

3 YOUTHS HELD FOR SLUGGING MOTORIST

Truck Driver Is Credited With Aiding Arrest

Alertness on the part of a Fort Worth truck driver resulted early today in the capture of three youths suspected of assaulting Earl Freeman, 20-year-old Abilene college student and attempting to rob him of his car.

The youths who told arresting officers they were members of the United States Army Air Forces were apprehended in the automobile of the victim as they were passing through Cisco. They were lodged in the city jail and local officers were waiting on Callahan County officials before making disposition of the prisoners or filing formal charges.

James E. Ellis, driver of a truck for the Foremost Ice Cream Co. of Fort Worth, was being praised by local officers for his part in the capture of the men. Ellis was driving between Putnam and Baird when he noticed a car, a 1939 Chevrolet sedan, ahead of him with the four occupants acting strangely. He passed the car and stopped in Putnam where he made a delivery.

After the delivery Ellis again started on his route and a short while after leaving Putnam he saw the car parked on the side of the highway and saw the three youths who were partly in uniform, pick up the body of the fourth youth and throw it in the rear seat of the car. Deciding the odds were too great against stopping to investigate and assist the injured boy, Ellis hurried toward Cisco.

Upon entering the city limits he stopped at a service station operated by Dean Wilkerson and gave Wilkerson a nickel and told him to call officers and have them meet him on 8th street near the stop light on Ave. D. Officer Weldon A. Page received the call and met the truck driver in the 290 block on 8th St. where he obtained the information that led to the arrest.

Ellis entered the patrol car and accompanied Officer Page to the intersection of Ave. D and 8th St. where they encountered the car containing the suspects. The car attempted to make a right turn toward Brownwood when Page blocked it's path and made the arrest.

The injured youth was rushed to the hospital by a Mr. Nunnally who was nearby at the time. At the hospital, it was found that he was suffering from a slight brain concussion and badly gashed head. Attendants reported that he would remain there for two or three days.

The injured youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Freeman who reside at 917 Ambler in Abilene, stated that he left his home in Abilene early Tuesday morning for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Leroy Terry, in Grand Prairie and stopped in Baird to offer the three men a ride.

About four miles east of Putnam the youth in the front seat asked for a match and then one of the hitch hikers who was riding in the rear seat hit him over the head with some blunt instrument. They hit him several times before dumping him into the rear seat.

He partly regained consciousness before reaching Cisco and was warned against moving or making an out cry. He was told that they would shoot him if he moved.

API Gives Report On Oil Averages

The American Petroleum Institute estimates that the daily average gross crude oil production for the week ended August 14, 1948 was 5,507,050 barrels. Daily production for the 4 weeks ended August 14, 1948 was 5,478,700 barrels.

Reports received from refining companies indicate that the industry as a whole ran to stills on a Bureau of Mines basis approximately 5,535,000 barrels of crude oil daily and produced 17,489,000 barrels of gasoline, 2,050,000 barrels of kerosene, 7,509,000 barrels of distillate fuel and 8,932,000 barrels of residual fuel oil during the week; and had in storage at the end of the week; 96,634,000 barrels of finished and unfinished gasoline; 21,679,000 barrels of kerosene; 61,458,000 barrels of distillate fuel and 68,523,000 barrels of residual fuel oil.

Monroe Sweeney Accept Position With VA in Waco

Word was received in Cisco Tuesday by friends of Monroe Sweeney that he had accepted a position as state supervisor in the distributive education division of the Veterans Administration, in charge of the Waco region.

The Waco region is one of five such offices in Texas set up by the VA for the purpose of training veterans of World War II.

"The only drawback to the job," Sweeney wrote "is that it is in West Texas."

Sweeney will be remembered as one of the leading football officials in Texas, and as a former coach of Randolph Junior College, and of the Cisco High School Lobos. He stated that he still considered Cisco as his home, and that he appreciated his many friends here.

His appointment places two former Cisco High School coaches as heads of one of the five regional offices. K. C. McCasland is in charge of the Lubbock office, and Sweeney the Waco District.

Sweeney said to tell Ciscoans that school officials found two men, and dragged one of them from a cotton field of West Texas, and one from a sand dune in the Red River Valley; and gave them jobs in the Cisco school system that made it possible for them to occupy the responsible positions they now hold.

Selective Service Will Not Effect Army Enlistments

In answer to many queries recently as to whether the U. S. Army, and U. S. Air Force will continue their extensive Volunteer Enlistment Program, the following statement was made by S-Sgt. James Hendrick of the Eastland Recruiting Station.

"The Volunteer Enlistment Program will continue, even though Selective Service soon will be in effect. The Army and Air Force will rely heavily on 3-year volunteers to build and maintain their strengths at the new levels authorized by the Congress."

"Selective Service provides a means for the Armed Forces to fill the gap between their volunteer recruiting intake and their manpower requirements, whereas the Army's manpower needs are more pressing."

"The Army has a great deal to offer career volunteers, far more than before the war. It is a New Army in a great many ways. Exceptional benefits and opportunities have been created to attract alert, intelligent, and ambitious young men. The Army's personnel policy now is based on the promise that the individual is its greatest single asset."

"A volunteer between the ages of 18-34 (17 with parents consent) may enlist for 2,3,4,5 or 6 years. If he is between 19-23 years of age he may enlist for 21 months."

For complete information on the volunteer enlistment program and the Selective Service Law, all interested individuals are advised to contact the Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, located at 311 W. Main Street in Eastland.

Man Injured Near Putnam to Leave Hospital Soon

Hospital attendants reported Tuesday that Bill Goode, who was seriously injured several weeks ago in an injury at the Dean Bros. Repressing plant near Putnam, was recovering from his injuries, and would return to his home in Putnam soon.

He is able to be up in his room after an examination showed that his injuries were healing.

Mr. Goode suffered abdominal wounds while repairing an engine at the plant, and was brought to the hospital in a critical condition. He underwent major surgery.

Three Cisco Youths Enlist in Army Signal Corps; Studied Telegraphy

The names of three Cisco youths, believed to be first to volunteer for active duty with the U. S. Army Signal Corps in Eastland County since the new draft measure, were released Monday for publication by the Eastland County Recruiting Center, it was reported.

Named were Jay Warren, Joe Ray Walker and Jack Milner, former telegraphic students under C. A. Shockley of Cisco.

The local youths, after being accepted for a three-year period with the Signal Corps, left Abilene Sunday en route for assignment at the Army's location center at Fort Ord, California. They will receive from six to eight weeks of intensive basic training with the Signal Corps' telegraphic branch.

In the latter part of November, upon completion of basic training, the youths will go as candidates for hi-speed advance training to the Corps' "West Point of the Telegraph" located at Monmouth, New Jersey. They will report for an eleven weeks study course of International Code.

Once graduated from the Monmouth school, the candidates will be eligible for any position in the Signal Corps' many branches. They are given a choice of duty in

W. O. W. Post Plan Watermelon Feast For Tuesday Night

D. R. Harper, secretary of the Cisco W.O.W. Post 609, urged all sovereign members and wives to attend the watermelon slicing to be held at the Lake Park Tuesday night.

Members were asked to meet at the W.O.W. Hall at 7:30 for a brief business meeting before going to the Park, Mr. Harper said.

Farewell Message

A lone Indian, who identified himself as Robert Lubbay, a full-blooded Sioux, paces back and forth in front of the Soviet Consulate in New York. His message to Consul General Jacob Lomakin, whose recall has been demanded by the U. S., reads, "Goodby, Glad to see you go. Take Henry Glen and Paul Robeson with you." He said Henry and Glen meant Henry Wallace and Glen Taylor.

A Cool 95 at 1:30 P. M.

Sun Hides Its Face After Hot Week

Old man Sol was hiding his face behind scattered clouds Tuesday after bearing down on Ciscoans for most of the month, and bringing 100 plus temperatures for 14 of the last 24 days. The mercury stood at 95 at 1:30 p. m. today, and promised to stay under the 100 mark for the first time in six days.

The cool front forecast for the week-end met resistance in the form of a hot wave of air coming up from the coast, and lost its power before reaching parched citizens of this area.

Adding to the discomfort of local citizens one of the transmission lines leading from the pumps at the station near Lake Cisco broke, and threw the town without water between 1:30 p. m. and 9 p. m. Saturday.

The only ones gaining any pleasure from the break were small boys who were permitted to go to bed without the usual nightly bath. Local ice dealers reported record sales on their products, and one local dealer who had a large stock of bottled spring water on hand before the break sold a weeks supply in less than four hours.

Water department employees made the repairs with the greatest speed possible in order to build up the reserve for emergencies. They estimated that a maximum of 200,000 gallons of water was in the reservoirs and lines at the time of the break.

The water commissioner expressed his thanks to industrial users for their cooperation in the emergency. Ice manufacturers cut out the use of all water, and filling stations cut usage to a minimum.

Members of Troops 101 and 58 Urged to Attend Meeting

Scoutmaster Homer Tompkins urged Junior assistant leaders and members of Scout troop 58, Cisco to attend the troop's regular meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the basement of the First Christian Church.

Two scouts, Buddy Deen and Irvin Allen Brunkenhofer, candidates for First Class Rank, successfully passed the Board of Review's requirements last Tuesday's meeting. They are to be awarded the ranks at the forthcoming Court of Honor, to be held early next month, Tompkins said.

At the same time, Charles Graham, Scoutmaster of Troop 101, another local troop, summoned all members of the Presbyterian troop to be on hand for the meeting to be held in the basement of the church at 7:30 tonight. A Board of Review will be held for rank candidates, he said.

The Gay Philosopher

(Copyright New York Graphic Society) By J. W. S.

SAW AN OLD friend of a good many people in these parts in town yesterday and today. He's Mr. Boyce House, the newspaperman-author. He's doing some oil articles on the situation around Cisco for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

SEE BY THE papers where they've organized a coffee club over at Eastland for oil men to keep up with what's cooking in the oil business. Mr. Benny Butler, the C. of C. manager, saw it too. And he suggests that if they are having so much trouble keeping up with the situation, maybe they could drop over to Cisco where much of the oil is.

EITHER CISCO water is pretty good water or the Charles Sanders have a good car. They're back from a vacation tour of some 4,500 miles that included sight-seeing in the Rocky and Sierra Nevada mountains and California. And they got home with the same water in their radiator. They report a very good time.

ON VACATION this week is Mr. W. D. Brecheen, chairman of the printing department here at the Daily Press office. He's in New Orleans to visit relatives and relax for a few days. Harry, the Cat. Brecheen of the St. Louis Cards is a relative of the local man.

WAS AMUSED with the comment of General L. B. Hershey, director of the Selective Service, on the rush of young men to be married in the wake of President Truman's announcement that married men will be deferred. Said he: If they want to get married, that's their business. It's a peculiar way to avoid service, but it's a matter of opinion.

OVERHEARD A young lady yesterday. She was talking about a trip of several hundred miles. She'll be gone a week and she'd just learned that she's going. And she only has three or four days in which to get ready. We sympathized with her. For goodness sakes, who ever heard of anybody making such a trip and with only three or four days to get everything ready.

Breckenridge Air Show Rescheduled For September 5

The air show which was originally scheduled to be held in Breckenridge on June 20 will be held on Sept. 5, beginning at 2:30 p. m. It was announced by Elmo Bannister, one of the promoters and performers of the show.

The show was postponed because Bannister, who is the main attraction, was injured seriously in a plane mishap at Albany while practicing his stunts, two days prior to the opening. Bannister, who highlights the show with his batwing jump from plane at 10,000 feet, has recovered from his injuries, and will execute his jump at the show on Sept. 5th.

Moral Wisdom Must Rule

It should now be branded on our consciousness that, unless science is controlled by a greater moral force, it will become the Antichrist prophesied by early Christians. In that statement Charles A. Lindbergh crystallizes the message of his new book, "On Flight and Life." The book, Lindbergh's first since the publication of "We" in 1927, is condensed as the leading article of The Reader's Digest for September.

The American people's sense of values has been dangerously distorted, Lindbergh believes, by the very scientific marvels which have made this country the most powerful on earth. Holding that man's survival depends, in the last analysis fully as much on the quality of life as on the power of arms, the author urges a re-evaluation of our standards, based on spiritual truths. "We must measure education less by the amount of knowledge it instills than by the wisdom of living it creates. The amassing of knowledge is of negative value when it places business above family, and makes women consider careers ahead of children; when it teaches us how to turn loose survival depends, in the last analysis, fully as much on the quality than."

Growing up as a disciple of science, Lindbergh says: "In my youth science was more important to me than either man or God. . . . But I have lived to experience the early results of scientific materialism. I have watched men turn into human cogs in the factories they believed would enrich their lives. I have watched pride of workmanship leave human character decline as efficiency of production lines increased. I have seen the lifesaving miracles of medicine perverted toward the murderous ends of biological warfare. I have seen the science I worshipped, and the aircraft I loved, destroying the civilization I expected them to serve."

Three times in his life, the flyer says, he has felt an overwhelming compulsion to communicate a belief to his fellow men. "The first was as a young pilot, when I became convinced that man had a great destiny in the air." The second was just prior to World War II, "when I believed it best for America to keep out of Europe's internal wars. The third time is at this moment of 1948. I believe that, if we do not control our science by a higher moral force, it will destroy us with its materialistic values, its rocket aircraft and atom bombs."

Envisioning this country poised for a future war, Lindbergh sees the "intolerable concept" of our civilization existing from hour to hour, at the mercy of an enemy whose atomic rockets and other weapons wait only for some fanatic's fingers to close an electric switch. "It is a picture of the future toward which we are now heading," the author warns, "technically possible with bombs already tested, with known methods of biological warfare and with rockets soon to be designed."

To turn this trend we must resort to more than material power, he declares. "We must strive to achieve a civilization so satisfactory to men that its force can remain unused in the background. . . . If we succeed it will be less by forcing our democracy on others than by setting an example others will wish to follow; less by pointing out the mote in another's eye than by removing the beam in our own; less by using arms than by avoiding them."

BEWARE OF FOOD SPOilage DURING SUMMER WEATHER

Fungus, mold, insects and dry rot are always waiting to destroy your food supply stored in cupboards and bins, just as they do on a farm, the American Fat Salvage Committee points out. Food experts and technicians urge women to be constantly vigilant. Fast deterioration robs us of precious food.

Take inventory, inspect and clean out cupboards, refrigerators, cabinets, baskets where food supplies are kept, suggest home economists. Cereal, prunes and raisins easily become weevily; onions begin to sprout; bread begins to mold; fat gets rancid.

Air out cupboards, inventory supplies, plan menus to use onions, cereals and dried fruit before they begin to deteriorate. During the warm months, store bread in the refrigerator. Keep your fat salvage can in the refrigerator, on the cellar steps or in some other cool spot, and when it is filled, sell your surplus used fat to your meat dealer. These tricks take little time, and are insurance against loss of food, and food is money these days.

A statement no merchant has heard: While applications for affiliation with RCB of Texas by the two local Credit Bureaus were pending (one merchant having started a movement for another bureau here), a prominent attorney, of Austin, called on Mr. Chas. Lux, Executive Sect'y, and Mr. Horace Barnhart, member of the Board of Directors, also local Sect'y of the Austin bureau, in behalf of L. Self's investment in the original Credit Bureau of Cisco.

The outcome was that the affiliation would be withheld from our competitors over a period of time until the attorney could contact the proponents here, and suggest the purchase of the files and office of L. Self.

The plan was to have L. Self choose five secretaries over the State, out of which the above two men would choose three to represent her files and office, then the attorney would make the suggestion of a purchase to the new set-up. Being unable to arrive at a definite fee for the work that might be involved and being in doubt as to a satisfactory appraisal, L. WILSON-DENNIS RITES HELD SUNDAY AT 3 P.M.

The First Baptist Church was the scene Sunday afternoon of the wedding of Miss Bonnie Jean Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson of Cisco and Mr. Bryan Dennis, son of Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Dennis of Hot Springs, New Mexico. Wedding vows were exchanged as the couple stood before a background of greenery with standing wrought iron brackets of pink gladioli and asters marking the sides of the altar.

Mr. Wilson gave his daughter in marriage at the impressive ring ceremony read by Rev. O. L. Dennis, father of the bridegroom. The bride wore a street length, coffee color crepe dress, fashioned with fitted waist, long sleeves and ruffle trimmed skirt. Her jewelry was a two strand pearl necklace. She wore a pink net head dress and carried a white Bible on which was a shower bouquet of vanda purple orchids tied with white satin streamers, she wore dark brown suede opera pumps.

Mr. Jack Garrett of Lubbock wearing a dark brown crepe dress served as Matron of Honor; and Mrs. A. G. Gary of Cisco, sister of the bride, the other attendant, wore a dark green crepe dress. Each carried bouquets of full blown orchid color asters and wore headbands of baby asters. Sharon Kay Gary, niece of the bride was her Junior bride's maid. She wore a pink silk crepe dress and carried a colonial bouquet of pink baby asters.

Donnel C. Clark of Cross Plains was best man to the bride-groom; O. M. Wilson of Lubbock and A. G. Gary of Cisco.

They were assisted by Mrs. O. M. Wilson of Lubbock and Mrs. A. G. Gary of Cisco.

Pictures were made of the wedding party at the church and reception by Lloyd Willard of Fort Worth. When Mr. and Mrs. Dennis left on a short wedding trip Mrs. Dennis was wearing a teal blue two piece suit and pink carnation corsage with accessories of brown.

Here's a NEW party-line customer!

This little fellow may be enjoying the protection of a telephone because you are sharing telephone service with his family or some other family on a party line.

Were it not for party lines, thousands of people—now being served—would still be waiting for telephones despite all the effort we've been able to put into the manufacture and installation of new telephone equipment.

If you are on a party line, you'll find courtesy and neighborly co-operation pay big dividends in better service. A party-liner who is thoughtful of the other fellow may well find that the other fellow will be thoughtful of him.

for TEXAS and Freedom...

TEXAS WILL FIGHT for THURMOND and WRIGHT

Texans, your personal freedom and the freedom of your children is in danger. Truman's so-called civil rights program will destroy our way of life. Truman's tidelands program will rob our children of their badly needed school funds. Never since the Alamo has Texas been in such danger.

If we are to be saved, we must unite today... all creeds, all factions, farmers, laborers, businessmen, EVERYBODY! It is now or NEVER!

If the Truman forces steal the Fort Worth Convention on September 14 by unseating the States' Rights delegations, you will still have the opportunity to vote for STROM THURMOND and FIELDING WRIGHT.

Money must be raised... it is YOUR fight.
