The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

THE CISCO Lions Club has a project coming up for their luncheon next week that appeals to us. Everybody's going to wear the prettiest tie they got for Christmas. And the very loudest will be awarded a prize, which the McCauley Tire & Supply is furnishing. There's nothing more colorful, as a general rule, as Christmas ties. It should be an interesting day.

Somebody ought to invite Manager Dillard of the West Texas Produce Company to the meeting. Our scouts report that one of his Christmas gifts was a handsome hand-painted necktie with pictures of onions, potatoes and assorted vegetables.

MET UP WITH the Rev. Sidney Spain, new pastor of the First Christian Church, the other day. And he is a very fine young fellow. There was an interesting item on the sheet of paper he gave us with facts about his career. The item read as follows: "He is single but not eligible, and a bride from Rule, Texas, should grace the paragon before the end of February. She finished at Baylor and is teaching in Dallas."

WE HAVE TWO more new recruits for our growing army of honorary colonels for the Cisco unit of the Texas National Guard. Comes a dollar to be credited to Colonel Archie Kennedy, chairman of the shoe shine department at the X-ray Barber Shop. And Mr. P. R. Warwick handed us a dollar for the National Guard building improvement fund with the stipulation that he be made a private. "You've got too much brass and you need some privates," he commented.

TICKETS WENT ON sale today for the annual football banquet, which will be held at the Community Gym on January 18. It is hoped that 120 local men will each buy two tickets. And each man will take a football player. Ladies aren't being invited because there won't be room for them.

According to the plan, the tickets are being sold in pairs. One of the two tickets will have a boy's name on the back of it. And who ever buys his tickets takes that boy. You can get tickets from the Lions or the Rotary committee members and there will be a supply at The Press office.

COMES OUR COPY of the Midjet News, the memographed publication of the Junior High School. Among other things, it reports that five new students are in the school, including Richard Lawler, from Cross Plains; Elizabeth Seay, El Centro, Calif.; Howard Hamilton, Odessa; Stanley Lawler, Cross Plains; Martha Shellenberger, Dublin.

COMES A COPY of the Melvin Enterprise, a weekly newspaper "serving the most prosperous farming and ranching sections of McCullough and Concho Counties." It tells the story of new oil development in that area and credits to the Kamon Petroleum Exploration Co. of Cisco. "The well is being drilled by the Kamon company of Cisco for a Dallas concern." And, according to the newspaper, the outlook for production was very good.

CARD OF THANKS

We can never express our thanks to the many friends who helped in so many ways during the death of our dear father and aunt. Especially do we wish to thank those who prepared our meals. We shall always remember the kind words, deeds, and floral offerings. May God's richest blessings rest upon each and everyone of you.

NO TRAFFIC PROBLEM HERE—Sending up a powdery white spray, a galloping horse bounds through a snow drift in Lincoln Park in Chicago, as its rider enjoys a day made miserable for most auto drivers. Traffic came to a standstill when a nine-inch snowfall topped the thick, crusty blanket already dumped on the Windy City by previous storms.

Funeral Services Planned Thursday For Vickers Baby

Gretchen Paula Jean Vickers, two months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vickers of Odessa and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Armstrong of Cisco, was found dead in her bed in Odessa Wednesday afternoon by her mother who went to see about her while she was taking her afternoon nap.

Mrs. Vickers is the former Miss Sue Armstrong of Cisco. The couple has lived in Odessa for some three years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 p. m. Thursday from the Cisco First Methodist Church with Rev. Leslie Seymour and Rev. E. H. Lightfoot officiating. Burial will be in the Eastland Cemetery. Arrangements are in the hands of Thomas Funeral Home. The body will arrive by train early Thursday morning.

Immediate survivors are her parents and a two year old brother, Richard Vickers, Jr.

Square Dance To Benefit Lobo Band

A big square dance party is being planned at the old high school gym for Monday night, Jan. 21, as a benefit for the Cisco Lobo Band, according to an announcement today.

The event is being organized and sponsored by the Cisco Sashay Club and the Band Parents Association. Tickets will go on sale this week and will cost 50 cents per person. Dancers will pay $1 per couple.

The program calls for Jack Dees, Abilene; T. K. Hardy, Ranger; James Moore, Cisco, and O. J. Brown, Cisco, to be master of ceremonies for parts of the dance.

STATE UNEMPLOYMENT TAXABLE WAGE BASE REMAINS AT $3000

The fact that Congress in 1951 raised the taxable wage base under the Social Security Act — Old Age & Survivors Insurance — from $3,000 to $3,600 does not have any effect on the Federal Unemployment Tax Act or the State Unemployment Tax Act, the Texas Employment Commission said today.

Some employers, according to TEC, have reported wages to the agency up to $3,600, with the idea that they are compelled to under, the unemployment insurance law. This is not correct, TEC says, in that the taxable wage base is still only $3,000 under the TUC law.

To clarify the different types of payroll tax laws, TEC pointed out that under the Social Security Act, an old-age and survivors insurance tax of 3 per cent is levied on wages paid by the employer up to a maximum of $3,600. Of this tax, one and one-half per cent is paid by the employer, and a like amount is paid by the employee.

Under the state unemployment insurance law, employers are required to pay taxes at a rate that varies from one-tenth of one per cent to two and seven-tenths per cent. This tax applies to only the first $3,000 paid to an individual employee in a calendar year. All of it is paid by the employer, and no part is paid by the employee.

The Federal Unemployment Tax Act levies a payroll tax of three-tenths of one per cent on wages up to a maximum of $3,000, paid to an individual employee in a calendar year as in the case under the TUC law. This excise tax is reported annually to the U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue, TEC said.

Actually the employer's annual report to the Federal government is a little more complicated than his quarterly report.

Final Rites For W. R. McKelvain Scheduled Today

Final rites for William Robert McKelvain, 92, one of the oldest residents of the Cisco area, were to be conducted at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Church of Christ in Moran with Cole Jackson, pastor, officiating. Burial was to follow in the Moran cemetery.

Pallbearers were to be Ben McKelvain, Hiram McKelvain and Henry Calloway, Moran; Rube Calloway and Shorty Calloway, Cisco; and John W. Chalcker, Breckenridge.

Mr. McKelvain died at 6 a. m. Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. S. Holloway, in Cisco. He had been a resident of Cisco and Moran for more than 70 years. He was born in Anderson County on August 15, 1859. He had been active in ranch work until his retirement several years ago. He was a member of the Church of Christ. His wife died in 1936 and was buried in Moran.

Survivors include three sons, Ernest McKelvain of Olden, Ed McKelvain of Eastland and Kay McKelvain of Moran and a daughter, Mrs. Holloway, Cisco, and 16 grand children, 24 great grand children and 11 great great grand children.

Legion To Make Banquet Plans

Plans for serving the annual Cisco Football Banquet will be worked out Thursday night at the regular semi-monthly business meeting of the John William Butts Post 123 of the American Legion at the Legion Hall. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Other business matters will be discussed. The Post will see special Korean war pictures at a meeting on January 24 through the courtesy of the Cisco Unit of the National Guard.

C of C HAS NEW DIRECTORS; TO ELECT OFFICERS NEXT TUESDAY

The Cisco Chamber of Commerce will elect new officers at the regular semi-monthly business meeting next Tuesday, according to an announcement today. Seven new directors were elected Tuesday night at the City Commission meeting.

The new directors are: J. J. Callaway, W. B. Wright, Edward Lee, James Duff, Sutton Crofts, George Davis and Charles Spears.

Hold-over directors are: Austin Flint, W. P. Guinn, C. E. Higginbotham, E. L. Jackson, O. L. Lee, J. W. Sitton, A. R. Westfall and Anton White. Mr. Jackson is president, Mr. White is vice president, and Mr. Spears is finance officer.

The city commission elects the directors under the organization's charter as a Board of City Development. Half of the directors are elected each year for two-year terms, and the officers are elected each year.

Equipment Due To Be Installed In About Six Weeks

The city commission authorized the purchase of short wave radio receivers and a transmitter for use by the police department at a regular meeting Tuesday night at the city hall. The new equipment, which is expected to be delivered in about six weeks, will cost approximately $2,000 installed.

The new equipment will be set up in the fire station where it will be manned by police 24 hours a day and will enable police to talk to the city police car, to the sheriff's office in Eastland, and to the headquarters office of the State Highway Patrol in Abilene.

The master receiver will have two speakers to monitor both the local calls and the state highway patrol circuit. The local speaker will be able to pickup calls from the Sheriff's office at Eastland.

Similar equipment is due to be purchased soon for the sheriff's office. Sheriff J. B. Tucker has collected most of the funds needed through popular subscriptions after the Commissioners' Court declined to buy the equipment.

It was understood that Ranger officials are studying plans to equip its police department with similar radio facilities.

The commission took under advisement a suggestion that city employees be placed under the social security law.

City Attorney Edward Brown was authorized to proceed with the filing of suits against all delinquent city property and auto taxpayers. The commission, with one dissenting vote, authorized an adjustment of approximately $17.50 in a 22-year old delinquent tax account on a piece of East Cisco real estate.

The commission took under advisement an offer to sell the city a lot at 3rd and Avenue E, and decided to study an offer to buy several lots from the city in the north part of town.

It was reported that new doors have been installed at the fire station by Carrett and Speir, Inc., at a cost of approximately $720. The roof has recently been repaired against leaks.

The employment of an extra policeman was authorized until the new radio equipment is installed in some six weeks. Mayor G. C. Rosenthal reported on a meeting held recently in which civic leaders of Cisco, Eastland and Ranger discussed mutual problems.

The regular monthly accounts were read and payment was authorized. Present at the meeting were Mayor Rosenthal, Commissioners J. P. McCracken, J. L. Stafford, Joe Britain and J. W. Slaughter, City Attorney Edward Brown, and City Secretary Hal Lavery.

Civil Service To Hold Job Exams

The U. S. Civil Service Commission today issued a new announcement of an examination for filling chemist, physicist, and meteorologist positions in the Air Force Research Center, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The salaries for the chemist and physicist positions range from $5,060 to $10,800 a year and for meteorologist, from $4,205 to $10,800 a year. To qualify in the examination, applicants must meet a basic requirement of education and experience or both in the field for which they apply and, in addition, must have had from 1 1/2 to 4 years of appropriate professional experience. Pertinent graduate study may be substituted for part of the required professional experience.

Full information about the examination and the necessary application forms may be obtained from the Commission's local secretary, Sam B. King, at the Cisco post office.

THIS IS 'HAND SIGNAL MONTH' FOR AUTO DRIVERS IN TEXAS

AUSTIN, Jan. 9.—This is "hand signal month" in Texas and you, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Automobile Driver, are urged to apply the "signs of life," not only in January but the rest of your days. In fact, you will be a law violator if you fail, but if you comply, you might save a life.

Traffic safety exponents are convinced that death and injury on streets and highways can be lowered greatly if motorists practice the "common courtesy of applying hand signals." That's why January has been designated as "hand signal month" in the Lone Star State.

"Participation in this traffic safety educational program requires only minimum effort on the part of drivers," said A. W. Breeland of Dallas, president of the Texas Safety Association, Inc., which is sponsoring the campaign. "All a driver needs to do is learn, then apply the signals. It is easy if you remember the slogan: Right turn — hand up. Left turn — hand out. Slow or stop — hand down. A hand signal could be the means of averting a death dealing accident."

Breeland stated that need for courtesy in driving is accentuated by the fact that the traffic death list for Texas in 1951 will show in excess of 2,500 persons when final figures are compiled.

"That's an unprecedented highway death rate for our state," he said. "Traffic safety education is a fine thing, but we must have the cooperation of motorists if needless slaughter is to be averted. More drivers must practice the precepts of traffic safety education. Applying hand signals lends that opportunity. We remind drivers that failure to give hand signals is a violation of law. By obeying the law you might save a life — and that life could be your own."

The Cisco Unit of the Texas National Guard had two new recruits today, according to Captain Frank B. Sayre, commanding officer. The new men are Harry Warren, employed at the McCracken Grocery, and Freddie Smith, senior at Cisco High School employed part-time at Glenn's Furniture Company.

Captain Sayre also announced the promotion of Sergeant George B. Hull to the rank of sergeant first class.

The unit still has openings for a number of men and for two officers.

DON'T BE AN EASY MARK

We are living in an age when the fine art of trying to get something for nothing is being practiced by nations, cities, and on down to the lowliest pick pocket and professional writers of bad checks. Fred Johnson, Vice President of the American Stores of Philadelphia, has compiled information on the growth of the bad check racket. It reads like a fast moving story. For example, he points out that in the trading area of the American Stores a certain group of banks formerly turned back from three to five worthless checks a day. Now they turn back eighty

There's a good meal in this casserole, and a thrifty one. Meat and vegetables are well-flavored and topped with a ring of golden biscuits. Eat hearty!

Taxes are high and prices are high, but your need for substantial, nourishing meals is just the same. One excellent solution is to stretch your food dollar in meat-saving dishes which combine meat with economical enriched flour.

Such a dish is Biscuit Ring Casserole, a meal-in-one taste delight that combines meat with peas, carrots and lima beans, and tops all with biscuits. The biscuit ring makes a mighty good-looking service. It contributes B-vitamins and iron in addition to economical protein at small cost.

With this flavorful casserole, serve a crisp salad and milk or coffee. Apple pie with cheese completes a menu your family will approve. To save time and work, often you'll want to call on your baker for a luscious pie, cake or cookies for dessert.

BISCUIT RING CASSEROLE

2 cups cooked, cubed meat 1 cup meat stock, vegetable liquid or water 2 tablespoons chopped onion 1 cup cooked peas 2 tablespoons fat or drippings 1 cup cooked carrots 2 tablespoons enriched flour 1/2 cup cooked lima beans 1 teaspoon salt 1/4 cup shortening 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Do you have U. S. Series E Defense Bonds maturing this year?

Good news! A new law says now those bonds can keep on earning you interest up to 10 years longer - without your lifting a finger!

ARE you one of those wise and patriotic people who bought Series E Defense Bonds ten years ago and have held them to maturity? Congratulate yourself! Because the new Bond Law, just passed by Congress, now makes them pay off even better than you had expected!

Now, without having to do a thing, you can let those bonds go on earning extra interest for ten years more.

Yes, now the bond which cost you $18.75 will pay you not $25.00 but $33.33! Your $37.50 bond will pay not $50, but $66.66. Your $75 bond will pay $133.33. And so on.

To get this extra money, there's absolutely nothing you have to do. Just hold your bonds and let them go on earning interest for you.

If you wish, you may still redeem any Series E Bond at any time after you've owned it for 60 days. But you'll be better off to hold your bonds, just as you're better off to hold savings in any form.

Cash in the pocket melts away fast - often with little or nothing to show for it. But cash in bond savings is always there - growing steadily toward the big sum which can buy something really worth while.

So if you have bonds coming due, why not take the wise course? Just sit back and let them go on making money. And meanwhile keep adding to your cash savings by buying more U. S. Defense Bonds regularly - through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank.

If you want to be paid your interest as current income The new law also allows you to exchange your Series E Bonds, in blocks of $500 or more, for Special Series G Bonds which pay interest semiannually at the rate of 2 1/2% per year. For full details, ask at any Federal Reserve Bank.

Table with columns: Original maturity (face) value, Issue price, Period after issue date, Redemption values during each year. Rows include 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 years and extended maturity value (20 years from issue date).

Death Rates For Young People On Par With World

Although the over-all mortality record of the United States is one of the best in the world, and death rates in youth and early maturity compare very favorably with those of other countries, for people at ages 45 and over the mortality record lags behind that of other advanced nations, according to life insurance company statisticians.

This is due largely to relatively high death rates among our older people from these three major causes of death: accidents, the diseases of the heart and circulatory system, and diabetes. These findings are from a study which compares the United States death rates with those of 16 other advanced nations.

The situation as to the heart and circulatory disorders, which cause three fifths of all deaths after age 45 in this country, is serious among the older men, the statisticians said. Only Australia and New Zealand come even near our level, while many countries record much lower rates. Among the older women the death rates for these disorders approximate the average for the other countries.

The influence of diabetes in causing high mortality at the older ages is most marked among women. For women over 45 in the United States the 1948 death rate from diabetes was 111.6 per 100,000; Canada was next highest with a rate of 91.5.

The high diabetes mortality may reflect our intensive case-finding activities and better reporting of the disease as a cause of death in recent years, but even granting this, the level is still well above that in other countries.

The death rate from accidental injuries at ages 45 and over, for both men and women, is higher in the United States than in any of the other 16 countries.

For other leading causes of death, the United States has average or below-average mortality at the older ages, with mortality from tuberculosis, pneumonia and influenza, and other infectious diseases very favorable at the older ages as well as earlier in life. The cancer rate above age 45 is at about the average for the other countries.

Many opportunities were seen for lowering the mortality among older Americans through health education, safety programs, regular medical examinations, and early treatment of the degenerative conditions.

Some of our states already have death rates among their elders that compare with the best achieved by foreign countries. The fact that older people are becoming an increasing large part of the population makes it more urgent than ever that we take adequate measures to safeguard their health.

TARPON FISHING OFF FLORIDA

HE'S GOT AN ANGLE—After a hundred runs and retreats, and just about as many leaps into the air, the 120-pound silver king is about to give up his fight with fisherman Earl Foster, near St. Petersburg, Fla. He put up a good fight, but it was a losing one as far as he was concerned. A strong gaff will be hooked under his jaw and he'll soon be hauled aboard the boat.

THE HAUL—Pretty Sally Robinson proves that gals can land a tarpon, too, if skillful enough, left. The 85-pounder that Foster is assisting her with seems a record catch to her and, once landed, right, they subject it to a thorough and happy inspection. Tarpon scales are often kept by fishermen as souvenirs; they're about the size and color of a silver dollar.
