The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

MR. PAT FEE, son of the Geo. Fees, has been with the U. S. Navy at Guam in the Pacific for more than a year. He recently attended a coconut festival and has written a fine report about it to his parents. Mrs. Fee let us look at his letter, and we quote it as follows:

"I went to the Coconut Festival in Inarajan, 45 miles from here we are stationed. Part of the drive looks just exactly like parts of Texas, as from Cisco to Stamford. The village is the quaintest place you ever saw, and everyone was having a wonderful time.

"We saw them crown the festival queen, and heard her speech, and then saw some Chamorro dances. The feast is called the coconut festival because most of the natives on that end of the island are coconut farmers. The event is held each year the third week after Easter.

"We went to Father Julius' house and visited with him, and the Governor of Guam came to visit the priest. It was quite an honor to meet the Governor. He took several pictures. The natives all have open houses, and as you walk down the street they invite you in.

"We got invited in several places. They made you feel a hundred per cent at home. After we had had something to drink, they started bringing food — chicken, roast and barbecued pig, duck, fish, fried bats, everything imaginable, all of which are quite delicious. Their vegetables are quite unlike ours, including baked bananas that taste like sweet potatoes, taro root, tropical beans, eggs boiled overnight in coffee, bamboo shoots, and potatoes. Fruits included pineapple, mangoes, papaya and bread fruit, which is like the name implies.

"They eat carabao steak, which is exactly like our own steak, and even an expert couldn't tell the difference. The natives cover their course generously with a very sauce made of vinegar in which had been small extremely hot red peppers. I ate most of the food sans sauce.

"The coconut queen was just what of this world — a real beauty. About 90 per cent of the Guam natives speak fluent Spanish as well as Chamorro. The only people who don't are the people from around Umatia, where the capital of the ancient royalty used to be. These people are so proud of their royal ancestry that they resent the Spanish and never learned their language.

"English is the official language of the people, since they are Americans, but at home they speak Chamorro and Spanish. Especially ladies wear butterfly dresses, which has built-in ventilation. A good picture of the average native woman is to think of an old mental type person with her hair pinned up in a knot on the back of her head, prayer beads in her hand, and the red juice of betel nut which stains their teeth red, dripping from the corners of her mouth.

"The natives are the friendliest people you could ever hope to meet. They are indebted to the Americans, and some of the sailors take advantage of their hospitality, but they are too grateful to say anything. They are true Christians. They truly love their neighbors as themselves. They have their drawbacks, of course, but the main ones is that they are lazy, but they really can't help it, because this climate makes anyone that way. Providence has taken care of that, because everything they need practically grows for them. Since the introduction of our kind of civilization on the island, they have developed desires for things that they can't get barter from some other natives; namely, cars, new-fangled stoves and refrigerators. In order to satisfy these yens, they get up coconut farming, which isn't hard, but pays off. Most of the people of Inarajan have these conveniences now.

"I had a wonderful time." And I think you can understand how Pat must have enjoyed the festival.

"THE LITTLE Newspaper at West Ward School paid a fine tribute Monday to Mrs. Callie McFie, who is retiring as a teacher at the end of the school year.

DOOMED!—A couple looks sadly at a cottage which has been split in two by the moving earth at Jackfield, Shropshire, England. This small community of 700 inhabitants is slowly being destroyed. Clay quarries on the hillside above the village were abandoned in 1940 and have filled with water. Since the weight of millions of gallons is forcing the hillside off its base of rock, roads, railway tracks and homes are being washed away.

Robert Wade Sutton, 38, former Cisco resident, died in a San Angelo hospital at 11:30 a. m. Sunday following an automobile crash near there a short time earlier.

Funeral services were to be held at 3 p. m. Tuesday at Thomas Funeral Chapel. The services were to be conducted by Paul Witt of Abilene Christian College and A. F. Waller, minister of the Cisco Church of Christ. Burial was to follow in Oakwood Cemetery.

Survivors are his wife of Odessa, his mother, Mrs. R. O. Sutton of Crystal City; a brother, B. B. Sutton of Alice; and two sisters, Mrs. C. M. Tucker of San Angelo and Mrs. F. D. Ingram of Crystal City.

Area Spring Planting Outlook Brighter After Weekend Rains

AN ISLAND IN THE STREETS—With water ranging up to four feet in the streets of Salt Lake City, Utah, Gene Start and Vern Jorgensen sat out a rescue on what appears to be a huge spindly. Their canine companion, Pal, seemed to be more concerned over the possibility that the boys were, but the dog's worry was all in vain for the water never did engulf them.

CHANGES ARE REPORTED IN 1952 PEANUT CROP PRICE PROGRAM

Important changes have been made in the U. S. Department of Agriculture's price support and acreage allotment program for 1952 crop peanuts, Chairman E. E. Blackwell of the Eastland County Production and Marketing Administration said today.

Price support will be available through four methods, as follows:

1. Farm Storage Loan: — You may obtain a loan through your county PMA Committee, and hold your peanuts in any committee-approved farm storage structure. You may sell them at any time after repaying your loan to the county committee. Loans bear interest at 3½ percent per year and mature May 31, 1953, with CCC accepting delivery of peanuts if the loan is not repaid by that date. There will be no recourse on you except for loss in weight and grade that may take place during the time your peanuts are under loan.

2. Purchase Agreement: This agreement, signed by you and a representative of your county PMA committee, guarantees you a market at price support. It may cover any quantity of eligible peanuts produced on your farm. The peanuts remain in your possession, may be stored either on or off the farm, and may be sold or disposed of in any manner you desire. No funds are advanced to you but you have the right to deliver these peanuts to CCC, although you are not obligated to do so. You may deliver your peanuts at the support price after notifying the county committee within 30 days before May 31, 1953, of your intention to deliver to CCC.

Loans Through Peanut Cooperatives: CCC will advance funds to the peanut cooperatives to be used in making loans to you, the producer. The cooperative will sell these loan peanuts for edible uses at the best price obtainable above the loan rate. You may not redeem or individually sell the peanuts you have placed under loan with the cooperative. But you will share in any profits realized by the cooperative on the sale of peanuts.

4. Warehouse Loan: You may obtain a loan through your county committee on the basis of a negotiable warehouse receipt issued by an approved warehouseman. This receipt will enable you to market your peanuts readily at any time you find it advantageous. If you do not repay your loan the warehouse receipt becomes the property of CCC on the maturity date, which is May 31, 1953.

A small charge for preparing and handling loan and purchase agreement papers will be made by the county PMA committee or the cooperative. Inspection fees to cover the cost of grading will be paid by the producer. The producer who obtains a warehouse or cooperative loan, will be required to pay the cost of storage and to absorb the normal loss in weight and grade while his peanuts are in storage.

T. D. Sadberry and Cecil Key were business visitors in Breckenridge Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Matthews have returned from a weekend trip to Galveston where they enjoyed fishing and other sports.

City Lake Gains 4 Inches Water

The outlook for the planting of farm crops was considerably brighter today after weekend rains measuring between an inch and a half to two inches fell generally over Eastland County. Most of the rain fell late Saturday and Saturday night, with light rains Sunday.

Heaviest fall was in the Ranger area where nearly four inches was recorded. The heavy rain there caused a flash flood east of Ranger and traffic was halted on busy Highway 80 for some two hours. More than 1,000 cars waited for the road to clear. At one time, the water was about three feet deep on the highway.

In Cisco, the city hall rain gauge recorded even two inches. The fall at Lake Cisco measured about a half inch less. Lake Cisco caught about four inches of water, and Lake Birnie was up about eight inches. Most area stock tanks were in good shape. Temperatures fell to the upper 50's over the weekend, and many people relighted gas furnaces and brought out their blankets again. The rain accompanied a cold front that swept through this section.

Rainfall was lighter to the north and west. The farming belt of the county, however, came out in good shape for spring planting. Most farmers were preparing today to begin planting peanuts and cotton. Peanut planting will continue until July.

City officials estimated that the rain put a good two weeks additional supply in Lake Cisco. The good rain in town will cut the use of water sharply for several days as the ground got a good soaking, eliminating any need for watering for some time.

Citizens were cautioned to take immediate steps to prevent mosquito breeding places from filling the area with pests. Everyone was asked to check their premises for places where standing water might permit mosquito breeding.

20th Century Club Entertains With Tea

A silver tea was given Friday afternoon, May 16, by the Twentieth Century Club for the purpose of raising funds for the Cisco Public Library. The tea was held in the Club rooms.

The tea table was laid with a yellow organdie cloth and was centered with an arrangement of pansies in a gold bowl. The mantle held an arrangement of snapdragons and roses.

Many needed gifts as well as gifts of money were donated by the members of the club.

Light refreshments were served to those present.

The Man Who Borrows Money —

... must have good security to offer the lending agency or individual before he can expect a loan. There is no better collateral than real estate provided the title is good. More money is loaned on real estate than any other commodity of value. The careful lender always insists on an abstract for the abstract reveals the condition of the title and upon the title rests the applicant's eligibility for the loan.

CHRYSLER SARATOGA 6-PASSENGER SEDAN

ITS NEW KIND OF HORSEPOWER IS SOMETHING TO FEEL!

With its 180 HP V-8 engine, on 125 1/2 inches of wheelbase, many people think the Saratoga is the best Chrysler car of all.

We invite you to take the wheel and feel what happens! There's a new sense of easy power, of reserve power that make driving a new experience.

Inside the engine are reasons for this. Its revolutionary combustion chamber develops more of the power in each charge of fuel than other engines can do. Its construction is both more sturdy and more efficient.

One result is performance, even on non-premium fuel, such as you have never felt. Another result is new long-term economy. It's an engine that scarcely forms carbon deposit at all. It creates less heat and develops less wear than other engines. It will last much longer, and stay younger on the way!

With Chrysler full-time Power Steering*, you execute every steering move with one-fifth the usual effort... drive every mile, at every speed, with five times the usual control! With Chrysler Power Brakes you need up to two-thirds less foot pressure... and still stop in many feet less than other cars can do.

Yes, behind Chrysler's new engine you'll find a new kind of car. Won't you come in and feel what we mean?

*NOTE: Power Steering standard on Crown Imperial. Available, extra, on any new Chrysler.
