The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

PRESIDENT O. L. Stamey of the Junior College made a fine speech Wednesday at the Lions Club luncheon. He used five nouns and eight adjectives, as follows: Character, Initiative, Sanity, Cooperation, Order, Modern, Ambition, Naive, Public-spirited, Optimistic, Work, Enlightenment, Reverence.

NOW LOOK AT the first letter of each word and read down, and you will have the subject of the talk — Cisco Manpower. It was the first event of the Chamber of Commerce's Community Clinic week. Elsewhere in today's edition there's a story about the talk.

BREAKFAST FOOD company salesman was in our office yesterday and reported they're ready to send out the boxes of breakfast foods with the Ingersoll drawings by Mr. Randy Coffey. You send in a box top and get all 18 of the cards. He says we've a set of them. The original drawings are still on display at the First National Bank.

IT'S SPRING! And it has been here 10:14 a. m. today. This all means that the nights and the days are of equal length, and the days will slowly begin being longer than the nights. Let's hope that the new spring will be a good one — that the dust storms and rain storms. See a few lawns already mowing grass, and that is a pretty good sign of spring.

BACK HOME AFTER being in hospital at Mineral Wells is W. W. Wallace. He is recovering from a virus infection. Was asking a doctor yesterday about the community's health, and he reports that the virus antibodies are clearing up and that there has been a good many more reports around the past few days.

DRILLING REPORT: The Charles S. Sandler No. 1 Charles Sandler, a deep water test at place on 9th street, was drilled to about 100 feet yesterday, encountered several feet of sand at 82 feet — about an hour. The best water here comes from around 100 feet, we're told.

YOU CAN NOW cast absentee ballots for the April 1 city election. City Secretary Hal Lavery says. So far, three people have filed their ballots on account they don't expect to be in on election day. . . . March is the deadline for candidates to enter the school trustee election. . . . And May 5 is the deadline to file for county, district and state offices. . . . The precinct convention comes off on May 3 at the county convention on May 5.

THE LEGION BOYS tell us they're going to pick up the red shirts on the store counters and town in the next few days. You haven't made a contribution to the annual Heart campaign, drop your coins in one of the little containers. These funds are used to do research work in heart diseases — the No. 1 killer.

IT'S ALL BUY a ticket and get out to the college auditorium Friday night to hear the CJC choir. It will be a fine concert if you want to applaud the work of these splendid youngsters.

Nazarene Revival Meeting Started

The Rev. Jack Bierce opened a series of gospel meetings at the Church of the Nazarene, 7th at Ave. F., Wednesday night. Rev. D. M. Duke, local minister, announced that the meeting will continue through March with services each week day at 8:30 p. m. and services on Sunday at the regular times. Special music will be one of the features of each service and public was invited to attend or all services.

IMPORTANCE OF CofC IN CITY IS SUBJECT OF TALK AT LIONS CLUB

The importance of a strong Chamber of Commerce, supported actively by the entire citizenship was stressed Wednesday in a talk by President O. L. Stamey of Cisco Junior College at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Lions Club at the Victor Hotel Dining Room. Lion Bill Mitcham was in charge of the program.

James S. Duff Is Nominated To Be Lions President

James S. Duff, manager of the Lone Star Gas Company office here, was nominated Wednesday to be president of the Cisco Lions Club for 1952-53 as the nominating committee submitted its report at the weekly luncheon meeting.

Mr. Duff has served as vice-president during the past year. Others nominated for offices included Gene Abbott, vice-president; George Davis, vice-president; E. G. Damron, secretary; Bob Ellison, assistant secretary; J. T. Eggan, treasurer; Scot Russell, tail-twister; Owen King, assistant tail-twister; D. N. Morrison, lion tamer; Rev. Sidney Spain, song leader; Truman Taylor and Dr. C. M. Cleveland, directors.

School Board Passes Resolution To Give Teachers Retirement Benefits

A resolution whereby teachers in the local schools and the junior college may participate in the Texas Teacher Retirement plan was passed on the second and final reading at the regular monthly meeting of the school board recently. The first reading of the resolution was at the meeting of the board on February 11.

The resolution as passed was as follows: "Be it resolved that retirement age shall be set at 60 years for teachers in the Cisco Public Schools and at 65 years for teachers in Cisco Junior College — and that in any emergency any teacher may be kept on a yearly basis. "This resolution will take effect beginning with the school year 1953-54." It was pointed out that the effective date was set at the beginning of the 1953 school year to allow ample time to study all the phases of the plan and to make preparations for replacement and applications. School officials estimated that some four teachers would be effected by the ruling, on the effective date, in the public schools. College officials reported that

Moran News . . . Final Rites For Moran Resident Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. George W. Elliott, 84, a resident of the Moran vicinity for the past 40 years, were conducted at 3 p. m. Wednesday at the Moran Baptist Church. Mrs. Elliott died at 12:25 a. m. Tuesday at her home in Moran.

Rites were conducted by the Rev. Robert W. Brown, pastor, followed by burial in the Moran cemetery. A program on kitchens was presented at the regular meeting of the Moran Study Club Tuesday, March 11, at the home of Mrs. B. A. Elliott.

The home was decorated with arrangements of spring flowers. The tea table was laid with a linen cut work cloth and centered with an arrangement of spring flowers in a crystal container. "Cisco's future will be definitely assured if, through the community clinic, we can put 'Cisco Manpower' to work," Mr. Stamey said.

Lion James S. Duff passed out cards on which members of the club were asked to offer suggestions for the 1952 work program. The cards will be used next week at a series of committee meetings in which the city's needs and opportunities will be studied. Luncheon visitors included Ralph Duncan of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce staff, Abilene; A. Z. Myrick, Cisco, and Jimmie Long, superintendent of the Associated Pipe Line Construction Company, which is building a Gulf Oil Company line through Cisco.

12 Cities Given Awards For Work By Health Agency

AUSTIN, March 20. — Twelve Texas cities have won awards from the Texas State Department of Health, and twenty-three others have been recognized for maintaining municipal water supplies which conform to State Health Department standards.

The awards — loving cups and plaques — are presented every year by State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox to cities making outstanding progress in water and sewage treatment plant operation. Named to the 1951 Honor Roll were: Jefferson County Water Control and Improvement District at Groves for having the highest percentage of its population connected to the public water system.

Marshall for having the best plant for control. The Marshall plant daily perform bacteriological and chemical analyses of its water.

Fredericksburg, for having the highest percentage of its population connected to the sanitary system. No outdoor toilets exist in Fredericksburg.

Del Rio for having the highest ratio of sewer connections completed last year. Del Rio made 450 connections in 1951.

Burnet was designated as making the most advantageous use of its sewage effluent for irrigation.

San Angelo was selected for making the best use of its sewage sludge.

San Antonio was designated as maintaining the best sewage plant laboratory. Modern facilities are available at this plant, Dr. Cox said, and competent personnel are in charge.

Crockett County Water Control District at Ozona was a loving cup for keeping the most attractive water plant, and Baird won a cup for making the most improvement to its water system.

Loving cups were also presented to Bandera for having the most attractive sewage plant; Mason for making the best quality sewage effluent; and to Longview for making the greatest improvement to its sewage plant.

Cities which won Departmental approval for their water systems are: Alice, Arlington, Arp, Bellaire, Conroe, Corrigan, Corsicana, Donna, Graham, Hico, LaGrange, Lamesa, Lampasas, Liberty, Lindale, Mont Belvieu, Rosenberg, Schertz, Schulenberg, Smithville, Taylor, and Troup.

CJC Group Attends Service At Woodson

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Woodson for Mrs. J. A. Atkins, grandmother of Charles Atkins, student at Cisco Junior College. Mrs. Atkins died Monday evening of a heart attack while going to a storm cellar. Friends attended from Cisco Junior College were Bob Cook, Jim Cook, L. A. Noles, David Robertson, and Patsy King.

12 Cities Given Awards For Work By Health Agency

The Cisco Livestock Exchange announced today that it would be ready to begin weekly auction sales of livestock at the barn on the Rising Star Highway on Monday, March 24. W. C. Cravy, veteran Breckenridge sales barn operator, is the owner and manager of the exchange.

It was also announced today that a committee of Cisco business leaders will make a drive Monday to raise $1,500 as a contribution toward making the weekly sales possible for this area. That sum represents a contribution toward buying the property.

A. Z. Myrick, veteran Cisco civic leader, will head a group of business men who will canvass the city Monday to seek funds for the project. He spoke Wednesday at the Cisco Lions Club meeting to urge cooperation, noting that "this is our contribution toward making the weekly sale available to the farmers and ranchers of the Cisco area."

Mr. Cravy was brought to Cisco and interested in the auction barn by a Merchant's Credit Association committee headed by Standlee McCracken, local grocer.

"We are undertaking nothing new in making a contribution to the project," Mr. Myrick said. "A neighboring city recently made a considerably larger donation to a similar project. Mr. Cravy comes to us as a good man who knows the livestock business and he has agreed to run the barn for at least a year. Our contribution is being made because we believe that our people want a weekly auction sale and we want to help them obtain it."

Mr. Cravy reported that he has spent considerable money during the past few days getting the barn, which he bought from E. E. Wood, in shape for the opening sale. The arena, the pens and the scales have been put in top condition and everything will be ready for a large sale Monday, beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Mr. Cravy has had many years experience in operating livestock sales in Breckenridge and other points and has employed experienced personnel to aid him in the sales. Joe Coats of Cisco will be the auctioneer and experienced clerks and stock handlers will be on hand at each weekly sale.

Mr. Cravy reported that the scales had undergone a thorough cleaning and repair, and that they had been checked and approved by a government inspector. Regular inspections will assure both buyers and sellers of an accurate weight.

In stating the policy of the company, Mr. Cravy assured all that the sale would be operated honestly and efficiently. Commission on sales and pen charges will be posted at the barn at all times and the cost to the seller will be competitive, he reported.

The reopening of the barn was worked out at a meeting of interested persons with a committee from the Credit Association on March 9. Mr. Cravy met with the group and aided in making the final plans.

THE RIGHT TO WORK

Will the time come when the U. S. government will require a worker to belong to a union to hold his job? The Chamber of Commerce of the United States sees that threat in the steel and aircraft union demands now before the Wage Stabilization Board.

"If government," says the Chamber, "tells a worker that he must belong to a union to work, it could tell him that he must renounce unions if he wants to hold a job. Under the same principle, it could require him to belong to a specific political party as a condition of work."

"If the Board finds in favor of the unions and grants their demands, hundreds of thousands of workers would be affected."

The decision on a union shop in the steel and aircraft industries lies with a small group of six men — the public members of the Wage Board.

"Congress," says the Chamber, "would not presume to legislate on so important an issue without months of hearings and debates. Yet, this little administrative body will be taking the protection away. "Thus a liberty could be taken away from a large group almost overnight by a small group of un-elected members of the Board. Many of our liberties have come after long struggles. The right to work which is a liberty we have always taken for granted may be taken away any day by a mere handful of men."

Humble President, announced that the Company plans to spend this year $245 million for drilling wells and other facilities, including the cost of dry holes. Since the Company has already spent $872 million for similar purposes during the past six years, the plans for 1952 will raise total expenditures to more than a billion dollars about the middle of this year. The program projected for 1952 is substantially larger than in 1951.

Last year the Company spent $188 million on new facilities, including $29 million in dry holes. These expenditures exceeded those of the previous record year, 1948.

Humble's large investments have been part of the $13 billion capital expenditures made by the petroleum industry during six postwar years. These industry investments were necessary to meet the increasing demands for petroleum products. Total demands in 1952 will exceed those of 1949 by 25 per cent, and will be more than double the amount required by the American people in 1940. The oil industry is currently supplying about two gallons of oil products each day for every man, woman, and child in the nation.

These enormous investments by the oil industry provide the additional oil wells, the new pipe lines, the added refining capacity, and distribution facilities to make available the oil for normal requirements and to provide for national security.

Dr. Pepper Gives Flower Seed With 6-Bottle Cartons

Your favorite Dr. Pepper dealer who handles 6-bottle cary-home cartons has one or more unusually colorful display of Dr. Pepper. The color comes from something special that has been added to these displays this month. It is four different varieties of flower seeds that regularly retail for 15c. They are a product of the famous Vaughan Seed Company and the seeds include zinnias, asters, petunias, and marigolds.

These popular seeds attached to the center bottle of the 6-bottle carton mean that the customer has nothing to do but pick up the carton of Dr. Pepper and by buying four, can have one of each of four different kinds of seeds at no additional cost.

In selecting this premium, timed for the month of March, Dr. Pepper Company was impressed by the fact that as much as $650,000,000.00 per year is spent by consumers in the United States for flower and garden seeds.

Although similar offers have been made by other products, this requires no mailing in nor "box tops" that have to be collected. Garden Club members have al-

What does indictment by a grand jury mean? Lawyers find that many persons are inclined to refuse indictment by a grand jury with a court conviction for crime.

This misconception is unfair to those who become the subject of a grand jury investigation. Justice, in the United States, is based on the theory that a man is innocent until proven guilty. A public opinion should withhold its verdict until the courts have had an opportunity to determine guilt or innocence.

An indictment is simply a written accusation presented by a grand jury to the district judge. It charges some person or persons with a crime. It is NOT a conviction. When a grand jury finds that there is sufficient reason for him or her to stand trial, it is as far as the grand jury goes.

After that, the judge and the grand jury take charge of the case. At the trial the indictment simply the State's pleading in a case, to which the defendant pleads "Not Guilty." The grand jury is instructed by the judge that it must not consider an indictment as any evidence of guilt.

All felony offenses in Texas, and all offenses punishable by imprisonment in the State penitentiary, must be prosecuted on an indictment by a grand jury. A grand jury may indict an individual for a misdemeanor, an offense punishable only by a jail sentence or by fine, but this is rather an unusual procedure.

Misdemeanor cases are customarily prosecuted on the basis of an "information" filed by the County Attorney. This serves the same function as a grand jury indictment.

The importance of a grand jury verdict is this: If it votes a "True Bill" — that is, if someone is indicted — the District Attorney must prosecute the person indicted; but if the jury votes a "No Bill" — that is, not to indict — the suspected person cannot be tried.

In most cases, the District Attorney informs the grand jury of persons or crimes to be investigated and produces the evidence for it. However, the jury is free to order any further witnesses it may wish to hear brought before it, and is by no means limited to the evidence the District Attorney produces.

A grand jury cannot require a suspect to testify before it. But suspected persons sometimes ask to be allowed to appear before a grand jury to testify in their own behalf. They may do so and still be prosecuted and convicted.

The grand jury procedure is one of the basic protections enjoyed by the common man against outrageous procedures of would-be tyrants, and dates from early Anglo-Saxon times. It assures that no person shall be forced to stand trial for a felony on the basis of a malicious or frivolous accusation having no apparent factual support.

When called to serve on a grand jury you share with a group of fellow citizens some of the most

Public Speaking Awards Program Planned In State

The 4-H Public Speaking awards program is being continued in Texas in 1952 for the third consecutive year. The State Club office has announced. Thousands of 4-H Club boys and girls, realizing that speaking in public goes hand in hand with every type of 4-H project or activity, have taken advantage of the training offered through this program. As incentives for outstanding records in public speaking in this and 27 other states, gold-filled medals are awarded to the top rating boy and girl in each participating county. The state winning girl receives a beautiful set of silverware, and the outstanding boy gets a 17-jewel wrist watch. Awards are provided by the Pure Oil Co., which this year also offers two college scholarships of $300 each, and two educational trips to the 31st National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November for national winners. All states are eligible to submit candidates for these two national awards. This program is conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.
