THE ANNUAL banquet of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce was a success from every standpoint last night. The Victor Hotel Coffee Shop had a capacity crowd. And the food was most excellent. The various committees have every right to be very proud of the banquet.

THE BANQUET was a tribute to the newcomers to Cisco during the past year and to Mr. Victor Cornelius for the splendid rejuvenation program he has actually completed at the hotel. All that remains, we understand, is the roof garden.

SATURDAY will be the day for a celebration by two local men. It's known as Iwo Jima Day to them. It resulted from the fact that R. W. McCauley, local tire dealer, and J. C. Fletcher, who works at the West Texas Produce Co., joined the Navy together back in the war days. They went through boot camp together and were together until they were assigned to separate ships. They next met some two years later at Iwo Jima during the landings there. They didn't have much of a celebration then, but when it was all over and they came home, the celebration idea originated.

GOT A LETTER the other day that made us wonder. It was from a man out in California and it was pretty poorly prepared. But, nevertheless, it made us curious. It announced that the writer was holding a demonstration for the press in the near future of a process and machinery he has supposedly developed to bring dead people back to life. He stated in the letter that he had successfully restored life to one man who had been dead a half hour and had been successful in bringing numerous dogs and other animals back to life. What makes us wonder about it all is the fact that we've seen nothing in the papers or magazines about him or his proposition.

Suggestions Save Money For Army

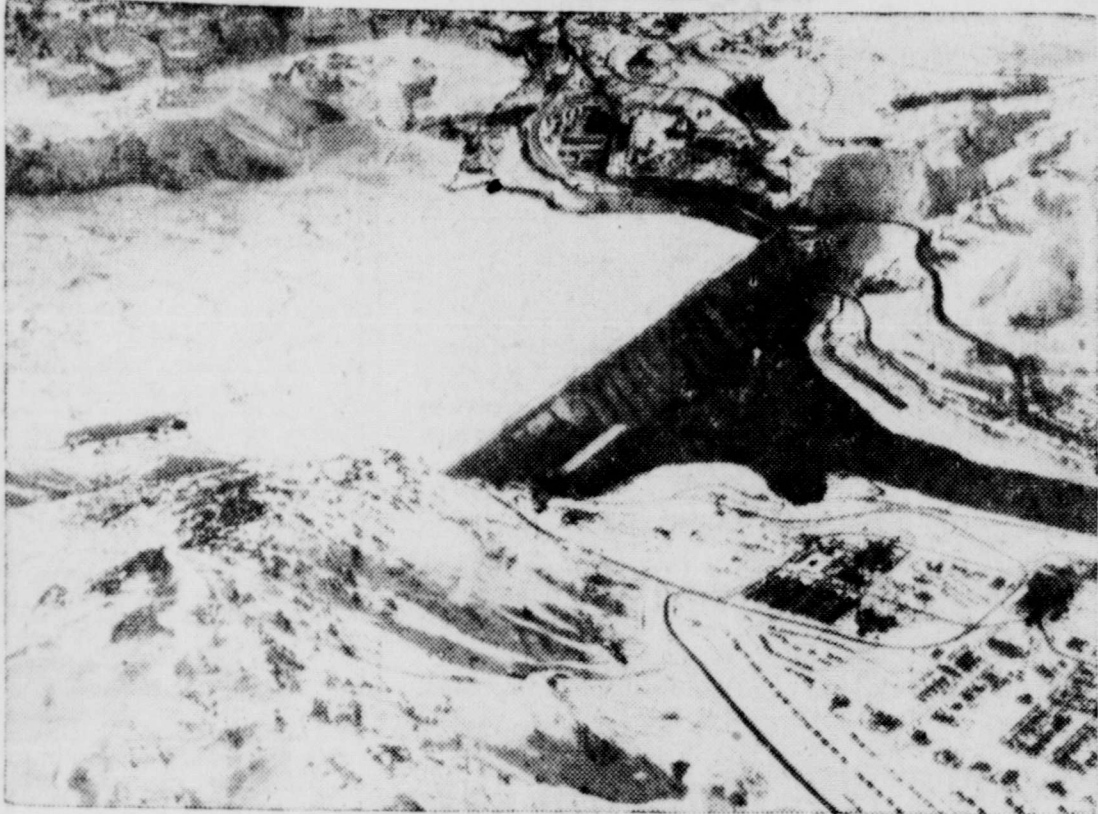

ANSTON, Feb. 18 — Suggestions made by civilian employees of the Army have saved $3,353, 713 in the past year, according to information received at the Texas Military District headquarters today.

The savings were realized by putting into effect about 3,037 ideas submitted by employees in the Department of the Army to improve the efficiency of operation in the Army. The suggestions adopted were from among 16,655 ideas presented during 1948 under the employees' suggestion program which was established in June 1943.

The ideas have paid good dividends to the employees. The rewards have amounted to $92, 042.05 in recognition of their constructive efforts with individual cash awards averaging $30.31 per adopted suggestion.

The new National Guard is being equipped with the most modern weapons and trained in their use.

Dallas Newsman Warns Rotarians Of Communistic Threat To Security

Richard West, former Ciscoan and now one of the editorial writers of the Dallas Morning News, told members of the Cisco Rotary Club Thursday that Russia, employing a sneaking, lying foreign policy, seeks to smash this country which Moscow has labeled "capitalist Wall Street" in every conceivable method.

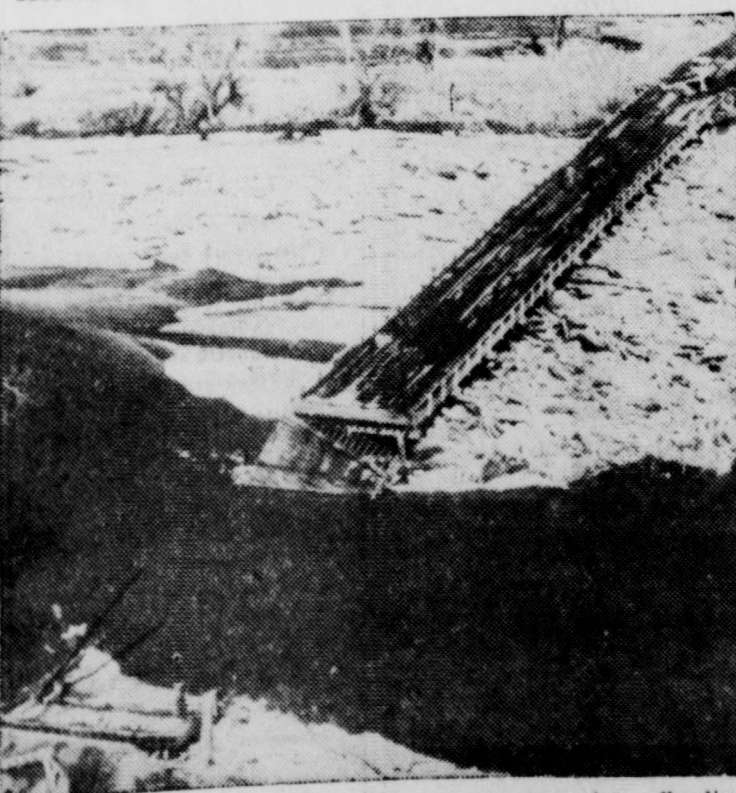

In his address at the Cisco Junior College cafeteria before fifty Rotarians and guests, West said: "Russia is not a political state, as most Europeans were first led to believe. Russia is a police state, governed by 'cruel men who seek to end civilization and free men.'"

"In Russia today, every bit of obtainable news that is written by foreign correspondents for release is blue marked by censors. What little remains and meets the approval of the Russian censors is then sent out to the world to read," West told the luncheon guests.

"Here in the United States," he said, "the communists, who do not count on members but close positions, have more members per capita today than were in Russia before the 1917 revolution."

West, who is a close friend of Bob Stripling, Chief Investigator of the Un-American Affairs Committee, asserted that "the Russians are now enclosed in schools and our governments. If they are permitted to run free, with no hindrance at all, the party can overthrow the United States."

Charles Adair To Head Tennis Team At Junior College

College athletic directors, in an effort to promote a wider athletic program at Cisco Junior College reported today that plans for a tennis team were complete and officers, had been elected.

The directors said Charles Adair had been named as president and James Swanner as vice-president. Other officers in the election included Ann Spenny as secretary-treasurer and Francis Surles, reporter.

Howard Huggins, chemistry professor at Cisco Junior College, will sponsor the athletic movement.

The first meeting of the tennis team will be held Wednesday morning, it was stated.

Religious Survey Planned By Local Minister's Group

Plans to conduct a city-wide religious survey were announced today by the Cisco Ministerial Alliance. Details of the survey were worked out at a meeting of the pastors of city churches last week.

The survey, in which the city churches expect to obtain the names of all new citizens, was decided upon due to the large number of new people moving here during the past year. The alliance pointed out that it is necessary to conduct a survey at least once a year.

Truman Taylor, employee of Humble Pipe Line Company, is to be director of the survey.

Next Sunday, those who are in attendance at the churches will be asked to fill out a religious survey card for each member or their family. After the cards have been signed, preferable by the mother, they will be checked against a map of Cisco, showing each house in the city. This same procedure will be used again on Sunday, Feb. 27. Then, on March 6, all census takers from all the churches will gather at the First Baptist Church and have lunch together, each bringing his own lunch.

Following the lunch, the workers will go to their assigned territory and take each house in that territory. After their work is completed, they will return to the church and turn in their cards to Mr. Taylor.

These cards will then be placed in groups according to the denominations desired. Each of the city churches will have the cards of members of their own church and of those who express a preference to attend the particular church.

The Alliance requested the cooperation of the entire city in the project.

Local Night School Students Win From Eastland Thursday

The Cisco Night School students went all the way in a 37-10 victory over the Eastland Outsiders in a March of Dimes benefit game here Thursday night at city gymnasium.

Frank Erwin paced the Cisco win with a total of 17 points, followed by J. B. Heysler and Delmer Childress.

The night school team will take on an independent team from here at the gym Monday night. No admission will be charged.

City Bus Service To Begin Regular Schedule Monday

Announcement was made Friday that the Cisco Bus Company will begin operations at 6 a. m. Monday on their regular bus service for Cisco. That date will mark the first time in the city's history that bus service has been offered to citizens.

V. V. McMurry and L. M. Threet, owners and operators of the new service, said that the busses would be operated on an hourly schedule, making four runs to different parts of town each hour.

The schedule calls for the first run to begin on Avenue D at 6 a. m. The route will run up Avenue D to 21st St., to Humbletown and return. The second run will be up Third St. and down 6th to the glove factory. The return will be to Avenue A and on to the Union Bus Terminal. The third run will cover the southwest part of town, including Oakhurst Addition. The fourth route is up 7th St., through Belmont Addition and down 9th St. The schedule will be repeated and is subject to change as conditions demand, the owners said.

The company obtained a charter from the city commission several weeks ago and have been awaiting the arrival of the new bus. The bus will seat 29 persons comfortably and more can stand in the aisle.

A fare of 10 cents has been set and the operators are selling books with a value of $2.00 for $1.80.

Veterans Asked To Name Beneficiary On NSL Insurance

One of the most important steps ex-servicemen can take with National Service Life Insurance is to name a beneficiary for their policies, Mr. Robert D. Deputy, VA Contact Representative, said here today.

Unless a veteran gives this matter thoughtful consideration, he may fail to get the most out of his insurance. For instance, if no beneficiary is named, the policy holder may be risking a financial loss to his heirs, according to Mr. Deputy.

Up to August 1, 1946, it was not absolutely necessary for the veteran to name primary and contingent beneficiaries because the law provided for payment of the insurance to legal heirs in a specified order. Now, however, if the veteran dies without naming a beneficiary, or if the beneficiary should die before the policyholder, the insurance will be paid in a lump sum to the veteran's estate.

Mrs. Pauline Reynolds Found Dead In Bathroom Of Home Late Thursday

Mrs. Pauline Reynolds, 54 wife of Harry Reynolds, Cisco oil man, was found dead by her husband late Thursday on the floor of the bathroom at their home at 1400 Avenue M.

Justice of the Peace W. E. Brown returned an inquest verdict of suicide. Mrs. Reynolds had been shot through the head and a .38 calibre revolver was found on the floor near the body. The remains were taken to San Antonio by Thomas Funeral Home at 11:30 a. m. Friday and services will be conducted at Porter Loring Funeral Home there at noon Saturday. Burial will be in a San Antonio cemetery.

Mrs. Reynolds is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Kate Reynolds of San Antonio and a sister, Mrs. E. F. Lyon of San Antonio.

She was born in Mississippi on January 11, 1895, and was married to Mr. Reynolds in Wichita, Kansas, in 1921. She had been a resident of Cisco since 1934.

Mr. Reynolds found the body of his wife at 6:30 p. m. He had gone home from his office at 5 p. m. as was his custom, and when his wife failed to meet him, he thought she was sleeping. He retired to another room and read and listened to the radio until 6:30. When Mrs. Reynolds failed to appear at that time he went to investigate and

Body Of Former Resident To Arrive In Cisco Sunday

The body of Mrs. W. J. Walker, who died recently at her home in Tucson, Arizona, will arrive in Cisco Sunday for burial. Thomas Funeral Home will meet the train and take charge of the remains and arrange for the funeral.

Arrangements were pending awaiting the arrival of the body but will be held some time Monday at Thomas Chapel. Rev. R. W. Crews, First Christian Church pastor, will officiate.

Mrs. Walker, the widow of the late Bill Walker who died in February, 1948, is survived by two daughters, Miss Fay Walker, and Mrs. A. C. Kinsey of Tucson.

Abilene C. Of C. Plans Banquet

Abilene, Feb. 18. Nib Shaw, President of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce, announced that the organization's annual membership meeting and banquet will be held the evening of March 3 at Rose Field House on the campus of Hardin-Simmons University, and that the featured speaker for the occasion will be James H. Pipkin, Assistant to the President of the Texas Company, with offices in New York City. Pipkin, who is a former Texan and a graduate of the University of Texas, notified Chamber officials that he would inform them on the subject of his speech next week.

The decision of the board of directors to hold the annual banquet in Rose Field House was prompted by the unusually widespread interest shown in this year's banquet by the membership. Arrangements are being made to handle an anticipated crowd of 1000 members and guests, according to Shaw.

"A community stands or falls by its weakest citizen." Judge Charles E. Coombes, Stamford, widely known West Texas civic leader, told more than 125 guests at the annual Chamber of Commerce Appreciation Dinner held Thursday night in the Victor Hotel dining room.

Judge Coombes, who lived in Cisco during the early 1920s, was formerly mayor of Abilene and is one of the region's most sought-after speakers. He declared that all citizens, great or small, should be honored and related how one prominent West Texas community failed to grow and prosper because of hatred, malice and jealousy among its citizens.

"We have too many softies," Coombes said as he told how the hardships suffered by early citizens made West Texas what it is today. He kept the interest of the audience at a high peak during the talk with his subtle wit and humor.

The talk was the highlight of the banquet program held in appreciation of all new firms, industries and citizens who have moved into Cisco during the past few years. The Chamber of Commerce and old business firms joined hands with all ir welcoming them and inviting them to become a part of the community — sharing the Community responsibilities and successes.

New Chamber of Commerce officials introduced at the dinner included W. P. Guinn, president; O. L. Stamey, vice president; Charles Spears, finance director; B. A. Butler, secretary-manager, and Mrs. Juanita White, office secretary. The new officers had been reelected earlier by the board of directors.

Guinn introduced Victor Cornelius, who recently purchased the hotel, and congratulated him on doing a fine job. Butler introduced visitors from Albany, Eastland, Ranger, Fort Worth and Abilene.

Willard K. White introduced owners and managers of new industries that had moved into Cisco recently and said that the annual payroll had increased around $350,000 per year.

Introduced by White were: I. J. Dobbin, Manager of A. R. Elam Co.; Col. R. E. Lee, Lee Geophysical Co.; Frank Morehart and Carl Angstadt of Jarecki Manufacturing Co.; Jack Morris and W. E. Bohl, Bethlehem Supply Co.; Ray Chapman, Chapman Oil Co.; M. W. King, Hughes Tool Co.; E. E. Edwards, Edwards Electric Co.; Mr. Wright and Mr. E. N. Admstrong of Fred Manning Co. and Cisco Hydrocarbons Co.; C. J. Ritchie and Fred Plumlee, Lane - Well Co.; R. R. Smith, McCulloch Tool Co.; L. O. Welch and D. P. Hartsell, Johnson Oilwell Testing Co.

L. R. Boyd, Teague Brick and Tile Co.; Jeff Gregory, Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co.; Royce L. Boyd, Royce L. Boyd Co.; Clyde A. Baker, White's Building Materials Co.; Mrs. Karl Armstrong and Mrs. John H. Brice, Marvel Press Pad Co.; O. L. Lee, Cisco Steam Laundry; Chas. Cofer, Cofer Real Estate and Insurance Co.; J. T. Carson, Cisco Transfer and Storage Co.; O. O. Odum, Rainbow Broom Co.; H. T. Rogan and F. W. Burkman, Rogan and Burkman Studios;

T. S. Townsend, Townsend's Garage; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kimball, Jack and Jill Shop; Mrs. Winnie Greer and Mrs. Geo. P. Fee, The Gift House; Lewis Miller, Lewis and Miller Co.; Stanley Webb, Cisco Equipment Co.; R. J. Stephenson, T. & P. Railway Co.; and O. L. Mullins of Fish Engineering Corp. Some of the men named were unable to attend the meeting due to business reasons.

Directors of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce include E. P. Crawford, who introduced the speaker, J. J. Callaway, Guinn, C. W. Henry, E. J. Jackson, Jack Lunsfordale, Floyd Powell, T. R. Beatt, Ronald Rhodes, J. W. Sifton, Charles Spence, O. T. Stamey, A. D. Wainfall, Anton White and Willard White.

Say It With Flowers

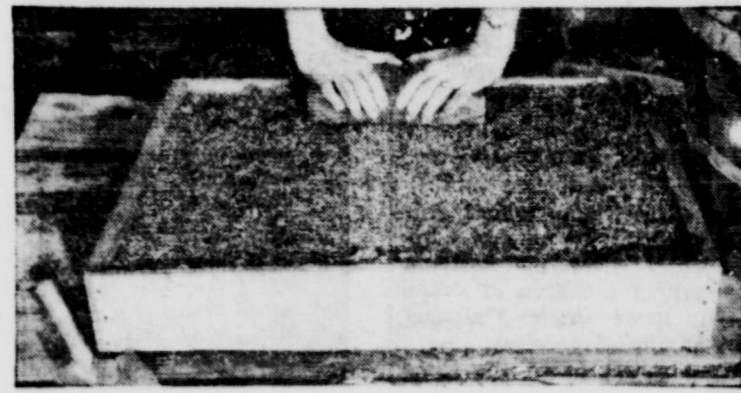

26 Years of Continuous Service - is a long-time record for any business or profession to achieve. Some do it, but many others do not. Common with the experiences of our contemporaries we have witnessed good years mingled with the bad. Some booms and more busts. And always the inevitable failures and consolidations. But we are still here with a fully equipped abstract plant of state-wide reputation, a force of trained employees, and a long record of successful operation in this county.

Early Sown Seeds Need Protection from Fungi

Rub anti-biotic sphagnum moss through sieve to cover seeds.

Firm moss well over seeds and water from above.

Among the perils which seeds may encounter, when they first begin to grow, is disease. Most plant diseases are caused by fungi, which are themselves plants, which live as parasites on other plants or organic materials. The particular disease which threatens seed is known as "damping off."

This may attack seeds when they first sprout, and prevent the growth from breaking through the soil; or it may wait until the seedling plant is growing well, and cause it to wilt overnight. Protection from fungi can be given by coating seed with a chemical which will destroy the spores of fungi, but this chemical must be especially chosen for seed treatment, since some disinfectants are harmful to seed. In purchasing, be sure to say what seeds you plan to treat.

A tiny amount, say as much as you can lift on the end of a toothpick, may be put into the seed packet before the seed are removed, and shaken well. This will coat the seeds sufficiently to protect them.

When seeds are sown outdoors early in the spring, before the weather is settled, they should be treated, since cold, damp soil encourages fungi, and prevents speedy germination. Indoors, the danger of fungus attack is always present, and may be countered either by chemical treatment, or by the use of sphagnum moss, which will not allow fungi to grow.

A thin layer of this moss—say half an inch—which has been passed through a sieve, may be spread over the soil in a seed box. Sow the seed in this, just as you would in soil. Then cover with moss which has been rubbed through a sieve, firm well, and water from above. There is no danger of over-watering when moss is used.

The review was presented in an interesting manner, and was well received and much appreciated by the audience.

A short business session followed and election of new officers was held. Those chosen were: President, Mrs. H. N. Lyle, First vice-president, Mrs. A. R. Day; second vice president, Mrs. W. D. Hazel, recording secretary, Mrs. V. C. Overall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ed Aycock; treasurer, Mrs. Eugene

Lankford; parliamentarian, Mrs. Philip Pettit.

Announcement was made by XXth Century club that a Texas Day program, "Fort Griffin Fandangle," is to be presented at the high school gym at 8 p. m. Friday, March 11. A silver Tea was also announced which will be held Saturday, February 19 at 2:30 in Eastland honoring past Presidents of Eastland County Federation of Women's clubs.

MRS. MARTIN HOSTESS
TO BAPTIST CIRCLE
Mrs. Roy Morrison, vice chairman, was in charge when Circle Four of First Baptist Women's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. F. Martin at 1109 West Fourth Street. Two visitors, Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Barrow of Moran, mother and niece of the hostess, were welcomed. Prayer by Mrs. C. A. Farquar opened the meeting and a short business session was held. It was decided to send a gift of money to a young lady student. Minutes of the previous meeting were heard and accepted and routine business affairs were transacted. Mrs. J. E. Burnam gave as a Bible lesson the twenty-sixth chapter of the Book of Matthew. All members took part in the round table discussion which followed. The meeting closed with a vocal solo by the hostess accompanied at the piano by her niece, Mrs. Barrow of Moran. A social hour was held and a lovely salad plate with hot rolls and dessert of home made cake and a cup of hot coffee were passed to the visitors, Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Barrow of Moran; and Mesdames Roy Morrison, J. E. Burnam, Henry Anderson, Eula Grantz, C. A. Farquar, Austin Flint, W. F. Walker and W. F. Martin.

Communism in Russia deserves to be measured over against the intolerable tyranny and oppression of the Czars; it may even be a step in advance of that which it replaced.

But Communism within the United States is quite a different thing. Here it appears as a threat to that great good that we call democracy; and worse still, it seeks to overthrow the Christian religion which has been the sure foundation of our freedom and our integrity. Toward Communism in Russia we may take an attitude of sympathy, hoping that a great nation will move on to higher ground, though we recognize the right of the Russian people to choose their own political and economic system. So we say to each other, "Hands off" of the internal affairs of other nations. But we ought to be mightily concerned with the appearance of Communism in the U. S. A. Perhaps here, however, we ought to be on our guard against the reality rather than the name. It is one thing to belong to the Communist Party, which looks us squarely in the face and announces its position. It is quite another and a more dangerous thing to be a Communist and not let it be known. It is the under cover Communism which threatens us most.

Communism sets itself up as a religion, denying God and the Christian Faith; it would close the doors of the Church. Do you support the Church, or could its doors close so far as you are concerned? There are sixty million people in this country who are not members of any Church; they are the Communists we should fear. Godless women and men, intent on themselves or some political party as the chief good, irreligious and devoted to material ends—these are the Communists whom we Americans should fear and seek to change.
