From the twelfth century children have been learning to repeat this prayer of faith. Back of that are the other centuries when families quoted the 121st Psalm from which it was doubtless taken...

"Your Guardian will not slumber, He will neither slumber nor sleep."

Precious lad with the dimpled cheeks, knowing so little what the world holds of joy and of sorrow, of foes and of friends, of sickness and of health, of defeat and of triumph. Perhaps he has mother and father now and every care for his happiness. Who knows what tomorrow holds for him? You and I may not be near to counsel and to encourage. What then?

 \mathbf{W} ise and thoughtful for all the years ahead were the parents who early introduced the lad to his eternal Friend and helped him to be at home in the Father's universe. Some day every boy and girl will have to stand alone; will there be strength from hidden springs, a sense of sustaining Power? Some day every woman and every man must make a choice between the high way and the low; will there be light that shines on the good path the soul

Every child born into God's world has a right to know that God is Creator and Sovereign, that His will finally must prevail. Every girl and every boy has a right to be sure that the universe is friendly and that its basic principle is Love. Every living person has a right to trust and to faith and to hope. Every human being has a right to know that he is made in the image of God and eligible to a place in the divine Family. We are both animal and divine spirit; God breathed His own Spirit into man and he became a living Spirit, like unto God. Every child has a right to live reverently as in the continuing and blessed fellowship with the Highest; he has a right to the adult helpfulness that puts his feet in the Way of Life. Teach him to say, "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. It I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."
