrow, his wife, Vera, and his two sons, Kim, 15, and Mont, 14, returned from the Capitol by automobile from the two-day conference held Jan. 27-28.

Muldrow and 47 other representatives of the committee, met with the directors of the Farm Placement Bureau, Justice Department and State Department. An agreement with Mexico on the Mexican Bracero problem, the British West Indies and the European refugees, was brought before the joint meeting.

Recommendations from the advisory group will be taken to the Labor, Justice, and State departments for their actions.

Muldrow has been a resident of Brownfield for the last nine years, and at present owns five tenant farms, and cultivates 1,663 acres himself. In the past several years he has shown great interest in farm and ranch problems.

STAFFORD DONATES CHAIR TO POLIO VICTIM AT LUBBOCK

De Witt Stafford, local welder and resident of Brownfield for 28 years, called Lubbock the other night during the Auction held at station KDUB-TV for the March of Dimes, and offered to make a chair for Susan Roy. The small girl has been afflicted for about two years and has a hard time breathing since being taken from an iron lung. Her father drew the plans and built the chair that she now uses, but it needs to be changed as she gradually improves.

Stafford donates much time and effort each year in helping crippled children and has never at any time charged for his time or materials used.

FARM BUREAU HELPS FARMERS GET MEXICAN NATIONAL LABORERS

Waco.—The most powerful farm organization in the Nation's Capitol has come to the aid of farmers and ranchers who use Mexican national laborers.

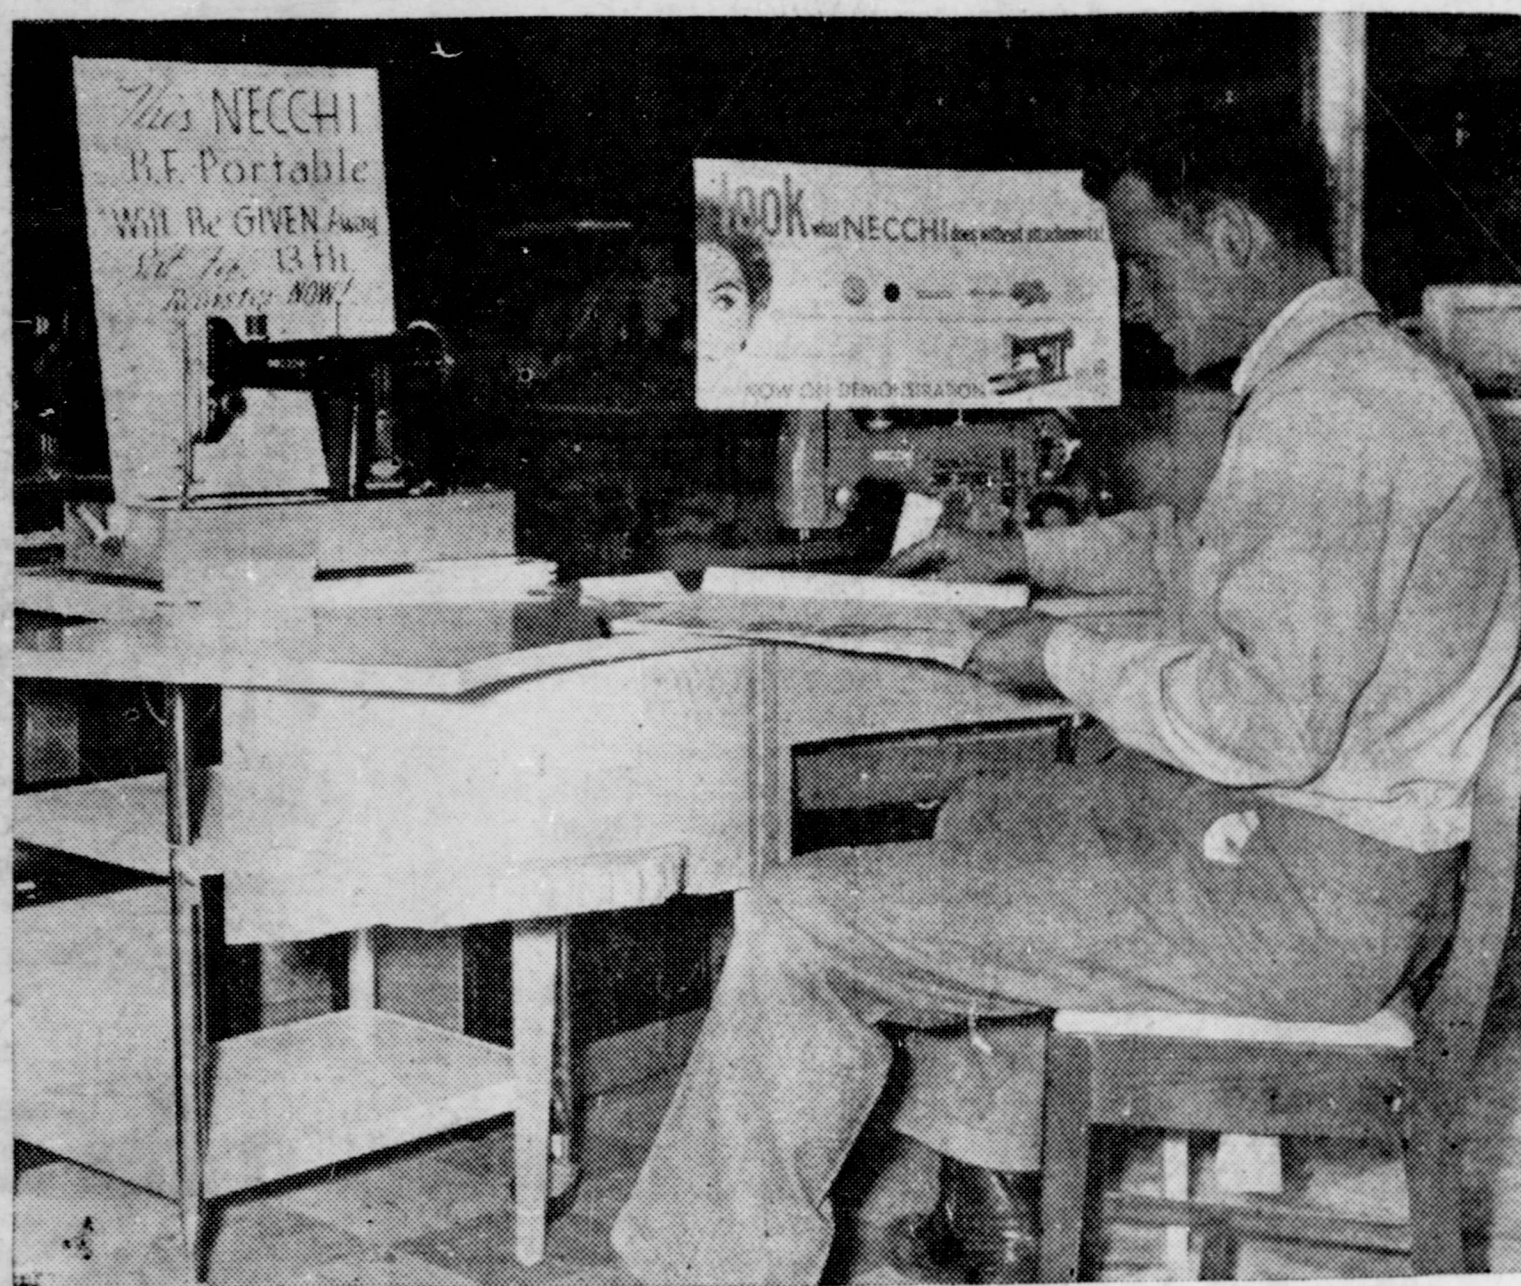

The American Farm Bureau Federation has urged Congress to approve legislation designed to clarify the authority of the Department of Labor to continue a program for temporary employment of braceros as farm workers in the US, when adequate numbers of domestic workers are not available.

In a statement filed with the House Agriculture Committee, AFBF said that the need for early action "is emphasized by a recent ruling of the comptroller general that funds previously appropriated for the administration of a Mexican farm labor program pursuant to an agreement with Mexico cannot be used if no such agreement has been negotiated."

An obstacle to the continuation of the Mexican farm labor program is the lack of funds for the program. When regular appropriations or the Labor Department were made last summer, funds for Mexican agreement then existing expired Dec. 31, 1953.

The Bureau of the Budget has recommended a $550,000 appropriation to enable the Labor Department to continue a program. Action on this request is expected as soon as Congress approves the authorization.

READ WHILE YOU SEW—the Necchi Sewing Machine now on display at Charlie Price's Western Auto Store makes such a fete possible with the "Wonder Wheel." Friday and Saturday, Feb. 12 and 13, a home economist from the Necchi Company will be at the newly-decorated, and enlarged store, to demonstrate the completely automatic stitches that the machine makes, a few of which are buttonholes, applique, embroidery, hemstitch, blindstitch, and any number of fancy stitches. Charlie, who moved here in 1950 from Gatesville, Texas, where he operated a Western Auto Store there for a year, and previous to that time had worked for the U. S. Rubber Co. for five years; by doubling his store space is now able to stress several lines and add others. He has increased the sporting goods, tires, paint, and power mower lines and has added Wizard automatic washers and dryers. The store features a year 'round selection of toys, especially Lionel, Marx, and American Flyers. A Necchi portable SEWING MACHINE WILL BE GIVEN AWAY at 5 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 13th, at the store and you don't have to be present to win—just come by the store and fill out an entry blank, no purchase necessary—and you may be the lucky winner. Pictured above, sewing and reading at the same time, is Charlie's brother, Billy, who is an employee at the store. Remember the time—5 p.m., date, Feb. 13, and place, Charlie Price's Western Auto Store, 202 S. 5th, of the drawing—and be sure your name is in the box. (Staff Photo.)

2 MEN HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT NEAR HERE

Guy Vaughn and W. L. Long, both of Hobbs, N. M., were injured, neither seriously, when the car in which they were riding overturned about 10 miles south of Brownfield on the Seagraves highway about 10:20 p.m., Friday.

Both were taken to the local hospital by Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance where attendants said their injuries were not serious.

CITY SERVICE TO OPEN A STATION HERE SATURDAY

Saturday will be the formal opening day of the first City Service station in Brownfield, although they operate in most of the surrounding counties. They will open in what was built several years ago for Sinclair and later Chevron, located across the street from the Kyle Grocery. They want you to be there some time during the day, as there will be favors for the children.

The new station is being opened by Roy Key, formerly with Crites Humble Service. Mr. Key informed us that he liked to work for Mr. Crites, but that he wanted a good station of his own, to look forward to the future. Along with him, will be A. R. (Doc) Harris at the front, and Rufus Fenney and Adona Longoria in the wash and grease department.

The place has been redecorated and re-arranged from front to rear, giving the place a brand new appearance. Mr. Key will be prepared to give his customers the very best service possible, and at a minimum cost. For instance, you will get a wash, grease, air filter check, motor wash, transmission and rear-end check all for $3.00.

The station will also wholesale as well as retail oil and gas. The phone number is 2821.

Persons receiving "double parking" tickets have five days in which to appear before corporation court at the police department. Failure to appear within five days will be cause for another charge—failure to appear, and possibly another fine, according to the City Police Department.

Primm Hears Private Financing of River Project at Mon. Meet

C. C. Primm, of Brownfield, was among the directors attending a meeting of the board of directors of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority at Plainview, Monday. Approximately 30 representatives of investment banking houses and engineering firms also attended.

The investment men and engineers were invited by the authority directors to attend the meeting for the conference on the project as a follow-up to the board's decision to pursue first the possibility of private financing of the project.

The finance men were first heard by the directors on their views on what would be needed from the engineers in the way of a feasibility report on the dam so that the engineers may be able to estimate costs of the report.

Each director had received a copy of the government's definite plan report, since the January meeting, which they had been studying for the past two weeks.

The report covered many captioned subjects such as topographic surveys, core drilling of the river and reservoir site, recreational areas, water supply, cost of water to cities and many other facets of the proposed project.

Most of the investment firms and engineers were of the opinion that the dam and piping to the several cities could be financed with revenue bonds. Also that the cost of the water to the cities would be no higher than they presently pay.

bers are especially requested to attend this service and all former members and others are cordially invited to come and enjoy the services, the basket lunch, and the splendid fellowship which prevails at the First Baptist Church of Meadow.

Dr. Scott came to Meadow from Vinita, Okla., where he was pastor of the First Baptist Church for 12 years. During the year that he has been pastor of the Meadow church, the Sunday School has been graded, over 200 awards have been made for study courses completed, there have been 75 additions to the church, 25 of these by baptism. A radio ministry has been launched. Four young men have surrendered to preach the gospel. The Brotherhood has been reorganized and is now one of the most active in the association. Also, $17,613.16 has been contributed by the members of the church for all phases of the church program; $4,241.59 of this amount has gone to missions.

Even though this has been one of the most trying years that the church has faced financially, many physical improvements have been made. Among them, redecoration of the entire church building; carpeted parsonage; air-conditioned parsonage and office; landscaped parsonage; carpeted pulpit; installed chimes; and moved in the Mexican Mission and redecorated it for Sunday School rooms.

The goal for Sunday School on this anniversary Sunday is 300, and the goal for the Training Union is 150.

Lt. Col. Truett W. Flache is one of the 70 Army reserve officers who are attending National Resources Conference in Dallas this week, through the 19th of Feb.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ross, of Brownfield, left Thursday for Corpus Christi. They plan to return in about a week.

SHELTON DECISIONS TECH STUDENT IN WELTER WT. DIV. GOLDEN GLOVES

Lyle Shelton, of Brownfield and Tech, decided Donald Reiser, of Lockney, in the open welterweight division in the finals of the Golden Gloves at Jamboree Hall in Lubbock, Saturday night.

Shelton and Reiser had a fine welterweight battle, with Reister putting up an unexpected opposition. Lyle, "The Left," started hurting him in the second round and Reiser took lefts and more lefts.

Two pee-wees—both of Brownfield, too—Keith Addison and Arthur Bradley, took trophies home. Addison fought his way out of opponents Thursday night, and was described by Announcer Wes Youngblood as 78 pounds of rugged competitor.

In the high school division, David Martin of Lubbock, took a default from E. V. Murphy of Brownfield for light-heavy championship. A TKO went to Wayne Hillin of Amarillo in the featherweight division. Hillin put out a lot of action from the first and had Mike Baker of Brownfield on the ropes in the second when the award came.

Kenneth Cary won the opening bout, a pee-wee exhibition and Arlan Odum took an exhibition from Roger Scott of Lubbock, the unopposed as high school bantam. Odum and Cary are from Brownfield.

Hubert Crosslin won over Bobby Turner, both of Brownfield, in flyweight.

Shelton will compete in the State Tournament in Fort Worth the latter part of this month.

Among those attending the Saturday fight were Billy Higdon, trainer for the local boys, and managers, DeWitt Stafford, and Clyde Bond, Jr.

If You Know Housing, Report To C of C

Grady Elder, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce, appeals to this old journal to make a call for housing for some fifty families coming in to work on Highway 380.

If you have a house or know of one that is for rent, please contact the Chamber of Commerce, 4410, at once, as these people will be coming in soon. Some may have to live at other nearby towns, and commute back and forth.

But the idea is that most of them will want to stay as near their work as possible, and Brownfield is nearer that work.

Cinderella Shampoo Bar To Have Formal Opening, Sat., Feb. 20

Cinderella Shampoo Bar will have its formal opening Saturday, February 20.

The business, owned by Mrs. Beulah Mae Address, will be located in the buildings which formerly housed the Cinderella Beauty Shop. John Proctor, Millard Martin, and Buck Address now operate the Main Street Barber Shop, formerly owned by Bob Criswell.

Painting and redecorating the interior of the Cinderella Shop, which was recently damaged by fire, has been underway for the past two weeks, and Mrs. Address said that some of the fixtures and equipment were usable, but needed a lot of cleaning. Ceilings in the building have been lowered to give a more modern appearance.

North side of the interior will be used as a physical therapy room and the south side for the beauty shop. Mrs. Address is a graduate Masseuse. Two operators at the business will be Mrs. Ona Stokes and Leta Barton.

Ag. Stabilization and Conservation News

There is to be a meeting of the Terry County farmers in the District Courtroom in Brownfield, on Friday, Feb. 12, 1954, at 7:30 p.m. At this meeting the new regulations governing the cotton acreage allotments will be discussed and other subjects of interest to the farmers. Everyone is invited.

The Terry County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation has received preliminary instructions for arriving at the acreage which the Terry County farmers will receive under the cotton increase amendment. They have also received instructions for the combination and subdivision of farms, and procedure for making adjustments and corrections. Several farmers have made requests for the above mentioned and the reason why their requests have not been granted or they have not been notified is because this work could not be completed until the county office personnel received the procedure.

Farmers who are carrying out practices of any kind during 1954 should make their requests now in order that the money may be set aside for carrying out the practice while there are funds available. Most of our practices have to be checked by the SCS Technician before the practice is begun, and as the committee only meets once a month and approves requests, you should make your request far enough in advance of carrying out the practice that you may receive your approval before starting.

Newell Reed, 702 E. Lons, returned Tuesday from a Lubbock hospital, where he underwent surgery. He is reported doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cade, 502 E. Lons, have as their week end guests, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Cade, of Abilene.

Feeling a bit trifling this week (the springlike weather we guess), we decided to let three Texas newspapers write our editorial column this week. World Cotton Curbs

Some sort of world controls on cotton production, as proposed the other day by the president of the National Cotton Council, might prevent a large-scale repetition of the hardships brought onto the South Plains and other cotton-producing areas of the Southern States this year by an unusually large crop in Western States of the United States. But there's some question as to whether it could be worked out.

One reason controls were put on the US cotton crop this year was the surplus of cotton produced by the Western States which ordinarily don't turn out as much. Of course, the areas such as the South Plains, which always stress cotton, had a better crop this last season than had been recorded since 1949. Anyway, controls were ordered, and some counties on the South Plains have been restricted to far below the amount produced last year.

The fact that foreign farmers don't always keep their production in line with demand sometimes has an adverse effect on US cotton.

In proposing some sort of worldwide control, Harold A. Young, president of the National Cotton Council, listed two objectives. He said world consumption of cotton must move upward and that foreign farmers, like American farmers, must keep their output in line with the demand. Young gave no detailed plan for global cotton control, but noted that foreign competitors continuing long-range development plans, "encouraged by the knowledge that when they get a surplus, they can unload it at our expense by shaving their prices just under our own." Young said a minimum export goal of about 5,000,000 bales a year must be set up for the protection of the American cotton grower.

A worldwide control authority perhaps would be desirable—especially from the standpoint of the National Cotton Council—and perhaps it would even help strengthen the economy right here on the South Plains, but the idea doesn't sound practical. It would be hard to impose controls on foreign cotton growers who don't want them, and who have no enforceable obligation to the United States. Probably the only way in which the plan could be carried out would be to coerce foreign governments into setting up controls, under threat of cutting off economic or other aid from this nation. It's doubtful that US leaders would want to go that far.

Reportedly, much research is being done to find new uses for cotton, thereby creating new markets. Things like the Maid of Cotton contest do much to promote the use of cotton in fabrics. More promotion of cotton usage and more attention to other profitable crops which can be grown in conjunction with cotton probably would be a better answer to cotton growers' market problems.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Turn On The Light In Duval County

Gov. Allan Chivers' threat of martial law for Duval County seems justified on the surface of things. The surface of things, of course, may not be accurate in their showing. Yet the surface of things in the South Texas area has presented a dubious view over a long period of years. A series of events—the losing of ballot boxes, the burning of other ballot boxes, charges of income and other tax evasion and corruption in office, and allegations of high-handed procedure and injustice in the courts—call for an investigation. Added to these events, there is that perennial political phenomenon of block voting. Block voting in itself is no proof of suppression of freedom of citizens to go to the polls and vote as they please. But block voting has been a concomitant of machine political methods in many places in this country at many times.

Governor Shivers charges "political skulduggery for which this articular county has gained a dubious score of fame." He says that he wants to rid the state of "political thieves and ballot gangsters" and "assure protection to those who testify." If there is justification for martial law to attain these ends, then it should be declared. If these ends should be sought today, it is a foregone conclusion that they have been in need of seeking over a long period of years and that they have defied less aggressive attempts to solve them.

Law enforcement in Duval County is not a matter for Duval County alone if there is a suppression of political freedom in that area. It is a matter of concern for the entire state. This is true, even though the people of the state as a whole have a way of evading issues that primarily affect localities. The Governor shows courage in his resolution to get at the bottom of the matter.

One Editor "Sot" Up With The Telethon

According to accounts we read last week, one editor of this area spent the entire night, Saturday, Jan. 30, with the "telethon." Whatever that is, and drank chocolate, ate candy, honey and other fattening material. And we have been told the guy is already many pounds overweight, and physicians have advised him to cut so much chomping, and the use of too much brew.

What surprises us is that he has a small weekly paper like the Herald, only smaller, but takes some two columns weekly giving the TV programs, while the TV is his hottest competitor for business. We get the stuff, too, but they don't hurt themselves giving he Herald anything, not even a pleasant look.

Until further notice at least, we choose to give our space about some of the good old farmers of Terry and adjoining counties, and what they are doing.

frontier of Texas when there was some justification for law administration by rough-and-ready methods, but the day of "Law West of the Pecos" is gone, and there is no excuse for "Law South of the Nueces" other than that through duly constituted authority expressing the unrestricted will of the people.—Dallas Morning News.

Eisenhower Continues Down The "Middle"

Though he is a man of singularly uncomplicated character, politicians and professional observers in Washington are still learning things about President Eisenhower, and continuing to be surprised at what they learn. The surprise is perhaps due to the fact that the highly political atmosphere in Washington has implanted in these observers a cynicism which makes them hesitate to take anything at face value. They now seem compelled to revise this attitude and conclude that that is exactly how President Eisenhower must be taken—at face value.

The picture of President Eisenhower that appears gradually to be impressing itself upon the Washington contingent of politicians and news correspondents is that of a man entirely without the politician's usual guile of pretensions, one whose simple statements of principle and philosophy are a true reflection of his thinking and his motives. They are coming to realize that he is not, as the saying goes, one who talks out of both sides of his mouth.

At various times since he assumed the presidency Mr. Eisenhower has enumerated some of the basic principles which guide him and which he seeks to make the pattern of his administration. The cumulative effect of these statements, the realization that is being borne in that they are not merely empty words, gave perhaps a greater impact to the President's remarks at a recent press conference than to anything that has gone before. At that conference, in reply to a question as to whether he considers his administration liberal or conservative, the President said that in dealing with people his attitude is liberal, and in dealing with economic affairs his attitude is conservative.

But he went further. He said that his basic purpose is to make America stronger, that his conception of his duty in any situation which arises is to do what seems best for the country, that he believes the government must function in accordance with the Constitution, and that he wants the government so operated that every person will realize it is his friend.

This should put at rest all speculation as to where President Eisenhower is headed. He is not, as arch conservatives of the Republican Party fear, headed on a course indistinguishable from the New Deal. Nor is he, as ardent New Dealers contend, embarked on a course of reaction. He is, as he himself has maintained from the first, trying to tread a middle way which will avoid excesses on either side. Though this position may expose him to attacks from both flanks, it is probably where the great majority of the American people would have him go.

It is a course which, sometimes may make him appear to ignore party lines. But that, instead of being a sin to be marked against him, is a reflection of his attitude that many of the problems confront the President have no connection with politics or party lines. It is also an evidence that he is sincerely attempting to be what he early announced his intention of being—the President of all the people.—Star Telegram.

And They Cut Down The Old Pine Tree

Well, they weren't exactly pine trees, but Chinese elm, around the West Ward and Junior High, and the Gym, covering some two blocks between Main and Broadway, just east of First Street. Anyway, the axmen and sawmen were after them like nobody's business last week.

Admittedly, the trees had been neglected in the years past. We believe that the American Legion put them out way back soon after War I, but the soil had been allowed to blow away from the roots, and they did not get too much water, after they attained a size that more water was needed.

Presently some of them were more than a foot through at the stump. Anyway, since the schools have their own irrigation wells, with oodles of water, it seems that grass is their choice, and the growth of it for the past year has been foremost in the mind of the school.

Trees and some grasses, particularly bermuda, don't go well together. But there are other grasses that will grow and do well right under any kind of a tree.

An Old Timer From Yoakum In To See Us

Mrs. Walter McCravey was in to see us and renew for their Herald that has been going to the McCraveys since before Sulphur draw was dug. Not that it was going to Mrs. Walter and family at that time, she being of the second generation vintage. But she still has that old western way that makes people happy for them to be about.

The McCravey ranch lays a bit southwest of Plains, on the new Plains-Lovington, N. M., road. We have never been over this paved road, but we related to her about going over the old dirt road between the two towns, way back about 1917. A bunch of Brownfield Boosters had been to Lovington to attend a big three-day rodeo, and to advertise our affair, which was the celebration of the coming of the Santa Fe railroad to Brownfield. Pat Neff, then County Attorney of McLennan County, and later Governor of Texas, made the principal address at our celebration.

Anyway, back to this good friendly lady, she stated that she enjoyed reading this conglomeration mess that we put out for information. And she stated that we'd not know that country in west Yoakum now, as there were many irrigation wells, and farming was the event of the day. But—now maybe we misunderstood—but we thought she said: "I wish it was still a ranching country."

G I. QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q. I am a disabled World War II veteran, and I'm just finishing on-the-job training under Public Law 16. After I complete it, I'm supposed to get two months' subsistence pay from VA. Right now, my subsistence has been reduced because of the wages I receive from my employer. Will my two months' VA pay also be at the reduced rate?

A. No. Your two months' post-rehabilitation pay from VA will be at the full rate, regardless of the fact that now you are getting less than that each month because of your income.

Q. I have a service-connected disability that is rated at 20 per cent by VA. The other day I went to take a physical examination for commercial life insurance, and was told I couldn't get it because I'm considered totally disabled for insurance purposes. Shouldn't my VA rating be increased?

A. Not necessarily. It could be increased only if it is shown that your service-connected disability increased in severity. For insurance purposes, there may have been other non-service disabilities which resulted in their finding of total disability. Also, insurance criteria for determining total disability may not be the same as VA criteria for compensation.

Q. I'm a GI Bill trainee and I've just moved. I notified my local VA Regional Office of my new address so that I'll continue to receive GI training allowances without delay. I also hold GI insurance. Should I also notify my VA District Office, which is in another state?

A. You should also notify your VA District Office of your new address. All you need to do is write your new address on the flap of the premium envelope you receive regularly from VA.

Q. I'm in a VA hospital, and I want to transfer to another one. Will VA furnish me transportation?

A. VA will provide transportation only if the transfer is approved and determined necessary by VA for medical reasons.

Q. I served continuously in the armed forces, without a break, since 1940, and I am just now getting my discharge. Would I be allowed to take the maximum of four years of training under the World War II GI Bill.

A. No. The reason is that the World War II GI training program, for nearly all veterans, comes to an end on July 25, 1956—about two and one-half years from now. But you would be entitled to the maximum amount of training under the Korean GI Bill, which is 36 months.

Q. I am a World War II veteran who recently became disabled, and I plan to apply for the VA pension which is payable for total and permanent non-service-connected disabilities. I have a wife and two children. Will I receive a larger pension because of these three dependents?

A. No. Pension rates for non-service-connected total disabilities are not affected in any way by the number of dependents you may

Does M. J. Craig Favor Harry Truman?

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Craig, Sr., were in to see us last week, and to get their Herald up a couple of notches, to Feb., 1956, to be exact. You know M. J. has been sorter under the weather of late, and he and the Mrs. have been traveling about considerably. On one of these trips they visited Catalina Island in California, along with two of his brothers-in-law.

He stated that actually a lot of the folks on the island took him to be Ex-President Harry Truman, and the other two men secret service men to guard him. One of their latest trips was down to Sonora, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Johnnie Laird, and back home, via Big Lake and the Big Bend section.

WE DROP DOWN FOR HERMAN'S BIRTHDAY

Sunday morning, fairly early, the Junior member of this firm and his family, save the eldest, J. T., hit the road for Snyder, via Lamesa, as Thursday was Herman's birthday, and we figured they'd have something to eat, a bit extra. Anyway, we'll not tell you how old Herman is. If you want to know, ask him. Found his mother, an aunt and a nephew there from Brownwood, having come in Saturday. All of us being old acquaintances, we had a nice time together.

Missed seeing the lake, as those who went out there did so while we were napping after a good dinner, which came off about 1 p.m. But they said the lake is still gradually filling, and was now a big body of water. This lake on the Colorado, named Lake Thomas, we believe officially, will supply the three towns of Snyder, Big Spring and Odessa in the future, and will be an admirable fishing point for Plains people, especially, who are all far from "law" when it comes to a fishing place. Snyder is already using water from the lake.

They had an awfully fine feast at the noon hour and Herman got some presents, of which he was as proud as a school boy. The purps were fine, so was the parakeets and chincillas. The mammy chin soon to present pappy chin with some youngsters. And there was parakeets galore, having a great time in the sunshine. The Brownwood bunch left about 5 p.m., but us Brownies, being a mite closer stayed until six, or just before sunset, as that ball of fire would be right in our eyes. It sank behind the caprock between Snyder and Gail.

By the way, we are willing to try most anything once, and we found a new way to go to Snyder, save about 12 or 15 miles in distance, and with little traffic. We have been eying a road out west of Gail some six or seven miles, with a sign pointing north, saying O'Donnell. It is paved at that point, and the weather being dry we figured that if the pavement played out at the top of the caprock, the country roads would be well graded and fairly smooth. We knew the road from O'Donnell into Brownfield was paved. But it was paved past the top of the caprock. In fact it was paved right into O'Donnell, and of course, in home. When you come to Highway 87 at O'Donnell, just cross it and keep on west for several miles, then the FM road turns north to Wells, thence west again to Newmore; north about a mile and thence west again, coming into Lamesa highway 137, at Union, and you are then only about 11 miles from Brownfield.

But better watch your step at Wells and Newmore. We had passed through the two villages a few times, and were almost positive that Wells, where the highway comes into a road to Tahoka, was the easternmost town. Evidently some of the juveniles, to have some fun during Christmas, moved the Wells sign to Newmore and the Newmore sign to Wells. The highway department has never gotten around to straightening out the matter. And it is a bit confusing at night. In fact, we turned around and drove back to re-check. Found a sign at a church that said it was Wells. We fully expected to find a Union sign at Newmore and vice versa, but evidently the playboys didn't get too far over in Terry.

Anyway, via Lamesa, Snyder is exactly 100 miles according to the highway maps; via O'Donnell, we believe it a bit less than 90 miles, and a lot less traffic. Too dark to see much, but they evidently have a good farming country after you get up on the caprock in Borden County. All the south and east part of that county is almost solid ranch. So, if you are contemplating a trip to Snyder, to Abilene or Fort Worth and Dallas, why not try this new route and see some new country?

Didn't see any "antagoats" on this trip in old Borden. Some one must have killed them. But we had a nice trip and a nice time, visiting the other part of the family and helped celebrate Herman's birthday. By the way, four members of the family have birthdays this month, Herman's the 4th; Edith the 10th; and Mrs. Sr. and J. T. on the 14th, Valentine Day.

Harold Jones, formerly of Brownfield, and now of Odessa, spent the week end here visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jones.

Helps Deliver The Ex-Commie POWs To Formosa Recently

Marine Pfc. Omene Montano, husband of the former Miss Minnie Leal, of Brownfield, was among the security guards aboard one of the 15 ships taking 14,000 anti-Communist Chinese prisoners from Korea to Formosa.

Dubbed "Operation Comeback," the movement involved transporting Chinese non-patriated prisoners to the Chinese Nationalist island of Formosa, where they have been offered freedom and citizenship by Chiang Kai-Shek's government.

The Leathernecks, commanded by Lt. Col. Cecil D. Ferguson, of 908 Court St., Fulton, Mo., are all members of the 3d Battalion, 4th Regiment of the 3d Marine Division. They were assigned duties of escorting, protecting and insuring the safe delivery of the prisoners.

Accompanying the Marines were 18 Navy doctors and a four-man sanitation-control team, in addition to the regularly assigned battalion corpsmen.

All personnel, including staff non-commissioned officers, participated as riflemen, with no distinction given to specialists, such as cooks, clerks and communications men.

The refusal of more than 20,000 Communist troops to return to their Red-dominated country dealt a serious blow to Communist propagandists.

COST OF LIVING—

Do price supports for farm products add substantially to the cost of living, as some people have been saying?

Farm value of the cotton in a white shirt is less than nine percent of what you pay for the shirt. A one-pound loaf of bread sells for nearly six times what the farmer gets for the wheat in the bread. Even for so simple an item as corn meal, the farmer sells the corn for less than one-third the retail cost of the meal.

Cotton, wheat and corn are all under the farm price support program. If the price paid the farmer were cut in half, the retail cost of these products would be affected very slightly. But the farmer would be ruined.

FARM INCOME— Anybody familiar with the situation knows that farmers are not profiteering. That is true in Texas. It is true in the Nation.

In 1947, American farmers had a realized gross income of $34,002,000,000. Their total net income in that year was $11,600,000,000.

In 1953, gross income from agriculture was $35,100,000,000. But the farmers' NET income had dropped to $7,400,000,000.

Net income is what counts. With the total net farm income over four billion dollars less in 1953 than in 1947, certainly neither farmers nor the price support program can be blamed for the high cost to consumers of farm products.

TEXAS PROJECTS—

Included in the President's budget message was a request for the following appropriations for flood control projects in Texas: Belton Reservoir, 1,850,000; Dallas Floodway, $1,300,000; Fort Worth Floodway, 240,000; Texarkana Reservoir, $4,000,000. Also requested was an appropriation of $500,000 for the Port Aransas - Corpus Christi Waterway Project.

HOME LOAN BANKS— Texas building and loan association managers are protesting a proposal that the Federal Home Loan Bank System be put under the charge of the Housing and Home Finance Administrator.

They say such a move—which would require congressional action—would jeopardize the efficient management of the Federal Home Loan Bank System under the direction of its board. They make the further point that ownership of the Federal Home Loan Banks by some 6,000 associations throughout the United States is in line with the American system of private enterprise.

AGREEMENT—

If you find 100 men in complete agreement—you can bet your bottom dollar 99 of them are doing the agreeing and one is doing the thinking.

1954 MAID OF COTTON

The 1954 Maid of Cotton, blue-eyed Beverly Pack of El Paso, Texas, looks forward with anticipation to the beginning of her 65,000 mile international cotton goodwill and fashion tour early in February. The pretty Texan will visit more than 40 cities in the United States, England, France, Germany, and Canada in behalf of the U. S. cotton industry.

We thank Mrs. S. H. Parks, city, for her renewal recently. Many of the old readers are coming in to hike their time while the price is low. When that big rain comes this spring—we'll go back to the old rate. And this is the year we have set for the long drought to be broken with a big bang.

Stricklin Speaking

By OLD HE

"Sez We," Morris in his Plainsman up Ropesville way, sashayed off down below the cap recently, visiting the little city of Jayton where perhaps he got his first whiff of printer's ink, and has stayed hitched ever since. And the things he wrote, especially his visit to the cemetery, 'mos' moved us to tears.

But what puzzled us most is that Jayton, being but a little more than 100 miles from Ropes, down just under the cap, why he had not visited there in former years? Did he pull some stunt and was afraid to return? Why we have visited our childhood home any number of times and it is 70 miles east of Old Man River. Did they run Morris out of old Kent? Let us have your version, Nyles.

An editorial in the Evening Journal up at Lubbock, about the fortress of Gibraltar at the east entrance of the Mediterranean, from the Atlantic Ocean, reminds us that a lot of changes are being made around here. As the Journal suggested, one big insurance company used to advertise itself as being "strong as Gibraltar," but of late years they have laid off.

These days with heavy artillery and jet planes, not to mention the A and H bombs, Gibraltar could be torn up like a "sow's bed." Nothing much those mighty bombers wouldn't tear up.

Then we find that old England, the owner of Gibraltar, as well as France and other nations who hold colonies over the globe, are having one bad headache after another. England has lost India, and things are bad in Iran and Suez, and as for France, things are discouraging in Indo-China. People all over the world are hearing about freedom, and that's what they want, not only personally, but their country as well. South Africa also seems to be in a stew.

We are glad that our nation has never gone in much for colonies, and is getting rid of some we have, one way or another, such for instance as the Philippines.

Before us we have a warning notice from Texas Forest Service, you birds just have until the 28th of this month to get your tree seedlings to put out for windbreaks. The planting season for this area lasts through March. The seedlings include Austrian pine, cottonwood, loblolly pine, short-leaf pine, mulberry, bois d'arc, western yellow pine, honey locust, red cedar, cymocore, chinese elm, and russian olive.

In order to keep abreast of other Quiz Programs, the Postoffice department is now sending out questionnaire on various things. The last one was, "should the PO department be self supporting?" The answers were, ought to be, 78 per cent; OK as is, 14 per cent. Other answers and no opinion accounted for 8 per cent.

Fact is, most of us have been aware for a long time that the postoffice was doing things much cheaper than individuals. They'll sell you 100 envelopes with 3c stamps for about $3.52. Or they'll sell you 100 postcards for two bucks and throw in the cards, then transport them to Boston or San Francisco, or where to brother?

And we printers found out many years ago, that unless our printers worked for free, we could not meet government printing office competition on a bet. So far as we know, the postoffice department has always had to have appropriations to keep going, and carry stuff cheaper than the express companies. So does the Ag. Dept. and many other departments at Washington.

What has become of that bunch of guys back in the fall of 1952, who were squealing that HST was justified in vetoing the tidelands bill, restoring them to the several states, to which they had always belonged. Those birds were saying the tidelands would never be worth a whoop to Texas, and if they were the "BIG" oil companies would gobble them up.

Since the State has recently leased these oil lands for some $32 million dollars, with a yearly rental in addition, we have not heard a squawk from the dealers. Maybe Uncle Harry wanted Texas to whack up with the Missouri school kids? These tidelands were won with guns at the battle of San Jacinto, and if they are worth nothing but the brine in the water and sailfish, they are ours. Let's keep what we inherited.

Well, some of the doctors at least have just about decided that, after all, cancer is not caused by smoking cigars. So, let the weed addicts light up again and smoke! smoke! puff! puff! puff!

Down in old Duval, Jim Wells, and several adjoining baliwicks, a few white men control a vast population of Latins. So there is a dictatorship just as surely as they have them at Moscow and other European and Asiatic countries.

If the State and Federal governments fail or refuse to do something to curb that mess, it will gradually spread to other countries in that area, and finally, perhaps, get out of hand.

It will be remembered that "Duke" Parr was given a pen sentence a few years ago for his overhanded methods, but Little Harry Truman pardoned him. Perhaps reminded Harry a lot of the mess up there in KC that the Pendergrass bunch instigated. They helped a lot of the boys to get higher places in government, including a US Senatorial seat for Truman.

Funny, yes very funny. Thought that new pharmacist over at the Nelson place was very insistent that we take one of their almanacs. Even handed it to us. But after we had time to look at the thing, and try to figure what the weather would be come Feb. 31, we found the catch. It was in Spanish. Couldn't even read about their medicines, except there was a heck of a lot about Gaudaloupe—whatever that is.

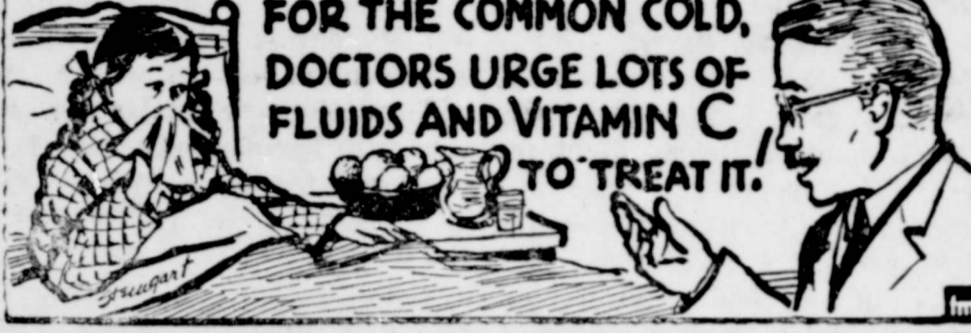

Presently our favorite columnist is over in Australia, and gathering from his expounding, the Hon. Bob Ruark has or had an idea when he first landed that the Aussies had changed up some since he was there during War II. At that time he thought they were as British as Londonderry. But he coming more like we United States, and were more on their road as freedmen from the British

I. V. PENDERGRASS OF MEADOW, DIES FRIDAY, FEB. 5TH

Funeral services for I. V. Pendergrass, 74, retired Meadow farmer, who died at 3 p.m., Friday in the local hospital, following a long illness, were conducted at 2:30 p.m., Saturday at Meadow Baptist Church, with the Rev. Matthew Doyle officiating, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Scott, pastor.

Pendergrass came to Terry County from Altus, Okla., in 1929. He was a member of the Meadow Baptist Church and the Meadow Masonic Lodge.

Interment was in Meadow Cemetery, under direction of the Brownfield Funeral Home. Masonic graveside rites were conducted.

Survivors include his wife, three sons, Carl of Meadow; J. D. of Plainview, and Elwood of Brownfield; five daughters, Mrs. Houston Hamilton and Mrs. J. W. Moore, of Brownfield; Mrs. A. W. Dechert, of Fort Worth; Mrs. M. A. Timmons, of Meadow; and Mrs. H. D. Dupree, of Fort Worth.

Always along about this time of year, we are not surprised when Mrs. R. M. Kendrick drops in to renew for two papers, one to her brother, W. P. (Bill) Cunningham, down at Utopia in southwest Texas. The other is for her sister, Mrs. John Scudday down at Forsan in old Howard County. Both were practically reared in Terry, and still like to hear from the old home county.

Mrs. Sam E. Whitener, of Ropesville, was a Tuesday shopper here.

But since he landed, so has the Queen and her consort from old Lunnun, and so anxious were the people to see "her highness" that one woman "clumb" a telephone pole, fell and was injured. Wonder what Robert now thinks after seeing that mad scramble at Sydney?

Thomas Seburn Reed

Thomas Seburn Reed was born Oct. 4, 1894, in Eastland County, Texas, and died Feb. 1, 1954, in Brownfield, Texas. He was 59 years, 4 months and 26 days old.

He moved to Lynn County in 1923, and married Miss Jewell Bartley, Dec. 24, 1926. To this union was born one son, Jackie, who died at birth; and four daughters: Mrs. Marianne Minshew of Brownfield; Mrs. Jeanie White of Tahoka; Mrs. Lula B. Carpenter of Tahoka, and Winona Reed of Brownfield. Other survivors include two grandsons and two granddaughters, two brothers, Rev. O. T. Reed of Amarillo, Rev. O. N. Reed of Great Bend, Kansas, and one sister, Mrs. J. F. Stuart of Tahoka; two nephews, and two nieces.

A veteran of World War I, "Tom," as he was called by all who knew him, was a member of the Tahoka Police Force three years before moving to Brownfield, Sept. 21, 1951, when he became a member of the police force here. He was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church in Brownfield.

A happy go lucky type of person, he had a smile and friendly greeting for everyone he met.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our most sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends who have been so kind during our recent period of bereavement. We particularly want to thank the doctors and nurses for their kind attention and care to our husband and father. The flowers, cars, and food made life much brighter, and we do thank you.

SCIENCE and your Health

OVERDUE BABIES by Science Features

Expectant mothers often worry when the baby is not born on the date predicted by the family doctor. Is the baby getting too large for a normal delivery? Will labor be more severe? Is there something wrong with the baby?

The answer to all these questions is no, according to a survey conducted by Dr. Robert E. Lartz of the Sharon, Pa., General Hospital. Dr. Lartz studied 71 overdue babies several of which were as much as 45 days late in arriving. Here is what he found:

Only nine of the overdue babies were considered to be large (weighing nine pounds or more). All but two of these were delivered spontaneously. The rest were "normal" in every sense of the word.

Dr. Lartz concludes that post-maturity—an overdue baby—is not a dangerous complication, does not produce excessively large babies, does not lead to an increase in the average length of labor, and is not an indication for a Caesarean section.

So it seems that the best thing an expectant mother can do when her child is late in arriving is to wait with confidence and as much patience as she can muster.

FTB Approves Raise In Pay For School Teachers

Texas Farm Bureau President J. Walter Hammond, has announced that the state farm organization favors a pay raise for teachers to be financed by a natural resources tax, but will oppose any efforts to raise revenue by changing the principles of the Gilmer-Aiken Law.

A controversial bill to raise the teachers' pay will be acted upon at a special session of the Legislature in Austin in mid-March.

The TFB Board of Directors, meeting Jan. 27 in Waco, interpreted resolutions of the organization as favoring an adequate pay raise to attract and hold more qualified teachers in the profession. This policy was adopted by the TFB convention delegates in November in Mineral Wells.

Hammond stated that the Texas Farm Bureau will oppose any efforts to raise revenue for the pay raise if it means an increase in the local district's share of the Gilmer-Aiken Minimum Foundation Fund. Local districts' share of the Fund is now set at $45 million, with each district contributing according to its ability to pay, as determined by the state economic index.

Last year in Austin, the TFB vigorously fought and helped defeat legislation which would have hiked the district's share of the fund by forcing local districts to share Gilmer-Aiken costs with the state on a 20-80 basis, with districts paying the 20 per cent. This, in effect, would give future Legislatures the power to increase local school taxes without permission of the people in the districts.

Uncle Billie And Texas Newspaper Women

REMEMBER WHEN?—80-year-old W. W. (Uncle Billie) Aiken, publisher of the Crockett Courier for the past 56 years, can remember Texas Press Association conventions as far back as 1891. But he didn't attend the one at Corsicana and have his picture made—like the old-timers in the gold-enframed photo above. Calling to other TPAers to "come look"—during a recent TPA meeting in Austin, were (left to right) Uncle Billie; Mrs. L. B. Smith, wife of the publisher of the Brady Standard; Mrs. Arthur H. Kowert, wife of the president of TPA, who publishes the Fredericksburg Standard; and Mrs. Roy M. Craig, whose husband is publisher of the Stamford American. Historical photos of members of the press will be featured in the Diamond Anniversary issue of The Texas Press Messenger in June.

1891 TPA Picture Stirs Memories Of Pioneer Texas Newspapermen

A far cry from the clean-shaven, sports-collared newspapermen of today were those gentlemen of the press of 1891.

Their pictures, enframed in antique gold, were on display at the 1954 Mid-Winter meeting of the Texas Press Association held recently in Austin.

The picture was the first reminder of the TPA Diamond Anniversary observance to be celebrated this year. It will be highlighted by a 75th birthday convention in Fort Worth, June 18-19, and by a Diamond Anniversary edition of The Texas Press Messenger the same month.

Bearded and bow-tied, high-collared and sometimes mustache-waxed were the press pioneers who attended that TPA convention in Corsicana May 12, 1891.

The interesting picture, arranged in an oval shape, showed some 80 old-time newspaper editors and publishers. In the center was a larger picture of their president, Juan S. Hart.

Hart, who retired later to enter, very successfully, the mining business, was a gifted public speaker and long-time owner of The El Paso Times.

Elected to succeed him at the 1891 convention was J. F. Mitchell, known as one of the ablest writers in the state at that time and publisher of The Greenville Banner, one of the best weeklies of the day. The Banner now is published as a daily by the Houston Harte interests.

Mitchell was strong for the editorial page, which, in those days, resounded of crusades and fine writing. If there was too much matter for his newspaper, he would leave out the leading news item of the week rather than an editorial paragraph. Mitchell died in 1901.

Texas Press Association members were in session for the twelfth time at the 1891 convention. During the business meeting, a committee was appointed to memorialize the legislature in behalf of a movement to have the state purchase the San Jacinto battleground and make it a state park. On the committee were such distinguished old-time press members as Judge A. B. Norton, Dallas Intelligencer; W. A. Fife, Hillbora Reflector; R. M. Johnston, Houston Post; A. C. Scurlock, Cleburne Chronicle.

Newspapers represented at the convention and still published today were El Paso Times, edited by J. S. Hart; Greenville Banner, J. F. Mitchell; Huntsville Item, F. B. Robinson; Galveston News, H. Stewart; Rockwall Success, H. W. Manson; Gatesville Star, J. D. Nall; Hallettsville New Era, William Blakeslee; Carrizo Springs Journal, F. M. McClell; Carlsbad Watchman, T. E. Boren; Center Champion, R. S. Brayley; Marshall Messenger, W. A. Adair; Dallas News, George M. Bailey; Jova Park Texan, D. C. Kolb; Palo Pinto Star, J. C. Son; Baird Star, W. E. Gilliland; Austin Statesman, C. A. Edwards; Alvarado Bulletin, F. B. Billio; McKinney Democrat, F. C. Thompson; Dangerfield News, J. F. Robinson; Jacksonville Banner, J. E. McFarland; San Antonio Light, T. B. Johnson.

Just as today, many of the Texas publishers brought their families with them to the TPA meeting. In the 1891 picture were nine women and three children. Many of the wives helped their husbands, even then, on the small-town newspapers. Thirty three women are owner-publishers in their sole right in Texas today, and many more help their husbands in printing offices.

Excursion Taken

It was common practice in the old days of TPA conventions for the newspapermen to take an excursion during the meeting adjourned. They were known to travel as far as California, Mexico City, St. Louis, New Orleans, New Jersey, Denver, and Chicago on special trains.

In 1891 the group of bearded editors took a short trip only, traveling from Corsicana to San Antonio, as guests of the citizenry. From there they visited Rockport and Aransas Harbor, upon special invitation of Governor T. B. Wheeler.

Pleasure trips, such as these excursions, are not on the agendas of the TPA conventions today. Meetings are devoted to business discussions and educational speeches. Very few trips are made those which are taken are usually to industrial plants, military establishments, newspaper offices and educational institutions.

This year, for example, a tour was offered convention goers at the Mid-Winter meeting the day before the convention officially convened. Members were escorted through the new plant of the Austin American-Statesman.

Speakers at the 1954 convention were such outstanding men as Palmer Hoyt, publisher of The Denver Post; Attorney General John Ben Shepperd; and Dr. George S. Benson, president of Harding College at Searcy, Ark.

Presiding over the sessions were TPA President Arthur H. Kowert, publisher of the Fredericksburg Standard, and Vice-President W. R. Beaumier, general manager of the Lufkin Daily News. More than a dozen other Texas newspapermen took an active part in the one-day program held in Austin in January of this year.

Mrs. O. P. Williams and daughter, Reta Kay, of Seagraves, were shopping, Monday, in Brownfield.

Widening Process On 380 Now Underway

County Judge Herbert Chesshir was a visitor in the Herald office early this week and remarked that the work on widening Highway 380 from the city limits 12 miles west had been started. The first thing, of course, will be the widening of the bed, making more shoulders; and the last step, when the weather gets warmer, re-topping and making the paving some five feet wider, and the shoulders some 15 feet wider. In fact as we understand it, the shoulders will be made wide enough for a three or four-lane highway.

By the time that the work is complete on the highway west, perhaps everything will be ready to make No. 62 to Lubbock, into a four-lane highway. They are being held up by some folks in town with a high price on their property, and he indicated that condemnation proceedings might have to be resorted to.

He stated that they had made it OK with the oil mill people, and they would move back to provide all the right-of-way across their property.

NO MORE DEBT, PLEASE!

The American taxpayers are being told by the Administration's budget-makers in Washington that government expenses cannot be cut to the estimated $62.6-billion which the Federal government will receive in taxes for the 1954-55 fiscal year. Therefore another year of operating on borrowed money is proposed. This means lifting the national debt above the $275-billion statutory limit, inflating the currency, and again making the taxpayers pay interest on borrowed money to operate the government. It means other things—none of them pleasant to think about.

By requesting a spending program of $63.6-billion for 1955, the Administration is telling the taxpayers, in a sense, that 2,365,000 people must be kept on the Federal payroll, that comparatively few of the 1,680,000 Americans serving in the armed services overseas can be cut off the multi-billion-dollar pay roll and maintenance budget, and that we must continue to spend $5.4-billion a year in "military and economic" aid money to foreign governments.

Heavy Cuts Expected

When war seems less likely than at any time in recent years, there seems little justification for declaring that our government can't operate on $62,642,000,000, especially when there are so many places where common sense economy would save billions. It is my conviction that the American people expected some drastic cutting of governmental expenses by the new Administration. The campaign promises were for drastic cutting.

Just a few months before his untimely death, I sat with Senator Robert Taft in his office in the Senate Office Building. He had become the Administration's wheel horse. "Our first job," Senator Taft said to me, "is to balance the budget. After I conferred with General Eisenhower in New York early in the campaign, my statement promised a balanced budget for 1953-54, and further reductions in expenditures of $10-billion, to a total of a $60-billion budget, in the fiscal year, 1955." That was the program of the Administration. Yet the 1953-54 budget was $3.3-billion out of balance; and the proposed 1954-55 budget calls for approximately $3-billion of deficit spending.

Up To Congress

The job for Congress is to whittle about $3-billion of the $65.6-billion expenditures recommended in the President's budget message. Would that be so difficult? Not if hard-headed common sense is applied and petty political expediency is ignored. The vast majority of the American people want the Federal government's expenses drastically cut; they want their tax bill cut; and they want the budget balanced—now. Any political pressure sidetracking these sound objectives is not important, in my opinion, to the political future of any present office holder.

Here are just a few places where some money can be saved: (1) cut 365,000 civilian government employees from the 2,365,000 pay roll. This would save approximately $2-billion. (2) reduce by one-third the force of 1,680,000 American GIs overseas—in 49 foreign countries. This would save $6-billion (this overseas force is now costing us $18.4-billion). (3) cut $2.5-billion or $3-billion from the $5.4-billion requested for "military and economic" aid to foreign governments.

Reduce Pay Roll

These cuts would total $10.5-billion—and only $2.9-billion in cuts are needed to balance the budget. Probably the healthiest of all these cuts would be in the pruning of the Federal pay roll. Of the approximately 60-million Americans now employed, 4 percent, or about 1 out of every 25, are on the Federal payroll. Our American system would be more vital and our economy healthier if this were cut to 1 Federal employee to every 50 employees in private enterprise.

The present Administration has not really begun to carry out the expectations of the American public until the Federal pay roll is cut below 2,000,000 civilian employees. And the time to cut is now! However, it is apparent that such a reduction won't be made unless citizens, in the tens of thousands, demand it of their representatives in Congress. We need to keep the statutory ceiling on the national debt where it is, and perhaps fix a peace-time ceiling for the Federal pay roll—at about 1,500,000 civilian employees.

ST. ANTHONY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH, located one mile north of Brownfield. The Paulist Fathers of Lubbock were the first priests to attend the Catholic Community in Brownfield. In 1946 the first Mass was celebrated in the American Legion Hall by Rev. Father Walshe, who later was replaced by Frs. Conlon and Powers, also Paulists. The Legion Hall was used for all Catholic Services from 1946 to 1949. In 1949 an Army barracks was moved to Brownfield and was remodeled to suit the needs of a church. This building is still being used. As the Catholic community in Brownfield showed a steady growth it was found necessary, in 1951, to establish a resident priest. The Rev. George Buckley, S. A. C. of the Pallottine Fathers was the first to take up residence. For six months he resided in a local motel while the present rectory at 1008 East Hester was in the course of construction. In June of the same year, the Rev. Michael Martin, S. A. C., was appointed pastor, and he remained in that office until August, 1953, when the Rev. Thomas O'Reilly, S. A. C., the present pastor, was appointed. Fr. O'Reilly was born in Belfast, Ireland, and studied for the priesthood in the Pallottine College, County Tipperary, Ireland. He was ordained in 1939 and proceeded immediately to the South American Missions, where he worked for almost twelve years in Buenos Aires, Argentina. In 1951, he came to the USA and worked in Reno, Nevada, for two years, up until the time he arrived in Brownfield, August 7, 1953. The Catholic community of Brownfield numbers about 600. A Church for the American Catholic community is planned for erection within the next couple of years. When that happy day arrives, the present Church will be used solely for Mexicans. (Staff Photo).

NSLI DIVIDEND COVERS ALL TYPES OF POLICIES

The NSLI dividend covers all types of policies, and will have the same formula for computing as for 1952 and 1953 payments. Holders of term policies who are less than 40 years old, which includes the bulk of WW2 vets—will get 50 cents a month for each $1,000 of insurance for each month the policy has been in force during the year ending on the 1954 anniversary date. Rate of payment to veterans above 40 varies according to age. Top check to holders of the full permitted sum of $10,000 will be $60. Policies must have been in force three months or longer, except for vets on active duty during the Korean hostilities, who have now returned to civil life. Vets who filed requests for payment of their 1952 or 1953 dividends in cash need not file new requests. Unless request for cash payment is on record the amount due is credited to the account of the policy holder. Vets who wish to change payments election may do so by writing their VA District Insurance Office, 1114 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas.

MUSTERING-OUT PAY FOR KOREA VETERANS

Deadline is crawling up—July 17, 1954—for Korea veterans who have not applied for their mustering-out pay, ranging from $100 to $300. This applies to servicemen who were discharged under honorable conditions between June 27, 1950, and mid-July, 1952. Men separated since mid-July received the mustering-out pay on discharge. Rate fixed under Korea GI Bill is $100 if serviceman had less than 60 days active duty between July 27, 1950 and mid-July 1952; $200 if he had more than 60 days service and no foreign duty; $300 if he had more than 60 days service and served outside the United States. Benefit must be applied for before July 17, 1954. No printed form is required. A letter on ordinary sized letter paper is sufficient. Be sure to give the name under which you served and present address, printed or typed, service number, statement that you were not released to accept employment; statement that you are not now serving on active duty, and that you have not received mustering-out pay, and that you have not and will not make any other application for this pay for service after June 26, 1950; statement as to foreign service and date of return to US; and your signature, plainly written. With the letter, enclose the original of your "Report of Separation" (DD Form 214). For Army, mail to Finance Center, US Army, St. Louis 20, Missouri, Attention MOP Branch. For Air Force vets, mail to Air Force Finance Center, Denver, Colo. For Marines, Commandant of the Marine Corps, (CDD), Washington 25, D. C. For Navy, Field Branch, US Navy, Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Cleveland 14, Ohio. For Coast Guard, Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington 25, D. C.

COMPENSATION CUTS NOT DUE TO FUND LACK

Many veterans say they have been informed that reductions of their disability compensation or pensions were due to reduced appropriations for VA. In a letter to all Regional Offices, VA states that Congress has indicated that sufficient funds will be available to meet all compensation and pension claims payable under existing law. VA has not any authority to either deny or reduce compensation or pension to which a veteran is entitled by law. Tightened ratings and readjustments in former ratings may reduce payments—but the law fixes the rate of payment for the degree of disability found, for which funds are provided.

Had a remittance from Mrs. Mayme Peebler up there at Omaha, Nebraska, to carry her Herald another year. During the fall she slipped off down to Big Dallas, and had her paper changed to that address temporarily. Back in Omaha, presently. She owns the Peebler building on the north side of the square, here.

W. E. Brantley, one of the old timers, dropped in from Route 2, recently and upped his Herald two years. Didn't say whether he thought it would rain this year or not.

Ross Motor Company Gets Safety Award

The Ross Motor Co. of Brownfield, has received a Highway Safety Award in recognition of the part the firm is playing in the current school year by lending an automobile for high school driver training purposes.

The award was made by the Texas Automotive Dealers Association, the State organization of factory authorized new car dealers.

Loan of the training car was to Brownfield High School in a program that each year is helping to turn out a constantly increasing number of high school students who are thoroughly versed in all phases of safe and courteous driving.

Cleaning of traction motor cores for General Motors Diesel locomotives—formerly done by hand in about 14 hours—is now done in one hour with ground up apricot pits in a special device. It's called the "wheelabrator," designed especially for Electro-Motive Division of General Motors.

Representatives of General Motors dealers in the United States and Canada meet regularly with top GM executives to discuss ideas on how to serve the customers better. These "dealer councils" were started in 1934. Cities of various sizes are represented.

"Behind the Scenes in American Business"

New York—The American Management Association met here last week and conferred on ways to maintain or increase sales in a softening market. The conferees were mostly executives of big companies, but their ideas can be used by large and small employers.

Prescription No. 1: Make everyone from the sweeper to the top executive conscious that ultimately he is working for the consumer. In-plant displays, house organ articles on individual users of the plant's product, and guest appearances of customers at company gatherings are useful in this regard.

Prescription No. 2: Recognize salesmen's efforts. Above and beyond their commissions, said the delegates, the salesman needs to know how his product fits into the whole economy, what real benefits his product confers on each buyer, and what his company is doing outside his immediate field. So keenly does big Union Carbide feel about having its salesmen learn from customers or competitors what's cooking, that it telephones hot news to salesmen before releasing it to newspapers.

Prescription No. 3: Get price and quality back into line. The customer is enjoying the return of the privilege of picking and choosing. Unless the price fits into

Graham Smith Writes Commendable Article

National recognition in his field of business was accorded W. Graham Smith this week through the publication of an article by him in the leading trade journal in the field of life insurance.

Mr. Smith, Brownfield, wrote under the title of "Eight-Step Dependency Period Income Presentation." The article tells, step by step, the author's dependency period income sales presentation.

The publication in which Mr. Smith's article appeared, The Insurance Salesman, has the largest Audit Bureau of Circulations paid subscription list in the life insurance field and one of the largest among trade journals in any field. Articles published by it are prepared by life insurance men considered to have more than an average knowledge of the business.

According to Mr. Smith, his article was written as a result of an inquiry of the publisher to his home office in Dallas, Texas. The inquiry was a request that company officials suggest one of their men with an especial knowledge of the subject who might be able to prepare such an article. Mr. Smith was designated.

Mr. Smith has represented Southwestern Life since 1939 except for four and a half years in the Infantry during World War II. He is a member of this company's Top Club.

Kaiserslautern, Germany—Army Pvt. Bobbie D. May, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. May, Route 2, Brownfield, Texas, recently arrived in Germany for duty with the 27th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion at Kaiserslautern.

He is a truck driver in the battalion, part of the air-ground defense for the Rhine Engineer Depot and other installations in the Western Area Command.

INTER-CITY TRANSPORT SERVICE—R. V. Walker, 215 East Ripley, has started an inter-city transport service in this city. He does local hauling and makes car unloading a specialty. Mr. Walker has had considerable experience in the transport business, having worked 31 years as a railway station agent and railroad telegraph operator. Besides being an experienced Morse operator, he also used the Continental Code during World War I, when he served overseas with the 303 Field Signal Battalion. Mr. and Mrs. Walker moved here in 1943 from Seagraves. He owns and operates the R. L. Walker Clay Co., formerly the Tri-County Clay Co. (Staff Photo.)

NOT AN OIL WELL FOR OLD TERRY OR YOAKUM COs.

Neither Terry or Yoakum counties got a single, tetry oil well last week. However, the drillers are testing out a Wolfcamp strata in the Ida May location in east central Yoakum. And it appears that the operators will likely make some kind of a well out of it. But unauthorized guys like us would be just guessing. Oil has been found at the Wolfcamp depth, between 8,000 and 9,000 feet. Contract depth of the well was 12,000.

The two new Terry County locations are both in the Prentice field, the first being Honolulu No. 8, Ella Covington in section 21, block D-14. Rotary tools to 6,100 feet. The other is the Honolulu et al No. 13-B, F. M. Ellington, section 19, block K, rotary to 6,000. Both wells are to be started at once.

The Yoakum County new location is a wildcat, being the Cox No. 1, J. L. Gammon, section 675, block D. Location is 8 miles south-east of Plains, and is to be carried to 5,300 feet at once, rotary tools.

B'FIELD BAPTIST ASSN. TO CONDUCT WORKERS CONFERENCE, FEB. 18

A workers conference of the Brownfield Baptist Association, having as its theme, "Revivals," will be held Feb. 18, at the Mexican Baptist Church, Brownfield.

The conference will open with a board meeting at 6 p.m. and the Rev. Alvin Hamm, Wellman, will speak on simultaneous revivals, to be held March 28 through April 14. The Rev. F. M. Wiley, Tokio, will discuss, "Do We Need a Revival?" at 8:10 p.m., followed by the Rev. Hubert Austin, Brownfield, speaking on "How to Prepare for Revivals."

Following the recognition of churches and special music by the Mexican Mission Church, the Rev. A. L. Nipp, Gomez, will deliver the evangelistic message. The conference will adjourn at 9 p.m.

Then there was Uncle Jack Blankenship in this week. That old timer of Lynn, Yoakum and now Terry, was a pretty sick man for awhile, and it looked like it would be hard for him to make a comeback. But while he looked a bit drawn and peaked, he could still haul off and pull an imitation of one of his old ha! ha-ha's!

School days usher in football and book learning in that order.

Society in most small towns is a great show in itself.

What Your Business Men Are Doing . . .

We find that Charlie Price is getting the Western Auto Store in shipshape after the expansion of doubling their space at the corner of Broadway and Fifth. You can't realize what more room for displays can do for a store. And you will note they are celebrating their 4th anniversary this week.

Then there is the new location of Farm & Home Appliance at Tate and Fifth. By moving a big portion of their large stock to this new and much larger location from the south side of the square, Mr. Walker and his personnel have had a better chance to show their appliances to better advantage.

We noted in an ad recently that Fenton & Thompson, who have moved a branch of their shoe store to Brownfield from Snyder, recently, were advertising W. L. Douglas Shoes. Reminded us that when a much younger man, and working on a farm in Johnson County, we saw an ad of Douglas Shoes made up in Boston.

It seems that the W. L. Douglas Co. started as a mail order firm. At last we ordered a pair, and they proved to be very good fitting and long wearing shoes. Since then, they have turned to local dealers to handle their footwear.

We are glad to note also that the Loudermilk Cleaners are back in their old stand, after their disastrous fire last month. We surely hope Mr. Loudermilk and his crew have better luck from this on.

Then there is Mrs. Buck Address better known to lots of people as "Beulah Mae," has doubled her beauty shop space on the east side of the square, and also moved her physical therapy shop into this enlarged building. This news, of course, is for the ladies.

LOCAL DAIRIES MEET "A" REQUIREMENTS

The South Plains Health Unit announces that the following dairies and creameries are meeting the Grade "A" requirement of the Standard Milk Ordinance in the city of Brownfield: Bell Creameries, Borden Company, Tennessee Dairies, and Foremost Dairies.

Wayland Whisenant, of Fresno, Calif., and Junior Whisenant, of Socorro, N. M., visited during this week with their sister, Mrs. Homer Winston, 601 East Reppito, and with other relatives.

Gomez HD Club Meets With Mrs. R. D. Jones

The Gomez Home Demonstration Club met recently in the home of Mrs. R. D. Jones, Sr., 704 East Reppito, with Mrs. Jones, president, in charge of the business session at which Mrs. Alfred Tittle was appointed program chairman for the year.

During the business meeting the club voted to accept the HD Council's Finance and Education Committee recommendations, a contribution was made to the March of Dimes, and Mrs. Tyler Martin, council delegate, gave a report of the last council meeting.

"How to Alter a Pattern" was demonstrated and discussed by Miss Mildred Cox, Home Demonstration Agent. The main points brought out were to be sure and get correct measurements, then check them with pattern, and if there are alterations to be made, make them in the pattern before cutting the material in order for the finished garment to fit correctly.

Mrs. Wes Key, recreation leader, was in charge of games. Refreshments of fruit cake, nuts, and coffee were served to ten members.

Next meeting of the club will be in the home of Mrs. Denver Kelly at 7:30 p.m., Thursday. "Cutting Plaids" will be the topic of the program. All women in the community have an invitation to attend any of the club meetings. The next meeting will be of particular help to those who have trouble cutting plaid materials.

Ag. Council Meet Held In Lamesa

Agriculture Workers Council met in Lamesa at 7 p.m., Feb. 9, with Lee Roy Colgan, Dawson County Agent, presenting a program on egg production.

Colgan explained that farmers must go into business commercially or stay completely out of it, and keep only enough hens to provide for the family. Care of hens is not easy and the change from cotton to chickens is rough, but "I do encourage farmers to do so," he said.

The agent explained that cage housing for hens would average $5.60 a bird to bring a hen into production. He listed the following advantages of cages, which are: Culling by production; will not eat each other; and worms and disease cannot spread easily. Some of the disadvantages he named are: More cost; droppings are a problem and cause flies. Colgan said a cage should be 24 feet wide and as long as can be afforded.

Attending from Terry County were K. D. Miller, Grady Elder, H. L. King, Vernon Townes, Jim Foy, R. N. McClain, Alvin Davis, Dennis Lilly, Leonard Coleman, Bob Land, Henry Williamson, Ves Hicks Thirty representatives were present from Dawson, Gaines, and Yoakum counties. Breakfast was served to all attending.

Atkinson Services Held In Tahoka

James Joseph Atkinson, 84, Tahoka retired farmer, died at his home at 8:20 a.m., Feb. 8. Mrs. Bertha King, of Welch, and Mrs. Notie French, of Brownfield, are his daughters.

Atkinson had been a resident of Lynn County since 1916, moving there from Mitchell County.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m., Wednesday, in the First Methodist Church of Tahoka, and burial was in the Tahoka Cemetery.

COUNTY SPELLING BEE TO BE HELD MARCH 25 AT JR. HI AUDITORIUM

The Terry County Spelling Bee will be conducted at 9:30 a.m., March 25, in the Brownfield Junior High Auditorium, said E. G. Brownlee, Terry County Superintendent, and Spelling Bee director. Each school in the county will send two students who have not passed the eighth grade, and are under 16 years of age to the county competition. Judges for the county Bee and their various schools are: Elmer Watson, Meadow; Mrs. Lauretta Williamson, Union; Thomas George, Wellman; and Miss La Rita Price, Brownfield.

A winner and alternate will be selected and the County representative will be eligible to enter the regional Avalanche-Journal Spelling Bee in O. L. Slaton Jr. High Auditorium, April 10, in Lubbock. Winner of the 14-county Avalanche Journal Bee will be the region's representative in the National Spelling Bee in Washington, D. C., and expenses of the trip will be paid by the Avalanche-Journal.

A new prize has been added to the list of prizes in the regional Bee. A Zenith Super Trans-Oceanic portable radio will be given to the first place regional winner. The radio is designed to make it possible for listeners to tune in on such far off places as South America, French Equatorial Africa, London, and even Moscow.

Prizes for the first place winner, in addition to the trip to Washington for Bee Week, May 17-22, and the newly announced radio prize are: A 25-volume set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica; and a rotating plaque to keep until the 1955 winner is chosen. In addition, the regional winner, along with each of the other county champions, will receive a plaque to become the permanent possession of the champions. The school of the regional winner will receive free use of one Britannica classroom teaching film each month for the next school year.

In addition, cash prizes will be given as follows: Second place, $20; third place, $15; fourth place, $10; fifth place, $5. Approximately 1,150 Spelling Bee books have been distributed thus far this year. Number preparing for the county Bees is unknown, since books distributed last year may be used again. They contain the same list of words as those this year.

Effort To Evaluate School Instruction

School administrators are taking the first step this week in a state-wide program designed to find out how effective public school instruction is in Texas today.

The President of the Texas Association of School Administrators, Superintendent Frank Monroe, of Midland, announced in Austin last week that he is expecting the voluntary participation of virtually every Texas public school in the state-wide TASA-sponsored "Appraisal of Instructional Programs" project.

Work on the evaluation began at Uvalde the 2nd, where school administrators from 15 counties attended a workshop led by M. B. Morris, Uvalde Superintendent of Schools. The list of cities in which other regional workshops are scheduled, with the names of superintendents who will serve as Workshop Chairmen, is announced by Monroe.

Supt. O. R. Douglas of the local schools, made inspection of the Lamesa schools, Saturday, Jan. 30. The Herald will carry a bit more about this work in future editions of the paper.

Sonny Feed And Supply Had A Great Day Last Saturday

The Sonny Feed and Supply had a fine day last Saturday at their 7th anniversary celebration in Brownfield. Some 300 people called during the day to inspect their plant, and many to buy something needed, and since their business is perhaps 95 per cent with farmers, that is mighty good.

The entertainers were High Pockets from a Lubbock radio station, and the Holley Serenaders, of Levelland. All day suckers were given to the children, and Cokes to everyone. In fact they are very well pleased with the events of the day, and Sonny Whitley stated that he wished to thank everyone.

Those who received free chickens were R. S. Bearden, Rt. 5, 200; June Moore, Rt. 1, 100; and Junior Bridge, Rt. 4, 100.

Lions Talent Revue Slated Feb. 19—Entrants On TV

Lions Talent Review entrants performed before the Lions Club Wednesday at the weekly luncheon at Nick's Cafe.

Acrobats, tumblers, and dancers from the Junior High physical education department, under direction of Mrs. Vivian Forbes, were featured on the program.

Charter Members Honored
Charter members of the Lions Club were honored at the previous week's luncheon. They were George Neill, Rex Headstream, and A. L. Tittle. Two other members unable to attend are Ches Gore and W. W. Price.

Billy Higdon, trainer of the Lions-sponsored boxing team, was presented a Stetson hat at the program in appreciation for his work with the boys. Higdon is not a Lions member.

Other guests at the meeting included the boxing managers, DeWitt Stafford and Clyde Bond, Jr., and several of the fighters.

Review Feb. 19

Lions members have been hard at work for the past few weeks obtaining necessary talent for the review, which is scheduled at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Feb. 19, at the high school auditorium. Team captains, Cliff Jones and Vernon Townes, and their men have been "neck and neck" in selling tickets.

All local businesses received window cards this week advertising the big event. Many talented performers have signed up and will appear on the program and everyone who enjoys lots of music and entertainment is invited to attend.

Bob's Heating Moves To New Location

THE BIG GAS BOYS GET AWAY WITH THEIR "STEAL"

Just as we expected, the US (packed) Supreme Court says the big gas boys that gather a natural resource of the State of Texas, don't have to pay any tax. They can send this gas across the world, if they wish, and get a big take from the people of Pennsylvania or Calliorgowash. In the meantime we little runts have to pay taxes and like it, or our britches are taken off us.

We read not long ago, where up in Illinois, Michigan, and perhaps other states, they are opening old abandoned mines and gas fields and storing gas from Texas and other southwestern states in these old mines, etc. They use but a small per cent of the gas taken from this section, storing the balance for future use.

One of these good days, Texas, and other natural gas producing states will find that they no longer have any natural gas under the ground, and we'll burn corncobs, maize heads, or what have you, to keep warm. Back east, they will open the old mines and gas reservoirs, and they'll be using our gas long after we forget how it burns—unless we make a trip up there.

To say the least, the idea kinder makes us fighting mad. And most of the owners of this natural gas that's being piped to other states, is owned by mogul Texans, some of them down at Heavenly Houston. We happened to know that a Houston bunch own the Tennessee Gas Transmission Co.

Well, we might try getting rough on the boys awhile. If their lines happened to be cut just before they left Texas, or if some of the Rangers and a crew of plumbers just happened along and plugged the gas wells, it would be just too bad.

We don't know how you look at the matter, neighbor, but you have to ante up with taxes or else. What about this big natural gas grabbers?

INJURED IN AUTO-BUS COLLISION WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Floy Tankersley, of Brownfield, is a patient in Treadaway-Daniell hospital here, recuperating from injuries received in an auto-school bus collision which occurred Wednesday at 8:35 a.m., at the intersection of Reppro and "D" streets.

The 1953 Tudor Ford of which Mrs. Tankersley was the driver was going east on Reppro, local police officers said, when her car struck the side of a school bus driven by Ernest M. McBee. Approximately 40 children were passengers on the bus, but no injuries were reported from the accident except for the driver of the car, who received two fractured ribs. According to hospital attendants, Mrs. Tankersley will be a patient there for several days.

Stell Reports a Very Good Day, Saturday

As you know, Saturday was the formal opening day at the Stell General Store, and to say the least Susie and Albert Stell are mighty well pleased with the number who called that day, and their good day. The writer called at the store late in the afternoon and there was still a good lot of cars parked there.

We were told by a nempyee that the day went off fine, and that they were well pleased with the day. We failed to learn the names of the prize winners at the drawing at 7 p.m.
