Loboes Leave At Noon For Game With Grand Prairie

Following a rousing pep rally at the High School auditorium, the Cisco Loboes left at noon today for Grand Prairie where they will meet the high school team there at 8 o'clock tonight. The starting lineup remained about the same as in the Big Spring game with the exception of Harwell, who will be in at quarter while Johnson goes back to his regular halfback post.

Either Jackson, Pippen or Cowan will start at full and Watts or Evans will be in at the center position.

Moran Club Opens Its 26th Year

The Moran Baptist Church will dedicate its new electric organ at 4 p. m. Sunday and an invitation was extended to everyone in the area to attend the services which will be conducted by the local pastor and visiting ministers.

Included in the dedication program will be organ selections played by Jack Dean, professor of Organ at Hardin-Simmons University. Rev. Joe Allen, former pastor now living in Merkel will read the scripture and lead a prayer and a ladies quartet will sing a special number.

The Baldwin Organ was given to the church by Mrs. Oma Townsend of Moran and her sister, Mrs. Ima Higgins of Sweetwater in memory of their father, George W. Elliott who resided in the community for 26 years prior to his death in 1932. Mr. Townsend was born in Texas and chose to spend his entire life in the state—never once leaving its boundaries.

Mr. Townsend was always active in the affairs of the church and his community and will always be remembered for his work among the young people of Moran. The organ was given to the church as a monument to their father and will be dedicated in his memory.

Speaking on the Subject of Quality

... It is always an appreciative compliment when so many of our customers tell us they like our abstracts. They must for many of them have been doing business with us for more than a quarter of a century, and still are. There is no secret attached to this expression of confidence. A quality product produces confidence. And we are proud that we have both — the confidence of a host of customers and a quality product to sell them.

Majestic mountains and placid valleys! These catch the eye and stir the imagination... symbols of power and of fertility.

Rugged peaks and lush meadows however do not exist for themselves, or even for stirring our love of the beautiful. They serve the tiny lily which climbs from the dark earth up into the sunlight of God. Mountain and valley are servants of the purity and the loveliness of the flower. Out of the rock the Divine Gardener gathers rich minerals to be pulverized into life-sustaining soil; down the crevices and the canyons run the rivulets and the creeks which carry the moisture to quench the thirst of growing things; matted earth catches and protects the seed until it can feel the call of the warm sun for its growth up into light and unfolding glory.

The valleys of ancient Canaan were a riot of color in the springtime, shouting to the man with eyes to see that God was walking His earth and every path was checked with anemones and iris and tulip and cyclamen and daisies. Acres of color and of fragrance testified to the presence of the Lord of Life. The anemones or windflowers may well have been the 'lily of the valley,' dear to the heart of the Master; they carpeted the land in "brilliant reds or delicate pinks, purple, white, blue and cream." "Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

Look at the purity and the beauty of the lily; see the care and the love of the beautiful which mark our God; know too that the same good God is seeking by every ministry of grace to bring purity and loveliness to flowers in the human gardens of His love. Your life is of more value than is any 'lily of the valley' and your purity and gracious kindness of soul bring greater joy to His heart than does any flower of the field. You are to grow forever under the watch-care of the loving Creator. Will you keep your heart pure and your soul sensitive? Will you respond as naturally to the ministries of divine Love as the lily answers the call of sunshine and of shower? Then attend your church and support her good work.
