New Weatherman Might Help... Local Area Still Dry Spot on Map As September Fails to Bring Moisture

The Weather Man has apparently had Cisco on a moisture quota for the first nine months of 1948, and for the past three months has been doling it out one small shower per month. For three successive months rain has fallen only once per month. The last shower of any consequence was on July 10 when .70 of an inch fell. That was the only rain recorded for the month. In August there was only one day that moisture fell and on that day there was only a trace. In September .30 of an inch was recorded on the seventh. No other fall was registered for the 30 day period.

Tickets On Sale For Wrangler Game Thursday Night

Tickets for the Cisco Junior College Wrangler-Ranger Junior College football game Thursday night went on sale today at all local drug stores, school officials announced. Cisco college officials and coaches attempted to have the game time changed to Saturday to avoid a conflict with Clyde Beatty Circus, but the Ranger coaches declined, wishing to take advantage of the fact that the Cisco team would have only a short time to rest from their game with Navarro Saturday.

Grand Jury Bills 14; Makes Number Recommendations

Following is the report of the 91st Court grand jury made to Judge Geo. L. Davenport Thursday afternoon, upon final adjournment. "We, the Grand Jury, have returned fourteen (14) true bills and ten (10) no bills and have investigated numerous other cases involving both misdemeanors and felons. We find no violation of the law with reference to false weights and measures; we have returned indictments against those in jail or have no-billed them; we have investigated one car theft and returned an indictment, and several burglaries and thefts. With reference to drunken driving and traffic violations we recommend that an additional force of two highway patrolmen be assigned to this district. We have investigated several assault to murder charges and have returned appropriate indictments. The City-County Hospital, in Ranger appears to be in good condition. It is the consensus of this Panel of the Grand Jury after some discussion, that there was no evidence submitted of any fraud by election officials in the Democratic Primary in this county. We strongly recommend that any bus driver carrying children for any school district be thoroughly qualified and have the appropriate operator's license. Although we encourage the proper enforcement of uniform traffic code against all persons, we especially direct officers' attention to this direction. We recommend the Commissioners Court to abolish at least half of the voting boxes in this county as it is an unreasonable waste of money to keep them, and second, the majority of the voters in the smaller boxes as soon as they vote leave and come into the larger cities. They could easily vote the larger boxes without undue disadvantage to the election officials or to the voters. We earnestly urge that this action be taken at once. We respectfully request that we be excused." Signed: E. J. POE, Foreman.

Traffic Violations Bring Tickets to Errant Motorists

Failure to observe traffic regulations drew seven tickets for motorists during the week ending October 3, the weekly report from local police officers revealed today. Except for the traffic problem and routine investigations the week was quiet. Included in the charges against motorists were one for reckless driving and six for minor violations. In addition to the offenders charged in traffic incidents, two persons were charged with drunkenness, the report revealed.

Confused? We Were Too... Division of Texas Junior College Athletic Conference Is Explained

There has been much confusion and misunderstanding among the fans of the Cisco Junior College Wranglers with respect to the present division of the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference. There has been a change over the division last season, and the TJCA Conference is now divided into two zones which are called the North and South zone. The Wrangler team is included in the North zone which is now divided into two sections, namely the East and West. The teams included in the West section of the North zone are Cisco, Ranger, Weatherford, Decatur, Clifton, and Hillsboro; and these games will be the conference games for the CJC Wranglers. The teams in the East section of the North zone include Navarro, Henderson County, Panola County, Allen Academy, and Texas Military College. The eventual winner of the West section of the North zone playing the winner of the East section of the North zone, and the winner of that game will hold title to the North zone. The winner of the North zone will in turn play the winner of the South zone, and the winner of that game will be the champions of the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference.

Wranglers Drop Non-Conference Tilt to Navarro County Junior College, 19-0

CORSICANA, Oct. 1.—Light footed Bill Davis set the Navarro Junior College eleven ablaze and sparked three touchdown jaunts in the final phases of the clash as the Bulldogs scored a 19-0 triumph over the Cisco Junior College Wranglers here Saturday night before 2,500 fans at Corsicana's Tiger Field. After slugging to a 0-0 deadlock the first half, with both teams see-sawing back and forth across the gridiron, Navarro shattered the scoreless spell when Left Hal Lloyd Logino intercepted a Johnson to Lee pass and raced unchallenged to the Wrangler's own 19 strip before being pulled down by a swarm of backfield safeties. Two plays later, third down and goal-to-go Davis lugged the ball for the thirteenth consecutive time, circled wide around left end to tally the Bulldogs' initial touchdown, standing up. Jack Brown's try for conversion split the uprights. The second scoring trek, hampered with football quirks, came after Davis and his running partner, Bill Reed, had marched the ball to the Wrangler's one-foot line only to encounter a steadfast Wrangler defense on four separate would be touchdown drives. Fumbles five to be exact, tossed the Bulldogs into deficit and forestalled any serious threats to the Wranglers. Three minutes later after Flournoy Cleveland had trotted the ball back to his own 40 yard strip, a backfield fumble saw the red and white jersey clad Bulldogs assume the offensive chores on the 32 yard line. The second touchdown was setup when Davis faked a pass and sprinted 15 yards through the Wrangler's forward wall to the 17 yard line. Reed, on a sweet double reverse, swept around right end for an additional 8 yards and Davis, taking the ball from the 8 yard line, crashed off tackle and went over—again unmoisted. Brown's attempt for extra point was nullified. Once again an aggressive but down-hearted Wrangler eleven lined up on the 40 and prepared to receive a third Bulldog kickoff, all in the hopes of rallying in time to turn the Bulldogs back at their own game. Trick-master Doug Garner whipped right end for nine yards as the crowd winced before the terrific power of an aroused Cisco contingent. The tentative rally soon fizzled when Garner heaved a pass to Lee, who failed to grasp the ball. Unable to launch the touchdown, pace in good time and with a third down facing the visitors, a fourth fumble was recovered by C. A. Frost, Navarro backfield man, on the 28 yard line, the stage was set. At this stage of the fray, Head Coach K. H. Clark revived his grid-fastened teamsters with a fresh reserve team to take over the offensive's workhorse duties. After being penalized 15 yards for clipping, Reed snapped a pass to end Alton Gaines, who galloped 28 yards for the third scoring spree. Brown missed the conversion. In statistics, the Navarro Bulldogs amassed 139 yards gained compared with the Wrangler's 117. Navarro piled up 14 first downs while the Wranglers made 6. Navarro passed through the air for 84 yards out of five tries, Cisco tossed three passes completing one for four yards. Cisco was forced to kick five times for an average of 33 yards compared to the three punts of the Bulldogs for an average of 40 yards. Cisco was penalized twice for 20 yards on which the Bulldogs received three penalties for 45 yards. The Wrangler-Bulldog clash was a non-conference game.

Completion of Sale Awaits Approval of Title; Price Is Not Disclosed

Sale of the Laguna Hotel here to Victor Cornelius of Eastland for an undisclosed consideration was announced Monday. Contract of sale has been executed and transfer of title is expected to be completed within the next few days. The hotel, a 100-room, eight-story steel, concrete and brick structure, built in 1928 at a cost of approximately half a million dollars, is being sold by William Seipel of San Antonio through Edwin Schroeder Co. & Associates, who purchased the property from the National Hotel Company of Galveston in 1944. Guy Patterson, Eastland realtor, handled details of the transaction for the sellers.

The Gay Philosopher

(Copyright New York Graphic Society) By J. W. S.

TODAY'S PAPER contains a story about the deal whereby Victor Cornelius of Eastland will shortly become owner of the Laguna Hotel. Talking with him yesterday, he told us he expects to start the ball rolling very soon on a remodeling program. He hopes to have it completed by the end of the year. MR. CORNELIUS is well known here, having lived in the county for many years. He is in the theatrical printing business with a big plant in Eastland. His printing business is nation-wide. He is enthusiastic about the possibilities of the Laguna Hotel and the future of Cisco. PURCHASE of the Laguna, Mr. Cornelius said, was prompted by the steady and widespread oil and gas development in this area and the favorable outlook for new production. He plans a thorough renovation of the property to place it in the top rank of small city hotels. The Laguna was opened to the public in March, 1929, when it was regarded as one of the best appointed hotels in this section. It was built by William C. Witt and Associates after a campaign by Cisco Chamber of Commerce and civic leaders who raised $140,000 as Cisco's contribution toward a cost of nearly $500,000. During the depression and after a flush East Texas oil field and ten-cent oil had spelled a temporary decline in oil activity in West Central Texas, the hotel suffered the fate of numerous other properties and went under the hammer. For several years, however, and since the revival of oil and gas activity here it has been unable to meet the growing demand for accommodations. Mr. Cornelius' purchase of the property was hailed with satisfaction by Cisco business and civic leaders as a positive step toward restoring the hotel to its former prestige and a necessary service to the community and the public at large. MEETINGS Planned to Study Water ABILENE, Oct. 5.—Another series of meetings this week will take into Southwest and Central West Texas the program of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to enable cities and towns of the area to solve their water problems, according to D. A. Bantden, general manager. The first of these meetings will be in Monahans Tuesday noon, the next in Del Rio Wednesday noon; Stephenville 2 p. m., Thursday and Breckenridge Friday noon. In these meetings the organization also will present its industrialization study packet of the West Texas area, which contains completed reports on cotton manufacturing possibilities and sorghum grains industrial potentialities. The organization also is proposing the adoption of all the constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 2. In addition to WTCC directors, Chamber managers, county judges and mayors also have been invited to attend the meetings.

What Time Is It?

Nowadays, there isn't anything very complicated about the time of day. Most of the year the country runs on Standard Time, and during the summer a large section of it moves the hands ahead an hour and switches to Daylight Saving Time. As we cross the nation, the time zones change at established intervals, and in all cases the change is one hour. It's simple enough.

But it wasn't always that way—and it might not be that way yet if it hadn't been for the railroads. Sixty-five years ago Standard Time didn't exist. Every town had its own time, and so, even, did many business concerns. Railroad stations held a confusing series of clocks—each line used the time in effect where its home office was located. Matters went to such lengths, as an example, that in Pittsburgh there were six different times in use. Few people knew what time it really was. You couldn't be sure when an appointment was scheduled unless, by luck chance, the person you were to meet used the same time you did!

The railroads realized that something had to be done to bring order out of this chaos. The hundreds of different times in effect throughout the country were a constant and growing headache. The movement to standardize time began in 1872. And eleven years later, on November 18, 1883, every railroad clock was stopped at a given hour. When they started again, Standard Time, with its four time zones, was a going concern in the United States. It was gradually accepted by the people, and 35 years later Congress recognized Standard Time and made it official. The railroads had foreseen an important national need, and through voluntary agreements they furnished a workable solution.

It's Been Tried Before

Some years ago Mary G. Lacy, an employe of the Department of Agriculture, wrote a little study called "Food Control During Forty-six Centuries—a contribution to the History of Price Fixing." It has recently been reprinted, and it should be required reading for anyone who still thinks that the government, by fiat, can successfully control the distribution of goods and the prices at which they are sold.

Attempts at food control are almost as old as history. It was tried in Egypt in 2800 B. C., and the end result was a system of land tenure under which the land became the personal property of the king. It was tried in China and Athens and Rome. Much later on it was revived in England, Belgium and other countries, always with a singular lack of success. And, though few Americans know it, price-fixing was attempted in this country during the colonial era, and totally failed to remedy the problem it was supposed to cure.

As Miss Lacy sums the matter up, "The history of government officially setting a limit to them, the people are not relieved but only limitation of price seems to teach one clear lesson: That in attempting to ease the burdens of the people in a time of high prices by artificial exchange one set of ills for another which is greater."

When price control was tried four thousand years ago it led to a decline in production, to the withholding of goods from a market which was no longer profitable, and to a raging black war. Only a free enterprise economy, in which manufacturers, farmers and retailers must compete for business, can produce abundance. And only free competition, all the way from the source of raw materials to the stores in which finished goods are sold, can establish a price which is fair, and is based upon the going cost of doing business.

Before you say "Yes"

... to a suggestion by the seller or his agent that you buy the place without an abstract better consider the pickle you would be in if later the title proved to be faulty and you could neither sell nor borrow money on the investment you had made. Abstracts, if properly prepared, reveal the condition of the title as well as locate the property, and are considered to be indispensable in every real estate transaction by good business men everywhere!

MAID OF COTTON PICKIN' TIME

It's a life of thrills for the Maid of Cotton, hailed from Hollywood to Washington as cotton's top celebrity. The '49 Maid of Cotton contest opens today. The National Cotton Council reports, with four events like these awaiting the lucky winner. '48 Maid Matilda Nail of Fort Worth, Texas, cherishes such memories as meeting Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and the whirlwind of activities in Washington, headed up by the Congressional Ball. Any single girl between 19 and 25, born in a cotton state, may enter. Write to the National Cotton Council, P. O. Box 18, Memphis 1, Tennessee, for entry forms.

The club will meet in regular session at the Women's club House on Wednesday, October 6. Those present were: Mrs. Charles Cofer, Mrs. A. R. Day, Mrs. C. A. Farquhar, Mrs. Thomas Graves, Mrs. W. D. Hazel, Mrs. B. S. Huey, Mrs. G. B. Langston, Mrs. Eugene Lankford, Mrs. H. N. Lyle, Mrs. A. J. Olson, and Mrs. F. M. Wright.

Decorations of fall flowers were attractively placed about rooms used for the occasion and pretty bouquets of the blossoms centered the tables where guests were seated while eating. Invocation was offered by Mrs. A. J. Olson.

Following luncheon Mrs. Hazel gave a short address extended a hearty welcome to the new members of the club. Mrs. H. N. Lyle next outlined the study of the year ahead; Mrs. Eugene Lankford made an informative talk on the rules and By-laws of the club. Mrs. Charles Cofer, social chairman, closed the program with a number of witty and mirthful short stories.

Austin, Oct. 2— Texas colleges and universities are training only a small portion as many teachers as there is a demand for in the state's public schools.

Superintendents found extreme difficulty in many instances in filling vacancies with college-trained teachers, the Texas State Teachers Association announced here after making a survey of 13 institutions in the state which train teachers.

Requests for teachers made to teachers colleges, denominational and other colleges for the present school year totaled 12,727. Only 1,068 placements were possible, according to Charles H. Tenyson, public relations director of the Teachers Association.

"The teaching profession must in some way be made more attractive or our school systems will suffer even more than they now are," Tenyson said.

"It is quite likely members of the profession could help by 'selling' their students upon the desir-

Increase Noted In Cases Of Flu

Austin, Oct. 2—The 414 cases of influenza reported in Texas last week, bring the incidence of this disease up to forty percent more than the seven year median, as shown from the figures submitted by the 181 counties sending in reports to the State Health Department.

Influenza without complications may be a fairly mild ailment, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health officer, but, he pointed out, complications can turn this disease into a dangerous condition very quickly.

"Many cases of influenza are

Bob Hope For Indians

Comedian Bob Hope, minority stockholder and number one fan for the Cleveland Indians, packed his bag in Hollywood for a trip east to root for the Indians in this year's World Series. As Hope posed in his Indian uniform he said, "Cleveland's victory in the world series will be the greatest thing that has happened since radio and moving pictures discovered Bob Hope." (NEA Tiphoto)

Dr. Cox said, "Often they tend themselves to treatment readily. However, two important factors enter into the treatment of influenza, and they are, calling the family physician as soon as the first symptoms appear, and taking life very easy for a reasonable length of time after the acute stage has subsided."

Dr. Cox declared that influenza is not mass controllable. He emphasized that maintaining the highest possible health level at all times affords an individual the best protection from contracting this disease.

"Getting plenty of sleep and rest, daily exercise in the open, nourishing foods, and strict personal hygiene are our best known defenses against influenza," Dr. Cox said. "This applies to all respiratory diseases. A person who avoids all habits and practices detrimental to a maximum well-being and thus builds up a strong resistance to disease, is much less likely to contract influenza than is the individual who does not guard his health in this manner."

bad taste in your mouth, your coffee (and tobacco) lose their natural flavor, your food does not agree with you; you may have heartburn, gas and dizzy spells, you may be troubled with belching; at night the gas in your bowels may press upon your bladder making you get up frequently, thus breaking into your sleep. In the morning you are tired instead of refreshed. Gradually your health is impaired. Your complexion may become sallow or bilious; dark rings may appear under your eyes, you may feel lazy, dull and irritable or blue and melancholic. You may have frequent colds (catarrh) or dull head-ache; your bowels stop their free, full and natural action; you have constipation, gas, putrefaction and self-poisoning ("intestinal toxemia" or "acute gastritis" as many doctors call it).

Study the above drawing for a few minutes. Notice particularly how the bile flows from the liver into and out of the gall-bladder and thence into the small intestine where it mixes with the partly digested food just below the stomach. Bile is a necessary adjunct to proper digestion. Its absence from the intestine inevitably causes putrefaction and fermentation.
