

Stricklinly Speaking

By OLD HE

Just to be contrary and different, the Canyon News has moved their masthead from the top of the mast, to the west central portion of the front page, where we have to hunt it to see if it is the Canyon News, the Post Dispatch, or Andrews County News, or some other paper of that size.

But why in heck must we look all over before reading the headlines each week? Move 'er to the top again, Snews.

It seems that the old battles of the un-Civil War was fought over again last Saturday on the campus of the Southern Methodist University, when two fraternities, one dressed as Damsyankees and the other as Johnny Rebs, met and one word brought on another.

From the pictures shown of the affair, it appeared that Generals Lee and Grant, as well as Lincoln and Jefferson Davis, the presidents, were mostly on the sidelines, while the lesser lights scuffled. Cooler heads finally got the fracas stopped.

In these days and times, it seems that everything has to be investigated by this or that committee up at Washington. One of the latest to undergo investigation happened to the so-called "comic" stuff that is presently so vividly read by the juveniles. Grownups, it seems, mostly go for the "Whodunit" stuff. Personally speaking, or should we say Stricklinly Speaking we don't like either.

And to be perfectly frank, we don't think half the stuff presently shown on TV is fit for children to see. It is killings, robberies, disruption of family life, and everything else that might set an example for juvenile delinquency. While not a TV fan, we have seen some that were thoroughly disgusting to us, to say the least.

Of late we have seen a lot of stuff printed about the rights and "privileges" of the Commies. And it seems that some apparently good people wish to apologize in a way, for the way the Commies hem and haw over answering a straight from the shoulder question. Let's illustrate:

Suppose you ask Joe Smith if he is a Democrat, and if so, he answers, "h—l, yes!" If you ask Bill Brown if he is a GOPer, and his answer gives no doubt of it, so he'll answer, "you know it!" But ask a guy if he is a Commie, and he'll spit and sputter, announce that he does not wish to incriminate himself, and appeals to the Fifth Amendment for refuge.

On the face of the frankness of the two persons candidly announcing they are Democrats or Republicans, without stuttering, what would you pronounce the guy that hesitates to state what he belongs to?

And while on the subject of Commies, we find there are a lot of weeping willow people who think McCarthy has been too hard on these people, who would without hesitation, destroy our national government, and turn it over to the slave drivers of Moscow. Undoubtedly many of the methods of McCarthy are unethical and a bit unparliamentary, but he has all the Commies and their sympathizers hating the ground he walks on.

However, we here and now admit that Mack would have been the last person we would have chosen to make an address at the foot of San Jacinto Monument on April 21, the 118th anniversary of the battle that freed Texas from the Mexican yoke. We have always felt that something should be said about Gen. Sam Houston and his brave men, and what the battle meant to Texas and the rest of the USA.

But, according to the sketchy newspaper reports we got, McCarthy very briefly touched on the battle and the patriotism of the defenders, and went all out to blast his enemies. And we wonder if Mr. Cullen was pleased with the McCarthy address?

Despite her usual complaints of "that hurting in her side," the wife of the Old He sort of felt herself

W. G. Smith Improves After Heart Attack; Wins Company Award

W. Graham Smith, who is reported improving at Taylor Hospital in Lubbock, from a heart attack suffered two weeks ago, and representative of Southwestern Life Insurance Company in Brownfield, has been notified by Company President James Ralph Wood that he has won one of the top awards granted annually by his company to members of the agency force.

Smith has been ordered by doctors to take a 3 month's rest, however, when he returns to Brownfield he will do some business at his home. H. L. Skinner, of Abilene, manager for the West Texas area, and Clifton Haynie, superintendent of the company at Lubbock, will assist Smith in looking after his business and will be in Brownfield about once a week.

Smith's 1953 record won for him an award for the production of quality business—so-called because it remains in force and renews from year to year. Only 30 such awards were made to agent of the company throughout Texas. Smith won a similar award for his 1952 record.

Mrs. Smith, who works at the County School Tax office, has been at her husband's side since he took ill, and will begin work again as soon as he is better. She has been spending the nights in Lubbock.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING OF REMODELED FIRST NATIONAL BANK

$20,847 Remodeling Of First Nat'l Bank To Begin June 1st

Contract for remodeling the exterior of the First National Bank, located at 421 West Main, was let April 15, for $20,847, to Duncan Construction Co., of Lubbock, at a call meeting of the bank directors. The fifty-foot frontage will be enhanced by 25 feet in Texas granite and the remainder plate glass. The entrance door will be of glass and will feature an 8-foot vestibule. The west side will be of cream shell stone with a strip of granite at the south end.

Makers of the granite have notified the bank officials that the material will arrive here about

June 1, therefore construction is expected to begin at that time.

Tucker and Lindburg, architects of Abilene, have handled designing of the building and their drawing appears elsewhere in this issue.

The interior of the building will be unchanged except for the addition of a new refrigerated air conditioner system, which was installed this week by Ballard Plumbing and Electric, replacing the old evaporation type unit.

REPORTS SHOW SHOW BANKS IN GOOD CONDITION

We have not checked with the banks, but in our opinion the statements of the two banks here, the Brownfield State Bank and Trust Co., and the First National Bank, will compare favorably with the statement for the first quarter of last year. Anyway, they show a very healthy condition, and we find they are looking after the needs of the community in a fine way.

Brownfield and Terry County are really proud of their banking institutions. Indeed, we find in our business dealings, that many people in adjoining counties make use of Brownfield banks in their banking needs. The following is the combined statements of the resources, deposits, loans and cash and exchange. But please go over their full statements elsewhere in this issue:

|----------------|-----------------|
| Resources | $14,442,111.05 |
| Deposits | 13,392,910.92 |
| Loans, disc. | 6,205,961.06 |
| Cash and exch. | 8,742,014.38 |

These statements are at the close of business, April 15. The Brownfield State Bank and Trust Co. will be celebrating its half century of business in Brownfield next year. The First National was organized August 9, 1919, and will be celebrating its 35th birthday this fall.

REGIONAL ORGANIZER FARM BUREAU SPEAKS AT COURTHOUSE TONITE

STORM WARNING SYSTEM SET UP IN BROWNFIELD

The Chamber of Commerce has set up a storm warning system for Brownfield, in order to give time for people to take cover in case a tornado is in the area.

Farmers and ranchers in the area are asked to call Brownfield Police, if a tornado is approaching. Police Chief Huston Hamilton will also receive advance warning by short wave radio from surrounding towns.

Fire Chief Enice Jones stated that a member of his department will blow the siren in one long continuous long blast to alert the town. Fires can be distinguished from storms by the length of time the siren is blown. The high and low sound is a fire but the continuous high sound is a storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Settle, 305 Lubbock Road, returned Sunday from Albuquerque, N. M., where they visited with their daughter, Mrs. Jack Thomas and family.

R. G. Arnold is a strong and powerful speaker. Rightfully he is a preacher—preaching Farm Bureau. We know he is a preacher because he loves fried chicken and lives in Alabama, said Kelton Miller of the Terry County Farm Bureau. "We in the Farm Bureau are happy to have Mr. Arnold with us. Any member who misses this man's speech will miss a lot of clean fun, for the Farm Bureau family," said Miller. The picture shown is your ticket for a good time. Relax this one evening and forget that TV show. Come to the Courthouse, Friday night at 7:30.

All members of the Terry County Farm Bureau and interested persons are invited to attend a county-wide meeting of the Bureau, tonight (Friday) at 7:30 o'clock at the district court room.

Main speaker of the evening will be Riley G. Arnold, of Auburn, Ala., field man and assistant organization director of the Southern Region of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Refreshments will be served and the event is to be for the entire family, according to E. H. Farrar, president of the Terry County Bureau. Good attendance of both local members and those from adjoining counties is expected.

Arnold has been in Farm Bureau organization work for more than 25 years. During the 1930's he helped organize the present Texas Farm Bureau and has traveled extensively over the State, speaking to Farm Bureau audiences.

The director's territory now covers 13 Southern States and Puerto Rico. When he began his organizational duties for Farm Bureau in the South, the entire southern region could boast of only about 25,000 members. Now the membership total is pressing toward the half-million mark.

We have been trying to figure just what effect the bunch of shmoos or shmoo that Lil Abner is exporting into Lower Slobovia are going to have on the natives. It seems that the idea down there, where ever that land of ice, combined with commie bosses is located, is to let the poletaires or its it polecats, starve; that only the bosses are supposed to eat. But it appears that the shmoos that Abner dropped out of his helicopter, are generating so fast, and making so many different kinds of good eats, with an appetizing odor, that the bosses have no power over the down-trodden simpletons, and that they persist in eating the "capitalistic fare" in spite of drawn guns and sabers, even if they have to stand knee deep in snow. In the meantime Lil Abner is staying in the background, and watching the maneuvers. But knowing the way things have gone in the past 20 years, we have wondered why Dog Patch had the shmoos banished in the first place? Haven't we been rigidly taught in that time that no matter if a person ever hits the ball, or even looks for work, that Uncle Santa Claus up at Washington, is supposed to look after that trillions of cubic feet of Texas natural gas is being stored in old mines and abandoned oil fields in many of the northeastern states, for future use. But according to experts, there is nothing to worry about as to oil—yet.

These days and times, we hear a lot about the matter of Texas as well as other states should have two parties, at least, to make a good government more sure. But reading between the lines, it seems to this writer that the people of the United States as a whole, are getting further and further away from parties. Take down here in Texas, for instance, we have two or three different brands of the Democratic party. The Liberal, the Conservatives, and the Middle of the Roaders. While as a general thing, those who designate themselves as Liberals are the only strict partyites, and are willing to walk up to the licklog and have their fill, no matter who the candidate, or what of his moral background. Then there is the Conservatives that occasionally, as issues come up, they think the candidate of the party is standing for issues detrimental to their state and nation, will vote for some man of another party. Also, there is the Middle Roaders, who jump from one to the other, as the jumping appears good to them. In the North and East for many years, there has been a host of independent voters, as they call themselves, who may one year bulk toward the Democrats, and perhaps the next election of men and measures, switch over to the GOP. And in many instances, these independent voters hold the balance of power. Then there are the numerous pressure groups, who are looking for the silver lining to fall their way, no matter what the consequences are to the rest of the people and taxpayers. For the past 20 years, most of these pressure groups have been voting the Democratic ticket, and especially is this true as regards the leaders and bosses. Because of the fact that they are supposed to pack a whollop vote, those in power usually cater to them, and comply with their whims, no matter what the consequences to the rest of the nation. Votes, no matter how they get them, is the paramount idea of most modern party leaders. But even the bosses of many of the pressure groups are not always able to hold all their following in line, as to their vote. True, they may vote for a strike at the behest of the leaders, but they consider how they vote on men and measures their own personal business, and many times the bosses get a big knock down and drag out from the voters of their organizations. Many instances of such might be listed. And presently up at Washington, we find that the conservative Democrats from the South, are many times at variance with the liberals of the party in the North, and vote along with the more conservative Republicans.

Much discussion has been put out pro and con of late on whether or not we are going to have our usual abundance of oil for many years to come. Those of us who know little about the oil business, except, as the late Will Rogers would say, "what we read in the papers," have been led to believe that some 20 years is the most we can expect our reserves to hold up, and at the end of that time, we must have a substitute for many of our fuel and power needs, or make some other arrangements. There are many people of the opinion that it will not be that long until there is a fine substitute for fuel, power and lights in the way of atomic energy. This is, unless the scientists go too far, and set off a chain reaction explosion that will obliterate the old world. We understand there are some religionists that believe that man himself will destroy the world when God has decreed that time shall be no more. But man knows little of the intentions of the Almighty, and He may have other plans that man knows nothing about, to end existence on this planet. Paraphrasing some of Solomon's writings in the Old Testament, "let us have the conclusion of the whole matter, fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." In other words, we humans don't know the day or hour that time shall be no more; that being up to a wise Creator. But do we know this much. When the human race, consisting perhaps of Adam and Eve, were banished from the Garden of Eden way back in the beginning, they were advised to go forth, to multiply and replenish the earth. Of course our Bibles tell us how long ago that was, but many say that is just the guess work of man, and that it was much further back than 6,000 years ago. So, man is really expected to keep on finding what will help him, the shortest steps to production, more food on fewer acres, etc., and let God have charge of the arrangements to destroy when He is ready to do so. But man himself has made considerable progress in destruction. Since way back when the Chinese discovered gunpowder, much progress in destruction has been made. But people in the know, to return to oil and gas, say our reserves of oil are steadily increasing, and chances are will continue to do so for many years. They are not quite so optimistic about gas. We know

Hayworth had declared that the governess was a woman of ability and integrity, and fully capable of caring for the children. Then there is the usual string of murders, sometimes the entire family—then there will be suicides for no apparent reason. Not infrequently, there is the case of some man, woman or boy way out on a window ledge, poised to take a plunge to the street below. And a new one to us was given out in the Sunday dailies, where children scared by cyclones, especially if the older member of the family became panicky, would change characteristics, some reverting to an age much younger, others brooding, or trying to sleep sitting up, and in a few instances, children wetting beds who never had done this since early childhood. Sure makes one wonder what the old world is coming to.

Down at Austin, things have sorter quieted down since the legislature adjourned and went home. During that time, those enough interested in the matter have had time enough to size up the results, and to say the least most have come home fairly well pleased with the accomplishments. And we might add that the run of the mine folks here at home, are fairly well satisfied with what was done, and not too hurt because some of the legislators failed on pet measures to help the folks back home in his district. It seems the fly in the ointment, was a one-gallon Senator by the name of Jimmy Phillips way down in East Texas. Phillips didn't have any "pet help" bills of his own, and set down on all the other boys that had them. He didn't particularly object to those they were called to Austin to make provision for, such as teachers pay, and the pay of state employees. Nor for that matter the money to help in the expansion, better medical care, etc., of the eleemosynary institutions of the State. But when it came to the pet local bills to help Johnny, Joe and Jacob, the fat was in the fire. Yep, he made a lot of the boys very sore. First, he demanded that such bills be submitted to the full committee, and later they were all bottled up in committees with not a chance in a hundred of ever seeing the light of day. It was even intimated that some of these bills were put forward by Gov. Shivers, or some of the lesser light, but all finally flared about the same way. Personally, however, we believe that Gov. Shivers and the big majority of the legislators are very well pleased with the results of the short 30-day session of the legislature. They seemed to get off pretty slow at first, but as the days of the session got shorter, there was much activity, and in some instances, some of the long weekend holidays at home were canceled. As stated above, most of the measures for which the special session was called, was put over, as well as some of the laws making provision for new taxes to take care of the revenue part of the new appropriation bills. But there is always an economy minded man or two in the legislature, that seems to delight in breaking into the arrangements of those who are inclined to tax and spend, spend and elect. Most reports that we have seen in the dailies and weeklies, as well as a few magazines, seem to be well pleased with the special session, and that goes for those who write in the "Reader Columns" of the dailies.

THINGS TO TALK ABOUT

BY FRANKLIN J. MEINE
Editor, American Peoples Encyclopedia

Yes, Everyone Talks About the Weather

AUSTIN.—Folks who talk about the weather—and who doesn't—can pick up some new "ammunition" Friday evening, May 7, at the University of Texas.

Visitors at the 45th annual Power Show will have opportunities to see a miniature tornado and a three-dimensional weathermap explaining the still-mysterious jet streams of the stratosphere.

The Power Show, a colorful engineering-science exhibition, will be a feature of the All-University Exposition and Power Show, May 6-8. The huge open house will run concurrently with the Interscholastic League annual state meet, final competition for high school students in numerous athletic, literary, speech and other events.

The aeronautical engineering department's meteorology division will create a miniature tornado in a special chamber four feet in width and depth and three feet high. A detailed terrain will be reproduced inside the chamber and recordings of actual storm noise will synchronize with the water-wind funnel as it moves across the "country-side."

The three-dimensional weather map will show how jet streams, great blasts of air 200 miles or more wide, hurl through the strato-

"THIS OUGHT NOT TO BE," PRES. VAN BUREN

Way back in 1837 this country underwent its first major depression. Many demanded that a program of heavy federal spending be adopted. That led President Van Buren to make some observations that are as timely now as they were then.

He said: "All communities are apt to look to the government too much. This ought not to be. The framers of our Constitution . . . wisely suggested that the less government interferes with private pursuits the better for general prosperity.

"It is not the government's legitimate object to make men rich or to repair, by direct grants of money or legislation, losses not incurred in the public service."

The nation never was given wiser advice.

R. L. Walker, Brownfield, who suffered a heart attack recently and is at the Veterans' Hospital in Big Spring, is reported greatly improved by his wife, who visited with him Sunday. Other persons that paid him a visit the same day were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Addison, and Mrs. Addie Isbell.

"CONSERVATION" AN IMPORTANT WORD TO AN OIL MAN

To an oil man, one of the most important words in the language is "conservation." And it means a great many diverse things.

In a plant, for instance it means taking care of the equipment and watching for leaks in pipe lines. In the oil fields themselves, it may mean pumping gas or water into underground formations to increase the flow. In the laboratory, it means more efficient processes for making oil products.

In its full, over-all sense, conservation means the least wasteful withdrawal of the oil nature created—and the greatest possible use of every gallon produced. And here the American oil industry has done a superb job. As a typical example, gasoline has been so improved that two gallons now do what required three in 1925. Another example is found in what has been done with gases that formerly were wasted. These are now being converted into valuable chemicals which supply raw materials for plastics, synthetic rubber, in pesticides, and thousands of other products.

What has been conservation's principal achievement? One fact indicates the answer: Our oil consumption has soared, reaching heights that would have seemed inconceivable even a few years ago. Yet our proven reserves are at an all-time high.

MERCHANT'S PROFIT IS SMALL FACTOR

Do you ever wonder just how much of each dollar you spend at retail remains in the hands of the merchant in the form of profit? Various surveys indicate that many consumers think that 25 per cent or even more does just that.

If you're one of them, a report of the financial experience of the nation's department stores last year will come as something of a surprise. Their profit, after taxes, averaged 2.4 per cent of their sales. In 1952 the figure was the same.

Some kinds of stores, dealing in staples, earn even less. For example, leading food chains often show profits of but one cent or a trifle more on each dollar that crosses their counters. Retail profits are a microscopic factor in establishing the cost of living.

HAD A NICE VISIT FROM JUDGE REED DURING PAST WEEK

Had a short visit last week from District Judge Louis B. Reed, of Lamesa. In fact it was just too short, as the Judge usually has time to tell us a funny story or two. And we do not mean stories not repeatable in mixed company. But he was holding court.

Got to talking about the light sentences the guys got at Lubbock, who beat up the Sheriff down at Roby. Each of us agreed that one year in the pen seemed to be a very short time to give a person for beating a law officer with guns and chains.

His real reason for calling was

Mr. and Mrs. Pye Adams, Tucumcarl, N. M., formerly of Brownfield, visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stafford, 510 South Third, and with Mrs. Bill Tankersley.

Buy, Build, Live in Brownfield to pay for his announcement for re-election. Said might have something more to say later on, if he thought it necessary. Always like to have this good natured Judge call to see us.

Personally speaking, we don't believe he will have an opponent, nor do we look for Vernon Townes of this city to have one in his race for District Attorney.

Douglas, superintendent of Brownfield schools, and Mrs. Leonard Chesshir, representative of Brownfield's East Ward-Junior High PTA, were among the new life members presented with a rose, an honorary tribute which symbolized flowers for the living, by Mrs. Roy Mack of Lubbock, district life membership chairman.

Honored at the banquet, in addition to the life members, were school administrators of the area and past district presidents.

THE WELLMAN NEWS

By Rev. Alvin F. Hamm

ATHLETIC BANQUET HAS AN INDIAN MOTIF

The Annual Wellman High School Athletic Banquet was held April 22 in the new school cafeteria. The banquet had an Indian theme with genuine Indian rugs brought from Coach Conwoop's family in Oklahoma. He is a full blood Comanche Indian and the menu was written in Comanche. The tables were placed in the shape of an arrow, pointing the head table where the speakers and their wives sat. The centerpieces were runners of gold and black crepe paper, and gold and black candles carried out the school colors. Indian pottery and 14-inch high Indian warriors along with tom-toms were placed at intervals along the table centers.

The guest speaker was Mr. Joe Holmes from the Sport Center in Lubbock. His wife was also a guest. Other speakers were Coach Rip Sewell, the boys' basketball coach, and Coach Grady Baker, the girls' basketball coach, and Coach Conwoop, the football coach. Talks were made by Captain Sue Burnett, girls' captain; and Captains Roger Bryant and Darold Baldwin, football captains. The main vein of the captain's speeches was good sportsmanship and fair play, which would lead them into good citizenship. Master of ceremonies was High School Principal B. H. Baldwin. Invocation was by Supt. J. T. Bryant. Benediction was by the president of the school board, Pete Golden. Linda Watts sang "Indian Love Call," and a mixed quartette, consisting of Freda and Dessie Oliver and John Hawkins and Alvin Hamm, sang "Cross Over the Bridge."

A delicious meal of fried chicken was prepared by the cafeteria women and served by the eighth grade girls and some of the high school girls. They were dressed in squaw dresses.

Mr. Holmes' talk was directed at the high school boys and girls who participated in sports. He said, "It is not who won, but how you played the game." He also emphasized the idea of never giving up and if you do not succeed at one thing, don't give up. Turn your eyes in another direction and try that much harder.

A total of 135 attended, and good times were reported by all.

PRE-SCHOOL ENROLLMENT DAY IS HELD

Pre-School Enrollment Day was held at Wellman School, Friday, April 23rd. The 6-year-old children of the Wellman District attended school in order to enroll and learn the ways of school. The mothers and some of the fathers came with the children to give the necessary information for enrolling.

At noon the parents ate lunch with their children and helped the teachers, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Stevens, train the beginners in the ways of lunching at school. Shortly after lunch the students were dismissed.

The teachers regret that all of the beginners of the district could not be present on this Pre-School Enrollment Day. The following were presented diplomas: Walter Martin, Pamela Bass, Linda Bowlin, Wendell Hamm, Barry Sims, Cathy Hughes, Cheryl Fay Smith, Elsie Smythe, Tony Allen Emerson, Betty Lewis, Linda Parnell, Granville Smith, Teresa Palacios, Luis Rodriguez, Paul Guiterrez, and Celestino Garza.

How Texas' Cancer Dollar Is Spent

"I believe that every contributor to the American Cancer Society should be entitled to know how the Texas Cancer dollar will be spent," James Harley Dallas, chairman of the Terry County American Cancer Crusade, said in an interview.

The drive is being conducted throughout the month of April, which has been designated by President Eisenhower as Cancer Control Month.

Mr. Dallas explained that 26c for cancer research; 33c for cancer education; 12c for service to cancer patients; 11c to supervise and administer the American Cancer Society's work, both nationally and in Texas; 10c to enable the cancer society to conduct its annual educational and membership Texas Cancer Crusade; 3c for grants and fellowships to enable young scientists to pursue their intensive training in cancer research, diagnosis and treatment; 3c for legacies; 2c for reserve to continue the fight until final victory.

"I am sure," Mr. Dallas declared "that everyone who is familiar with the American Cancer Society's three-fold program to fight cancer through research, professional and public education and service to patients will feel, that the dollars he or she contributes this month will be a sound investment in the intensive, nationwide campaign to rid this country of a deadly foe."

"Terry County's quota for the cancer drive is $1,500. We can only reach this goal if every member of this community contributes."

Mrs. Willie Willis has returned to the home of her son, Troy Willis, 405 North 11th, after a ten-day stay in the local hospital. She is reported doing very well.

YOUNG CAPITALIST AT WORK

Bob Rock is a good-looking, black haired 17-year-old St. Louis school boy. He's six-foot-two and powerfully built. He loves football and plays on the Bishop Bebourg High School eleven. But Bob is playing another game he loves as much as football, the game of American business. He is production manager of a thriving corporation, and the kick he's getting out of marketing a good product, paying dividends to his stockholders, and perfecting new mass production techniques on his assembly line thrill him as much as scoring a touchdown for Bishop Bebourg High.

Bob is one of many thousands of high school youngsters who are in business for themselves in the expanding nation-wide Junior Achievement movement. In 90 small and large communities in 24 states, Junior Achievement corporations are in business. The boys and girls operating them are getting a wonderful experience in self-reliance and a wonderful education in the fundamentals of the American economic system.

Educational Tool

Since Junior Achievement was conceived by its originators and is considered by its sponsors as "an educational tool" for teaching high school students what makes the American business system tick, our National Education Program staff invited Bob Rock to speak during our 15th Freedom Forum Seminar on the Harding College campus at Searcy. Appearing on the program with him was Robert King, St. Louis businessman who works with the JA boys and girls, and Joseph J. Francomano, national vice-president of Junior Achievement Inc., from New York.

Our Forum conferees were from business, organized labor, education, the clergy, and local and national service groups. Twenty states were represented. The special goal of the Forum was to concentrate attention on how the youth of America could be best reached with an educational program in American citizenship, the best means of providing them with education in the American way of life, its advantages, how it works, its privileges, and responsibilities. The eighty Forum conferees, the Forum staff, and all the principal speakers agreed that reaching the youth of America with such positive educational program is one of the most vitally important needs of our day.

Youth in Business

Both Mr. King and Mr. Francomano filled in details about Junior Achievement, but Bob Rock's story of the company he and his school chums operate in St. Louis gave life and power to the JA presentation. Last year when he entered school, he attended a meeting with 15 or 20 of his schoolmates. Businessmen JA sponsors explained the movement. Industrial technicians were on hand to advise on possible products which would find a market in St. Louis. Bob and his pals liked the adventuresome challenge of going into business. They organized the Union Products, Inc.

Bob was elected president and quickly became production manager, too. With the constant advice of the businessmen sponsors, the youngsters chartered and incorporated their business and capitalized for $100. The issued stock at 50c per share and went out and sold it. At a JA Center, they began to spend an evening a week manufacturing a modernistic magazine rack, convertible to an individual snack bar. They purchased raw materials and with machinery provided they set up a production assembly line. The sales department found a market; the article sold briskly, and a profit was achieved.

Tackling Problems

Bob and his pals stay in business during the school months, making profit, paying wages, rent, overhead and all other expenses of business; declaring a stockholders' dividend, paying taxes (ouch!), and tackling some pretty serious small business problems. In June all JA corporations are liquidated. "All of us," Bob told the Freedom Forum conferees, "have found out what business is like, its problems and its possibilities. JA has taught us, too, that life isn't a rosy bed of violets. I think the JA boys and girls, after solving the business problems, will have a better understanding and be better able to cope with the problems of the world."

Scout Program For 3 Groups Organized

A Boy Scout program for Cub Pack 74, Boy Scout 74, and Explorers Post 74, with their leaders Lewis Simmonds, Cecil Hill, and R. T. Wilson, respectively, will be sponsored by the American Legion.

All members and those who are interested in joining were urged to register and pay their dues of 50c a year before today, so preparations can be made for summer encampment. Ages for the Cubs are 9 to 11, Scout, 11 to 14, and Explorers, 14 to 18.

All leaders are trained and some are now taking advanced Scout training courses. Wilson is taking the course for the second time and Hill for the third time.

Virgil Crawford, a former Scoutmaster, is the institution representative, and James Harley Dallas, who received his 9-year pin at a banquet in Lamesa last week, is chairman for the troop committee.

All boys are also urged to order the magazine, "Boy's Life," through the Scouts, which costs $1.50 per year.

GERON AND JORDAN REPRESENT B'FIELD AT LIONS CONVENTION

The local Lions Club was represented among the 900 Lions Club members who attended their three-day convention, April 22, 23, and 24, at Amarillo, at which Jim Ed Waller, of Plainview, was announced new Governor of Lions International District 2-T-1.

Attending the convention from Brownfield were Jake Geron, local club president, and Frank Jordan.

Dr. Dick Self, Dallas, was named international director. A proposed amendment to the group's constitution was approved as was a cash assessment of members for support of a children's home. A proposal to split the district was defeated.

The annual Governor's Ball, which began at 10 p.m. in the Her-ring Hotel, was the final event of the action-packed calendar.

Joyce Tharp, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Tharp, Littlefield, was named queen of the convention over 46 other candidates in judging held Friday.

RIDGWAY INITIATED IN TECH HONOR SOCIETY

Richard Ridgway, of Brownfield, was among the thirty-five Freshmen enrolled in Texas Tech to be initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honor society, at the annual initiation banquet at 7:30 p.m., Friday, in the Skyline Dining Room at Lubbock.

A grade average of 2.5 is required for membership to both Phi Eta Sigma, men's honorary fraternity, and Alpha Lambda Delta, women's honorary sorority, which initiated ten women at the same service.

James G. Allen, dean of student life at Tech, sponsors the fraternity, while sponsors of the sorority are Miss Margaret Stuart and Miss Leta Jane Holman.

MRS. DONALD C. TABLER

Tabler-Lingle Exchange Marriage Vows In Ceremony Read at Bartlesville, Okla.

Miss Anne Caroline Lingle, former Lubbock resident, and Donald C. Tabler, now both of Bartlesville, Okla., exchanged marriage vows at the altar of St. Luke's Episcopal Church recently. The Rev. R. C. Rodgers officiated.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Coffey, of Spring Branch, Texas, was given in marriage by her uncle, John E. W. Spencer of Dallas. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tabler, who reside at Longmont, Colo.

Mrs. Harold Malone at the organ console played a medley of wedding selections including "Les Preludes" by Liszt, and "Air from Water Suite," Handel. The "English Wedding March" was used as the processional and Mendelssohn's march was played as members of the bridal party left the church. White gladioli decorated the altar. The bride's dress of white embroidered organza was of ballerina length. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a coronet of pearls, and she carried a nosegay of white sweetpeas.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Charles S. Imig of Bartlesville. Jack Drury of Manhattan, Kan., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Serving as ushers were Fred Buelow, Chas. S. Emig, Don Baer, and James Sibley.

The matron of honor wore a pink tulle and taffeta fashioned in a ballerina length frock. Her bouquet was of pink sweetpeas.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding reception was held in St. Luke's Parish House. Mrs. Jack Drury, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the guest book. Mrs. J. L. Randal, of Brownfield, great-grandmother of the bride, poured, and others assisting in serving were Mrs. H. E. Morrison, H. E. Winn, and Miss Rosemary Robins.

For a wedding trip the bride chose a green suit with white accessories and a corsage of pale pink roses. On their return, the couple will be at home at 384 South East Elmhurst, Bartlesville. The bride graduated from Lubbock High School in 1949, and attended Texas Tech in 1950. She received her BS degree in physics at the University of Texas in Austin. The bridegroom was awarded his BS degree in chemical engineering at the University of Colorado, at Boulder. Both the bride and bridegroom are with the Phillips Petroleum Company in Bartlesville.

Out-of-town guests there for the wedding and reception, besides the parents of the bride, were Amos Kearins, also of Longmont, Colo., grandfather of the bridegroom; Mrs. J. L. Randal and Mrs. Percy Spencer of Brownfield, great-grandmother and grandmother, respectively, of the bride; John E. W. Spencer of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Drury of Manhattan, Kansas; and Mrs. H. S. Anglin, of Plainview.

By our Neighbor to Neighbor plan they are trying to reach every residence as well as businesses in this drive. Not only is it a plan for raising money—certainly needed more now than ever—but it is an opportunity to alert you and yours to the challenge of cancer and the possibility of conquering it. Think of the big part each of you play in this fight against cancer, by giving of your contributions and reading the material available in the brown envelopes, which will be passed from neighbor to neighbor. In case you are not contacted by your neighbor you may send your contributions to P. O. Box 1192, care of Local Post Office. Shown above, typical of the local women who will participate in the "over the fence" campaign is Mrs. W. B. Nance. (Staff Photo), at left, receiving the envelope from Mrs. W. B. Nance.

The Playground Project for the youth of this city is progressing nicely, according to Mrs. Buck Andress. She met with 16 boys Monday night at the Courthouse Square, and a workout was held Tuesday, with about 30 enthusiastic boys attending.

Mrs. Andress said the boys seem very interested in having a place to play and seemed very cooperative. She stated that she and everyone concerned with the project wished to thank the following for their donations:

Mrs. Gladys Moorhead, for wire and posts; Zesto Stand, baseball bat; Charlie Price, baseball; Lindsey Hardware, ball; Griffith's Variety Store, 2 baseball bats and 2 balls; Knights Hardware, 2 bats; Copeland Hardware, catcher's mask; Primm Drug, chest pad, shin guard, and catcher's mitt; and Terry County, for $25 to be used on building a back-stop.

The project group also expressed appreciation to the City and County officers for their cooperation in getting the project underway. The group stated that they still need a lot of help and play equipment, such as swings, a clubhouse, fireplaces, lights and men to help install the equipment.

The city has offered use of the "lake" located 4 blocks north of Main Street, on Lake St. for playground space, but three other sites are still needed, east, west and in the south part of town. Anyone who has a lot and will offer it for playground use should contact Mrs. Andress at phone No. 2088.

MUCH BRICK WORK ON PALACE DRUG BUILDING WILL BE SAVED

Had a conversation this week with Ike Bailey, co-owner of the building where the Palace Drug burned recently. Ike stated that after contractors went over the building recently, they had reached the conclusion that much of the walls could be saved. This will include, practically all of the partition walls with Copeland Hardware, and the front. Some of the side walls next the street will have to be torn down somewhat.

Like most folks, Ike stated they did not carry anything like enough insurance. We all forget that it costs two or three times as much to erect a building now than when that building was erected back in the 20's. Nor did he start when they expected to start rebuilding operations.

However, it is their intention to rebuild as soon as practical.

MRS. WEISS REVIEWED BOOK AT LUBBOCK

Mrs. George Weiss, local high school English teacher, reviewed the book, "Smile Please," by Mrs. Mildred Spurrier Topp, at a meeting of the newly formed Ladies Circle of the Ausbury Methodist Church, Lubbock, Tuesday night, April 27.

The book on the humorous side, has been reviewed by Mrs. Weiss at meetings of the Brownfield Lions and Rotary Clubs and at a teachers' meeting.

What happens seldom bothers us half so much as what might happen.

Armstrong, Robert Burt, Delbert Dyke, James Burnie, Gene Stubbiefield, Tom Hardy, and Bill Adams.

Mrs. Tom May, Mrs. E. A. Graham, and Mr. and Mrs. Murphy May and daughter, Kimberlee returned last Thursday from a two-week's vacation in Las Vegas, Nev., San Francisco, and Los Angeles, Calif., where they visited with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burnett of Brownfield, were in Borger recently attending a meeting conducted by Bro. W. S. Boyett, formerly of Brownfield, at the Church of Christ.

Recent scientific discoveries make it possible for some to sight the end of the world, but that won't be visible to me while I am still kicking.

The automobile is the answer to that everlasting yearning to be some place other than where we are.

BETWEEN CLASSES AND 'ROUND TOWN

with Jane Griggs

This week has simply been full of news—two contests, and elections.

Our Ag boys competed in the Texas Tech FFA contest last Saturday in Lubbock. Of about 1,200 boys in the entire contest, our Dairy Products team placed first. Danny Andrews made second place in the entire contest. Other team members were Douglas Gipson, Delbert Beavers, and Adrin Jones. Four other teams, Meats, Dairy Cattle, Poultry, and Dairy Products will go to Texas A&M over the week end to the state contest. Winners of this will go to Waterloo, Iowa, to compete in the national setup. We're pulling for you, boys.

The Crops judging team made third place in the Post competition. Boys on this team are Joe Montgomery, Archie Hall, and Sammy Jenkins.

KELLY MACK, PREXY; KENNETH, YEEP; AND VIRLENE, SEC-TREAS.

After a very short campaign, Kelly Mack Sears was elected next year's president of the Student Council; Kenneth Murphy, vice president; and Virlene Sharp, again secretary-treasurer, in homerooms, last Tuesday. Kelly Mack's opponent was Lee Allen Jones; Kenneth Murphy ran against Sammy Kendrick and Sid Sydoski; and Virlene's competitors were Joyce Simmons and Melba Willis.

Max Miller had 106 write-in votes for next year's cheerleader, but it was just a joke. Carole Dallas will again be head cheerleader, and under her are Betty Cabbiness, Patsy Teague, and Betty Daniell, all prospective Seniors. Janie Dickson, Jr., was first alternate, and Jeanne Criswell, Freshman, was second alternate.

SENIOR TRIP; PARTIES ARE PLANNED

Charlotte Green, Sammy Key, Mr. O. B. Hale, and Miss Curry will go to Ruidoso over the week end to make final arrangements for the Senior trip, next Friday, May 7. The proceeds of the Senior play, "Creeping Shadows," given last Friday, will go toward financing chartered buses and meals.

The American Association of University Women is honoring the Senior girls at a tea, next Thursday in the Oddfellows' Hall. AAUW Clubs everywhere give the Senior girls a party each year to show them the need for further education and help them understand the possibilities. Miss Evelyn Jones, who was an exchange teacher to England, will be the speaker. Any girl who does not have a way, is asked to contact Mrs. Weiss or Mrs. Peters.

The Kiwanis Club has planned a sunrise breakfast in Coleman Park after the Graduation Dance, to end up a perfect year.

UNION BANQUET

Union Juniors gave the annual Jr.-Sr. Banquet last Tuesday night at Nick's Cafe. Bill Austin was the speaker and Donald Hancock, Master of Ceremonies.

Some of the daters lately have been Patty Durham and Bob Rimer; Cecelia Callaway and Bill Franks; Nona Overman and Von Smith, from Plains; Dwana Woods and Bob Harlan; Alline Powell and Dan Stotts; Janis Smith and Duane Galloway; Mary Ann Holmes and Shird Cartwright; Ann Shropshire and Edward Ellis; Barbara Knox and John O'Dell; and Wynona Newman and Fred Salmon. —Bye.

Highway Publicity Meeting Held Here

The publicity committee of the Texas Highway 51 Association, which is a division of the International Parks Highway Association, met at 11 a.m., Wednesday, at the City Hall.

H. C. Kyle, of Seminole, chairman of the committee, reviewed accomplishments of the work done by the association since the beginning of the group's work.

The publicity committee is responsible for promoting traffic over Highway 51, by publicity means.

Representatives from Brownfield, Dimmitt and Seminole attended.

The highway extends from Canada to Big Bend National Park in Texas.

The next meeting of the association, which numbers approximately 60 members, will be in Odessa, on May 14.

In a large office any letter marked "personal" is inadvertently opened by the mail clerk on receipt and promptly read by four other people before it arrives at the desk of the intended recipient. Hence little wonder that the long distance telephone business is so brisk.

A STUDY OF THE NATURE OF THE DREAD TORNADO

(Editor's Note: This is the first of two special articles on the nature of tornadoes. The second deals with what you can do in case such a disaster ever hits your area.)

AUSTIN.—This is the tornado season, a time when disaster can strike with very little warning. It is also a time when false information spreads easily—far too easily, in fact—about the nature of tornadoes.

This week, State Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Headquarters in Austin prepared some general tornado information in cooperation with the US Weather Bureau for you. It may be that the day will come when that information will save your life.

Here is that information, in question and answer form. Test yourself on just how much you know and don't know about tornadoes.

Where can tornadoes occur?
Any place in the United States at any time of the year. They happen most frequently in the mid-western, southern and central states from March through September.

How often do they occur?
The records show that the average number of days with tornadoes varies from 12 per year (Kansas) to one in thirty-six years (Nevada). The national average is 153 tornadoes a year.

How do you recognize a tornado?
It is usually observed as a funnel-shaped cloud, spinning rapidly, and extending toward the earth from the base of a thundercloud. When close by, it sounds like the roar of hundreds of airplanes.

What is tornado "weather"?
Hot, sticky days with southerly winds and a threatening, ominous sky. However, many such days occur without tornadoes.

What about the relation of clouds to tornadoes?
Familiar thunderstorm clouds are present. An hour or two before a tornado, topsy turvy clouds appear sometimes bulging down instead of up. The clouds often have a greenish-black color.

Is there precipitation?
Rain, frequently hail, preceding the tornado, with a heavy down-pour after it has passed can be counted on.

What time of day do tornadoes occur the most?
Mostly between 3 and 7 p. m., but they have occurred at all times.

What is the usual direction of travel?

In nearly all cases they move from southwest to northeast.

What is the average length of a tornado's path?
It is usually 10 to 40 miles, although they may move forward for 300 miles.

How about the general width?
It's usually 300 to 400 yards, even though they have cut swaths more than a mile in width.

How fast does a tornado travel?
It moves between 25 and 40 miles per hour on the average, although they have varied from 5 to 130 miles per hour.

What about wind speed?
It's been estimated as high as 500 miles per hour within the tornado.

What are the causes of tornado's destructive force?

(a) Violent winds which uproot trees, destroy buildings, and which create a serious hazard from objects blown through the air.
(b) Differences in air pressure which can lift automobiles and can cause buildings to collapse.

Texas Farm Bureau Stages Queen Contest

WACO.—The Texas Farm Bureau will sponsor a state-wide queen contest again this year, according to J. Walter Hammond, president of the state farm organization.

Purpose of the contest is to give recognition to the beauty, charm and vivaciousness of Texas farm and ranch girls. Contestants will be judged on three main points: (1) appearance, (2) poise, and (3) personality.

Finals of the state-wide queen contest will be held the night of Nov. 8 at the 21st annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau in Galveston. The girl chosen Texas Farm Bureau Queen will receive $500 for herself and a matron escort to attend the 36th annual convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation in December in New York.

Only daughters or sisters of Farm Bureau members are eligible for the contest. To enter the contest, girls must be 16 by Sept. 1, 1954, and not over 22 years of age on that date. Daughters of employees, officers, or directors of either the state or county Farm Bureau organizations are not eligible. Neither are previous state winners.

County Farm Bureaus over the state will begin holding eliminations in 13 district contests to be held Sept. 13-25. District winners and their matron escorts will receive expense-paid trips to Galveston convention. In addition, the contestants will receive beautiful wrist watches.

Miss Fayteen Peoples, 17-year-old blonde beauty from Quail, Collingsworth County, was Texas Farm Bureau Queen last year.

Thirteen Families Came In Last Week

As has been the case for the past few years, most of the new people coming to Brownfield are connected somewhat with the oil business, either as drillers, roughnecks, geophysical, office and supply work, etc. That happened with the thirteen new families that came to Brownfield last week to make their homes, according to the local branch of Welcome Wagon, Inc. Ten of thirteen families were connected with the oil game.

Of the other three, one was to be employed at the local cottonseed mills; one was to be engaged in the soil conservation work, and another with a local chain grocery. Apparently all those listed had families, as they either rented houses or an apartment. One was located in a trailer camp. But none were listed as roomers. Eleven of the families had from one child to as many as four in one family, their children ranging from 2 years to 16 years of age. Most of the families, however, had one or two children in the family.

Where they hailed from was also kinder scattered. Four of the families were from Kermit, three from Snyder; one each from Tatum and Hobbs, N. M. Also one each from Fort Worth, Longview, Cameron, and one family came from Wynesboro, Miss.

The Herald joins the Welcome Wagon in saying, glad you come, partner!

Telford Improved After 3 Attacks

Mon Telford, who suffered three heart attacks within the last two weeks, is reported improving at the local hospital.

The Telford's son, Mon Jr., arrived by plane last Thursday from Fresno, Calif., and Mrs. Mon Telford, Jr., and children, Jessica and Jennifer, arrived Sunday, to be with the sick man.

Visitors at the hospital with him included Telford's sisters, Mrs. W. E. Butler, DeKalb, Texas; Mrs. A. J. Garner, Causey, N. M.; and Mrs. Stafford Day, Anton.

Mon Jr., and his wife and children spent Wednesday in Roby, visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Annie Spivey, of Brownfield, who is staying with a daughter, Mrs. C. R. Webb.

Clovis Kendrick and Burton Hackney are expected to return this weekend from a fishing trip at Possum Kingdom.

Roy Alsop has moved to a town near El Paso, where he will work at a station owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Blair, formerly of Brownfield.

Lowrimore Wins Cup For Speech, "Finer Points of Selling"

Arlie Lowrimore was presented the Toastmaster Cup for the week by last week's winner, James Evans, after speaking on "The Finer Points of Selling and Salesmanship" at the April 27 meeting of the Toastmaster Club at Nick's Cafe.

Lowrimore's critic was David Nicholson and in his speech he presented examples of methods used most successfully to close a sale. Among them were to treat a customer fair and don't try to high pressure or hide facts from the customer. Personal techniques used by Lowrimore to get new business and keep it were demonstrated.

Other speakers, listed with their subjects and critics, in that order, were: Herbert Chesshir, "Highway Highlights," James Evans; Morgan Copeland, "How to Take a Vacation," V. Fleming; Bobby Jones, impromptu speech on "Techniques," Bill Neel; and Joe Stevens, extemporaneous speech on "Toastmasters Elsewhere," Harold Simms.

General critic of the evening was Grady Elder, who commented that the organization's first impromptu speech was made and showed the need for more variety in program subjects and types of speeches.

Elder was also table topic chairman, using the topic, "What is Your Feeling Toward Dulles' Threat to Walk Out if Red China is Admitted at the Geneva Conference?"

Guest toastmaster of the evening was Wade Yandell, who was introduced by Morgan Copeland, president. Bobby Jones gave the invocation.

A fried chicken dinner was served twelve members and Vernon A. Townes, a guest.

LOCAL ELEMENTARY SCHOOL RATES NO. 1 IN BAND AT MEET

Brownfield choroists, ensembles and solo entrants were among the 600 students participating Saturday in the fourth annual Area II Interscholastic League elementary school music meet.

The participants did not compete against each other, but were rated 1, 2 and 3. The elementary schools do not compete outside the area meet.

Brownfield received the following ratings in the final results: No. 1 in bands, along with Canyon and Abernathy; No. 2 in chorus, with Friona and Spur; four 1's, three 2's, and three 3's in instrumental ensembles.

VOLUNTEER LIFE BAND SLATED HERE, MAY 2ND

Volunteer Life Service Band of Howard-Payne College in Brownwood, will conduct morning services, May 2, in Brownfield at the Westside Baptist Church.

The group will arrive in Seagraves at 8 p.m., and separate to area churches from there.

The organization comprises college students who have surrendered for special services throughout the year at various churches.

Rev. S. R. Respass, pastor at the local church, extends an invitation for everyone to attend.

Not to be outshone by any other is the gift of table linens shimmering with lustrous metallic yarns. Their gleam is picked up by sunshine or candlelight, and they enhance a terrace luncheon or a more elegant indoor dinner party. And they're practical, for linens woven with Lurex are as washable and easy to care for as they would be without the metallic, and they are infinitely more lovely with it.

LUSTROUS LINEN—Beauty is a guest at the dinner table.

PUT CRUSAL OVER — C. T. Johnson of Austin is making his first statewide campaign as a Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, but he's an old hand at campaigning. A civic leader in the Capital City, Johnson has raised countless thousands of dollars for humanitarian needs, among them a highly successful Cancer Crusade. In his new drive, Johnson is demanding "decent standard of living", pensions of $100 per month for eligible Texans at age 65.

A Cerebral Palsied Clinic Be Held In Lubbock, May 10

O'Loughlin, Lubbock, neuropsychiatrist; Dr. J. B. Rountree, Lubbock, pediatrician; Dr. G. M. Wallace, Lubbock, eye specialist; and Dr. J. M. Reynolds, Lubbock, dentist.

Parents who plan to bring children to the clinic are requested to register the children at the Center before the date of the clinic. Information regarding the clinic may be obtained by writing Dr. Esther Snell, Director or calling Lubbock 4-7110.

CO. COMMISSIONERS-H-D COUNCIL BANQUET SCHEDULED MAY 10TH

Members of the Terry County Commissioners Court will be honored at an annual banquet sponsored by the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs, May 10, at the Jessie G. Randal School cafeteria, according to Mrs. Lee Bartlett, council chairman.

The banquet is expected to be the best ever planned by the council. Included on the program will be a talk by State Rep. J. O. Gillham, and a report will be made concerning the activities of home demonstration members during the past year.

Miss Mildred Cox, county home demonstration agent, has started an advanced course in dressmaking which she teaches.

Mrs. O. D. Kennedy, council reporter, announced that a showcase is being built for exhibition of club projects.

Slogan For Cancer Drive Announced

The official slogan for the 1954 American Cancer Society Crusade is: "Strike Back At Cancer—Man's Cruellest Enemy. Give!"

There are many ways of striking a blow in his research laboratory, the general practitioner by diagnosing cancer cases among his patients, the cancer specialist by treating cancer victims with surgery and radiation.

But the fight against cancer is not limited to the medical profession. There are approximately 1,000,000 volunteers working with American Cancer Society's Cancer Control program. Half of this number gives service to cancer patients and participates in year-round programs of public education. The other half serves as workers in the nationwide American Cancer Society's fund raising crusade, which will open here with a Neighbor to Neighbor plan on April 30th.

Without the work of the research scientists and doctors, cancer and the fear of cancer can never be banished. And their work depends on you, depends on your 1954 gift to the American Cancer Society. Your generous contributions will not only help solve the riddle of cancer, but will help alert Americans—yourself, your neighbors—to its dangers.

"STRIKE BACK AT CANCER—MAN'S CRUELLEST ENEMY—GIVE!"

ALL SOCIALISM IS BAD SAYS ARIZONA'S CONGRESS DELEGATES

It is reported that Arizona's Congressional delegation is preparing legislation to authorize the sale of federally-owned power lines in that state to the Arizona Power Authority. The Tribune-News, of Holbrook, Ariz., had something to say about this plan that is of national interest, because of the principle at stake.

It observed: "If the federal government is agreeable to sale of the facilities, why shouldn't some taxpaying agency be allowed to acquire them? Under state power authority ownership they would be tax-exempt. While it is true they are tax-exempt at present, that should be no reason for keeping them so if ownership is to be transferred.

"Few will argue but that private ownership would perform maintenance and administration much more economically than a state agency.

"Last, but not least, there is no state agency to regulate rates that might be charged by the power authority for transmission and distribution of power."

The principle that must forever be stressed, regardless of all other considerations and controversies, is that commercial business belongs in the province of private enterprise and nowhere else. Socialism on the state or local level differs only in degree from socialism on the national level. Both limit opportunity and undermine our freedoms. On the purely practical side, both are a direct, and heavy and unnecessary financial burden on the taxpayers. Get government—all government—out of business!

Miss La Verne Collier, of Lubbock, visited, Sunday, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collier, and brother, Carrol and family.

Strickland Boys Now In Armed Forces

Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Strickland, formerly of Brownfield, and now living at 441 Orange St., Abilene, are serving in the Army and the Air Force.

Alvin Strickland, Jr., 22, is stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C., in the Army, where he is a typist in the personnel office. He is a graduate of Brownfield High School and attended Wayland College at Plainview, and Harlin-Simmons University at Abilene three years, before entering the Army last August. He was a waiter at Brownfield Coffee Shop while living here.

ORANGE SQUASH MAKES TASTY, PRETTY DISH

Vegetables frequently are lowrated as "what's good for you" and are not given full credit for being "real tasty" foods. With a little thought on the part of meal planners, an ordinary vegetable can be dressed up into a tasty, appetizing dish. This orange squash is an excellent example of a glamorized, tasty vegetable dish.

3 cups cooked Hubbard squash or 2 packages frozen squash
1/2 cup orange juice
3 tablespoons margarine
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1/4 cup slivered or chopped almonds
6 orange shells

Mash the hot squash. Add orange juice, margarine, salt, and pepper. Whip until light and fluffy, adding more orange juice if squash seems dry. Fill into orange shells. Sprinkle almonds on top. Bake in a hot oven (450° F.) until lightly browned, about 15 minutes.

TEXAS JUNE DRAFT QUOTA SET 965 MEN

The draft quota for Texas during the month of June has been announced as 965 men, by State Selective Service Director Paul L. Wakefield.

The call is 784 less than for June of 1953. National headquarters has restricted Texas from placing an "overall" on the June quota, according to Wakefield. This means Texas can not insure making its quota by calling more than the actual number in the quota.

Texas Selective Service in the past has added up to 20 per cent of the net call to offset losses caused by postponements, rejections, re-classification, and other possibilities which can reduce the net quota.

Local boards will receive their June quotas by the end of April, and it was announced that no June calls will be made in Texas to send men for the combination mental and physical examination, however, approximately 1,000 men are scheduled in May to take the exam.

Similar programs by each district in the state are being conducted in preparation of presenting district representative committees to report their findings in evaluations before final action before TASA.

Three stills were taken in Titus County, and 1 still each was taken in the counties of McLennan, Bowie, Lamar, and Marion.

Eddie Fisher has proven his ability to pick winners by coming up with one hit parade record after another. And in or out of uniform, Eddie is always working for Uncle Sam. For these reasons, he was persuaded to take time out from his highly rated NBC-TV show to select hundreds of bonus U.S. Savings Bond winners for America's biggest give-away of bonds. Helping the U.S. Treasury's biggest peacetime drive to urge everyone to save with United States Savings Bonds for peace and continued prosperity, $100,000 in FREE bond winners are being given by Ideal Magazines. "Any bond owner," says Eddie Fisher, "can win a free bond. I have just selected winners of $1,000, $500 and $100 bonds and hundreds of other winners of $50 and $25 bonds by picking Bond numbers. You bond buyers will find these winning numbers in any current issue of TV Star Parade, Movie Life, Movie Stars Parade, Personal Romances and Intimate Romances. Anyone having the bond with the identical number 1 selected wins a free bond."

Old Johnson County To Pull Centennial Celebration This Year

Down in old Johnson County in north central Texas, they are celebrating their 100th or centennial birthday as a separate county. For the past week or two some of the smaller places have celebrated, but Cleburne, the county site, will pull the main event from May 2 to 8th, with pageants for six nights, along with many other features. As an ex-Johnsonite, the Old Joe has been invited to come down and help celebrate, the invite being signed by Will Scott, the Hospitality Chairman. We shall always remember the six glorious years of our young manhood we spent down in old Johnson.

Came out from old Tennessee the year 1900, as a youth of 20 years, weighing somewhere around 130 pounds, with a neck nearly a foot long. We were in poor health following measles and pneumonia, and needed some outdoor work and lots of fresh air and sunshine.

This change from indoor work in a printing office to the farm of our brother, Meeks, was just what we needed, and in a few years we were in good health, and gaining in weight. As we gained weight, we seemed to lose some of our neck.

Sure would like to get off down there and shake a lot of old timers' hands.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Morrow have moved back to Brownfield, from Paducah. They are living at their former residence, 802 South 7th.

Herald of Truth—New TV Program Is Launched By Churches of Christ on KDUB

James W. Nichols

The Herald of Truth, a new religious television program directed by the Churches of Christ, will have its initial showing in Lubbock, Texas, on KDUB-TV at 1:30 p.m., on May 2.

The program, a 30-minute religious release, is an adaptation of the network radio program by the same name, which has been carried by some 300 stations of a major network (ABC) for the past two years. The radio program is also being continued and began its third year of broadcasting on February 14th of this year.

The new television program, a Du Mont Network Television production, is also carried by a number of stations in America which are affiliated with other networks. A national news magazine (Time) told the story recently of how the radio program was made a reality two years ago in spite of the fact that the Church of Christ has no national headquarters or central governing body.

Two young evangelists, James W. Nichols and James D. Willeford, both of Abilene, Texas, were singled out in the news article as having been primarily responsible for the successful coast-to-coast radio program. The two young men will be the featured speakers on the new TV series.

Willeford and Nichols are both graduates of Abilene Christian College at Abilene, Texas, and both have done graduate work in the East. Willeford, 38, and Nichols, 26, have both been preaching since they were 14 years of age.

Also heard on the TV program will be narrator Phil Kendrick and outstanding singing, which has been heard on the radio show.

The program is produced by the Highland Church in Abilene with Churches of Christ in this hemisphere cooperating in the production.

We'll Have To Put Up With Murry Again

That happy smiling countenance of Ocie Murry appeared at the Herald office this week, with an unusually broad grin. We soon learned the reason. Ocie is working for the sub-station of the State Comptroller's department down at Big Spring. They recently announced to Ocie that they were opening a sub-station in Brownfield in the next week or two, and that he could either stay in Big Spring or come back to Brownfield. Of course he chose Brownfield, as this has been his home since Heck was a pup, and includes some town property, and a good farm, which is rented. And his son still lives here. Ocie is looking for a five room and bath house to buy. See his ad about how to get in touch with him.

He stated that so far as he knew the Comptroller's Department had not rented or leased a building in Brownfield. But, he wants to be back here by the 10th of May if possible. Welcome home.

Government to high performance aviation gasoline. Now authorities have removed restrictions and these powerful components can be blended into Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel.
New Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel provides increased power, higher anti-knock, greater fuel economy, and freedom from cold stalling.
In addition, Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel gives you the clean burning qualities that result from use of natural and aviation gas components. No anti-fouling additives are needed to insure maximum power and efficiency when you drive with Flite-Fuel.
Only Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel contains added Di-isopropyl. Get it at stations where you see the orange and black Phillips 66 Shield.

G. I. QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q. I'm a World War II veteran who went back on active duty after Korea. When I did so, I put my National Service Life Insurance premiums under waiver. I've just been separated, and I understand that the waiver will last for 120 days after my separation. However, I plan to go back into the service again before the 120 days are up. Will I have to apply for another waiver of premiums?

A. No. There will be no need for you to apply for another waiver. So long as you re-enter service within the 120-day period, VA will continue to waive your premiums while you're on active duty—just as though you never had left the service.

Q. I am the widow of a World War I veteran, and I have applied for a VA pension. At the present time, I am in a nursing home. My nephew is paying the expenses. In figuring my annual income, for pension purposes, must I include the cost of keeping me at the nursing home?

A. Money paid to the nursing home, to cover cost of maintaining you there, is not considered as income for purposes of a VA pension.

Q. I want to go to school under the Korean GI Bill. Since I was discharged before August 20, 1952, I understand I'll have to begin before August 20 of this year. Would it be possible for me to file my application now, and begin class this coming fall?

A. No. Under the present law, you actually must begin your studies before the August 20 cut-off date. The filing of an application alone is not enough.

Q. I'd like to train in a foreign college under the Korean GI Bill. Will VA pay my way abroad and back?

A. No. You will have to pay for your own travel. All you will receive from VA will be a single monthly allowance to cover each month of training.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of thanking our good friends and neighbors for their sympathy and words of comfort following the death of our husband and father, recently.

A LITTLE JOG DOWN AMONG THE MESQUITES

The Old He, the Mrs. and the little granddaughter, Miss Mary Ann, loaded out in the old 40ty, and took a spin off down below the caprock, to Snyder, last Saturday P. M. Now the old 40ty isn't supposed to break any speed limits, but if you can hold her in the road, and the speedometer will between 45 and 50, the old hull will get you there in time for a short snooze before the daughter announces chuck is on. But Miss Mary Ann says when she grows up and makes some money, she is going to buy us a new car. Hail the day!

As per recent habits, we took the new-cut road, turning off on F-M at Union to Newmore and Wells, south to O'Donnell, and southeast where you jump off the caprock, and make a juncture with 180 just west of Gail. All this 56-mile jaunt is on F-M roads, with comparatively little traffic, and mostly new roads that are not beat up with heavy trucks.

Water, Water Everywhere!

Let us state right here at this writing, that we saw more water on the ground between here and Snyder than we've seen since 1941. This is especially true southeast of O'Donnell, and this side of the caprock. We saw lakes in that area that cover anywhere from 25 to 75 acres of ground, and some of them were fearfully close to the farm homes. What the mosquitoes will do to those farm families, really bothers us. Maybe a good soaking in crude oil would do the mosquito

They Trust You— Don't Let Them Down

Youngsters don't always do as you say, but they'll do as you do, every time. "Literally, they follow in your footsteps," admonishes the Texas Safety Association.

If you violate a safety principle, especially if it's one you've warned them about, they'll try it the next time. If you get away with it, they figure so can they. If you're careless, they will be, too. People get killed that way.

Friend of ours has a little boy—Jeff, aged five, sharp as a tack. Jeff's had considerable pre-school safety training because his parents want to be sure he'll be able to take care of himself when he walks to school next year in an urban area where there's lots of traffic.

Jeff knows what speed-limit signs are for and he knows, when he sees one, to look at the speedometer and see if the figure the needle's nudging checks.

Not long ago Jeff and his mother were in a hurry to get home one afternoon. The speedometer eased up to 40 in a 30-mile zone—not much over the limit, but . . . "Say, Mommy," piped Jeff peering seriously and sternly at the dashboard, "That speed sign said '30' and we are going 40! How can you do that?"

See what we mean? They trust you. You are their rock and their salvation, their Oracle of Delphi, the source for them of the most high wisdom. If you do a thing, it must be right. Don't let them down by getting sloppy with your motor manners. It's as much a blow against their personal safety as if you told them to cross against traffic when the light is red.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fitzgerald and Dianne, and Mr. and Mrs. Hanley Starnes and Patti Gail, visited in Carlsbad, N. M., last week end.

New control features like Power Brakes . . . exclusively on Ford Pickups . . . and Fordomatic Drive repay their low extra cost in faster, easier handling. New Driverized Cab cuts driver fatigue.

With its high-strength, low-weight design, the Ford F-100 Pickup has a payload capacity of 1,550 lbs. Big 45 cu.-ft. loadspace, too! See your Ford Dealer now for all the facts!

Strikingly—

By OLD HE
in the class with famous painters and sculptors last week, when two of her copper works got the second and third prizes up at the 7th District Federated Women's Clubs up at Dalhart.

If she got any money, it was not on display, but those red and white ribbons, all printed up nicely, looked good. Of course some of the delegation from Brownfield carried the pictures, as the Mrs. was unable to attend.

Yeah, the showers the past week were really "scattered" as per the forecast. We were away Sunday, but were told that some five drops fell between here and Seagraves. Well, that is scattered, isn't it? There is still lots of clouds around as this is written, but they don't seem to have a drop of water to the carload, in them.

We are going to let Don Robinson, of the American Press, have the rest of our column this week. Much has been said the past few years about the "power and speed" of the new cars, and Robinson had something to say about that in an editorial on highway safety. This brought a reply in defense of power and speed from William J. Cronin, managing director of Automobile Manufacturers Association. The following is Mr. Robinson's reply:

"The Thrill of Speed"
I recently bought a new car. In looking over the instruction book that came with it, I read: "After 500 miles of driving, occasional bursts of speed up to 70 m.p.h. are not only permissible but are desirable. Your new car, however, should not be operated at TOP SPEED until it has been driven 1,000 miles."

Being in the midst of analyzing The American Press' survey on accidents, in which editors named "speed" as the No. 1 killer on the highways, I could not help but wonder at what speed the company recommended that I drive after that first 1,000 torturous miles. So I read further.

MRS. CROSBY LEADING GEORGETOWN WORK S.

Mrs. Uel D. Crosby, wife of the Rev. Crosby, Pastor of the First Methodist Church of Brownfield, is leading the activities groups as the seventh annual audio-visual workshop at Southwestern University, Georgetown, which began on Monday and is continuing through today.

The purpose of the workshop is to promote the best use of audio-visual methods and materials in all aspects of church work. Sponsors of the workshop are Southwestern University, The Fair Foundation of Churches and the National Council of Churches.

Johnny Billingsley, Brownfield, was in Sulphur Springs, Texas, recently, attending his brother-in-law's funeral. Mrs. Billingsley was unable to attend as she had bronchial pneumonia. She has recovered and is back at work.

omy, the instruction book said: "At top speed and during maximum acceleration, you are using all of the power available; and gasoline will be used at a rate of 8 to 10 gallons per hour. Driving at top speed, or accelerating at maximum rate will give you a thrill and you will get where you are going in a hurry. This may offset the cost of the extra gasoline you will use."

"Top speed," according to the speedometer in my new car, is 100 miles an hour. The company is perfectly right; it would give you a thrill to drive at top speed and you would get there (if you got there alive) in a hurry.

These instructions made me wonder if the automobile companies realize that their products are killing 37,000 people a year. Wouldn't it be a good idea if they at least delivered them with a tag attached reading, "Dangerous—handle with care"? And wouldn't it be a good idea if, instead of talking only about speed and power, the car makers did a little more crusading for safe driving?

Winners of the livestock, dairy, cattle, dairy products, poultry and meats contests will represent the West Texas area in the State contests to be held soon at College Station.

The contests were conducted by the Tech Department Agricultural Education staff. Dr. E. N. Jones, president of the college, was guest speaker before results were announced late Saturday afternoon. Dean of the Tech school of agriculture, W. L. Stangel, also made the boys a short talk.
