The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

THOSE OF YOU who missed last night's "B" team football game missed a good show. Last year's Midget team took the field most intact and played with plenty of drive and precision to win. The Lobos of next year are going to have some fine players, you can be sure. Enthusiasm for the "B" team seemed to grow as the game progressed. A group of "A" team members took over as pep squad leaders. Officials for the game were Chesley Tipton, Troy Stewart, Don Johnson and Claude Sasso. The red cloth they used to throw down on penalty occasions was silk. . . 300 to 400 people attended the contest.

COMES A LETTER from Mr. Fred Frede, director of Vocational Education of the Texas Education System at Huntsville and formerly of Cisco Junior College. The prison newspaper wants to use Mr. Frede's picture, and he wanted us to send a cut of him. The Echo.

"It might be interesting to know if no identification is issued to employees and the guards must recognize a person by sight before allowing him to enter or leave through the gates," Mr. Frede writes.

"So far, I am still in the orientation stage; that is, instead of dispensing information I am learning. The organizational structure in itself is very complex. The various forms used, not only in the school proper but to carry on the business of the system, are numerous. One must learn rules, regulations and customs, but, with all that, it is interesting work."

THE MAIL ALSO brings a postcard signed "Scout Underwood." The card shows the royal gorge, near Canon City, Colorado, with the world's highest suspension bridge spanning the gorge to a height of 1053 feet above the river. And Scout Underwood writes: "This is some gully. Saw Saturday and rode incline rail to bottom. Have come off lift at Aspen, 11,300 feet high. Quite an experience." The Felton Underwoods are on their annual vacation. When they return, we're going to ask him to write us an article on skiing.

MR. TOM STARK tells us that he will take Mrs. Stark to a Fort Worth hospital early next week to undergo a major operation. And he all hope that it turns out well. Mr. Bob Elliott is up after a bout of several days with influenza. Thursday was birthday for Mr. and Mrs. Sid Gregory, son of the Jeff Gregory.

MR. CHARLES S. Sandler sent us a copy of The Bulletin, a newspaper printed in Scotland where Miss Zella Sandler is a visitor. And it's interesting to read the paper. One of the lead stories says: "America's political struggle mounted in intensity yesterday with Mr. Eisenhower and President Truman exchanging blows. The president accused the Eisenhower command of increasing the risk of atomic war by talking about liberating the enslaved peoples of eastern Europe." Another item says: "The ration chocolate and sweets for ration period No. 5, which begins Sept. 22, remains at 24 oz. The points value of chocolate and sweets will remain at 16 points per pound."

There's a big picture in the paper of the Lord Provost (the Mayor) talking to Miss Sandler and a couple of others who made the tour of Europe last summer. Looked over the ads, but couldn't tell much about the prices as everything quoted was in the English pound system. Didn't see any ads about articles and items manufactured in the United States.

The only American news item noticed in the whole paper was the item about General Eisenhower and President Truman. The thing we noticed was that the English and the Scots write the English language a little different from the way Americans do.

WORD COMES from Big Spring that Mrs. Eula Grantz of Cisco is doing nicely. She fell there last Saturday night and suffered.

NOT FAR FROM ROME—Workers are putting finishing touches to the grounds of the new Gran Sasso Observatory which is in one of Italy's wildest mountain regions. It has the latest astronomical gear and powerful lenses, and is placed 6700 feet above sea level.

LOBO 'B' TEAM LOOKS GOOD IN 19-TO-0 VICTORY OVER DUBLIN

A smooth working offense and a stout defense enabled the Cisco Lobo "B" team to down a heavier Dublin Lion "B" team 19-0 at Chesley Field Thursday night.

The running of Harold Phippen, Buck Whitehead, John Carlisle, Tommy Reynolds and other backs amassed a total of 277 yards on the ground for the junior Lobos while the forward wall held the Dublin boys to a net of 55 yards on the ground. At the end of the first half Dublin had a minus three yards from scrimmage. Their only long run was a 36 yard sprint down the south sideline in the 4th quarter.

The first Lobo score came in the first quarter on a pass play from Quarterback Tommy Reynolds to Right End Bill Miller.

Demmison Service Planned Saturday At Thomas Chapel

Funeral services for Thomas B. (Red) Demmison, former Cisco resident who died on September 8 at his home in Fairbanks, Alaska will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Thomas Chapel with the Rev. M. L. Agnew in charge.

Mr. Demmison lived in Cisco until 18 years ago when he moved to Alaska. He had made his home there since that time.

The body was to arrive in Cisco by train at noon Friday. It was to be met by relatives, friends and a contingent of American Legion members. Mr. Demmison was a veteran and a member of the Legion. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery with Thomas Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements. This local American Legion post will have a part in the services. Survivors are three brothers, J. W. Demmison of Cisco, Jack Demmison of Fairbanks, Alaska, and John D. Demmison of Houston; two sisters, Mrs. Clarence McConnell of Uvalde and Mrs. A. M. Mater of Choctaw, Oklahoma and a number of nieces and nephews.

Rising Star To Open Grid Season Tonight

The Rising Star Wildcats will open their 1952 grid season when they play hosts to the Early Longhorns at the Rising Star field at 8 p. m. Friday (tonight).

Coach Cowan will field a team composed of seven lettermen. There are 22 men on the squad. The Rising Star band will be on hand for the opening activities and will perform between halves. Coach Cowan was facing a tough schedule with dim prospects, he said.

COUNTY MEET PLANNED

The County Federation will meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Eastland Club House for their first meeting of the year. All members of the Cisco Club have been urged to attend.

which was good for 15 yards. Miller ran an additional 15 for the counter. Reynolds kicked the goal to bring the count to 7-0. The ball was worked to the 30 by the Lobos, after they took the opening kickoff, on hard runs by Harold Phippen and Buck Whitehead.

Phippen set up the second score by a 25 yard sprint in the second quarter. His run worked the ball inside the 20 and from there he, Whitehead, Carlisle and Reynolds worked it to the two. Phippen made a yard and Reynolds carried over on a quarterback sneak and failed to kick goal.

After a scoreless third quarter, Phippen set up the final score when he intercepted a Dublin pass on his own 19 and ran it back to the Dublin 30 before being knocked down. Substitute Center Robert Fletcher threw a block that shook him loose from a tackler on the fifty, and shoulder blocks by several Lobos took him on to the enemy 30. Successive runs by Phippen, Carlisle, Bobby Bennie and Reynolds carried to the one where Reynolds went over on a sneak over center. Reynolds kick was blocked.

The only thing Coaches Jack Everett and Jay Williams were dissatisfied with during the game was the downfield blocking. Most of the yardage picked up after the backs broke through the line was on their own. However, they were not too critical since the team had worked together for only two or three days before the game.

Particularly pleasing to the coaches, in addition to the running of the backs, was the stout defensive work of Guard Leonard Simmons. His charging and line blocking stood out over the fine work of other linemen including Joe Wayne Farrow, Ronnie Qualls, Edward Bernie, Kenneth Penn, Bill Miller, Lavere Adams, who started the game. The entire starting line, except Miller, was composed of freshmen up from the Midget team last year and the starting backfield was composed of three freshmen and one sophomore.

Others seeing action and giving a good account of themselves were Billy Webb, Bob Miller, Ernest Moore, Jimmy Sublett, Howard Hamilton, and Paul Ford, backs; Carroll Thames, Biddy Echols, Tommy Collier, Donald Meier, Frank Walton, Robert Fletcher, Bobby Notgrass and Buz Johnson, linemen.

Junior College Benefit Outlined In Rotary Talk

The benefits of the junior college to the student and to the cultural and economic life of the community were explained in a talk by Rotarian Jack Chambliss, Cisco Junior College instructor, at the meeting of the Cisco Rotary Club at the Hotel Victor Thursday.

Mr. Chambliss told of the benefits to students in that the junior college helped in the adjustment period that comes between high school and going away from home to a larger school where the student was just one of some thousands. He said that at the junior college the student received the personal attention of the teacher and the department heads while that was impossible at many larger schools.

He stressed the fine arts departments as the benefit the community received in its cultural development and paid particular attention to the music department at Cisco Junior College. He told of the money the students and the instructors spent in the community as the basis of his remarks on economic values of the school. He asked Rotarians to think where some of the towns of Texas would be if the colleges were not there.

Mr. Chambliss stressed, and proved to Rotarians by quoting from bulletins, that Cisco Junior College was fully accredited by the American Association of Junior Colleges and by the Texas Association of Junior Colleges.

Prior to Mr. Chambliss' talk Rotarian Robert Clinton sang two numbers. He was accompanied by the piano by Mrs. Clinton. His selections were Whither by Franz Schubert and The Roving Gambler by John J. Mills.

The program was arranged by Rotarian B. A. Butler. As a part of the day's business Dr. Jim Lawrence was welcomed as a new member. Rotarian E. P. Crawford made the welcoming talk.

Visitors at the meeting were Rotarians Jimmie Freeman of Abilene and Henry Rockwell of Houston. Other visitors were Buck Richardson of Big Spring and S. H. Nance of Cisco.

Motion Picture Will Be Shown To Presbyterians

A deeply moving sound motion picture in color is to be shown at the First Presbyterian Church, 500 W. 6th, on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone has been cordially invited to attend. The picture, called "Thy Word Giveth Light," portrays the events in the life of a young man who as a soldier is blinded by an explosion on Anzio Beach in Italy. He is bitter until, while learning to read by means of raised dots on paper, he is introduced to the Bible in Braille. The great truths which have inspired hope in the hearts of men through the centuries bring him spiritual contentment and he is lifted from despair to a purposeful life.

An interesting and educational highlight in the film is the tracing of the various developments of raised letter printing from the early "Line Letter" system to the present widely used "Revised Braille." Also demonstrated are "Talking Book" records which are used by those unable to use any system of writing.

The film was produced for the American Bible Society, a missionary organization which has been supplying Scriptures to the blind since 1835.

The subject for the morning service is "The Gospel's Power," by the minister, Rev. Grady James.

The linotype machine was first put into use in 1836 by the New York Tribune. It was the invention of Ottmar Mergenthaler.

Nevada was the 36th state admitted to the union.

Lobos Will Get First AA Action

The 1952 Cisco High School football team will get a taste of Class AA competition at 8 p. m. Friday (tonight) when the Lobos tangle with the Bulldogs of Brady High School. The game, however, will be a non-conference affair as the two clubs play in different circuits.

The Lobos will be a slight underdog, according to area dopsters, due largely to Brady's more numerous experienced performers. The two clubs battled to a 7-7 tie when they met for the first time at Brady last season.

Coaches Jack Everett and Jay Williams completed plans for the game with a long drill Thursday afternoon. The Lobos will enter the game in comparatively good physical condition, with only one starter on the slightly ailing list. End Jim Webb has a sprained back muscle that has cramped his style, but he is due to play on the offense.

The starting Lobo lineup is due to look pretty much the same as it was last week. Jim Reynolds, letterman lineman, has recovered from an ankle injury and he is scheduled to start at guard, with Sonny McCrea on the other side of the line and Mack McCauley ready to relieve either of them.

Bobby Qualls will be at center with Sherwood Gaines and Dan Gray at tackles. Webb and Bill Smith will be at the end positions. The backfield will be composed of Boy Gallagher, Bob Black, Bob Lloyd and Irv Brunkenhoefer.

Brady is due to bring a squad of 25 players, along with their band and a large delegation of fans. The two teams will be about equal as to weights.

Jerry Sessom, quarterback of Brady's "T" attack and tailback on their spread formations, is the big gun of the Bulldog eleven. He runs, passes and kicks, along with calling signals. He occupied the same position in the 1951 Brady machine. Two of his running mates, Ronnie Young and Wade Turner, are highly regarded performers.

The probable starting Brady lineup with the weights of the players has been released as follows: Ends — Ronnie Burk, 158, and Doyle Todd, 153; tackles — Eithel Hahn, 181, and James Marshall, 172; guards — Kenneth Harlow, 152, and Richard Rickman, 164; center — John Rudder, 167; backs — Sessom, 160, Young, 157; Turner, 134; and Bill Howard, 161.

C. D. York, Ray Newton and Garland Black are coaches of the Brady team.

90th Birthday Is Observed Sept. 18 By Mrs. Langston

Mrs. Frank Langston, 301 Ave. H., who has lived in Cisco for the past 60 years, celebrated her 90th birthday at her home Thursday. The celebration consisted of visits from friends and members of the family during the day.

Mrs. Langston was born on September 18, 1862, in East Texas in what is known now as Rusk County. At the time of her birth that part of Texas was not organized into counties. She came to Cisco with Mr. Langston some 60 years ago.

For the past few years she has been confined to her home because of a broken hip received in a fall. She is able to be up some and her general health was said to be good.

Out of town visitors here for the birthday celebration were a son, D. L. (Pat) Langston of Fort Worth; a grandson, Frank Langston and his family of Dallas and a granddaughter, Mrs. C. R. Cogswell of Dallas.

ENLIGHTENED PUBLIC OPINION

The Wall Street Journal recently ran an interesting editorial on one rather remarkable phase of this Presidential campaign. "Both Governor Stephenson and General Eisenhower have now looked under the pressure group bed and found nothing there that enlightened public opinion won't take care of," the paper said.

"Governor Stephenson did it before the American Legion Convention in New York when he said he would submit to no demands he thought were excessive or in conflict with the public interest."

"General Eisenhower said it... these attitudes in high terms and concluded, "It is a heartening sign to see both Governor Stephenson and General Eisenhower put such a turn to the campaign. For if both refuse to yield to excessive demands, the bargaining power of such groups and organizations will eventually become known for what it really is: A fiction under the bed and nothing more."

It is only human nature that every pressure group should claim that it can deliver the votes of its members in toto, and that the candidates must go along with its views or else. And it is probably only human nature that a good many politicians should decide to play it that way and break their necks trying to please all factions and alienate none. But the fact is that there is nothing in our recent political history to prove that any group, no matter how large and powerful, can make all or even the larger part of its membership do what it wishes once they enter the polling booth.

In late years, the most vigorous pressure groups have been the major labor unions. The CIO has been the most aggressive of all. It, and to a lesser extent the AFofL, have been potent voices in the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations. The leaders of these unions have done everything conceivable to induce the rank-and-file to follow their recommendations, and they have spent very large sums of money on behalf of favored candidates. They have been helped in this by laws which prevent the employer from directly trying to influence the vote of the employee.

But the figures show that the unions have failed to control their membership. The most signal example was Senator Taft's last victory in Ohio. The heads of organized labor waged as tough a campaign against Taft as their strategists could conceive. They did their best to make him appear the implacable foe of the working man and the bosom friend of the exploiter of labor. Yet Taft carried the state overwhelmingly — by close to 500,000 votes. He carried almost all of the labor centers. The statistics speak for themselves — Taft could not have won so decisive a victory had not a very large percentage of union men voted for him. And in the 1948 Presidential race, Governor Dewey, despite unequivocal CIO and AFofL endorsement of President Truman, ran very well in many highly industrialized areas where organized labor represents a heavy majority of the population. Curiously enough, an analysis of the 1948 returns shows that it was the farm vote, not the labor vote, which elected Mr. Truman.

So the Wall Street Journal has the record on its side when it describes the power of special groups as "A fiction under the bed and nothing more." Any group can tell its members what to do but it can't follow them into the polling booth and see that its orders are obeyed. The American voter seems to be an independent cuss, who makes his X beside the name of his choice — not somebody else's choice.

The word Pastor originally meant shepherd.

SAYS OLIVIA DE HAVILLAND

Do you know why your ears were burning a bit ago? I was listening to a wonderful story about a Defense Bond owner. A thrifty, patriotic person, one I respect and admire. You.

You're writing the most exciting success story the world has even seen. And I'm proud of it, for you see, I'm on the same team. I'm a Defense Bond owner, too.

I wonder if you know all the good things that Defense Bonds mean to us. For example:

- FIRST—Thanks to new Treasury regulations, every Series E Bond we buy begins earning interest after only 6 months. It earns 3% interest compounded semiannually when held to maturity. It reaches full maturity value earlier (9 years 8 months) and the interest it pays is now bigger at the start. SECOND—Every Series E Bond we own can now go on earning interest for 10 more years after it reaches the original maturity date—without our lifting a finger! THIRD—During the 10-year extension period, every unmat-ured bond earns at the new, higher interest rate (average 3% compounded semiannually). Our original $18.75 can now pay us back $33.67. $37.50 pays back $67.34. And so on. FOURTH—When we make ourselves and our families economically secure through buying bonds, we're helping to build the great economic strength that backs up our national defense. And this is the best security our money can buy. For after two world wars we have found that peace is for the strong!

U. S. Defense Bonds are one of the easiest, most convenient forms of saving ever invented. For through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, you can buy bonds on a time payment plan. Just specify the payments, as large or as small as you like, and they will be automatically set aside from your salary. This way you save the money before you spend it. And millions of people have found this is one sure way to save.

expected are the inevitable tragic reports of deaths and injuries occurring when impatient youngsters dash across busy highways to greet their waiting parents or to board the bus. Most of such accidents could be avoided if motorists would adhere strictly to the letter of the law pertaining to the passing of school busses.

Most Texans are aware of the law which requires a driver to come to a complete stop when overtaking from the rear a school bus which has stopped to receive or discharge school children. After stopping immediately behind the bus, he is then allowed by law to proceed past same at a speed "which is prudent, not exceeding ten (10) miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

What many persons do not realize is that the very same rule applies when MEETING a stopped school bus. While everyone is interested in protecting our children, unthinking violators of this simple safety rule greatly outnumber those who comply. Failure to follow the law in this case can lead to fines up to $200 even when no accident occurs. Following an accident in which some child is injured or killed, the penalties are naturally much more serious.

Although the above rule does not apply when passing a stopped school bus in a business or residential district of a town, the necessity for extreme caution even in those locations is obvious.

When it comes to overtaking and passing moving vehicles, exercise of ordinary common sense will generally keep a driver within the law. For instance, when passing a car it is only common sense to proceed on past it a safe distance before cutting back to the right side of the highway. Also, any driver would realize the danger of increasing his speed while another is attempting to pass him.

In the same category is the prohibition against passing on the right under most ordinary conditions. Of course, you may legally pass on the right in a few specific instances, such as when the vehicle overtaken is making or about to make a left turn, or upon a one-way street with two or more lanes, or upon a four-lane highway.

However, our traffic laws state that even when passing on the right is allowed, it shall be done only under conditions permitting such movement in safety. And, in no event should such passing be accomplished by driving off the pavement or main-traveled portion of the roadway.

Even when not engaged in passing another vehicle, a driver is prohibited from driving to the left of the center of the roadway in many instances. Familiar to all are the no passing zones designated by dash lines placed to one side of the center stripe on our highways.

Not so well known are the restrictions against crossing the center line when approaching within 100 feet of any bridge, viaduct or tunnel. The prohibition also applies when approaching within 100 feet of or when traversing any intersection or railroad grade crossing. A driver should never cross the center line of a highway when the left side of the road is not clearly visible and free of oncoming traffic.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)
