

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

IF YOU'LL TURN to another page in today's Press you'll see quarterly financial report for City of Cisco. And it contains some interesting facts and figures. For instance, the public debt picture is clearing up a little bit. Your per capita share of the bonded debt is now $22. The ratio of the total tax on 1951 valuations is 5.46%.

The city's bonded debt now is $2,850. The city has paid and accrued over $183,000. worth of bonds in the past ten years.

Taxable valuations in the city now amount to 3,180,628. — a sum of over $1,199,000. in the past six years. Tax collections in 1951 now stand at 91.6% on books. And that's right good collecting.

Look over the statement. It is a pretty good story of how the city is being run. It's a reflection of good management.

THINGS ARE LOOKING right at the Altman Style Shop where a face-lifting program has been concluded. The work included considerable painting of new lights. Mr. and Mrs. B. Altman and Mrs. Myrtle Jackson recently returned from Mexico.

DROPPED BY THE L. & L. Store late yesterday to see the DeSoto. It's pretty, indeed, and he'd certainly like to have it. His showing will continue through Saturday of this week.

COMES A NOTE from SB and with regards to the flag flying at the First National Bank. If you'll read the regulations as set forth by the U. S. Flag Association you'll see that it is right and patriotic to fly the nation's banner day or night. The army and the navy and certain government agencies fly their flags from morning to night to designate the opening and closing of the work day. And that's what the book says.

COMES OUR COPY of the Budget News and it's full of data about the annual basketball tournament for the juniors at the gym this week. The second night of the tourney takes place tonight. The semi-finals will be held Friday and Saturday afternoon with the finals Saturday night. February 29th is the date for the annual coronation of King Lobo and plans are being made for a big event. . . . free students checked out last week — Virginia Owens and George and Roy Lee Page. . . . ten new students checked in: Eaker, from Seagraves; Wald Williams, Abilene; Betty Ward, Jal, New Mexico; Yvonne Crane; Darlene Archer, Abilene, and Robert Beal, New York City.

THE DEMOLAYS and the Rainbow Girls will elect a Queen and a King at their Valentine Party and Dance at the Country Club tonight. Understand the Demolays will elect the Rainbow Queen, and the Rainbow girls will elect the DeMolay king.

Remember that the Demolays plan to canvass the city Saturday to get scrap iron. They'll sell scrap iron to obtain funds to use for their work.

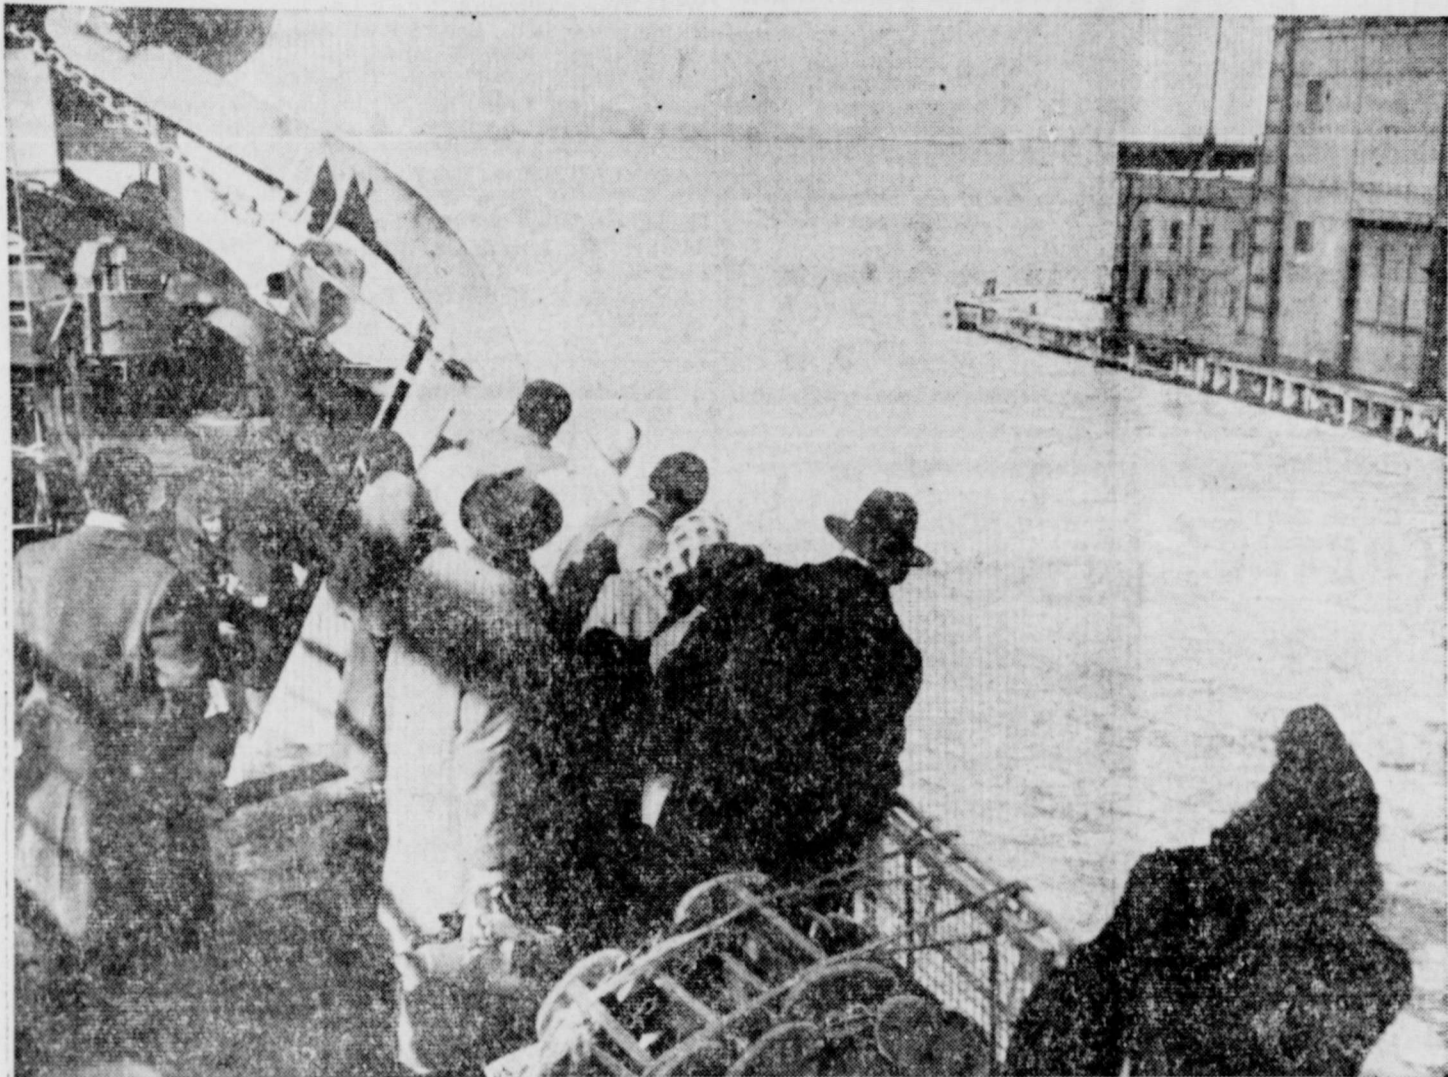

FRIDAY NIGHT is family night at the Cisco Country Club. Jack Anderson of the entertainment committee tells us members are invited to bring whole family and a covered dish for supper. It starts at 7:30 o'clock. A game hour will follow.

LED TO DENTON

Most Farm Areas Still Need Rain For Spring Crops

Cover crops, small grains, clovers and winter grass in eastern and upper Coastal counties were responding to improved moisture conditions and mild temperatures this week. Preparation of soil for spring planting in some localities was delayed early in the week because of wet fields.

Droughty conditions continued in all other areas. In the northwest, wheat continued to hold up and in some central High Plains counties was making fair development. Cutworm damage was increasing in the Low Rolling Plains. Growth of flax in the winter area of south Texas was virtually at a standstill because of inadequate moisture supplies.

Conditions continued favorable for active harvest of all types of winter growing vegetables.

Cattle and calves in the eastern part of the State were improving as green feed in that area became more plentiful. Droughty conditions continued to hold back development of new feed in all other areas, and widespread supplemental feeding was still necessary. Wheat continued to supply fair feed in the northwest, but rain was needed to maintain development.

DeMolays and Rainbow Girls Have Party

A Valentine Party and Dance will be held at the Cisco Country Club tonight for members of the Order of DeMolay and the Rainbow Girls. Members of both organizations may bring guests. Members of the advisory boards of the two organizations have been invited to be guests.

C. P. Cole is visiting his brother in Dallas for a few days.

DATE FOR ANNUAL TOURNAMENT SET FOR JUNE BY COUNTRY CLUB

The dates for the annual Cisco Invitational Golf Tournament were set for June 19, 20 and 21 at a meeting of the Cisco Country Club's board of directors this week. President Charles L. Cofer reported today.

Norman Huston, Ralph Glenn and Gene Damron were named as the general tournament committee. Mr. Cofer said. The various committees to handle details of the tournament will be named at a later date.

The annual tournament usually attracts more than 100 area golfers, including some of the state's best known players.

Mr. Cofer said the annual city tournament will be held in March. Qualifying and playing dates will be set in the near future. Jackie Milner of Cisco is defending champion for both the city and invitation tournaments.

Mr. Cofer said the golf course is in comparatively good condition for dry weather. The greens planted in bent grass several months ago, are doing nicely, he added.

Wranglers Play McMurry Tonight; Lose To Decatur

The Cisco Junior College basketball team planned to go to Abilene tonight for a game with the McMurry College Indian "B" team after losing to the Decatur Junior College Indians in Decatur by a 71-44 score Wednesday night.

In the game Wednesday night, the Wranglers were unable to take advantage of field goal opportunities and trailed throughout the four periods. Bobby John Huffmyer was heavily guarded during the contest and accounted for only 13 points, nine of which were free throws. The Wranglers made only 13 field goals during the contest. Robinson of Decatur won scoring honors with 18 points.

Scoring for Cisco was as follows: Huffmyer 13, Barnett 9, Gibson 6, Moses 6, Noles 5, Dawson 4 and Womack 1.

Another Producer In Prospect For South Cisco Pool

Another oil well for the south Cisco townsite pool was in prospect today after the Jack Hailey No. 1 Thelma Richardson had set pipe on top of the Lake sand in preparation for completion work to begin early next week.

Drilled to about 3,450 feet, tests showed that the well had gone two feet into the pay horizon when drilling was stopped and pipe cemented.

Completion work was in progress on the D. W. Henke No. 1 J. W. Brown Estate, five miles southwest of Cisco. This is a Caddo lime prospect. Swabbing operations were underway and oil was coming out in the work, it was reported.

Henke's nearby No. 2 J. W. Brown Estate was drilling at 2,300 feet. No show had been logged.

Owaby Drilling Company's No. 1 B. A. Brown was preparing to drill in after setting pipe in the Mississippi lime. This is an offset to the company's discovery well for that area. Grover Hart Jr. was rigging up to drill his No. 1 J. W. Brown Estate in the same general area.

Five miles northeast of Cisco, the Bankline Oil Company No. 1 Ralph Kendall has been plugged and abandoned as a dry hole. Location was in the south half of Section 75, Block 4, H&TC Survey.

In the Bankline-Owens pool, Fleishman and Ginsberg's No. 1 Wesley Methodist Church has set pipe. A drill stem test showed gas to the surface and oil flowed. The well has a 16-foot section of Lake sand, it was reported.

West of Cisco, the Star Oil Company's No. 1 Turner was drilling in Ellenberger lime at about 4,300 feet late Wednesday. A slight show was reported in the upper Ellenberger.

Air Force Opens Drive For Pilots

Thousands of additional young men are eligible to apply for Air Force flying training as a result of the AF decision to eliminate the 18 month service requirement for men with high school diplomas.

In announcing this new rule change, T-Sgt James Hendrick of the Eastland Recruiting Station explained that ten thousand pilots and observer applicants are needed immediately. Even an airman in basic training may apply. Age requirements remain at 20-26½ years.

After initial appointment the cadet will enter into a 12-month training schedule for pilot training or a 6-12 month schedule for observer training, depending on his future crew position. Upon graduation he will be commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the AF Reserve and enter on active duty as a flying officer in the USAF.

This is the opportunity that many young men have been waiting for and Sgt. Hendrick urges those who can meet the qualifications and are interested to contact him at once.

The Eastland Recruiting Station is located at 311 West Main Street in Eastland and Sgt. Hendrick will be in Cisco each Wednesday at the post office from 10 A. M. to 12 Noon to interview applicants or pass on information.

Guard Against Whooping Cough Dr. Cox Advises

AUSTIN, Feb. 14. — Inasmuch as the incidence of whooping cough in Texas is expected to show an increase during the coming months, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, released a statement today urging that strenuous efforts be made to control the spread of this debilitating childhood disease. There were 1273 cases reported during the first five weeks of this year.

"Whooping cough can only be contracted by direct exposure to the disease, and isolation of cases must be universally practiced if the incidence is to be controlled," Dr. Cox stated.

"The infectious agent or germ of whooping cough is transmitted by droplets expelled in coughing, sneezing, or speaking," Dr. Cox said. "The discharges from the nose and throat are dangerous to susceptible persons; the need for early recognition and careful isolation of whooping cough is obvious. Your family physician should be called at the first sign."

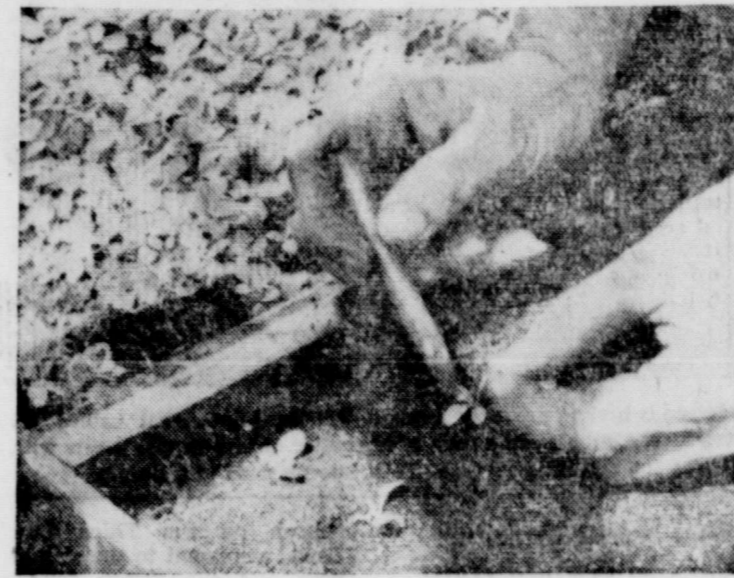

"The first symptom of this disease is usually a dry cough, which persists day and night and tends to become increasingly severe. The disease is fully developed when vomiting of food and whooping accompany the paroxysm of cough. Dr. Cox stressed the fact that children who have whooping cough should not attend school or come in contact with other children until three weeks after the appearance of typical signs of the disease.

"Prevention and control of whooping cough, especially among infants and small children, may be accomplished through use of approved vaccine and convalescent serum," Dr. Cox asserted, "and it is important that such measures be taken to protect them. Neglecting to do so, and allowing the young child to suffer an attack of this disease, may seriously impair his future health."

Arizona is known as the Valentine state.

First Flower Seed to Sow Is Petunia in a Seed Box

Transplanting Tiny Plants Goes Fast.

A flower which should be started in a seed box under protection is the petunia. Though one of the most vigorous of garden flowers, with amazing productiveness, its seed are so tiny that great care is required to bring a seedling plant safely through its infancy.

Florists have developed a method by which practically all seed can be grown into plants; and while this requires a greenhouse for best results, it can be used with much success in a sunny window of your home. The same method can be applied to other plants, where it is important that a maximum number of seeds be grown into plants, without loss due to thinning out crowded plants.

Begin by sowing a packet of seeds in a flat. If only one variety is sown, the seed can be broadcast. If different varieties are sown in the same box, sow in drills, labeling each drill.

A critical time with the petunia is the 20 day interval between sowing and germination of the seed. During this period the soil must not be allowed to dry out, nor should it be so wet as to encourage the growth of moulds and fungi. By sowing the seed in a layer of sphagnum moss, placed on top the soil, danger of disease will be minimized. Germination requires a higher temperature than does the growth of plants. A range between 60 and 70 degrees is best, and no light is needed until the seeds break through the soil.

As soon as this occurs, the box should be placed near a sunny window, but never on top of a radiator. To make the plants grow sturdy, a night temperature of 50 to 55 degrees, with 10 degrees higher during the day, is best. The seedling plants will be close together, and to save them all it is necessary to transplant them to other flats, where they have room to develop.

Transplanting may be done when they are very tiny, and should be done as soon as they have made the second pair of leaves, known as "true" leaves. Enough flats to take them all must be provided, filled with porous soil. The best way is to use "plant bands," which are substitutes for flower pots, placing a seedling petunia in the center of each band. Another way is to draw lines 2 inches apart at right angles covering the surface of each flat, and to set a seedling plant at each intersection.

Transplanting an infant plant is a matter of seconds. Lift it, roots and all, between the finger and a pointed stick, place it in its new home and firm the soil about it. Each plant will now have room to develop to garden size without being moved again; but florists often transplant them again into pots, to make larger plants to sell.

Remember that each time a plant is moved, it receives a set-back; so it takes longer to grow petunias to garden size, if they are transplanted as described. So start operations early, if you want early flowers. Florists may sow petunia seed soon after New Year. The amateur should start petunias at least two weeks before other flowers, which are to be grown in the hotbed, cold-frame or house.

Tidelands Grab Called Threat To Basic Resources

ABILENE, Feb. 12.—Efforts of the federal government to acquire title to marginal tidelands are opening the door to eventual nationalization of all basic resources of the United States, it is declared in a statement of policy of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce just sent to members of the Texas congressional delegation.

The organization's policy on the tidelands issue is expressed in a resolution adopted at its annual convention in Amarillo last November.

The resolution re-affirmed the 5,000-member organization's position that "title to the marginal tidelands is rightfully and lawfully the property of the respective states" and that the Federal government has no right to such title. The resolution noted that the WTCC had on numerous occasions voiced its objection to "expropriation" of the tidelands "under the Supreme Court's new legal doctrine of 'paramount rights.'"

The organization is on record as "protesting the authority of the President of the United States, acting through his agent, the Secretary of the Interior, to expropriate the tidelands of the several states by executive order, since determination of the right of title to these tidelands is fully within the province of Congress of the United States to determine, and which cannot be done lawfully otherwise."

Verified-Origin Seed Tag Gives Buyer Protection

Verified-origin seed tag authorized by U. S. D. A.

For more than half a century the importance of the place where certain seeds are grown has been recognized. Tests at experiment stations and by farmers have demonstrated that strains of seed from some regions are better adapted for growing in those and other similar regions than strains produced elsewhere.

The technique of labeling seed of definite origins, so as to pass along this information and maintain the identity of such seed in the various channels of commerce, formed the basis for the Seed Verification Service, which is now in its 25th year.

Many factors of quality or value in seeds are indicated by differences in appearance or other physical characteristics, that are evident on examination of the seed. Others such as germination or disease may be determined by a few days' test. But locality of production in most cases cannot be determined by any known test. The presence of certain weed seeds or other foreign seed may give an indication of general origin, but will seldom indicate the specific locality of production.

The Seed Verification Service informs the buyer concerning the origin of any lot of alfalfa or red clover seed that is accompanied by a verified origin seed tag. Processor, dealer, and farmer-consumer can buy seed with the assurance that the verified-origin seed tag has been verified by means of records, and otherwise, through all the channels that it has passed since it left the grower. This is the best protection the buyer can have as to the accuracy of the origin of alfalfa and red clover seed.

Sixty-two million pounds of alfalfa seed were verified as to origin from the record crop of 1949, and nearly 45 million from the 1950 crop. More than 100 seed dealers and processors are voluntarily enrolled in this service. Their records are subject to complete inspection one or more times each year.

The only document which reaches the consumer is the verified-origin seed tag. Other documents such as growers' and country shippers' declarations of origin, and the original inspection certificate on which the verified-origin seed tag is based, pass only between the dealer and the inspection office. Consumers buying commercial alfalfa or red clover seed can obtain the greatest assurance possible by insisting that it bear the U. S. verified-origin seed tag. It is their protection against fraudulent misrepresentation of origin.

In recent years several new and improved varieties of alfalfa and red clover have become available commercially. Since these have a known heredity, and are not susceptible to major changes in adaptation during one or two generations of growth in another climate, perhaps not so well adapted, it is not so necessary to know the origin of production of such varieties. Adequate protection with them is provided by the purchase of certified seed.

Increase Noted in Violations of State Game Laws

AUSTIN, Feb. 8. — The Director of Law Enforcement for the Game & Fish Commission reports that the January arrest record shows "a substantial decrease" from January, 1951. He added that the monthly report on violations for the last three months, covering most of the major 1951 hunting season, reflects a lower number of prosecutions. The Director of Law Enforcement deduced that "this apparently indicates a better attitude of the general public and a healthier sportsmanship all the way around." He went on: "It seems significant that there has been a decline in arrests in the face of increased law enforcement facilities." The Director referred to a slightly larger game warden force and improved policing aids such as two-way radios in many wardens' cars. Here is the record:

Cases	Total fines, costs.
Jan. 1951 623	$16,712.
Jan. 1952 463	13,030.
Dec. 1950 503	13,307.
Dec. 1951 462	14,008.
Nov. 1950 443	12,207.
Nov. 1951 332	10,055.

The Director of Law Enforcement observed that "there still is room for improvement." He based this comment on the list of cases which showed: Nineteen arrests for killing doe deer; eight for killing spike buck deer; four arrests for killing fawn deer; 36 arrests for hunting at night; five arrests for headlighting deer; 25 arrests for killing migratory waterfowl in closed season; 12 arrests for hunting ducks in closed season, 14 for killing ducks after legal hours; 10 arrests for killing geese after legal hours; eight arrests for killing quail in closed season; 14 arrests for exceeding bag limit on quail, and 11 arrests for using electrical devices to take fish.

Two women have been candidates for the presidency, Victoria Woodhull nominated in 1872, and Belva Lockwood in 1884 and 1888.

Marking Time in the March of Time —

... is somewhat like fishing without luck — there's no thrill to it. But there is real thrill in moving forward, serving humbly and doing some one thing well. We never heard of an abstractor getting rich as such, but we have heard of those who have spent a life-time as we have, building up title institutions that are assets to their communities. Yes, we get a thrill out of every order and a real joy in producing it into a quality product.
