Loboes And Wranglers Play Away From Home This Week-end

MORAN NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martin returned from a trip to market in Fort Worth and Dallas to buy Christmas merchandise. In Dallas, they ran into heavy rains that closed most highways.

The Cowboy Cadiddlehopper show, sponsored by the high school Senior Class, has been postponed until Friday at 7:30 p. m. due to conflicts.

Mr. and Mrs. Laford Green and little son visited relatives in Corsicana over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. James Terry of Van visited in Moran this week with his father, Jim Terry, and friends in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Roberts and Mrs. Laura T. Wilde. The Terrys make this their annual visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Oma Wagley and family moved to town last Thursday where they purchased a residence from Lee Weir.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Burger of Cisco were pleasant visitors last week.

Moran had three and a half inches of rain and farmers were pleased as Moran has almost all wheat and grain farming. Hundred of acres had been sown but had not come up.

Mrs. D. A. Jones went to Houston last Friday where she is visiting her son, Archie Lee Jones and wife, for several days. Archie has been under treatment for burns he got in a pipe line explosion the third day of last December.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bates of Ranger visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wise last Saturday.

Laury Taylor, who is employed by the City Planning Board, spent Saturday and Sunday in Moran with home folks. College students who returned with Laury to Fort Worth were Winnie Howard, Letha Brooks, and Bobbie Padgett of Stephenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wise had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Carol Anderson of Abilene.

C. W. McCollum suffered a heart attack last Friday. Mrs. Bruce Willis of Strawn is in Moran to help care for her father, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Elliott left Tuesday for Dallas where Mrs. Elliott will stay with her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, while the two men drive to Nebraska for their annual pheasant hunt. While there Bertram will attend the Mousel Bros. Hereford sale. They expected to be gone a week.

Mrs. Ben Waters and Mrs. Ezra Weir were hostesses for the Moran Luncheon Club on Wednesday, Oct. 26, with a baked chicken as the dinner feature. Plans were made for a group of Moran leaders to attend the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Fort Worth Nov. 22 to present this city's water problems. Those planning to attend are: Mayor James Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Pool, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cady, L. L. Walker, Charles B. Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cottle, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Townsend.

Mrs. H. W. Gaston is in Lubbock attending a training conference.

Mrs. A. B. Barton of Mineral Wells visited Mr. and Mrs. Luke Huskey and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith last week.

Miss Betty Morris returned home Sunday after spending her vacation in Dallas. She visited relatives there and visited the State Fair.

Food Prices Rise During Past Week

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 — Sparked by advances in wheat, grains, cotton, livestock and food. The Associated Press index of 35 important wholesale commodity prices the past week climbed to 158.38 from 156.83 the week before.

The index whose base year 1926 equals 100 was at 180.89 at the end of the year ago week. The textile component reached a new 1949 high at 157 compared with 154.70 last weekend.

EVERYONE'S IN ON IT—Members of the rowing club in Twickenham, England, decided they needed a new boathouse and the cheapest way was to build it themselves. Here they load brick for transportation to the building site via a brick brigade.

The Cisco Junior College Wranglers play the Hardin-Simmons Freshmen in Abilene at 3 p. m. Friday and the Cisco High School Loboes play the Mountaineers in Mineral Wells at 8 p. m. the same day.

The Wranglers will be facing probably their toughest competition of the year in Abilene when they face the Junior Cowpokes. They have lost only one game this year and have beaten every team they have played in the Texas Junior College Conference.

Coach Stormy Davis will field a crippled squad Friday. It is doubtful that Doug Garner will get into the game due to an injury received in the Hillsboro game on October 13. Kinard is still favoring a sprained ankle received in a hunting accident several days ago.

The Wranglers have been working hard all week on brushing up their offense and in forming their defense for the HSU boys.

The Loboes will go to Mineral Wells Friday in fair physical condition but observers give them little chance of a win over the Mountaineers. James Waddel, who was kept out of most of the Stephenville game due to a wrist sprain, will be in at his regular guard post. Red Melton who was injured late in the Stephenville game will be able to play if needed in the Mineral Wells contest. He is a substitute guard.

Last week, the Mountaineers held strong Grand Prairie to an 18-0 score and looked particularly good on defense. It will be the first conference game to be played by Mineral Wells. The Mountaineers have not had a successful season but their weight and experience gave them the edge over the Loboes, however, the 1st team has a determination to win and can upset the doctores.

Round-Up Club Plans Membership Drive And Trail Ride, Barbecue

Members of the Roundup Club held a meeting at the city hall auditorium Tuesday night and discussed present and future activities. Several new members met with the group.

Among future plans discussed was a membership drive which is to start soon. The group desires a large membership among the horse lovers of the town and surrounding area.

It was decided to have a parade on November 11 in which all members will participate. The Cisco High School band has been invited to lead the parade and an invitation has been extended to the Hardin-Simmons Cowboy band. Horses, horse drawn vehicles, cars and floats will comprise the parade. The time will be announced later.

The group plans to organize a square dance team to include dances on horseback and regular dances.

A roping arena is planned and the specifications were presented to the group Tuesday night. The arena will be located just west of Cisco on the new section of Highway 80 and will be used for practice roping by members of the club and in holding matched roping contests.

The first get-together of the group has been planned for Sunday, November 6, when they will meet for a trail ride and a barbecue at Frank Harrell Lake west of Cisco.

All local people who are interested in sports and in horses were urged to become members of the club. Membership blanks can be secured from any member of the organization or at the offices of Roy C. Davis, in the Crawford Building. Ted Hale was named president at the first meeting.

Cotton Makes Bountiful Yield

If the cotton crop planted anything like the crops planted before the reduction in acreage, it would have been difficult to have gotten it ginned. The Baird gin had turned out more than 1,000 bales to Saturday night and much of the cotton that would have been ginned there, but on account of crowded conditions went to Abilene, Coleman and other places to be ginned. Some cotton in the Putnam area had to go as far as Leuders to be ginned as the gins at Putnam and Moran had sold part of their machinery and could not be operated.

RAINS STOP HARVEST OVER STATE; GRAINS AND RANGES SHOW GAINS

Harvest of mature crops made good progress, particularly in the north and northwest, but was largely stopped by state-wide weekend rains. Scattered showers and cloudy weather retarded field work and harvest in some local areas earlier in the week. The rains will lower quality of open cotton and delay harvest in all parts of the state, but will be beneficial to small grains, winter cover crops and pastures.

Wheat in eastern counties of the High Plains made good progress and the weekend rain will improve the crop in some western Panhandle counties where surface moisture was inadequate for best development. Small grains in Low Rolling Plains counties and in south central Texas will be materially improved by the weekend rains. Seeding operations progressed rapidly in north central counties. Peanut harvest continued and many fields were damaged by rains and damp weather. Pecan harvest became more general.

Cotton opened rapidly in the northwest and High Plains area and the white fields caused increase demands for transient labor. Despite a large unfilled demand for harvest hands, however, seed cotton rolled to the gin yards in sufficient volume to over tax ginning facilities. In the other, earlier maturing areas harvest will be completely largely with local labor.

Ranges and pastures continued supplying abundant feed in practically all parts of the state. General weekend rains added further to moisture reserves in all areas and assured good early growth of winter weeds, rescue grass, and clovers. Wheat pastures in the northwest were supplying an increasing amount of grazing. Some eastern Panhandle counties needed additional stock to utilize the rank growing wheat pasture. All classes of livestock were in good excellent condition. Replacement cows, heifers, ewes and ewe lambs were in demand.

Baylor Alumni To Pay Tribute To Grid Teams

Waco, Oct. 27—Baylor University alumni will return to their alma mater Friday and Saturday, Oct. 28-29, to honor a fighting football team and to pay tribute to three Baylor athletic teams of the 1920's who took Southwestern Conference championships.

Jack Dillard, secretary of the university's Ex-Student Association, said today that members of the 1922 and 1924 football teams and the 1923 baseball team—all conference champions—will be honored in a homecoming reunion.

The Homecoming celebration will center around the Baylor-T. C. U. football game Saturday in Waco's municipal stadium. A capacity crowd of 20 thousand is expected for the game—and many more would be on hand if there were seating facilities for them.

12 Bales Cotton Made on 15 Acres

One of the best yields of cotton in the Cross Plains Area is that gathered recently by Hubert Lee on the C. D. (Duke) Westerman place two miles east of town. Lee gathered 12 bales from a 15 acre field. "That is the finest cotton yield I've ever shared in during more than 40 years of raising the crop," Westerman told the Review.

The variety planted was Qualla and it was land which last year was planning to combine maize. No fertilizer had been placed on the land in several years. In addition the present cotton crop, Lee raised a bumper per peanut crop 30 acres planted to this crop returned $85 per acre.
