The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

IT CAN HAPPEN only once every four years — Leap Year, that is. And we're wondering how many Cisco area people were born on Feb. 29 or how many were married on that date. Maybe we can work up some kind of party for the Leap Year people. Give us a call if you were born or married on Feb. 29.

THE MAIL BRINGS a circular offering to sell some material to promote a Leap Year Auction — a round up of the town's leading bachelors. The idea is to let the bachelors be sold at auction — all in fun. If anybody wants to promote this, we'll give them the circular.

SEE BY THE papers, where one man is going to observe George Washington's birthday with a cherry pie sale. Being a great admirer of good Cherry Pies, this appeals to us.

DROPPED OUT TO the Community Gym last evening to look on the basketball playoff. The Cisco Midgets won their game in fine way and looked very good. The Lobos held the lead for a long time, but finally got behind and couldn't catch up. Gatekeeper Paul Farrow told us it was the biggest cash crowd of the season. The Lobo Band was out and sounded very good. Supt. Bill Birt was there and reported that the new electric sign is just about paid for. Referee Dick Swallow of Abilene is a former pro football player and is one of the area's top amateur golfers. Basketball referees are paid $1 and mileage this year.

MR. FRANK COATS, mail carrier out Route 1 way, tells us he has forgotten what it would be like to drive in the mud. He can't remember when he had to fight the mud to deliver the mail out that way. Mr. Coats is an amateur airplane pilot with some 300 hours in the air.

IF YOUNG MR. Buddy Deen keeps up the work, he's going to be one of this area's top high school golf team members. He shot a 37 for nine holes yesterday. He is one under par through the first five holes. He'll also be a standout when the city and invitation tournaments are played here long.

MR. J. V. HEYSER, Jr., tells that he stopped by the hospital to visit Weatherford the other night. He visited Mr. Pete Rumley, who was seriously injured in an auto mishap near there last week. Pete was progressing and was able to talk with J. V.

HOW OFTEN HAVE you heard people say: "I don't believe I'll ever vote. One vote wouldn't make any difference anyhow." Well, read this clipping from the Texas Architect that Mayor essential handed us:

"What good will one vote do? It has done a lot of things that we vitally changed the history of the United States of America. Thomas Jefferson was elected president by one vote in the electoral college. "So was John Quincy Adams. Andrew B. Hayes elected president by one vote, and it was retained to an electoral commission. Main he won by a single vote. The man who cast the deciding vote for President Hayes was a congressman who was elected to congress by one vote. And that the vote was cast by a client of mine who though desperately ill insisted on being taken to the polls to vote. "Just one vote gave statehood to California, Idaho, Oregon, Texas, and Washington. The Draft Act of World War II passed the house by just one vote." So, you see, you never know what your vote will do.

IF WE EVER get a chance, we're going to vote for a law that will require circuses to take down their signs the day after the circus. Don't you think that would be a good law?

The Comanche Indians, co-champions of District 10-AA with the Cisco Lobos at the end of the regular basketball season, won the first game of the play-off series at the community gym Tuesday night 48-39.

Dublin Pioneer Buried Saturday

Mrs. M. C. (Aunt Babe) Keith, 97, pioneer resident of Dublin, was buried last Saturday in the old Dublin cemetery. Final rites were held at the First Baptist Church in Dublin.

Mrs. Ora Strausel of Cisco, a great niece of Mrs. Keith, attended the funeral services. Mrs. Keith died Feb. 14 in Abilene at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Harber, where she had lived since 1948.

Mrs. Keith's grandfather settled in the Dublin area prior to 1870. She rode into Dublin as a bride 82 years ago. Mrs. Strausel said that Mrs. Keith kept her keen wits and consciousness to the end. She told a doctor, who had just given her an injection of drugs, that "you can't hurt me. I'm tough, why I helped run the Indians out of Dublin and I am still getting paid for it."

A WICKER OCCASION—Baskets of all descriptions surround the statue of St. Paul, patron saint of the basket-makers, in a little church in Origny-en-Thierache, Northern France. ## AGRICULTURE OFFICIALS TO VISIT

Congressman Burleson reminded Agriculture officials that the acreage in Texas is to be cut another 10 per cent this year, and that excess acreage for oil is to be cancelled.

UNDER THESE CONDITIONS, PLUS

"Under these conditions, plus a deduction of 20 dollars or more per ton, coming after a crop failure in 1951, the peanut farmer in my area is going to be in serious circumstances, and I want to do everything I possibly can to help him. In addition, I do not want to see his independence destroyed, but I fear that is what the proposals now made by the Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration will do."

AGRICULTURE OFFICIALS THAT

"The Government tells the farmer how much he can plant, where he must sell, how much he can be paid, what he must pay to sell his produce. After that, another part of the Government tells him how much he can keep for he must pay a few high taxes also," Burleson said to the group meeting in Washington. "I do not think the farmer in my area is going to be very happy under these conditions if they are imposed upon him as now suggested by the PMA."

AGRICULTURE OFFICIALS THAT

"If the farmer is required to play all his peanuts in the loan program and he is docked 20 dollars or more per ton as a service charge, he is not receiving 90 per cent of parity, which the law provides and which he has been promised," said Congressman Burleson.

One of the smallest of the states may play a dominant role in deciding the big question of who is to be the Republican standard bearer. The state, of course, is New Hampshire, where the names of both Senator Taft and General Eisenhower will appear on the preferential primary ballot.

Whether the New Hampshire vote will be an accurate measuring of any candidate's standing in the nation at large can and will be argued—with the backers of the loser, naturally, taking one side and the backers of the winner taking the opposite. But it will provide something that is purely in the realm of speculation right now—a formal verdict of many thousands of voters as to the respective merits of the General and the Senator.

Senator Taft will undoubtedly stump the state thoroughly. That's what he did in the last Ohio senatorial race, with enormous success, especially in the industrial areas where he was supposed to be weak.

HIGH WINDS DAMAGE SOILS IN SEVERAL WEST TEXAS SECTIONS

FORT WORTH, Feb. 18. — Recent high winds sharply expanded western Texas areas undergoing moderate to severe wind erosion damage, the Soil Conservation Service reported today following its periodic survey of land cover and wind erosion conditions.

Hardest-hit single area reportedly was in the vicinity of Big Spring where battering westerly and northwesterly winds on February 2 and 3 reached 58 miles an hour and scooped out great quantities of dry, loosened soil.

Regional Director Louis P. Merrill of the SCS places the new total in acreages which have been damaged to a moderate or severe extent this blow at 901,000 acres. Oklahoma acreages undergoing moderate or severe damage have totaled 154,000 acres.

The reports of SCS District Conservationist W. S. Goodlett of Big Spring, Jesse Jenkins of Labasa and Z. C. Dameron of Pecos to Merrill said residents of those areas described the blowing as the "worst since 1934." Dry, unprotected fields in the Big Spring area blew down to plow depth in many areas.

Goodlett said the storm added 155,000 acres to the areas in the Big Spring vicinity which have suffered moderate to severe wind damage. Martin County to the west of Big Spring bore the brunt of the blow damage. Only two inches of rain have fallen in that area since September, Goodlett reported.

Approximately 400,000 acres in the Big Spring area are now without enough plant or residue cover to prevent wind damage, Goodlett said.

Other areas reporting increased damage from the recent storms include Lamesa, with 265,000 acres of moderate to severe wind damage; Castro and nearby counties to the north and west, 35,000 acres; and Pampa, 8,500 acres.

At Guymon, Oklahoma, SCS District Conservationist John F. Bailey reported 150,000 acres in the moderate to severe damage category, a gain of 25,000 acres in the last two weeks.

Merrill estimates the amount of emergency tillage done by Texas farmers alone as an erosion preventative measure as approximately 2,000,000 acres. This practice, he explained, halts soil movement by winds for a time, but it is only an emergency measure at best and can not be depended on to last through a blow season.

Schools Of State Face Big Problem In Record Growth

AUSTIN, Feb. 19. — Texas schools are facing one of the most critical periods in their history, Charles H. Tennyson, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, said today as he outlined pressing needs for new buildings and more teachers over the entire state.

The school population, particularly on the elementary level, is growing at an alarming rate, he pointed out. For example, births in Texas in 1945 — this year's first graders — numbered 156,000. In 1947, births in the Lone Star State jumped to 197,000, an increase of 65,000. If this additional group could be divided into classes of 30 children each, Texas would still need 2100 additional teachers and classrooms in just the first and second grades.

And the birthrate continues to climb. In 1950, live births numbered 203,678, and the number for 1951 will exceed that figure.

In addition to the birthrate, educators worry about the size of the graduating class as compared to the number of children entering first grade. For instance, this year 156,000 youngsters crowded into first grade rooms over the state, but only 90,000 graduated from the eighth grade. This left already over-burdened teachers with 66,000 additional children to accommodate in one year.

"The gain is going to continue to increase until at least 1956-57 school year," Tennyson added. "By that time, the elementary schools must take care of 300,000 children in addition to the notes now enrolled. If 75 per cent of this number enters public schools, it will mean 8,654 additional classrooms."

The average cost of each classroom and related facilities now exceeds $23,000. Thus Texas must spend $242,312,000 for buildings and facilities alone if the children are to have desirable schools.

And this does not take into consideration the need for new facilities to replace undesirable buildings and to relieve already overcrowded conditions. A recent survey made by the Texas Education Agency shows that Texas needs to spend $540,294,500 to bring school buildings, facilities, sites and busses up to ideal conditions.

After the 1956-57 school year, the elementary enrollment over the state should begin to level off, but high schools will then face the problems of increased enrollment.

Texas does not face the educational problem alone. A nose count among elementary children over the entire nation showed that grade school population rose nearly three million from 1947 to 1950. In October 1950, the U. S. Census Bureau reported that enrollment in all schools and colleges was at an all time high of slightly over 30 million persons. This represents a fifth of the nation's total population and half of the population between 5 and 29 years of age.

AT THE DOG SHOW

AMONG THOSE PRESENT—Guests at the 76th annual dog show of the Westminster Kennel Club in Madison Square Garden were numerous and varied. Ch. Thomane's Lola, a wire-haired dachshund, top left, owned by Stanley F. Todd, Reading, Pa., was judged best hound. Ch. Rancho Dobe's Storn, a Doberman pinscher, lower left, was selected as best of his

Safety Campaign Urged For Texas Women's Clubs

WORTHAM, Feb. 16.—Because Texas traffic deaths jumped 5% in 1951 over 1950, clubwomen are being urged to join a campaign to make every Texan safety conscious.

"The need is as close to us as the nearest car," Mrs. Van Hook Stubbs of Wortham stressed to the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, throwing her support as president behind the campaign.

The appeal comes on the eve of a mass safety meeting scheduled for Houston, February 15. There at the Music Hall Friday morning a "Woman's Crusade on Safety" will fire its opening gun. The TFWC joins the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety, the Automotive Safety Foundation, and others to launch this crusade. It follows adoption of safety by Texas clubwomen as a major project.

Mrs. Jud Collier of Mumford, the TFWC's energetic safety chairman, has invited every group on the Gulf Coast to swell the crusade's ranks in war against public indifference to highway dangers.

Launching this crusade is the latest development in a 6,000 mile odyssey she has made across Texas, helping hold traffic safety workshops. From Alpine to Tyler, Abilene to McAllen, Mrs. Collier has labored to mobilize public support of official local action toward reduction of traffic accidents.

Underlining the drive's urgency was the death of 2,502 citizens from motor vehicle accidents in Texas alone last year.

Forming a safety council in every town is a major means the TFWC safety head urges to focus public attention on this problem.

The national Carol Lane Safety contest, announced in January by Shell Oil Company, will also award a $1,000 bond for outstanding contribution to preservation of lives through traffic safety.
