

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

FOUR OF THE largest Elberta peaches we ever saw were brought to The Press office yesterday by Mr. Rudolph Schaefer, who has a 190-acre farm one mile south of Cisco on the Star highway. And they were delicious.

Mr. Schaefer's orchard contains some 22 trees and he has just completed selling 100 bushels of peaches, which is a right good yield. He has a fine reputation as a scientific farmer.

SPEAKING OF peaches, we were by Spencer's Fruit Stand Wednesday and the boys there told us that some 500 bushels a day are going out of the large Spencer orchard. They're shipping the fruit. The yield is very good this year, and the price is holding up pretty good.

THERE'S A NEW boss man out at White's Building Materials Company. New manager is John W. Speir, who had been office manager since the company opened. He takes the place of Mr. Clyde A. Baker, who was transferred to Fort Worth to be sales manager for the White Company. It was a promotion for both men. Congratulations!

IF YOU WANT to hear some good music, we recommend you gather around the next time Mr. Ray Judia and his little orchestra tune up to play. Ray plays the saxophone, Mrs. Stanley Webb plays the piano, Al Anderson a guitar and Travis Farmer handles a bass fiddle. They played a 20-minute program of popular music for the Lions Club at noon Wednesday and it was a very fine program.

BACK FROM THE sort of vacation we'd like to take are Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. White and sons. They went to Colorado and camped out for a couple of weeks. They took along a large tent and fishing poles. And had a grand time.

They were surprised one day while hiking on the side of a mountain. They ran into Doc Cabiness of Cisco, Texas. Doc was surprised, too.

It's a small world.

MR. CHARLIE BURKE called to remind all country clubbers that tonight's the night for another family picnic at the club. Members bring one dish each of something to eat. And till the dishes are put together for a grand feast. Everybody always has a good time. So be there.

Engagement Of Miss Reba Honea And J. H. Bisbee Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Honea have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Reba Loraine, to Mr. John Howell Bisbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Bisbee of 207 West Fourteenth Street. The date of the wedding will be announced later.

Miss Honea has been reared in Cisco and graduated from Cisco High School with the 1948 class; she attended classes at Cisco Junior College last school year.

Mr. Bisbee attended school at Scranton prior to enlisting in the Army Field Artillery in 1944 where he served two years, eighteen months of which he spent overseas. He is now a vocational student at Cisco Junior College and is employed by the Tompkins Broom Factory. After their marriage they will continue to make their home in Cisco.

TO HELP THE FARMER—This new farm sprinkler system is portable. A main pump supplies water for the aluminum arms which can cover a 40-acre farm with 3 1/2 inches of water in 11 hours. The lad carrying the sprinkler demonstrates on a farm near Woodstock, Ill., that it can easily be moved.

Sympton Hunting Scored By State Health Department; Advice Given

Among a certain and rather extensive group of self-centered persons sympton hunting unfortunately is rather popular. Because of a too detailed study of so-called health literature of the alarmist type or on account of a recent death in the family, introspection develops to a morbid degree. The result is an entirely unfounded fear for all sorts of disease possibilities. Many becoming victims of this warped psychology develop brain and nerve exhaustion and in extreme cases even become affected mentally, stated Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Of course, it is entirely proper to have a normal regard for personal well-being. To maintain vitality and to prevent disease is a logical pursuit for every one. But it most decidedly must be kept within bounds. When one becomes obsessed with the subject, concern for health has overstepped the limits.

For all practical purposes, after giving reasonable attention to diet, personal sanitation, sleep and exercise, and assuming that ones bodily limitations as defined by the family physician are appreciated, the average person can dismiss the subject of health. This, plus the annual physical examination should adequately cover the situation.

On the other hand, conditions are bound to arise where actual disease symptoms manifest themselves. It will then be up to the doctor to decide what the trouble, if any, is and for the patient to abide by his judgment.

In short, sympton hunting, as a hobby, is a dangerous matter. One should stay away from it. It is neither safe nor healthy to do otherwise.

Visitors present included B. O. Hatley, new Cisco High School principal; Sutton Crofts, Cisco; John Horn and son, Jimmy, of Abilene; Sgt. Brannon of the Eastland Army Recruiting Office; J. Dunham Jones, Oak Cliff; W. W. Fewell, L. E. Spillers, Woody Frazer, and Bill Sledge, Cisco Junior High School coach.

LOBOES TO HIT FIELD MONDAY FOR FIRST DAY OF FALL FOOTBALL DRILLS

Local Business Firm Receives Reply To Letter Written Ten Years Ago

In this age of "miracles," surprises are no longer rare, but when Charles S. Sandler, owner and manager of the Cisco Lumber and Supply Company, received a reply recently to a business letter he had written ten years ago, his surprise was one for the books.

Here is the way the story, or surprise, came about, according to the Cisco businessman.

On November 3, 1939, Sandler answered a letter, dated two days earlier, inquiring about a box type safe and also a "ball-in-head" screw door safe.

Since he felt reasonably sure the two firms could come to an agreement over the deal, he enclosed with the letter a description of the safe along with its dimensions.

The screw door safe, an old model he had purchased from the Cisco Post Office years earlier, weighs approximately 2,500 pounds, and is made of steel. About 50 inches in height, it has two combinations — one on the ball-in-head and the other inside on a special lock.

"It is really an antique," Sandler grinned. "But I didn't have any use for it, and if the Lubbeck firm was interested I was ready to talk trade," he recalled.

But the trade talk between Sandler and the Lubbeck firm ended with his letter. Since then this country has fought a war, felt the aftermath of world wide destruction and watched business bounce from top to bottom.

After Sandler did not hear from the Lubbeck firm within the ensuing weeks, it was presumed that the deal was not satisfactory, and the talk of trade was discarded. The safe, large and bulky, was returned to the warehouse, where it has stayed crated up since that time.

Then the other day Sandler opened a letter, wherein the writer, Som R. Pangburn, owner and manager of the Lubbeck firm, explained the situation.

Sandler's letter had been misplaced in some old files, where it had rested until re-discovery recently. In the letter to Sandler, the firm opened trade talk for the safe once again — after ten years of idleness.

The safe, as before, is being readied for shipment to Lubbeck.

TEXAS CROPS SHOW RAPID GROWTH UNDER FAVORABLE CONDITIONS

Soil moisture conditions were mostly favorable for crops, and prospects as a whole continued good. A number of Low Rolling Plains and Edwards Plateau counties, however, were needing rain, particularly for sorghums and pastures. Open weather favored harvest of sorghums, broomcorn and early peanuts in the southern part of the State. Watermelons and cantaloups were available in volume.

Conditions favored rapid development of cotton and the crop remained in good condition throughout most of the State. Ginning continued at a rapid rate in the Lower Valley and harvest was underway in south Texas areas. A heavy set of bolts was nearing maturity in central and north Texas, and half grown bolts were present in early fields in the High Plains. Boll worm infestations continued to cause concern in southern and southeastern counties and boll weevil populations were increasing in northern and eastern areas. But damage thus far has been comparatively light.

An unusually good corn crop was about matured and limited acreages of late corn were benefited by showers in north-central and northeast Texas. Active harvest will soon be underway in south Texas.

Ranges and pastures were supplying adequate feed in practically all parts of the State. The area from Laredo north through Edwards Plateau and Low Rolling Plains counties to Childress was becoming rather dry, but cured grass was plentiful in most of that territory. Cattle continued to make good gains. Sheep and lambs also made satisfactory progress, except for Forty prospective gridsters were expected to turn out for pre-season football training at Cisco High School Monday morning at which time suits and equipment will be issued, Coach Jack Everett announced this week.

Coach Everett, who assumed mentorship of the Lobo team last spring, said Wednesday he is planning to maintain a squad of forty athletes during the coming three month football season. This, of course, will include a B-team, for whom he is scheduling eight games this fall.

The distribution of equipment will get underway at 8 o'clock Monday morning. To date, only practice togs and jerseys, in the way of new equipment, have arrived, Everett said. However, according to the Lobo mentor, new supplies and equipment have been ordered and have yet to arrive.

Following the issuing of equipment, a chalk discussion will be carried on at 11 o'clock in the athletic room. Preliminaries to football and the forthcoming practice schedule for the squadmen will be introduced at the meeting.

At 2 p. m. the squadmen will get their first dose of field training. Twice daily practice will be carried on by the Lobos. The morning sessions will be devoted mostly to blackboard study and light workouts. In the afternoon, the football aspirants will don heavier equipment for more strenuous shaping up exercises, Everett said.

According to early calculations, the Lobos will boast a 160 pound line average and a 145 pound back average. However, Everett is hoping to recruit more prospects from the freshman and sophomore classes to help strengthen the line-ups.

Graduation last spring dealt the Lobos a hard blow, and Everett is now faced with the task of whipping up a completely new backfield setup. Gone from the backfield posts are Robert (Rudy) Rendall, who piloted the local team through last year's season; George Watts, Gene Milner, Durward Smith, Russell Johnson and Jim Cummings.

In the line, the Lobos will no longer have the service of Clarence Noble, whose eligibility ran out at the climax of last year's play. Rex Farley, Gene Rviee, Paul Woods and Joe Ed Bacon.

The pre-season training period will be held two weeks.

Warmer Weather

After enjoying several days of unusually cool weather for August, Texans can look for warmer weather for the next few days, according to reports from the United States Weather Department.

The cool weather for the first ten days of August was caused by a mass of cool air that came in from the Gulf area bringing with it moisture laden clouds.

Gentlemen:

This is my second year to feed Red Chain Vita-Range Nuggets, both on the range and in the fattening pens. As a range feed, the big advantage I find in Vita-Range Nuggets is in the big improvement in my calf crop. I find that on this feed my cows breed back quicker after calving and I can get a calf crop on an average of 60 days earlier than I used to get on cake feeding. Also, my calves are usually strong at birth and are on their feet in a few minutes after being dropped. I lost only one calf last season.

Very truly yours,
Roy Corbett
