FORT WORTH. — We always like to come to Fort Worth. It makes us appreciate Cisco all the more. It's difficult to understand why so many people will live in places like Fort Worth and Dallas when it's cooler by a number of degrees in Cisco every day of the summer.

Without fans and air-conditioners, it's almost unbearable to try to sleep before midnight. Evaporative air-conditioners don't do too much good in this country of high humidity.

WITH MUCH being said and written in the past few weeks on politics, due to the election in Texas and the national conventions of the Republicans and the Democrats, our two children (ages 7 and 9) suggested as we were driving here that we ought to run for president.

It is flattering, of course, to have anybody consider you presidential timber. But it was difficult to talk the children out of this idea. We told our little girl, who was especially keen about it all, that if her father were president she wouldn't be permitted to go barefoot or to wear shorts or climb trees. She'd have to be very lady-like all of the time. And the boy couldn't wear ragged jeans and skate on the front walk. That ended our presidential boom.

MRS. JAY Richardson, who has some of the prettiest flowers up on avenue N, probably doesn't realize it, but she caused us to have a 30-odd minute discussion of Dolly Madison and the early history of the United States. A few days back, she brought over to our house a few cuttings or plants from her Iris beds that bloom profusely in the spring.

Mrs. Richardson had thoughtfully written the name of each type of plant on the paper that was wrapped around it. One especially pretty Iris had "Dolly Madison" written on the wrapper.

And when we got to talking about flowers, the children remembered about Dolly Madison on the wrapper. The question began to flow. The whole story of the early day president's wife had to be told. It broke the monotony, of course, of a hot drive. And we thank Mrs. Richardson for the Iris plants. If we can have one bloom next spring as attractive as the Richardson garden, we will be very pleased.

AS WE WERE leaving town, a scout reported that mail had come from Mrs. J. L. Thornton and Miss Dana Thornton and Mrs. Charlie Cofer who are vacationing and postcarding from Colorado. In one brief few minutes the other day, they ran through a rainstorm, a sandstorm and a hailstorm. Was like old times, they postcarded.

THIS WAS written shortly after we arrived, so haven't anything much to report as yet. Today's program calls for visiting relatives, a swim in one of the pools, and a trip to the zoo.

We're going next over to Dallas and stop in at a couple of printing machinery sales places. Hope to pick up some new type — the hand-set kind — to use in The Press.

Our next real stop will be Kilgore in East Texas. It was there that we lived for six years or so before the war. We used to be editor of the Kilgore paper and got our start in the flying business at the Kilgore airport. Hope to see a bunch of old friends and to admire the oil derricks and the pine trees. In our opinion, there's nothing quite like a pine tree for real beauty.

Before we return home late next week, we're scheduled to visit more relatives at Texarkana and to drive up into the Arkansas Ozark country. We have a sneaking suspicion that we're headed in the wrong direction to find cool weather.

But we will see, and we'll send you a report.

First Baptists Bow To Eastland Nine Tuesday

The Cisco First Baptist baseball team bowed to the strong Eastland Yellow Jackets at ABC Field Tuesday night by a 18-1 score.

The contest was never in doubt after the Eastland nine ran in five runs in the first inning. The pitching of Ables and Stephens of Eastland was effective and the heavy bats of the Eastland team were too much for the slants of John Popalio and Don Johnson of the Baptists.

Friday night and Saturday night the American Legion Indians play teams from Brownwood here. The Brownwood teams are entered in a junior league there and have been playing good ball all season. The Indians defeated one of the teams in Brownwood Saturday night by a 9-7 score.

Monday night the Cisco Invitation Baseball Tournament will begin at ABC Field, it was announced. There will be two games played each evening, beginning at 7:30 p. m., with the exception of Wednesday night when only one game will be played, beginning at 9 p. m.

W. B. Starr Family Has Reunion At Farm Home Near Cisco Last Week

The W. B. Starr home south-west of Cisco was the scene of a home coming and family reunion last week. All of Mr. and Mrs. Starr's children and grandchildren, except Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Starr of Baltimore, Maryland, were at home for the meeting.

Next January 1 will be 49 years since Mr. and Mrs. Starr settled on their farm southwest of Cisco and began carving out a home in the brush which covered much of the area in that section of Eastland County. Their efforts have been well rewarded since they have one of the most modern farms in the area.

Attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Starr,

Family Of Albert C. Myrick Has Reunion Honoring Buck Myrick

The descendants of the late Albert C. Myrick, early Eastland County settler, held a family reunion over the past week end honoring Buck Myrick on the event of his 82nd birthday. The celebration was held at the Myrick home at 1208 West 15th St.

The honoree, still actively engaged in business on his 82nd birthday, has been a resident of Cisco for many years. He was a dairy farmer for many years in Cisco and for the past few years has operated a small dairy, poultry and produce business at his home. He has lived in Gorman, Cisco, Moran and Clyde and in all those places actively engaged in farming, dairying and, for a while, in the operation of a grocery business.

Immediate descendants of the Albert C. Myrick and Mary J. Myrick family attending the gathering were Buck Myrick of Cisco, Richard Myrick and Queen Myrick of Abilene, E. W. Myrick of Roswell, New Mexico, John C. Myrick of Harlingen. The other living member of the family was unable to attend but mailed a letter to be read to those present.

Children of Buck Myrick and Mattie L. Myrick attending the celebration were Sylvester Myrick of Moran, A. Z. Myrick of Cisco, Mrs. Grace Myrick O'Brien of Oklahoma City. Another son, Porter Myrick of Beaumont, was unable to attend because of illness in his family.

Others attending the affair and being served at dinner were Mrs. Monese M. Bass of Garland, Utah, Mrs. Ava Lee M. York and Sharon Lee of Roswell, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hodges of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Eusty of Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duncan of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. Garrell Simons of Fort Worth, Mrs. Lucy Cerveny and two children of Weatherford, Mrs. Richard Myrick of Abilene.

Over 42 per cent Of Cars Remain To Be Inspected

Some 4,506 vehicles registered in Eastland County still remained to be inspected before the September 6 deadline, it was announced Wednesday by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Of the total of 10,506 vehicles registered in the county only an approximate 6,000 had been through the official inspection stations Tuesday.

It was pointed out that only 38 days remained in which the inspection may be made and officials urged automobile owners to visit one of the stations as soon as possible in order to eliminate a last minute rush. There are some 18 stations in the county authorized to make the inspections. Two of the stations are in Cisco, eight in Eastland, five in Ranger, two in Rising Star and one in Gorman.

In order to complete the job before the September 6 deadline 118 cars will have to be inspected each day. Authorities pointed out that after September 6 car owners would be subject to heavy fine if the inspection had not been made.

The explanation was made in order to inform car owners that the law was still in force and that the inspection was a requirement.

Larry Waterbury Dies Tuesday; To Be Buried Here

Word was received in Cisco Wednesday of the death at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday of Larry Waterbury, Jr. of San Marcos. Mr. Waterbury was the son-in-law of Mrs. L. A. White of Cisco.

Mr. Waterbury was injured in an automobile accident last Thursday and died Tuesday.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Thursday in the San Marcos Episcopal Church. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery here at 4 p. m. Thursday with rites being held at the graveside.

Mr. Waterbury is survived by his wife, the former Miss Irene White, and a son, Larry Waterbury III, both of San Marcos.

Texas Tech Has Valuable Papers On State History

A Model-T truck did the hauling for the three most valuable items in Texas Tech's Southwest Collection.

These treasurers, the complete and original records of the Espuela Land and Cattle Co., the Matador Land and Cattle Co., and the C. W. Post Colonization Projects, are considered priceless by Dr. William C. Holden, head of the department of history, sociology, and anthropology at Tech. Dr. Holden, who is also director of The Museum, started gathering the material 20 years ago in his Model-T.

"Chance enabled us to have the Matador records, the most complete of their kind in existence," Dr. Holden said. "I drove one day in 1933 to see what could be done about the material for Tech's collection. I met the Matador manager about two miles from the ranch. When I left, I had them in my truck. The back end of the Model-T was resting on the axle."

The Espuela, or Spur, ranch records were acquired in 1932, after Dr. Clifford B. Jones, now president emeritus of Tech, had been manager of the Spur properties. Dr. Jones and A. S. Gaylord, Jr., former Tech Librarian, are part of a trio who originated the Southwest Collection.

The Post Papers were obtained in 1936. These include not only the Double U records, but also the Curry-Comb Ranch records. The latter was the name of the ranch before C. W. Post bought it in 1906. Post brought 800 colonists into the area of Post, Texas. This venture was operated by a board of directors who kept a modern system of bookkeeping and accounting.

The records have been used as source material for graduate students of Texas Tech and the University of Texas.

OUTSTANDING GUN COLLECTION TO BE SHOWN AT TEXAS A & M

COLLEGE STATION, July 29. — One of the most outstanding gun collections in the nation — possibly in the world — will be on view at Texas A. and M. College soon.

Special display cases for the guns are now being prepared and display data is being set up so the full advantage of the collection may be realized by viewers.

Donated to A. and M. College by the heirs of the Carl Metzger estate of Dallas, the collection has not heretofore been offered on public display.

It contains one of the most complete lines of Colts weapons in the world outside of the Colts factory, and traces the complete evolution of the firearm in western civilization from the hand cannon on down to the present day.

Special emphasis has been placed on gun types designed for use by United States Marshals, since they were the best-armed men in the new world.

Because of a lack of proper facilities for housing the collection, it has been in storage for more than two years. Now, more than $7,000 worth of specially designed cases have been provided by the Former Students Association of A. and M. College. Cases were designed by Arch

Assistance To Aged And Blind To Be Increased On October Checks

STILL SPROUTING — Little Alain Lapeyre takes a peek at his weight on a scale in Paris, France, but he has to stand on a chair to do it. It seems that there's no end to this business of keeping trim — especially if you happen to be too tiny to see the scales.

Warning Issued On Keeping Livestock In City Limits

Mayor G. C. Rosenthal reported Wednesday that complaints of keeping livestock in the city limits were coming in with considerable regularity and issued a warning to residents of the community that there was a city ordinance regulating the keeping of farm animals in the city.

Mr. Rosenthal pointed that each complaint would be checked and that those found not complying with the ordinance would be warned and that a failure to heed the warning would result in the impounding of the animals.

He stressed the importance of sanitation in the face of the heavy incidence of polio in the state and said that the city would be forced to enforce the sanitation ordinance in an effort to avoid an epidemic here.

INDIANS WIN CONTEST

The Cisco Indians won a 11-to-9 victory Saturday night in a baseball game at Brownwood with the junior team there, Manager D. N. Morrison reported.

All persons receiving Old Age Assistance and Aid to the Blind will get a $5.00 increase in their grants beginning in October, according to W. E. Moore, Area Supervisor for the State Department of Public Welfare.

Exceptions will be those who are receiving both Old Age Assistance and Old Age and Survivors Insurance, since the automatic increase will be received by them through Social Security. A lesser increase will be available for youngsters who are receiving Aid to Dependent Children.

This increase in grants is provided for by recent Congressional Legislation which raised the federal contribution $5.00 beginning in October. This now makes a maximum grant of $55.00 instead of $50.00 available for Old Age Assistance and Aid to the Blind. Naturally, this does not mean that everyone will receive the maximum grant of $55.00 any more than they are now receiving the maximum grant of $50.00. The amount of each grant is determined by the basic recognized needs of the individual less his income, and varies according to the individual situation. It simply means that beginning in October no grant can go higher than $55.00 instead of $50.00.

To assure that each eligible person on the Old Age Assistance and Aid to the Blind rolls gets the full amount of the increase the first month it is available, John H. Winter, Executive Director of the Welfare Department, has ordered that checks beginning in October be written for $5.00 more than the amount authorized on that date.

Supervisor Moore explained that since these increases are to be automatically taken care of in Austin, it will not be necessary to get in touch with the local or Austin office of the State Welfare Department.

By way of illustration, Supervisor Moore explained that an aged person who is now receiving Old Age and Survivors Insurance and has been getting, for example, $34.00 Old Age Assistance will receive $39.00 beginning in October.

RECOGNITION DESERVED

Representative government and individual liberty are not automatically self-perpetuating. It is good to be reminded occasionally of the constant struggle to keep our freedom which is a part of our normal daily lives. A significant example of this occurred in Wisconsin recently when a power and light company was presented the first annual Americanism award of the Department of Wisconsin, American Legion. The recipient, along with scores of other electric companies, has been a leader in the fight to stop Socialism in the United States. Hundreds of executives of investor-owned, tax-paying utilities have given their time unstintingly in a virtual crusade to make the people understand that government in business — any business — in unregulated, tax exempt competition with private citizens is socialism and will ultimately destroy the American system of government and private ownership of property.

In presenting the award the Commander of the Wisconsin American Legion said: "The men who led our nation to freedom also framed a form of government intended to guarantee continuance of that freedom. They were given the foresight to provide a pattern of government which would provide barriers against the avarice of dictators."

"But merely having the instruments for good government is not enough. The fundamental principals of freedom must be told and re-told to every generation and to every citizen lest we lose sight of the basic reasons why our nation has grown great and strong."

"We must do this to supply a basis of comparison for the isms which certain segments of our population advocate as a substitute for good Americanism."

"This job of re-education is not for the American Legion alone or for a few individuals or a few small groups. It must be reinstated as a basic philosophy of American living in the every day thinking of Americans."

1952 Hunt Dates Are Set By State Game Commission

AUSTIN, July 26. — The Texas Game & Fish Commission Friday voted to renew its efforts to persuade the United States Fish & Wildlife Service to zone Texas for duck and goose hunting.

The Commission recommended that, should the zoning plea fail, the waterfowl season in Texas open October 31. It recommended that, if the state is zoned for water fowl, the season open in the north zone October 31 and in the south zone on November 21.

The Commission, in considering hunters' preference for the seasons, reported "a surprising amount of sentiment" in South Texas for an early November waterfowl opening.

The Executive Secretary of the Commission pointed out that while the duck bag limits may not be increased from the five per day and ten in possession of last year, that the improved waterfowl conditions might warrant a longer season. Texas had a non-zoned 50-day waterfowl season last year, beginning November 9 and ending December 28.

The Executive Secretary of the Commission will personally take the Texas zoning appeal before the Fish & Wildlife Service at a meeting in Washington, August 5.

The Commission recommended that the Federal authorities who also set dove hunting regulations, designate the opening in the north zone of Texas for September-1 as last year and designate the opening in the south zone for October 1, with shooting restricted to afternoons only. The south zone season opened November 15 in 1951.

The Commission recommended a white-winged dove season for the Rio Grande Valley for September 12, 14 and 16. Regular shooting hours of 4 p. m. to sunset would prevail with a 10-bird limit.

The Commission decided not to open the antelope season in the Big Bend country because two dry years have reduced the herds.

HEALTH TALKS
Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

More than 80 per cent of those who seek treatment with the complaint of pain in the lower part of the back are found to be suffering from collapse of a lower lumbar intervertebral disk, in the opinion of the leading Texas bone specialists.

There are many other names for disk disorders and some are slightly different mishaps than a true rupture of the disk from the cage that confines it between two vertebral bones. Rupture disk, collapsed disk, bulging disk, protruding disk, and sometimes lumbago and sciatica may be used to label a disk disorder.

To illustrate how prevalent rupture of the intervertebral disk may be, it was listed as one of the most common single causes for hospitalization in Army general hospitals.

As a step forward in understanding the cause and mechanics of sometimes severe pain in the back or in the neck, the discovery and treatment of ruptured disk is a great boon to many people who otherwise would often be doomed to chronic illness, with both pain and disability.

On the other hand, the medical profession is ever cautious to remind the public that all back pain and all neck pain is not the result of ruptured disk or any kind of disk disorder. A recent medical article on back pain listed more than 100 other possible causes, all of which must be considered either separately or in conjunction with a ruptured disk.

It all boils down to the fact that neck or back pain is no longer often "something you have to put up with." In the majority of cases it can today be relieved.

There is no doubt that climate and health are intimately associated but exactly how close a relationship exists between good health and climate conditions seems to defy pinning down. Climatic conditions associated with disease seem easier to grab hold of and try to make something of.

Everything you come in contact with has some effect upon your health and certainly the climate has far-reaching effects. The food you eat, the homes you live in, your social life are all determined more or less by the prevailing climatic conditions. The various germs that cause disease and the insects that carry those germs are affected by the weather — the heat, the humidity, the rainfall and many other phases of climate. One of the most dramatic results of climate upon food and health was illustrated last fall in France. The grain fields in one section of the country had been flooded, destroying the crop. Instead of throwing the crop away, some of the grain was marketed and made into bread. The rotten grain acted as a powerful poison to the nerves of those who ate the bread, creating a form of insanity which either killed or permanently injured.

Less serious but quite as dramatic is the climate factor that enters into food poisoning. Custards and salad preparations can spoil rapidly in warm, humid weather, creating violet intestinal upsets; the same foods in dry or cool weather can remain without refrigeration for much longer periods without any danger of the contamination that causes the symptoms of food poisoning.
