

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

OUR COUNTRY HAS a new president and just about everybody heard his inauguration on the radio or saw it on television yesterday. And just about everybody we've seen was highly impressed with the way Mr. Eisenhower took over. One man told us that it was the first time he could remember a new president opening his inaugural address with a prayer.

We liked a lot of things the president said. As a word of warning to Russia, he noted that it is better to carry a soldier's pack on your back than the chains of a prisoner.

Another man we met is highly impressed with the selection of the Eisenhower cabinet. It contains practical men who have made a success in their life's work.

THE NATIONAL inauguration kind of overshadowed the big show in Austin where Governor Allan Shivers and his administration took a new lease on political life. The governor has done a splendid job in making our state an excellent leader.

Read in the papers some time ago where the Governor of Louisiana thinks that Governor Shivers would make an able candidate for the Democratic nomination for President in 1956. The Louisianian believes that Mr. Shivers could make the South solid again.

THE FOLKS OVER at Gorman are urging one and all to observe National Peanut Week by eating more peanuts. National Peanut Week is February 1 to 7. We received a bag of Spanish peanuts by mail yesterday from the Gorman business men. Similar bags were sent out from Gorman to all editors in Texas and to others. It seems like a good advertising stunt.

MR. ZAN BURROUGHS of the Cisco Peanut Company will no doubt be strong for observing the peanut week. His plant here, by the way, has recently undergone some more remodeling. They've added to their equipment for making peanut oil. The Cisco plant is a considerable credit to our community. And all they need to put all the fine machinery to work is a good peanut crop.

DOWN AT THE hotel coffee shop this morning an Illinois couple was having breakfast with their two small daughters. It was their first trip to Texas and the little girls, who are television fans, were on the lookout for some Texas cowboys.

One of them approached J. L. Thornton of the feed mill and asked, "Are you a cowboy?" And Mr. JLT had to admit that he wasn't much of a cowboy.

Mr. Red Padget of A-G Motor Company kind of saved the day for Cisco and Texas. He was wearing a pair of handsome boots and the little girls admired them considerably.

As the Illinois people went out the door, we heard one little girl ask, "Mother, will we see any Indians?"

MRS. ARTHUR Thetford of 715½ East 9th Street tells us that she has gone into the crocheting business, specializing in caps, sweaters and booties for babies. She will make these items on order, and if you'd like to order some crochet work you can call her at Phone 481-M.

HEARD ABOUT AN interesting arrangement for naming dogs with other day. This man started with his first dog and called him "one." Every time they got a new dog, the number advanced. Their current dog is called and answers to the name of "Forty Six."

Vogue Cleaners Has New Owners

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dill of Midland announced Wednesday that they had purchased the Vogue Cleaners from Mrs. Lubena Rumbley and that they had assumed management of the business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dill bring to Cisco some 25 years experience in the cleaning business. For the past 18 years Mr. Dill has operated a shop in Midland. He has also owned and operated shops in Oilton and Erath. He is a graduate of Stinson Cleaning and Dyeing School in Lubbock, having finished his work there some 15 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Dill are natives of Eastland County. They were raised in Rising Star where they lived until moving to the Panhandle area.

They have moved to Cisco and are living at 1502 Avenue N. They are members of the Church of Christ.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(FHTNC)—Ski-plane or seaplane? The day is almost here when you won't be able to tell that it's a seaplane in the air. That deep hull seaplane silhouette may be about ready to give way to a new ski-plane look. When about to land, the ski-plane will extend its hydro gear, even as land-based planes now drop their wheels, and touch down smoothly on the water. It will then taxi on the wheels, and roll up the ramp without any wheels in the skis, the ski-plane will roll up the ramp without any assistance and taxi to its parking space.

LOBOES DROP CONFERENCE TILT AT STEPHENVILLE ON TUESDAY

Cisco High School's Loboes were missing shots from all angles in Stephenville Tuesday night as they dropped their District 10-AA game to the Yellow Jackets by a 40-26 score. It was the second conference loss by the Loboes, who dropped their first game to Ranger Friday.

Aged Resident Called By Death Tuesday Night

Allan James Moffett, 78, a resident of Cisco for the past 52 years, died at 9:15 p. m. Tuesday following an illness of about a year. He died at his home at 407 East 8th Street.

Mr. Moffett was born on July 18, 1874, in Franklin County, Arkansas. He moved to Cisco 52 years ago from Arkansas and had made his home here since that time. He was married to Miss Lilly Carr in Logan County, Arkansas, on November 7, 1894. Mrs. Carr died on March 22, 1952.

Mr. Moffett was a retired West Texas Utilities Company worker. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at Thomas Funeral Chapel. The Rev. Leman Anderson will conduct the services, and will be assisted by the Rev. E. H. Lightfoot.

Survivors are two sons, C. R. and Donald Moffett, both of Cisco; four daughters, Mrs. C. Y. Owen, Mrs. C. R. Porter and Mrs. H. E. Anderson, all of Cisco, and Mrs. A. B. Baker of Fort Worth; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Looney and Mrs. I. J. Wilson; both of Charleston, Arkansas; a brother-in-law, R. T. Carr of Cisco and six grandchildren.

Burial will be beside his wife in Mitchell Cemetery. The arrangements were in the hands of Thomas Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be J. C. Carr, J. D. Carr, Rueben J. Carr, Odie R. Carr, J. C. Womack and Leo Wiloth, all of Cisco.

Retired Texan Is Active In Movies To Aid Wildlife

AUSTIN, Jan. 21.—A Texan who never lived on a farm until he retired has become a fervent advocate of moves to aid wildlife, the soil, trees, grasses, and waters.

He is J. M. Harris who made a fortune in the cab and insurance business in San Antonio. He and Mrs. Harris have spent a quarter of a million dollars renovating an area along Rebecca Creek near Spring Branch. Their project is described in the current edition of Texas GAME AND FISH Magazine.

Harris has been credited with effecting valuable research in grass seeds by determining which kinds of grass are desirable for different soil. On his own place he already has quadrupled the animal unit carrying capacity on the land.

Down on the creek level, springs feed a chain of ponds ranging up to a mile long and 25 feet deep. Giant cypress trees decorate the sylvan setting. Harris has definite ideas why people should be more interested in conserving natural resources.

"Our country was founded by people who knew the value of land and water and trees. The roots of the soil are in every American home."

"By heritage, everyone has the right to own a piece of land. And if a lot of money was in misdirected effort could be devoted to conserving our natural resources and into beautifying the countryside, our country really would be a showplace."

Mr. and Mrs. John James Haynie of Denton spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Haynie. Mrs. J. F. Benedict accompanied them home for a week's visit.

Mrs. N. A. Brown, Mrs. F. M. Hooks, and Mrs. J. M. Flournoy attended the funeral services of Henry Peterson in Stamford today. Mr. Peterson was a former Ciscoan.

HEADS UP! Watch for the New Rocket OSBORNE MOTOR COMPANY Eastland, Texas

In the first half the usually accurate Loboes hit only two of 14 free throws and three of 25 field goal attempts. They picked up in the last half and were trailing by only four points with three and a half minutes to play. Inability to pass the ball in during the final minutes of the game cost the Loboes their conference game.

Jim Webb was high point player for the Loboes by scoring 12. He trailed Eric Looney of Stephenville who made 19.

In the first of the three game series Tuesday night the Lobo "B" team lost to Stephenville 28-31, and in the second game the Lobo Queens lost their first conference game of the season to the Stephenville girls by a 46-40 score.

The three teams play Comanche in Cisco Friday night. The Friday night games will end the first round of the double round robin play.

Varied Plans In Use To Obtain Funds For Polio

AUSTIN, Jan. 21. — Desperate for money to fight polio, Texas citizens are tapping all resources to accelerate the 1953 March of Dimes, according to General Robert J. Smith, state MOD chairman.

Everything from quilting bees by mothers to mass school solicitation by pupils have been used successfully. Many sports phases have been utilized with special benefit games. Newspapers, radio and television stations have concocted fund-raising stunts.

Such ingenuity helped one school reach its "quota" before the campaign formally opened January 2. That was the Rotan, Texas, Junior High School, which based its successful drive on a contest between school rooms.

Other Texas schools have sponsored local March of Dimes. San Angelo High School's basketball team became the vehicle for another effective effort. Different merchants offered to contribute $1 each for every point made by the team in a certain game. Several other Texas cities are adopting this plan.

Alice women gave a MOD style show; San Antonio Firemen played the Policemen at Basketball in another benefit; Abilene Carpenters union gave a dance; Breckenridge women made a quilt for auction over Station KSTB, and in Denison, the Rev. V. D. Price, pastor of the Sunshine Baptist Church, made a MOD sermon from his bed where he has been confined following a polio attack.

Kerville realtors sponsored a March of Dimes movie. Lufkin, Austin and other cities diverted all dimes placed in parking meters to the MOD fund. Texarkana Elks backed a special MOD radio show. Houston's top entertainment talent collaborated to put over an evening long benefit show. Beaumont's youngsters added to the cash jackpot with a roller skating party. The Texas A & M field house will be the scene of a Bryan community March of Dimes sports show January 23.

General Smith said "countless other communities are using countless other schemes to guarantee success of this state-wide effort that must not fail."

New Strawn Sand Oil Pool Is Seen For Area Northeast City

Progress Noted In Grain Crops Of Most Areas

Preparation of land for spring planting was very active in mild, open weather on Texas farms the early part of the past week. Late in the week a cold front roared across the state, bringing freezing temperatures to all areas except the lower valley, with light snow, sleet, and freezing rain over the eastern half of the state. Wheat in the northwest area, which continued dry, was coming along very slowly. In north Texas and eastern plateau counties, small grains continued to make satisfactory development and were supplying some grazing.

Conditions in the commercial vegetable areas were favorable for most crops, to escape damage from the low temperatures over the past week-end. In the lower valley a light frost was reported for the Raymondville section. Cloudy weather and rains ranging from a trace at Brownsville to nearly an inch in the extreme west end of the valley reduced the frost hazard in these areas. Light rains in the coastal bend that preceded near-freezing temperatures the morning of the 18th helped prevent crop damage.

Crops in the Laredo section were subjected to around-freezing temperature but no damage was expected. Movement of all types of hardy crops was active until over the week-end. Preparation of land for spring crops was active in all areas. Planting of watermelons was started in the Falfurrias section. Most of the tomato seed-beds were planted in the Yoakum area and planting in east Texas was active. Transplanting of onions continued fairly active in the north Texas area until field work was stopped by the recent cold spell. Considerable land is prepared for the Panhandle summer potato and onion acreages.

Rescue grass and clovers were developing slowly but fall oats were supplying fair to good feed over the eastern half of the State where moisture was adequate. Supplemental feeding of cake and roughage was increased in all areas as chilling wind, snow, sleet and freezing rain moved across the State late in the week. The return of mild temperatures at the end of the period eased the situation and permitted ranchmen and farmers to again stretch dwindling feed reserves.

Stock Show Group To Visit Rotary

Some 40 Fort Worth Fat Stock Show boosters will visit Cisco Thursday and attend the weekly luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club, President Con Collins reported today. The visitors are due to arrive at 11:50 a. m. by special bus, coming here from Albany.

Mr. Collins was informed that the group will be prepared to present the program at the Rotary meeting. The visitors are due to make a number of other stops in West Central Texas during the day. A string band was expected to accompany the visitors.

DISTRICT ONE LEADERS NAMED FOR MOTHERS MARCH ON POLIO

District One leaders for the Mother's March on Polio, scheduled here from 7 to 8 p. m. on Thursday, January 29, met Monday at the home of the district captain, Mrs. Jeff Gregory, to complete plans for the canvass in their assigned territory.

The section lieutenants expressed the hope that by careful planning they could lead the other districts of the city in the amount of contributions in the coming Mother's project.

Mrs. Gregory, in discussing the organization work, urged the second lieutenants to study the map of their section in order to be ready to do a complete job in the canvass. She pointed out that District One includes the area bounded by the T&P Railroad on the north and the city limits on the south, by Avenue J on the east and the city limits on the west.

Each section lieutenant was asked to announce the names of Turn To Page Four

BILL (Doc) RAINEY

Former CJC Cage Star Earning 2nd Letter At M. U.

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 21. — Bill (Doc) Rainey, 6-0 forward, is now earning his second letter for Midwestern University. He is a very aggressive performer who gives his best in every game.

Doc will be remembered in Levelland because of his performances for that high school quintet. After graduating from high school, Rainey enrolled at Cisco Junior College. He was a star performer for Cisco for two years. He gained attention from area basketball coaches because of his spirited play in junior college competition. He earned all-conference and all-state honors while at Cisco Junior College.

Rainey saw little action in his first year at Midwestern. His spirit remained high, however, and he played his best whenever he got into a game. His hustle and morale building were big factors in the fine record of 20 wins and 7 losses posted by the 1952 Indians.

A lack of height hindered Midwestern last season. This year the Indians have corralled some big boys to man the forward positions. Since Doc is only 6 feet tall, once again he has found his path blocked as he constantly strives to gain a starting position.

So far this season Rainey has hit 40% of his field goal attempts and made 70% of his free tosses good. He has been used in close games to steal the ball and to drive hard up the middle for crisp shots. He is a good defensive player who stays with his man like a leech.

Doc plans to coach basketball after graduating from college. First he wants to help the Indians toward a winning basketball campaign.

Operator Sinking Another Project

A new Strawn oil pool appeared in prospect today for the Eastland County area eight miles northeast of Cisco after the Don H. Peaker No. 1 Viola Cesario had been completed as a producer. A second well in the same area was drilling below 1,100 feet today.

Peaker, a Pueblo, Colorado, oil operator, completed the No. 1 Cesario and placed it on production over the weekend. No potential figures have been released. It was learned unofficially, however, that the well was flowing oil with good gas pressure.

An initial test had produced oil from the top of the Strawn sand. Deepened to 1,718 feet, the well was found. Location of the No. 1 Cesario is in Section 39, Block 4, H&TC Survey.

The second well, near the discovery, was being drilled with cable tools. Some 2,000 feet to the southwest, Peaker had a failure in his No. 1 Raney Heirs. This well was plugged and abandoned recently.

The new discovery is located near the Highway 183 "Y" northeast of Cisco.

A new oil test was drilling ahead today on the A. A. Hansen land six miles south of Nimrod. It was the Woodson Oil Company No. 1 Hansen. Drilling operations began last Sunday in the 3,300 foot project. Location is 900 feet from the south and 330 feet from the east lines of Section 11, A. Winfrey Survey.

Two other recent tests announced for the county include the Duncan Drilling Co., Big Spring, No. 1 Tristworth, three miles southwest of Eastland. Location was 82 feet from the south and 860 feet from the east lines of Section 27, Block 4, H&TC Survey. Proposed depth is 3,750 feet.

The other new project is the Standard Carbon Co. No. 1 E. D. Putty, one mile north of Dede-dema. Location is 869 feet from the north and 3,900 feet from the west lines of SA&MG Survey 13. The test is slated to go to 3,900 feet with cable tools.

Two recent area failures were reported. The Connally-Jackson No. 4 Theresa Weddington, a Cisco West Lake Sand project just southwest of town, has been plugged and abandoned after failing to find the Lake sand producing formation. Location was in Section 86, Block 3, H&TC Survey.

The Southern California Petroleum Corp. No. 1 Mrs. L. Baught, four and a half miles southeast of Cisco, has been plugged and abandoned after failing to find production in a deep test. Location is 415 feet from the north and 330 feet from the east lines of the southeast quarter in Section 26, Block 3, H&TC Survey.

Mrs. A. Z. Myrick and Miss Eunice Clammer attended the funeral of Mrs. Will Myers in Ranger Tuesday.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

AUSTIN — Austin's big show — the 53rd Legislature — is now well under way.

The legislators got down to real business this week. Last week the members convened for only one day.

They heard the message of Gov. Allan Shivers. And in the House, Speaker Reuben Senterfitt appointed committees.

Then the House and Senate adjourned until this week.

Even so, progress was ahead of schedule. Usually, House committees cannot be appointed for some time after the election of a speaker.

But, Senterfitt's election was assured in advance. Thus he was able to have his appointments ready on the opening day.

Texas can increase its spending for necessary services without large bosting of taxes.

That was a cheerful note in the governor's address to the members.

More money is coming in from existing revenue sources, so that the governor's recommended $172,529,000 for general revenue appropriations is within the officially estimated state income for the next two years.

The budget is about $6 million higher than the present level of state spending.

Additional money for roads, Governor Shivers believes, should come from another penny-a-gallon tax on gasoline. Otherwise, if the Legislature wants to spend more money, it should increase the natural gas transmission lines "if it can be done in a legal way."

Helping the House with its business is Chief Clerk Clarence Jones of Trenton, who was re-elected to that position without a contest.

Former Representative Amar Briggs of Denison defeated Former Representative W. A. Swindell of Commerce, 74 votes to 71, for sergeant-at-arms. But, Swindell will be chief doorkeeper. Fred Caldwell of Austin was re-elected reading clerk.

A legislator, like anybody else, has to look out for himself. Thus it was that both houses finally passed Senate Bill No. 1, which appropriates $750,000 for mileage and per diem pay of members and employees and expenses of the session.

Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg was selected president pro tempore of the upper house. Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, by virtue of his elective office, is the regular presiding officer of the Senate.

As the session moved along, there seemed to be a fair chance that no new taxes would be imposed upon the people.

In his opening speech, Speaker Senterfitt echoed Governor Shivers' sentiments on economy. "Let us demonstrate that economy is truly an essential part of good government," he said.

Then, in his committee appointments, Senterfitt showed that he meant business — economy business. For example, he named a conservative, Representative Max C. Smith of San Marcos, as chairman of the appropriations committee, which passes on legislative spending.

Harmony was also a goal of the legislators, and a plea for this objective was voiced by Representative Bill Daniel of Liberty, brother of Senator Price Daniel.

On the opening day, Rep. Daniel asked to make Speaker Senterfitt's election unanimous "so that there may be a mark of harmony, unity, and accord. We should give our support to Mr. Senterfitt. So much must be done."

Rep. Daniel had at one time considered opposing Senterfitt for the speaker's job, but later withdrew.

There was a sad note in the whole procedure for four-year-old Ronnie Senterfitt, who saw his father sworn in as speaker. Ronnie complained that there wasn't any ice cream.

Among the dozens of bills before the legislature is one to outlaw the "Dallas Special," a long-bladed knife frequently employed in cutting and stabbing affairs.

the chief executive said.

He recommended salary increases for state workers and teachers, and the construction of a $6,725,000 tubercular hospital and buildings at the Texas School for the Deaf.

Freed from the legislative halls after adjournment, the newcomers among the solons were invited to attend an orientation seminar conducted by the University School of Law.

Twenty-five speakers, including public officials, university professors, lawmakers, and others told the freshman legislators something about their jobs.

But it was old stuff to Senator George Moffett of Chillicothe. He is in his 23rd year in the legislature and has served longer than any other lawmaker in Texas history.

The runner-up is C. E. Nicholson of Port Neches, who has served 22 years in the House.

Another veteran is Rep. S. J. Isaacks, 83, of El Paso. He was sworn in for the first time on January 13, 1903, but he has not served continuously and is now in his ninth term.

Land Commissioner Bascom Giles termed the action an outrage and Attorney General John Ben Shepperd declared the state might file an injunction.

The President's act did not increase his popularity around the statehouse.

President-Elect Eisenhower has said not once but often that he favored returning the tidelands to Texas and that he would sign such a bill if passed by congress.

Truman has twice vetoed such legislation.

Two activities of the 1951 legislature gained considerable attention. One was its decision and determination to re-district the state; the other an equal determination to outlaw gambling.

Strange as it may seem, the 1953 legislature had to resort to lottery to decide the length of terms of its members.

Senators filled a jar with capsules and each drew for the number that designated the number of years he shall serve. Even numbers meant two-year terms; odd numbers four-year terms.

Peculiarly enough, Weinert, Aikin and Martin set up the drawing, and all three drew short terms.

As a result, many of the old-timers will run again come the next election. Among the short-termers are A. M. Aikin, Jr. of Paris, Carlos Ashley of Llano, Searcy Bracewell of Houston, Jep S. HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

State Health Officer Dr. George Cox, in commenting on the widespread attack of influenza which has hit some 400,000 Texans the past week, says it is "a mild form, but a mixed infection — much more difficult to treat."

The telephone rings. There's a patient in your house, and it might be the doctor calling. What information should you have for him and are you ready to take his orders?

First, know the patient's temperature. Keep some kind of a permanent record on the patient, including the temperature and the rate of pulse and breathing (taken every four hours if the doctor wishes), plus such things as the amount of fluids and food taken by mouth and the amount eliminated by urination and any unusual symptoms observed.

If the patient is a new mother, you should report any sudden rise in the temperature, a sudden or marked increase in bleeding, a painful area or lump in the thighs or legs, a change in the breasts, or headache. For the new baby, you should report if there is wrinkling of the skin or a "glassy" appearance of the eyes, which may mean the infant has lost a lot of fluids from the body. Also, if the bowel movements are frequent or watery, the doctor should be informed without delay. Something else to watch for is a "sinking in" of the soft spot of the head.

The patient's record should be handy when the doctor calls (or when you call him), plus a pencil and paper. Write down any orders given. When the doctor makes a house call, he will write them out if you ask. Anytime that you don't understand his orders, ask to read them back.

Use common sense in following the doctor's orders; for instance, don't awaken a baby to give a powder for rest. However, the doctor wants to be consulted on any big decision. Never take too much for granted. Report back to him as he requests. Don't give medicines or treatments on your own hook; that should be his responsibility.

During an acute illness in which the doctor is expected to check back with the patient, don't call another doctor unless you have his permission or unless you have discharged him. The reason for this is simple: The first doctor is bound in conscience to carry on treatment until he has made adequate arrangements through the patient or his family for another doctor to care for the patient. If there is a possibility of a serious operation or of the patient's death, you may ask your doctor to call in another physician for consultation. He will be glad to follow your request.

TO Renew the Spirit that Built Our Country

IN THE FAITH WE PLACE IN GOD... in ourselves as individuals... in our fellow men and... in Freedom — rests the future of our nation!

The faith of our country's founders was a sturdy and simple faith.

They believed in the Power which sustains through any crisis.

Upheld and guided by that Power, they believed in their own strength to do: to achieve, to build.

And, thus sustained and fortified, they believed that Freedom was more than an abstract dream: they made it an accomplished fact.

This Freedom is our children's birthright — ours to hand on to them and to their children — undiminished, unspoiled.

This is a sacred trust — one in which we must not fail.

Yet these are troubled times. What can we do?

We can do as those before us did... renew the spirit that built our country.

We need... Faith in God, Who answers prayer... Faith in ourselves, and in our work... Faith in our fellow men, their courage and their honesty... Faith in Freedom... and in its strength!

When we have done these things — and only then — can we be secure in the knowledge that our children will be free and our country safe.

We must not fail.

Write today for a copy of the article, "Our Four Great Faiths", and for reprints of this advertisement. Mail request to: J. B. Shores, Director, Employee-Public Relations, Texas and Pacific Railway, Dallas, Texas. No charge, of course.
