

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

WE'RE ALWAYS a little bashful about reporting on the success of Press want-ads. But when a want-ad sells 60 bantam chickens, we believe it's news. The other day, Mr. Millard Slaughter, who does business as Reliable Produce Company, called in an order for about 60 bantams he had for his paper boys started out at 4 p. m. By 4:15 the phone started ringing. And by next day, he'd had out Mr. S. figured he'd made a good investment. Our column gets results, sometimes. We reported the other day about Mr. Anton White wanting to give away two fine dogs. He tells us he could have given away 50 by 9 p. m. the same night.

AND NOW WELL try to help Mr. Carl Lamb. He has a set of keys for a Chrysler-make car. A set of three keys with a First National Bank holder (with one then at Lemore Pharmacy. The drug store gave them to Mr. Lamb, who is now seeking the owner.

THE BOYS over at the American Legion will have something to celebrate one of these days. They only need $55.50 to finish paying for their Legion Hall. They'll probably have a grand party when it's all paid for. If anybody wants to make a contribution to help pay off their debt well be glad to send it along.

WE'D SAY THAT Mr. M. M. Cowley, boss of Lone Star's gas plant at Pueblo, is qualified to conduct initiation ceremonies for new members of the Lions Club. Through a mixup of some sort, he was initiated for the second time yesterday.

TODAY'S A birthday out at the James P. McCracken house. Their young son is celebrating. And his No. 1 gift is a blonde Cocker Spaniel. Understand it's from Mexico and speaks Spanish.

MORE HONORS have come for Mr. Dick West, son of the C. H. Wests of Cisco. Dick, who is an editorial writer for the Dallas News, recently was cited for an award by the Associated Press Managing Editors Association of Texas for writing the best editorial during the past year. His editorial on little Kathy Fiscus, the tiny girl who died in a west coast abandoned well, was adjudged the best.

THIS SECTION of the county may well be proud of the choral club that Mr. Robert Clinton is working with at Cisco Junior College. The large group makes splendid music. Understand Mr. Clinton plans to tour this section soon to sing for all the high schools.

The club was applauded by members of the Lions Club at their luncheon this week.

Ranger Jaycees Ready For Show

H. S. Dudley Jr., who is general manager of the Jaycees Tri-County Livestock Show to be held in Ranger March 17 and 18, stated today a large number of entries have already been received for the show. Stress is placed on entries from FFA and 4-H club boys, though adult entries are accepted but do not compete in the cash prize classes.

Dudley stated that competition is expected to be keen in all classes, particularly in the dairy cattle division. He said that about 20 entries have already been received in the dairy heifer class and large numbers of entries have already been filed for beef cattle, swine and sheep divisions. The show is held annually at the Jaycees Rodeo grounds with headquarters in the show barn especially constructed for the show. The object in the show has been to encourage FFA and 4-H club boys in their work with the view to improving livestock in the area.

Eastland, Stephens and Palo Pinto Counties participate in the show.

CISCO GIRL IS NAMED DISTRICT FFA SWEETHEART; FRY HONORED

Virginia Weiser, Cisco High School Senior, was elected district FFA sweetheart at a banquet in Breckenridge Wednesday night. Miss Weiser is sweetheart of the local FFA chapter.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weiser of Humbletown, and was elected Queen Lobo XVIII and crowned at the ceremonies in the Community Gym on March 3. Virginia is president of the band council, and has been a member of the Lobo Band for four years.

The meeting was attended by some 150 FFA boys of this district which is composed of Eastland, Shackelford, and Stephens counties.

M. E. Fry, local livestock breeder, was awarded an honorary Lone Star Farmer degree at the meeting. The award was given because of his work with club boys in the county. His backing of livestock shows and his giving of Duroc Jersey gilts to FFA and 4-H Club boys was praised.

Dr. E. R. Alexander, head of the agricultural education department at Texas A&M College, was principal speaker. He stressed the need for leadership among the farmers as the prime need at the present time.

Doyle Whitaker of Throckmorton, state FFA vice president, talked on the work of FFA organizations in Texas.

Frank Robinson of Ranger, district president, was in charge of the meeting.

Curtis of Perryton, Alfred Curtis and Arvel Curtis of Odessa, and Ernest Curtis of Hobbs, N. Mex. The foster daughter is Mrs. A. B. McCoy of Ada, Okla.

College Choir Sings For Lions Club At Meeting

The Cisco Junior College choral club, directed by Robert Clinton, provided the entertainment feature for the program at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Lions Club at noon Wednesday at the Victor Hotel Coffee Shop.

The choir sang several numbers that demonstrated their ability to handle music after only a few months of training. A trio composed of Bety Thurman, Elova Moad, and Martha Whitaker sang "Wagon Wheels," and a quartet composed of Bill Jeter, Stanley Sharpe, Curtis Rosenbaum, and Gerald Salter sang "Old McDonald Had a Farm." Betty Brogdon accompanied the choir at the piano.

It was announced that annual Lions Ladies Night will be held at the Cisco Country Club on Thursday night, March 23. The chairmen for arrangements were appointed as follows: tickets, E. G. Damron, menu, Ralph Glenn, property, Charles S. Sandler, and decorations, Jack Anderson and Mrs. Warren Waters.

Warren Waters is general chairman of the banquet committee.

Three Lion Cubs became members in initiation ceremonies directed by E. L. Jackson. The new Lions are Elmer Frede, Paul Yardley, and Chester Parham. P. O. Hatley was introduced as a new member.

W. E. Hollis of Midland was a guest.

School Lunch Rooms Serve Over 22,300 Meals During January and February

More than 22,300 hot meals were served to the students of West Ward, Junior High and High School during the months of January and February, according to a report released by Mrs. J. L. Phippen, lunch room supervisor, Thursday.

Of that number, some 1,852 were served free to children unable to pay for the meals.

More than half of the meals were served to grade school students, the report revealed. The lunch room in West Ward prepared and served 11,736 lunches to students enrolled there.

The program showed a net profit of $486.41 for the two months period and the money will be used during the summer months in improving the facilities. In addition to this amount shown as profit, the supervisors have purchased new refrigerating equipment and a potato peeler so far this year. All the money derived from the program must go back into the purchase of food, equipment, and lunch room improvements.

Mrs. Phippen stated that it was the aim of the school and lunch room officials to continue improving the facilities and said it could be done with the continued cooperation of the students and their parents.

Improvement plans call for the repainting of the West Ward room and installation of a new disposal unit. Also planned are minor changes in the lighting and seating arrangements. It is also planned to refinish the Junior High School lunchroom and to make minor changes there also.

Radio Fills All The Days And Nights For Telephone Man-College Teacher

By H. V. O'Brien, Jr.

Radio is a pretty important subject out at William D. (Bill) Scarlett's home.

Bill is a radio telephone man for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. here. His evenings are occupied at Cisco Junior College, where he teaches radio in the Veterans' Night School. And Bill's hobby is — you guessed it — ham radio.

For nearly 15 years now, Bill has been a licensed radio telephone operator. His job with the telephone company is in the comparatively new field of telephones for automobiles. The auto phones are really radio telephones geared in such a way that they connect with the telephone lines.

HUNGER STRIKE—Clifford Pope, curator of amphibians and reptiles at the Chicago Museum of Natural History, tries to coax this 11-foot Indian python into eating. The snake lives at Pope's home in Winnetka, Ill., a Chicago suburb, but it'll soon lose its home and its job at the museum if it persists in refusing to eat.

Night School Will Enter Eastland Cage Tournament

Four games will be played on Thursday and Friday nights with the championship and consolation tilts Saturday night.

Schedule for the opening night, with the first game to begin at 6 o'clock, follows: Moran vs Cisco, Lamb vs Morton Valley, Ranger vs Desdemona, and King Ford vs Willy-Willys.

Prizes will be awarded the winners as follows: first, $55, second, $50, and consolation, $25. Admission will be 25c for adults and 15c to children.

The Abilene District Convention of Church of the Nazarene ministers, held in Cisco Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, was termed a success from every standpoint by church leaders, Rev. Cecil H. Stowe, local pastor, reported today.

Highlight of the convention was addresses by Dr. D. I. Venderpool, general superintendent. He delivered five sermons and addresses during the meeting, directing his messages largely to the visiting ministers.

Procedure Given For POW Claims

AUSTIN, March 9 — Proper procedure for filing Prisoner of War Compensation claims, recently outlined by the War Claims Commission, Washington, D. C., is expected to increase the number of applicants, Col. Oscar B. Abbott, Chief of the Texas Military District, announced here today.

While thousands already have made their claims, it is felt that many more are entitled to compensation. Military personnel may seek compensation at the rate of $1 a day for each day confined as Prisoners of War during which time the enemy government failed to furnish the quantity and quality of food required under terms of the Geneva Convention.

Applications from living members of the Armed Forces will be executed on Form WCC-601. Applications from dependents of deceased Prisoners of War must be accomplished on Form WCC-650. Both types of application are available by writing the Office of the War Claims Commission, Washington, D. C.

Clean Up To Aid Fight Against Fever, Cox Says

AUSTIN, March 9 — Dr. G. W. Cox, state health officer, says that the season of the year when typhoid fever is most prevalent will soon be here and urges every one to clean up their premises to eliminate flies and other insects. A town is only as clean as the individual citizens, and public health should be every one's concern.

The typhoid germ travels from an infected person to the well person; this is generally accomplished by water, milk, flies, fingers, or food. Every case is contracted by way of the mouth and digestive system.

A carrier is a person who has had typhoid fever at some time and who even after recovery carries the germs of the disease in the urine and discharge of the bowels. Carriers who are careless in their personal habits are likely to infect any food they handle with unwashed hands.

Some of the most serious and far-reaching outbreaks of the disease have been caused by drinking milk or eating foods that have been handled by carriers. Persons may be carriers without knowing it.

Typhoid fever is unnecessary and preventable. Every case is due either to community negligence or to the carelessness of some individual. Persons planning a vacation or trip where sanitation may not be rigidly enforced should protect themselves against this disease by being immunized. Its prevention is accomplished by the enforcement of public health measures to protect food, milk, and water supplies, and by immunization. The purity of the water, milk, or food can not be judged by looking at it. So the best thing to do is to play safe and have your physician protect you by immunization.

The group includes six lettermen from last year's team. Workouts will be held daily from 3 to 5 p. m. at the Chesley Field stadium. An inter-squad game has been scheduled for Friday afternoon.

The spring training season will end on March 31 — Ranch Day at CJC — with the usual inter-squad game.

Texas Farmers Begin Work For Spring Planting

Land preparation for spring planting again made fair progress over much of the state during the past week, but additional rains stopped field work in south central and southeastern counties. Northwest Texas continued dry except for some scattered showers along the cap rock.

Wheat prospects in the high plains continued to deteriorate with reports of some August and September seedings dying. Green bug infestation was reported at a number of points over a wide area from central Texas northward to the Red River and westward to the eastern fringe counties of the high plains. However, in most of the area, both wheat and oats were making fair to excellent development.

Corn planting was just starting in north central counties and was in full swing in coastal regions until the rains late in the week again stopped field work. Flax in southern counties continued in full bloom with a good crop in prospect over practically the entire flax area. Planting of grain sorghums in the Coastal Bend commercial area was under way.

New green feed continued abundant over the eastern two thirds of the state. Light week end rains in extreme southern counties will temporarily relieve dry ranges in that area and will start much needed new feed. The high plains and Trans - Pecos continued dry. The cold rains over the Plateau were hard on freshly shorn goats and caused some loss of kids. Ewes and lambs continued in very good condition. Demand for stocker cows and calves was very strong.

MUCH OF NATION'S PETROLEUM RESERVES NOT YET UNCOVERED

DALLAS, March 8 — The North American Continent contains many billions of barrels of oil and trillions of cubic feet of gas in reserves that are not yet proved, Frederic H. Lahee, geological and research counselor, Sun Oil Co., said today.

Failure to recognize this fact and the related fact "that the estimated proved reserves of these hydrocarbons are always only a part of the supply" causes widespread misunderstanding of the ultimate supply of reserves, he said.

Mr. Lahee spoke Thursday morning at the general session of the three-day meeting at the Adelphi Hotel, Dallas, of the American Petroleum Institute's Division of Production. The subject of his paper prepared for delivery at the general session was "Our Oil and Gas Reserves: Their Meaning and Limitations."

Mr. Lahee criticized the common practice of using the term "reserves" without defining which of the numerous scopes and meanings of the term is intended. He added: "The habit of dividing the year-end reserves by the production of that year to obtain an idea of the number of years of remaining supply is fallacious and leads to erroneous conclusions."

To demonstrate "the absurdity of using this quotient as an index of the remaining life of our total reserves or even of our proved reserves," he cited an increase in estimated proved reserves from 5 billion barrels in 1921 to 23 billion barrels in 1934, despite actual oil production during that period of over 17 billion barrels.

He urged that persons using figures or estimates of oil and gas reserves "should somehow be educated to understand:

1. That the reported proved

MERE MERMAIDS—Here are three mermaids, chosen in Miami, Fla., to help make the Annual Bay Regatta races a success. Instead of calling them queens or princesses, the officials are dubbing them mermaids, just to be consistent with the nature of the event. And no mere man could ever resist such charms.

reserves, as of any specific date, will require a great many more years for their extraction from the ground than the reserves-over-production quotient; and

2. That, at any given date, for a great many years to come, in addition to the proved reserves of that date there will be large quantities of possible reserves, some discovered and some to be discovered; and also large quantities of hypothetical reserves, many of which possible and hypothetical reserves will subsequently become proved reserves."

Mr. Lahee, who is chairman of the American Petroleum Institute's Committee on Reserves, pointed out that part of the oil recorded annually by the API as "proved reserves discovered during the year in new fields and in new pools in old fields" is attributable to the fields discovered in previous years.

He explained: "In any given year the true relation of proved reserves in newly discovered fields to the new proved reserves added to old fields would be expressed by dividing the new proved reserves added through extensions and revisions, plus proved reserves in new pools in old fields, by the proved reserves in the newly discovered fields of that year."

Mr. Lahee suggested the following five-point program for those who make public references to reserves of oil or gas:

- 1. Define terms as you use them. 2. Be sure the readers or listeners know how the terms are being used. 3. Don't be fooled by that quotient of the year end proved reserves divided by the year's production. 4. Be sure that if you make comparisons, you compare analogous figures. 5. Be sure that you know the scope and meaning of the figures which you quote.

Methodist WSCS Meets Today At Church In Business Meeting

The Women's Society of Christ and the Church met Tuesday afternoon at the church for the monthly business meeting. Group singing of the hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" opened the meeting, and was followed by sentence prayers. The hymn, "Sweet Hour of Prayer" preceded the devotion brought by Mrs. B. J. Osborn at which she discussed the Lord's Prayer.

The meeting was then turned to Mrs. John Shertzer, Society president, who conducted the business session. Mrs. Ed Aycock read minutes of the last meeting which were approved; and also gave the treasurer's report. All secretaries made reports and the Circle reports were read by Mrs. J. T. Fields, Mrs. Lomax, and Mrs. A. R. Westfall. Meetings for next week were announced as follows: Circle One will meet in the home of Mrs. C. A. Shockey; Circle Two will meet at the church with Mrs. O. C. Lomax and Mrs. F. J. Harrelson as co-hostesses; Circle Three with Mrs. Claude P. Jones as hostess at her home.

Mrs. Shertzer announced the district meeting at Ranger to be

4-H Forestry Champions Know Woodlot Potentialities

One of 1949's state 4-H Club forestry champions and a local club advisor examine young pines that started him out on a forestry career. Four-H forestry lessons will later pay dividends in regular cash crops harvested on well-managed farm woodlots.

As an incentive to local farm boys and girls to turn their woodlots and small timber tracts into money-making properties, four college scholarships of $300 each are being offered again this year in the 4-H Club forestry project. All 4-H Club members, working under Extension Service supervision and enrolled during the current year in a 4-H Club forestry project, are eligible to compete for national awards.

As in previous years, top awards will be made on a sectional basis to the boy or girl having the best forestry record in each of the four Extension Service sections of the Nation. In addition to the scholarships, national winners will be given all-expense-paid trips to the 29th National 4-H Club Congress to be held in Chicago, November 26-30 inclusive. Medals will be awarded to each state winner.

This is the third consecutive year American Forest Products Industries, a national non-profit association of wood-dependent industries, has sponsored the 4-H Club forestry project. In the past two years' competition, eight of the college scholarships and free trips have been won by farm youths from the states of Arkansas, Georgia, Idaho, Montana, New York and Wisconsin, the latter two states having had national winners both years.

"It is most gratifying to see the upsurge of interest in forestry that is being shown by 4-H Club members everywhere," declared Charles A. Gillett, managing director of American Forest Products Industries, in announcing the association's continuing sponsorship of the scholarship awards for 1950. "These young people are learning the basic fundamentals of sound timber management and how to apply them to the farm woodlots of America. Certainly this assures an even greater progress in private forest management in the next half century and an ever increasing wood supply for this Nation and the world."

The local county extension agent will supply detailed information about the 4-H forestry project and the 1950 awards awaiting those boys and girls who excel in forestry.

held March 15 and urged all members to attend. Mrs. S. H. Nance and Mrs. Carrel Smith were elected as delegates to the meeting and Mrs. J. T. Anderson and Mrs. J. T. Fields as alternates. The Society voted that a special prayer will be held each morning by members in their homes during the Lenten season. Mrs. J. W. Slaughter, district treasurer, made report of money which has been sent in to her. Announcement was made of the chest x-ray program to be held here March 31, April 1, 4, and 5.

The meeting was adjourned in prayer by Mrs. Philip Pettit. Those present were: Mmes. J. Shertzer, C. P. Jones, Ed Aycock, Bill Joyner, G. P. Rainbolt, C. A. Shockey, and guest, Mrs. Nichols; S. H. Nance, B. J. Osborn, O. C. Lomax, A. R. Westfall, W. W. Moore, Zed Kilborn, J. W. Slaughter, J. T. Fields, G. P. Mitcham, J. T. Anderson, Joe Lovelady, C. M. Pogue, W. L. Boyd, Philip Pettit, T. J. Dean, and Carrel Smith.

Mrs. Cole Hostess To Morning Circle

Mrs. C. P. Cole was hostess to the Morning Circle of the First Baptist Church which met Tuesday at 9:30 in her home on W. 13th Street. Mrs. E. H. Cheves presided and opened the meeting with prayer, after which the hostess brought an interesting devotion from the third chapter of the Book of John.

A short business session was conducted by Mrs. Cheves where the assignment "to buy a needed article for the church kitchen" was discussed; and an announcement was made that members are expected to bring clothing and other gifts to the church Friday which will be shipped to needy people overseas.

The meeting was then turned to Mrs. Otis Strickland, who brought the chapter from the mission book, "The Prophet of Little Cane Creek," by Harold E. Dye.

After the meeting refreshments of coffee and cookies were passed to Mesdames M. M. Tabor, Otis Strickland, J. T. Richardson, Jr., E. H. Cheves, Ralph Rider, W. L. Hussey, M. P. Farnsworth, W. C. Clements, V. F. Earls, and the hostess, Mrs. Cole.

Mrs. C. C. Greenhaw Is Group Hostess Tuesday Evening

Fascinating Fashions By July Seaton

Although the short "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" coiffure seems to have a strong hold on fashionable femininity these days, there have been murmurs lately that long hair may be coming back. Both lengths have their advantages; certainly the smart short bob suits the piquant new "flapper" fashions so reminiscent of the fabulous Twenties. Practical considerations, too, make it popular — it's about the easiest hair style to take care of that's come along in ages.

Naturally curly hair, like that of Mary Jane Higby, is particularly suited to this style. Mary Jane, who stars in the NBC daytime drama, "When A Girl Marries," has her hair trimmed in a soft feather bob, and keeps it always impeccably groomed. "A light, fragrant pomade to brush over short locks is a real boon to the brief bob and all that's needed to keep it in place," Mary Jane says.

On the opposite side of the fence is Rosemary Rice, blonde young actress currently featured in the CBS-TV drama, "Mama." Rosemary feels there's nothing so flattering as gleaming shoulder-length hair. Her role in the turn-of-the-century video show requires the coiffure of a young girl of that period — and points up her second reason for liking long hair. "It's often more practical for an actress," Rosemary declares, "as it lends itself to a variety of styles."

Waters after which Mrs. J. S. Mobley brought the devotion discussing "How I Can Work Out a Faith to Live By" with scripture basis from the Book of Proverbs. Miss Olga Fay Ford gave the missionary lesson telling of "Christian Faith in Modern Japan."

During the business session at which the hostess presided, minutes of the last meeting were read and were approved; and mention was made of observing "One Hour of Sharing" on next Sunday in the churches of America. A freewill offering was taken after which the meeting was closed by all joining in the missionary benediction.

During the social hour a lovely salad plate with a cup of hot coffee or tea was passed to Mesdames Callie W. McAfee, Fleming Waters, D. E. Waters, J. F. Alsop, Maurice Swisher, Fred Steffey, Joe Tullos, J. S. Mobley, Miss Esther Hale, Miss Olga Fay Ford, Miss Ethel Mae Wilson, and the hostess, Mrs. Greenhaw.

Callahan School Census Is Slated

The annual scholastic census enumeration will be made in the county during the month of March according to an announcement by County Supt. B. C. Chrisman.

Children born before Sept. 1, 1932, or after Sept. 1, 1944, will not be included in the count. All information should be fully given on the family census form. It is important, said Chrisman, that the residence of the parents as of last April 1 be shown.

Children residing in one district and attending school in another, will be counted in the district of their residence.

All children who will be 6 before Sept. 1 of this year should be enumerated.

All scholastics shown by the census will draw a state apportionment of $50 per student.
