

RECORD ENTRIES SEEN FOR STOCK SHOW

TWO PROGRAMS SLATED FOR NEW ARENA; 150 HORSES EXPECTED

Everything was in readiness today for the annual Eastland County Livestock Show to open Friday morning at the show grounds on the Moran Highway.

With cash prizes of approximately $2,000 to be paid in all phases of the show, a record number of entries was in prospect.

According to schedule, livestock judging will begin at 11 a. m. Friday. Palomino and quarter horse judging is scheduled for Saturday.

The Cisco Roundup Club's new horse show arena will be used for the first time Friday night at 7:30 o'clock with the presentation of a program under the direction of Pete Tyndall.

A feature of the program will be a matched roping contest between Joe Fambro of Breckenridge and Horace Carter of Thurber. They are two of the state's top ropers, and this will be their first meeting in matched competition.

Another feature will be a cutting horse contest that will be held under National association rules. Some of the top cutting horses of the state will work in this event.

The arena's second program is set for 1:30 p. m. Saturday under the direction of Roy C. Davis. Halter classes for Palominos, Quarter Horses and the first Appaloosa contest to be held in Texas will open the program.

Elmer Seybold of Mineral Wells will be the arena announcer for Friday night. Volney Hildreth, Jr., of Aledo, popular Texas Tech student, will emcee the Saturday afternoon program.

Livestock exhibits will be open for public inspection all day Friday and Saturday. Commercial and educational exhibits will be open in the huge tent throughout the show.

Complete announcements regarding the show appear elsewhere in today's Press. Another new feature this year will be gate awards. No admission charges are to be made for the stock show.

The two programs in the arena may be seen for 50c per performance.

Attend The Stock Show

(An Editorial)

Cisco is a proud host again this week-end for the annual Eastland County Livestock Show. And all Cisco is ready to do everything possible to assure the success of the event.

Each year, the show has shown marked progress. The facilities have kept pace with the growth of the show generally. This year's program sets a new high in premiums offered in all livestock and horse events.

In keeping with their ambitious plans for making the show bigger and better each year, President A. Z. Myrick and his helpers are offering something new — commercial and educational exhibits. These will be worth your while.

Another improvement is the newly built horse show arena, complete with rodee facilities and stands. Erected by the Cisco Roundup Club with wide cooperation from others, this is a definite asset to the entire show and to the community.

To the association officials, to the Roundup Club, and to others who have contributed generously of their time and resources to make the show possible, all Cisco can say sincerely, "Well Done."

Let's all attend the Eastland County Livestock Show Friday and Saturday.

Everything Ready For Stock Show Parade Scheduled For Saturday

Mart Agnew, parade marshal for the annual livestock show parade to be held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, announced that plans were complete for the event, which was expected to be the most colorful ever staged in Cisco.

Between 150 and 200 mounted horsemen were expected to participate and follow the Cisco Lobo Band, the official music makers for the show.

The parade is sponsored by the Cisco Roundup Club which is working with the Cisco Livestock Show Association in furnishing the side attractions for the annual Eastland County Livestock Show.

Parade Marshall Agnew urged all horsemen and women to be at the starting post at 14th and Avenue D at 1 p. m. dressed in western attire. The parade will travel down Avenue D and on to the show grounds north of the junior college.

Merchants and civic organizations were invited to enter decorated floats or automobiles in the parade.

Optometric Body Meets Sunday

Members of the West Central Texas Optometric Association met Sunday in the office of Dr. Grady Jolly of Abilene.

Dr. Woody Hambrick reviewed a book dealing with the technical aspect of Optometry. Dr. Grady Jolly delivered a paper on "Near Vision," and individual difficult cases were discussed by the group.

Attending the meeting were Drs. John Dressen, Grady and Marshall Jolly, John Chatham, Woody Hambrick, O. B. Stanley and Ward B. MacKeen, all of Abilene; Dr. Charles Cleveland of Cisco; Dr. Merle Ellis, Brownwood; Dr. Arthur Edwards of Haskell; and Drs. Oscar and Marvin Majors of Colorado City.

The guest included Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Stanley.

Explorer Troop Meeting Planned

The newly organized Explorers Scout Troop, under the direction of J. L. Matthews, local college teacher, will have a weiner roast next Thursday night at a secret council ring located east of town.

Plans will be discussed for the new organization's summer project at the meeting. One of the programs now under way is the presentation of Indian lore to be given before the scout troop.

The Explorers will join the Scout troop in constructing and operating an ice cream booth at the Eastland County Livestock Show Friday and Saturday.

Members from both troops will leave Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. to attend the annual meeting at Ringling Lake, near Eastland, through Saturday night.

CONDITION UNCHANGED

The condition of Howard W. Barron, 19, of Brownwood, who was injured in a truck crash south of Cisco early Monday, remained critical Thursday, hospital attendants reported. The condition of W. G. Breckenridge, of Fort Worth, who was injured in a car crash of March 9 was reported as unchanged.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Longacre of Abilene spent the past week end here in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pippen.

Statistical Data Obtained In Census Valuable To Business Leaders

For 10 years, since the last United States Census in 1940, the users of statistical information about the Nation's population and its characteristics has been using a tool growing duller with age as the decade passed along on its way into history.

In April, 1950, the Bureau of the Census will conduct the 17th Decennial Census of the United States. About 140,000 enumerators will list selected facts concerning some 150 million persons as they visit an estimated 45 million households, including more than six million farms.

For the next 10 years, the statistical information compiled in the 1950 Census will serve as a basis for the important decisions. The apportionment among the States of representation in Congress will be determined thereby.

Users of statistics know that they must be accurate and cover the subject thoroughly. It is incumbent upon every individual to do his part to attain such a goal.

Kittie Lou Pippen had as her guest the past weekend her cousin, Gay Longacre of Abilene, sister of Dudley Longacre.

Olin Pierce of Odessa transacted business here the first of the week.

Committees For Year Are Appointed For Cisco Chamber of Commerce

President C. W. Guinn of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce presented the names of additional committee members at a meeting of the board of directors at the Victor Hotel dining room at noon Tuesday. He had previously announced the names of some of the committee members.

The new committee appointments were: Industrial committee, Charles Spears, chairman; Austin Flint, J. B. Pratt, J. W. Sitton, and Anton White.

Highway committee — J. J. Callaway, chairman; Arch Birt, and E. P. Crawford. Agriculture committee — Dr. Charles M. Cleveland, chairman;

Burleson Urges Action Against Further Strikes

Congressman Omar Burleson urged Congress to take action that will prevent another crippling coal strike in a speech in the house of representatives this week.

"During the recent coal strike much resentment was expressed on the floor of the house," he said. "The wrath against the conduct of Mr. Lewis and his powerful full union was, in my opinion, well justified."

"Since the crisis has subsided, very little, if anything, is being said or done towards preventing a future occurrence of like nature. Mr. Lewis has gained the highest hourly wage rate for his miners than exists in any of the major industries. The auto workers are six down the line and the pressure is on Mr. Reuther to demand wage raises. Mr. Murry will soon be ready to start his campaign for increases for his CIO Steel workers. Then will come Mr. Green of the AF of L, who must catch up with the others."

"The pressure is on every union head to make his demand and so goes the merry-go-round. The union boss must maintain his position as leader and he can only do so by keeping up with the gains of his competitor. But is it really competition? This type of competition is not strange to the Country now, but the union which can tie up a complete segment of our economy, and thereby finally paralyze all business and industry related thereto, must be pretty much monopolistic."

"There are measures pending in the House and in the other Chamber which propose to apply the Anti-Trust Laws to the powerful unions which are capable of paralyzing this Nation, and I think it is time that consideration be given those proposals."

"The right of labor to organize and bargain collectively need not be denied or impaired, but when any group is able to impose its will upon free people, without self-discipline, and in a manner incompatible with the national welfare, then it becomes the duty of this Congress to protect the rights of those outside these special groups who may, in periods of emergency, be completely at their mercy."

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE PARKING METERS IN CISCO?

citizens, who will go to polls on April 4 to elect two council members and decide the proposition of parking meters, continued to give their views on the subject today. There are some more one-minute interviews:

W. Mancill, 309 West 5th — "I have been living in Cisco almost 69 years, and I am in favor of the parking meters, if they will never need them for parking posts, since they are kill-kill horses and selling the city for tender beefsteaks. I think the city will make enough of the meters to install the markers that we put up for some year ago."

Lucas, decorator — "The parking meters are a nuisance. I am able to vote because I live outside the city limits, but I don't like them. I'd like to see the city let everybody in the Cisco territory vote on the question."

M. L. Preston — "Speaking of parking meters, it seems like this city is a little small to copy after big cities and it also seems to me of the town's 'would-be class' expect the 'lower class' citizens to move their jalopies off the street so they can park anywhere or anytime they want. I can't see why some people can't come down out of the clouds. If they don't they might as well be flying a saucer."

Thaman Evans — "If we keep parking meters, what is Cisco going to do with them when the oil business plays out and the percentage of the people in Cisco? Oil has built up the city. Let's clean the city and of the city cleaning us."

N. Mahaney — "I am always in favor of the majority to rule. The majority says that the meters are slowing up business. Let's see if they are by voting them out and voted them in. Let's be decent and vote them out."

Earl Edwards — "I believe they are taken off the side streets, as has been mentioned before, they should come off Main Street."

Accomplishments of Cisco Chamber of Commerce Manager Cited by Paper

Cisco's Chamber of Commerce manager has a background that is sure to take leadership in any promotion. He is Benjamin Butler.

Butler taught school more than a decade, worked as newspaper reporter, editor, and publisher — but he is not disgusted with the man who has taken over the job of the late Rev. J. C. Butler.

And it was right down his back that "it's just the kind of work he is doing," he declared.

His philosophy for chamber of commerce endeavors should commend itself in any community: "A chamber of commerce should be where people work together. Real CC work is stimulating the membership to be active in their work. CC managers who can inspire leadership among the members and who are the kind who get the job done," Butler said.

Butler became manager in November, 1944, after a varied career in Mexico. Cisco's Amarillo, and Eastland during the five years he has been in the job. Cisco has taken a new lease on life and a bright future ahead to a determined business group.

New Industries Will Be Studied At Gas Meeting

GALVESTON, March 23 — Bringing new industries to the South and Southwest and the important responsibility the gas business has in this program of expanding economy will be a major topic at the 42nd annual convention of the Southern Gas Association opening here Monday. Sessions will continue through Wednesday, with 1,200 delegates expected from 13 states, according to R. R. Suttle of Dallas, SGA managing director.

"The natural gas industry is experiencing the greatest period of growth in its history," Suttle said. "This is largely due to three factors: the decentralization of industry which has brought new factories, plants, businesses and families to our territory. The increased demands that accompany the normal growth of cities, towns and communities where gas service has long been established. And the extension of gas service facilities to areas which formerly relied on other fuels."

"The gas industry has been able to meet this growth because reserves are increasing each year even in the face of these expanding consumer demands. This assured abundant and economical fuel supply is a great inducement for new industries to come to the South. They will have the all-out support of the natural gas industry."

At the convention SGA members, whose companies directly serve more than 3,500,000 customers, will hear a group of topflight speakers from the industry itself and from the outside tell how to promote new business.

Mrs. Hubert Burns and two small sons, Donald and Dicky, of Jackson, Miss., are here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Holder, and family. She is also visiting her brothers, Carlton and L. P. Holder, and their families, while here.

Sister of Mayor Rosenthal Dies Wednesday Night

She died suddenly at 8 p. m. Wednesday in Alexandria. Mayor Rosenthal went to Fort Worth and took a plane out of there at 4:30 a. m. Thursday.

Funeral services were to be held in Alexandria at 3 p. m. Thursday.

Friday And Saturday

It's Stock Show Time Again! And all Cisco is ready for another outstanding show — thanks to a lot of hard work by a lot of people. The show facilities are bigger and better, showing the progressive spirit of the Cisco Livestock Show Association and the Cisco Roundup Club.

New projects at the show grounds include a modern rodeo and horse show arena. This was built by the Cisco Roundup Club. Built largely with donated labor and with funds contributed by a good many people, the arena is definitely a credit to the community and to this section of Eastland County. It reflects much credit on the Roundup Club. The grounds generally have undergone improvements. Visitors can be sure that a well-rounded program awaits them — that Cisco has left nothing undone for a good time and a successful show. Let's show our appreciation for this fine, modern plant by attending in large and enthusiastic numbers.

Letters

Editor Press:
On March 7, 1950 you permitted me to think out loud through your columns on our American Economy. I wonder if you will allow me the same privilege on our American Christianity?

The churches calling themselves Christian in America have without exception gone back to the days of Moses. In the days of Moses there were three ways to commune with God — Moses communed with God face to face and then gave the message to the people, Aaron went into the Inner Chamber of Holy of Holies wearing a breastplate Urim and Thummim, and communed with God. He then came out and gave the message to the people. The people had to accept the message from one of these mediators.

After the crucifixion of Jesus, and just before His Ascension, he told his Disciples to tarry in Jerusalem till Power came upon them. At Pentecost the Holy Ghost was given, and thus a fourth means of communication with God was opened up. All duly confirmed church members received the Holy Ghost, PROVIDED, they had placed themselves in position to receive this invaluable gift. I here describe this fourth means of communication with God the way the Lord gave it to me — "There is a Chord of Reciprocal Innervation connecting the Sub-conscious with the Objective Mind that, when supported by a Will wholly subservient to the Will of God, The Eternal Father, and charged and surcharged with the Power of the Holy Ghost; May be used as a line of communication from God to man."

The churches of today have gone back to the days of Moses in form, but have neither the Urim and Thummim nor the Power to commune with God face to face. The people of today are expected to accept without question the interpretations put on the Scriptures by their Pastor, just because he has been trained in some Theological school of men.

Frequently these pastors cannot give a coherent definition of Life in Christ — The Spiritual Regeneration, the New Birth. Neither do they have a true concept of the Holy Ghost. Many of them have never experienced the New Birth themselves, hence, could be accurately described in the same class that Jesus placed the Scribes and Pharisees of his day — "Blind guides, leading the blind."

I talked with one who had preached for fourteen years, and asked him to tell me about his

New Birth, and he said, "I do not know what you are talking about. I have never received any New Birth." I asked him why he became a preacher and he told me that his parents had taught him from childhood that he must make a preacher, and they had educated him for the ministry, and he did it to please them. This man held a Th. D. Degree from one of our leading theological seminaries. And admitted to me that he did not know the Lord.

Also, for the last forty years the churches have thrown in with the commercial organizations, and have been "waltzing around Willie" to the tune of one world at a time and get all you can and can all you get for future material prosperity, until the whole world seems to be frozen into one philosophical block of the immediate now. Spiritual values have been consigned to the scrapheap.

In the last twenty years I have been excluded from two churches for refusing to accept nonsensical creeds that were diametrical to Bible teachings. Fifty years ago this condition did not exist in our churches. Individuals were allowed to be individuals. My Father was a Baptist Deacon all his married life, and I remember as a boy hearing him tell his contemporaries that he did not believe the Baptist doctrine of "once in grace, always in grace." He believed that the "impossibility" in Hebrews 6: 4-6 was not in the "falling away" but, in the "renewing again unto repentance." Hence, if a person should "fall away" it would be "impossible" to renew that one again unto repentance.

Did my father's contemporaries think of excluding him from the church for not believing this fallacy? Nay, verily. They said, "Bill, that is your individual privilege. You make an excellent deacon. You are helping to carry on the work of the Lord conscientiously, and we admire you for standing for your conviction."

Not so with me. My contemporaries wanted to stifle my conscience, and because I would not yield, they said, "we will turn you out of the church." What think ye, reader, which of these crowds exhibited the Spirit of Christ?

The creeds of Christianity, like our American economy, need a complete reconstruction. God has shown me that the Interpretations He has given ME will provide the neutral ground upon which all Christians can and will unite when they are willing to lay aside their church prejudices and listen with honest hearts and sane minds.

W. I. Gormley, O. D.
