by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Delphian Club of Putnam met with Mrs. W. P. Brightwell on Nov. 3rd, at 3 p.m. with Mrs. M D Bell as co-hostess.

As the subject of the day was music and other arts, Miss Carpenter, art instructor at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, and well known throughout the state for her outstanding work as state Art League chairman, was invited to be guest speaker.

48 lb. HEAVIER CALVES TO SELL...than on cake

The big difference was proved by Purina in a ranch feeding test. 50 cows wintered on Purina Range Breeder Checkers weaned 48-lb. heavier calves than 50 cows fed on cake. Both groups were fed exactly the same amount. The 48 lb. difference in weight per calf meant about $9.50 extra income per head.

Here's why Purina Checkers do the job—correct protein percent (not too high)... more carbohydrates... more calcium and other minerals... more vitamin A. See us now for your winter feeding needs.

Open House Party By Mrs. F. P. Shackelford Sunday Held Honor Mrs. Mary Shackelford Thomason well Attended

Mrs. F. P. Shackelford's home was the scene of a gala affair Saturday evening, when the house party of eleven until 10 Sunday evening at which time Mrs. Shackelford again proved herself a most charming hostess. Artistic decorations of colorful leaves combined with berries blending with other decorations gave the whole house the elegance of the Autumn atmosphere. The dining room very artistically, blending into the rich colorful setting. The table cloth and napkins being of a deep hue, the table laden with crystal and silver candlebrams on either side of a beautiful silver octagon shape, flower receptacle filled with clipped Mums occupied the center, with the silver service over-laying the table for a buffet supper consisting of turkey with all the trimmings, golden brown pineapple decorated the baked ham, pickles, olives, mints, cake and coffee. After this sumptuous spread and evening of perfect enjoyment, that can only come from a lasting friendship, dating back before 1903. Such outstanding characteristics, so beautifully portrayed in the life of the honoree, Mrs. Mary Shackelford Thomason, visiting from Glendale, Calif. Songs by the group with solos and duets by Mrs. Mary Thomason and Mrs. E. Biggerstaff. "Echoed Days of Yore," were enjoyed by all when the hour came to say good night. The honoree, Mrs. Mary Shackelford Thomason was presented, with the true spirit of Texas, a beautiful bronze horse as a memento of the occasion.

The group of Auld Lang Syne were: Mrs. F. P. Shackelford, Mrs. Mary Shackelford Thomason, Mrs. W. H. Baxley (Maurine Orr), Mrs. Claude Cunningham (Hazel Orr), Mrs. Joseph Booth (Jamie Hale), Mrs. W. I. Browning (Bonnie Wacker), Mrs. Lena Kelley (Lena Clay), Mrs. Geo. E. Biggerstaff (Marie Hatton), Mrs. Pete King (Carrie McCool), Miss Ruth

Mobley and Miss Betty Mobley. This, only being a prelude to the open house, held Sunday from 2 to 10 O'clock, during which time 125 called. The dining table center was changed to an Italian cut work and lace cloth, still enhanced by beautiful silver appointments. A silver service, presided over by Mrs. Fred Heyser, Mrs. I. G. CUSTOMER'S CORNER

Why will food prices go up if the anti-trust lawyers win their suit to put A&P out of business? Here is just one of a number of reasons:

We manufacture many of the quality foods we sell in our stores, such as Baker, Red Circle and Eight O'Clock coffees, Ann Page foods, White House milk, and many others.

Because this saves us money we are able to pass along these savings to our customers in the form of lower prices.

The anti-trust lawyers have asked the court to order us to get rid of our manufacturing facilities, which would put an end to all these savings.

Make no mistake about it. If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in putting A&P out of business you will find your food bill higher.

  - 2 teaspoons powdered sage
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1 teaspoon celery salt
  - 1-2 teaspoon pepper
  - 1 cup melted butter
  - 1-2 cup boiling water
