WRANGLERS TRIM RISING STAR TEAM BY 4-0 SCORE TUESDAY

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

WAR OUTLOOK has changed in the past three days as much as we would desire. Another shooting war, another course for the United States to stand up and fight, or to permit Russia to take over Korea would be an opportunity to the Reds to take what they want.

Being firm in this instance, we considered opinion that the Reds will pull in their horns and back down gracefully.

Crosby then retired the next three men and that was the ball game. Although Crosby walked five men, they were scattered, and he was never in serious trouble. A goodly number of Cisco fans followed the Wranglers to Rising Star to witness the fine demonstration of clicking baseball. E. L. Jackson and W. M. Cotton umpired the game.

The Wranglers tangle with Ranger Thursday night at ABC Field in what promises to be one of the best games of the season. The starting time will be 8:15 p. m. It will be preceded by a contest involving First Baptist and some Ranger team.

Wrangler starting lineup against Rising Star was: D. Johnson, 2b; Cozart, 3b; Bailey, c; Tompkins, rf; "Chico" Burrows, ss; Turner, lb; R. Johnson, cf; Leverage, if; and Crosby, p.

Playing their usual fine brand of softball, the Cisco Junior College Wranglers took another step toward the top of the league Tuesday night by defeating Rising Star, 4-0, on Rising Star's home field.

Russell Johnson taled in the third after Cotton Maynard, Rising Star's crack pitcher, walked him. A wild throw from catcher to third scored Johnson. Crosby then hit a two-bagger and scored when Tompkins got on by the error route. In the first of the 6th Cozart doubled, stole third, and came home on Bailey's long fly to right field. Turner got another double in the seventh, stole third and scored on Leverage's triple.

Crosby then retired the next three men and that was the ball game. Although Crosby walked five men, they were scattered, and he was never in serious trouble. A goodly number of Cisco fans followed the Wranglers to Rising Star to witness the fine demonstration of clicking baseball. E. L. Jackson and W. M. Cotton umpired the game.

Preston Smith Is Cisco Visitor In Interest Of Race

Preston Smith of Lubbock, West Texas' only candidate for Lieut. Governor in the crowded field of 12 office seekers, was in Cisco Tuesday and visited business men and civic leaders in his campaign for election.

"I have developed what I believe to be a sound program, one which embraces the industrial and rural interests of Texas—agriculture, forestry, livestock and cotton, as well as relief of congested city areas through betterment of rural living conditions," Mr. Smith said.

"Briefly, my program includes the following points: Soil Conservation; Soil Analysis Service, combined with additional Seed Testing Laboratories; a livestock Feeding Program to enable farmers and ranchers to mix their home-grown feeds... fatten their own cattle and save out-of-state shipping charges; State Insect Control which will produce more cotton per acre; Forestry Reconstitution and Rebuilding; Rural Recreational and Cultural Program, plus Improved Rural Living Conditions."

Preston Smith was born on a Williamson County farm 38 years ago, the seventh child in a family of thirteen. He worked on the farm for his father in Williamson, Dawson and Gaines Counties, graduated from Lamesa High School and received his bachelor of Business Administration Degree in 1934 from Texas Technological College. In 1936 he entered the theater business and now owns and operates theaters in his home town. He is a Steward and Trustee in the Methodist Church, married and the father of two children. He has served the State as Representative of the 119th District since 1944.

State Job Exams Are Slated For Several Openings

Competitive examinations for positions with the Texas Employment Commission and the State Department of Public Welfare will be given on August 5, according to a statement issued by Chas. S. Gardiner, Director of the Merit System Council.

Examinations being offered are for the positions of Clerk-Typist, Stenographer, Field Worker, Interviewer, Auditor, and Tabulating Equipment Operator.

Gardiner stated that there is always a great need for Stenographers in every part of the state. The demand for Typists, Interviewers, Field Workers, and Auditors is limited primarily to the smaller cities and towns of the state. Tabulating Equipment Operators are located only in Austin, Texas.

Gardiner pointed out the favorable working conditions in the state departments under the Merit System. The advantages offered include good salaries, permanent employment, promotional possibilities based upon merit and liberal vacation, sick leave, and retirement benefits.

Qualifications for the positions vary from high school graduation to college graduation. Appropriate experience may be substituted for the required education in many cases.

Application blanks for these examinations are available at the local office of the Texas Employment Commission or the State Department of Public Welfare. Or you may write the Merit System Council, 1000 San Antonio Street, Austin, Texas. Applications must be postmarked before midnight, July 15.

Harvest of wheat in the northwest and grain sorghums in the south, as well as cultivation and other field work made good progress in Texas during the past week.

Rains and scattered showers in Panhandle and northern areas and a few eastern and southwestern counties caused only slight delays and were beneficial to most growing crops. Hot, windy weather was taking reserve moisture rapidly and most areas which missed last week's scattered rains were getting dry. Wheat harvest neared completion in the Low Rolling Plains, was about half out in central High Plains counties and scrapping of the limited acreage was getting started in the northern High Plains counties.

Corn continued to make good development and early fields were nearing maturity under favorable conditions. However, much of the corn was planted late and additional moisture will be needed soon to assure good yields. Sorghum harvest was under way in the lower Rio Grande Valley and Coastal Bend. Condition of the growing crop was generally good in all areas, but additional moisture would be beneficial in many localities.

Seeding of sorghums was mostly completed in the southern High Plains, but considerable acreage was still to be planted or replanted following the recent rains in the northern High Plains. Peanut planting was nearing completion in the northern counties, with some stands only fair. Planting of the fall crop acreage in southern Texas was well along. Conditions were favorable for rice to make good growth.

Ranges and pastures continued supplying generous quantities of green feed over most of the state. Additional showers in Panhandle counties will keep new feed coming along. Hot, windy weather was rapidly depleting the moisture and new growth was slowing down in some areas. Sudan grass was furnishing abundant temporary pasture on many farms. Marketing of spring lambs continued tapering off. All classes of livestock were doing well. Screw worm infestations which have been heavy in southern and central counties all spring have now spread over the entire state.

Golfers Invited To Enter First Eastland Tourney

Eastland sportsmen announced here today that their newly organized country club will go ahead as planned with the first annual golf tournament there this weekend.

Entrance fee is $2.50 and winners of all flights, consolations and runnerups will receive golf balls as prizes, it was reported.

The Eastland golf course has been under construction for the past several months.

Dates Are Given For Scout Camp Summer Program

Camp Billy Gibbons, the Comanche Trail Council's annual summer camp, dates were announced by the council headquarters in Brownwood as follows: Scout Troop dates—July 14 to 21 and July 21 to 28, Explorer Scout Camp (for 14 year olds and over)—July 28 to August 4.

The camp is located sixteen miles south of Richland Springs on Brady Creek in San Saba County. A large attendance is expected, especially the first two weeks, the troop camp period for scouts 11, 12, and 13 years of age. This will be the first opportunity for the eleven year olds to camp at Billy Gibbons, due to a lowering of the age requirements last September. The eleven year old boy now may become a member of the Boy Scouts.

Some of the activities that the scouts will enjoy are: swimming, life-saving, marksmanship, (by a qualified ranger officer), boating, angling, archery, Indian lore, handicraft, exploring, stalking and others.

Sunday will be designated Visitors' Day. They are especially invited to come early enough for the Sunday services at 8 a. m., however, any day is Visitors' Day, although they may find their son gone on an all-day hike and thereby miss him.

Camp Billy Gibbons is considered by the National Camping Department as one of the best located boy's camps in the southwest. Many boys see their first wild turkey and deer, as well as other small animals, in the open. They have permission to hike over some 53 thousand acres.

Mrs. Lee McDonald and son Jimmy, and daughter, Sue, and Mrs. Hugh Greenhaw and son Donald, went to Rising Star Sunday and visited Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. McClure.

Mrs. Zora Buford returned Sunday from Waco where she attended the graduation exercise of her grandson, Bill F. Dula, at Connally Air Force Base. Bill is leaving for his advanced training at Enid, Okla. He is a great-grandson of the late Uncle Jimmy Montgomery, pioneer of Cisco. He attended grade school and high school here, and Texas A&M College at College Station until he joined the Air Force.

Reserve Record Office Is Moved

Records of Air Force Reservists living in this area, both officers and airmen, that are now being maintained by Headquarters Twelfth Air Force in San Antonio, Texas, will be transferred to Headquarters, Fourteenth Air Force at Robins Base in Georgia, on July 1.

This change is due to a reorganization of the Continental Air Command, resulting in the inactivation of the Twelfth Air Force and the assumption of its responsibilities by the Fourteenth.

It in no way affects the present status of Air Reservists. They will continue their reserve activities with the Air Base nearest to them, Air Force Training Center, or local Liaison Office.

If such contacts are not available or if unsatisfactory, reservists should write to Headquarters, Fourteenth Air Force at Robins AFB, Georgia, in the same manner they have been contacting Headquarters, Twelfth Air Force in San Antonio.

A LOAN TO MEXICO

There is as much justification for giving Mexico $100,000 to subsidize more potato imports as to overexpand her socialized oil industry. Both products are in oversupply and loans of this type at our taxpayers' expense only serve to increase our taxes and destroy our jobs.

"Mexico already is a net exporter of petroleum, and the only possible result of such increased expansion, paid for by already overtaxed Americans, is dumping of more subsidized oil on the domestic market. What many of our federal officials can't seem to understand is that about three fourths of American oil producing wells are marginal ones.

"More than that, every barrel of imported oil that could be produced here takes that much from our economy, reduces employment at a time when the administration most needs high employment, and cuts sources of government taxes. Actually, it would make more sense to give Mexico the amount of the projected loan on condition not that she overexpand her own oil development but rather that she purchase that much United States oil. That, though certainly undesirable as a government policy, would at least make some sense in that such increased demand would intensify the search for oil here and help assure a continued virile industry for war and peace.

"The money to develop Mexican oil is available from private sources. Many United States independents would like to participate in oil development there. They are excluded in favor of a government operated company, Pemex, and American taxpayers are asked to foot the bill. We can only conclude there must be personal or political reasons behind such economically suicidal tactics that have not been made known to the American people who must pay the bills."

FARMER OF THE WEEK....

Chas. B. Wood Finds Happiness, Success On Farm Near Cisco

Nearly 37 years ago, a 13-year-old lad by the name of Charlie Wood left the farm to go to town in search of a job that would pay him enough to live on. Little did he dream that in 1950 he and his wife would be happily settled on an Eastland County farm.

learned as a boy on his father's farm.

In three short years this farm couple have transformed a run-down 20-acre farm into one of the most progressive farms in this area. Ten rolling acres of maize, sudan, and wheat reminds one of many of the pictures on the fronts of covers of leading farm magazines. An irrigated garden provides an amply supply of vegetables for the Wood family and their neighbors in addition to some for marketing.

A few years ago, a friend introduced Charles Wood to some "Indian Corn." The grains on this corn appear in speckled variegated colors. The reason Wood is so sold on it is that it will produce a crop when other varieties fail.

A new Gibson tractor on the place has proved very valuable in the success of farm, according to Wood. Whether it's grading, planting or cultivating, this little tractor is reported to be a capable or doing the job.

An orchard of 60 fine trees adds much to the value of this farm.

Each year, Mr. and Mrs. Wood gather several bushels of peaches, plums, apricots, and apples from their orchard.

Some 125 fryers plus 100 White Leghorn laying hens make up the poultry division of the Wood farm in preparation for the Thanksgiving and Christmas demand, they are also raising about 40 turkeys.

In addition to the above, Mr. and Mrs. Wood also own a large number of highbred goats and some hogs and sheep.

Nestled under large oak trees and surrounded by flower beds, the dwelling house on this farm is the kind that many young married couples dream of. On either side of the road leading up to the house, are several rows of flowers. The sweet smell of zinnias, gladiolas, tulips and cannas mingled with the cool breezes that blow across the lawn make it a pleasant place to live.

Across their fields, this happy farm couple can see the city of Cisco, which they love to refer to as their hometown. They say that they decided to move to Cisco because of its good water, shade trees, and its friendly people. The Wood factors entered into their moving here — they heard that Cisco was a church going town and a "dry" town.

Both are active members of the Corinth Baptist Church, near Cisco, and by doing their duty to God and their fellowman, they are helping to make Cisco and vicinity even a better place in which to live.

Although Mr. Wood was born in Alabama, both he and his wife were reared in Jones County. However, it was not until 1926 that they met each other in Abilene. Soon after, they were married and together they have enjoyed 24 years of planning and hard work. She is the former Edna Gordon, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gordon, pioneer settlers.

During his 34 years off the farm, Wood served in two World Wars and spent over 20 years in the cafe business. In World War I, he spent 16 months in France cooking for the famous General Pershing and his staff. The recent war found S-Sgt. Wood in charge of the Officer's club mess at the Carlisbad Army Air Field in New Mexico. The Bombardier, an air corp magazine for bombardiers, carried a full feature story on his decorative cake making art.

Upon being discharged from service at the close of the war, Charles Wood and his wife reentered the cafe business a short time. Then, one day he found that his health would no longer permit him to operate a cafe business, which he had come to love.

And so, the boy who left the farm to make a living, moved back to the farm 34 years later to find some of the happiest years of his life. The song which he and his wife once listened to on juke boxes in their cafes finally became a reality in their lives. . . . And somewhere out in the west, We'll build a sweet little nest, And let the rest of the world go by."

FARM NEWS

By The Hired Hand

Most of our farm visits this week were confined to homes along the Breckenridge highway. We had some very enjoyable visits with a number of interesting people.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Fee, who live about 3 miles out of town, have one of the most beautiful ranch homes anywhere. Built in 1927 and remodeled ten years later, the white brick veneer structure won a national contest sponsored by the Better Homes and Gardens magazine.

After winning the contest, a number of leading Southwestern newspapers carried stories on the Fee home. Located on a hill to the left of the highway, the home is situated on what appears to be a well-planned landscaped lawn shaded by a number of oak trees.

Many highway travelers have admired the exterior of the home. Having been inside, we can assure the readers that the interior is just as attractive. Mrs. Fee designed most of the home.

Mr. Fee told us that he now has about 190 cows on his Hereford ranch and almost all of them have calves at the present time. To provide grains and sorghums for his cattle, he is now farming about 300 acres.

The beautiful home built of Austin stone, located closer into town, is the home of the Wilson Meglasson family.

Our friends, the Meglassons, were on vacation and therefore we did not get to see them.

Although they enjoy the quietness of their farm home, Wilson Meglasson's main interest is his IGA Food Store on East 6th. St.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Donica and son, Harold, live just across the road from the Meglassons.

The Donicas have all of the convenience of town at their farm home, plus free gas from a gas well on their 2 1/2 acres. They have about 40 chickens and a number of turkeys on their farm.

14-year-old Harold recently bought a brown bay horse from Charles B. Wood, a neighbor to the Donicas. Harold is mighty proud of his horse, "Ginger" spot on her head. In addition to the horse, he has his hands just about full with a rabbit, a dog, and four puppies.

Another part-time farmer who is employed at the Post Office is Fred Steffy. At the present time, the Steffy's only have several chickens and fryers on their farm and most of their 180 acres are rented out to J. H. Havener, another farmer in the community.

Steffy, who has been with the post office department for 34 years, plans to retire next Spring. In preparation for that time, he has purchased a new Farmall tractor.

Along the way, we learned that Clyde Custer has moved a house on the Bisbee place in preparation of beginning a farm in that area.

He already has a new tractor and is ready to go.

On this trip, we also had an enjoyable visit with D. H. Bisbee and two of his grandsons. Bisbee has a fine looking farm just outside the Cisco city limits.

Reed McKeen, who lives a short distance down the road from the Steffy farm takes care of the chickens at his farm home after he gets off work at the A-G Motor Company in Cisco.

A. L. Poyner, who lives just a few miles out of Cisco, has 61 head of cattle on his 228 acre ranch near Ranger.

He is also a part-time farmer, being regularly employed by the Lone Star Producing Company. Max Poyner, son of A. L. Poyner, has a beautiful horse by the name of "Chubby." Max and Harold Donica often go riding together.
