

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

(Note: We've turned our column over to Mr. R. W. Mancill today for his annual story on the great cyclone that took more than a score of lives and wounded many in Cisco 57 years ago today.)

I PROMISED you recently that I would remind you on April 28, 1950, of the great cyclone that passed through Cisco on April 27, 1893. It was 57 years ago today that we had this terrible storm, and it was on Friday, too. We had some high winds last month, but nothing to compare with the wind we had 57 years ago.

On April 28, 1948, there were 100 people living in Cisco, or near it, that lived here at the time of the Cyclone. Since that time, 99 have died, and only one during the past year — Mrs. Ethel Lane.

THERE HAS been many changes since that windy night in this little town. Where wagon yards were located, today there are beautiful business houses. Since they are selling horse meat (in some cities) for good, juicy tender beefsteak, we don't need wagon yards — just slaughter pens. The cowboy hitching posts went out, but we replaced them with parking meters, so you see we have been progressing right along down the line.

In those days, we hardly ever got short of water, but one time we did. And a few preachers and a few of us natives got together at the old city hall and prayed for rain. We had not been there over one hour until we had a big rain, and we had a time getting home.

A big six-foot, slim boy said, "Oh it would have rained anyway." And do you know, from that day until now, I haven't been able to get those preachers and natives together to pray for rain.

SINCE THAT time all we have to do for rain is to threaten to have a free barbecue and invite everybody. Walter Agnew told me the other day that he lived out north of Cisco at the time of the Cyclone and came to town the next morning. He said he was just a little boy, but remembers very well how the town looked.

I am not promising that I will mention this Cyclone on April 28, 1951. If I should pass on, maybe B. W. Patterson will mention it as he was just a little boy, too, at that time; but I have told him many times about the things that happened that night.

I thank you.

Two high school Seniors entertained Rotarians with vocal and piano numbers Thursday at their weekly meeting in the Hotel Victor dining room.

Renabel Bible sang four numbers, accompanied by Miss Anita Carlin at the piano and at the conclusion of the vocal program Miss Cardin was asked to play piano number. She played a difficult number that she will present in the state contests soon.

The two girls appeared on the program at the invitation of John Spier. Visitors included Rotarian Felix L. Hargis of Fort Worth, Okla. visitors were Chapman Williamson of Oklahoma City, and C. L. Anderson of Colorado City.

Cross Plains May Get 30 New Homes

CROSS PLAINS, April 28 — Prospects were bright today that some 30 new houses will be built in a special addition to this city. The Key City Builders of Abilene purchased a 15-acre tract of land along the northwest edge of the city for the project.

Arrangements are being made to secure either FHA or GI loans for those who wish to build in the addition.

$150 Raised For Curtain Fund At CHS Book Review

Students of Cisco High School added some $150 to their fund for purchasing a new curtain and stage equipment for the high school auditorium when Miss Evelyn Oppenheimer of Sanger's, Dallas, was presented in a book review Thursday night.

The auditorium was almost full for the review of "Flames of Empire," a historical novel, by Miss Oppenheimer, one of the state's leading reviewers.

Miss Oppenheimer arrived by train at 11:45 a. m. and was met by a hospitality committee of students, including Misses Janet Ferguson, Mary McCrea, Joanna Chapman and Dorothy Butler. They escorted her to the Victor Hotel.

Twelve women teachers of the high school honored Miss Oppenheimer at a luncheon at the Savoy Cafe. Barbara Schaefer and Barbara McCauley were co-hostesses at a tea honoring the visitor at the Schaefer home from 4 to 5 p. m. Thursday. All girls of the high school and woman faculty members were invited. Mrs. Harry Schaefer and Mrs. Otis Kean with the hostesses formed the receiving line, presenting guests to Miss Oppenheimer.

Bill Mitcham, Jr., president of the Junior Class, introduced Miss Oppenheimer at the high school Thursday night. She was presented a corsage by Janet Ferguson. The review was well received by the large audience.

New Record For 4-H Poultry Is Expected In 1950

Based on the increasing population of the National 4-H Poultry Achievement program, 4-Hers should top their last year's record of raising a total of 8,000,000 chickens, turkeys, ducks and geese. Likewise the enrollment figure is expected to pass the 150,000 mark reached in 1949.

County Extension Agents and local 4-H Club leaders work with the youth, instructing them in newest methods and approved practices used in poultry and egg production. Members are encouraged to carry out the six main objectives of the program which briefly are: learn the place of poultry in the economy of the farm; acquire skill in poultry raising; assist in production of eggs and fowl to provide adequate supplies for food; appreciate the nutritive value of eggs; learn to grade and market poultry products; study scientific developments and apply the knowledge to home flock production.

The 4-Hers carefully keep records showing production of birds and eggs, and also general achievements in other phases of Club work. At the end of the year these records are judged for special honors which will again be provided by Dearborn Motors, program sponsor. Five sterling medals will be presented to winners in each county; a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago for the state winner; and college scholarships of $300 each to the 10 national champions.

The program is under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

6 Bucking Horses Are Purchased By Local Rodeo Club

Cisco Roundup Club officials Friday announced that the drawings were completed on the sponsorship of six bucking horses purchased recently for use in the club's activities at the new show arena.

The horses have been named for the business firms sponsoring them. They will bear the names of Savoy Cafe, Nick Miller, A-G Motor Co., Drumright's, Southwest Loan Co. and Hooker Jewelry. In addition to the sponsors, two firms have agreed to feed the horses. Lemore Pharmacy will feed Savoy Cafe and Thornton Feed Mill will feed Nick Miller.

The horses are the best buckers available and have thrown the best riders. They will be ready for the official opening of the club's rodeo arena on May 14. On the official opening day there will be a two hour show in the arena and a big barbecue at 5:30 p. m. The arena show will begin at 2:30 p. m. Events planned are calf roping, bronc riding, cutting horse exhibition, barrel and cloverleaf races, flag races, cigar races and many others.

All committees were working hard this week to have everything ready for the program. Advance ticket sales will begin next week.

Horse Racing Program Planned For Cisco Roundup Club Arena

A horse racing program at the Cisco Roundup Club arena for horsemen of this Central Texas section was in prospect today after the directors of the Cisco Livestock Show Association voted Thursday night to sponsor one racing program to see if the people of this area want it.

The racing program will be staged in about a month under the direction of Pete Tyndall, Eastland sportsman. Committees will be named to assist with the promotion.

Both matched and purse races will be on the program. Tyndall told the directors that he had conferred with horse owners throughout this section and that he could assure them plenty of horses for the racing event.

The directors agreed to the "test program" to determine the interest of this section in racing. Horse racing is held regularly in Big Spring, Brady, Eagle Pass and other cities of West Texas. Plans for enlarging the livestock show grounds were discussed but no definite decisions were reached.

THE POLICE STATE

One of the most interesting recent books on Russia is called "The Police State: What You Want to Know About the Soviet Union." Written by Craig Thompson, a former Moscow correspondent of Time and Life, and published by E. P. Dutton, it gives small comfort to those who believe that some kind of fair and workable agreement can now be achieved between Russia and this country.

cold war, we must have a strong and stable policy and the strength to back it up. The most reasoned criticism of President Truman's past and present foreign policy is that it has often consisted of big words which we could not possibly justify with deeds.

national liberty and security. Mr. Dewey berated both Republicans and Democrats who put politics above the public welfare. Perhaps the best sign of the times is that more and more men in high places recognize that the terrible seriousness of the situation demands resolute and unselfish action.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

For Sunday, April 30, 1950

General Lesson Title
Amos Teaches About Worship

The Scripture Passages
DEVIOTIONAL READING: Psalm 131:1-6.

THE LESSON TEXT: Amos 4: 5-9, 14-15, 21-24.

GOLDEN TEXT: Let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

Amos 5:24.

INTRODUCTION:

1. Last Sunday we studied how Amos rebuked Israel and Judah for social injustice.

2. When people are wrong with God in their hearts it is revealed in two ways:

(1) They are restless and are constantly trying to find something that will satisfy. Amos 8:11.

(2) They resort to ceremony in worship instead of seeking God with all their heart.

3. In this lesson we have evidence of how God on occasion may use the rebuke of irony to arouse the consciences of those to whom He speaks.

A. THE IRONY OF GOD CONCERNING WORSHIP. (Amos 4: 5-9)

1. God has appointed that the sacrifices be offered at the tabernacle or temple (Num. 28:3, 4)

II. Jereboam, the son of Nebat, established places of false worship. (I Kings 12:28, 29)

III. Amos was using light sarcasm trying to turn the people from sin to repentance.

WHEN ONE WORSHIPS AND HIS CONDUCT IS NOT CHANGED HE HAS WORSHIPPED AN IDOL AND NOT JEHOVAH GOD.

B. The Invitation of God To Worship Sincerely. (Amos 5:4-9)

1. God longs to see men turn from sin to Himself. How loathe He is to enter into judgment. (V. 4) "Seek and live." There is no living until God is sought and found.

II. God Is Not Found In Ceremony But By Faith In Him As a Person. (Vv. 5,6) "Seek the Lord."

III. Their sins had produced bitterness but God still pleads for them to repent. (Vv. 7-9)

IV. God uses censure as an invitation to men to repent. (5:21-24)

CONCLUSION:

I. Worship is an act of faith in the proper object.

II. The proper object of worship is Jesus Christ, the sinless Son of God.

III. When one worships Him by faith his conduct is changed from sin to righteousness.

The Churches Of Cisco Welcome You

Mr. and Mrs. Chirp are very busy these Spring mornings. It takes most of their time to keep their children well supplied with worms and other dainty morsels on which fledglings thrive.

And they must be careful to return shortly lest some enemy disturb the nest. Too often Mr. and Mrs. Chirp have had to defend their children from danger. But always they have fought with all their might, and through their love have saved the babies from calamity.

And so it is that every living thing dwells in danger. Man especially must guard against evils; for in him they threaten body, mind, and soul. He, like the fledglings, must depend on some power greater and stronger than himself—a guardian of love.

"GOD is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." To Him we must look for love and protection. To His Church we must come for salvation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
