WELL, FOLKS, THE GAY Philosopher has been gone for about two weeks. JWS may have been a philosopher when we first met, but not so gay. During the two days JWS has been at the USNAS, the check-in list should be complete. Two months ago the same thing happened to me. After taking your orders to the OOD (Officer of the Day), one is sent to the Records section down the passageway on the first deck. A yeoman looks you over and says, "Sorry, sir, — you should go to the Officers Record section on the second deck."

AND AWAY YOU GO to hunt the ladder (stairs to you). Now, you have your check-in sheet, and away you walk to the Medical building. The corpsman looks you over and because we older fellows don't look like a twenty year old we are sent to the doctor. We chat awhile about the two inches we have gained. We are asked to remove the blouse and necktie, which we do. The Doc numbers, "Your arms are OK," and asks, "Did you walk in here?" We answer, "Yes, sir," and as he initials our sheet, we know we've passed.

YOU NOTICE THE DISBURSING office is on the other side of the base, and we rush over there because it's where our pay comes from. The same list shows the Supply office is in the Ad. building, Room XXX. When we report there, the Supply office has been moved to the Disbursing building. Back where we started — The chaplain is in the Recreation building but finally find his office in the Ad. building. After the post office, Dental office, Armory, Administrative office, Exec. office, we are ready to call it a day.

WHGA, WE ARE AHEAD of the story — the first place we go after the OOD is to find where we eat and sleep. The Gay Philosopher has found these because we first knew him on Los Negros and in the tropical Paradise he was a good eater and a sound sleeper.

REMEMBER, JWS, THAT CHECK-OUT list still awaits you 'in two weeks.

SCHOOL'S OUT, AND DON'T the buildings look lonely, even on a bright sunny day. It takes people to make the world and keep things from decaying. Keep people out of buildings and they are dreary things, ready to fall. Even fine homes without people are soon known as haunted houses. Remember the ghost house Mother and Dad used to tell you about? School (Continued on page 4)

Lutherans Launch Drive For New Expansion Project

Lutherans of Grace Lutheran Church, 1001 and Avenue D, of this city and Christ Lutheran Church of this area are preparing for participation in a nationwide effort to raise $2,000,000 which will be used for the construction of new buildings at colleges and seminaries operated by The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod. The greater part of the fund will be raised by $5,000 Missouri Synod churches throughout the United States and Canada in a special offering on Pentecost Sunday, June 5.

One of the schools to benefit from the project will be Concordia College at Austin, which prepares students of this region for the Lutheran ministry and for the teaching positions in Lutheran parish schools.

This will be the first large fund raising project for capital improvements at educational institutions of the Missouri Synod since 1925. Major expenditures of the church body during the last decade have been devoted to wartime service to armed forces personnel, to foreign and domestic mission activities and to postwar relief abroad for which an estimated $15,000,000 was contributed by the 1,500,000 members of the Synod since 1945.

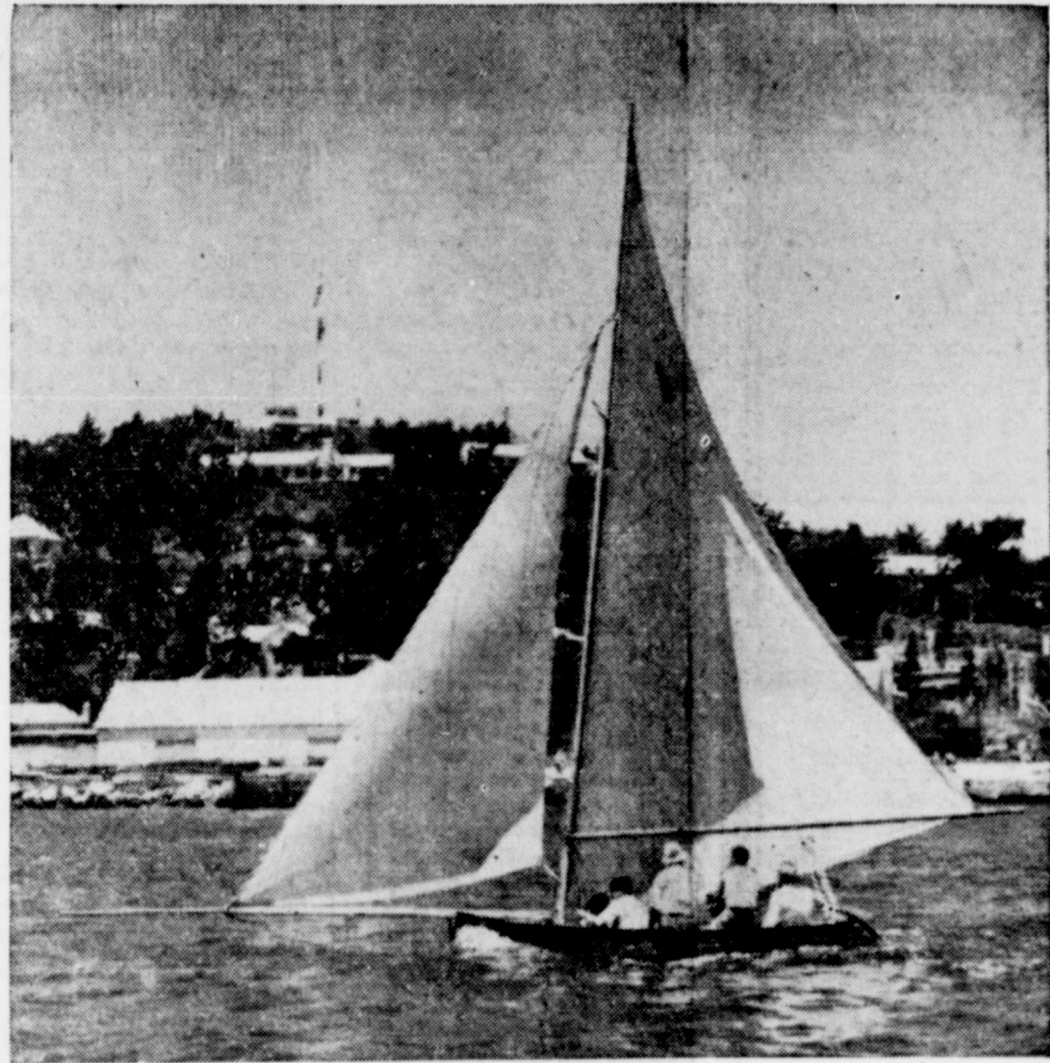

In addition to replacement of obsolete buildings, the new program calls for eventual expansion of the existing educational facilities at 12 colleges and seminaries to provide a minimum of 200 candidates annually to the Lutheran ministry, and a minimum of 476 graduates annually, prepared to teach in the Synod's expanding school system of the church, the largest maintained by any Protestant church body in America, is the unusual number of men teachers employed. Over half of the 2,806 teachers in the system are men. Most of the teachers are graduates of the church's two colleges at Seward, Nebraska, and River Forest, Illinois. These colleges, the only teacher training institutions operated by a major American Protestant Church, occupy an important place in the present program, which has been entitled "Building for Tomorrow."

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams of Cisco, who were married in Waco recently, are spending the week-end in San Antonio with relatives before returning here Tuesday. Both are students of Baylor University.

Cisco Guardsmen In Abilene Today; On Maneuvers At Former Army Post

Heavy trucks, light staff cars, seven in all, constituted Cisco's National Guard unit convoy, the 648th Armored Field Artillery, which left here early Saturday morning for a two day encampment at Camp Barkley at Abilene.

Some fifty-five officers and guardsmen from Cisco are attending the encampment at Camp Barkley, held each year two weeks prior to the summer maneuvers at Camp Hood.

The Cisco convoy, shortly after leaving the College Hill armory, temporary headquarters for the unit, met and joined with a similar convoy from the Ranger unit, the 648th Service Battery. In all, the Cisco-Ranger procession totaled more than twenty vehicles.

According to reports from Sgt. Frank Schlaepfer, administrative assistant, the combined strength of guardsmen at Camp Barkley yesterday and today exceeds more than 1000. Under the command of Lt. Col. Marian H. Badger, with headquarters in San Angelo, it is the first of a series of two day meetings for the 648th Armored Field Artillery.

A large portion of Saturday morning, after arriving at the former war time training camp, was employed in setting up camp for the respective units. Food and supplies were furnished by each unit's quartermaster.

Later Saturday, squads from each unit were assembled for firing practice on the target sites to the north of the camp.

Armed with carbines and automatic pistols, each Guardsman will fire approximately 250 rounds of ammunition before the encampment comes to a climax Sunday afternoon. Schlaepfer said the firing practice will be held in the morning. While on the firing lanes, guardsmen must qualify in marksmanship before attending the two week maneuvers at North Camp Hood. The firing of the weapons will likely take up a good part of the bivouac.

Under the supervision of Wayne Parsons, a former Coast Guard cook, meals will be prepared by the field kitchen detachment during the stay.

Neat rows of tents dot the camp grounds. In field maneuvers, it was explained, guardsmen sleep two to a tent and have rations. Not since organization last summer have the Cisco Guardsmen, most of whom are between the ages of 17 and 22, actually put the equipment into use, Schlaepfer explained.

Officers composing the headquarters, who accompanied the unit, included Captain Olin Odum, commanding officer, Lt. Jack Lauderdale and Lt. C. J. Ritchey.

Novel Graduation Is Mailed By Lubbock Woman

LUBBOCK, June 6 — After working for a telephone company since the war to keep her GI husband in Texas Tech, a young woman in formal engraved announcements has advised friends: "Mrs. Worth A. Zachary finally announces (with pleasure and relief) the graduation of her husband from Texas Technological college on May Thirtieth, Nineteen Hundred and Forty-nine." Zachary, accounting major, entered Texas Tech in 1942 and took time out to serve in the Marines during the late war.

T. C. U. To Offer Course In Church Music

FORT WORTH, June 5 — A new degree, that of Bachelor of Music in Church Music, will be added to the curriculum of the Texas Christian University School of Fine Arts next fall, following completion of the new $1,500,000 Fine Arts Building on the TCU campus.

Designed to train ministers of music on a professional level, the new curriculum will be made possible primarily by the new seventy-rank concert pipe organ — one of the largest in the South — which will be installed in the new auditorium. Candidates for the new degree will take a major in either organ or voice and a minor in the other plus a full major in religion courses.

The Curriculum will include music theory and history, choral conducting, hymnology, choral literature, liturgical music, children's church music and administration of church music programs.

The new Fine Arts Building, scheduled to be one of the finest plants of its kind in the county, will be occupied on Sept. 1.

Provisions Of Gilmer - Aikin Bill Explained At Meeting

Eastland, Ranger Join In Attempt To Obtain Lake

A joint effort by civic leaders of Eastland and Ranger to get a lake built that would end the municipal water problems of both towns was launched Tuesday when committeemen from the two cities went to Breckenridge to lay the framework for such a project before Milton Daniel, Breckenridge banker, member of the Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation Commission and chairman of that group's small dams committee.

The Eastland - Ranger group proposed to Daniel that the Brazos commission furnish engineering to determine the estimated cost of a dam across the Leon River at its junction with Colony Creek.

The proposed dam has been strongly recommended as having the best location on the upper Leon, both by Army engineers and by Col. E. V. Spence, chairman of the State Board of Water Engineers.

Spence said to an Eastland group in Austin recently that it would be foolish not to develop the Colony Creek dam site, when a dam erected there would furnish enough water for Eastland and Ranger for a hundred years.

The delegation carried to Daniel letters signed by all the members of the Eastland and Ranger City Commissions asking the Brazos board to furnish preliminary engineering for the project.

Tanner said afterward that the chief assistance wanted from the Brazos board at this time is finding out what the proposed dam would cost to build.

"If it would cost five million dollars, we could kiss it goodbye," he said. "But if we could get it built for five hundred thousand dollars, we could find out if the construction could be financed."

Local Ford Dealers Celebrate Eighteenth Anniversary This Week

The Nance Motor Company, Ford dealers, celebrated its eighteenth anniversary in Cisco this week — an anniversary that has seen some changes in the personnel of its ownership, but none in the high quality of the service that it has given to the motorists of Cisco and surrounding territory.

Eighteen years ago — in 1931 to be exact — S. H. Nance came to Cisco from Winters, and took over the management of the Bleas Motor Company. A few months later he purchased that firm and changed the name to Nance Motor Company. Associated with him was his son, Garland Nance, who remained with the company until 1939, when he went with the Hickok oil and gas interests, with whom he is still employed.

Four years ago Charlie Graham, formerly with the Universal Motors at Abilene, purchased an interest in the company and took over active management of the parts and service department, S. H. Nance taking charge of the sales. Mr. Graham recently purchased additional stock in the company giving him half interest in the firm, the other half being owned by Mr. Nance.

Behind this association lies many years of aggregate experience in Ford service and sales.

"DEMURE LADY"

The demure little "lady" pictured above is just one of the 30 or 40 "ladies" who will help to make the Lions Clubs "Roaring Follies of 1949" a big success.

The "Follies" were originally scheduled at the Community Gym on Friday night, June 3, but conflicting events postponed them until Friday night, June 10.

The proceeds will be used by the club in its community work. Tickets can be obtained from any club member.

Summer School Enrollment To Begin Monday

Approximately 40 students were expected to enroll in the summer school classes at Cisco High School, beginning at 8:15 a. m. Monday, Arlin Bint, superintendent of Public schools, said Saturday.

Registrations of students and distribution of books will take up most of the first day, Bint said, but classes were expected to get underway Tuesday morning at 7:15 a. m. Carlos Turner, principal, will be in charge of the summer sessions.

In addition to Turner, Mrs. Doris Pyle, English Department, F. M. Woods, Math Department, and Roy Williams, Social Science Department, will compose the summer faculty.

The summer sessions will be held for eight weeks, Bint said.

The passing of the final section of the Gilmer-Aikin School Bill by the Texas House of Representatives Thursday marked the end of the rural Independent School District that was not maintaining a school within the district, according to Arlin Bint, superintendent of the Cisco school system who called a meeting of representatives of the rural districts Thursday to explain the provisions.

Bint explained that Cisco and the Cisco Independent School District was vitally interested in the provisions of the bill as pertaining to the status of the rural schools and, at the meeting explained the stand of local school officials.

The purpose of the meeting was to inform rural board members of the provisions regarding the combining of the dormant districts with an operation district. He explained that the County Board, under the new bill, had the authority to place the district where it chose but had promised to withhold action until the matter was explained to the districts and until the districts had a chance to express a choice.

Bint reported that all rural board members who attended the meeting favored entering the Cisco District and that preliminary had been set in operation to permit voting where necessary. The Dothan District has circulated a petition for an election calling for entry into the local district, and four districts, Cottonwood, Bluff Branch Sandy and Friendship have been placed in the Cisco District by the county board.

Spokesmen at the meeting were of the opinion that the election for combining 13 districts with the Cisco districts, held recently, would have carried if it had been explained thoroughly.

Word of the meeting was sent to the parents through students enrolled in the Cisco Schools. Approximately 50 persons, representing all 13 of the districts, were present. Mr. Bint plans a meeting in each of the districts within the next two weeks. The meetings will be held to further explain the new bill.

Fort Worth To Celebrate 100th Birthday In July

Fort Worth will celebrate its 100th anniversary with a gigantic "birthday party" July 16 through 23rd.

It will be called "FIESTA-CADE." More than 2,000 persons will participate in the outdoor spectacle to be presented each night in Farrington Field, city school's football stadium.

Historical events of the city's first 100 years will be dramatized in Fiesta-Cade. The football field will be the stage and over it will roll stage coaches and covered wagons re-enacting pioneer days. There'll be Indians, soldiers, cowboys and other lively-day personalities, gigantic sets and picturesque costumes.

Among Fiesta-Cade's thrilling episodes will be the cattle trail revival of the "iron horse," a ball at the old Texas Spring Palace, and a memorable scene from Casa Manana, "The Night Is Young."

Fiesta-cade will be produced professionally by the John B. Rodgers Company of Fostoria, Mo., leading national producer of outdoor spectacles.

Hundreds of Fort Worth persons already are working on preparations for the civic, non-profit show. Executive Committee planning the eight-day spectacle is headed by R. Wright Armstrong, railway official.

"The Fiesta-cade will dramatize the history not only of Fort Worth but, in a general way, all of Texas," Armstrong said. "We want Texans everywhere to join in the fun and help us celebrate our birthday."

More Smiles per Gallon with Dynaflo Drive

THERE'S the smile when you slip the selector lever into Driving notch—and realize that's all there is to do.

There's the smile when you swing smoothly up to cruising speed without halt or check or break of stride. There's the smile at traffic lights when you halt, wait, then move away with never a thought about shifting.

But the broadest grin of all comes at the end of a long day's drive and you find you've covered more miles more easily. Even your treadle-foot — so likely to become tired and cramped maintaining an even speed in direct-drive cars—appreciates the fluid ease of Dynaflo.

For Dynaflo Drive is not merely a new transmission. It's a new experience — a new luxury in driving. In ten minutes you are handling it like a veteran — in two days you wouldn't be without it.

Small wonder, then, that Dynaflo is the drive with which all new developments in transmissions are compared.

Not merely "something better," it is something entirely new, the first exciting chapter in a whole new book.

Go learn for yourself how abundantly rich in pleasure every gallon becomes when you have Dynaflo.

AND NEWS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Announcement Party In Anderson Home

Announcing the approaching wedding date of her daughter, Dorothy Jean Anderson, and Mr. William C. Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoffman of Eastland, Mrs. Myrtle Anderson entertained with a party Wednesday morning in her home on west Ninth Street.

The house was made gay with bouquets of summer flowers emphasizing the bride-elect's chosen colors of Nile green and yellow.

The wedding vows will be repeated June 25 in the First Baptist Church of Cisco with Rev. Otis Strickland, pastor, officiating for the double ring ceremony.

Guests were received by Mrs. Anderson, her daughter and Mrs. C. W. Hoffman of Eastland, mother of the groom-to-be. They were then seated in the living room where a period of conversation was enjoyed; and names were written in the bride's guest book.

Mrs. Truly Carter and Mrs. Don LaCasse passed glass trays holding dainty heart shaped one-face sandwiches, olives, corn-twist, cakes and sweet cakes; and a tiny marriage certificate scroll tied with yellow ribbon with gold wedding band attached. The approaching marriage date was revealed on the scroll, and napkins bore the names "Bill and Dot," written in yellow.

Guests present were: Mrs. C. W. THIS OLD WORLD WAS never meant to be ruled by one man. We are creatures that resist changes just as the blacksmith resisted the coming of the automobile. Most of us can get high pressure about changes that may come. We argue with our fellowmen and then worry ourselves to sleep. We awake next morning and find the sun shining. We then worry because what we worried about yesterday didn't happen.

Fandangle To Be Presented In Albany June 23, 25

The Fort Griffin Fandangle, annual Albany extravaganza, produced and directed by Robert Nail, will be held this year of June 23, 24 and 25, according to an announcement by Miss Olive Clarke, Albany Chamber of Commerce manager.

The show, built around old songs of the area, will be held at the Albany football stadium. Mr. Nail announced that all backgrounds for the two and a half hour show had been completed and that rehearsals were in the final stages.

The Fandangle is put on with local talent. It is probably the most publicized of all shows in Texas and draws nationwide interest.

Miss Clark invited all Cisco to attend the production and reported that tickets were on sale in Albany.

Cisco previewed the interesting routines recently when the 20th Century Club presented M. J. Nail and some of his cast in a short program at the Community Building.

People Advised To Learn To Swim in Order To Cut Down Drowning

More than 300 Texans will die drowning this summer alone, according to the National Safety Council. And the reason is that most of the people in Texas do not know how to swim. That is the basic reason why drowning becomes one of the most important causes of accidental death in the summer.

Lee Carley, Lake Cisco swimming pool manager, offers the following advice to swimmers: "Learn to swim well. Self taught 'egg paddlers' too often think they are swimmers and overestimate their abilities. Know your limits as a swimmer and stay within them. And don't think air like water is the same."

"Never swim alone. If you have help at hand, preferably a life guard with the knowledge and equipment for rescue. Don't swim after dark. It is too hard for even an expert to assist you," he said.

"And too, it is dangerous to dive in unknown waters. Submerged rocks or logs may knock you out. Sudden plunges into cold water should be avoided. Don't plunge into water when you are overheated, and wait at least an hour after eating to swim."

"Never jokingly call for help, and don't splash or annoy others who are scared of water. Roughly and pranks cause many accidents each year," he concluded.

Carley said Thursday that the pool was now open to swimmers after being scrubbed and cleaned Tuesday night. Fresh water, he said, had been treated in to kill germs and bacteria, germ in the pool. Carley said, the pool was defined and cleared out once again to be safe. Attendants, after the water has been let out, will be on duty basin until thoroughly clean, he added.

"In addition to the safety precautions already noted, the management has hired two lifeguards for full time duty. They are Joe and Walter Baum.
