The Gay Philosopher

(Copyright New York Graphic Society) By J. W. S.

WE'RE INDEBTED to some thoughtful friend for a clipping from a newspaper. The item is about a new and significant discovery in aiding and preventing baldness and falling hair. And it's so simple that it is a wonder that we had never thought of it by ourself. All you do once a day is to take an over-ripe avocado and rub it on the thin and bald places of your head.

RECKON OUR OLD friend Governor W. H. LaRouque must have acquired some cattle. We assume this to be the case, as we saw him down town Friday wearing cowboy boots with his trousers stuffed inside them. It is a well known fact that anyone can wear boots but to wear them with your trousers stuffed in is an indication that you own cows.

IT'S VERY FINE and fitting for the service clubs to give a banquet to honor the football teams of the season recently concluded. Same will be held on March 1 and a fine program is in the making.

THE COLD WEATHER hasn't been too good for the water department boys over at the city hall. They haven't been to read all of the water meters and your bill this first, in many cases, will be the same as last first. After the big thaw, the meters will be read and bills will be corrected on the next billing. With the weather so cool and everything covered in snow and ice, the department has done a good job in keeping the water running, much less than reading meters.

AT LONG LAST the GP has done some good. And Mr. A. R. Collier of the College called to say so. We mentioned some keys that Jack Anderson found the other day, and the College had lost them.

Karkalits Family Has Family Reunion In Eastland Home

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Karkalits had a family reunion at their home in Eastland last week end, with all their children home for the first time in twelve years.

With them were Burrett and his wife of Hamilton, C. S. Jr. and his wife of Lubbock, Jules and his wife of Charleston, S. C. and Miss Louise Karkalits of Eastland.

The Karkalits family lived in Cisco for a number of years and the entire family is well known here. Mr. Karkalits is secretary of the Cisco School Board and Louise is employed with the First National Bank.

J. B. Mauldin of Rising Star plans to leave on February 1 for Venezuela where he will work for the Creole Oil Co. in oil field work on Lake Maricai-bo. His family plans to join him later.

First Aid Advised For Trees And Shrubs Damaged During Ice Storm

As shrubs and trees come out of cold storage for the second time this winter it is important that first aid be administered to those damaged by the ice. A cloak of ice usually does more harm than good to ornamental plants used in landscaping home yards and lawns.

Broken, split and bent branches and wounds all need a different treatment. Where the weight of ice has caused branches to break several feet from the trunk, pruning will help. Remove the hanging limb where it has broken off, then select a side branch between the break and the tree trunk. Cut off the limb at this point. Follow up by pruning to reshape the plant.

Badly split branches won't grow back and heal over even though they are tied in place. Such split limbs should be removed at the trunk, leaving no stub at all. It's usually safer to prune off the split branches, and all the splintered and rough edges should be smoother off before a wound paint is applied.

White or orange shellac makes a good wound paint, or you may make a mixture of your own if desired. Here's how. Heat eight parts (by weight) of resin and three parts of boiled leneed oil. Paint this mixture on to the bark ring and hardwood area.

Branches that are merely bent over by the weight of the ice do not need quite as much care. They may be pulled back into place and held with strips of gunny sacks or cloth. Do not use wire and hard strings, as these may cut and injure the limbs. By the time the cloth rots away, the tree limbs should be growing back in their original shape. But if they are not, part of the bent limb may need to be cut away.

Ornamentals such as the abovitaes which have been disfigured by the weight of ice may be sheared. However, they can usually be bent back into their original shapes.

So, if you've had any shrubs or trees that were put in cold storage by Old Man Winter, there may be some first aid work needed in your own front yard. This information comes from the County Home Demonstration Agent.

Mrs. W. J. Armstrong will be hostess Monday afternoon to the Women's Council of the First Christian Church for a tea and Book Review. A social hour will be held at 3 p. m. preceding the review of 'Precious Seed,' by Mrs. Willirue Logan. All members of the Council were requested to attend if possible and are privileged to bring a friend.

New Norther Drops Temperature To Low For Season

A sneak norther that whistled into Cisco Friday plunged the mercury to a new low for the winter and the coldest weather in Cisco since January, 1947. The low was reached early Saturday morning when the temperature dropped to 13 degrees. Up to noon Saturday, it had risen only five degrees and was not expected to go much higher.

No relief from the chilling weather was promised by the weatherman until Monday and snow or freezing rain was forecast for the weekend.

The barometer stood at a still time high Saturday with a reading of 30.69, indicating colder weather. A low of 12 to 15 degrees was expected for Sunday morning.

Woodman Oyster Feast Scheduled

The oyster supper held annually by the local Woodmen of the World, Camp 500, will be Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the WCW Hall, Earl Mayhew, publicity chairman, reported Saturday.

Sovereign George Hines, Woodman representative from Abilene, and Sovereign Marcus Theford, Woodman representative from Mineral Wells, are expected to attend the event.

Ray Judia of Cisco will render several musical numbers for the evening's entertainment.

An invitation to Camp 500 Woodmen and their wives has been extended.

Muirhead Motor Co. To Present New Pontiac Monday

The long awaited 1949 Pontiacs were revealed to the public Saturday, according to an announcement by Muirhead Motor Company of Eastland, who are distributors of the automobile in the county.

The public has been invited to visit the show rooms in Eastland any time Monday to see the new model. The company is producing two lines this year—the Chief and the Streamliner. Pontiac will make 10 body types for 1949 with either a 90 or 104 horsepower engine.

Miss Katy Lou Atkins, student at TCU, came in Friday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Atkins.

Mrs. Roy Little and children are visiting relatives at Monroe, La., where they were called by the illness of her mother.

CISCOANS DAUGHTER DIES

Word was received here Friday of the death of Mrs. Bob Turner of Levelland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Short of 1512 Avenue N. Mrs. Turner died after several months of illness.

Mrs. Short was at her daughter's bedside when the end came at 10:30 p. m. Thursday. Interment will be in Levelland Sunday. Besides her parents the deceased is survived by her husband and several children.

Smith Leads Team

Cisco's Loboes Stage Second Upset; Clip Stephenville, 29-22, Friday

It was warm, extremely warm inside the City gymnasium Friday night. Outside a 20 degree wind whipped around the corners and flurries of snow peppered the frozen earth.

A handful of scattered fans sat on steel edges almost motionless at times. On the hardwood floor below it was another one of those hair raising basketball games that the Gold shirted Loboes are capable of playing. For on that cold night Coach Buck Overall's geared Loboes pushed the pedal to the floor board, wheeled by Durwood Smith, and sped over a proud and unbeaten Stephenville quintet, 29-22.

A preliminary B-Squad match saw the Jackets nose out the Loboes seconds at the last, 31-21. The district 7AA game was all Cisco, from beginning to finish. Blue-eyed James Porter, up from the reserve ranks, started the scoring drive for the Golds just seconds after the whistle. And once again, as in the Buckie clash, Porter played a solid game under the backboard.

On numerous occasions he snatched the ball from such star players for the Jackets as Ray Graves & Windell Lackey and trailed the fuss into Cisco's scoring zones and the score stood 7-3 after five minutes with Cisco on the long end.

In high point honors Durwood Smith pasted 19 for the Cisco five, and Ray Graves trailed second with 7 for the Jackets. But the fans would have told you that it was no one man show. Players like George Watts, Dean McDaniels, Ray Rylee & Donald Kent each had a helping hand in upsetting the Jacket's apple cart.

Half time score was 14-9. After the intermission, the Jackets stormed back into the arena, managed to make the Lo-

Carolyn Crofts Member Of NTSC Concert Band

DENTON, Jan. 30—Carolyn Crofts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Crofts, 512 W. 5th St. Cisco, is a member of the 90-piece North Texas State College Concert Band which will tour the state in February.

A freshman majoring in art, Miss Crofts is a member of the Grand Chorus and the women's chorus. She is a clarinetist.

Highlighting the tour will be appearances at the Texas Music Educators Association conference in Galveston and the Victoria Music Festival. The band is conducted by Maurice McAdow, whose bands have won several first ratings in state and national contests.

Poll Tax Payments Running Behind Last Year Total

Monday, Jan. 31, is the final day for payment of poll taxes and reports from Neil Day, tax assessor-collector indicated that payments were running well behind those of last year.

Approximately 7,000 persons paid poll taxes last year and so far not more than 50 per cent of that number has been paid this year.

B. A. Butler, secretary of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce has made arrangements to handle collections in Cisco again this year and poll taxes may be paid at the offices on West 6th.

Mitford Johnson Figures In Futile Rescue Attempt

Mitford Johnson, former Lobo and Wrangler star athlete who is now attending Baylor University, figured in a thrilling but futile rescue attempt in Waco Thursday, according to a release from that city Saturday.

Josephine, Baylor's Bear mascot, gave birth to twins Thursday but the Cubs' papa didn't want any part of them.

He showed his disapproval by immediately killing one.

Josephine showed her maternal instinct by cuffing the surviving Cub into a neutral corner, while bystanders lured papa bear away.

Johnson, who is a quarterback on the Baylor football team, and Buddy Tinsley, all-SWC tackle, slipped into the cage and got Junior away from Josephine and rushed him to a Bear Doctor.

The daring rescue was to no avail. Junior died.

Dairy Association To Meet In Cisco Monday Night

An important meeting of the Eastland Dairy Association in the College Cafeteria at Cisco, Monday Night, January 31 is being planned. L. R. Higginbottom, Secretary Treasurer of the group, said today.

A representative of the North Texas Breeding farms near Dallas will be present at the meeting.

After a supper beginning at 7:30 o'clock in the Cisco Junior College Cafeteria the association expects to complete their plans to get the artificial insemination program into operation, according to A. Z. Myrick, Cisco, President of the group.

Two Eastland County men recently completed their training in insemination work.

All members of the Association are urged to be present for the Monday night meeting.

and Mr. Collier has asked everyone to work all the harder for the worthwhile cause.

Jars have been placed in business houses over the city and cards have been placed in the hands of school officials for distribution to students. Placards have been placed in show windows and committees have been appointed to assist Mr. Collier with the work.

Joe Collins of Eastland, county chairman, stressed the importance of the program and pointed out that the county needed more money this year than ever before. During the epidemic in 1948 the county funds were used up and the National foundation loaned the county over $1,000 to assist with the work. The loan was to be paid from the proceeds of the 1949 drive.

Mr. Collier asked those who wished to make contributions to leave them at the Chamber of Commerce offices. He plans to begin the work in earnest Monday and to wind up the drive with a bang.

Texas Will Seek Safety Honors

Austin, Jan. 27.—(Sp1)—Texas will run into stiff competition this year in its quest for national traffic safety honors, President Charles A. Miller of the Texas Safety Association said today.

Texas has frequently won first or second place in the Southern Division which includes 14 states, but Miller said Texas' stepped up safety program in 1948 may have been equalled by outbursts of progress in both Oklahoma and Tennessee.

State Departments, as well as city officials and the Safety Association, are busy preparing state and city entries for the National Safety Council's annual contest.

Urging prompt and thorough completion of the contest entries, Miller said, "We'll need to get credit for every improvement that was made to hold our own in the competition this year."

Dallas has been the outstanding city in the national contest.

Cities of 5,000 and 10,000 population are awarded 'Honor Roll' certificates for completing the year without a traffic fatality. Larger cities compete in population brackets for honors based on improvements made during the year. Purpose of the contest is to encourage greater safety activity.

Headline attractions in Friday night's Abilene Golden Gloves tournament was a spectacular knock out over Hardin-Simmons' Hill Smith by little Bill Tabor, flying under the colors of Cisco Junior College, who sent the Cowboy contender for the lightweight division reeling back with sweeping bodily blows to take the count.

An estimated 2,500 persons braved the chilling wind to see the fights held in the Rose Field House.

Another crown-pleaser Friday night was Wayne Hayes, also of Cisco Junior College, who outpointed Don Barnett of the Knights of Columbus team in the middleweight brackets.

Bill Tabor, talented boxer here, and Hill Smith staged the best scrap of the night up to that time. The two stood toe to toe and slugged it out in the first, with both boys landing some telling blows.

At one time Smith had Tabor half through the ropes, but the Ciscoan came back fighting. In the second the action was fast and furious, and then Tabor placed a square right hand blow that flattened Smith. It was the first and only knock out of the night.

The final fight saw Wayne Hayes and Don Barnett, a couple of middle weights, exchange licks all over the ring. The second round was a repeated performance. Hayes carried the fight with Barnett into the third round, and had the K. of C. boxer on the rebound. At the end both were standing par with each other and battled it out again. Hayes won the judges decision.

In other bouts, Neal Jennings of K. of C. carried a novice fight to Bill Everett of Cisco Junior College in the first round. In the second they traded blows with Everett on the back to the ropes end. Jennings bounced Everett to his knees in the third, but he was back up with no count. However, Jennings won the decision.

Gene Milner of Cisco was scheduled to enter the fray Saturday night.

Grandson Of Cisco Woman To Get Degree At Texas University

James Bigby, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bigby of Eastland and grandson of Mrs. Elizabeth McCracken of Cisco, who will receive his bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Texas this month, will return to Eastland to accept a position with the Texas Electric Service Company next week.

Bigby, an honor roll student for the past four semesters, is a member of Pi Tau Sigma, senior honorary mechanical engineering fraternity, and of Kappa Kappa Psi, honorary band fraternity.

Entering the university in June, 1943, immediately after his graduation from Eastland High School, he continued as a student until February, 1945, when he enlisted in the Navy. He reentered the University in September, 1946, after receiving his discharge in July.

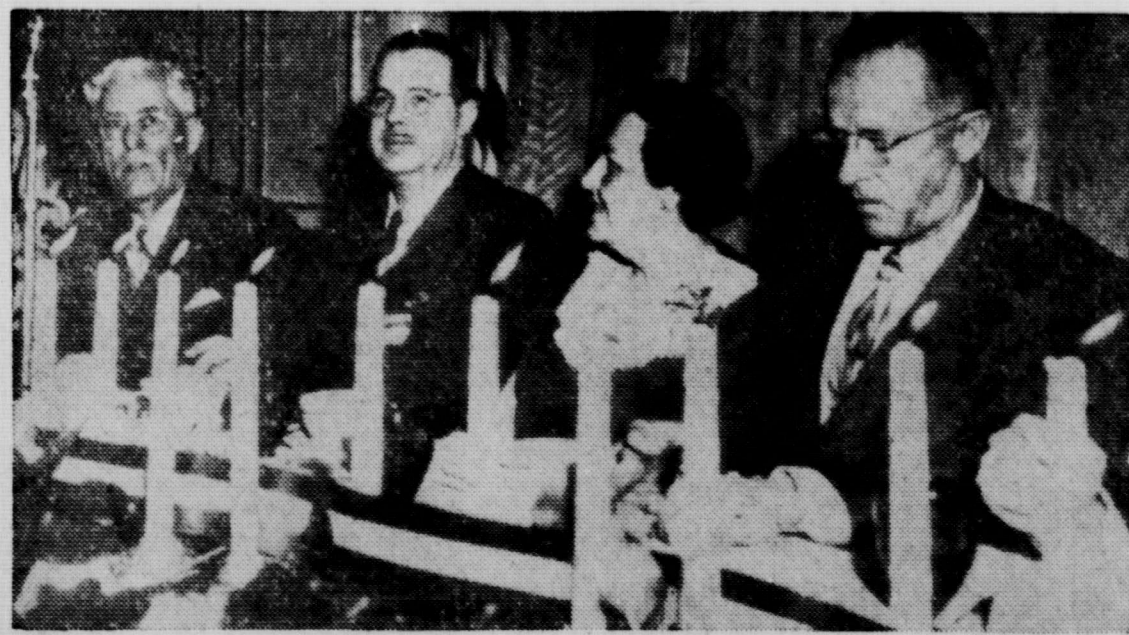

He became a member of the Longhorn Band in September, 1943.

Other campus activity has included membership in the Christian Science Monitor Club, intramural football, and serving on the council of the Men's Independent Campus Association prior to his entrance in the service.

Bigby recently was in the honor roll group at a number of parties in Austin. On one occasion engineering professors honored the 200 graduating seniors of '48 school.

Mr. and Mrs. Droel Loomis have returned from a visit to Denton where they visited relatives for a few days.

CHINESE PARTY FRIDAY FOR PRESBYTERIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL JUNIORS

The Junior Department of the First Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed a Chinese party in the basement of the church on Friday afternoon, sponsored by Mrs. B. S. Huey, department superintendent. The party was in keeping with "Foreign Mission Week" of the church program and the children came dressed in Chinese costumes. The room was decorated with pictures, giving different phases of Chinese Child life. The home of "Ming," made by the Juniors, was seen on a table. Chinese chop sticks and a glass bowl and tray were on display. A number of games entertained the children and they selected the name of a missionary, Mrs. W. A. McIvaine, to whom they plan to write a letter. They will each bring gifts of needles, colored thread and a handkerchief that will be assembled and sent to the chosen missionary for distribution. At the close of the party, refreshments, which the group prepared was rice with a vegetable, were then enjoyed, members using chop sticks for knife and fork, causing much merriment. ### "CHARGE IT, PLEASE"

A Privilege You Earn For Yourself

Cisco merchants, professional men and service organizations WELCOME charge accounts, for as a rule a "charge customer" is a steady customer.

From YOUR viewpoint, charge accounts are not only convenient. . . they indicate social and financial standing. They make it unnecessary to carry a large amount of cash, or to write numerous checks; they save time, too — no waiting for change.

The Credit Bureau does not pass on your credit — it merely reports HOW YOU PAY YOUR BILLS. The merchants want you as a customer, and they want to get a GOOD credit report. But remember that YOU are the only person who can make your credit GOOD.

Insure your privilege of saying "CHARGE IT" by paying ALL accounts PROMPTLY.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY WAS CELEBRATED SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jensen were host to their many friends Sunday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock with Open House in their home at 1410 Ave. N., celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

The living room was brightly arrayed with bouquets and pot plants which had been sent bearing good wishes from friends. These were of golden hue or tied with wrappings and ribbons of gold in keeping with the occasion.

In the dining room yellow daffodils and chrysanthemums composed the centerpiece for the table and were flanked on each side with tall white tapers. The three-tier wedding cake was gold covered with white icing on which was written with yellow icing the year 1899. The cake was topped with a tiny white arch from which hung two golden bells. On each refreshment plate of punch, cake and mints were favors consisting of small white cut-out paper bells on the words "John and Laura", "1899-1949" were lettered in gold. These were tied with gold ribbon.

Greeting the guests as they entered and serving them in the dining room were Mesdames John Klenier, Ben Krauskopf and Troy Powell, daughters of the honorees.

Between 75 and 100 guests signed the guest register during the afternoon, congratulating the bride and groom of 50 years and wishing them many more years of wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen were married at Weatherford, January 22, 1899. Mrs. Jensen's maiden name was Laura Margaret Howard. Rev. Mr. Rogers, a Baptist minister officiated. To this union were born the three daughters mentioned above and a son, Thomas Ole Jensen, who died in infancy. The couple lived in other Texas towns and cities before moving here in 1915, having been residents of Cisco for more than thirty years. They both hold membership in the First Presbyterian church of the city.

AGED CISCO LADY WAS HONORED FRIDAY

Mrs. H. A. Carbary was hostess Friday in the home of her mother at 304, East Seventh street for a birthday dinner honoring her mother, Mrs. Mary Craft, on her ninety-first birthday. A lovely meal was served at noon to members of the family, who had assembled to pay honor to the aged lady. Living at an advanced age when many parents have outlived their children, the honoree has a son, J. W. Craft of Detroit, Mich.; and four living daughters who are glad to do what they can for her happiness. They are as follows: Mrs. Pearl Stobaugh who lives with Mrs. Craft; Mrs. J. T. Burns of Abilene; Mrs. Frank Bassett of 611 East Sixteenth street, Cisco; and Mrs. H. A. Carbary of 306 West Eleventh.

The aged lady is a native Texan, having been born near what is now known as Mangum. The Indians were still in this part of Texas and the children oftentimes were afraid to go out-side and play. The people made early settlements around the forts. A fort was built wherever several families were living for their common protection.

When the hot weather during the drouthy summers would "set in" the creeks would become dry and Mrs. Craft's family and other neighbors would obtain their drinking water from McGough springs. Her family, known as the Hudgens family, lived near McGough springs during her childhood days. She well remembers old Mr. McGough for whom the spring was named, and grew up with his children.

When the Texas Central railroad, now known as the M K & T, established the railway line from Waco to Cisco in the early '80's, Mrs. Craft's first husband, Jim Brown, helped to build the "Y" in Cisco. She has often told her daughters of her great interest in the settling and development of Eastland County.

Mrs. Craft has long been a member of the Church of Christ but has not been able to attend services for several years, being practically deaf.

ICE AGAIN STRIKES TEXAS TELEPHONE LINES

ON THE HEELS of one of the most widespread ice storms in Texas history, which did about two million dollars worth of damage, another blanket of ice this week spread over much of Texas, leaving new wreckage from Oklahoma to Temple, and west to Pecos.

North and East Texas, on the edge of the first January ice area, bore the brunt of the new storm. Thousands of telephones were silenced. Many cities were isolated from communications with the outside world as wires snapped and poles crashed to the ground under the heavy weight of the ice. Only a few lines were available to many other points.

ICE DAMAGE IS WIDESPREAD

By early Thursday, 1,400 poles were down in Northeast Texas, 11,000 wire breaks were reported, and 1,250 long distance circuits were out of service.

Additional crews of workmen started rolling into the stricken area while ice was still on the wires. With standardized tools, the "know-how" born of experience, and with tons of materials, they tackled the big job of restoring communications quickly.

VOLUME OF CALLS SOARS

Telephone operators and equipment were swamped with calls from those who were "shut in" by the storm. Long distance operators did their best to get the flood of messages through over circuits not damaged by the ice.

To those whose telephones were out of order and to those whose long distance calls were delayed—thanks for your patience and understanding.

The damage of the ice is big... a big job faces telephone repair crews.

But the Bell System, which has brought to America the best and cheapest telephone service in the world, is BIG enough to meet the emergency.
