have performed an outstanding service in club and community events. This distinction went to Harry Schneider, 18, of Sequin, and Betty Blackerby, 17, of White-wright. Harry has served his club for four years as president and as junior leader of swine, beef, dairy and crop projects. Members exhibit at Houston and Dallas fairs and he helps younger members groom their animals. He also trains them in judging. He has given 99 talks on 4-H, 15 of them on the radio. In 1948 Harry was a national winner in the meat animal contest, being awarded a scholarship and trip to the National 4-H Club Congress. Betty as 1948 State canning champion, attended the National 4-H Club Congress, but she also won hon-ors on her record books and has served her club as junior leader in clothing and food, and the county 4-H council as president for three years. She is an experi-

. . if the buyer fails to get an abstract when he buys real estate. What will happen when he gets ready to sell or get a loan? Chances are he will be stuck for the price of an abstract and if the title proves to be faulty, an additional expense for legal services. It is customary for the seller to furnish the abstract and convey a merchantable title. It is the buyer's hard luck if he don't get both, with-
