Meeting Is Held Tuesday To Help City Contractors

The Housing Authority of the City of Cisco today announced the purchase of nearly four city blocks of land as a site for the 50 low-rent dwelling units to be erected here early in 1951 as a part of a national program.

The land lies along Highway 80, between the highway and the East Ward School in East Cisco, and was purchased from Dr. F. M. Oldham, local dentist. Consideration was $2,976 cash. Details of the transfer were handled for the authority by Willard White, local attorney.

The property purchased by the authority consisted of all of Lots 1 and 4 and part of lots 2 and 3, Block 122, City of Cisco. The site has been approved by both the state and national housing agencies.

Bids for construction of the 50 brick veneer will be opened by the Housing Authority here on January 9, 1951. Besides the 50 units, a dwelling will be erected for a caretaker. Later, two separate units will be erected for colored occupancy.

A group of local men interested in bidding for sub-contract met with Architect Paul G. Bentley and members of the Authority Tuesday morning at the Chamber of Commerce. Instructions were given on material specifications and on the procedure for seeking sub-contracts.

Authority Chairman S. H. Nance reported that considerable interest has been shown in the project, indicating that a large number of bids may be submitted.

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

SET UP WITH Mr. Wild Bill Elliott, the Hollywood western movie man, in Cisco yesterday. He was being photographed by Mr. Shy Osborn, and the picture is due to provide the cover page featured for the January issue of the Saddle.

We asked Mr. Wild Bill why he carried his guns, in such movies as Wild Bill Hickock, backward. In other words, the gun butts were turned forward. And Bill explained that it was to help his balance, seeing as how the guns were very heavy.

Mr. Wild Bill is a very handsome man, indeed. He likes the mall fry — the chicken. He has made 69 movies and shortly will begin another. He works for Republic Pictures.

With Wild Bill was Tommy Steiner, a Texan. They've bought at several strings of rodeo stock and plan to stage rodeos over the country next year. Maybe something could be worked out to let them here for a rodeo.

WE'RE GLAD that Wild Bill accepted Randy Steffen's invitation to appear in the Christmas parade here Saturday. He left his horses at home and when last we saw Randy he was hunting someone who owns a convertible car for Bill to ride in. If you have one and would like to drive Bill in the parade, call Randy at lack in the Saddle Magazine.

SINCE CISCO'S annual Christmas parade promises much in the way of entertainment and is expected to draw a record crowd, we understand that the WBAP-TV camera crew will be here to film it all for showing over their television station.

Old Santa Claus will be here, of course, to give out candy and to greet all of the kiddies.

THE PRESS is beginning to receive numerous letters for old Santa. Every last one of them will be published in the December 24th Christmas edition. All children in the Cisco area are invited to send their Santa letters to The Press.

Scranton Girls Divide Two Tilts

Cisco and Scranton girls' basketball teams divided two games last Friday night at the new community gym. The Scranton "B" team was defeated by the Cisco "B" team, 26 to 24. Scranton "A" girls won over Cisco by a 18-to-14 score.

On Monday night of this week, Cross Plains teams defeated the Scranton Boys "A" team, the girls "A" team and the Scranton "B" team.

Scranton teams will enter the Cisco tournament this week. On Monday night of next week, the Cross Plains grade school teams are scheduled to visit Scranton for games.

Attendance at Scranton's game this year has been good.

CARLISLE WELL FLOWS ON TEST TO INDICATE FIELD EXTENSION

A north extension for the Owens oil field, five miles northeast of Cisco, appeared certain today with reports that the Cooper-Hemphill No. 2 Carlisle flowed gas and oil on a drill stem test Wednesday morning.

Drilled to 3,382 feet, the drill bit went three feet into the Lake Sand before the test was run. Gas appeared almost immediately and oil flowed in about an hour and a half. Oil men believed the well would be a good one.

Pipe will be set before completion work begins, probably this weekend. The well is a northern offset to Cooper-Hemphill's No. 1 Carlisle, which was completed naturally with a potential of about 200 barrels per day.

Officials of the company indicated that any future development plans for their 80-acre lease would await the new year. In the same area, Bankline Oil Company's No. 2 A. V. Clark had set pipe and was awaiting completion work. Some 18 feet of the Lake sand was cored in this well.

Bankline was moving to the location for their second well on the Jesse H. Reynolds lease.

Failure was reported in a southeast extension effort for the new field when the L. W. Douglas No. 1 J. G. Harlow, located near the Joy Drive-In theater, failed to find the Lake sand pay sector. Deepened to the Ranger lime, no oil was reported. It was understood the hole was to be plugged and abandoned.

FARMER OF THE WEEK . . .

Walter Agnew Has Seen 64 Years Of Farming And Ranching In County

Walter Agnew, who now lives at 309 West 10th, has seen 64 years of farming and ranching in Eastland County. From the time he was a little boy of seven years on his father's farm until he retired in 1945, Mr. Agnew has been busy either farming or trading in livestock.

Born on a farm near Longview, Walter Agnew first came to Eastland County at the age of two. He says that the only thing he remembers of early years in the county is that they lived in a tent. Later, he and his folks moved into a log cabin which his father had built on his farm, which was located one mile south of what is now Rising Star.

While still in his teens, young Farmer Agnew met a beautiful young lady by the name of Maggie Nunally. Miss Maggie was from Lamar County in East Texas. They recall that their first date was to a Baptist camp meeting at Union Grove. Soon after, they became Mr. and Mrs.

With a twinkle in his eyes and a slight grin, referring to his wedding 55 years ago, Mr. Agnew says, "That broke me out from stealing. . . you see, I kinda stole my wife." However, Mrs. Agnew says that after her parents learned her husband's mischievous nature, they forgave him and were proud to have him as a son-in-law.

Ten years after their marriage, they moved on the first farm that they could call their own. This farm was located a mile north of Dothan. How much did it cost? $5.00 an acre. . . but that was 45 years ago. . . they recall buying another farm several years later for $2.00 an acre.

Oil men were watching developments today in the Elliott and Red No. 1 W. D. Hopper, a wildcat some nine miles southwest of Cisco. Drilled to the Ellenberger, the hole was plugged back to the Caddo lime early today for initial completion efforts. No reports were available on the project, but a good show had been logged in that section.

WRITES TEXAS BOOK

DALLAS, Dec. 13. — William A. Owens, born in Pin Hook, Lamar County, Texas, and now a member of the faculty of Columbia University, is the author of a collection of Texas folk songs and ballads, published this week by the S. M. U. Press and the Texas Folklore Society.

Owens spent ten years collecting the songs for "Texas Folk Songs." He went up and down the roads and prairies of Texas seeking out people who were "allus foolin' around after songs," as one old lady told him.

TAX BOOK REVISED

The Treasury Department has revised its "Your Federal Income Tax" booklet to include law changes and the books now are on sale by the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, for 25 cents, according to information here.

The main crops on the Agnew farm in those days were cotton and corn. And, although he raised some cattle, Mr. Agnew has always been most interested in horses. There is little doubt but what he has traded more horses than any man in this part of the country.

Thinking of the past, both Mr. and Mrs. Agnew agree that their blessings have been many. More than everything else, they are thankful for their six living children - three sons and three daughters.

Like their father, the sons are interested in cattle and all three operate a ranch of their own. Clemon, the eldest, has a farm about five miles northwest of Cisco. Rev. Mart Agnew, an ordained Baptist minister who lives in Cisco, is now pastor of churches at Okra and New Hope, and looks after his ranch during his spare time during the week. Arlin, another rancher, is employed by the Cisco Water Department.

The three daughters, all of Cisco, are Mrs. Ed Huestis (Ola), Mrs. Paul Huestis (Ruth), and Mrs. Richard Turknett (Hazel).

Mr. and Mrs. Agnew are now enjoying life by "taking it easy."

Almost every day, however, Mr. Agnew walks over Cisco to get his daily exercise. He explains that he has three "Offices" - at Whiz's Service Station, Slaughter's Reliable Produce, and at the fire station.

This friendly elderly couple have many friends in Cisco and Eastland County. Nearly every Lord's Day they attend worship services together at the East Cisco Baptist Church.

Boxing Teams To Represent Cisco In Golden Gloves

Plans to enter the local boxers in Golden Glove competition as well as entering college ring teams in conference competition were released by Paul Mosley, assistant coach at Cisco Junior College, who is in charge of the program.

Some ten high school and college boys have given extensive work outs for the past week conditioning them for the bouts ahead. Daily training includes 30 to 40 minutes of calisthenics, time work out with a heavy log, sparring and road work. New equipment has arrived and the boxers are enthusiastic in their work.

A new portable ring and mat have been ordered to replace those destroyed when the gymnasium burned early this year. Coach Mosley plans no bouts until after Christmas holidays. He wants the boys to be in top physical condition before he enters them in competition. He plans to schedule fight cards with Abilene, Breckenridge, Decatur and Weatherford and to have his boys ready for Golden Gloves competition in mid-January. The high school boys and the college boys will both be eligible for junior college competition.

Donie Dorr and David Robinson of the college are the heavy weights on Coach Mosley's team. Dorr is from Knox City and Robinson hails from Throckmorton. Ken Guthrie of Anson and Barbee Smith of Cisco are lightweighters. Bill Tabor of Cisco entered in the lightweight division and Bennie Pippen has made the featherweight section. Bantamweights include Ben Tabor, Sonny Bosworth and Harry Warren and Tommy Barton is the only entry in the flyweight division. With the exception of Bill and Ben Tabor, none of the boys have seen much ring competition.

The Russians Hear About Us -

As a matter of policy, the Soviet government does everything possible to create fear, distrust and hatred of America among its people. Those who would like an insight into some of the techniques pursued would do well to read an article in the November American Mercury by Louis J. Herman, a specialist in Russian propaganda, called "America Through the Kremlin's Eyes."

low in wealth and enjoy unlimited power, while tens of millions of ordinary people suffer privation and oppression. In their crusade against all progressive-minded Americans, the monopolists are out to turn the United States into a land of police brutality and torture chambers.

The American press—which, according to the official Soviet view, is almost 100 per cent pro-fascist and anti-democratic—naturally comes in for its full share of attention. The heaviest bombardment falls on publications of wide circulation, such as Time and Newsweek, and the New York Times and Herald Tribune. The following view of goings on at the National Press Club in Washington is offered: "Here, over a glass of whiskey, around the card or billiard tables, rumors and insinuations are born, domestic and world news is manufactured, vicious, lying stories are penned at the warmongers' orders."

On some of the maps of Texas there are a couple of little hollow squares located in the Big Bend Section marked "Wax Factory."

Not very many people have noticed this and even fewer are familiar with what goes on there. They actually are, or have been, the locations of wax factories. The wax is the candleilla wax, made from the shrub of the same name which grows in that part of the world, on both sides of the Texas-Mexico border. It does not occur anywhere else in the United States. The plant grows wild, is never cultivated.

We have observed that livestock auctioneers in the corn belt do more clowning than we're accustomed to having here with our sales. At least some of them do. Or maybe it's just for special occasions. At the sale of Lloyd Robinson's steer, Big Spring Special, which was grand champion at the International Livestock Exposition two weeks ago, the auctioneer had young Lloyd helping with some of the appeals to bidders. It was all great fun. Apparently it worked. The final sale price was $12 per lb., a new record, and a total of $12,399 for the animal, besides his prize winnings.

We can expect a new cycle of controls on nearly everything, and new fights to stay free of control. In the other war, the livestock industry managed to keep pretty much in the clear insofar as production was concerned, but growers had their problems with the feed and other things. The sheep raisers have already raised their voices against prospective controls.

Snow Balls Make Hit With All Heysler Home

These children and grand-children who may be in for Christmas, Mrs. J. V. Heysler, Sr., has prepared snow balls, which are a favorite for children and adults alike.

The recipe for snow balls is as follows: Inged: 1/2 cup shortening, 3 cup granulated sugar, 2 cups sifted flour, 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. cream of tartar and add to the first mixture, and mix thoroughly. Add 1 cup finely chopped nuts and roll out into small balls, about the size of a small walnut and place on an ungreased baking sheet about 1 inch apart.

Cook about ten minutes in a very slow oven or until the bottom is lightly browned but the top is still white. Remove immediately and roll in powdered sugar. This recipe will make about three dozen balls.

These are a delicacy with a cup of coffee or other beverage.

Mrs. Heysler's ice box fruit cake has also been a favorite and she recommends it for the Holiday menu. Inged: 1 can sweetened condensed milk, juice of two lemons, 2 pounds vanilla wafers, 2 cups chopped dates, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1 pound coconut (shredded), 1 1/2 ounce bottle marshmallows, 1 egg, 3 Tbs. lemon juice and 1 Tbs. water. Mix thoroughly the shortening, sugar, grated lemon rind and egg, stir into this mixture the lemon juice and water and set aside. Sift together, 1 3/4 cups flour, 1/4 tsp. soda, 1/2 tsp. salt and 1/4 tsp. cream tartar and add to the first mixture, and mix thoroughly. Add 1 cup finely chopped nuts and roll out into small balls, about the size of a small walnut and place on an ungreased baking sheet about 1 inch apart.

2. Trousers on women. "Slacks are not incorrect dress for resort areas, sports, and ice-aging at home," says this expert, "but are improper for city wear. Of course," she adds, "some women are mistaken to wear them ever."

3. The younger set (past eight) after midnight. The modern young woman and her young man head for home alone or with other young friends, stopping off for a late snack.

4. Posture. "I don't believe we should revert to the ramrod stiffness required when our grandmothers were young women," says Miss Kent, "but a little more gracefulness of posture would eliminate a great American eyefore."

5. The typewriter supercedes the pen. The typewriter for personal correspondence is now not merely approved but favored. Formal notes, such as answers to formal invitations, should be penned by hand. And letters of sympathy seem warmer and more sincere if handwritten.

6. Manners after divorce. Years ago, divorced couples

shunned each other. But today, many of them remain good friends or, at least, on speaking terms.

7. Women and nicotine. Sherry's, famous old New York society restaurant, forbade any woman to light a cigarette on the premises. The modern woman reaches for a cigarette almost whenever or wherever she has the whim.

8. Calling on new neighbors. This old American custom is vanishing, a casualty of World War II. Miss Kent believes that "people's instinctive kindness will eventually bring back the courtesy call."

9. Buffet meals replace big dinners. The modern hostess who gives a dinner party can prepare ahead of time, relax, and ask the guests to help themselves.

10. The decline of chivalry. Since gaining a more equal status with men, women no longer expect deference as the "weaker" sex. Unless she is infirm or elderly, the modern woman must hustle for a seat on the subway. And that old hats-off-in-elevator rule has been completely revoked in business-building elevators.

According to Miss Kent, feminine independence has been paid for out of the currency of male chivalry. And many a woman seems to believe the purchase isn't worth the price.

TEN IMPORTANT ETIQUETTE CHANGES LISTED BY EMILY POST'S ASSISTANT

Anne Kent, personal assistant to Emily Post for more than 15 years, has listed for the December issue of Cosmopolitan magazine the ten most important changes in etiquette. Here they are:

1. First-name calling. Miss Kent finds no fault with this practice in circles where it's taken for granted. She says that position and age should be respected, and children shouldn't call adults by their first names.

2. Trousers on women. "Slacks are not incorrect dress for resort areas, sports, and ice-aging at home," says this expert, "but are improper for city wear. Of course," she adds, "some women are mistaken to wear them ever."

3. The younger set (past eight) after midnight. The modern young woman and her young man head for home alone or with other young friends, stopping off for a late snack.

4. Posture. "I don't believe we should revert to the ramrod stiffness required when our grandmothers were young women," says Miss Kent, "but a little more gracefulness of posture would eliminate a great American eyefore."

5. The typewriter supercedes the pen. The typewriter for personal correspondence is now not merely approved but favored. Formal notes, such as answers to formal invitations, should be penned by hand. And letters of sympathy seem warmer and more sincere if handwritten.

6. Manners after divorce. Years ago, divorced couples

shunned each other. But today, many of them remain good friends or, at least, on speaking terms.

7. Women and nicotine. Sherry's, famous old New York society restaurant, forbade any woman to light a cigarette on the premises. The modern woman reaches for a cigarette almost whenever or wherever she has the whim.

8. Calling on new neighbors. This old American custom is vanishing, a casualty of World War II. Miss Kent believes that "people's instinctive kindness will eventually bring back the courtesy call."

9. Buffet meals replace big dinners. The modern hostess who gives a dinner party can prepare ahead of time, relax, and ask the guests to help themselves.

10. The decline of chivalry. Since gaining a more equal status with men, women no longer expect deference as the "weaker" sex. Unless she is infirm or elderly, the modern woman must hustle for a seat on the subway. And that old hats-off-in-elevator rule has been completely revoked in business-building elevators.

FARM NEWS

By The Hired Hand

Headline farm news in this area is still the desperate need for rain. Moisture, which resulted from the furries of last week, is reported to have been some help to thirsty farm lands in Eastland County. The weather prophets have no encouraging word in regard to a rain in the next couple of days.

Tuesday evening my friend, Brady Boggs, and I made several farm visits in the area north of Cisco. Mr. Boggs, a veteran of World War I and an old-timer in these parts, seems to know almost everybody around here.

At the Bill Baber place, we found that the Babers are majoring on raising chickens and chicken feed. They live in a beautiful rock home on the Moran highway.

While at the Baber farm, we met Mrs. Carrie E. Tipton who was born and reared on the Chesley ranch, 15 miles south of Breckenridge. She now owns 1,663 acres of this land and has it leased for both ranch and drilling purposes.

Chesley Field, the football stadium in Cisco, was named for Mrs. Tipton's father.

We found Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Williams taking it easy but mighty interested in their 300 white leghorns. The Williams' live on what was formerly the Paul Ivie place.

Upon asking Mr. Williams the reason for the present high price of eggs, he gave the following explanation: "Eggs were so cheap for so long and feed was so high that many chicken-raisers sold their chickens when they were young — this brought a scarcity in laying hens and the Thanksgiving and Christmas demand has caused a shortage of eggs over the country and thus the higher prices."

Along the way, we also met Mac Cheshire who has all of pasture land leased to Andy Standefer. Although Mr. Cheshire has had a little misfortune with his oil leases, he is still hoping for the day when he will have several wells on his place.

Having been in ill health during the past several months, Mac Cheshire has spent much of his time drawing cartoons and he also has written several interesting poems. We are looking forward to receiving a copy of Christmas prayer-poem which he composed.

Little bright, shiny lapel emblems that took the place of ruptured ducks for men who came home from the war with memories of the hot sands of Tunisia, the bitter cold of Bastogne, the blood that was spilled at Anzio, the deadly flak over Berlin, the angry waters of the North Sea, or the hidden mines on the beach of Normandy.

Today they're proud to wear the only fraternal emblem in America that says:

"This chap served overseas in the Armed Forces of his country in time of war! He's been places and seen things!"

If you speak the language of an overseas veteran from personal experience—then you know the men who belong to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. You were comrades in time of war. In the V.F.W., you can still be comrades in time of peace. This explains why more than a million overseas veterans are quick to say—

"THE V.F.W. IS A GOOD OUTFIT!"

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Hardening of Arteries, Pains in Left Arm and Side

Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes on Feb. 20, 1948:

"Please send another bottle of Garlex Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mass.

"I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of Garlex used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here, has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerable. This Garlex works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

THE BLESSED EVENT OF THE ENTERTAINMENT SEASON!

Mr. Norman Christopher, 2344 Cumberland, Houston, Texas, works for the Water Contract Division of the city of Houston, and he says the house tops aren't high enough nor the days long enough for him to praise HADACOL. He says since he has been taking HADACOL he feels mighty good. He found his system was deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Mr. Christopher says: "After I got out of the Army I was underweight, nervous, couldn't sleep and had a terrible time getting food to agree with me. When I would wake up in the morning I would always be sick at my stomach—I could never eat breakfast—imagine having to wait until noon before eating the first meal of the day. Even then just a few mouthfuls of food would fill me up. At night I couldn't sleep I would just roll and toss all night. I felt miserable. Nothing seemed to help me until I started taking HADACOL. After the third bottle of HADACOL I could tell a difference in my eating and sleeping habits. Now after a year's time of taking HADACOL I have gained almost 20 pounds. I sleep well—and the most wonderful thing—I can enjoy 3 full meals a day. There is no way I can describe the tremendous improvement in my appetite. I have started my wife taking HADACOL and she, too, is feeling wonderful. If there is anybody who doubts my word about what I have said about HADACOL, they should have seen me before I started taking HADACOL. I sincerely recommend HADACOL to all my friends and urge them to take HADACOL."

All Ages Can Be Helped
HADACOL is simply remarkable the way it has helped folks of all ages—yes, thousands of men, women and children who have deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. HADACOL is that wonderful new preparation—promising blessed relief for stomach distress, nervousness, caused by an upset stomach, vague aches and pains, or a general run-down condition, when they are due to such deficiencies.

Remember, HADACOL is not a quick-acting product that only attacks the symptoms of the miseries, but actually relieves the real cause of pains and aches due to such deficiencies. Yes, and continued use of HADACOL helps prevent the miseries from coming back.

Start Taking HADACOL Now

Don't go through life putting up with a stomach that is easily upset, that causes you gas pains, heartburn, sour risings after meals; a stomach that will not digest food properly; yes, if due to lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, you can overcome the deficiencies which are causing these miseries by taking HADACOL which contains those precious Vitamins.

Start taking HADACOL right away, and you do not get the results you expect your money will be immediately refunded HADACOL costs only $1.25 for a trial-size bottle. Large family or hospital size, $3.50.

There is only one true and genuine HADACOL. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from the LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.
