

Stricklinly Speaking

By OLD HE

The current May issue of Southwestern Crop and Stock gives some very interesting figures on the underground water supply here on the South Plains, in what is termed the Ogallala formation, or the water bearing sands of the Plains section, which we used to refer to as an underground river. It makes no difference whether you are one of those who agree with the water engineers, that this water falls and sinks down in the ground right here on the South Plains. Or, if you are just an off-brand geologist, like the writer, and believe that this water comes from the Rockies, where the snow melts, and a river or rivers flows down toward this section, finally sinking up in the sand. But water levels are falling and fast.

Frankly, we do not believe enough water falls on the Plains on the average year to sink 10 feet, much less 100 or 150 as in the case in most irrigation wells in this area. In fact, we did not have enough rain in 1941, the banner rain year of some 42 inches, to get through the caliche some 10 feet under the ground in most places here. But no matter where it comes from, with three dry years in succession like the last three here, with a maximum of irrigation on that account, the water level gets low. Let's take the test in Hale County of some six that have been tested by water engineers, that have lots of irrigation. Of the 91 wells tested, it was found that the water level had dropped from ten to three feet, with an average decline of from 6 to 7 feet.

That was the findings in an average in the six heavily irrigated counties of Hale, Lubbock, Lamb, Floyd, Deaf Smith and Swisher. With much less irrigation in this area of the Plains, we imagine the drop has not been so much. The fact remains, however, that not too many years ago, Lubbock city had plenty of water nearby for all domestic purposes, but now they are putting down wells out in the Shallowater area, some 10 miles away, for city use, and have leased land over in Bailey County, more than 100 miles west.

For that very reason, many are inclined to hurry the damming of the Canadian River, and if the next year or two turns from the extremely dry to seasonable years, lots of water would be caught behind the dam.

Rah! for Don Noble, and his help in getting out the Cactus, yearbook of the University of Texas. For his efficient work on the Cactus and other editorial and statistical work with his connection with the journalistic department, Don was among the 13 students that received silver awards. Seventeen received bronze awards.

When a high school lad, this fine young man started in to learn what he could on the Herald, and that was mostly running presses, folders, setting and sawing cuts. But his work was always good and dependable. But dagnabit Don aims to make a lawyer, we understand, in the final analysis. Shoot!

That bunch up at the Chamber of Commerce has been getting some "thank you" letters from sundry of late. One of them was from General Telephone Co. for helping to find houses and apartments for employees when the company recently made this western district headquarters. Also more recently moving of the warehouse here from Lubbock. In this undertaking, Brownfield got some 60 new families.

And speaking of families, the CoC also got some praise from several oil companies headquarters here, in helping their employees to find places to stay. In this connection, the CoC has there are now around 600 families living in Brownfield who are employed by oil companies with an annual payroll of 3 1/2 million dollars. And that ain't hay, if you ask us.

And while on the subject of the CoC, according to the manager, Grady Elder, he states, the business men-farmer dinners will start soon. Those farmers at Plains, Meadow and Wellman were so

Look out little 'uns the bigguns will take care of themselves. So, you can just put it down in your old calendar, and mark the date in red ink, if you like, that between now and July 24th, all the dead cats, rats and rabbits will be unearthed, and the smell will be smelt around the world. Everything is shaping up to that end as fast as men and measures can get the job done. The "loyal" bunch down at San Antonio last week end opened with their field pieces, machine guns and everything up to and including 16-inch cannon. And before the thing is over, we look for plenty A and H bombs to rain down on old Texas. So far as the candidates for State offices are concerned, the reign of the drouth is over, and we'll have everything this year from hail to high waters. It's all in the book, cut and dried. Everything from hate to hades will be employed this year, and the "loyal" crowd are out to get Shivers and the Shivercrats. Saw only last week where one of the area editors stated that he despised "Shivercrats." We hope we never reach the point that we do not recognize the rights of each and every man to obtain his own poll tax receipt or exemption, and vote just as he pleases. If a man here in Brownfield and Terry wants to vote for Scarborough, that is their privilege, so far as we are concerned. The same goes for Governor Shivers. One of the things that has made this Republic of the USA great, is the fact that men can and still vote just as they please. We remember back in 1928 that a few of us old hardshell Democrats stood aghast when it was announced that Herbert Hoover, a Republican, had carried Terry County, over Al Smith, a Democrat. It was not, however, due to the fact that the Terry County voters had suddenly switched parties. If you ask us, we believe it was because Al Smith was a Catholic and a wet. We still believe Al Smith would have made the nation a great president, but his stand on the liquor question, and the fact that his religion did not suit a lot of people, especially here in Texas and the South, beat him. Let us state here that we don't believe that Hoover had any more to do with the depression than we did. The American people had just got reckless with their dollars, and the depression was on. But boy, keep your old peepers skinned out, the fur will fly come June or July. Another hot race is promised for US Senate and Lieutenant Governor.

Here of late the Herald has been flooded with stacks of editorial releases for both US Senator Lyndon Johnson, and Ralph Yarborough, who is a candidate for Governor of Texas. In the main, those from the Johnson headquarters are from the daily press, and most of them were supporters of Mr. Johnson in his initial race against former Governor Coke Stevenson. When it later dawned on the big dailies, with few exceptions, that Duval's crooked vote saved Senator Johnson, many of them played strangely silent on the matter for a year or two. Two exceptions that come to mind just now, was the Dallas News and the Houston Chronicle. The latter is supporting the Senator for re-election, but so far as we have seen, the Dallas News has made no declaration. Anyway, most all the big dailies in the larger cities of the State supported Eisenhower for President, and are still more or less for him. Therefore they are making their plea for Johnson support on the basis that Senator Johnson, as minority Senate leader, has supported much of the Eisenhower legislation, and that he, instead of being classified as a liberal, was along with most of the other lawmakers from the South, a conservative. For that reason, most of the big dailies are supporting Senator Johnson for re-election. But most of this editorial opinion was printed before the speech of Johnson at the big Democratic rally at Washington last week, in which little Harry and the mustachioed Atchison, with the English accent, were present, as well as other big moguls. At that rally, Senator Johnson forgot cooperation and riddled and ripped the administration for all it is worth. Especially did he take apart the Eisenhower-Dulles foreign policy. Much of their policy, however, may not suit a lot of folks that supported them in 1952. In fact, their idea of containing the Communies all over the world, with the use of US troops, if necessary. Many of us didn't like that way, when Truman and Atchison were fighting a war that our troops were forbidden to win, over in Korea. In fact, we that are abhorrent toward war, don't like war, police actions, or anything like it, where our young men have to put themselves up to be shot at. Anyway, since Senator Johnson cut loose with his criticism, we have not seen very much praise for him from the big Texas daily papers. However, Johnson has an opponent with plenty of money, being a big ranch and oil man, and we look for a torrid campaign.

There is one thing the people of Brownfield and area are unanimously agreed upon. If there is a dissenter, we have not heard of him or her. It makes no difference if the person is a Loyal or a Shivercrat Democrat, a conservative or liberal GOPer. Even the Methodist, Baptist and the Presbyterians and other church people yell Yea, when the subject is mentioned. The school people and the chamber of commerce are voting 100 to 0 on the matter. Even the small fry seem to be well pleased, as maybe their elders have not been quite so cranky recently.

Now the question: THE GOOD rains. If you want to talk politics or religion, you can usually get a disputant without much trouble, especially if you happen to be for like vs. Harry, or Allan vs. Yarborough. Yeah, you can get an argument if you are looking for one if you are for or against either of these men or what they stand for. You can even find those who think McCarthy is doing the nation a good turn, then there are those on the other hand that think his big mouth ought to be closed and quick. But you can't find a man or woman that was against the rain. In fact in our dodging in and out of the stores here of late, we run into both men and women, some of which live in town, and some are farmers. After the first greeting, and you have just a bit of time to tell 'em about your rheumatism and other aches and pains, they will say: "But wasn't the rain glorious?" And it is. For the past three years, while the sky was as brass and the sun beat down like a desert, and the grass and vegetation was brown and wilted, all found the weather very discouraging, and a subject that was discussed, if at all, in jest. Ask a farmer friend when he thought it would rain, and he would cock one eye at the sky, and maybe say: "Don't know, I've been here too long," or something on that order. For the past three years we have had no deep moisture, and the showers that fell during the hot growing season was dissipated in the torrid air. But thank goodness last October, rains ranging from 4 to 10 inches fell over the area that put a deep season in the ground for the first time since 1950. On top of that, the good rain around the 10th of April and then the good rains the past week. Crops have been made on showers through the growing months here many times, if there was a deep season, and we have it this year. So you can just tell your folks that there is one thing the people of this area are agreed on—the GOOD rains.

While comparatively new to this area, we are all proud of what the oil business has meant to this section. If we are perfectly frank about the matter, most of us will acknowledge that if we did not have oil in this area the past three years of drouth, the pinching would have hit us much harder. It is true that perhaps only one in ten are directly gaining from oil, all of us are indirectly. In the first place, many of our farmers and some of the town people have their land leased for oil production, and their yearly pay checks for this, in some cases at least, is fairly liberal. Aside from that, many people live here who work in the oil fields, and their checks are cashed, spent or deposited with the local business men and in the banks. Then there are hundreds who make their their home that are either working in some office building or supply houses for oil companies, the pay rolls of which run into the multi-millions of dollars annually. Many people are inclined to think that most of the oil money drifts off down to the larger cities. But as a matter of fact, a large per cent of it remains here where the production is made. Lots of folks don't realize that it costs from $35,000 to $100,000 or more to put down a well, and on top of that the man or company that puts out their money to risk the well drilled, must run the risk that about one in every three will be a dry hole. To say the least, the matter of oil production is a gamble, just as raising a crop is a farmer's gamble. A farmer will work, say 160 acres, which he figures will cost him a given amount of money. He then figures to get a certain amount for his products, and that the field will yield so much. Maybe his calculations are OK, and then again, maybe they are not, and he breaks even, loses a bit of money or his Representatives attending the area meeting at Lubbock, May 10, for discussing the new wind erosion control plan from Terry County were Riley D. Jones, chairman of the Terry County ASC Committee; Henry Williamson, Terry County SCS Technician; Jim Foy, County Agent; and Looe Miller, Terry County Office Manager.

Lester Young, ASC State Administrative Officer from College Station, was in charge of the meeting. He explained the practices under which the money can be spent. The allocation for Terry County is $63,400, and the allocation for Yoakum County is $24,800.

The following are the practices and the Federal cost-share rates of the Emergency plan as determined by the State ASC Committee.

Practice 1: Field Strip cropping, $1.25 per acre.
The strips must consist of perennial grasses, or sorghums in rows, or solid seeded, alternating with strips of other row crops or fallow. Strips must not be less than four normal rows wide, and must not be more than 12 normal rows wide.
Practice 2: Stubble mulching to protect soil from wind erosion, $1.25 per acre. A stubble mulch must be maintained on the surface soil by performing tillage operations which will leave sufficient profits are shy. Same way with the oil industry. Nevertheless, the American Petroleum Institute states that this year the oil industry will put out $4,600,000,000 to develop and expand its industry. Four billion of this will be spent in the USA and the rest abroad. Now these billions will be spent for wells and equipment, pipelines and tankers, chemicals, fertilizer plants, refineries, as well as distribution and other types of operation. This will call for an enormous lot of materials and equipment made by manufacturing plants, and will give thousands of other people employment.

Among the rugged individuals in this land of ours, there are none that equal the old cattleman. And he rigidly believes that every business and calling should stand on its own bottom without aid or abatement from the government. Recently, Readers Digest had an article about the ruggedness of the American cattleman, entitled "Too Smart For Subsidy," that well illustrated the outlook of the average old cattleman. Although the break in price was said to be in the neighborhood of five billion dollars, the cowman refused to be subsidized, and did not run to Washington for a handout. Up in Colorado, to mention one state, a vote was taken on the matter of subsidies, the vote was 1164 to 202. Perhaps the vote, if it had been taken in Texas and other big cattle raising states, would have been on a par with that in Colorado. In fact, in conventions, such voice votes were taken, and they voted to go their way, and make the best effort they could under the circumstances, and try to weather the storm without asking a handout from Washington. But they didn't stand still about the matter. They worked and planned, and perhaps some prayed, but they determined to "work out their own salvation with fear and trembling." So, what did they do? They hooked up with the packers, the wholesaler and retail meat dealers, and put on a campaign to educate the people to eat more beef. They knew the people had money to spend for meats, but many of them perhaps preferred pork or poultry. The idea was advertised that beef was not only good food, but a nourishing food, rich in vitamins. So the idea was to put on a big drive to get people to help them by eating more beef with this multi-million dollar drive. To say the least, the campaign of education was a huge success, and at the end of 1953, the trend toward eating beef and more beef was firmly established. And from reports still reaching us, the drive is still going strong, and people are actually eating more beef per capita than in any other period of American history. Of course the bad drouth the past two or three years in the southwest has been a headache to the cattleman as well as the farmer and everyone else. But rugged individualism will finally find a way out if persisted in. There is no easy road to success in any undertaking, and lots of times there are sharp bends, and rocky roads. And not all of them are paved with gold.

As practical as the Committee has all the forms necessary for accepting applications and making payment, and funds are already available.

WHAT CONSUMERS EXPECT AS TO PRICE CHANGES

CONSUMERS EXPECT PRICE STABILITY

What consumers anticipate in the way of future price changes—whether they prove right or wrong has an important influence on their current economic decisions. It is significant that a recent Federal Reserve Board survey shows that, in early 1954, the largest group of consumers expect prices to remain steady. As always, some expect prices to fall; others expect prices to rise, but there is not a majority in either direction. This is not too much different from the situation a year ago, but it is vastly different from the pattern in early 1951 when 77 per cent of consumers expected prices to rise, and early in 1952 when 53 per cent expected them to rise. About 41 per cent of consumers now expect prices to remain substantially unchanged through 1954. These people are not likely to engage in panic spending in order to buy before prices increase, neither are they likely to hold off in anticipation of lower prices. A somewhat smaller number—36 per cent—expect falling prices. These consumers may postpone some types of buying, thereby leaving a backlog of needs and desires in the future. To some extent, the hoped for lower prices already have materialized. Another 16 per cent of all consumer units in early 1954 expect rising prices. (An additional 7 per cent were uncertain.) This is smaller than the corresponding percentage in any year since the beginning of the Korean War. The trend suggests that while consumers, in their present mood, are not likely to be scared into buying in the near future, they can be enticed into buying.

SEVENTY WEST TEXAS COUNTIES TO GET AID

Secretary of Agriculture Benson, has allotted $2,322,000 to Texas out of the $10 million recently appropriated by Congress, to some 74 counties of West Texas. The balance of the 10 million was divided between Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma. As we understand it, most of these funds are to be used to fight soil erosion. The 74 counties in Texas, run west from Jones, Wilbarger and Collingsworth to the New Mexico line. And from the northern part of the Panhandle to Tom Green and Sterling on the south.

By carefully digesting an inaccurate eight-page local guidebook, a tourist can return to her native environment and confuse even the scholars of history.

I see where for every man 85 years of age there are seven women. But by that time it's too late.

LOCAL BOY NOW IN TRAINING AT FT. HOOD

FORT HOOD. — Pfc. Robert D. Constancia, whose parents live on Route 4, Brownfield, Texas, is taking part in Exercise Spearhead, large-scale Army training maneuver being held this month at Fort Hood, Texas. Primarily an armored exercise centered around the 1st "Old Ironsides" Armored Division, Spearhead will test the utilization of personnel and equipment in a modern armored division under simulated combat conditions. Constancia, who entered the Army in February, 1953, is a tankerman in the division's 81st Reconnaissance Battalion.

Sometimes I wonder why in books and art only the ugly and sordid side of life comes under the head of "realism." For most of us, fortunately, the other side is just as real.

With but a few exceptions, no other living thing is so anxious to please as a middle-aged woman with a new husband.

According to a memorandum received from the state ASC Committee, farmers may secure cost shares for practices started on or after March 31, if they make applications for such before May 17, 1954. Those farmers planning to start any of these practices in the future, may secure Federal Cost shares if they make application before the practices are started. All farmers interested in the above practice should come to the county ASC office located in the basement of the Postoffice, as soon as practicable. The Committee has all the forms necessary for accepting applications and making payment, and funds are already available.

DESTROY BAGWORMS NOW BEFORE THEY RUIN YOUR PLANTS

A cone-shaped bag hanging from your plants is the cue to destroy the bagworm — now before they ruin your plants.

Bagworms are usually found on arbovitae and cedar-like plants, but some species bunch on altheas, elms, roses, and oaks.

At this time, a spray or dusting will kill the bagworms. Later when they are grown, the pests must be removed by hand and burned.

Two sprays of 10 per cent chlordane, applied a week apart, will kill the bagworms, says Sadie Hatfield, homestead improvement specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Another effective killer is a spray of 3 tablespoons of lead arsenate to one gallon of water. Toxaphene may also be applied as a spray.

Dustings of 10 per cent chlordane or 10 per cent toxaphene are good.

Speed Is The Best Stain Remover

COLLEGE STATION.—Speed is the best stain remover! Whether it is chocolate ice cream on baby's rompers or ink on your school child's clothes, speed is the key to successful removal.

If the stain is treated before it dries, the chances of removing it are increased. To remove ice cream stains, use cold water immediately and then wash in warm soap suds.

To remove ink stains, let water run through the spot before it dries if possible. Equal parts of glycerin and water makes another good remover, say clothing specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

For information on removing all types of stains from eggs to ink to iron rust, see your local home demonstration agent or write the Agricultural Information Office at College Station for a copy of the booklet "Removing Stains From Clothing."

Farm Bureau to Discuss Legislation In Mass-Meetings

WACO.—The Texas Farm Bureau called three area-wide mass meetings this month to discuss pending farm legislation. TFB President J. Walter Hammond has announced.

Sessions will be held May 26 at the Baker Hotel, Dallas; May 27 at the Lubbock Hotel, Lubbock; and May 28 at the Plaza Hotel, San Antonio. John C. Lynn, legislative director for the American Farm Bureau Federation in Washington, will be main speaker for all three meetings.

Lynn's talks will touch on agricultural legislation being considered in Washington. This includes all phases of farm programs that have been or will be introduced in Congress during this session.

In addition, he will explain in detail the major provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1949. This is the basic law under which agriculture will operate beginning next year unless present temporary amendments are extended or new amendments are tacked on. Lynn is an authority on the 1949 Act.

The sessions are not intended to rally support for or against any proposed farm legislation. They were called at the request of Farm Bureau members who expressed a desire for unbiased, factual information in order to get a better understanding of past, present and possible future farm laws.

Each of the meetings will get underway at 10 a.m. and will be concluded by 3 p.m. The sites and program schedule were arranged so that a maximum number of county Farm Bureau leaders could attend.

Lynn, a native of North Carolina, has made scores of appearances before House and Senate committees in behalf of Farm Bureau. His duties enable him to keep close contact with political currents in Washington.

He joined the staff of the AFBF in 1948 after representing the US on Allied Control Commission for Germany as assistant director of the Anglo-American Food, Agriculture and Forestry Division.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bond and son, Wally, of Lubbock, were in Brownfield, Sunday, visiting his mother, Mrs. W. A. Bond.

Commencement Held For Eight At Union; Left Sat. For Colo.

Eight students from Union High School graduated in exercises held Friday night at the school auditorium, with Mrs. Lucille Burleson, county visiting teacher, giving the commencement address.

Miss Jean Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sargent, was valedictorian, with a grade average of 93.9. Miss Bonnie Horn, daughter of B. W. Horn, was salutatorian with a grade average of 93.0.

Baccalaureate exercises for the group were held May 9, with Glenn Sargent, freshman student at Abilene Christian College, making the principal address.

Graduating seniors include Nolan Corbett, Evelyn Neighbors, Pauletta Gracey, Lloyd Wilson, Joe McCullough, Robert Faught, Jean Sargent, and Bonnie Horn.

The group left last Saturday at 3 a.m. for Colorado Springs and Denver, to be gone for a seven-day senior trip, which will include sites such as Pike's Peak, a hike up Cheyenne Mountain, and a visit to Seven Falls.

Accompanying the seniors is M. G. Gary, superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Henry Williamson. Fred Stoughton is senior sponsor.

The seniors and their guests were honored by the faculty on May 13, at the school cafeteria, with a fried chicken dinner, prepared by the faculty.

Wear a Buddy Poppy, May 29th.

Harve and Mrs. Harris of Tatum, N. M., were here Monday to attend the funeral of Tom D. Davis. They visited in the Uncle Jack Blankenship and the Mrs. J. H. Eubanks homes. Also visited old New Mexico friends in the local hospital.

Berlon Lincoln, formerly of Brownfield and now of Panhandle, Texas, where he is a wheat farmer, has been visiting with his father, "Abe" Lincoln, who has been in the local hospital for the past several weeks, and his mother and other relatives here.

Dr. and Mrs. T. H. McIlroy, of Brownfield, spent the weekend at their cabin at Colorado City lake.

We Get A Look-See At The New Wellman School Buildings

Had seen a lot of late about the new Wellman school building, and so, Monday afternoon the Jr. and the Old He decided to drive down there and give the school the once over. Frankly, the construction was not as far along as we expected, but the building will be ready for the young ideas when school opens this fall.

And let us say here and now that we are proud of the new Wellman High School building. It's going to be a beauty from any angle when it is finished and the grounds are improved. It will be a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

We noted that they are at work on their football fields, in getting the grass started before use this fall. It is well sodded and the grass is as green—well as green as grass—already.

And the crops between here and there are like elsewhere, spotted. Some planted, but the cold May so far has discouraged the seed sprouting and shooting up. Some were planting over.

James King sure has a pretty field of alfalfa out a mile or two on the Seagraves road.

Barnes And Pace Accept Positions

Superintendent of the Meadow Schools, Homer Barnes, has accepted the position of sanitarian for the South Plains Health Unit, and he and his wife, who has served as a supply teacher at the school will move here about the middle of June.

One of the couple's sons, Cpl. W. Barnes, is enroute home from Korea at this time, after 16 months service in the Army over there. Another son, Don S., is currently starting six months training at the Navy Hospital in Corpus Christi as a surgeon assistant. Their other son, Morris V., farms at Big Spring.

Principal A. L. Pace, after four years at Meadow Schools, has accepted principalship of the grade school at Wolforth. He will commute between the school and his home in Lubbock, where his wife teaches in the schools.

Old Pioneer Of The Area Passes On

Tom D. Davis, 90, and a pioneer of this area, passed away last Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Williams, at Plains. Funeral services were held at the local First Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. E. C. Strickland, of Plains. Burial was in a Lubbock cemetery.

Mr. Davis came to Terry County in 1907, and settled at Gomez, and carried the mail from Gomez to Harris in those days. Later he carried the mail from Plains to Tatum, N. M. Everyone liked Mr. Davis, and he was such a good walker, that he was often called "Walking" Davis.

He leaves six sons and three daughters to mourn his passing. His wife passed away in 1947. The two sons who lived in California, were unable to attend his funeral.

Another Old Timer Was In To See Us

Claude Hudgens, of Fort Worth, was in to see us for a spell Saturday and we really put in a lot of time talking, as he was for a long time our next door neighbor. Mrs. Hudgens was not with him, as he had business in the Midland area, here, and later at Levelland. However, Bess, his wife, was out with a lady friend from Fort Worth, for a visit with mutual friends in Levelland.

Claude and family, along with his parents, moved here from the Stephenville section about 1920, and they farmed a few years out in the Forrester area, but later bought in with J. B. Knight in the hardware and grocery business, and moved to town. This partnership continued until about 1938, when Claude Hudgens sold to Mr. Knight and moved to Levelland, where he put in a business. He moved to Fort Worth about eight years ago.

However, he moved to Alexandria, La., after leaving Levelland, where they lived a few years, and ran a butane tank manufacturing business until Claude fell from a truck and was so badly injured that he sold out and moved to Fort Worth, where he has lived since.

Claude's health is fairly good presently, and we sure enjoyed his call. He spent the night with his niece, Mrs. Slim Shillinger, and Mr. Shillinger. His sister, Mrs. Kyle Graves and husband were visiting another brother, Clarence Hudgens in Arkansas.

Attending market in Dallas last week from Brownfield were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Self, Mrs. Harvey Gage and Gladys Swain all of Collins Dry Goods; Miss Mary Ballard of the Go're Fashion Shoppe; and Mrs. Joe Shelton of Shelton's Ready-to-Wear.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted White and Susan, of Odessa, visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Eldora White at 315 East Hill.

Earl Jones and Archie Copeland of the Jones-Copeland Insurance Agency in Brownfield, attended a state insurance convention at Ft. Worth, Thursday through Saturday.

The Texas Farm Bureau has called a mass meeting this month to discuss pending farm legislation. Terry County Farm Bureau President E. H. Farrar, announced this week.

The meeting will be held May 27, at the Lubbock Hotel. John C. Lynn, legislative director for the American Farm Bureau Federation in Washington, will be the main speaker for the meeting.

OH! THAT FINE ALFALFA AND RYE THAS'S COMIN' ON

The better seven-eighths and the Old He drove out along the Tahoka Road, Sunday P. M., just to get a breath of good, fresh Terry air, and to see if any of the crops were coming up. Just a short cruise out the highway, then two miles south on the Country Club road, and back into the southeast part of the city via the old Lamessa road.

Didn't see many crops up, as following the April rains, it was just too cold for anything to come up except Johnson grass and weeds. But in a few places there was some cotton and maize up, but whether a stand, is yet undeterminable.

But we can say this: On those irrigated farms, and there are many out that way, we saw some of the prettiest alfalfa, near waist high, and some of the best fields of rye we have looked at in a long time. The rye is headed, but not ripe, and the alfalfa will soon be ready to cut the first time.

On the dirt road coming in, the fields are much sandier, and not too many had been planted, but planting operations had started in some places, and we noted that some of the farmers were tuning up their machinery to get started to planting.

Wear a Buddy Poppy, May 29th.

Sometimes People Bring On Hard Times

Had a conversation recently with a man that sells and collects for farm machinery, and the subject of good, bad and indifferent conditions that prevail on our farms came up. He related that he tried to make collection on some farm machinery just recently, when the farmer stated that he didn't have a red cent to spare.

But, says the man we were talking with, he had a Cadillac car setting out in front. We then handed him the little banker-farmer confab printed below, which we scissored from another paper. He read it, and said it suited in many cases, but added that there were plenty farmers who were really trying to do something and meet their obligations. That the article was an exception of the general rule.

But here is the article. Read it: A small town banker recently was dealing with a farmer who wanted to get a loan on which to make a cotton crop.

"Well, let's see," the banker began, "what do you have as collateral? Do you have a tractor?"

"No," replied the farmer, "I have found that I can hire my plowing, planting, and cultivating done cheaper than owning my own equipment."

"How about some cows?" the banker queried.

"Nope. With just me and the wife, we find it cheaper to buy our milk."

"Well, then, maybe some hogs?"

"No hogs. We can buy our meat cheaper than we can raise hogs."

Further questioning developed that the farmer had no collateral, and that he could buy his stuff cheaper than owning it.

"Well, then," the banker said, "suppose you just come around this fall and maybe we can buy you some cotton cheaper than you can raise it."

'54 WHEAT DATES EXTENDED
The final date for the disposition of wheat in excess of the acreage allotment has been extended from May 15 to May 31, 1954, and there will be no extensions after May 31.

Tuesday, May 25, is the final date to come to the ASC office and designate the acreage in excess of the allotment to be used as a green manure or hay crop.

Wheat in excess of allotment not disposed of as green manure or hay crop by May 31, 1954, will be counted as wheat and will be subject to Marketing Quota Penalties.

The penalty for excess wheat is $1.12 per bushel times the normal yield established for the farm by the County Committee.

Wheat buyers are required by law to collect a penalty of $1.12 per bushel on all wheat not identified by a Marketing Card or Certificate.

Those producers who have excess wheat should contact the ASC office at once and designate the acreage to be used as green manure or hay crop. This must be done within the limits set forth above.

Release of Cotton Allotment
Those producers who do not plan to plant all or any part of the cotton acreage allotment this year, may release the unused acreage to the County Committee in order that it may be reapportioned to those farms on which it may be planted.

Cotton allotment acreage released from farms on which cotton was planted in either or both years 1952 and 1953 will count as cotton acreage history for the farm.

Cotton allotment acreage released from farms on which NO cotton was planted in either 1952 or 1953 will not count as cotton acreage history for the farm.

Farms on which no cotton was planted in either 1952, 1953, or 1954 will not be eligible for an "Old Grower" (regular) Cotton Allotment next year, 1955.

Friday, June 4, 1954, is the final date to release any cotton acreage that will not be planted this year, however, if you do not plan to plant any part or all of your allotment, it should be released now, in order that someone else may use it.

G. I. QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q.—I know a disabled World War II veteran who's taking on the job training under Public Law 16. He recently was injured while in training. Would he be eligible for VA compensation because of his training injury?

A. He might be eligible, provided that his injury resulted from some training activity, and provided that it is serious enough to warrant compensation payments.

Q. Is it possible to get a GI loan to buy residential property containing more than one family unit?

A. Yes. However, if one veteran is buying, the total number of separate units he can get is four.

Q. A World War II veteran friend of mine died recently, leaving his wife a $10,000 GI term insurance policy. He had failed to pay his last premium on time, but the grace period hadn't expired. Will his wife get the full amount of the policy?

A. His wife will receive the full amount of the policy minus the unpaid premium.

Q. In computing annual income for VA pension purposes, does a veteran have to count his gross salary, or only his net take-home salary?

A. He must include his full gross salary—including deductions made for retirement and amounts withheld for income tax.

JAYCEE RODEO IS SET FOR JULY 7-10

July 7 through 10 has been set as the dates for the annual Brownfield Junior Chamber of Commerce Rodeo, which will be open for amateurs only this year, according to Alvin Davis, general chairman.

"Goat" Mayo will furnish stock this year. He had also the Stamford, Snyder and Pampa rodeos in the area during the past few years.

According to Jaycee President B. F. Hutson, the sponsoring group voted to allow girls to show animals in the local Junior Livestock Show in the future, which will in the future have the name of Yoakum County left out in the name. He explained that when the show originated Yoakum County 4-H and FFA boys did not have a show in which to compete, but now that they have their own show, the show here will be only for Terry County boys and girls.

At the meeting, Jaycees also voted to pay expenses to send a local boy to Austin for Boys State.

Yoakum Court Votes To Take Over Co. Hospital Operation

The Commissioners' Court of Yoakum County voted in regular session, Monday of last week, to take over the operation of the Yoakum County Hospital in Denver City, effective the date that the court and the present administrator, Dr. George W. Sibley, will decide on for the transfer of management.

The court had been notified by Dr. Sibley that he was turning the hospital back to them May 15, but would stay past that time until the commissioners' court could make their arrangements.

An open meeting had previously been set by the court on May 24, to decide what to do with the hospital, but since many citizens had already expressed their wishes, the court voted, Monday, to take over the management.

A hospital board was appointed by the court to meet and elect a chairman and hire a superintendent to run the hospital. Names submitted for the board included Paul Cobb, Reese Wilkison, D. P. Moorhead, Fray Piland, Ty M. Field, and Johnnie L. Fitzgerald.

Behind The Scenes

By REYNOLDS KNIGHT

NEW YORK—Small builders throughout the country have been frightened by the uproar over old scandals in the Federal Housing Administration. It came at the worst possible time, while the Senate was considering the Housing Act already passed by the House. Actually, the bill is not too much in danger. The Senate, however, will put some safeguards which are lacking in the bill the House passed.

It will probably be made illegal for a builder to "mortgage out" of a housing loan; that is, build the structure for less than the supposed 90 per cent loan and pocket the difference. When Section 608—this section, now extinct, was the one that caused the scandals—was first proposed, this safeguard was suggested. It was decided that the danger of lending too much was less than the danger of holding up rental housing starts.

Home improvement racketeers will be faced with clauses requiring either builders or lenders to provide guarantees against fraud. Today the borrower and contractor go to the lender together, certify that the work was performed, and that's that.

One House-passed provision likely to be killed—many builders and lenders opposed it from its inception—is that for no-down-payment, 40-years-to-pay, mortgages on low-cost homes.

Dropped in this week to see the old friend, Ed Thompson. He is doing fairly well, but the damp weather of late has made his asthma some worse. His son, Phillip and family, have moved back to Brownfield from Grand Prairie.

For one widow who has been fleeced by an unscrupulous man, ten men have been fleeced by unscrupulous women.

Except for this and that (which I dare not mention), I should be delighted with the state of the world as it is, and who wouldn't?

Four Terry Boys To Attend Lone Star Boys' State in June

Four boys from Terry County have been chosen by school officials to attend Lone Star Boy's State in Austin, June 13-19, sponsored by American Legion posts in conjunction with other civic organizations.

The representatives from Terry County and their sponsors will be Sonny Curtis, of Meadow Rotary Club; Kelly Sears, of Brownfield Howard-Henson Post 269, American Legion; Bobby Chaffin, of Welch, to represent Union Lions Club; and Milton Parker, of Wellman Veterans of Foreign Wars.

They will leave early June 12, with 30 other delegates from this area on a bus chartered by the Allen Brothers Post of American Legion at Lubbock.

The boys took a physical examination in preparation for the trip to Austin. The meeting will be centered in the Texas School for the Deaf, at Austin.

Delegates will be assigned to two political parties, the Long Horns and the Pioneers, through which they will elect officers for state and local governments.

On Friday, June 18, the boys elected to state offices will go to the Capitol to assume the position of the office to which they were elected. Speakers during the week will include a number of state officials.

Boys' State has been held annually for about 15 years with the American Legion and civic clubs sponsoring delegates each year.

1/2-IN. RAIN FELL HERE MON. NITE

Another good shower fell here Monday night, amounting to .43 inch and the weather has been threatening since. We have an idea that most of the trade area received that much rain, and some portions much more. In fact, we understand that a lot of Yoakum County received better than two inches.

And reports from down Seminole way, is that that burg has been flooded for the third time this year, April 11, and May 9th and 16th. We like rain, but we don't exactly want it in flood gobs. Nor the twisters as per the Lovington, N. M. style.

Fact is, we still had a good season from the rains of the 9th and 10th, which may have packed the ground on freshly planted truck. These last showers should soften the soil up to where the seed may now come through.

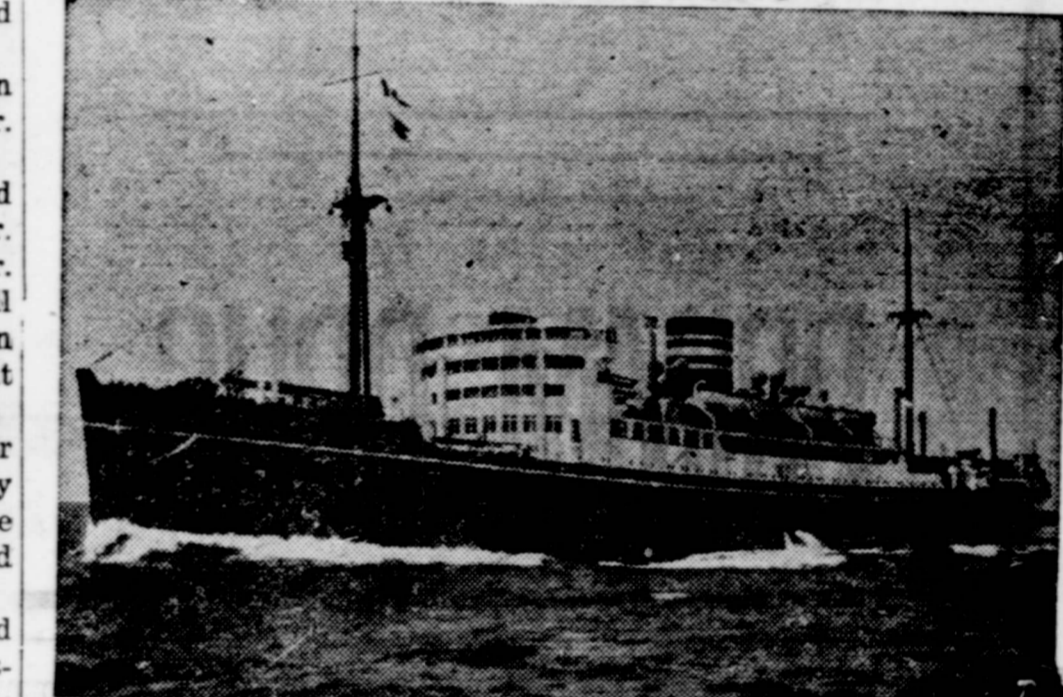

To say the least, things are looking good for a normal crop in Terry and area for the first time in three years.

Mrs. T. D. Warren dropped in this week to get the paper changed from Wellman to Brownfield. She stated that Tom seemed to be on the mend, and we hope will soon be able to be about. He will appreciate the calls of old friends.

Passenger Ship Service Resumed on Seattle-Orient Route

Pre-World War II travelers know well the name that appeared again in trans-Pacific shipping news this week—the N. Y. K. Line and luxury passenger steamship service between the United States and Japan with the appointment of James Griffiths & Sons to carry on complete agency work in their behalf from Seattle, Washington, for both passengers and freight. The modern, streamlined Hikawa Maru has been fully restored to her pre-war beauty—spacious public rooms, elaborate cuisine and every shipboard comfort and pleasure for the traveler. The Hikawa Maru has accommodations for 276 passengers in the new, deluxe economy Cabin class and also in third class. The ship departs on a regular schedule from Pier 50 in the heart of downtown Seattle.

VEGETABLE BAKE MAKES TASTY COMBINATION

Whether you're an advocate of garden-fresh vegetables or frozen foods, you should include a wide variety of green and yellow vegetables in your meal planning. Vitamin-rich vegetables supply elements that are necessary to good health and growth. Serve them in tempting, appetizing combinations like this delightful vegetable bake.

1 1/2 pounds of green beans or 1 package French-cut frozen beans
2 cups of small white onions
3 large green peppers
1 package frozen kernel corn
2 1/2 cups canned tomatoes
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons Worcestershire
1/4 cup margarine

If fresh beans are used, cut lengthwise into strips and cook 10 minutes in 3/4 cup boiling water with one teaspoon salt. If frozen beans are used, add 1/4 cup boiling water and 1/2 teaspoon salt and bring to a boil. Drain. Peel onions and cook in boiling salted water until almost tender, about five minutes. Cut peppers in halves lengthwise and remove seeds. Cook corn two minutes in 1/2 cup boiling water with 1/2 teaspoon salt. Fill peppers with corn. Arrange filled peppers in large well-margined baking dish or on deep oven-proof platter. Put drained onions between peppers. Arrange beans around edge of dish. Combine tomatoes, salt, pepper, and Worcestershire sauce. Pour over beans. Dot all vegetables generously with margarine. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cover and bake in a moderately hot oven (400° F.) 30 minutes. Serve hot with crisp corn sticks.

BE SURE YOUR CAR IN SAFE CONDITION TOPIC AT MEETING

"Unsafe automobiles are a menace to the community!"

Col. E. B. Tilley of Houston, President of the Texas Safety Association, and Services Advisor for the Gulf Oil Corporation today issued this warning and invited Texas motorists to join the statewide effort to put all automobiles in good mechanical condition. This vehicle maintenance program, sponsored by all official and non-official groups, is being conducted throughout May in cooperation with the Texas Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

"A motorist has no more right to drive a mechanically unsafe car than he has to walk down the street brandishing a loaded revolver," Col. Tilley said. "In fact," he continued, "the unsafe car could be the greater menace since its lethal nature is less obvious."

He pointed out that the alibi, "I didn't know my brakes were in such bad shape," doesn't excuse a fatal automobile accident any more than the alibi, "I didn't know the gun was loaded," excuses a fatal shooting.

"It's every driver's duty to know exactly what condition his automobile is in, and there's no excuse for ignorance on this point," Col. Tilley said.

According to Col. Tilley, a driver should keep checking his car constantly for the more obvious danger points. "This is easy and simple," he said. "A quick walk around the car can show if the lights are working. The windshield wiper, the horn and the mirror can be checked from the driver's seat. A brief examination of his tires will disclose excessive wear. Loss of brake efficiency shows up in ordinary driving."

"But no driver," he said, "should be satisfied with these surface checks. He should have his car checked regularly by a qualified mechanic. On these checks," Col. Tilley said, "the following points should be carefully checked: headlights, rear and stop lights, brakes, tires, steering mechanism, windshield wipers, muffler and exhaust system, window glass, horn and rear-view mirror."

"Now, William," said his teacher, who was testing her class on the proverbs, "you ought to be able to finish this one: 'Cleanliness is next to...what?'"

"Impossible?" exclaimed Willie, who lived near a mine.

A dumb executive and a dumb secretary make a happy team.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

As old as we are we are finding it pretty hard to get it through our noggin that Sambo's money—gifts from the Gov't, that is—is not the very same dinero that was put in the mail for the Old Boy on that irksome last March 15th. But on spending of our own local dinero—we seem to finally catch on better. Some day we might lower the boom on big Gov't spending.

You can't fool everybody all the time—30 years is not all the time, but it comes near a record. We been pretty simple. We whooped it up when we put Uncle Samuel in the kilowatt game—into matching dollars on any fancy gimmick the home folks could think up. And the Old Boy kept putting out bonds. He took gold coins from us. He propped prices—as we paid more to eat—comin' and goin' we been a gawky people.

But if I was in politics of one kind or another, I would shine up my stored away crystal ball—there could be an omen lurking therein—economy may again be the mode after these years of "what will we buy next?"

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

A man was nearly bankrupt and sick with worry. His doctor told him he must stop worrying, so he hired a man to worry for him. His wife scolded him. Said she, "How are you going to pay him?" He replied, "His job is to worry about that, too."

Post Stampede And Rodeo, May 26-29

Added attractions at the rodeo will include specialty acts and dances each night at the rodeo grounds.

The Post Stampede Rodeo, Inc.'s $40,000 arena, which seats more than 6,000, has been put in tip-top shape for this year's show, according to J. E. Birdwell, president.

Snake Bites Painful Even If Not Fatal

AUSTIN.—A warning about the dangers of snake bite has just been issued by Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer. A number of cases of snake bite are reported each year in Texas during the summer and early fall; however, few of these result fatally.

Most of the bites occur on the hands or feet, which indicates that stepping or falling in the immediate vicinity of an unseen snake, or picking up objects under similar conditions are the hazards of contracting snake bite. The pain following the injection of the poison is most intense. Other symptoms are swelling, giddiness, difficult breathing, hemorrhage, weak pulse, and vomiting.

If one is unfortunate enough to be bitten by a poisonous snake, such as the rattlesnake, the following first aid measures should be carried out.

After making proper incisions at the site of the wound, apply suction and continue for at least half an hour.

Apply a tourniquet above the site of the wound, releasing same every ten or fifteen minutes for about 5 seconds at a time.

If the proper antivenom serum is available, apply it according to directions, but most important of all is to remove as much of the poison as is possible so as to prevent its absorption.

Secure the services of a physician at the earliest possible moment.

23,000 DRAFTEES SET FOR JULY

The drafting of 23,000 men in July, an increase of 5,000 over the monthly quotas since February, has been announced by the Army during the past week.

The larger draft follows up Defense Department statements that more men would be needed for the Army in the fiscal year starting July 1 because of the number completing their two years' service during that time.

In response to questions, defense officials said the increase had nothing to do with the situation in Indochina.

The July call brings to 1,720,430 the total drafted or earmarked for induction since the resumption of Selective Service in September, 1950.

ALMA CADE IS NAMED 2ND MOST BEAUTIFUL ESA MEMBER IN STATE

The fifth Annual Texas State Convention of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International was held in the Galvez Hotel May 14, 15, 16, at Galveston, Texas. Approximately 300 members registered from all parts of the state.

General business assemblies, mixer beach parties, luncheons, work shops, open houses, water ballets, a style show, formal banquet and installation of new State officers were only a part of the convention agenda. Even though the schedule was crowded the girls managed several swims in the Gulf.

Anita Cooper of Brownfield, past district president of District 9, was honored at every assembly meeting by having a place reserved at the head tables.

Delta Kappa of Dallas introduced three of the most beautiful ESA girls in Texas. The Dallas chapter asked Dan Bailey, famous movie star, to judge the entries. The Beta Alpha Chapter of Texas City, carried away first honors for their entry. She was crowned Miss Texan of 1954 in honor of the sorority's newspaper.

West Texas was well represented at the convention as women from Brownfield, Lubbock and Plainview were present. Brownfield carried away its share of honors. They entered Alma Cade in the beauty contest and she was honored as second most beautiful ESA girl in Texas. She was presented at the coronation along with Miss Texan. The local chapter presented her with a bouquet of flowers for the ceremony. Alma has been an active member of the sorority for the past six years. She is talented, capable, and dependable when called upon to serve. Perhaps the secret of her winning this honor is her modest and retiring personality, which is absolutely free of conceit and vanity.

The last General Assembly was held on Sunday morning, at which time devotionals and memorials were held. The convention was concluded with a tour and presentation at the Wolff Polio Rehabilitation Home in Houston. This home is the project of the ESA clubs throughout the state. They have the complete upkeep of this very worthy home.

The 1955 Annual Texas State Convention will be held in San Antonio, Texas.

Those attending from Brownfield were Margaret Browder, Anita Cooper, Ruby Nell Hairston, Alma Cade, Margaritte Chanlor, Frances Gillham and Trucene George.

FURNITURE STORE has had as manager, Tracy Cary, for the past 8 years. He and his wife live at 921 E. Tate, and have six children.

FARM MACHINERY STORE has had as manager, O. B. Larner, for the past 3 1/2 years. Larner, his wife, and son live at 720 E. Broadway. Larner, at left, and Virgil Walker are shown above looking over the huge piles of irrigation pipe, stored on the lot adjacent to the store.

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles we intend to write about the business firms of our city.)

It was in May, 1924, thirty years ago, when the J. B. Knight Stores began in Brownfield. Two new men came to Brownfield, liked and decided to cast their lot in trying to make a thriving city out of a pioneer village. They were a Mr. Ashworth and J. B. Knight. Mr. Knight had drifted in from down around Graham. They put in a store around where it is now located, and carried groceries and hardware.

This partnership existed until 1934, when L. F. Hudgens and son, C. L., bought out the interest of Mr. Ashworth, who moved to the Littlefield area. Later on a partition wall was removed between this store and the former location of a dry goods business, and the store had a 50-foot front, which runs back to the alley, 140 feet presently. In 1938, Mr. Knight bought out the Hudgens' interest, except the grocery, which was moved next door south, where the Wacker store is now located, and is presently the Kyle Grocery, on First Street.

In the meantime the Knight store added a full line of furniture. In 1937, the Brownfield Hardware and Furniture over on Main Street was purchased, and all the furni-

Health Unit Staff To Public Health Meet In Sweetwater, Monday

Dr. David Cowgill, director of the South Plains Health Unit, and 11 members of the staff, attended the first annual meeting of the West Texas Section of the Texas Public Health Association in Sweetwater, May 17, 1954.

Dr. Cowgill served as program chairman for this meeting. Speakers were selected from various Health Units in the West Texas Section and the State Health Department. The following is an outline of the program presented: Welcome address: Mr. Williams, Sweetwater. Response, Dr. Alvin L. Waller, director, Brownwood-Brown County Health Unit. Informal speech on the Texas Public Health Association, and the importance of having Regional Meetings, Ed Riedel, business officer, State Health Department, and president of the Texas Public Health Assn. "Infant Mortality in Texas," by Dr. Fred P. Helm, pediatrician, Maternal and Child Health Division, State Health Department. "Planning a Nursing Program," by Mrs. Virginia S. Moore, senior nurse, Hockley County, South Plains Health Unit; Luncheon speech, "Some Health Unit Experiences in a Tornado," by Dr. D. R. Reilly, director, San Angelo-Tom Green County Health Unit. "Encephalitis," by Dr. J. E. Peavy, local health service division, State Health Department. "Clinical Aspects of Equine Encephalomyelitis," by A. B. Rich, D. V. M., Laboratory Director, San Antonio Health Department. A panel composed of H. E. Drumwright, secretary of the Texas Public Health Assn., Dallas Co. Health Dept.; Walter Breedlove, engineer and acting director of Lubbock-City-County Health Unit; Mr. W. W. Clarkson, sanitarian, Abilene-Taylor County Health Unit; and Mr. Fox, Sanitarian, Midland-Ector-Howard County Health Unit, led a discussion on "Convalescent Homes."

The purpose of this meeting is to give the public health workers in West Texas a chance to meet and discuss public health problems and new ideas that are of special concern to West Texas.

It was decided that this meeting would be an annual affair since the first meeting proved to be such a success.

The West Texas section includes: SPHU, Brownfield; Lubbock C. CHU; Nolan-Scurry CHU, Sweetwater; San Angelo-Tom Green CHU; Wichita Falls-Wichita Co. HU; Midland-Ector-Howard CHU; Abilene-Taylor CHU; and Brownwood-Brown CHU.

Dr. Hugh J. Stennis, of Nolan-Scurry CHU, Sweetwater, was elected president for the next year and the remainder of 1954.

ture of both stores was moved into the Main Street location, while the hardware part remained on the west side of the public square. Both stores gradually added appliances and other such merchandise. The Brownfield Undertaking department was sold to Roy B. Collier, and the funeral home moved to West Tate Street.

Along about this time, Mr. Knight's children were grown, and he began to take in partners in the business, being Robert, his son, and his daughter, Mrs. Gene Knight Jones. Also an interest was sold to a brother, Carl Knight of Seagraves.

In 1941, the Implement building was erected facing Broadway, and an alley separates the Hardware department from both the furniture and the implement business. Other than the three stores here, they have a store at Seagraves, which began operations in 1949, and another at Seminole, which began operations two years previously, in 1947. Some 35 men and women are employed in the five stores at very satisfactory wages.

Thus, briefly, the above is the history of the J. B. Knight stores. But like all other stores, the water has not been clear and placid at all times. It has taken patience and 30 years of hard work to create this huge business. For the past three years they have handled a lot of irrigation supplies, such as pumps and the power, piping, etc., and have had a fine business along this line.

Mr. and Mrs. Knight live at 410 E. Cardwell Street, and are members of the Methodist Church. He is a 32nd degree Mason, and a Shriner. He is a director of the Brownfield State Bank and Trust Co., as well as the Brownfield Saving and Loan Association.

Two Men Injured in Collision Thursday Last Week On 62

Two Lubbock men were in the local hospital this week following in which they were riding with a dump truck, about five and one-half miles northeast of Wellman, a collision of the pickup truck on Highway 62, Thursday afternoon of last week.

Hospital authorities said that W. L. Boyd, driver of the pickup, sustained possible broken ribs and possible internal injuries.

Gordon Tipkin, also of Lubbock, who was riding with Boyd, suffered lacerations of the head and face. Authorities said neither man's injuries were critical.

I don't mind a compliment now and then, nor do the women I know.

SCIENCE OF THOUGHT-SHAPING

The man sitting beside me at lunch remarked sadly on "the atmosphere of fear sweeping the country, fear that we may lose our personal liberties" as a result of anti-Communist activities by certain individuals and organizations. He's a sincere person and on many subjects unusually well-informed. He's a professional journalist. We had quite a lively discussion because in my own experience I haven't encountered a single person who was afraid. The only fear I find is those who fear somebody else may be afraid.

We left the luncheon table and went directly to the Hardin College auditorium to hear a lecture by Herbert Philbrick, the quiet, humble Massachusetts church worker who served nine years as an FBI counterspy deep within the Communist underground. Philbrick now is with the New York Herald Tribune, and what he said on the subject of the "atmosphere of fear" happened to be pointed and potent.

Communist Trickery

"One of the great problems which we have in dealing with Communism," said Philbrick, "is the fact that there seems to be in the minds of the American people certain blind spots. During the past year I've had the opportunity to travel several thousand miles and talk to many thousands of people. According to the Communist Party, and unfortunately according to some prominent politicians and educators, our American people today are alleged to be filled with fear, living in a climate of fear, afraid to express their minds or to express opinions, and constantly looking over their shoulder for a Congressional investigator."

"This claim, I can testify, from my own knowledge in visiting most of the key cities in this country during the past year and speaking to a wide variety of groups, is a complete falsehood. It is an utter lie. Of course the Communists hope, through this propaganda of theirs, to discourage anybody from taking a position against Communism. As for the other people (who pass along the propaganda) the most charitable conclusion I can come to is that they are totally ignorant of the feeling of the American people."

CYBERNETICS

But when influential people are led to believe and pass along the Communist propaganda it becomes a powerful force in ultimately shaping public opinion. Herbert Philbrick said the Communists are devoting a major effort today to the science of 'cybernetics.' "Never before," he said, "have we seen such a highly, skillfully organized propaganda machine. Cybernetics, according to the Communists, is the manipulation and control of information"—through the press, radio, television, word-of-mouth; all fields of communications.

"And by this means," said Philbrick, "you can control people as you do puppets. I don't know of a single book on the subject of what the Communists are doing with cybernetics. As a matter of fact my own knowledge is limited to the facts I've gathered from inside the Communist Party. But the Reds have been working at this for many years. And today they are working around the clock in this study of the scientific manipulation and control of information."

Conditioned Reflex

Philbrick said that cybernetics, as used by the Communists, is based on the findings of Pavlov, the Russian scientist who developed the theory of conditioned reflexes in animals. The Reds have found, Philbrick said, that "a man, like an animal, who is conditioned to respond to certain impulses, can be made to respond to words, phrases and symbols. Therefore you pour in the words, phrases and symbols to which he will respond without thinking. And then you withhold other certain words that would cause him to respond in a way you may not desire. It is the scientific control of human beings by means of control of information."

In their practice of cybernetics in America, the Communists are aided greatly by the fellow-travelers and the Communist-front dupes. And many loyal non-Communists aid them too, by being victimized by false information cunningly planted by the Red masters of the science.

Next week: Philbrick tells why the American mind is dangerously apathetic toward Communism.

50 YEARS AND STILL GOING STRONG

In fact, the Herald's predecessor, the Terry County Voice, for a few months, was born at Gomez, Dec. 11th, 1903. The plant was moved to Brownfield in June, 1904, and the paper was re-named the Terry County Herald.

So, according to the calendar, the Herald is already 50 years old—but according to Volume and Number (52 to the year) as many issues in the early days were skipped for one reason or another, The Herald will celebrate its 50th birthday July 16, 1954.

Therefore the Herald was the first Business institution on the scene in Terry County, that is still in existence to this good day.

The Herald has always stood up and fought for good old Terry and the whole area, for 50 long years. And despite occasional drouths, still believes we have an A-1 County, and the best people on earth.

JUNE PLENTIFUL FOODS LIST IS GIVEN
Milk and other dairy products rate top billing on June's plentiful foods list.

Supplies of tomatoes, onions, potatoes, cantaloupes and raisins are expected to be heavy enough to take spots on the list, reports John J. Slaughter of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Such popular main-dish foods as eggs, broilers, fryers and beef continue plentiful. Vegetable fats and oils complete the list for June, says the US Department of Agriculture.

World's First!

Phillips 66 presents the first All-Weather Motor Oil which has proved it meets the most exacting standard ever established for automobile lubrication...
Mil-0-2104, Supplement 1 level.

The toughest standard ever set up for automobile lubrication is the Mil-0-2104 Supplement 1 test. New TROP-ARTIC is the first all-weather motor oil to meet the requirements of this test. It is an oil which will serve you winter and summer... an oil so good it can double the life of an automobile engine!

Compared to ordinary motor oils, new TROP-ARTIC reduces ring wear 40% or more. It cuts oil consumption 15% to 45%. It keeps pistons and bearings cleaner... longer-lasting. It saves you money by increasing gasoline mileage. This has been demonstrated in tests representing over 150,000 miles of driving.

TROP-ARTIC is truly an all-weather oil... S.A.E. 10W through S.A.E. 30. Therefore it flows instantly for easy starting at sub-zero temperatures, and yet it retains the film strength necessary to prevent engine wear under high temperature driving conditions. It isn't just heavy duty, it's double duty.

Any car, in any climate, at any time of the year will perform better with Phillips 66 TROP-ARTIC. It is a worthy companion product to Phillips 66 FLITE-FUEL, the new high performance gasoline recently introduced by Phillips. It pays to stop at the station where you see the Phillips 66 Shield.

Harlem Clowns Play Lorenzo Here Monday

Laughs, entertainment and top-notch softball are promised fans at the game between the Harlem Clowns and Lorenzo Lions at Brownfield's Lions Park, Monday night.

The Clowns are making their first western tour after combining teams with the famous Iowa Colored Ghosts. The Brownfield game at 8 p.m., Monday, will be the only appearance of the Clowns in this area for almost a month. Jack Parish's Lorenzo team, who will play in the city softball league as Blue Bonnet Laundry, went to the world International Softball League tournament last year and brought home third place.

Weldon Haney and Red Denham, two of the best pitchers in West Texas, will be on the mound for the Lions, with James Abbott, Dub Warden and Newell Landreth also in the lineup. Shorty Buckner, king of the softball comedians, and Cy Phelps, formerly of the Brooklyn Dodgers, head the list of players for the Clowns. Admission for the game will be $1 for adults; 35 cents for children.

Strickingly—

By OLD HE

pleased with the affairs last year that they asked for a repeat this year.

The idea is for business men in Brownfield to pay for his own meal and some farmer or stockman in those communities on that night, and just eat and talk business and other matters. Generally speaking, some of the ladies clubs or the Home Ec. girls prepare and serve the meals. And a good time is had by all, and it gives the local business man a chance to become better acquainted with their customers.

Something came up recently in Lubbock that caused quite some discussion by those not directly concerned. It seems that the Farm Bureau had a room in the county courthouse, and of course were selling insurance to members. So, the Lubbock insurance men protested, and there was nothing else to do except for the Commissioners' Court to order the F-B out of the building, and to seek other quarters. This they did, and so far as we can learn, without protest.

But the Avalanche - Journal brings on another angle that perhaps the Commissioners had not studied. It seems the Lubbock Bar Association has a large room in the building where they have a private library for the membership, and so far as the A-J knew, were paying no rent on the room. Yet it is not a public library, but a private one. Maybe just a case of whose ox is gored. But so far as we can learn, neither organization was paying the county any rent.

Lately some of the clubs, both ladies and gents, have taken time out to address "thank you" notes to the Herald, which we assure them, are highly appreciated. While newspapers never make any protests, as they consider it their duty to the community to give free publicity about this and that affair, just the same they are composed of humans, and from a human standpoint, they appreciate a little pat on the back occasionally.

In his column, "For Your Information," last week, Editor Vanzant of the Gaines County News, down at Seagraves, illustrated this point very well, when he stated that a group of town boosters assembled could start his blood boiling when one of the boosters arises to a point of order, and suggests to Bro. Vanzant to put a full length streamer across the front page about some matter coming up, when money needs to be raised. Then just before he sits down, the speaker suggests that they BUY some spot advertising on some nearby radio station.

SOCIAL SECURITY MAN TO BE HERE MAY 27TH

A representative from the Lubbock social security office will be in Brownfield at 2 p.m. on May 27, at the County Commissioners' room at the Courthouse, and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to social security.

We figure that most organizations appreciate the free spots the newspapers give them, whether or not they ever express themselves to the newspaperman.

Speaking of advertising, last week Samuel C. White, one of the candidates for JP in this honorable precinct, handed us a card with the calendar of 1954 printed thereon. Well sir, we fully expected that July 24 would be marked in red letters, or at least a red circle around it. Undoubtedly that will be the date of all dates this year for the old candidate. But it was in black letter, no bigger nor no littler than the other figures on the calendar.

Then there was a good lady way out there at Portland, Oregon, who wanted a Herald under date of April 23, 1954. Just why anyone way out there in the Pacific Northwest would want a Herald of a certain date was beyond us. But we finally found one that had been rather badly marked up and "sont" it to her as she had "sont" us the money.

One of our callers Saturday was Pappy Dave Watson of the Denver City Press. And do you know he didn't hand us a card? And he was at that and this moment running like a scared wolf for the office of County Judge—over in Yookum, however.

That sorter reminds us of a joke that was pulled on a Terry County candidate many years ago. It was related as a fact that he got over in Yookum County soliciting votes, and he was given many he-haws.

Nevertheless, let us concede that he might have had something on his mind other than a vote. Don't all candidate cards, or practically all of them solicit "your VOTE and INFLUENCE?" Maybe there was some Yookumites that the candidate figured might help him some with his influence? Could be. And had Pappy Watson ever thought that perhaps the Old He might have some influence on some stray maverick over in Yookum?
