Over 70 Awards Will Be Given In

Saturday for the third annual Cisco Treasure Hunt to be held Monday night between the hours of 6 and 9 p. m. Some 70 valuable gift items have been pledged by Cisco merchants. It was estimated that the gift items have a retail sales value of about $1000.

Tickets for the Treasure Hunt will continue to be given out by The Daily Press until 6 p. m. Monday Every resident of the Cisco area has been invited to participate in the big event, that will formally open the 1950 Christmas season in Cisco.

Other features of the evening's program will include turning on of downtown street lights and the Christmas show windows of Cisco stores, and a 30-minute concert by the Cisco High School band. Director Kenneth St. Clair and his 50-piece band will occupy a special platform in downtown Cisco to play their "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town" concert. The Treasure Hunt is expected to attract several thousand persons from throughout the area. The details of the Treasure Hunt are simple. All you have to do is go to the Daily Press office and obtain a ticket - one for each member of the family. The tickets are numbered and the various gift items will contain numbers. If you can find a gift item with the number on your ticket, ou can claim it Be in Cisco Monday night. Your hances to win will be good. You'll find a list of the participating merchants and their gift items elsewhere in today's
