Activity on the part of all candidates has been high but the race Senator has furnished the most action. The three leading candidates went into the final stages of their campaigns, predicting a victory without a run off. The race is followed closely in this district by the campaign waged for the State Senatorial post. In all county and precinct races candidates have been busy contacting prospective voters.

Voters in precinct six (West Cisco) will cast their ballots at the City Hall, it was announced by chairman Fred Grist. Election judges for the precinct are: Fred Grist, Chairman, J. V. Hev. ser. Precinct five (East Cisco) voters are slated to cast their ballots at the East Ward School. W. R. Huestis will act as chairman and ludges will be W. W. Wallace, L. M. Surles, Kent Word and Charles Cofer.

Democratic precinct conventions will be held on election day and precinct chairmen announced the time of the meetings as 2 p.m. West side voters will meet at the city hall and East side voters are scheduled to meet at the East Ward School.

Election judges pointed out that eligible voters must have their poll tax receipts, must be 21 years of age, must have lived in the precinct for thirty days.

The judges also cautioned against the signing of ballots. If the voter signs his ballot it is thrown out and voided. Nothing can remain on the ballot but the names of the candidates voted

Vote For Bill Murray.

There are several reasons why Cisco area citizens should care fully consider the qualifications of W. J. (Bill) Murray when the cast their votes Saturday in the Railroad Commissioner's race.

Most important, perhaps, is the fact that Bill Murray has demon strated very effectively that he knows his job, is entirely reliable and is genuinely interested in Texas and Texans. Education and exper ience especially qualify him for the position he seeks.

Another reason why we should all particularly want our oil conservation program in competent hands is the fact that the local oil picture is looking better each day. That Murray is interested pri marily in Texas was recently demonstrated when he declined ap pointment as chief of the federal oil conservation forces in Washing ton. The fact that this place was offered him is evidence aplenty that Bill Murray rates high in the oil fraternity.

Cisco remembers Bill Murray as an honor graduate of its high school. At the University of Texas, he won the honor of graduating with the highest grades ever given in the engineering department. After teaching at the University for a year, he joined the Railroad Commission's proration forces. He won additional honors for competent handling of the duties of petroleum administrator for District of the eqecutive committee of the Three, including much of the southwest.

Gov. Beauford Jester appointed Murray to the Railroad Commission when he resigned in 1947 to become governor of the state. Mur- sition, Victor H. Schoffelmayer, ray now is asking election to fill out the unexpired term he is
