PEOPLE and THINGS

By J. W. S.

BEING THE SORT of fellow who likes to look in retrospect and review the good old days, we can't fully appreciate the new model cars that are coming out these days. For example, we miss the old-fashioned running boards. How many times, in the past, have you seen fellows sitting on the running boards, chewing tobacco and talking over the situation.

PUTTING WATER in the radiator isn't what it used to be. You've got to unbutton buttons and open up the engine. No longer is there a crank for emergency uses. We don't know of anything that will turn a man into a raving maniac as quickly as hand-cranking a balky old car.

WE ONCE KNEW a man who had a pretty substantial enemy. So he gave him an old worn out car. His comment to friends was: "I can't think of anything that will cause him the misery and trouble that that old car will."

WAS RIDING IN another fellow's car the other day that had everything but the kitchen sink, so to speak. You could flip a button and the windows came down. A master panel up front enabled the driver to raise or lower any window in the car. It was a lot of fun, just to raise and lower the windows. We stopped when the man looked askance at us after we'd done it maybe a dozen times.

MR. CARL LAMB, who operates a car company out on Avenue D toward Brownwood approached us with an idea. He suggested that the business men south of the signal light on Avenue D could beat the business men north of the signal light in a softball game. He indicated that he and Punk Thornton would be willing to manage the team from their end, and suggested that maybe L. A. Hooker and Charlie Burke could look after the other.

OUR PICTURE HAS arrived so the new deal in our column will start Sunday. We'll print the fellow's letter who sent it to us. And we'll let you be the judge, after seeing the picture whether we should go up to Mr. Willard White's office and work up a lawsuit for damages.

Soil Conservationists To Gather in Ohio

RO GRANDE, O. (AP) Little Rio Grande College in southern Ohio will become the scene this fall of the greatest soil conservation demonstration ever staged.

The conservationists will make over the college's 300-acre farm in Gallia County hill country, Sept. 23-24. The program is sponsored by Rio Grande College, with Louis Bromfield, author and conservation enthusiast, heading the advisory board.

Rio Grande is making preparations for 100,000 visitors. More than 100 tractors will be used in the program.

BEANS DO SNAKE IN.

PORTALES, N. M. (AP) — Mrs. Gibbs McAfee reached for the closest weapon when she discovered a rattlesnake in her kitchen. The weapon, a pot of beans boiling on the stove, killed the snake.

REPEATS TOO OFTEN.

MACON, Ga. (AP) — A man who had been arrested 146 times was sentenced to two years on a drunkenness charge. Most of the other arrests were for the same offense.

LAKE CISCO PARK IMPROVEMENTS ARE UNDER WAY

The picnic ground at Lake Cisco Park is rapidly taking on a new look. Under the supervision of Street Commissioner J. L. Stafford, workmen are placing the park in the best shape in its history. Concrete tables are being constructed and will be placed conveniently throughout the area. Nine tables are completed and in use while some 12 or 13 more are being built. New barbecue pits are being built and the old pits are being repaired.

The park lighting system will be completely changed and additional lighting will be provided. All tables will be lighted sufficiently for picnicking at night.

Park drives are being repaired and parking areas will be designated. Some of the roads through the picnic ground are closed, in order to afford visitors more room. The park has been extended to the south, taking in the old Lion and Rotary park and some of the undeveloped ground. The grounds have been cleaned off and all trees have been painted. Additional water lines have been laid and water taps have been placed in convenient places.

A caretaker has been employed and is on duty six days a week. Park patrons are asked to assist in keeping the grounds clean and to co-operate with the custodian at all times.

In addition to the improvement in the park, Mr. Stafford stated that the road around the lake has been given a general over haul and is now in good shape. The roads leading to the fishing area are in first class condition.

When all work is completed, Cisco will have one of the best parks in West Texas and will be in a position to invite visitors from everywhere, Mr. Stafford said.

LEWIS ATTENDS COAL CONFERENCE

United Mine Workers President, John L. Lewis, left, is stopped by Federal Mediation Director, Cyrus S. Ching, right, at the door to Ching's Washington office and told that the conferences aimed at reviving soft coal contracts would be held on the first instead of the third floor. Lewis was heard to grumble, "What's the matter? Don't you have enough money to rent a room?" At center is John T. Jones, a UMW official. (NEA Telephoto).

Two Producing Oil Wells Result From Partnership Formed By Engineers

The bringing in of two wells for approximately 1,000 barrels each recently, in the Cisco area, brought about the culmination of a dream that had its origin in the jungles of Venezuela.

Warren Sorrells and T. L. Tapp, employed as engineers for a major oil company operating in South America, were room-mates and decided that, upon their return to the States, they would enter the oil business as partners.

When they returned from South America, after finishing their contract, they formed the Sorrells Oil Company. Associated with Sorrells and Tapp are J. W. Sorrells of Abilene and Fred Sorrells of Fort Worth. J. W. Sorrells is the father of Warren, and Fred Sorrells is an uncle.

Using their knowledge of the oil industry the two boys looked over the available leases in this sector and decided to purchase a lease consisting of 120 acres in Stephens county near the Eastland county line. This land, belonging to the Raymond family had been passed

Lakeview Club Opens Tonight

Leonard King and his orchestra, well known dance band, will play tonight at the Lakeview Club as it opens under the management of Bobby Mashburn.

In an announcement concerning the opening, Mashburn, who operates the B. & B. Drive In, said that the Lakeview Club will serve meals and operate nightly except Monday in the future.

REPORT SHOWS THAT 44 OUT OF 100 FEDERAL WORKERS ARE VETERANS

A recent report on employment in the Federal service reveals that in March 1948, for the eighth consecutive month, about 44 out of every 100 Federal employees had seen military service or were entitled to veteran preference, according to Thomas W. Saling, Regional Veterans' Federal Employment Representative, Fourteenth U. S. Civil Service Region, Dallas, Texas. Other interesting facts included in this report are:

Veterans and persons entitled to preference numbered 789,243 out of 1,794,106 Federal employees in the continental United States. A year ago, in March 1947, persons with veteran status accounted for 42 out of every 100 Federal employees; in March 1946, 31 out of up by other operators because, years before, a well was drilled and plugged as a dry hole.

The confidence of these young engineers resulted in the recent bringing in of the two wells which are producing from the Caddo. Modern methods plus the know-how of these two friends have opened a new field in the Cisco vicinity.

Abilene Man Is Claimed By Death

Clyde C. Oldham, 47, Abilene, was found dead at his home there late Thursday afternoon, relatives were advised here. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Oldham of Cisco, and one sister, Mrs. Joe Clements, also lives in Cisco.

He has resided in Abilene for 25 years and was a traveling salesman. His wife, three daughters, a son, his mothers, seven sisters and three brothers survive. Funeral arrangements were not known here.

WOLF WHISTLES TABOO.

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Police have ordered a crack-down on automobiles equipped with sirens sounding "wolf whistles." A fine of $50 is provided.

EAST SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Howard P. Krak, 23, received a suspended $5 fine after pleading guilty to pedaling his bicycle while intoxicated.

Second Half Of Softball Season Begins Tonight

A Co-Vet nine with odds, disadvantages and errors against them from beginning to end, lost to Royce L. Boyd's "Lucky Nine," 29-to-4 in a commercial league tilt, at ABC field Thursday night. Showing some improvement since their last defeat, the First Christians lost to the rampaging First Baptist, 10-to-6. The Baptist's team made several errors in the play and Hayes, Christian pitcher, fanned nine players to subside their count even more.

Beginning with tonight's games, it will be the first of the second round. And also tonight's contests are expected to draw softball fans to ABC field as never witnessed there before, club officials predict. Royce L. Boyd will engage the title holders of the City commercial league, the Reddy Kilowatts from the West Texas Utilities for the championship run.

Boyd, in last night's game with the Co-Vets, previewed to the fans the power and field accuracy he's planning to administer to the Reddy Kilowatts tonight. Boyd will have the advantage over the Westex crew, as he will probably use McNeely in his starting line-up and then alternating Heathington to the pitcher's box when the need comes. The Westex nine almost lost to the Independents in last week's engagement, but pulling through with a lucky shoe-string ratch by Carroll, thus preventing a possible upset.

However, on the other hand, the Westex Kilowatts might be saving their strength until they meet their only rivals for the title and then pull out their best "Sunday punch" and present a performance never before shown.

Bill Kendall's "Outlaws" will thrill the fans in the first play of the twin-bill as they try to pin a defeat on the much improved First Methodist club. The tilt will begin at 7:30, and the second game at 9:00.

ABC Club officials and members express their sincere appreciation to the fans of the Cisco area for their splendid support and co-operation in last Monday's benefit game for an injured CJC player. The net proceeds of the double-header were turned over to Alvin King, who is now recovering from an ankle injury sustained in an earlier softball game.

Utility Linemen Will Get Work Orders By Radio

ABILENE, June 17. — Effective today, "trouble-shooters" of the West Texas Utilities Company, Abilene-Cisco District, will get their orders by radio.

The work of linemen, installation servicemen, emergency repairmen, power dispatchers, and substation operators will be directed by two-way radio. According to an announcement by H. D. Austin, district manager, the WTU Co. today received authority from the Federal Communications Commission covering the operation of a two-way high frequency, FM radio system. The FCC license was issued on the basis of "public welfare." "The new system will materially help the WTU Co. in its efforts to maintain and provide uninterrupted electric service," said Mr. Austin.

At present, the system will consist of a 250 watt central station, and seven 60 watt mobile units.

The 250 watt central station is located in a masonry structure at the foot of the antenna tower of station KWKC at Twenty-fifth and Butternut streets. The antenna extends 14.8 feet above the 269 foot antenna tower of station KWKC; total height being 283.8 feet.

This central station, which has been assigned call letters KHQI and which according to FCC regulations, will operate on assigned frequency of 37,700 kc with a maximum variance of .01% from assigned frequency allowed, cannot be heard on standard radio receivers. Only receivers designed to use this frequency will be able to pick up signals from this station.

A dispatcher located in the WTU Co.'s district distribution office at Fourth and Plum operates the central station by remote control. This dispatcher maintains two-way communications with the operators of seven mobile units which are installed in service and line trucks operating in the district. These mobile units have a range of from thirty to sixty miles, depending upon the surrounding terrain. They can communicate with each other as well as with the central station.

In case of disaster, public need, national emergency, or in instances when existing means of communication fail, these mobile units and this fixed station can, by relaying from station to mobile unit to other mobile units, provide emergency communications with all communities of the surrounding area.

For the past several weeks, the system has been operating on a test basis under an FCC experimental license. The dispatcher's station log shows, from its many daily contacts, how this system can aid the company in rendering better service to the public by speeding the handling of many orders, varying from routine to emergency switching orders.

Lock Helps Burglars Break Into Store

CHICAGO (AP) — A lock that was supposed to keep them out helped burglars break into a men's clothing store.

They removed the lock from a door but the door still would not open. One of the thieves tossed the lock through a plate glass window. They got $1,400 worth of clothing before a jangling burglar alarm frightened them away.

VFW AIR SHOW STUNT PILOT

Elmo Bannister, stunt pilot, who will thrill crowds at the Breckenridge air show Sunday, June 20, at 2:30 p. m. Bannister will execute his famous batwing jump by jumping from a plane at the height of 10,000 feet and gliding toward the earth. When he is within 500 feet of the ground he will open a parachute to complete the descent. This is just one of the many thrills the crowd will enjoy at the air show sponsored by the VFW at Breckenridge to raise funds for their new club house.

New Ford, On Display Today, Offers Radical Changes in Engineering

A steady stream of Cisco area residents were inspecting the 1949 Ford car that went on display today at Nance Motor Company. The Ford agency will be open until 10 o'clock tonight, Saturday and Sunday night and Sunday afternoon to continue the public showing.

The 1949 Ford reveals a radical departure from traditional Ford styling and engineering. To develop and produce the 1948 Ford passenger cars, the company spent over $37,000,000 in tools, dies, jigs and fixtures. The modern design has been molded along functional lines, resulting in a long, low, sweeping silhouette. The grille is distinctive, the hood massive but shorter and the body so wide the rear fenders have been eliminated. There are clean, unbroken lines from front to rear.

The new Ford is roomy and has a larger over-all dimension. Front seat widths have been increased six inches and the rear seat nearly eight inches. The body has been moved five inches forward with the seats cradled between the axles.

Hydra-coil springs are a new feature, replacing traditional transverse springs and the front axle. This system is centered around airplane type shock absorbers mounted within low frequency coil springs.

The chassis and body are of all-welded construction. The frame is lighter, but has a 59 per cent more rigidity. The over-all height is lower by four inches. The new car has more window space — 20 square feet of windows. All doors hinge at the front. Steering has been improved.

New engine changes include the new cooling system, intake manifold, re-designed combustion chambers and improved crankcase ventilation system. The new six develops 95 horsepower, while the V-8 develops 100 horsepower.

Two other models were due in Cisco tonight or early Saturday to give the showing a "change of scenery."

Free Skin Bank Started For Grafting Purposes

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Albuquerque has a "skin bank." University of New Mexico students offered skin for a grafting operation when an 11-year-old girl was badly burned. The skin was not needed in that case, but it led to setting up a "bank" for future emergencies.

The skin bank consists of the names of persons willing to donate skin for graftings.

WAA PLANS LARGE PUBLIC SALE OF SURPLUS PROPERTY BY SEALED BIDS

In one of its largest public sales of surplus camp buildings by the sealed bid method in the southwest region the War Assets Administration disclosed plans today for marketing 270 structures at Camp Wallace Hitchcock, Texas, under a cut-off date of June 28.

Bids will be invited from the general public without regard to priority, between June 17 and June 28, when the bid opening will be held at WAA's Grand Prairie office of real property disposal. All buildings, together with installed fixtures, are to be removed from the premises by purchasers within 60 days following award of bids. The property will be available for inspection at the camp during

The offering will comprise a considerable variety of building types, including mess halls, barracks, supply, day room, storage, shed, fire station, covered walkways, latrines, administration, infirmary and other miscellaneous structures. They are of frame construction, built of seasoned lumber according to standard government specifications. Bid forms and other particulars will be furnished on request to the WAA office, region 7, box 6030, Dallas 2, Texas.

Four Winners In 4-H County Work To Get Medals

Four youth in this county are eligible to receive sterling silver medals of honor this year for having topped records in the 1948 National 4-H Home Improvement awards program, according to G. L. Noble, director of the National 4-H club committee.

By taking part in the program members learn how to make home improvements for beauty, comfort, health and safety in keeping with the needs of every member of the family and at minimum cost. They also demonstrate to others what has been learned relative to home furnishings, arrangements and practices.

The highest rating county winner between 14 and 21 years old is selected to receive the state award of a Chicago 4-H Congress trip, provided by Sears-Roebuck Foundation. Eight state winners named for national honors each receives a $200.00 college scholarship.

Winners of county medals in 1947 were Elvira Benevides, Johnnie Lou Wright, Geneva Smith, Daphne Smith, Brooks; Betty Blackberry, Peggy Wilsford, Billie Bell, Mary Jo Gattis, Grayson; Anns Lee Middleton, Carolyn Phelps, Margaret Spencer, Lou Paula Davenport, Harris; Lelda Payne, Mamie Jean Smith, Patsy Hall, Margaret Davis, Titus; Joyce Isbell, Upshur.

Neck and Neck.

On the average, 80,000,000 gallons of oil are being supplied each day to the consumers of the United States. That is an incredible figure, and represents an all-time high. Yet demand has kept up with production and the race is close.

The efforts of the industry to establish a comfortable margin of supply over consumption deserves national recognition. Expenditures or new construction during 1947 and 1948 will total some $4,000,000,000. Last year 33,000 new wells were drilled, and about 37,000 will be sunk this year. And this number will be increased if sufficient tools become available.

The job of making usable oil products only begins when the crude comes out of the ground. So the industry is working overtime on building new refineries and modernizing old ones, on construction of storage plants and pipe lines, and on the expansion of its marketing facilities. This is the reason why, in spite of doleful predictions, we have not had a real oil shortage, and have been inconvenienced only by temporary and localized "dry spots."

Next winter, when the heaviest demand comes, there will be need or voluntary conservation of fuel oil by users. Unexpected developments may make the supply-demand situation tighter than can be foreseen now. But the public should know that all the resources and energies of this highly competitive industry are being devoted to the enormous task of seeing that no one really suffers for lack of oil.

Don't Laugh at Seattle.

A news story in the papers the other day reported that the City of Seattle, Washington, was having trouble making the ends meet in the operation of its municipally owned street cars. On the surface, it doesn't appear that people in Cisco or Texas should give the matter a second thought.

But Seattle's troubles, and those of other cities in a similar situation, concern us all. Seattle's street cars were once run by a private corporation that paid city, county, state and federal taxes. When the city took over, taxes stopped. So, to make up the loss, Uncle Sam must increase the tax you pay to offset the deficit.

It is not difficult to understand how mistakes in some parts of the country can have an effect on another part.

Welcome, Golfers.

Cisco will be the host to several score golfers this week-end for the 13th annual tournament at the Country Club. In addition to the players, a large crowd of fans is expected to watch the matches.

An active sports program and a good Country Club are very definite assets to any community. Cisco is fortunate in having a splendid club, golf course and other facilities. Let's welcome the tournament visitors in a manner that will add to the good reputation of our club and city.

The smooth, flowing lines of the 1949 Ford passenger cars are accentuated by the simplicity of the air-scoop grille. Fresh air for the pressurized ventilation system also enters through the grille.

LETTERS

Editor, Press:

I wonder if you will allow me a space to spread a little Biblical homeland in Palestine, according to knowledge regarding the Arabs and Jews? I find a dearth of knowledge among the people as to who the Arabs are, and the right of the Jews to a homeland in Palestine, according to God's Covenant with Abraham, that I think it would be well to shed a little light on the situation from a Bible standpoint.

God promised Abraham that territory for his posterity, and many people clamor for Palestine for the Jews because of that promise, thinking the promise is yet to be fulfilled, when, if they were properly informed, they would know the promise was practically fulfilled the day it was given.

The rank and file of our citizenship do not seem to know that the Arabs are descendants of Abraham as well as the Jews. The Arabs are descendants of Abraham through his eldest son, Ishmael, borne him by Hagar (Gen. 16.11) 14 years before the birth of Isaac, and six sons—Zimram, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah (1 Chron. 1:32) borne him by Keturah, the wife he married after Sarah died; and also Esau, brother of Jacob, who married daughters of Midian.

The Arabs are descendants of Abraham through his plural wives, and the Israelites are descendants of Abraham through his first wife and elect lady, Sarah. Esau is a grandson of Abraham and Sarah, but he disobeyed his prents in taking wives of the daughters of Abraham, hence his posterity is not reckoned with Sarah, the "elect lady," but with Abraham's plural wives. The UN decision to parition Palestine is all wrong according to God's promise to Abraham. It is true that the Jews should have an inheritance with the Arabs, but the problem should be worked out as a unit for Abraham's posterity, which includes the Arabs, the Jews, and the ten lost tribes of Israel.

Respectfully submitted,
W. I. GHORMLEY.
