ACCORDING TO the papers, Stan's Mr. Stanley Williams, the professional football star, can now stay and stay close to home. Stan's services have been transferred to the Dallas pro team of the Cleveland team.

Stan is reported to have told interviewers that he might be interested in playing pro football with Dallas. He had previously decided on a business opportunity in Waco, and the new deal might enable him to accept the Waco offer as well as play football.

THE FAMOUS Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy band, which is coming here on Friday, May 2, for the 11 a. m. Ranch Day parade, plans to play a concert in downtown Cisco before the parade, we're told. You won't want to miss the concert or the parade on Ranch Day.

CISCO JUNIOR College will advertise its Ranch Day program Thursday when Hardin-Simmons University stages its pre-parade parade in Abilene. CJC will have a float in the parade, and students and officials were working on it this morning. It will be a dandy.

THIS IS TO compliment the Junior Rifle Club on its program to form a Junior Rifle Club. The organization will be formed Friday at 7:30 p. m. at a meeting at the American Legion hall. It will appeal to youngsters — boys and girls — between the ages of 10 and 18. And all area youngsters are welcome to join.

IF SOMEBODY knocks on your door and offers you a subscription to Holland's Magazine, you will be glad to know that the campaign is being sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary. Funds from the sale will be used to send a High School girl to Girls State in Austin next June, Mrs. R. Pollard tells us.

The school's Girls State delegate was named in assembly this morning. She is Miss Dorothy Mae. Alternate delegate is Miss Margaret Johnson. Miss Janet Ferguson, who went last year, will again this year as a counsellor for the big event.

Mrs. Pollard tells us that she will be in Dallas this weekend to meet with Mrs. Rex Pollard when the time comes from the West Coast. He is due to dock there this weekend from Korea and Japan. It is due for a discharge very soon.

MR. JACK E. McCannlies tells us that he and his dad, Mr. J. E. McCannlies, appreciate the fine sentiment accorded them by the people here during the time they were here and operated the Park Hotel out on West 8th Street. He says that they've completed sale of the property to Mr. and Mrs. R. Bibby of Colorado City, and the Bibbys took over early this week.

You'll find a story elsewhere in today's paper about the transaction. Jack says they haven't exactly completed their future plans.

MR. R. W. McCauley of the store tells us that his parking meter change bowl project is now a year old and it hasn't been a bad investment. People use the bowl of small change and people make their own change for parking meters.

During the year, Mack counted the money every night. During the period, it showed a gain on some days and a loss on others. The biggest gain was $1.06, and the biggest loss was $3.23. The losses outweighed the gains for the full year by a little over $7. And Mack figures that is not bad. He says the change checks out on the button.

THE PARKING meters, by the way, are bringing in about $180 a week to the city at this time. The meter at the city hall the other day while the week's take was being counted. A half dozen slugs were counted. Dimes won't work in the meters. If you want to park two cars, use two nickles.

READY FOR THE TAKE-OFF—Although they are not yet on the track of a fox, these horses, hounds and riders present an unusual street scene in Dundonald, Ayrshire, England. The redcoats, with their mounts and dogs, are making their way through the sunlit street on a perfect day for hunting during the Eglington Hunt meet.

Bibby Takes Over Park Motel; Will Improve Property

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bibby who recently purchased the Park Motel in West Cisco from Jack and Ed McCannlies moved here this week and took over operation of the courts.

Mr. Bibby is not new to Cisco. He attended high school here and was connected with his brother, O. D. Bibby, in the operation of a store here in the early 1920s. He left here in 1924 to accept a position in Cleburne with the J. C. Penney Company. Four years later he was made manager of the Penney Company store in Colorado City where he remained until he retired in July, 1951, after 27 years with the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bibby plan extensive beautification and remodeling of the courts which will be called the Flamingo Courts. The Flamingo theme will be carried out both on the inside and the outside of the units. A picture of the stately birds will hang on the office walls and shower curtains and other decorations will carry out the theme. Workmen were to begin soon on placing tile on the baths of the 10 units and the living quarters.

The park at the front of the cabins will be beautified and two colorful flamingos will be placed around a fish and lily pond which will be built. Other plans for the park call for the installation of play equipment for children and two sets of tables and chairs with huge umbrellas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bibby are enthusiastic over their move to Cisco and expressed a desire to become a part of the civic and church life of the community. They are members of the Methodist Church.

42 Students Play Piano Auditions

Forty-two pupils played in the second annual National Piano Guild Auditions held by Cisco Junior College Monday and Tuesday. Dr. Carl Berggren of the MacPhill School of Music was the judge.

Robert Clinton, the chairman of the auditions, stated that the auditions were a great success with the students and teachers benefiting from the ratings and criticisms of the judge.

Ida Ann Donaway, Pioneer Of Area, Called By Death

Mrs. Ida Ann Donaway, 92, a resident of the Dothan area for more than half a century, died at her home near Dothan at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday following an illness of some two and a half years. She was the widow of the late L. D. Donaway.

The couple came to the Cisco-Dothan area by emigrant train in 1891, shortly before the cyclone which practically wiped Cisco off the map. They came to the area from Falkville, Arkansas, where they were married on November 8, 1883. She was born on October 16, 1859, in Miami County, Ohio.

Funeral services were to be held at 4 p. m. Wednesday at the Cisco Church of Christ. A. F. Waller, local minister, and Cole Jackson, Moran minister, were to conduct the services. She had been a member of the Church of Christ for many years.

Burial was to be in the Dothan cemetery beside her husband. The arrangements were in the hands of Thomas Funeral Home.

Survivors are a daughter, Miss Pearl Donaway, a teacher in the Cisco public school system; two sons, Luther Donaway and Joe Donaway, both of Cisco; 13 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Her grandsons and great-grandsons were selected as pallbearers.

Miss Allene Wooten returned to Houston Monday after a few days visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wooten.

THOUSANDS OF HOMES GO UP IN SMOKE!

Every year thousands of homes go up in smoke—before they are built. The cause is something we are all acquainted with... forest fires. The timber lost in forest fires in America each year would build all the houses in a city of a half-million population. Who is responsible for forest fires? Nine out of ten are caused by pure and simple carelessness... on the part of people like you. This terrible destruction must stop if we are to keep America strong. Please be careful. Remember—only you can prevent forest fires.

New carpet has been laid in the shoe department and ready-to-wear sections and additional shoe seats have been installed to accommodate more customers and easily.

A new J. C. Penney sign has been installed over the entrance of the store.

Horace Walker Trial Postponed By Federal Court

The trial of Horace Walker, former Eastland County delinquent tax collector, in the U. S. District Court in Abilene on a federal indictment charging use of the mails to defraud was postponed Tuesday until the next term of court, probably in October.

Walker's attorneys had asked for a dismissal of the federal indictment because of technical errors. U. S. District Attorney Frank Potter of Fort Worth told District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson that there might be some merit in the motion by Walker's attorneys and asked for the continuance in order to allow the district attorney's office time to study the defense motion.

If there are technical errors in the indictment, Potter said that he would ask the court to dismiss the charges, pointing out that there would be a multitude of testimony and records in the trial and that it was important that such a trial not be wasted, as it would be if the indictment later proved invalid. The possibility of seeking a new indictment if the old one proved invalid was discussed.

The next of a series of trials of Walker, coming out of his contract for collecting delinquent taxes for Eastland County from 1947 to 1951, is scheduled for the 90th District Court in Breckenridge Monday. The trial Monday will be on the second of seven indictments returned against him in Eastland County for embezzlement. Walker was acquitted in the first trial last fall.

HICKOK AND REYNOLDS ASSETS IN MANY COUNTIES ARE SOLD

Producing oil properties and other assets in Central, West, South and North Texas have been sold by Hickok and Reynolds, Inc., of Cisco to the Ibe Company of Graham and R. F. Windfohr of Fort Worth, according to information here today.

Purchase price was reported to be about $2,000,000. The Ibe Company is owned by Lester Clark of Breckenridge and Bruce and Boyd Street of Graham.

Included in the sale were producing seven miles southwest of Ranger.

The vote was 1,383 for the issue and only 32 against the bonds. In Ranger the voting was 734 for and 22 against the issue. In Eastland the count was 649 to 10 in favor of the bonds.

With the voting of the bonds work on the dam was expected to get underway in July. It will impound some 28,000 acre feet of water and the lake will be about the size of Lake Worth at Fort Worth.

Both Eastland and Ranger have had inadequate water supplies and the new project was expected to relieve the situation. Water from the lake, when it is completed, will be piped to Eastland, Ranger and Olden. The pumps and filtration plant will be located near the lake.

Activity Hour Is Planned For Girl Scouts Thursday

The first in a series of monthly Girl Scout Activity Hours will be held at the First Methodist Church at 7:30 p. m. Thursday and all Girl Scouts, Brownies, troop leaders and assistant leaders were invited to attend.

The monthly meetings were designed to form a more closely knit working unit among the girls participating in the movement in Cisco and to allow the troop members to become better acquainted.

At the first meeting a film, "World Friendship" will be shown and the remainder of the time will be spent in singing and playing games.

It was pointed out that the meeting was for Scouts and Brownies and that parents of the members were not invited. It is strictly for the members and their leaders.

Refreshments will be served at each meeting and the different troops will take turns in serving. The Lucky Brownie troop under the leadership of Mrs. Don Choate will serve the refreshments for the first meeting.

ducing properties in Brown, Shackelford, Coke, Duval, Webb, Mitchell and Palo Pinto Counties. Non-productive leases transferred to the new purchasers are in Callahan, DeWitt, Gonzales, Eastland, Hall, Briscoe, Howard, Karns, Lavaca, Live Oak, Taylor, Wilson, Yoakum and Zapata Counties.

The sale included two cable tool drilling rigs which Hickok and Reynolds had been operating. The new owners also took over the properties of the Lee Geophysical Company, including shooting equipment and an air-borne magnetometer.

Production included some 186 acres of leases were involved in the transfer.

Gas and oil properties operated by Hickok and Reynolds Royalty Co. and H&R Royalty Company were not included. Oil holdings of those companies were not involved in the sale, and Hickok and Reynolds kept a gasoline plant in Coke County.

Hickok and Reynolds will continue operations from offices in the Hooker Building. The sale's only local effect will be the moving of the Lee Geophysical equipment to Breckenridge, it was understood.

J. H. Reynolds, active manager of the company, will continue to direct his oil and other interests here, dividing his time between Cisco and San Antonio offices as he has in the past, The Press learned.

The sale did not involve any of the Hickok company's operations here, including Cisco Gas Corp., Consolidated Gasoline Co., Hickok Producing and Development Company.

The Penney store closed in its old location Saturday night and remained closed this week to prepare for the Grand Opening event.

Bids Opened At Tuesday Meeting

The City Commission had under advisement today the proposition of leasing for oil development the some 3.6 acres of land in the Belmont park traffic circle. Bids for leases on the tract were opened Tuesday night at a regular semi-monthly meeting of the council at the city hall.

Three bids were submitted, including Charles A. Spears, who offered $300 cash and a $2,000 oil payment out of one thirty-second of the oil. His bid included a pooling agreement with one lot on the circle, proposing a well within three months on the back of the lot.

KLS Drilling Company submitted a cash bid of $1,155 for a straight six months lease with no drilling commitment.

Jack Hailey submitted a bid of $317 cash and a one-sixteenth over-ride out of all of the remaining seven-eighths. His proposal offered a 90-day drilling contract.

Nine residents of the Park Drive area appeared at the meeting to protest the leasing of the traffic circle for oil development. A spokesman for the group indicated that court action might be taken in an effort to halt any drilling.

Demand for leases in the area has been considerable since the beginning of the Sabo well on Dr. N. A. Brown's land just west of the city limits.

Mayor G. C. Rosenthal said today that the council would seek an early solution to the proposition.

The commission took steps to provide all types of safety and sanitary regulations for oil drilling inside the city limits. It named a 5-man committee to study and recommend rules and regulations for city ordinances. Names of the committeemen were withheld until the men could be contacted.

The commission read a report submitted by the city zoning board regarding the proposed erection of a tourist motel on west Highway 80. The board had expressed the opinion that a permit probably would not be upheld in court due to the restrictions against commercial properties in the deeds. The commission took no action, however, as no application for a permit had actually been filed.

The week beginning May 5 was officially designated as city cleanup week, and the Commission voted to ask the Chamber of Commerce and the women's clubs of the city to help with the annual event.

Edgar Johnson was awarded a 2-year contract to haul city garbage. He submitted a bid of $14,400 for the two years beginning May 1.

The commission named O. L. Stamey and the Rev. Leslie Seymour to the board of directors for the Chamber of Commerce, replacing J. W. Sitton and James Duff. Mr. Stamey will serve a 2-year term, and Mr. Seymour a 1-year term. Mr. Sitton resigned from the board upon election as a city commissioner, and Mr. Duff recently moved to Athens.

Newly elected commissioners took office at the meeting. Beginning 2-year terms were Joe Britain, J. W. Slaughter and J. W. Sitton. Mayor Rosenthal announced commission assignments as follows: James P. McCracken, finance; Don Rupe, streets; Mr. Britain, police and fire; Mr. Slaughter, sanitation; and Mr. Sitton, water. Mr. Britain was named mayor pro tem.

Mr. Slaughter reported that work was starting this week to control mosquitoes. He asked citizens to cooperate by cleaning their premises of possible mosquito breeding places. Dr. W. P. Lee, city health officer, made his monthly report.

INCREASE IN CRIME

Crime rose 5.1 per cent throughout the United States in 1951, according to the FBI's annual report. Cities showed a 5.2 per cent increase and rural areas a 5 per cent increase. Auto thefts increased 15.3 per cent, larcenies 7.1 per cent, negligent manslaughter 3.4 per cent and rape 1.3 per cent.

There were an estimated 1,882,160 serious offenses during 1951, an increase of 92,130 over 1950. An average day in 1951 saw 5,157 major crimes — 34 felonious homicides, 1,115 burglaries, 143 robberies, 3,064 larcenies, 46 rapes, 540 auto thefts and 215 aggravated assaults.

A tabulation of reports from 376 cities representing nearly 46 million inhabitants reflected a total of $150,136,172 worth of property stolen. Largest single category of stolen property was automobiles, with $90,385,558 worth stolen in 1951.

Arrest records of local police departments in the form of fingerprint cards, totaling 831,288, were examined to obtain age, sex, race and criminal history date during 1951. In addition, New England's robbery rate was the lowest in the nation and the Pacific states' rate the highest; New England was lowest in aggravated assaults and the South Atlantic states highest in this category, with a rate nearly eighteen times as high as New England.

Arrest records of local police departments in the form of fingerprint cards, totaling 831,288, were examined to obtain age, sex, race and criminal history date during 1951. Arrests of males numbered 746,055 in 1951, a 4 per cent increase over 1950, when 717,088 fingerprints arrest records for males were examined.

Seasonal variations followed the pattern established in past years. In December, 1951, murders were 18.1 per cent above the annual average. Negligent manslaughter were 45 per cent more frequent in December than in May, and robberies were 66 per cent more frequent in December than in May.

Urban crime rates, based on offenses known to the police, reflect the New England states lowest in the category of murder and nonnegligent manslaughter with 124 offenses per 100,000 inhabitants. The East South Central states were highest, with 12.45 offenses per 100,000 inhabitants. The Middle Atlantic states had the lowest rate of burglary and examined in 1950. Prior arrest records were found in FBI files for 61.9 per cent of the males represented by the fingerprint cards examined in 1951 and for 45.5 per cent of the females. More males and females were arrested for drunkenness than for any other offense. A tragedy of our times is expressed in 1951's finger-print statistics on youthful offenders. More persons aged 23 were arrested than any other age group.

IT'S THE LAW
★ in Texas ★
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

The privilege or rule against self-incrimination makes news from time to time in connection with court proceedings and legislative committee hearings. The statement, "I refuse to answer on the grounds that it may tend to incriminate me," has become familiar to many. Some do not understand the background of the legal principle which allows a person to remain mute in such circumstances.

Lawyers say this is one of the most important basic rights of the individual in this country. The Fifth Amendment of our Federal Constitution provides that "no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself." The early American statesmen insisted that this guarantee become a part of our law for excellent reasons. The doctrine against self-incrimination is most probably an outgrowth of "trial by ordeal" practiced in the ancient days of England. A person accused of a criminal offense had to plead either 'guilty' or 'not guilty' at the time he was arraigned for trial, and still does today. However, in those days the accused had neither the benefit of counsel nor the right to testify in his own defense, and either plea ultimately amounted to just about the same thing.

If the accused pleaded 'guilty' he was hung a little sooner than was the case if he pleaded 'not guilty'. This situation, understandably enough, caused many persons charged with crime to stand silent on arraignment and not plead either way. When that happened, the accused was subjected to torture to induce him to plead one way or the other.

Incredible methods of making a person talk were used with almost total success. In some cases the accused was placed in close confinement with a bit of bread to eat one day, a sip of water the next, and so on from day to day until he consented to plead or died of starvation.

On other occasions heavy weights were placed on his chest above the heart and attendants stood on the weights, or he might have been forced to recline on a bed of sharpened stakes. Investigations in those days arose primarily because of alleged dereliction from the rules of the Church.

With memories of such atrocities, it is plain to see why the colonists from England made sure that such practices would be prohibited by their fundamental laws.

The privilege against self-incrimination is not only incorporated in the Federal Bill of Rights, but is also guaranteed under the constitution of all but two of the 48 states. Our Texas

Constitution provides that an accused "shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself." The right of a witness to refuse to answer on these grounds has been repeatedly sustained by the courts of the United States. Although the U. S. Supreme Court has not directly passed on the question of self-incrimination before a legislative committee, there is a fair inference that the privilege established by the Fifth Amendment protects witnesses in Congressional investigations as well as in judicial proceedings.

Let's Not Forget These Fine Old Garden Flowers

Calliopsis.

Mexican Marigold.

Nicotiana Affinis.

Gardens, like brides, should wear something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Much emphasis is being put now upon new varieties of this and most of them are good; some fine old flowers are apt to be neglected.

Few garden borders have enough flowers to balance the pink, blue and red blossoms. And as for growing—let's call it trading—let's call it ought to be a habit among gardening neighbors.

What about good old varieties? These are never listed in the "novelty section" of the seed catalogue. They are found in the pages devoted to "standard varieties." Here are a few which go back a long time and have unique merits which the plant breeders have never surpassed in their introductions:

Calliopsis. Tall growing, honey fragrant, Calliopsis maritimum. As easy to grow from seed as the dwarf, carpet type, this grows 10 inches tall, and bears white flowers in heavy clusters until killed by freezing. Excellent for the border, where white is desired.

Ageratum Mexicanum Coeruleum. Grows 18 inches tall and bears blue flowers in tight clusters. This is an excellent foil for other colors, bringing out their beauty.

Calliopsis. The annual coreopsis, is as good as the perennial form in cutting, and has a greater range of coloring, including variations of blue, orange and brown. It is extremely hardy and self-seeds in most gardens.

Cacalia. The tassel flower, is an excellent cut flower, and attractive to the border. Its blooms are small, on wiry stems, less than an inch in diameter. The flowers are scarlet or yellow, appear in few weeks after sowing, and are produced until freezing.

Lobelia Sapphire is a trailing form of the blue lobelia, which drops long stems to drape a garden vase, or window box. Its flowers of intense sapphire, with white eye, are outstanding.

The Mexican marigold, one of the oldest forms of this native American flower, is seldom seen among the many improved varieties of its family. It has unique qualities which many amateurs would find invaluable. It forms a dense bush completely covered with small, golden flowers, and which in fertile soil may be two feet in diameter. The flowers are excellent for use in bouquets, and a plant can be counted upon to provide a mass of golden yellow in the border all summer long.

Nicotiana affinis. The old fashioned sweet tobacco, has the most delightful fragrance of any annual; and none of the improved varieties has equalled its perfume.

These are only a few of the old favorites which should not be forgotten, because they have never been equalled in their unique qualities by improved varieties.

Your Problems are our Business —

... or somebody's business depending on the nature of the problem. Most problems are not a disgrace nor a reflection on one's character, but a natural consequence of activity and growth. For example, if one owns or deals in real estate he is sure to have title problems sooner or later. While the abstract may or may not solve all title problems within our knowledge it has saved our customers thousands of dollars and it's value cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

THE RUN: A grueling 1,415 mile course from Los Angeles to Sun Valley, chosen to represent every kind of driving condition the average motorist experiences in a year of travel. This practical test of 1952 model cars was designed to demonstrate their mileage potential when properly maintained, driven and fueled.

EVERY DRIVING CONDITION: Route selected include all types of driving, through cities and over desert and mountain roads. Altitude ranged from 70 feet below sea level to 8,010 feet above. Temperatures from below zero to more than 100 degrees were encountered. Cars were driven at maximum legal speeds and had not been over the course prior to the run.
