PEOPLE and THINGS

By J. W. S.

WE SUBMIT TO you that Mr. A. Z. Myrick, the dairy farmer, has established a record and one that nobody in Cisco will likely attempt to break. For 22 solid years, seven days a week, he got out of bed at 3:15 o'clock in the morning.

DURING THOSE 22 years Mr. Myrick and his machines and one assistant milked 50 cows twice each day. They bottled the milk for sale. Mr. Myrick conservatively estimated that he milked 75 gallons per day. Take out your pencil and you'll see that the 22 years (not counting leap years) of milking amounted to 602,250 gallons. And, figuring 8.6 pounds to the gallon, you'll see that he has marketed some 51,793,500 pounds of milk.

MR. MYRICK doesn't especially claim the 22 years of getting up at 3:15 a. m. as a record. But we'll bet nobody can match it. And we'll wager you further that nobody will want to.

FOR THE PAST two years, he has slowed down. He only gets up at 5:30 a. m. now. Of course, he doesn't sleep very well after 3:15. But you couldn't expect him to after all those years.

A CISCO MAN since 1913, Mr. Myrick has done well. He owns 600 acres of land. He farms 400 acres himself, devoting it largely to grains and feed crops. Several years ago, he became interested in soil conservation and he's a leader in this area in this sort of enterprise.

THE CISCO GROUP of the Upper Leon Soil Conservation Service includes Mr. Myrick, Dr. F. E. Clark, Herbert Wende, Rudolph Schaefer, F. O. Hilburn and H. B. Garrett. Their past year's program of digging tanks, building terraces, planting cover crops and conserving crop residue was outstanding enough to win for them a $250 cash award given recently by Lone Star Gas Co.

MR. MYRICK IS doing a splendid job as a dairyman and a farmer — a good job for himself and his community. He is civic-minded and ready to lend any progressive enterprise a helping hand. For example, he and his group have offered the $250 cash prize they won for soil building activities to the Chamber of Commerce for use in encouraging soil conservation.

THIS SORT OF work is something all of us should applaud and encourage. Look in retrospect and you'll see that if the fellows who work on the land prosper, we all do. Healthy conditions on the land make healthy communities.

A. Z. Myrick Heads Eastland County Dairy Association

A. Z. Myrick, Cisco dairy farmer, was named president of the Eastland County Dairy Association in a meeting in the county courtroom in Eastland Tuesday night.

L. R. Higginbotham, Kokomo, was elected secretary-treasurer of the new organization. T. W. Wadsworth, Eastland, Veterans Vocational teacher, was named as reporter.

One of the objectives of the association is to establish artificial breeding circles in order to improve the quality of dairy cattle in the county.

The membership fee was set at $1.00 per member. There were eleven charter members who joined at the initial meeting. Foot weather prevented more dairymen from attending the organization meeting, it was said.

The vice president and the board of directors will be elected at the second meeting of the group to be held in the county courtroom at Eastland on the night of May 25 at 8 o'clock.

All dairymen and others interested in furthering the dairy movement in the county are invited and urged to be present.

Texas Tech to Present Genuine Sheep Skins

LUBBOCK, May 11. — The first genuine sheep skins for Texas Technological College graduates are to be presented to the "class of '48" June 7, Pres. W. M. Whyburn announced.

The college seal is to be used on the diplomas this year. It replaces the state seal encircled by the college name which has served previously as the diplomatic stamp. The sheep skins, obtained from a British manufacturer, are thirteen and one-half inches deep by sixteen and three-quarters inches wide. Efforts have been made to present sheep skins to graduation candidates of past classes, but it was not until this year that enough diplomas of the proper size and specifications were obtainable. President Whyburn said.

Approval of the Post Office Department on recommendations for free mail delivery route extensions in Cisco had been received today by Postmaster Luther McCrea. Service to the new areas will be inaugurated as soon as arrangements are completed.

The approval was for the extension of existing routes to include: The 1200 block on Park Drive. The 1300 and 1400 block on Bliss avenue.

This strip of highway work is just across the Callahan county line from this county and will join on to the work now being done by the T. C. Cage Co., west of Cisco.

The work calls for grading structures and Texas & Pacific railroad overpass from Mexia Creek to Eastland county line.

It is understood that the T. C. Cage company had in a bid for this piece of work since it would just be a prolongation of the project they are now working on.

He has visited in Cisco many times and last year attended grammar school for one term. He is now a freshman in Huntington Beach high school.

IT'S HOT IN TEXAS.
AUSTIN, Texas, May 12.—It is hot in Texas in summer. The University of Texas College of Education admits it.

An announcement of the College's summer program for teachers calmly states that fact. Then it adds, "but people in Texas seem to enjoy life in summer also."

Interest Increases in Cisco Oil Fields; Closer Drilling Expected

It is revealed that new oil production has been developed in the old Cisco field one mile north of Cisco in the Charles J. Kleiner No. 2 by Hickok Producing and Development Co. This was an old gas well and was recently deepened from the Lake Sand at 3,437 feet.

On official gauge the well flowed 69.74 barrels of 42 gravity oil in 24 hours through a half inch choke with packer on casing and 110 pounds on tubing from 3,617-41 feet. Location was 1,508 feet from the south and 300 from the east line of section 83 block 4 H&TC survey.

The W. F. Bilsky No. 2 G. P. Mitcham completion has been filed from 70 barrels of 41 gravity oil in 24 hours. The well is 330 feet from the north and east lines of section 476, SP survey, and is located nine and one-half miles northwest of Cisco.

The production was on pump from 30 perforations in casing at 3,648.53 feet. Total depth was 3,659.

Official gauge on 109.5 barrels of 43.8 gravity oil in 10 hours has been filed for the DeKalb Agricultural Association, Inc., No. 3 Ima Higgins, north extension to the Chaney pool, Stephens County Caddo production area 10 miles southwest of Breckenridge.

The gauge was through half inch choke with 600 pounds on casing and 400 on tubing from open hole at 3,320-40 feet. Top of the Caddo was 3,275 feet and gas-oil ratio 307. The well is located 466 feet from the south and 1,400 from the east line of the north half of TEL survey 2257.

Operators have filed location for an east offset to the present production in the pool, the Wilcox Oil Company No. 5 Ima Higgins, 467 feet from the north and east lines of the southeast quarter of TEL survey 2257. Permit is for 3,300 feet with rotary.

Location is expected soon on city's land within town's limits. No definite date has been set.

Lucksinger's D. O. Class Entertained Lions Club Today

Lions were entertained today by the Diversified Occupations department of the high school, presented by L. B. Lucksinger, program chairman for the day. Arno Struve of Abernatha was a visitor.

Announcements were made by Charlie Burke regarding games to be played Thursday night at the soft-ball park, when the delayed formal opening will be held. The Royce Boyd team will play West Texas Utilities company nine, while two church teams, from the First Christian Church and the First Baptist Church will form the second number in the double-header.

President Ralph Glenn announced that the Lions club was being urged to form a team in the commercial league.

Robert Painter of the D. O. class was master of ceremonies in the presentation of the musical numbers and playlet skit of the program, introducing the Wooten sisters and Luther Edwards in a vocal number with guitar accompaniment.

A playlet including the heroic, villain and everything featured Joan Stowe, Floy Beth Nolan, as the six year old sister; E. L. Smith and Arthur Edwards, with Robert Painter as the policeman, was also very entertaining. The musical numbers were twice encored.

DR. A. CASWELL ELLIS TO SPEAK AT PUTNAM

Salvation Army Service Unit Organized

Walter J. Hyatt, field representative for the Salvation Army in Texas, has arrived in Cisco to formulate progressive plans for the local Salvation Army Service unit and assist in the fund-raising campaign which is to take place in Cisco this month.

Mr. Hyatt is a radio gospel singer and an ardent supporter of the Gideons but his salvation Army field work in helping to organize local Service Units has opened up a new avenue of practical Christianity.

"No one will ever know how many millions of people have been influenced to lead better lives because of the kindly, helping hands of the Salvation Army. Today, the Salvation Army has embarked upon an even greater program called 'The Salvation Army Service Unit.' The local Service Unit, comprised of men and women selected for their civic-mindedness and prestige in the community, is established to carry on the Salvation Army program in communities through these local citizens representing the Salvation Army and accepting responsibility of distributing local funds for welfare activities. The program can supplement government and private social agencies, meet local emergencies, or finance unduplicated programs developed by the local Service Unit committee," Mr. Hoyt said.

"The Salvation Army is the life line of help and safety for all people in trouble. Give—and Give

WALTER J. HYATT.

Generously to the Salvation Army Service Unit Annual Appeal.

"One of the varied aids given by the Service Unit is the placing of unmarried mothers in the Salvation Army Home and Hospital for the Texas area. Homes for unmarried mothers have been an integral part of the Salvation Army's program since its organization more than eighty years ago. When a girl makes application for such care with any Salvation Army officer, she is immediately assured that her case will remain confidential. Help the Salvation Army to continue the humane work for all people in need by contributing generously to its current fund-raising campaign," he added.

Lake Cisco took in 15,000 new citizens today. They're bass fingerlings, and Supt. W. L. Baum of the Cisco State Fish Hatchery turned them loose while Mayor Edward Lee and City Secretary Hal Lavery watched.

This was the first stocking for the city lake this year, Mr. Baum said that other varieties, including catfish, would be placed in the lake, later. The local fish hatchery serves lakes throughout this region.

Cisco Has Full Employment.

There is no good reason why every business in town should not be doing well now. Every man and woman in town who wants to work has a job. There is plenty of work and to spare for those who want to work, and most every able bodied man and woman seems to have the inclination.

There is plenty going on here now. The highway employs lots of men and a short while back was advertising for more men. All of these people are making Cisco their home.

There is a great deal of oil work going on in Cisco territory. Most of these oil workers make Cisco their headquarters and do their spending here.

Every carpenter in Cisco has a job and is too busy to do many small jobs that need to be done in the way of small repairs.

Every painter and paper hanger has a job and there are jobs waiting for an interior decorator.

Yard labor is plentiful. There are a number of yards in Cisco now waiting for the man with the lawnmower to show up.

Boys that want to work can find a job if they prove they are willing to give an honest return.

Every girl in Cisco that wants to work, even after school, can easily find some employment.

So why should Cisco not be prosperous? Why should not every merchant find plenty of business as never before?

A merchant talking to the editor last week remarked that his business was not as good as it had been. We could see no reason for this falling off. People all have jobs and certainly no line of business is over-crowded.

It is hard to understand why business should fall off in any store with all this complete employment.

Can it be that merchants have let down in their sales efforts?

During the war when goods were hard to get, merchants could sell anything they could get and at almost any price. With the coming of more goods and competition getting stronger, could it mean that some merchants are getting more of their share of business because they are doing a better job of selling than others?

Can it mean that with more abundant stocks from which to select and some using better merchandising skill, other merchants must use extra efforts to display and sell their goods? Can it mean that prices on many items must be adjusted and customers cultivated to a greater extent?

That is a question that merchants, themselves, must ask and answer to their own satisfaction. Surely, incomes have not shrunk and spending become less?

Perhaps the trades' day program being organized is a needful one. Perhaps some new efforts of merchandising are needed to persuade shoppers to turn loose their money in Cisco. Some of it might be going elsewhere. It will pay to investigate the cause of any slump in buying that might be in the offing.

Farmer Who Makes His Own Rain Finds Sprinkling Better Dry Ice

By CLAUDE RAMSEY
U. P. Staff Correspondent
ELSA, Texas, (UP)—Making rain by seeding clouds with dry ice doesn't interest W. A. Harding, owner of the unique Evergreen Farms.

For the past 11 years he's been making two and a half inches of rainfall a day.

Harding does his rainmaking on his 1,800 acre farm, where he grows alfalfa and sudan grasses for dehydration and manufacture into chicken and horse feed and vitamin pills for humans.

His is the only farm in the world, Harding believes, that operates full-blast 24-hours a day, seven days a week year after year.

Continual sprinkling, harvesting and dehydration is going on at the T-Shaped farm in the lower Rio Grande Valley.

Every 24 hours the sprinkling system lays down two and a half inches of rain on a 120-acre block. The next day another 120 acres are showered.

By providing plenty of rain, Harding is able to cut his alfalfa 10 times a year, his oat and other small grains three or four times.

His oats are cut when eight inches tall, alfalfa at 16 inches. The harvesters barely clear the soil as they snip off the plants.

"We cut while the plants are tender and have their greenest protein content," explained Harding, one of the real estate men who "opened up" the lower Rio Grande after World War I.

The alfalfa and oats are conveyed into trucks and hauled to the dehydrator, where they are fed into a telescopic drum furnace 24 feet in diameter.

Temperatures of 1,756 degrees Fahrenheit bake out the moisture. Then a hammer mill, grinding at 3,600 revolutions per minute, chops the stalks before they're sucked through a fine screen.

The finished product is a pastel green flour as fine as a housewife's baking flour. The entire dehydration and grinding process takes less than three minutes.

Most of the sacks of green flour are shipped to Kansas City, where they are mixed either with poultry feed or processed into vitamin pills for human consumption.

"The best thing about this farm is that we contract for our production a year in advance," explained Harding, who last year turned out 8,000 tons of dehydrated cereal grasses and alfalfa.

"Our soil is getting richer, too, because of the alfalfa, although we fertilize the oats and sudan grasses."

The farm has its own power supply. Gas wells provide power for the water pumps in the sprinkling system and for heat for the dehydration plant.

The Aleutian Islands are in the Bering Sea between Alaska and Siberia.
