

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

HAVE JUST RUN into some talk about "I'm not going to vote — my vote wouldn't make a difference." And one vote never seems important before an election. But on the day after, someone, somewhere always says: "We'd only had one more vote." There are a few times in our history where one vote was important:

One vote cast by a voter who was sick bed to go to the polls gave victory to an Indiana congressman.

One vote cast by this same congressman, in 1876, madeutherford B. Hayes President of the United States.

One vote cast by a miller in Kalb County, Indiana, in the 1870s elected a certain man to the state legislature.

One vote cast by this same legislator, sent Edward A. Hannegan to the United States Senate.

One vote cast by the same Edward Hannegan admitted Texas Statehood — for which the U. S. and Mexico went to war.

One vote admitted California, Washington and Oregon to the union, and one vote in the senate denied statehood to Alaska.

One vote more in each California precinct in 1916 would have defeated Woodrow Wilson and given victory to Charles Evans Hughes.

One vote more in each of Ohio's and California's precincts would have tied the electoral race between Dewey and Truman in 1948.

One vote in November could have changed world history. Will it be yours?

OUR CURIOSITY got the best of us the other afternoon and we stopped at the Bill Wright home at the corner of Avenue 14 and west 14th Street. There's a substantial construction job underway. They're doing some general remodeling, which will add to the beauty and comfort of their home. Garrett and Speir, Jr., has the contract.

UNDERSTAND THAT those who enjoy top quality music will want to be present over in Eastland's high school auditorium at 8 p. m. Tuesday when Mr. Breese Westmoreland, Abilene tenor, gives a concert. He has appeared with leading opera companies and numerous motion pictures. His program, elsewhere in today's Press, features both classical and popular music.

THE COMMUNITY Chest campaign still needs considerable money to complete the budget requirements. We've always operated under the theory that everybody who lives in a town ought to support the town and pay his fair share of the bills.

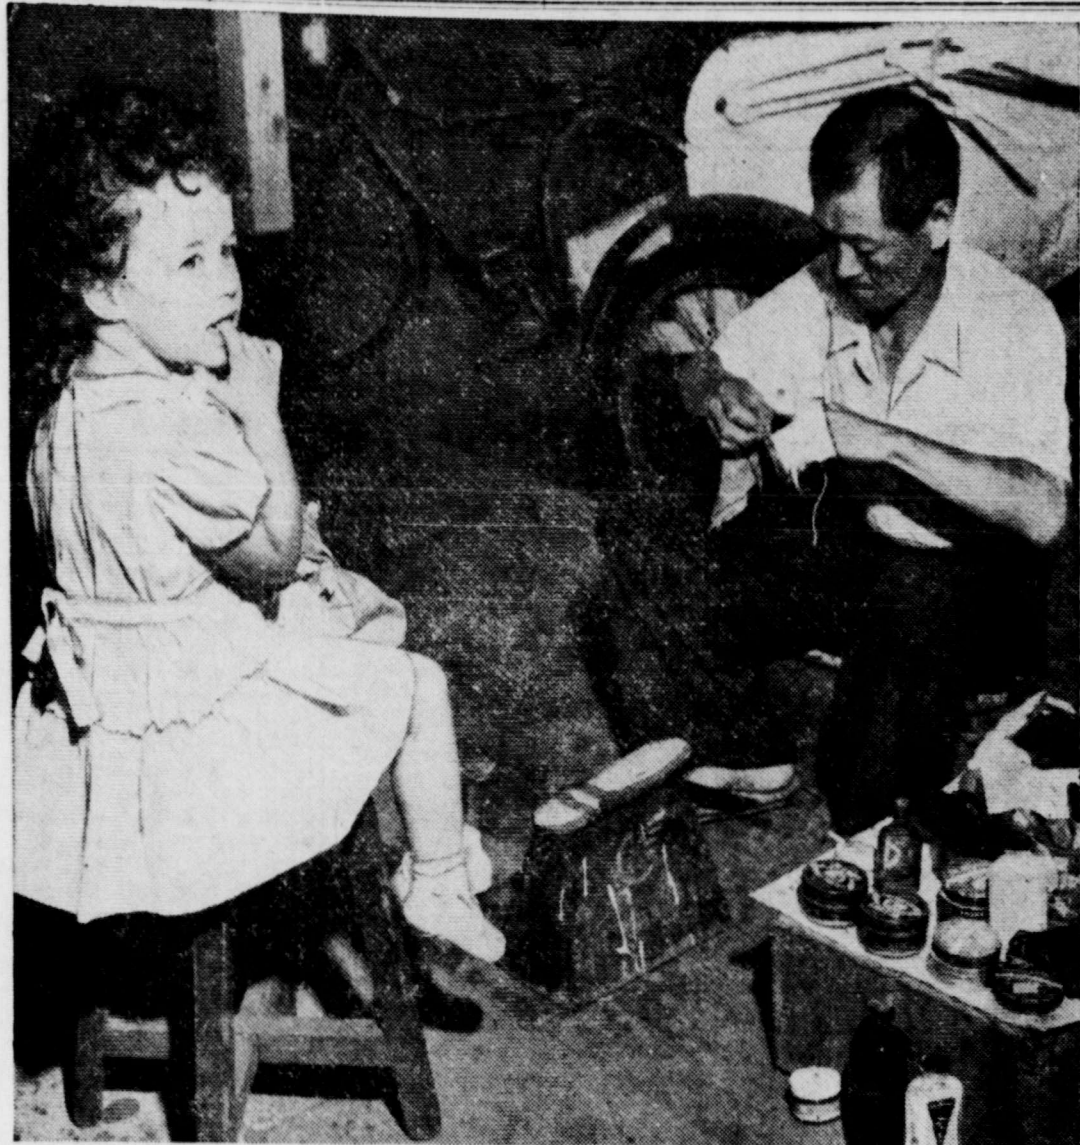

Things like the Girl Scouts, the Boy Scouts, the Red Cross, the Welfare Association, the USO, the Salvation Army, the Cancer Society, the ABC Club, the Hobby Club and the Heart Association benefit everyone alike. They are organizations formed for the mutual good. Each has a very definite place in every community. Every citizen ought to share the responsibility for supporting them.

So, let's each do his part. We can't afford to deprive our town of the services of these agencies when a small donation by everybody would put the budget over the top. If everybody did his part, there would be no burden on anybody.

Several Criminal Cases Are Heard In District Court

Action was taken in a number of criminal cases in the 91st District Court of Eastland County during the past week. District Attorney J. M. Nueesse reported Saturday. Several cases are due to be heard during the coming week, and another grand jury meeting has been scheduled.

Harold Dean Nichols, Cisco, was transported to Huntsville on Oct. 22 by Deputy Sheriff Les Threat to begin serving a 5-year sentence after being convicted on charges of assault with intent to rape a 9-year old girl.

At the same time, Deputy Threat took M. J. Casey and Clinton Casey, Eastland brothers, to the state prison to begin serving 2-year terms assessed them on charges of burglarizing a Gorman store last April 11. Their trial was on Tuesday, Oct. 21.

Cecil Taylor of Louisiana was sentenced to a 2-year prison term on Oct. 22 on charges of burglarizing a Ranger motor company on Sept. 23. Three men arrested in the same case are in the custody of Sheriff J. F. Tucker awaiting grand jury action.

The court tried Zona Green, Breckenridge, and Curtis Ray Sharp, Ranger, for an assault upon John Kimbrough, Ranger, on Sept. 1. Green was convicted of aggravated assault and given a 30-day county jail sentence. Sharp was convicted of assault with intent to rob and given a 2-year suspended sentence and released under a $1,000 peace bond.

Douglas Bowman and Helen D. Wiley, Birmingham, Alabama, were convicted in a trial on Oct. 21.

Wranglers Drop 38-0 Decision To Strong Midwestern Eleven

A strong Midwestern University "B" team of Wichita Falls struck in every quarter Friday night to triumph over the Cisco Junior College Wranglers by a score of 38 to 0 in a football game at Chesley Field. Midwestern scored once in each of the first three periods and three times in the final stanza.

A rugged Midwestern defensive outfit, led by Don Watts, a former Cisco High School star, almost completely bottled center, almost completely bottled up the Wrangler offensive game. The Cisco team had a minus eight yards in rushing plays and completed four of 20 passes for 42 yards.

The Wrangler forward wall was strong on the defense most of the time and allowed the visitors only 162 net yards on running plays.

Road Problems Will Be Talked At WTCC Meeting

ABILENE, Oct. 26.—Texas highway problems will be discussed in a series of eight meetings in West Texas November 5 to 17, under auspices of local chambers of commerce and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the WTCC announced today.

The meetings were suggested by the WTCC Highway Policy Committee, which is headed by Virgil P. Patterson of Amarillo.

The schedule follows: November 5, Lubbock; November 6, Amarillo; November 7, Wichita Falls; November 10, Monahans; November 12, Del Rio; November 13, Brownwood; November 14, Fort Worth; November 17, Abilene.

Patterson said that all interested citizens are invited to take part in the conferences. He suggested they contact chambers of commerce of the host cities if they plan to attend.

James F. Melton, manager of the WTCC taxation and legislation department, will present a summary of contents of a pamphlet issued by the Highway Policy committee that contains an exhaustive analysis of needs for all types of roads, and financial problems they create.

The committee is confining its work to conducting an educational program. It will make a report of West Texas needs to Governor Shivers. It will make no recommendations as to financing of construction and maintenance or division of funds between types of roads.

'Aid To Austria' Project Will Be Meet Highlight

WORTHAM, Oct. 24. — Emphasis on the big "Aid to Austria" project of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs will highlight the November 10-13 55th annual convention in Austin. Mrs. Van Hook Stubbs of Wortham, TFWC president, names Tuesday night's address by the Austrian ambassador an outstanding feature of the four-day session.

Most of Tuesday's program will center on how the 1,200 Texas clubs are focusing their international affairs work on Austria to strengthen its stand against Communism. District presidents present a panel at 3 o'clock Tuesday on each district's responsibility in the statewide Austrian project. An over-all report by the International Affairs department is set for the dinner Tuesday night at the Student Union building on the University of Texas campus.

Dr. Max Lowenthal, ambassador from Austria to the United States, speaks at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, followed by a formal reception for the ambassador and his wife.

Earlier Tuesday, Bryan Blalock of Marshall, public relations director of the Borden company, makes a citizenship address at 2:20. The well-known civic speaker's appearance climaxes the afternoon session of the federation's new Americanism department.

Wednesday is Junior Club Day, beginning with an 8 o'clock breakfast at which Mrs. Stubbs will be guest speaker. The Music Room at the clubhouse will be the site of the juniors' morning session. A prominent officer of the General Federation speaks at 11, preceding the Junior luncheon.

The general convention Wednesday morning hears panels by the American Home, Conservation, and Education departments. Wednesday's luncheon is a free period during which each department head will get together with her state division chairmen for an informal powwow. This is something new being tried for the first time at this convention.

Preceding Wednesday morning's session will be workshops on parliamentary procedure, public speaking, national defense, and safety. Experts will lead these workshops devoted to improving the mechanics of clubwork.

Legion Members See Special Film

A motion picture, "United We Stand," prepared by the Department of Defense on the unification theme, was shown by Warrant Officer Vernon L. DeLong as the program feature at the semi-monthly meeting Thursday night of the John William Butts Post 123 of the American Legion.

In a short business session, Adjutant W. P. Knight reported that the Post now has enrolled 126 members for 1953, and the campaign still is in progress.

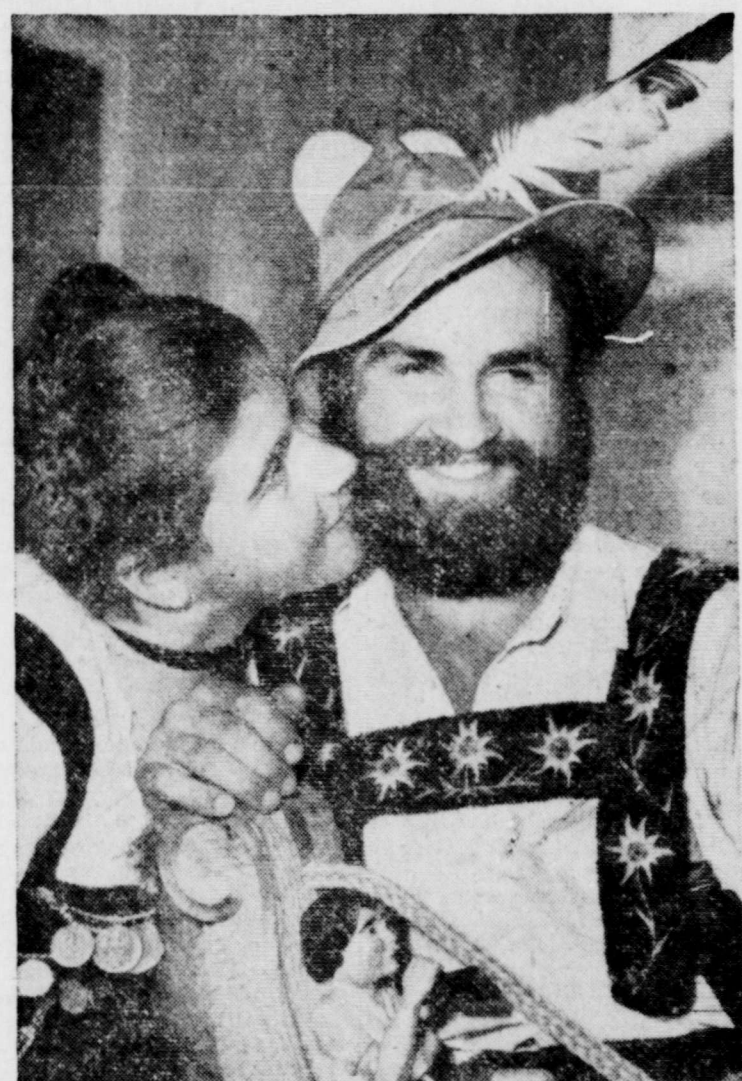

The Post voted to secure 10 additional U. S. Army rifles for use by the Cisco Unit of the National Guard in training a rifle team for public events and military funerals. Post Commander W. J. Foxworth gave a report on the recent district 17 convention in Hamilton.

Other routine business matters were discussed by the comparatively large group in attendance.

Dobbins Purchases East Side Station

I. J. Dobbins, a Cisco resident for many years, has announced the purchase of the East Side Service Station on U. S. Highway 80 East. The sale was made last week and Mr. Dobbins has assumed management of the business.

He announced that he would handle Conoco products, and invited people of the Cisco area to visit him in his new business.

All entrants had to prove they were clean shaven three months before.

Cisco Marine, Veteran Of Japanese Prison And Korea, Visiting In City

A rugged 40 months spent in a Japanese prison camp during World War II failed to dim the enthusiasm of one Cisco Marine who reenlisted following the war and has decided to make the Corps his career.

Master Sergeant Bobby Bacon, son of Mrs. Ota Bacon of Cisco, has just returned from the Korean theatre and, with his wife, is spending his leave visiting his mother and other relatives here and relatives and friends in Texas before reporting for duty at Miami, Florida, on November 12.

Sgt. Bacon enlisted in the Marine Corps on January 8, 1940, and was sent to Corrigador in March, 1940, where he was when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor. He was taken prisoner when the fortress fell and was kept in prison camps in the Philippines and in Japan until he was liberated on September 11, 1945, a date he will always remember.

He and Mrs. Bacon, the former Farene Reaves of Cisco whom he married in Cisco on June 22, 1946, plan to arrive in Florida in November to locate a place to live. Sgt. Bacon is a native of Cisco and graduated from Cisco High School before entering the service.

All Cisco Girl Scouts will join Scouts over the nation in the observance of Girl Scout Week October 26-November 1, and impressive programs have been planned by the various local troops for every day of the week.

The week will begin with all Scouts and Brownies, along with their leaders, attending church as a group. The First Christian Church was selected for the service participation and the services have been planned to coincide with the movement.

On Monday, October 27, Girl Scout Troop No. 7 will present a program in keeping with Home-making Day; and on Tuesday Troops 5 and 6 will present a flag ceremony at Cisco Junior High School.

On Wednesday Scouts of the sixth grade will present posters they have prepared showing health rules taught in the scouting program.

Thursday the Lucky Brownie Troop will pack a box of warm, used clothing. The box will be sent overseas in observance of Girl Scout International Friendship. Friday Brownie Troop No. 1 will make tray favors for Graham Hospital. The making of the favors will be in observance of Art and Craft Day.

The activities of Girl Scout Week will end Saturday when the Brownies participate in a Brownie Playday. The program will begin at 10 a. m. and will close at noon. A nosebag lunch will be the concluding event for the playday. The two hours will be spent in playing games and in competitive events.

Budget Campaign Is Extended For Week At Meeting

The annual Cisco Community Chest drive was in striking distance of its $8,700 budget goal Saturday, Chairman George Davis announced following a meeting of committee leaders. A survey at noon Saturday showed that more than $6,500 has been collected by the campaign workers.

The drive was extended this week when it became apparent that many of the canvass committees would be unable to complete their assignments before the closing date of the drive. All workers will meet at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Chamber of Commerce to plan a cleanup drive, Mr. Davis said.

"We are encouraged that the quota will be met in the drive on the basis of Saturday's survey," Mr. Davis said. "Donations are most liberal in many instances, and we feel that the cleanup work will put the drive over the top."

The chest budget this year provides for the financial needs of ten charitable and character building organizations. Included in the drive are the coming year's budget requirements of the City Welfare Association, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the ABC Club, the Cisco Hobby Club, the American Red Cross, the Cancer Society, the Texas Heart Association, the Salvation Army and the USO.

Mr. Davis pointed out that "this is the first time in the three years of the Cisco Community Chest that we have sought to provide the finances for all public supported organization in one drive." The Red Cross campaign has been conducted separately in past years.

The Rev. Leslie W. Seymour, president of the Chest's board of directors, joined Mr. Davis in an appeal for support of the campaign. "We must not fail," he said. "Our city has a genuine need for each of these worthy organizations, and they cannot be effective without adequate finances. Let's each do his part."

Mr. Davis said that anyone who has not been contacted may contribute by sending or leaving a donation at the First National Bank.

Supplementing Political Salaries

The number of our national leaders who come from lower income families — and therefore have no private income to supplement their salaries — is on the increase, according to a survey published in the November issue of Pageant Magazine.

The result is that more and more men in public office are finding themselves in the position of Senator Richard Nixon, faced with expenses which their positions require but which their relatively modest salaries cannot provide.

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

When you meet a blind person, you sometimes feel ill at ease, wondering what you should do and say.

If you are unsure how to help, you might simply and quietly ask, "May I help you?" Then he will feel free to say if you can be of assistance and how.

In walking, all he needs is to tuck his arm under yours, with his fingers resting lightly on your forearm. It will be helpful if you stay about a half step ahead.

If you come to steps, let him know how many times he must step up or down, which means that you say four if there are three steps.

Also, indicate if an obstacle or a change in the kind of footing ahead may be troublesome.

It is courteous to let someone who is blind know when you enter or leave the room. When you meet him for the first time, or if there is a possibility he may not recognize your voice, tell him who you are.

When you speak, do directly and not through someone else; also, call him by name, if possible. A gesture like a shake of the head will mean little or nothing; therefore, it is better to speak clearly a "yes" or "no."

more and more American children are going to high school and college. And as labor and the farmer have wielded more influence nationally more men of commonplace origins have gone to Washington in key posts to serve as their spokesmen.

It is not necessary to shout; in fact, shouting when you see he is heading toward danger is likely to upset him. It would be better to say in a normal tone of voice, "Just a moment," then tell him what the trouble is.

If you avoid using "blind" or "see," your conversation will seem artificial. Often a description of unusually beautiful or interesting surroundings in specific terms will add to his enjoyment of an occasion.

At the table, a blind person is accustomed to finding his dishes and silver. However, if he misses a vegetable or a sauce in a separate dish, you might quietly bring it to his attention. Also, if a glass is set in a spot at which it might be upset, he will appreciate knowing about it.

He said that he felt that nothing would be accomplished in the talks now going on between Communists and the United Nations officials in an effort to bring about a peaceful settlement of the Korean action. He said that his opinion and the opinion of the majority of Marines in Korea was a necessity and that, had President Truman not ordered the American troops to Korea we would now be in a much bigger war.

Sgt. Bacon said that a poll of the Marines in Korea showed that they overwhelmingly supported the Democratic nominee for the presidency.

Long Range Viewpoint

If we could but project our thoughts into a higher realm whereby this old terrestrial ball called earth could be objectively viewed from above to evaluate past — present — future without prejudice of politics — what would be the conclusions logically drawn??

FIRST — Our impression would probably be that the most amazing technological progress made in the last 6000 years has occurred in the past 100 years — scientific progress being responsible for an industrial revolution which we are in now with the resulting state of confusion in social, economic, and philosophical thinking.

SECOND — That this confusion has caused our generation to fail to understand and to interpret economic values and human faculties in the same high plane that our forefathers saw them when they drew up our Constitution to bring about the greatest freedom mankind has ever known — in which the human powers to invent and produce were encouraged by individual incentives which are both a cause and result of our present state of progressive enterprise.

THIRD — That while many of the greatest scientific discoveries have been made in the last 20 years and while we are even on the verge of greater untold discoveries and progress even into the unknown cosmos — that the unrecognized and terrible hazard is the same old sad human weakness that has destroyed all previous civilizations in world history — corruption in high places and complacency among average citizens about it.

FOURTH — That these United States in the last 20 years have made wonderful progress at home in a sociological way — with federal government playing an important part therein particularly in its farm program, social security, wage and hour regulations, housing administration, etc. — that these factors are all a part of orderly change as provided by and made possible under our Constitution by congressional action, amendment, etc.

FIFTH — That after making these necessary changes — certain so-called intellectuals through immoral or misled motives have grossly violated our Constitution in the evil provisions of such unprecedented theories as paramount rights (Tidelands) which can be used to destroy every individual freedom; of executive decree (war) without prior congressional approval; of actual foreign treaty (forever binding) by quasi-governmental committees (United Nations) without Senate approval. Condoning these irresponsible and actually dangerous practices are men whose intentions may or may not be as wrong as their judgment.

SIXTH — That there will surely be a moral awakening starting in the grass roots among average citizens which will cause men in high places to retract their condemnation of time-proven democratic institutions (Congress) and revalue the meaning of the word "honor" in our language. Our enlightened people will then spread their ideals of Hope and Faith over a welcoming world in a movement similar to the migration of people from Europe to America in the 18th century or like the great movement of our own people to the West in the 19th century. The world will be better because of these American ideals.

Coming back to this earthly struggle after viewing the good and bad from afar — one must have renewed faith in our people even though some in selfish and unthinking introversion say "Regardless of principles — you never had it so good!"

'Public Affairs' Is Program Theme For 20th Century Club

"Public Affairs" was the program theme at the regular meeting of the Twentieth Century Club held Friday, October 24, in the clubhouse.

Mrs. Charles C. Jones, program chairman, in presenting the program, gave the following quotation by Rutherford B. Hayes: "He serves his party best who served the country best."

Mrs. L. H. McCrea gave a paper on "Every Woman, a Qualified and Intelligent Voter." This subject is one of the primary aims of the League of Women Voters, said Mrs. McCrea. She discussed the history of the suffrage movement and creation of the League of Women Voters and of the progress of the league, its accomplishments, and stressed the fact that the league is a non-partisan organization, interested only in issues and never has the league supported candidates.

Mrs. McCrea pointed out that because democracy has survived two world wars has not assured its success. "We have yet to show that it can be successfully adopted to a highly industrialized civilization. We have only begun to assume our responsibility for leadership toward world democracy. Those who are deeply concerned that democracy be maintained and strengthened are honor-bound to act in its interest," she said.

Mrs. J. E. Spencer, in discussing "The Study of American History in Our Schools," said it is essential for those teaching history to make it live, give it color of the times, and learn first hand knowledge of the documents studied. If Americans are to know what their country has stood for through the years, it is essential to study its history and progress. A study of history helps understand the problems that are facing the nation today, said Mrs. Spencer.

Through out the years, man has been trying to develop faster and faster vehicles, was a point brought out in a talk on Safety Laws by Mrs. John Shertzer. "Speed is one of the important factors in accidents, but none of us want to be fined or punished," said Mrs. Shertzer.

"The best safety laws are those in Massachusetts. Here the laws are very strict. A person's license is taken away for driving with one hand on the wheel, an arm dangling out of the window or around a girl. In Massachusetts, for driving while intoxicated, a person's license is taken away for one year on the first offense, five years for the second. The law applies to everyone and there are no exceptions," said Mrs. Shertzer.

The Texas Department of Public Safety is urging all schools to put in driver's courses, said Mrs. Shertzer, and they hope that every youth will be taught how to drive. Insufficient skill is very often a factor in accidents.

I'M FOR EISENHOWER Because —

Why am I, a Texas Democrat, going to vote for a Republican President in 1952? Because I want my children to know our America as a land of opportunity and freedom, not as a country shackled and regimented by the government. I want my children to know that their government is clean and good and deserving of the highest honor that can be bestowed upon it.

I want my children to know what the word integrity means and to learn that meaning from the actions and acts of their government. I want my children to know that Democracy is not a mixture of Socialism and Communism sprinkled sparingly with a pinch of Freedom but that it is a way of life that is based solely upon our Master's teachings.

to Cooking

On an Electric Range, cake icing can be prepared in a regular saucepan. No double boiler needed because the heat's so evenly measured and distributed. No scouring the bottom of the pan, either, because there's no flame or soot.

"Yes, Judy, cooking on our Electric Range is exciting! Electric cooking is so clean, so fast, and so easy!"

"And we certainly make the best use of our Electric Range to cook complete meals... Dad sure loves those delicious roasts, tasty pies and cakes, and he's proud of those economy meals. Our food tastes better, cooks easier, and we save time and energy, too. By the way, dear — those cake layers should be ready by now. That bell you just heard was the automatic reminder. It's saying, 'Cake's done!'"

"You might say that our Electric Range is like an automatic cook. It does the work, and you don't have to worry about it."

"Another nice thing, you don't have to clean the kitchen so often, because there's no smoke and no soot. The kitchen stays cooler, too, because the heat goes into the food, not the air."

DID YOU KNOW...

with an Electric Range you can:

Melt chocolate squares in waxed paper on a surface unit... save natural vitamins and minerals by cooking vegetables with very little water... roast meats perfectly with a minimum of shrinkage... pop corn or sterilize baby's bottles in the deep-well cooker... have delicious "charcoal-type" broiling with no flame? Did you know that housewives everywhere are switching to Electric Cooking, the modern way?

The modern Electric Range is truly automatic. The automatic clock timer starts the oven, shuts it off when things are done — while you are doing other work, or just relaxing!

For real convenience and economy the deep-well cooker can't be beat. You can warm rolls, make stews and soups, bake beans, even cook complete meals in this wonderful cooker!

EXPECTING SOMETHING?

You always get more than you expect — both in value and in quality — when you purchase your food needs from your friendly neighborhood store.
