

The Gay Philosopher

(Copyright New York Graphic Society) By J. W. S.

IT HASN'T BEEN long since many of us were using expressive language to express ourselves regarding the people of Germany.

THIS WAS THE second letter that Paula has received from the girl. The first resulted when Paula sent some clothing to Germany through the First Baptist Church here.

THE GERMAN GIRL reports that things are better at her house now that her mother has a job doing the laundry work for a home for deaconesses.

"WE Want underwear, (blouses and skirts), a dress, a pair of shoes (if possible with low heels), stockings or socks, some school copybooks (to write into), some pencils, pens and erasers, and, perhaps, (if I may ask you for it), some nourishing food-stuff."

IF ANYBODY WANTS to send the mother and two girls anything, Paula has their address and sizes. They live in the American zone of Germany so you will be sure that parcels will be delivered.

RECENTLY WE were talking experiences with Mr. C. A. Dueschle, the telephone manager, and he told us about being a prisoner of war in Germany for several months.

MET UP WITH Mr. A. N. Simpson of Nimrod the other day. He is in the mail carrying business. After living there since 1914, he told us, he has about decided to stay permanently.

Local Firemen Get Training in New Methods of Fighting Blazes

Combined operations was the highlight of activities at the 19th annual Firemen's Training School at Texas A & M College last week, it was reported by assistant Chief Pete Clement and Marshal C. R. Hightower of the Cisco Volunteer Fire Department.

The two local men were among the 589 Texas firemen who attended five days of intensive training courses in techniques of fire fighting. Cisco is to receive a three per cent discount on key insurance rates because of its representation at the school.

All classes turned out one afternoon to attend combined operations, Clement said.

In one demonstration, several pits were filled with oil and gasoline and set on fire. Effectiveness of different extinguishing agents was shown as fog spray, powder foam, and a new wetting agent were used.

The wetting agent was particularly impressive, according to Clement. When a one per cent solution is used, the water surface is broken up and becomes extremely penetrating.

Six one-room buildings were burned in another phase of combined operations. Students were asked to put out the fires with various types of fire extinguishers, nozzles, and other equipment.

Values and methods of organizing training were outlined and discussed in the school. This part of the course was directed mostly to volunteer fire departments.

Several national and state authorities who addressed the school this year were Olin Culbertson, railroad commissioner; Joe S. Fletcher, assistant director, Texas Department of Public Safety; G. M. Kintz, supervising engineer, U. S. Bureau of Mines; T. Alfred Fleming of New York, director of conservation, National Board of Fire Underwriters; and Horatio Bond, Boston, Mass., the chief engineer for the National Fire Prevention Association.

The school was well attended and the interest was high. There were students from 263 Texas cities enrolled.

Catastrophes Take Fewer Lives In First Half 1948

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Catastrophes, those accidents in which 5 or more persons are killed, were less frequent and took materially fewer lives in the first half of 1948 than in the like period of 1947, according to records compiled by the statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Fewer deaths from catastrophes were recorded in the current year for each of the principal classes of accidents except home fires, floods, and water transportation.

The decline in the death toll so far this year was due in part to a reduction in the number of catastrophes, but resulted mainly from the fact that loss of life in any one accident was far below 100, whereas in the early months of 1947 there were three major incidents, each of which claimed more than 100 persons. These 3 alone accounted for approximately 850 deaths last year, considerably more than the total from all such mishaps so far in the current year.

The most serious disaster in the first half of 1948 was the Columbia River flood. Forty-four persons are known dead in this catastrophe, but there are still several persons reported as missing in the flood area. The crash of a passenger plane in Pennsylvania in June caused 43 deaths. In mid-March, a tornado killed 36 persons in Illinois. There were two other accidents in the January to June period in which 25 or more were killed; the crash of a chartered plane in California in January which caused the loss of 32 lives, and the swamping of a Navy launch off Hampton Roads, Va., in May, in which 28 were killed.

Scranton Beat Independents; New Schedule

The Cisco Independents, one time contenders for the City's commercial league, fell before the blows of a persistent Scranton nine, 9-6, here Friday night at ABC softball park. It was the third upset at ABC park this week.

The second week of play in the third round will feature the Cisco Independents again at the diamond in conflict with the Cisco Co-Vets. The Independents, knowing that another defeat will toss them in the cellar, will be fighting hard in Monday's game. The tilt is scheduled to begin at 9 o'clock.

Battling under the lights Tuesday, the west Texas rowdies, who have been in a slump, will challenge the Scranton team on the local diamond, in the Church league trays, the independents, nowing third place in the standings, will tangle with the first Christians, who are eyeing the possibilities of overthrowing the titans if they are able to beat out the independents. The games are slated for 8 and 9 o'clock.

Royce L. Boyd, now leading the commercial league, will buck up against Coach Jack Everett's powerful collegians Thursday night, in what's slated to be a perfect match. The Wranglers, the only team in the City league endangering Boyd's stand, are expected to throw in top-class performances.

Manager White of the Constructors, fearing another upset, will probably gear the boys' teamsters to the limit in order to avoid defeat. The Kendall Outlaws will meet their new rivals, the Church All-Stars for the second time. Softball officials, pleased with the fighting spirit and enthusiasm both teams displayed in their first fling, have sanctioned the roster with a third encounter.

The Scranton plowboys, playing the season with a loaded schedule, will challenge the Co-Vets at the local field Friday. And the First Baptists, who were upset by their East Side brothers in the church league playoffs, will make another comeback at the East Baptists. The games will be played at the regular hours.

ABC Club Secretary Troy Powell gave an estimated report Saturday of the number of fans who attend the game regularly. The estimate showed between 250 to 350 are on hand each night to witness the games. Since the interest continues to hold it was decided to continue the games for the remaining summer months.

He announced the placing of an "info-sign" in front of his office on Avenue D for the purpose of announcing the scheduled softball games to be played the following evening at ABC park.

Warning Given On Veterans Service Life Insurance

This is the last week for reinstatement of lapsed National Service Life Insurance on a "comparative health" basis, Scott B. Harrington, Manager of the Dallas, Texas Veterans Administration Regional Office reminded veterans.

Before August 1, an eligible veteran may reinstate any amount of term insurance—from $1,000 to $10,000, in multiples of $500—regardless of the length of time it has been lapsed, and usually without a physical examination.

He need only fill out a simple application form, in which he certifies that his health is as good as when the policy lapsed, and pay premiums for two months. The privilege of reinstating on this basis will be available after July 31 only to veterans whose policies have lapsed for less than three months. Where the period of lapse is three months or longer, the veteran will be required to take a physical examination and qualify as an insurable risk.

Pay School Taxes to Avoid Loss Under New Aid Law, Board Urges

Have you paid your school taxes?

If not, your school has lost two dollars for each dollar that you fail to pay in, because, as C. S. Karkalits, secretary of the school board, pointed out Saturday, the state, under the new salary aid law, refuses to match uncollected funds.

Under that law the state holds the district responsible for the 100 per cent collection of local ad valorem funds. It requires that the district's portion of salaries be met first.

That portion of taxes applied to salaries which remains uncollected is not matched by state funds, and as a consequence the district must take from ad valorem maintenance funds an amount sufficient to make up the deficit, it was explained.

Hence, when a taxpayer fails to pay his taxes to the schools the taxes are twice lost.

Local tax collections, it was explained, are about $7,000 in the red. That means $7,000 must be taken out of the maintenance fund in order to meet salary obligations.

"The people of Cisco have not fallen down on their obligations to the community yet," said Mr. Karkalits. "They have responded magnificently to all appeals for support of worthy local enterprises. They have generously made possible the building of a gymnasium and community center by contributing the $15,000 asked. In a similar manner they have answered other appeals for good causes. We are sure they will not fail to meet this measure of good citizenship."

"So, even though the collections are behind to the extent of $7,000, we are going ahead with improvements to the school plant which need to be done. The heating plant is being worked over, floors are being painted for sanitation purposes, wash rooms are being renovated, all of which are necessary for the health of the children."

"This is being done in the conscience that the citizens will pay what is due. Please, don't let us down!"

Democrats Elect County Delegates

Cisco Democrats elected delegates for the county convention and passed a resolution condemning the national party for "infringement on states rights" at their precinct meeting here Saturday.

Proceedings of the meeting were contained in the following resolution:

"Be it resolved that delegates vote as a unit. We condemn as an infringement on states rights that part of the Democratic platform which advocates taking away from states any of the powers to regulate their own affairs."

"That Harry Reynolds, W. J. Armstrong, Oscar Clift, Roscoe Ponsler, Karl Armstrong, C. R. West, Mitchell Perdue, Mrs. Fay Jones, Charley Jones, Quincey Lee, E. P. Crawford, Katherine Cunningham be elected delegates to the county convention to be held in Eastland."

The resolution was signed by W. J. Armstrong as chairman and C. R. West as secretary.

Local Support Keeps Pace.

Local financial support of Texas' public schools has kept pace with the greatly increased state aid during the last decade. A comprehensive state-wide study has just been released by the Texas State Teachers Association in cooperation with the State Department of Education. It discloses that through increased property valuation or hikes in taxes most local school districts are doing their share in paying the cost of their schools.

During the 1946-47 school year, the latest which complete figures are available, the study disclosed that the state-paid 53 per cent of the cost of education and the local districts 47 per cent. These approximate figures hold true for each of the last ten years despite the fact the constitution of Texas provides that the state shall pay for two-thirds of the cost of the schools. Most schools have nine-month terms. The constitution sets out that "the state shall maintain and support schools for not less than six months."

Expenditures for public schools have increased from a total of $76,706,149 in 1935-36 to $137,609,988 during 1946-47. The local support in 1935-36 was 51 per cent to 49 for the state. The average salary of teachers in the mid thirties was approximately $1100.

Shortly after the depression years Texans became conscious of the deficiencies in their school system and set about to give it more financial aid, the report noted. As the legislature hiked appropriations for the schools, the local districts also increased their levies and property valuations.

During the 1941-42 school year local districts bore 51 per cent of the cost of education. They collected taxes amounting to $47,375,861. The state supplied $44,610,196. Both state and local support jumped in 1946-47. The legislature in 1945 increased the maximum tax rate that may be voted by common and independent school districts to $1.50. The result was that the districts took advantage of it. Local tax support in 1946-47 totaled $64,116,512. The state supplied $73,392,576.

The larger districts, especially, increased their levies. During the last school year more than 50 per cent of all children of scholastic age in independent school districts resided in districts which now levy a tax rate above $1.00.

Jones, Stephens, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan and Eastland counties. The two top teams of the tournament are to go to Wichita Falls for the State Softball Tournament which will be held August 12, 13 and 14. The Stamford tournament will be a one-game elimination.

The teams will be matched according to the names of their opponents drawn from a hat and a schedule will be given when the drawing is over. To date all entrance fees have not been paid, and the schedule is incomplete.

Royce L. Boyd, in an interview, said that his team was going with the best they had. "They," he said, "will meet the Bar's Bottlers of Abilene for the first play-off in the tournament Tuesday night."

If the Constructors win, they will play the winners of Wednesday's frays Thursday night. Heathington and Parks will alternate at the pitcher's mound.

So far, the four leading teams of the major softball league of Abilene have signed. These include Mackey's, the V. F. W. team, Bar's and Horace Holly team. Breckenridge will be in the running with their All-Star team, as will Gorman and Albany, Colorado City has entered two teams. The Coltex Refining Company will also be on hand for the tilts.

Walsh-Healey Act, Wood pointed out, applies to Government contracts in amounts over $10,000. It contains sections dealing with minimum wage, overtime pay, health and safety measures, child labor and convict labor. The child labor provisions, he added, fix an assessment of $10 per day against employers for each day a boy under 16 or a girl under 18 years old is employed in filling a Government contract.

The Ownby Drilling Co., No. 1 Clayton was completed with a flow of 55 barrels without acidization. This well was said to be one of the best completed in the area and as a result, six new locations have been made. Leasing has picked up with some tracts bringing more than $50.00 per acre.

Coast Oil, No. 2 Griffin is drilling at 1,700 feet. Frances and Gillispie, No. 1 McMullen acidized Wednesday and operators are swabbing and balling.

Cost Oil Co. is rigging up their No. 2 Della Graham. Carter and Jones have the drilling contract.
