Student Interest Reported Good

Junior College reached 700 Wednesday and prospects for additinal students entering before the end of the year were good, a report released by President O. L. Stamey and Registrar Carlos Turner revealed.

The figure represents of approximately 275 over the figures at the same time last year. The number included both those attending day clases and night classes with the night school registering a total of 550 students. The day classes have 150 students which is a gain of some 26 students over last year. School officials reported that the interest among the student body, both in the day and night classes, was the best in the history of the school and that the quality of the student body was above the average. More student activities are planned for the year, under the direction of the faculty and the Student Council. Already plans are being made for Wrangler Day and Homecoming with the date to be anounced later. Plans were being discussed for an Invitational College Rodeo to be held in the Spring. Much interest was being shown in the newly organized College Choir, under the direction of Robert Clinton, head or the Fine Arts Department. The school newspaper, under the sponsorshir & Mrs. Irene M. is creating much freeest more stur total and

Local Students In University Dramatic Club

Two local students enrolled in the University of Texas this year were among the 104 new members selected to the Curtain Club of the school.

Jerre Westfall and Rob Robinson were selected to membership after tryouts last week. Westfall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Westfall of Cisco. Robinson is from Shreveport, La., but has made Cisco his home for some time. Both boys were students at Cisco Junior College last year.

The Curtain Club is a dramatic organization and members are selected from the entire student body. More than 50 per cent of the group are not students of the Fine Arts Department.

A reception for the new members was held at 2 p. m. Sunday in the International Room of the Texas Union and all old and new members were invited.

Some of the new members were interested in technical or stage crew work of the theater, it was reported.
